GIVE!
BLOOD DONOR DAY
JANUARY 11th

PRICE TEN CENTS

FREDERICK AYER, JR.
Republican Club Panel Speaker

GEORGE FINGOLD
Republican Club Panel Speaker
WINCHESTER WOMEN'S
REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club will meet on Wednesday evening, January 9, 1952 at the Church of the Epiphany. The President, Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, announces that this will be an open meeting to which husbands of the members and all others interested are cordially welcome. There will be a social hour with coffee from 7:30 to 8:30. The program will be a panel discussion on international, national, and state politics entitled "This is the Hour".

Of the eminently qualified speakers, Sumner G. Whittier of Everett has been editorially described as a fiery legislator and the ablest speaker in the State Senate. He is a young business man who has risen through the ranks of public life to his present high political position. First serving in Everett city offices and elected by tremendous majorities in a democratic stronghold he was sent in 1942 from the Malden-Melrose-Everett district to the State Senate, and has been re-elected four times, and at present is Assistant Majority Floor Leader. He is also chairman of the Senate Committee on Civil Service and on Election Laws and currently a member of the Senate Committee on Public Welfare, Cities, and the powerful Rules Committee.

Returning to Winchester for a second time this club year, Frederick Ayer, Jr., is recognized as an outstanding young Republican leader. A lawyer by profession, Mr. Ayer served with distinction in World War II, has been a member of the F. B. I. and in 1947-48 served as Chief of Intelligence and Security to the American Aid mission in Greece. He has been a student of foreign affairs since 1937 when he first reported Nazi and Communist attempts to invade Europe, and in 1949-50-51 he reported the European situation in a series of articles for the Massachusetts press. His career reached a climax when he was the Republican nomination for attorney-general in the 1950 state election, and in his first political contest he received 868,871 votes to lead his party.

SEN. SUMNER G. WHITTIER
Republican Club Panel Speaker

Former Assistant Attorney General George Fingold of Malden, one of the most active criminal lawyers in Middlesex County, has served as assistant under two Attorneys General, having been in charge of the investigation and prosecution of criminal matters. Through his dynamic prosecutions he has cleared out grafting office holders in various parts of the Commonwealth and is best remembered for his probe of the Boston racketeers whose he achieved a record of 54 convictions against 4 acquittals. Mr. Fingold has the reputation for always having something worthwhile to say in words that arrest the attention and stir the imagination of his audience.

This discussion of current political problems by the three members of the panel under the careful supervision of William Mullins will provide an interesting prelude to the campaign issues of this year. The song, "The Grand New March" which was written by Mrs. Walter W. Winthrop of Winchester and introduced at the Republican Preparedness Dinner last November, will be featured during the evening.

MASONS HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Nearly six hundred Masons and their friends assembled at the Town Hall on New Year's morning to enjoy the 32nd annual Open House, sponsored by the Masonic Bodies of Winchester.

Wor. Ralph L. Purington, presiding Master of William Parkman Lodge introduced visiting Masonic dignitaries, and then introduced his Junior Warden, Herbert T. Wadsworth, who was in charge of the entertainment. The author of the reaction indicated that this was greatly to their taste.

Promptly at 11:55, Wor. Ralph Purington introduced Wor. Preston E. Corey, Past Master of William Parkman Lodge, who presented Most Worshipful Thomas S. Roy, Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts. The toast to the Grand Master was offered at 12 noon, and the Grand Master responded with a few short, but inspirational remarks.

The entertainment concluded at 1:30 p. m. after which refreshments were served at the rear of the Hall. Another successful New Year's Get-together was over, with all feeling that this had been instrumental in starting the New Year in the right way.

LT. DANA COMMENDED

Lt. Richard B. Dana, son of Mrs. Ione Dana of Rangeley road, who is now an instructor at the Naval Air Base, Corpus Christi, Texas, recently received letters of commendation from Commander Air Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, Admiral John J. Ballentine and Lt. Commander Ralph E. Elliott, Jr., Naval Air Base Command at Jacksonville, Florida, for outstanding performance of duty as the personnel officer of his squadron. In addition, the letters make mention of the fact that his excellent performance in rocket and glide bombing competitive exercises contributed materially to the squadron achieving the Battle Efficiency "E" for the year 1951.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Bowman (Gloria Herrick) announce the birth of a daughter, Patricia, on December 1st in Caracas, Venezuela. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Herrick of Winchester and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Bowman of Santa Barbara, California.

POIRIER—CLENNON

Miss Mary Adele Clennon, daughter of Mrs. Eugene Martin Clennon of Wedmore avenue, and the late Mr. Clennon, was married on Saturday morning, December 29, at St. Mary's Church to Francis Lester Poirier, son of Mrs. Francis Poirier of Mt. Pleasant street, and the late Mr. Poirier. Poinsettias and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar for the 10 o'clock ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Fr. Charles Anadeo, who was also celebrant of the nuptial mass which followed.

Given in marriage by her brother, Gordon Clennon of Winchester, Miss Clennon had her older sister, Mrs. Robert Pynn (Yvonne Clennon) of Hartford, Conn., as her honor attendant. Mrs. R. Richard Carens of Winchester (Marie Poirier), sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Barbara Lynch, also of Winchester, were bridesmaids, and Miss Pamela Carens of Winchester, small niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and satin, fashioned with a court train of matching lace and long lace sleeves. Her fingertip-length veil of bridal illusion and Chantilly lace was caught to a lace crown and she carried a white missal and eucharist lilies.

Both the matron of honor and bridesmaids wore dresses of Christy green satin with matching hats and muffs of red poinsettias, holly and variegated ivy. The flower girl wore a poinsettia-red velvet frock with hat to match and carried holly with white chrysanthemums.

R. Richard Carens of Winchester, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Grody Grindle of New York City, Eugene Clennon, brother of the bride, and Everett Twombly, both of Winchester; and Robert Pynn of Hartford, Conn., brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, who assisted in receiving with the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Clennon, mother of the bride, were navy blue crepe with a pink felt hat and a corsage of pale pink orchids. Mrs. Poirier, mother of the bridegroom, wore the same flowers with her tushia crepe gown and matching pink hat.

After a wedding journey through the south by automobile Mr. Poirier and his bride will make their home in Manchester, Vt., where the bridegroom is teaching and coaching at Burr and Burton Seminary.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Winchester High School, the bride also graduated from Edgewood Park Junior College in New York and from Boston University.

Mr. Poirier attended Brown University and was graduated from Tufts College where he was a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He received his Master's Degree from Tufts and during World War II served in the Army Air Corps. He now holds a lieutenant's commission in the United States Army Reserve.

TO WED TOMORROW

A small wedding will be held at 8:00, Saturday evening, January 5th, when Miss Ruth Elizabeth Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erland P. Lawson, will become the bride of Edward Christian Heptig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Heptig of Arlington.

The ceremony will take place at the Augustana Lutheran Church in Cambridge with Rev. Martin Cornell performing the ceremony. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and her sister, Mrs. Charles McLeman, Jr. (Violet Lawson) will be matron of honor and only attendant. Mr. Heptig will have John Kessler of Winchester as his best man.

A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, after which the newlyweds will leave for a month's stay in Florida.

OF WINCHESTER INTEREST

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Harmon Chapman of Greenfield and Tammworth, N. H., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss E. Paulette Chapman, to David Bulard Loomis of West Newton.

Miss Chapman, whose father was formerly minister of the Unitarian Church in Winchester, was graduated from the Stoneleigh-Prospect Hill School, studied at the Lowthorpe School at the University of Massachusetts and was graduated from Rhode Island School of Design. Mr. Loomis, a senior at the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance, prepared at Belmont Hill School and is a graduate of Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potter Wear of "Stony Meadows Farm", Penlynn, Pa., and "Sunset Hill", West Manchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Cassady Wear, to James I. Stockwell of South Hamilton, formerly of Winchester.

Miss Wear was graduated from Miss Porter's School, Farmington, and is attending Radcliffe College. Mr. Stockwell was graduated from Phillips Andover Academy in 1948, and is a senior at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he is a member of St. Anthony Hall.

JOHN W. DOWNS
NEW LAW FIRM ANNOUNCED

An announcement of much interest to Winchester was that of the formation on Wednesday, January 2, of the law firm of Downs & Parsons, joining professionally two well known citizens of the town, John W. Downs of 4 Dartmouth street and William L. Parsons of 6 Bruce road. The new firm will have offices at 11 Beacon street, Boston, in the Lawyers Building.

Both Mr. Downs and Mr. Parsons are graduates of Boston University Law School, the former having practiced 38, and the latter, 43 years.

Mr. Downs, a resident of Winchester for 20 years, has been for the past 36 years general counsel for the Insurance Federation of Massachusetts. He has taken an active interest in town affairs and has served as chairman of the Winchester Finance Committee.

Mr. Parsons has been particularly active and well known in town affairs, having been a Selectman, chairman of the Finance Committee and for 24 years a member of the Planning Board, serving as chairman from 1924 until 1948, when he retired. He has just retired after 43 years with the legal department of the Boston & Albany Railroad, advancing from an assistant to general counsel in 1916, and finally to general attorney, a post he held at the time of his retirement.

A graduate of Bates, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Mr. Parsons has lived in Winchester where the bridegroom is teaching and coaching at Burr and Burton Seminary.

NEW PARKING REGULATION ON THOMPSON STREET

The Board of Selectmen has restricted parking activity at the southern end of Thompson street at the request of the Federal Government to permit the operation of a new trailer-truck recently hired by the government to run from the South Station to Nashua, N. H., making deliveries which will include mail to Winchester. The trailer will greatly facilitate local delivery.

Postmaster Thomas Gilgan relayed the request of the Government to the Board of Selectmen and in accordance with that request the Selectmen have forbidden parking between 6 and 8 p. m. in the 2nd and 3rd parking spaces from Waterfield road on the westerly side of Thompson street. No other restrictions have been made in connection with parking on that street.

LOCAL BUILDING EXCEEDS TWO MILLION DOLLARS

Building in Winchester totaled $2,493,255.00 for 1951, according to figures made public by the Building Commissioner, William B. MacDonald.

A total of 442 building permits were issued, including 177 for new single family houses, 1 two-family house, 16 new garages, 1 service station and two tool-houses. These permits totaled $2,336,360.00, and additional $356,875.00 coming in alterations to dwelling houses, stores and the George Washington School. Permits for plumbing, gas, heating and wiring totaled 1,659.

MISS CLARK ENGAGED TO MR. DINGWELL

Mrs. Charles Clark of Belmont announces the engagement of her daughter, Constance, to Mr. Irving William Dingwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving W. Dingwell of 184 Mystic Valley Parkway.

Miss Clark is a senior at Jackson Tufts and is a member of Alpha Omicron Psi. Mr. Dingwell graduated from Winchester High School and from Tufts College. He is now doing graduate work in Engineering at Yale, and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi and Tau Beta Pi.

CLASSES IN ENGLISH

All interested in attending should contact the School Department at the office of the Superintendent of Schools of Washington street.

BONANSINGA—DANA

Miss Joyce Maureen Dana, daughter of Mrs. Ione R. Dana of 42 Rangeley road, and Mr. Ralph F. Dana of Malden, was married at St. Mary's Church on Wednesday afternoon, December 19, to Lt. (j. g.) Frank Bonansinga, NATU, NAS, of Glenview, Ill., son of Mrs. Irma DeHarty of Stow. Rev. Robert Boyle performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, and a reception followed at the Lincolnshire Hotel in Boston.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Dana had Miss Janet M. Blackman of Winchester as her honor maid. Bridesmaids were Miss Lois Hottel of Winchester, Mrs. Francis Stacey, Jr., of Woburn, cousin of the bride; Miss Joanne McKenzie and Miss Eleanor Keach of Melrose; Miss Lois Smith of Medford and Miss Margaret Boudreau of East Boston.

The bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a court train and a yoke of illusion lace beaded with pearls and sequins. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a Juliet cap that matched her dress and she carried a white prayer book with matching orchid.

The honor maid wore a dress of pale orchid satin with a net overskirt and satin stole and a small net cap decorated with a matching satin bow. White gloves and silver slippers completed her costume and she carried an old fashioned bouquet.

The bridesmaids wore identical dresses and caps like those of the honor maid in pale sea-green satin and net. They too carried old fashioned bouquets and wore silver slippers and white gloves.

Mrs. Dana, mother of the bride, wore a floor-length dress of blue tulle with an orchid hat and matching orchid corsage. Mrs. Bonansinga, mother of the bridegroom, wore green orchids with her cocoa crepe gown, trimmed with silver and white beads, and her white off-the-face hat.

Harry Gaudette of Stow was best man, and the ushers comprised Ensign Conrad Dana, U.S.N., brother of the bride, and John O'Brien of Winchester; Francis Stacey of Woburn and Edward R. Hill of Stow.

After a wedding trip to New York City and Bradford Vt., Lt. Bonansinga and his bride will make their home at Lake Zurich, Ill.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and will receive her degree from Jackson College at Tufts in January. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Lt. Bonansinga, who is a Naval Aviator, is a graduate of Tulane University and Southwest Missouri Institute at Lafayette, La.

GIVE BLOOD—JANUARY 11

You have heard it on the radio! You have seen it on television! You have read it in all the papers!

What are you going to do? If some member of your family is in Service or will need an operation, could you understand why other people do not give blood? There are many reasons why you and other members of your family cannot give blood?

If you are in doubt, the physical examination given at the time of donating blood will surely tell you whether you can safely give.

Have you had jaundice? If it were not hepatitis, you can probably be taken. Let the doctor of the Red Cross tell you.

Have you had malaria? Many can now be taken. Let the doctor decide.

Are you anemic? According to recent blood tests, Winchester is, but Let The Doctor Decide!

Can you sit safely at home and say "It is dreadful that more do not give" when you did not try?

Other communities are taking extra days to get every needed ounce from all who are offering. Winchester should have 200 appointments on January 11.

Will you still be proud of Winchester after January 11?

The ages are from 18 through 59 years.

All Winchester 2-2300 during business hours on Winchester 6-1287-M any time, for appointments. Hours: 1-7 P.M. First Congregational Church.

POLICE ELECTED

The Board has withdrawn Everett road as a coasting street. Winford Way has been set aside for coasting in accordance with the Town By-Law, Article III Sec. 8, and will be posted. Motorists must use caution.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Callahan of Tremont street announce the engagement of their daughter, Claire Louise, to Mr. Samuel Forrice of Woburn.

MISS RUTH GAQUIN
ENGAGED TO MR. CUNNINGHAM

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Gaquin of 51 William street, West Newton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. William T. Cunningham, II, son of Dr. and Mrs. Allan Rowe Cunningham of Winchester.

Miss Gaquin is a graduate of Newton High School and the Katharine Gibbs School, class of 1948. Mr. Cunningham, a veteran of 18 months service in the Marine Corps, was graduated from Winchester High in 1946 and is currently completing his studies at the Boston University School of Public Relations, from which he will be graduated in June.

"S'POSIN"

Name Chosen For Winton Club Cabaret

Wednesday night, January 2, saw the opening tryouts for the 31st Annual Winton Club Cabaret which is to take place in the Town Hall Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, January 17, 18, 19. As usual there was an enthusiastic turnout for this year's show, for the cast enjoys its part in this fund-raising hospital benefit. Not only do they act for a worthy cause, but they find gaiety, good fellowship, and much to laugh at as they rehearse night after night under the direction of David Jones.

Hurry and make your reservations now! The theme is new, the costumes are new, and even some faces are new among, of course, the many familiar ones. Friday night promises to be the popular evening for many because of its extra dividend of dancing and a special "Dream Come True" feature. This is the only night some lucky couple can win an "all expenses paid" week-end at the Plaza in New York. Call Mrs. Robert Smith, WI 6-1948, for Friday and Saturday night reservations. Call Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, WI 6-0005, for Thursday night and balcony tickets.

NOMINATION PAPERS OUT

Mrs. Kugler First of Town Candidates

Mrs. Louise A. Kugler of Winslow road is the first to take out nomination papers as a candidate for election to town office at the annual election in March. Mrs. Kugler is a candidate for School Committee.

The other candidates who have taken out nomination papers are running for re-election. They are Marshall R. Pihl of Mystic Valley Parkway for the Board of Assessors, and James H. Conn of Brooks street, for the Park Board.

ENGAGED TO MR. WHORF

Mr. George R. Harmer of Brockton announces the engagement of his daughter, Mary Evelyn, to Mr. David Faxon Whorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Whorf of Central Green.

Miss Harmer is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs School of Boston. Mr. Whorf prepared at the Choate School in Wallingford, Conn., and was graduated from Amherst College.

Both young people have government positions in Washington, D. C., and will be married in the capitol city on January 19, the ceremony taking place in the chapel of Washington Cathedral.

MISS MCGOWAN ENGAGED TO MR. PURINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. McGowan of 14 South street, Woburn, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. Newell W. Purington, son of Mr. Louise M. Purington of 39 Pond street, Winchester.

CAN IMPROVE PRESENT MEDICAL SETUP

Rotary Speaker Blasts Government's Health Proposal

John F. Conlin, M. D., of York road, director of Medical Information and Education for the Massachusetts Medical Society, delivered the following address before the Winchester Rotary last week. So many requests have been received for the reproduction of his address that it is reproduced below.

"Opposition to further governmental paternalism as manifest by the Administration's compulsory national health program is by no means a defense of things as they are. We would be something more than foolish if we attempted to convince ourselves that everything we are doing in the fields of health and medical care is satisfactory. The simple truth of the matter is that nothing we are now doing is good enough. We can talk at length of the many and often startling advances which have been made in the diagnosis and treatment of many diseases. We live longer. Fewer of our children die. Fewer mothers die in childbirth. But a great deal remains to be done.

"Local health departments and preventive medical services in most instances leave much room for improvement. School health services for our children, industrial health programs for workers and a great deal more of our total health program leaves much to be desired. There are shortages and maldistribution problems of various professional health people. Medical hospitals are overburdened. A severe shock to the family budget. Medical care as it becomes more complex also becomes more costly.

"The problem of developing and extending better medical care for all Americans is inescapable. It is urgent. We are concerned here not with the existence of the problem but with the conflict of ideas concerning the matter of solving the problem.

TEACHERS INVITE PUBLIC TO HEAR DR. BENJAMIN

"Public Schools Serve Democracy" will be the timely subject of an address by Dr. Harold Benjamin, professor at the George Peabody College for Teachers, in Nashville, Tennessee, when he speaks at the high school auditorium on the evening of January 16. Dr. Benjamin will be sponsored jointly by the Winchester Teachers' Club and the School Committee as their first co-operative effort in presenting a discussion of broad educational problems to the people of Winchester and Greater Boston.

Dr. Benjamin has established an outstanding record as educator, author, soldier, and public speaker, and it is believed that his speech will interest all those concerned with the future of education and democracy. The meeting is open to the public without charge. Special invitations have been extended to members of school departments in neighboring communities.

MISS HASKELL ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Haskell of Lakeview terrace announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Leslie Haskell, to Lt. Weldon G. Kerr, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kerr of Wooster, Ohio. Announcement was made last Sunday at a tea given by Mr. and Mrs. Haskell at their home.

Miss Haskell graduated from Chapel Hill School in Waltham and is now a senior at the College of Wooster. Lt. Kerr is a graduate of Wooster and is presently stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., having received a commission after completing Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Ga.

NEWMAN—SELBERG

At a ceremony Saturday, December 29, in the chapel of the Andrews Lutheran Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., Renee Janet Selberg, of Winchester, became the bride of Denver W. Newman of Pittsburgh. The Rev. J. Victor Murland officiated.

Miss Selberg was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Henry Peimar and was given in marriage by her father, Mr. William M. Selberg of 14 Robinson Park. Mr. William McPeak served as best man. A reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peimar followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Newman will reside in Pittsburgh where Mr. Newman is affiliated with International Harvester Company.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Vito DiBenedetto of 29 Harvard street announce the engagement of their daughter, Theresa to Joseph Conti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conti of 19 Sixth street, Medford. A June wedding is planned.

WILLIAM L. PARSONS
WILLIAM L. PARSONS RETIRES

William L. Parsons of 6 Bruce road, retired January 1 as personnel attorney of the Boston and Albany Railroad which he joined 43 years ago. All of his service was in the legal department. Mr. Parsons, who is president of the Winchester Trust Company, has long been prominent in the civic affairs of the town.

He was born in New Portland, Maine, and graduated from Bates College in 1905, a Phi Beta Kappa student. He then entered Boston University Law School from which he graduated in 1907. A year later he entered the employ of the railroad as an assistant in the legal department and in 1916 was appointed assistant counsel. He took over as general attorney in 1950.

He has long been prominent in the affairs of Bates College, of which he has been a member of the board of trustees since 1939, and is now a fellow of the college. During his service with the Boston and Albany he has taken a prominent part in railroad legal matters and in 1943 and 1944 was chairman of the conference of trunk line counsel.

Mr. Parsons is married and has one daughter, Mrs. F. E. Guilfoil, of Utica, N. Y.

CROSS STREET PARKING

The Board of Selectmen has forbidden parking on the northerly side of Cross street from the railroad bridge on the main line of the Boston & Maine westerly to Holton street.

The increased parking of cars in this area has brought many complaints both from local residents and from out-of-town motorists. The Selectmen's action in limiting parking there is the result of these complaints.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Eileen M. Nelson to Mr. Joseph G. Duffy, son of Mrs. Katherine S. Duffy of West Roxbury, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Nelson of 130 Mount Vernon street. Mr. Duffy is now serving with the Army at Fort George E. Meade, Maryland.

THE MISSION UNION GUILD

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church of Winchester will meet on Tuesday, January 8, 1952. The regular morning sewing group will be supervised by Mrs. Hugh Grimes and Mrs. Mabel Ward. Luncheon at 1:00 p. m. will be served in the Social Hall by Mrs. K. Foster Cleaves, Mrs. Raymond V. Hayward and their committee.

Mrs. James S. Allen, Director of Mission Union will preside over the 2 o'clock meeting and the Worship Service will be conducted by Mrs. Daniel F. Morse, Jr.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Ponnammal Paranyothi of Perumal, India. Her parents, who became Christians with their two sons and daughter were most anxious that their children should get a reasonable education, so Ponnammal was sent to the village school for two years, where she first learned to read and write on palm-leaf leaves with an iron pen. As she was the only girl there she was sent to the American Mission Boarding School, "Arupuketta," a distance of 25 miles which she walked back and forth once a month, as there were no roads, only foot paths. After three years there she went to Capron High School at Madras, from where she graduated at the age of sixteen, standing as highest in her class. She attended the Women's Christian College and St. Christopher's Training College at Madras, receiving her B. A. and Master of Arts Degrees. She also taught for ten years in the High School, was Head Mistress of the Orinda Childs Peirce Memorial High School for girls and was Principal of the Capron Hall Teachers Training School. Besides school work, she was secretary of the local church in Madras, Vice-President of the Young Woman's Christian Association doing social work in adult education and was appointed as an advisory member of the School Vigilance Association by the government of Madras. This association takes care of teen-age delinquent girls.

Studying now at Boston University on a year's leave of study, under the auspices of the American Board of Foreign Missions, 14 Beacon street, Boston, Ponnammal will be able to return to her country with a wider horizon and richer experience, which she has gained by her contact with many people and getting what she wanted from books, lectures, etc.

All women of the church and their friends are cordially invited to this meeting to hear about Our Other Parish, India.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

Happy New Year! all Fortnightlymen. I hope everyone of you had a Happy Christmas, too. Many of the members participated in the singing of carols on Christmas Eve on the Common around the Christmas tree. If you did not sing it was not Mrs. McCullough's fault, as she was certainly "Johnny on the spot" with the song books.

Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham did a fine job directing, while Henry Pitts, Fred Felmet, Norman Clark and T. Parker Clark furnished the music. Too much praise cannot be given Miss Norma Farrar for her beautiful rendition of "Oh, Holy Night." Thanks to you all.

The next Literature group meeting will be held Monday, January 7, at 2:00 p. m. in the Public Library. All Fortnightly members are cordially invited.

The next regular Fortnightly meeting will be held in the Masonic Hall at 2:00 p. m. Monday, January 14. The program, "Evenings at the Chinese Opera," sounds most fascinating. The speaker will be Mrs. Herbert D. Lamson. She has lectured extensively on customs in China which are different from our own, the beautiful things the Chinese have made, their music, symbolism in Chinese art as well as the Chinese Opera. In spite of political strife the glory of China's past can still be enjoyed through these means. In addition to Mrs. Lamson's talk there will be a fashion show of Chinese costumes with accompaniment of recordings of Chinese music. The models for the show will be members of the Fortnightly. A Chinese tea will conclude the program for the afternoon. See you there, and for heavens sake, don't forget your Birthday Bag of pennies!

PARISH PLAYERS HOLD TRY-OUTS THIS EVENING

This evening (Friday) at 7:45 p. m. the Parish Players will hold try-outs for their winter production, "The Late Christopher Bean", in the social hall, Parish House, First Congregational Church. A most cordial invitation is extended to men and women interested in acting, and to those who enjoy backstage activity, to come to the try-outs and to join the Players.

Mr. Harlan F. Grant, head of the Drama Department, Boston Conservatory of Music, will direct.

"The Late Christopher Bean", Sidney Howard's Pulitzer Prize winning play which was written for Pauline Lord — and in which she starred for several seasons — is an American classic. It is a play which has endeared itself to the hearts of the people throughout the country.

The Marycliff Guild will hold its first meeting of the new year at the Academy in Winchester on Tuesday evening, January 8th.

Highlight of the evening will be Mrs. Russell R. Mueller's lecture on the art of flower arrangement. Chairman of the evening will be Mrs. Albert Sanford of Melrose, assisted by Miss Catherine Kelley, Mrs. Charles Collins, Mrs. Bernard O'Connor, Mrs. Joseph Burdatti, Mrs. Antonio Kironac, Mrs. Michael Bevilacqua, Mrs. Frank De Cecco, Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Mrs. Francis Nowell, Mrs. Albert Palombo and Mrs. Albert Fitzgerald.

KOREAN AMPUTEE OFFERS BLOOD

The first Bay State amputee to return home from the Korean fighting volunteered his blood at the Boston Center last week. Because he received thirteen pints himself at the time he lost his leg, this veteran had to be rejected because he had had malaria within the past year. The blood is needed so badly out there, he says, that he would like to do anything in his power to bring home to the people the seriousness of the situation.

Also, at the Boston Blood Center during the past week, a blind man gave his blood so that others may live.

It is enough to make each and every one of us hang our heads in shame when we think of the physically handicapped; the crippled and the blind doing our share. Soldiers, before being shipped, are giving their blood so it will be there when they need it. Actually it is a pretty sad commentary on the apathy of the civilian.

The Bloodmobile will be in Winchester next Friday at the First Congregational Church. Appointments are being made now at your local Red Cross office. The number is Winchester 6-2300 or Winchester 6-1287-M. It is a simple, painless procedure to give blood. You won't be allowed to give it if you are not able; that is, if you have a cold, if you are overtired, etc. A doctor will go over your medical history and examine you before you go to the donor room. Coffee is served as a pickup after donating. It won't take more than a half an hour at the most.

It is really very little to ask. But it will mean a great deal to some man in an icy foxhole this winter. Give your Gift of Life.

Plymouth's Cranbrook Four-Door Sedan for '52

Here's the new Plymouth for 1952, a more beautiful, smoother operating, easier riding, safer car which features 46 important improvements. There is new beauty in the car's road-hugging, sweeping appearance, and color harmony perfection in the new interiors, which are Tone-Tailored with quality fabrics. The luxurious interiors blend beautifully with the exterior colors. The car has all the features for comfort, economy, safety and durability which have become traditional with Plymouth. Shown above is the new four-door Cranbrook sedan.

Smooth, Easy Performance Featured in New Plymouth

The new Plymouth for 1952 will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the United States, Friday, January 4.

A long list of improvements—46 in all—has been incorporated in the engine, the brakes, the electrical system, the chassis, and to the inside and outside of the body.

The new car, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth, has been improved and refined to provide "the most gentle ride, the smoothest engine performance and the greatest safety ever built into a car for the lowest price field."

Exceptional engine smoothness is produced through a newly designed combustion chamber; brakes are stronger and longer-lasting; Plymouth's famous Safety-Flow ride has been made even more comfortable by improvements in the springing and to the Oriflow shock absorbers; and the car's beauty is enhanced by numerous styling refinements.

The Plymouth has a road-hugging, sweeping appearance, accentuated by changes in the external adornment. A new luxurious standard for interiors is attained with the high quality upholstery fabrics in harmonious colors which blend beautifully with the instrument and door panels.

The smart hardtop club coupe, the Belvedere, is the pace-setter in the lowest price field with its new concepts in styling and beauty. The car has glistening, lively two-tone colors which set it apart and give it the continental look. The color used on the roof follows the Belvedere's streamlined contours around the rear window and down over the rear deck. Sparkling chrome molding outlines the top and carries back to separate the two colors at their junction at the rear quarter panel. Interior of the Belvedere is luxurious, with colorful quality fabrics and vinyl blended in perfect harmony with the shades used on the exterior. Long-wearing carpeting—also in complementary colors—rounds out the ensemble. The following color combinations are available for the Belvedere: Suede Tan with Sable Bronze top; Belmont Blue Polychromatic with Sterling Grey top; Mint Green with Black top.

There are ten body types in the new Plymouth line, available in an array of eight regular, and two special sparkling new colors. The traditional interior roominess and the many "high-priced car" features for which Plymouth has been distinctive have been retained throughout the new line.

SMOOTH PERFORMANCE
A new, smoother flow of power results from the newly designed combustion chamber in Plymouth's famous floating power engine. The six-cylinder, 97 horsepower engine has a 7 to 1 compression ratio. Longer life for both the main and rod bearings is achieved through an improved type of base metal.

To further insure smoothness of performance and faster getaway, several refinements in the new Synchro-Silent transmission permit faster, easier shifting, and more rapid and positive engagement of gears. The rear axle is improved, and there are provisions which permit more accurate gear and bearing adjustments.

Operating temperatures up to an additional eight degrees without the hazard of losing water or anti-freeze result from further improvements to the pressure-vent radiator cap, which provides a pressurized cooling system.

STURDY BRAKES

The traditionally sturdy Safe-Guard Hydraulic brakes have been given greater ease of operation, and much longer life. New Cyclebond brake linings provide greater braking area and longer braking life. There are heavier backing plates on both the front and rear brakes; an improved drum design on the front brakes for smoother operation and better cooling; an easier operating brake pedal return spring; and a redesigned steering knuckle to provide more positive protection from road splash.

Passenger and driver comfort has been increased with improvements to Plymouth's "Safety-Flow ride." New cushioning-type ports in the Oriflow shock absorbers, increased travel in the front springs and a new interliner for the rear springs provide quieter operation, reduced steering wheel shock, less friction and an improved ride.

Quicker starting in hot or cold weather with less drain on the battery is assured by the new "Follo-Thru" anti-kickout feature of the starter, the foremost among numerous changes in the electrical system. Greater visibility under adverse driving conditions is provided by a ten per cent increase in the speed of the electrically-operated windshield wipers.

BEAUTIFUL STYLING

Luxury and color harmony are the keynotes of the beautiful upholstery and trim selected for the new Plymouth. A fine selection of long-wearing, quality fabrics is available in shades which blend beautifully with the car's exterior colors. An attractive "Lustre-Tone" instrument panel features controls which are conveniently colored and lettered for easy reference while driving. Newly designed to further beautify the Plymouth are the ornament, the top molding, and the medallion on the hood, and the license light and name plate on the rear deck lid. The sweeping, low appearance of the car is further accentuated by the lowering of the rear fender molding.

Solex tinted safety glass is available throughout the Plymouth line as optional equipment at small extra cost. The glass reduces interior temperatures on hot summer days, minimizes fading of upholstery or seat cover fabrics, and reduces sun glare. Among the many features which have been retained in the new Plymouth are the wide, deep chair-height seats, the ease of entrance and exit, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, and safety-rim wheels.

There are ten body types in the new Plymouth line: the Concord series includes a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and the popular all-metal Suburban, and its country club cousin, the Savoy; the Cambridge series has a four-door sedan and a club coupe; and the Cranbrook series includes a four-door sedan, a club coupe, a convertible club coupe, and the pace-setting Belvedere.

WINCHESTER OUTCLASSED LEXINGTON

Winchester High successfully opened defense of its Middlesex League co-championship by burying Lexington High under a 67-27 score at the high school gym last Friday night. A turn-away crowd that filled every corner of the gym saw the Indians at their impressive best as they rolled a 40-14 lead at the half. All but one of these baskets was scored inside the foul line as the locals were connecting on lay ups as the result of their fast break, strong rebounding, or well-executed set plays that made the Lexington defense look impotent.

After a slow start the Red and Black, sparked by Johnny Farrell, raced away to a 20-7 lead at the end of the first period. Because his starting five was functioning so smoothly Coach Bartlett kept them intact over the first half of the second period before substituting, and the locals rolled to a prohibitive 40-14 lead at the half. Winchester made it 54-19 at the three-quarter mark as they used 14 players in the second half to give the reserves some valuable game experience.

Even though this was the highest point total of the season for the Indians, once again it was their strong defense that was outstanding as Lexington was unable to work the ball under the basket and was forced to rely on long set shots. In three games to date the Sachems have allowed their opponents an average of only 31 points while scoring an average of 58 points themselves. Doug Hawkins and Stowell Symmes were the shining stars for Winchester as Hawkins controlled both backboards and Symmes gave a beautiful exhibition of speed and drive. It was a nice demonstration of strong team play and team power, however, as indicated by the tight defense and the distribution of scoring as 13 out of the 14 performers hit the scoring column.

The Winchester Seconds hosted their varsity brothers offensively as they walloped the Lexington Seconds 71-45 in the preliminary game. Neil Muncester with 14 points and Stu Thomson with nine points led the scoring parade for Winchester as 14 players divided the scoring. Fran Murphy and Dave Pratt played good ball in a starting role for the Seconds while Pete Perkins looked good from among the many reserves that were used.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Best Wishes for the coming year to the many friends of the Winchester Girl Scouts. This year's scouting program is a big one and popular with the new members as well as the seniors—proved by the fact that over 200 Brownies have registered. This fact is most encouraging to all concerned except the 3 Brownie troops of Wyman School. These Brownies are most eager to be a part of the plan but must only stand and watch, since they have no leader. No Brownie or Scout troop may meet or participate in the program without an adult leader—a good rule and never violated, but to these three groups of Brownies it is a real hardship. If you can help in any way, even for a few weeks, do call the Scout office.

The Senior planning board has announced plans for a bowling team. Details of the plan will be in next week's Star.

The roller skating party was a great success. There were two exhibitions put on for the 185 Scouts who went over to Bal-A-Roue last Friday, and music was provided for the whole time for all skaters.

The Council announces the time of the Annual Meeting as January 16, Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m., at Epiphany Church. All committee chairmen are urged to contact their members to be present to hear the Girl Guide Leader from Finland, who will be the speaker.

Miss Eleanor Dudley, who is engaged in Government work in Washington, was in Winchester over Christmas visiting her sister, Virginia, at their home on Maxwell road. She returned to the Capitol New Year's day.

LOOKING BACK HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PAST YEAR

DECEMBER 14th, 1950: Fire, destruction, complete loss of Christmas stocks.

DECEMBER 16th, 1950: Back in business across the tracks in the "market." A wonderful response from everyone. A show of what real loyalty, what real friendship means.

MARCH 22nd, 1951: Reopened at our original location on Mount Vernon Street. A new store, complete new stocks... now a truly fine men's store in Winchester. A new policy of better service... better merchandise. Now you can find the unique, something different at Chitel's. Also—a Boys' department has been added.

AUGUST 1951: Our 41st Anniversary Sale. We go on record in the "STAR" with a new policy. Prices reduced to completely "sell out" seasonal stocks. In this way we can always have for you each season new merchandise in the latest styles and in the newest fabrics.

DECEMBER 1951: This year we go through the Christmas season with no mishap. Your wonderful response to our new store through the year and during the Christmas season is a virtual testimony to what we strived to achieve.

All we can say is "thank you!" You've been grand, and we sincerely appreciate your patronage and your confidence in us.

NEW 1952 PLYMOUTH AT LOGAN & CHRUSZ

The new Plymouth for 1952 will go on display here and throughout the United States on Friday, January 4, Logan & Chrusz Motors, Inc., announced today.

A long list of improvements—46 in all—has been incorporated in the engine, the brakes, the electrical system, the chassis, and to the inside and outside of the body.

The new Plymouth may be seen here at Logan & Chrusz Motors, Inc., 7 Shore road, Winchester. The new car, according to D. S.

NEWS FROM OUR MEN OVERSEAS

Editor of the Star:
The Winchester Homefronters were very glad to hear from 1st Lt. Paul G. Blake, USMC, Korea; Pvt. Joseph Derby USA, Korea; Cpl. Durost, Germany; and WO Peter J. Evangelista, Germany. The cards and notes from these men, and others, are on the bulletin board in the Winchester Library. The writer hopes that all our men in the Services are receiving the Winchester Star, inasmuch as they are asking for news from home, and this is the easiest way to give it to them. Naturally, their families send more personal news. Speaking directly to our men away from home—you all say "you are glad to know you are not forgotten" and you are surprised to hear from comparative strangers. Forgiven? Never. You may be away but you are in our minds constantly; and while your names may be different, you are all "our boys." You might be surprised to know how closely we follow you on television and on our maps of Korea, how closely we follow events in Germany and elsewhere in Europe. War is a great leveler, and people who might be "strangers" to you when you left Homefront are now united in a Homefront with you as their main point of interest. If there is anything we can do for you at home, let us know. A safe return for each and everyone of you is our New Years wish for 1952.

Cordially yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye, PR Chairman
The Winchester Homefronters

ATTENTION MEN OF SELECTIVE SERVICE AGE

Editor of the Star:
The period for enlistment of men to have received preinduction physical notices, from the Draft Board, has been extended to 31st March 1952. The deadline had been 31st December 1951.

Enlistment in the Air Force has again been restricted and a waiting list has again been set up at the Medford Recruiting Station. Men will be processed in the order in which they appear on the list.

It is essential that young men who will receive pre-induction physical notices this month, and those who have already received them, keep in touch with their Draft Boards and, if they intend to enlist, see Sgt. Boyson or Sgt. Sullivan at the Medford Recruiting Station, City Hall, Medford—or the writer. A man who has received his induction notice Cannot Be Enlisted.

Directives change so constantly that it is impossible to give long-range information; it will benefit you to keep in touch with us.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

FROM THE COMMUNITY RELIEF COMMITTEE

Editor of the Star:
The Winchester Community Relief Committee wishes to thank all those who so generously aided in its efforts to bring cheer to the less fortunate at Christmas time. They especially wish to thank the Star for publicity; the individuals who donated money, food, candy, fruit, coal, clothing, canned goods for Christmas, and also the Christmas trees; the many societies, clubs, churches and Sunday schools.

We are deeply thankful to the Genbill Toy Store, 282 Washington Street, Ronell's Toy Store, 25 Thompson Street, for toys and games for the children; the En Ka Society; and to the Winchester Branch of the Salvation Army for dinners, clothing and toys. The response to our appeal was heart-warming, and we sincerely thank all who helped in any way. For the Committee, Mr. George T. Davidson, Chairman; Mrs. Harry C. Sanborn, Treasurer; Miss Nellie M. Sullivan, Secretary.

FROM THE RED CROSS

Editor of the Star:
The Winchester Chapter of Red Cross has completed its most profitable year, — profitable in the sense that more of our people gave more of their time and money to the work of its many volunteer services.

I am happy to tell you that we consider the cooperation given us during the past year by the Winchester Star contributed immeasurably to our success in 1951.

Wishing you and your staff a Happy and Prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,
Lewis K. Moore
Chapter Chairman

HORACE SANFORD RIDLEY

Horace Sanford Ridley, a member of the Board of Directors of the New England Confectionery Company, died Monday morning, December 31, at his home, 44 Swan Road, after a long illness.

Born May 22, 1887, in San Francisco, Mr. Ridley came east as a boy and was educated in the Malvern schools, later living for a time in Somerville. He was living in Boston when he married Mrs. Helen Gale of this town, widow of Dr. Harold Gale, the ceremony taking place in New York, April 14, 1934. Since that time he had resided in Winchester.

Mr. Ridley spent his entire business life in the confectionery industry, starting as a clerk with Chase and Co., one of these firms that later merged to form the New England Confectionery Company. He completed fifty years with the company before retiring from active business in 1948. He was president of the company from 1932 to 1947, and served as chairman of the board in 1947 and 1948, continuing as a member of the board after giving up active association with the business.

Mr. Ridley was a Mason, a member of John Abbott Lodge of Somerville, and was also a member of the Algonquin Club, the Beacon Society of Boston, Brae Burn Country Club and the New England Confectioners Club. He leaves his wife and two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Follett of Berkeley, Cal., and Miss Mildred Ridley of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Church of the Epiphany with the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, officiating. After cremation at Mt. Auburn, the ultimate interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

FRANCIS CHARLES NORTON

Francis Charles Norton of 51 Washington Street, a Canadian veteran of World War I, died early Tuesday evening, January 1, at the Winchester Hospital after a brief illness. He became suddenly ill at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was removed to the hospital where he died at 6:40, his unexpected passing coming as a severe shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Norton was the son of John and Catherine (Gibbons) Norton. He was born September 22, 1897, in South Boston, and grew up in that city, being educated in the Boston schools.

During World War I Mr. Norton enlisted in the Canadian forces, serving with the 9th Field Ambulance and winning the D. C. M. (Distinguished Conduct Medal) while in action in France. He was a member of the Crosscup-Pishon Post of the American Legion in Boston and of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron of Halifax, N. S. At the time of his death he was assistant to the president of Thomas Worcester, Inc., Boston engineering firm.

On June 23, 1923, Mr. Norton married Mary P. McCoubrey of Montreal, P. Q., in that city. She survives, with a son, Laurence D. Norton of North Cambridge; a daughter, Elizabeth Patricia Norton of Winchester; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Aiken of Wellesley and Mrs. Charles Jago of Quincy; also a brother, Joseph M. Norton of Milton.

The funeral was held this Friday morning from the Lane Funeral Home on upper Main Street. Requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

JOHN McELHINNEY

John McElhinney of 28 Shepard Court, retired employee of the Highway Department, died Wednesday noon, January 2, at his home after a brief illness that followed a long period of failing health. He was 80 years old.

A native of Ireland, Mr. McElhinney had lived in Winchester for half a century. As a young man he was for 25 years a leather worker at the Winchester plant of Beggs & Cobb on Swanton Street. He later worked for the Highway Department until his retirement some years ago.

Mr. McElhinney leaves his wife, the former Margaret Faulkner; five daughters, Mrs. Arthur Norcross of Long Beach, Cal., Mrs. Henry Heitz and Mrs. James Noland of Winchester; Mrs. John McCarthy and Mrs. Edward Kazanian of Somerville; a son, John H. McElhinney of Winchester; fourteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from the Lane Funeral Home on upper Main Street Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. Requiem high mass will be celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church at 9. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, East Woburn.

CAN IMPROVE PRESENT MEDICAL SETUP

"One school of thought would have us believe that the problem is simply too great to be solved within the framework of our traditional way of life. Free enterprise has failed. Only federal government has the ability, the money and the planning and organizing machinery for solving a problem of such tremendous scope. This is the solution of the planners who infect the Federal Security Administration in Washington. This is the preferred solution of all the starry-eyed dreamers who would have us exchange our hitherto of freedom and individual responsibility for the mess of pottage of the bureaucratic socializers.

"We simply cannot solve our health problems by simply sloughing off of personal, group, local and state responsibility. We have already delegated too many local activities to our federal government. There is widespread concern over long list of federal taxation. Much of this burden is, of course, inescapable. The cost of past, present and future wars and interest on the astronomical national debt are obligations which must be met.

"But the time has certainly come to demand an accounting of our federal public servants. Much of the activities of our federal government must have been simply arrogated unto the monstrous federal bureaucracy which our tax dollars support. A careful and complete review of the total peace-time activities of our government in Washington is long overdue.

"There is much concern over graft, influence peddling, waste, duplication of effort and dishonesty and efficiency extending even into high places. Mink coats, R. F. C. Committee hearings and much more have given us pause to think. "Our Government, our Constitution, our Bill of Rights are under serious attack. The present Administration is something entirely different. The Hoover Commission has set down for us a record of waste and inefficiency in our Administration that should seriously concern us. The Administration's record in health and welfare direction is certainly not one which should lead us to dump a matter so highly personal as our individual health and medical care into their hands.

"There is a voluntary solution to our difficulties. Over 15,000 organizations of Americans are on record in its favor. They are recorded in stout opposition to the regimented, bureaucratic, collectivized so-called "security" of a compulsory socialist health program. The growth of pre-payment, budget basis, voluntary health insurance programs is most vigorous. Millions of Americans are flocking toward the many voluntary health programs which are constantly improving their extent and coverage to meet the unexpected costs of catastrophic illness.

"Legislation has been enacted to improve local health and preventive medical services in Massachusetts through the Union Health Department Act of 1949. Vigorous efforts are underway to improve school and industrial medical services throughout the Commonwealth. Emergency medical care services have been markedly improved during the past two years. A grievance committee functions through the Massachusetts Medical Society and the State Board of Health and Discipline. Recourse may be had here in cases of overcharging by physicians, failure to render proper care, etc.

"There is a strong and vigorous program underway to improve present services and to make these more widely available. This can and will be done to meet the challenge of making the best possible medical care available to all Americans. This must be done at a price they can afford to pay or at a cost against which they may insure or we can make such services available to certain parts of our population supported in whole or in part from public or tax funds. This we are already doing. We can do it more efficiently and more economically.

"Santa Claus has not yet entirely departed. The hearsed Santa has in the minds of many replaced the more austere Uncle Sam who dwells in Washington. The philosophy of "give us this day our daily bread" — baked in Washington — "Washington is my shepherd; I shall not want" has many adherents. Too many of our people look to the Great White Father in Washington for the fruits of enterprise which our forefathers taught us to seek out for ourselves. For every responsibility we shrug off we lose yet another individual freedom.

"Every day is Christmas in Washington."

MRS. CARMELA VESCI

Mrs. Carmela Vesce, wife of Carmine Vesce of 43 Swanton Street, and a long time resident of Winchester, died Sunday, December 30, at her home after a long illness. Born in Italy January 11, 1870, she had made her home in Winchester for 60 years.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Vesce leaves five daughters, Mrs. Rose Luongo, Mrs. Louis Molinaro, Mrs. Angelina Jacobellis, Miss Gertrude and Miss Mary Vesce, all of Winchester; fourteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the Lane Funeral Home on upper Main Street with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church.

Rev. Fr. William Walsh was celebrant. Rev. Fr. Charles Anadore, deacon, and Seminarian Harry Cassidy, sub-deacon. Six grandsons of the deceased, Dominic and Robert Jacobellis, Carmine and Anthony Luongo, and Carmine and Dominic Molinaro, were bearers. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, East Woburn.

FRANCIS C. McGRATH

Woburn Man Long
Winchester Ticket Agent

Francis C. McGrath of 15 Newbury Street, Woburn, who died Saturday, December 29, will be remembered by Winchester commuters as ticket agent for many years at Winchester Station of the Boston & Maine Railroad. He was in the Boston & Maine service for 45 years until his retirement several years ago.

Mr. McGrath was born in Woburn 70 years ago, the son of Terence and Alice (O'Donnell) McGrath. He was widely known in Elks circles through his active association with Woburn Lodge, which he had served as exalted ruler.

Mr. McGrath leaves his wife, Delia A. McGrath; two sons, Francis C. Jr., of Wakefield, and John J. McGrath of Portland, Maine; two daughters, Mrs. Alice M. Peterson of Woburn and Mrs. Mary F. Chadwick of Stoneham; and seven grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late residence with requiem high mass celebrated at St. Anthony's Church in North Woburn. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

DR. QUINN'S MOTHER DEAD

Dr. Milton J. Quinn, widely known physician whose home and office is on Church Street at the entrance to Rangeley, was called to St. Joseph, Missouri, on New Year's Day by the death of his mother, Mrs. James Quinn.

Besides Dr. Quinn, there are surviving a daughter, Irene, of St. Joseph; and two sons, Theodore J. Quinn of St. Joseph, Mo., and Francis J. Quinn of Louisville, Ky.

BIRTH

Lt. Robert E. Dickson, Jr., D. C., USN, and Mrs. Dickson are the parents of a daughter, Carol Diane, born November 28, in the hospital at the Naval Air Station in Argentina, N. E. where Lt. Dickson is stationed, and he and his wife are living. Word of the birth only recently arrived in Winchester.

Mrs. Dickson is the former Priscilla Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Andrews of Gloucester. The paternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. R. Earl Dickson of Wilson Street.

MISS LORING, MR. FRIZZELL ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Loring of Woburn announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lila Marie Loring, to Richard Arthur Frizzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Frizzell of 64 Church Street.

Miss Loring is a graduate of House in the Pines Junior College and Chandler School for Women.

Mr. Frizzell was graduated from Burdett College and is attending the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Andrews, Jr. (Betty Wharf) are the parents of a daughter, Rosamond Capen Andrews, born December 20, in Lewiston, Maine. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Whorf of Central Green.

COASTING NOTICE

The Board of Selectmen has voted to remove Eversett Road from the list of streets on which coasting is allowed, adding Winford Way to the list of streets on which coasting is permitted.

ODIKON GROUP PICKED SINGERS

The Tufts Odikon Singers, who are to be heard at the high school auditorium on Saturday evening, January 12, in a concert sponsored by the Winchester Custodians for the benefit of their relief fund, comprise 30 voices carefully selected by audition from applicants who are members of the much larger Tufts-Jackson Chorus.

All classes in the college are represented in the Odikon group, which is directed by Dr. Thompson Stone of the College Music Department, eminent conductor of the Handel & Hayden Society, who recently directed the Society's annual presentation of "The Messiah" in Symphony Hall.

"Odikon" is a Greek word meaning "Lovers of Song." The Odikon Singers love to sing, and are happy to be heard in Winchester, where there are so many Tufts graduates, especially in this centennial year of the college. Tufts has long been known as the "Singerin' College," having established this reputation under the inspiration of the late Leo Rich Lewis, beloved professor of music at Tufts for many years. Representing Winchester in the Odikon Singers is Thomas Drapau, Jr., son of the School Department's Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, who is manager of the group.

TRAILER TRUCKS TO CARRY MAIL

In line with the Government's aim to cut costs, the Postal Service, starting this week will bring the mail to the local post office, partially replacing the train service.

This new service will arrive here from Boston at 5 o'clock in the morning, the return trip at 6:30 in the evening, all outgoing mail will be taken directly to the South Postal Station eliminating all the rehandling which was necessary when mail was sent by train.

This will make for much faster service as formerly the mail had to be trucked from the post office to the depot, taken from the depot to the North Station by train, then by trucks from the North Station to the South. It can readily be seen the saving in time and money this will effect especially at times when the mail is very heavy such as at Christmas time.

So when you see mail stacked at the North Station next Christmas, you can say to yourself, "I'm glad that mine does direct with no stops from the South Postal Annex to Winchester."

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB

The next regular meeting of the Winchester Toastmistress Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Hope Powell, 7 Lawrence Street, Wakefield, Tuesday evening, January 8th, 1952 at eight o'clock. The toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Edna Crede, Winchester; speakers will be the following: Miss Alice Clarke, Arlington; whose subject is "Participation in Music"; Mrs. Margaret Quirk of Woburn is alternate speaker.

The evening will be Mrs. Lillian Last of Medford and Miss Mae McDonough of Dorchester; the timer will be Mrs. Paula Bennett of Winchester. As well as being hostess for the evening, Mrs. Hope Powell will be topic mistress, and the Chairman of the Nominating Committee will read the slate of officers nominated for the coming term.

WINCHESTER MARINE RELEASED

After serving a year of active duty with the Marines, Sgt. Paul J. Keating, 23, husband of Mrs. Shirley L. Keating of 24 Loring Avenue has been released to inactive duty under a release program inaugurated by the Marine Corps last June.

The program calls for the release of several thousand Reservists monthly until all desiring release are restored to inactive duty.

Keating formerly served with the Marines from 1946 to 1947, and was recalled to active duty in October, 1950.

Paul is well known in the South End of Woburn, being born and brought up in that section. At Camp Lejeune, he served with the Second Marine Regiment, an element of the Second Marine Division.

Before being recalled to active duty, he was employed by the R. H. White Corp. of Boston, Mass.

THANK YOU!

Among the finer things that came to the Editor's desk at the Star during the holiday season were a reproduction of an etching of the "Butter Tower and Cathedral at Rouen" by Ernest Dudley Chase, and a fine Italian toilet leather memorandum, pad from John Volpe. Mr. Chase's reproduction is masterly, and is in form suitable for framing. The memorandum was picked up in Italy by Mr. Volpe during a recent visit to Rome and matches a handsome pair of book-ends which he sent out to friends last year.

How to avoid the Rush

Everybody likes to be waited on promptly. Nobody likes to stand in line. However, there are peak periods in every bank when lines at tellers' windows are likely to be longer. The peak hours are usually around noon and just before the closing hour of the day. The peak days are those that come at the latter part of the week and around the 1st and fifteenth of the month. So, for fastest service, we suggest that you bank early in the day and early in the week. And remember, you never have to stand in line at all when you do your banking by mail through your nearest mail box.

When mailing currency for deposit, it is important that you register the letter.

TASMANIA PUTS WATERPOWER TO WORK

Industrial development is transforming Tasmania — the small, heart-shaped island state which Australians affectionately call "the island" — into one of the most important corners of the Commonwealth "down under."

Tasmania has more potential waterpower than all the rest of Australia put together. The National Geographic Society observes. With huge new hydro-electric plants tapping the rush of water from lakes half a mile high, there is already an electrician in horse for every Tasmanian citizen (a quarter-million in all), turning the wheels of industries which make everything from apple butter to zinc ingots.

Machine-made changes in Tasmania's sharply hewed landscapes, however, do not hide the strange natural wonders of this land of ancient rock. Recently, fossilized trunks of trees believed to be 5,000,000 to 10,000,000 years old were unearthed by roadbuilding crews.

Prehistoric Survivors
The mountains of Tasmania, geologists say, are older than the Alps. Ales on Himalayas. Extremely old, too, are the forms of life, animal and vegetable, which survive on this island isolated by the southern seas for millions of years.

Kangaroos, wombats, "tied bear" koalas, and the web-footed, beaver-tailed, duck-billed platypus are creatures common to both Australia and Tasmania, but are found nowhere else on earth.

Tasmania's "devil" is a vicious black-furred marsupial with formidable teeth which preys on sheep, although no larger itself than a big house cat. The Tasmanian "tiger," actually a marsupial wolf, is one of the rarest of living animals.

There are no longer any pure-blooded Tasmanian natives in existence. The last survivor, died in 1876.

Tasmania was first seen by Europeans in 1642. The Dutch, the "Roaring Forties" drove two Dutch ships under Captain Abel Tasman into the lee of a wild, inhospitable coast. Tasman named the place Van Diemen's Land, in honor of the governor-general of the Netherlands East Indies who had sponsored the exploring expedition.

The island lay forgotten for 130 years. Then Captain Cook, famed English explorer, visited it. Great Britain, learning of subsequent French exploration, established a penal colony at Port Arthur in 1803, and for the next 50 years sent there the cast-offs of the British kingdom.

Treasure Chest
With the last shipment of prisoners, the colony changed its name to Tasmania and made a fresh start. As early as 1820 fine Merino sheep had been imported. Clearings were made in the great eucalyptus forests. The rich red soil yielded bountiful crops.

Coal was discovered early in its history. In 1851 a gold strike was made, and a series of years later a tremendous lode of gold was discovered. Silver and lead, copper, zinc, nickel, osmium and iron today add to Tasmania's treasure chest.

The state's 28,215 square miles in area with outlying islands is the smallest in the Commonwealth — less than one per cent of Australia as a whole. But it has the largest woolen mill of its type in the Southern Hemisphere, gave birth to the civil aviation in Australia, and pioneered in rural education with its famed "area schools."

Harbor, capital and largest city of Tasmania, with a population of 100,000, has one of the finest harbors in the world. To it, and to ports and airfields at the northern end of the island, 130 miles across the southernmost part of the world and named the region King Haakon Land, the National Geographic Society recalls.

The South Pole was discovered by Roald Amundsen 40 years ago, December 14, after a 55-day trek with dog sleds across the great ice shelf. The explorer raised the Norwegian flag on its top.

At the height of the fashion craze for bird of paradise feathers during the eighties and nineties of the last century, some 50,000 New Guinea plumes were annually shipped aboard. So active were the hunters that it was feared the beautiful birds would become extinct.

By the 1920's, therefore, the traffic was banned, and today many of the once-decimated species are again becoming plentiful.

Paraguay and Brazil share Guayra Falls at the head of navigation on the Parana River. Thundering over a precipice three miles broad and more than 100 feet high with the greatest volume of water of any of the world's major falls, separate cataraacts, says the National Geographic Society. Its waters then boil and foam through a deep, narrow canyon for 35 miles.

Guayule, the only native plant grown for rubber in the United States, produces winter rains, then drought for the rest of the year. Its rubber content increases only during the long dry weeks of desert summer. If it gets rain, its foliage grows profusely; but with little rubber.

MEXICO PLANS TO ADMIT 29th STATE

The northern part of Mexico's Baja (Lower) California has enjoyed a decade of phenomenal population growth and is now seeking promotion to statehood.

Mexico at present has 28 states and three territories. The latter are Baja California, North District; Baja California, South District; and Quintana Roo, on the Yucatan peninsula. Northern Baja California, whose capital is Mexicali in the rich Imperial Valley, would become the 11th state in area and the 27th in population if admitted.

Under the Mexican constitution, says the National Geographic Society, elevation of a territory to statehood must be approved by the Congress. A bill to admit the northern part of the narrow, arid and mountainous peninsula that extends south to U. S. California has been sent to the national legislature by President Miguel Aleman.

Population Triples in 10 Years
The northern territory of the peninsula has an area a little larger than W. Virginia. Its population in 1950 was 225,000, nearly triple that shown by the 1940 census, far outstripping gains made by any other area of Mexico.

The closest comparable increase was that of the Distrito Federal around Mexico City, the seat of government, similar to U. S. District of Columbia. Here the decade's population growth was about 67 per cent.

The proposed new state extends southward from the U. S. border to the 28th parallel, which cuts Baja California's 810-mile length approximately in half. It contains the border cities of Tijuana and Mexicali, as well as the resort center of Ensenada on the Pacific coast.

New Water Sources
Much of the agriculture of Baja California is limited to irrigated regions in the North District, not only in the Imperial Valley, but also in the area of San Quintin Bay on the Pacific Coast, some 100 miles by road from the border.

The San Quintin development has been rapid since discovery and development of underground water sources a few years ago. San Quintin also marks the end of regular maintenance on the road that twists from the Pacific to the Gulf of California and back down the entire length of the peninsula to its southern tip at Cape San Lucas.

Near San Quintin are the quarries producing onyx, used primarily for such small objects as ash trays, inkstands and paperweights. One immense piece, however, was carved into a bathtub, trimmed with gold, sold for $10,000. The Peace Memorial at St. Paul, Minnesota, is carved from Mexican onyx.

Rich in Minerals and Fish
Baja California is rich in minerals, and some workings are hundreds of years old. Gold is still taken out of small mines, and at least one big copper deposit has been extensively worked. Lack of fresh water and the generally inhospitable nature of the land, however, caused failure of many attempts at mining projects.

The Gulf of California on the east and the Pacific on the west and south are among the finest fishing grounds in the world. Marlin and swordfish are taken regularly, and commercial fishermen harvest tuna, yellow snappers and other species. The shark has become so valuable for its vitamin-packed liver that many of Baja California's colorful pearl divers have put away their diving gear to become shark hunters.

A NEW WINCHESTER STAR

FOUNDER AND EDITOR
1880 — 1919

T. PRICE WILSON
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER
1919 — 1952

With this issue the Star is enlarging from seven to eight columns. For many years, like so many other weeklies, we issued a six column paper until two years ago, when constantly increasing demands for space made it necessary to go to seven columns, a size we thought would be ideal for a weekly newspaper.

Now we find the seven column page too small and are adding another column. We hope this new size will be adequate for most issues. It is our sincere desire to print everything worthy of publication which comes to the office. In the past we have not always been able to do so. We hope the new eight column size with its full 21 inch long columns will enable us to publish everything that reaches us in time to be gotten in type. We still must ask our correspondents to get their copy to the office as early in the week as possible.

For the benefit of the many newcomers to Winchester who have recently joined the family of Star subscribers we will say that the Winchester Star was founded in 1880 by the late Theodore P. Wilson, father of the present editor and publisher. It was first published on the top floor of the Miller Block, now owned by Joseph M. Donahue and housing his hardware store.

It was next published in an old eight-sided school building on a small hill at the site of Christie McDonald's Bakeshop, moving across the street to Lyceum Building when the then owner, the late George Fernald, remodeled the building in the late Nineties. The Star office in the Lyceum Building was that now occupied by the Winchester Edison office, the press-room being located on the second floor of the building with the big Star press in the basement.

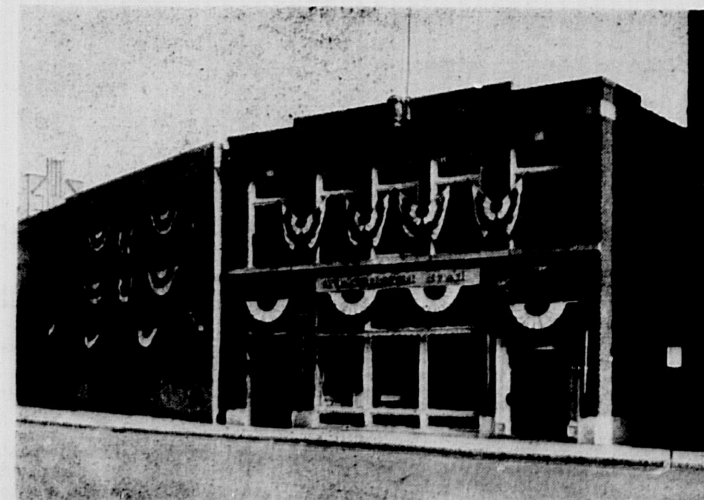

In 1915 the present Star building was completed, and the Star moved in. Its press-room has changed materially since those days, with modern equipment replacing the old presses and Linotypes in an effort to offer a better Star and improved printing service.

Now we go to eight columns in our newest effort to meet the demand for more and more space in the Star. We hope you, our readers and advertisers, like the new size and that it will work to our mutual advantage.

TROOPS IN BORDEAUX REGION FIND COUNTRY FATHERS KNEW

United States airmen and troops moving into the Bordeaux region of France with expanded arms and find themselves in an area familiar to many of their fathers.

Bordeaux was one of the great ports of entry and centers of the AEF in World War I. It was of lesser importance in World War II because of effective harbor blockading by dihard German defenders, with comparatively late liberation, in August, 1944.

The city, fourth in size and third most important port in France, lies in the Aquitaine basin, about 60 river miles from the Atlantic on the Garonne River. The Garonne joins the Dordogne 12 miles downstream from Bordeaux to form the Gironde.

Noted Local Specialties

The Bordeaux area is one of the great wine producing nations. The Aquitaine basin is also the home of delicacies known to gourmets the world over. Perigieux, 66 miles northeast of Bordeaux is famous for its truffles and "foie gras." Truffles are fungi that grow on oak roots underground. They are used much as mushrooms are in cooking meats. Foie gras is the liver of fattened, force-fed geese, and is most often processed and sold as paste — "pate de foie gras."

Troops from the seaboard states will find the oysters of the Gironde estuary and the coastal towns of Marennes and Arcachon good — perhaps equal to any of their home varieties.

American Memorials

At Pointe de Grave at the mouth of the Gironde Americans will find a memorial to the first U. S. troops to land in France in 1917. Another monument commemorates the departure of Lafayette to North America in 1777.

Less than 120 miles southwest of Bordeaux are the famous resort towns of the Basque coast, Biarritz and St. Jean de Luz. Here visitors will find wide, sandy beaches and excellent hotels and restaurants. English is widely spoken, and the coast may make Californians homesick because it resembles in many ways the Monterey Peninsula.

French Piney Woods

Men from the southeastern states will be at home in Les Landes, a wide sandy belt of pine forest that lies along the coast from the Gironde estuary almost to Biarritz. The Landes resemble the piney woods of the southern United States even to the extent that all large standing trees are tapped for turpentine. There the typical stone French farmhouse is often replaced by a rough board cabin.

One hundred and fifty years ago the Landes were a desolate region of shifting sand dunes, swamps and shallow lakes. Atlantic winds pushed the dunes farther and farther east, sometimes forcing whole villages to move.

To counteract this, grass and pines were planted, much as grass and timber windbreaks are placed in the U. S. to prevent wind erosion of the dust bowl. Now the Landes provide France's greatest forest reserve.

MICMAC POTATO PICKERS BUSY WITH AUTUMN HUNTING SEASON

With Maine's annual potato crop harvested, Micmac Indians who joined the state's army of potato pickers, have returned to their regular haunts in Nova Scotia in time to guide late autumn hunting parties through the province's lake and forest wilderness.

The Micmacs are the earliest inhabitants of Nova Scotia, including Cape Breton Island, the northern part of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, says the National Geographic Society.

Their language is perpetuated today in such place names as Why-comegash or "Head-of-the-Water" — a picturesque village on Cape Breton Island, Shubenacadie or "Place where wild potatoes grow" in central Nova Scotia, and Tatamagouche or "Meeting-of-the-waters" on the south shore of Northumberland Strait.

While the Micmacs spend much of their time guiding sportsmen's canoes through the trout-filled chains of lakes, or pointing out deer, bear or moose half hidden by forest background, many also are expert bricklayers or carpenters, trained in government Indian schools.

Once a year the women and girls leave the reservations and, traveling free on the railways, visit home in towns and cities to sell their bright colored baskets.

Portable Showcase

Each carries on her shoulder a load of baskets tied in an immense hoop. When a deer is opened she drops the bundle, slips the huge knot and there before the customer her complete stock is displayed. She can weave a handy shopping size basket in about two hours.

Although the theory of the Micmacs' Algonquian ancestry has been quite generally accepted, evidence pointing to possible Eskimo extraction still interests the anthropologists and historians.

The Micmacs were encountered by the earliest explorers of the northeast coast of America, among them Sebastian Cabot in 1497, and Sieur de Monts, Champlain, and Lescaur in 1605.

Chief Membertou was always an honor guest at the feasts of the Order of the Good Time organized by Champlain to cheer his comrades during the long winter of 1606-07.

The festivities were held at the Port Royal Habitation, the oldest permanent settlement north of the Gulf of Mexico. Membertou and his braves supplied plenty of moose, caribou, beaver, otter, bear, porcupine, rabbit, duck, ruffed grouse, trout and cod for the epicurean order.

Known as the first social club in America, the Order of the Good Time is still active at Annapolis Royal, founded as Port Royal.

Portable Housing

The nomadic Micmacs favored portable wigwams of birch bark that could be folded and packed in canoes. When the snow was deep they hunted on snowshoes. Their big game were trained to track down the big game and to catch beaver under the ice.

Moose robes were dyed their favorite flame color from a plant called bedstraw. Thread was made from moose tendon, beaten until it separated into fine strands. While early French settlers found the Micmacs to be good neighbors, the tribe was fierce and warlike toward the British for more than two centuries. Today the Micmacs are friendly and law-abiding. They number about 3,400, approximately the same as their estimated population in the early 1600's. During the long Nova Scotia winters they live on 40 small reservations.

EARTH CONTINUES SHRINKING GEOGRAPHIC WORLD MAPS SHOW

The world today is "narrower than the United States of 50 years ago."

At the beginning of this century of ever-increasing speed, observes the National Geographic Society, it took at least four and a half days to cross the United States from New York to San Francisco by the fastest possible means, a railroad train.

Now a United States Air Force B-50 bomber, refueled four times in the air, has circled the world non-stop in three days, 22 hours, and 46 minutes. Any person with the necessary fare, passports, and taste for haste can make the circuit by scheduled airliners in a week or less. Jets, rockets, and atomic power promise to shorten the time to shrink the earth still more.

To meet the need for an up-to-date picture of global geography, the Society has just issued a new World Map — its ninth since 1905. After painstaking preparation of the master map by National Geographic cartographers, more than 2,100,000 copies in ten colors have been lithographed for distribution to members, schools, libraries, and government agencies.

Centered on the Americas

The new map, 41 by 26½ inches, is slightly larger than the old one. It reflects up-to-the-minute knowledge obtained by explorers, oceanographers, airborne cameras, and many other means. Scores of its 5,488 place names are new since the Society's eighth World Map, issued in 1943: Israel, Jordan, Indonesia, Pakistan; Formosa for Taiwan, Djakarta for Batavia, Krung Thep for Bangkok, to cite a few of the many.

Newfoundland has become Canada's tenth Province. Iceland is a Republic, no longer tied to Denmark. Ireland has given up British Dominion status, which Eireland has taken over. Poland has moved some 50 miles to the west. The map shows de facto situations not internationally approved, such as Russia's seizure of Latvia, Estonia, and Lithuania. It also shows Prince Charles and Air Force Islands in Foxe Basin north of Hudson Bay, recently charted and appropriately christened by Canada.

Ancient Greeks, Alexandrians, and Romans centered their maps on the Mediterranean, where, according to Socrates, they lived "like ants or frogs around a marsh." Early Christian mapmakers made Jerusalem the center of their world. The new National Geographic World Map is centered on the Americas, which, the Society observes, are the current source of leadership, aid, and hope for the preservation of freedom in older lands.

Tells Time, Lists UN

The map employs the 48-year-old Van der Grinten projection, which shunts into the polar regions most of the inevitable distortion in picturing the round earth on flat paper. These areas are, accordingly, omitted from the world panorama and are shown separately in twin insets which give accurate pole-centered pictures of the earth's top and bottom. The North Polar inset shows, for example, how short is the route between Russia and the United States by the Arctic back door.

By looking at a clock and the World Map inset showing time zones, one can tell in a moment what time it is anywhere in the world.

Another inset lists the 60 United Nations, shows the Atlantic Pact countries, and the territories in the Soviet grip. On it can be traced the "Iron Curtain." Communism's 2,200-mile-long barrier against free information, travel, and escape.

The new World Map, distributed with the December National Geographic Magazine, serves as illustration for the issue's lead story, "Around the World in Eighty Days." This Jules Verne title is borrowed, with credit, for Newman Bumstead's account of how the world looks to a cartographer traveling 31,000 miles on scheduled flights of established air lines with brief visits to 24 lands.

WINCHESTER AT WAKEFIELD

Winchester High travels to Wakefield tonight to meet the Scarlet and Grey in a Middlesex League contest. There are plenty of seats available at Wakefield and local fans can be assured of seeing the game under more pleasant conditions than is usually the case. Next Tuesday afternoon the Red and Black plays host to a visiting Melrose High quintet. Melrose boasts annually the tallest team in the League and can be very dangerous with their "shoot and follow" offense when they are hitting.

The first "big" game of the year is scheduled for next Friday night when the local play at Stoneham. Few Winchester fans need to be told that Stoneham is the team that the locals must beat for the Middlesex League title and that Stoneham is tough to beat at home. After the affair at Stoneham a year ago the Indians have a double incentive to win and Coach Bartlett has enough confidence in his boys to go out on a limb to predict a victory over the Blue and White.

GULF STREAM STILL HOLDS SECRETS OF THE ATLANTIC

Ocean explorers are discovering new secrets of the Gulf Stream, centuries after it first caught the ships and imaginations of seafarers.

Only recently have scientists proved that the great warm current wanders, sometimes shifting course by hundreds of miles in response to unknown pressures.

In the Stream's indigo blue waters off southern Florida, the National Geographic Society and University of Miami are studying oceanic plankton, the drifting meadows of microscopic life which sustain the fish to the sea.

East of Newfoundland's Grand Banks the Woods Hole (Massachusetts) Oceanographic Institution sent its research ship "Albatross III" this summer to investigate the fingers of warm water which curl away toward Iceland, Scandinavia, the British Isles and continental Europe. The five-months cruise may determine whether the Gulf Stream actually branches, or if it consists instead of several currents side by side.

Wheeling Ocean

Driven by the winds, turned by the spinning earth, the waters of the North Atlantic slowly revolve, always clockwise as viewed from above. A great swath of tropical water pouring north from the tip of Florida forms the western rim of this giant wheel.

Behind it, trade winds pile Caribbean Sea water toward the Yucatan Channel into the Gulf of Mexico, raising it approximately seven inches higher than the level of the Atlantic Ocean off the east coast of Florida.

Escaping the overfilled basin, water rushes through the Straits of Florida between Key West and Cuba. It spills out at 14 cubic miles an hour, 1,000 times the average flow of the Mississippi River at its mouth. At this point the current measures about 15 miles across, from a quarter to a half mile deep.

St. Augustine, Florida, the Antilles Current sweeps in along the Bahamas. Great volumes of water well up from beneath the rim of the weed-matted Sargasso Sea. The Gulf Stream grows wider and deeper.

Over the "tail" of the Grand Banks, the Gulf Stream meets the Arctic in the cold, gray-green waters of the Labrador Current. Lying across this "cold wall" in 1922, the Coast Guard cutter "Tampa" lowered thermometers from bow and stern. Only 240 feet apart, one read 34 degrees, the other 56 degrees.

Although much of the Gulf Stream water, after crossing the North Atlantic, curves south again and then back westward to its starting point, the mighty current sends off circling eddies much as rising smoke does in still air.

Benjamin Franklin first mapped the Gulf Stream. As Deputy Postmaster General of the colonies in 1770, he was concerned by the fact that mail packets from England took two weeks longer to reach Boston than did the Rhode Island merchantmen manned by captains who knew the current.

Long before, in 1513, Ponce de Leon became the first mariner in history to record the existence of the Gulf Stream. After discovering Florida, his three ships tried to turn south on the eddy. The pilot's log reports that they met "a current such that, although they had a great wind, they could not proceed forward, but backward."

REAR-END COLLISION

Early Sunday morning at 12:30 o'clock a Chevrolet sedan, owned by John Mangano of 32 Irving street and being driven south on Main street by his son, John, was in collision with a Plymouth sedan owned by Alvan G. Smith of 23 Everett road and also being driven south by his son, Langdon.

According to the Police the accident took place near Glenwood avenue when Officer John J. Boyle of the Police Department stopped the Mangano car. As this car came to a stop it was struck in the rear by the Smith car.

The Chevrolet was not damaged apparently, but two boys, riding with the driver, Frank Michienzi, 19, of 124 Swanton street, and Frank Vozella, 17, of 1 Winter street, complained of injuries to their necks.

A FINE CALENDAR

One of the really fine calendars issued thus far this season is that of the Winchester National Bank, giving fourteen Winchester sketches by Ernest Dudley Chase. Portrayed are sketches of the Winchester churches, the Girl and Boy Scout headquarters, and other interesting Winchester scenes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold French have been spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. French's son, Mr. John Ordway in France. They are continuing on to Honolulu.

Mr. Phillip Lunde of Tufts College will be the speaker at the Youth Fellowship meeting Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Lunde is a native of Denver, Colorado, has spent several years at Columbia University as well as at Tufts College. He has chosen for his topic: "The problems of our American Negro." This should be an excellent program.

On Wednesday evening, January 9th, at seven-thirty, the Youth Activities Committee and key young people will meet with Mr. Chapple to plan the Youth Activities for the rest of the Fellowship season. All interested parents and every member of the Youth Activities Committee are urged to attend this Planning Conference.

BUSINESS WOMEN PLAN NEW YEAR'S PARTY

The annual New Year's Party of the Business and Professional Women's Guild, First Congregational Church, will be held Wednesday evening, January 9, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, 4 Dix street. Refreshments will be served, and bridge and canasta will feature the evening's program. The party is for members only, and reservations must be made with Miss Monroe or Mrs. Blanchard before Tuesday evening.

WINCHESTER, 85; CONCORD, 30

Indians in Second-Half Scoring Spree

Winchester High compiled what very well could be a Middlesex League scoring record in blasting Concord High 85-30 at Concord on Wednesday afternoon. The bulk of the scoring came in the second half when the Red and Black juggernaut rolled over the Patriots for 55 points in 16 minutes of basketball. In that second half the Indians made good on 24 out of 42 shots at the basket for a nominal shooting average of 57 per cent.

The game started slowly with the Indians having a 14-7 lead at the end of the first period as Foster and Long were the only locals to net baskets in that quarter. In the second quarter Hawkins and Dilorio began to find the range, too, as Winchester moved into a 29-11 half time lead. In the third quarter everybody exploded for baskets as the Indians went ahead 54-17 at the close of that period. The high point was reached in the final period as the Red and Black scored 31 points with the reserves operating most of that session.

Rodney Long paced the Winchester scoring parade with 20 points while Doug Hawkins was next in line with 16 points, these two exceeding the total Concord output. Captain John Dilorio, Charlie Murphy and Peter Coon turned in excellent floorwork as they continually set up their teammates with scoring opportunities. Once again the Winchester defense was very tight as they allowed Concord only 30 points, 13 of them coming in the last quarter when the reserves were operating.

The Winchester Seconds rolled to another easy victory as they defeated the Concord Seconds by a score of 50-24. Norman Howard with 10 points and John Atkinson with eight points were the top scorers for the Red and Black.

FIRE DEPARTMENT FIGURES

From the report of Fire Chief James E. Callahan for the year, 1951, the Star notes that the runs made by his department during the year totaled 105 less than 1950.

The local department answered four false alarms, 78 box alarms and 269 still alarms, many of these for grass and brush fires and for oil burner trouble.
Fifteen times during 1951 the Winchester Department answered alarms out of town, the mutual aid system. In Winchester the department covered 1,200 miles and pumped 36½ hours.

Besides putting out fires, the Winchester Fire Department is responsible for the inspection of oil burner installations, and during 1951 made 326 such inspections. The total gallonage of light fuel oil stored in Winchester is 1,180,000.

Sixty blasting permits were issued during the year and some 25 complaints of various kinds investigated.

COL. GAMAGE IN KOREA

Lieutenant Colonel Hall B. Gamage of Winchester has recently been assigned to Fifth Air Force Headquarters in Korea for duty with the Directorate of Materiel.

Colonel Gamage, who served with the Air Transport Command in North Africa in 1945 and 1946, was assigned to Fifth Air Force Headquarters from the 122nd Fighter-Interceptor Wing at Fort Wayne, Indiana. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Gamage of 7 Bacon street, and his wife, the former Lenore Thrift, at 64 Salisbury street.

"QUO VADIS" SUBJECT AT METHODIST CHURCH

This coming Sunday, Rev. John Snodgrass, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will use the story of the book "Quo Vadis" (Whither Goest Thou?) as the basis of his message, giving a brief review of the book by Henryk Sienkiewicz and the movie by the same name.

MUNCASTER—LINDBLAD

Mrs. Alan P. Lindblad of Cliff street announces the marriage of her daughter, Karen Alice, to Mr. David Adams Muncaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Muncaster of Myrtle Terrace. The marriage took place on Friday, November 23.

CHRISTMAS AT PARKHURST

On the afternoon of December 21 in the Lewis Parkhurst Assembly Hall, Parkhurst pupils ushered in the Christmas season with a program, "Christmas Everywhere".

The appealing presentation was based on a production written by Mrs. Ruby Wiggert, third grade teacher, which gave, in verse, the Christmas customs of America, Roumania, Sweden, Belgium, France, Holland, Spain, Italy, and England, ending with the scene of The Nativity in Palestine. Following a reading for each country, a scene depicting the customs was presented by the boys and girls of the various grades from one through six, dressed in colorful costumes.

The readers for the scenes were: Introduction — Andy McFarland; America — Russell Cross; Roumania — Natalie Kelley; Sweden — Billy Burrows; Belgium — Carl Masi; France — Judy Davis; Holland — Jean Withers; Spain — Kinda Maroney; Italy — Dick Scott; England — Gail Pettigill; Bethlehem — Becky Cotton; Finale — Lester Whittaker.

During the Spanish scene a Catalan carol was sung by Douglas Kirkwood, Mrs. Margaret Donovan and Mrs. Laura Syssoff directed the scenes, and Miss Constance Savard, teacher director of Parkhurst, and Mrs. Joan Rozzie costumed the cast.

A mural, painted by sixth grade boys and girls, of a midnight blue background with stars formed the background for the performance, while a scene suggestive of Christmas, painted by Nancy Hall, hung over the fireplace of the American living room.

A junior choir directed by Miss Nerissa Paris and a senior choir directed by Mrs. Jane Kirkpatrick heralded and closed with Christmas carols each stage portrayal.

Scott, Richard Guarino, Lester Whittaker, Alex Adams, and Bob Watkins were in charge of scenery, properties, and curtains for each scene. Sixty other pupils, not including those in the choruses, represented characters of different countries in their observance of Christmas.

The program ended with the two choruses singing together "Silent Night".

CURLERS GOING TO SCOTLAND

The Winchester Curlers had a full house at the Brookline rink Tuesday evening. Two important young men were held. In spite of the moderate weather, the ice was very fast.
Geoff Neiley's young cup rink, with Dan Morse, Howard Eteson and John Coulson took Shorty Carr's, with Charlie Waghorne, Van Wagon and Howard Eteson by the score of 10 to 3. John Coulson and Charlie Waghorne did noble work for their respective rinks.

John Joy had a tough battle with Dick Neiley. John took an early lead while Dick's rink overcame the lead up to the last end. An especially fine shot by John on his last shot took out Dick's counter, which would have won the match, leaving John with four stones in the house, to win by 15-12. Frank Lane, George King and Ralph Bonnell were with John Joy, while Dick's rink included Bill Davis, Tom Aldrich and Arthur Butters.

On the other two sheets of ice, Jay Willing and his rink led Jerry Hills by a good score and Ed Garrity led Mike Hunt.
Two of the Winchester Curlers, Shorty Carr and Howard Eteson are starting next week for a very interesting trip to Scotland for a month of intensive curling. Two winters ago a group of thirty Scots toured Canada and the U. S. and were well entertained at many U. S. rinks. The year after, 26 were invited to Scotland and 26 are flying over on January 10th. Curlers from all over the Eastern and middle U. S. are included in the twenty-six.

SPENT HOLIDAYS HERE

Captain and Mrs. Edward F. Crowley and their two children, Teddy and Carol Ann, have returned to Fort Benning, Ga., where the Captain is stationed, after spending the holidays with Mrs. Crowley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Collins of 965 Main street.

Crowley met and chatted for some time with a former West Point classmate, Capt. "Bill" West of Wedgemore avenue, also home for Christmas.

SANDING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Last week the police got several complaints about the slippery condition of Grayson road, a steep hill running from Highland avenue to Washington street. These complaints were relayed to the Highway Department, which finally notified the police after three sanding trips that boys were covering the sand with snow for coasting as soon as the truck left the street. An officer went to Grayson road and the boys responsible had the doubtful pleasure of clearing away the snow they had thrown over the last batch of sand.

EARTH YIELDED SECRETS TO EXPLORERS IN 1951

From sunbaked ruins in far-off deserts to giant craters in Canada's barren subarctic, from the deepest spot in the oceans, and from the edge of the visible universe, explorers wrested new knowledge in 1951.

Hundreds of scientific expeditions journeyed to known and unknown corners of the earth during the past year, the National Geographic Society says. The record of their discoveries makes 1951 an imposing year in scientific achievement.

At Ghar-i-Kamaband in northeastern Iran, in the so-called "Belt Sea," the bones of three Stone Age people were unearthed there, perhaps 75,000 years ago, the roof fell in on them. They may be the earliest human beings yet discovered. The same excavations, but at higher levels, rolled back the recorded beginning of agriculture by some 1,300 years, to about 6,050 B. C.

World's Oldest Town

Digging in Iraq uncovered a 7,000-year-old townsite, the oldest settled village ever found. Its age was established by radio-active carbon measurement, a technique which is revolutionizing archeology. Subsequent discoveries not far from this town, which is known as Jarmo, indicating another settlement which may be even older. Crossing the corner of Arabia's burning Rub Al Khali, the "Empty Quarter," explorers of the American Foundation for the Study of Man reached a place believed to have been the Queen of Sheba's ancient capital. At Mareb in Yemen, one of the world's least known countries, they found a ruined city of alabaster temples and palaces protruding through the desert sand.

A geological team sponsored by the National Geographic Society and the Royal Ontario Museum of Toronto brought back proof that the giant Chubb Crater on the Ungava Peninsula of northern Quebec was gouged out by a meteor smashing into the earth. The scar thus ranks as the largest of its kind known on the face of the globe.

Sky Survey

Across the continent, atop California's Palomar Mountain, astronomers kept photographing and recording one-third of the visible heavens out to a distance of 350 million light years. A thousand new clusters of nebulae have been discovered so far in a comprehensive sky survey being carried on by the National Geographic Society and the California Institute of Technology.

The geography of the Universe was being mapped as in an observatory near a Bloemfontein, South Africa, where a Harvard University expedition is studying the Milky Way, home of the earth's own solar system.

A Nobel Prize winner headed a four-man team wintering high up on Switzerland's 13,600-foot Jungfrau to study cosmic rays. Evidence that both sun and stars are the source of this energy from outer space came from analysis of instrument data recorded at 100,000-foot altitude with the aid of "balloon trains" by the National Geographic Society and the Bartol Research Foundation of Philadelphia's Franklin Institute at Fort Churchill on the shores of Hudson Bay.

Ornithologists and geographers alike had a bountiful year. The existence of a colony of 7,500 flamingos living on the island of Great Inagua in the Bahamas was reported, disclosing what may be the largest remaining concentration of the pink-tinted birds.

On three of Bermuda's outlying uninhabited islets came a dramatic discovery of living cahows, rare oceanic birds believed to have been extinct for 200 years.

The Gulf Stream, it was learned, is not a single massive current but several flowing side by side. Scientists determined that, geologically, the North American continent extends far out under the Atlantic. Undersea mountains 11,000 feet high were discovered in the Arctic Ocean between the Orkney Islands and Spitzbergen, and also in the Pacific 700 miles northeast of Hawaii. The National Geographic Society and University of Miami, studying the Gulf Stream and drifting ocean "meadows" of microscopic plankton, discovered that baby Florida lobsters may travel hundreds of miles before settling down.

In samples taken from 34,440-foot Cape Johnson Deep off the Philippines, the world's deepest known ocean hole, a Danish round-the-world expedition found life existing six miles beneath the surface of the sea.

Climbs — Up and Down

A team of French speleologists broke all world records for vertical descents underground, climbing 1,520 feet down into a newly discovered cave in the Pyrenees Mountains near the Spanish border. At the bottom they found a huge hall which they described as large enough to hold two cathedrals the size of Notre Dame in Paris. Climbing in the other direction, a British team pushed high into the Himalayas to scout the western approaches to 29,002-foot Mount Everest. Five University of Alaska students scaled 13,200-foot Mount Hess in the Alaska Range for the first time. On North America's highest peak, Mount McKinley, a party sponsored by the Boston Museum of Science, University

British and Scandinavian polar scientists working from bases on the continent of Antarctica taking seismic measurements of the great South Polar icecap and making regular weather reports available to the world's pelagic whaling fleets. In February, three members of an expedition were lost when their snow tractor plunged into the sea from the edge of the ice barrier.

France, Argentina and Chile, determined to back up their claims to pie-shaped slices of Antarctica sent out expeditions to establish scientific stations south of the polar circle. Forty Frenchmen spent the year studying the commercial and strategic potentialities of the ill-fated Kerguelen Islands, so-called "Isles of Desolation" in the south Indian Ocean.

French scientists maintaining a year-round weather station on the Greenland icecap also reported evidence that Greenland, long regarded as the world's largest island, actually consists of three islands, divided by two deep sounds running under the ice from coast to coast.

DANGEROUS FUN

In response to complaints received late Tuesday afternoon that shots had been heard at the rear of St. Mary's campus Officer Alfred Poole was sent to investigate. He found that several boys had been exploding in a fire the small carbonic acid gas cylinders procurable for making carbonated water at home. Sgt. Edward F. Bowler talked with the parents of the boys, explaining the danger and possible consequences of such procedure.

SHED BURNED

The alarm from Box 481 at 6:45 Wednesday evening was for a fire in a shed at the rear of 37 Hemmingway street, owned by William G. Lionetta.

The Fire Department found the fire evidently the work of boys, the shed having been filled with old Christmas trees and set on fire. The shed was demolished.
Earlier Wednesday the Fire Department was called to put out a fire of blazing Christmas trees at a vacant lot on Upland road.

WINCHESTER MAN HAS PAPAL AUDIENCE

John A. Volpe, of Winchester, widely known in Italy-American fraternal and philanthropic organizations and active in many local community affairs, had an audience with Pope Pius during his recent four-week business trip to Italy. He is shown (second right) with G. Joseph Turo of Lynn, legal adviser to the Volpe enterprises, in the Vatican, flanked by Vatican guards. Mr. Volpe, who is head of the Volpe Construction Company of Malden, revealed that a branch of the firm will open in Rome before the end of this month.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO ITALY

Recently returned from a four week business trip to Italy, John A. Volpe, Winchester resident and head of the Volpe Construction Company of Malden, revealed in an interview this week that he has established a branch of his firm in Rome. The company, which will play a vital role in the tremendous reconstruction program in which Italy is engaged, will be known as "Impresa Costruzione Giovanni Volpe."

Expressing his belief that Italy is forging ahead rapidly on the road to economic recovery, the Winchester industrialist reported, "Italy is entering 1952 with a more favorable economic picture than at any time since the outbreak of hostilities in World War II. Conditions in general are much brighter, for the purchasing power of the average worker's wage has increased steadily since the advent of aid to Italian industry through the ECA."

"I am convinced," stated Mr. Volpe, "that American engineering skills and advanced technology... our production techniques and our organizational know-how... can play an important part in helping Italy to economic self-sufficiency."

Asked for his observations concerning any inroads which Communism may have made in Italy, Mr. Volpe declared, "The Italian people have shown by their actions since the end of the war that they are aligned with the West ideologically. Though it is beset by difficulties on all sides, the Italian government is doing all it can to reduce the inequities which exist between the masses and the very rich. Religion and faith have kept and will continue to keep the Italian from turning to totalitarianism."

He cited the recent tax revision bill which the Italian Parliament passed by one of the few unanimous votes on record. The bill, which introduces a system of tax collection patterned after that of the U. S., is designed to give much relief to the poor by having those in the higher income brackets shoulder the major burden of the cost of government.

"However," Mr. Volpe continued, "there are still too many people who lack the essentials which we take for granted. Nourishing food, warm clothing and adequate housing are still the basic problems

ENGAGEMENT OF INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. Forester F. Ainsworth of Darien, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Brown Ainsworth, to Mr. Robert Gregson Slocum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorimer Slocum, also of Darien and formerly of Winchester.

Miss Ainsworth was graduated from the Mary A. Burnham School, Northampton, and Katherine Gibbs School in New York.

Mr. Slocum attended Andover and Lawrenceville Schools and was graduated from Princeton University in the class of 1948. He is a member of the Cap and Gown Club of Princeton, and served with the Army Air Force during World War II. He is now associated with the Proctor & Gamble Distributing Company of Hartford, Conn.

CHRISTMAS TREE NOTICE

Fire Chief James E. Callahan has asked the Star to warn householders not to give their old Christmas trees to youngsters asking for them at the door. Serious fires have resulted from giving old trees to children, and it is with a view to preventing these fires that the Chief is asking all who had Christmas trees to dispose of them themselves, preferably by taking them to the town dump.

WINCHESTER GIRL WINS BERMUDA TRIP

Former Jean Drake Friendly Town Host Essay Winner

The following clipping from the New York "Herald Tribune" for Friday, January 4, will be of much interest to the many friends of the former Winchester girl, Jean A. Drake, now Mrs. Graham G. Alvord of Kittery Point, Me.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Drake of Lagrange street, Mrs. Alvord graduated from Winchester High School and Smith College, making excellent scholastic records and excelling in music. She taught music before her marriage to Mr. Alvord who teaches in Portsmouth High School and writes plays on the side. They have four children of their own, yet had room and time enough to care for a little "Fresh Air" boy from Harlem, N. Y., who recently arrived in this country from his native Puerto Rico.

The New York "Herald Tribune" has the following to say about her Essay Contest win and trip to Bermuda, during which her neighbors have offered to look out for her children in true "good neighbor" fashion:

"Mrs. Graham G. Alvord, of Kittery Point, Me., was announced as winner of the 1951 Friendly Town Host Essay Contest by the Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund yesterday. She will receive a three-day trip to Bermuda, where she will be the guest of the Harmony Hall Hotel manager of which, Bill Tumbidge, will make all its facilities available to her.

"Mrs. Winston O. Burt, of Glens Falls, N. Y., was judged second in the contest, and third place was shared by Mrs. T. S. Beers, of Shrewsbury, N. J., and Grant Grimshaw, of La Fayette, N. Y. They will receive cash awards. In addition, honorable mentions went to Miss Enid Flint, of Wolcott, N. Y., and Mrs. Robert Lexa, of Glen Gardner, N. J.

"The contest is conducted annually and is open to all Friendly Town hosts of Fresh Air Children during the year.

"This year's judges were Bennett Cerf, president of Random House, Inc., publishers; Clifton Fadiman, literary critic of "The New Yorker" magazine, and Lewis Gannett, book reviewer for the New York Herald Tribune.

"Mrs. Alvord, in her essay, 'My Fresh Air Guest,' describes the contribution which her six-year-old Fresh Air visitor made to her family, passing modestly over her own contribution to his happiness. 'We had so much fun with that little guy that it is hard to analyze all he did for us,' Mrs. Alvord writes. 'Luis brought us two great gifts; a Spanish flavor to our daily life and fresh hope for our country.'

"Describing Luis, who had just arrived from Puerto Rico when he visited the Alvords, as an 'All-American kid,' Mrs. Alvord calls him 'peppy as a two-inch firecracker, ingenious, independent.' She goes on to tell of one of the letters Luis' mother wrote her from her Harlem home in which she said 'I teach my Luisito to love God, Mother, the Sacred American Flag, and to everybody.'

Mrs. Alvord concludes her essay by writing: 'No need to fear for this country when the newcomers are like you, loving and courageous parents, citizens not too sophisticated to speak reverently of the 'Sacred American Flag.'

"Thank heaven, we have a new addition being built on our house. Next summer we want to fill it up with Luis and more like him, all sizes."

MISS HEATH ENGAGED

Dr. and Mrs. Parker Heath of 8 Fernway announce the engagement of their daughter Molly Anne to Dr. Richard S. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley W. Morgan of Princeton, N. J.

Miss Heath is a graduate of Wellesley College, Class of 1951. Dr. Morgan is a graduate of Andover School, Princeton University and Columbia Medical School. He is currently stationed at Beaumont Hospital, El Paso, Texas, as an intern with the U. S. Army Air Force. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

WARNING!

Fire Chief James E. Callahan has asked the Star to warn persons that sweaters of a highly inflammable nature are being sold in town from door to door. Already at least one local householder has purchased sweaters that Chief Callahan found to be very inflammable by actual test, and the State Fire Marshal's office has warned local authorities to be on guard against further sale in the community.

THE MARCH OF DIMES

The 1952 March of Dimes campaign is on. It started quietly in Winchester last week with the appearance in most of the stores of the familiar iron lung banks. It will reach its climax on the night of Thursday, January 31st, with a repetition of last year's highly successful Mothers' March.

This was the promise of this year's Chairman for Winchester, Mr. Dean W. Carleton of North Gateway, who has just taken over the position so ably filled for the past few years by Mr. Harold S. Lewis of Canterbury road. Mrs. Frank N. Carleton of Church street is once again serving as Chairman of the Mothers' March. The names of the remaining committee members and a list of the precinct captains and their telephone numbers will be published in next week's issue of the Winchester Star.

Mr. Carleton wryly stated that in spite of appearances this is not a family affair but a town, in fact a nation-wide, fight against a ruthless destroyer which hurdles all barriers of class, creed and color. He appealed for volunteers to handle the special services connected with the campaign. Especially must last year's corps of devoted mothers, who braved the season's worst blizzard to call where friendly porch lights indicated that contributions were waiting, be augmented by more volunteer marching mothers if Winchester is again to do its part.

After four consecutive epidemic years, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis enters 1952 with no funds and facing unpaid bills amounting to $5,000,000 for services already rendered to paralytic, twisted bodies. Winchester and Middlesex County contributed splendidly in 1951. Let's do even better now, to help wipe out that deficit and make it possible soon to find a preventive for polio, the scourge of children and wage earners alike.

MRS. ANNIE FRANCES GRANT

Mrs. Annie Frances Grant, widow of Charles A. Grant, died Wednesday afternoon, January 9, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry D. Locke, 111 High street. She had lived in Winchester for half a century and had made her home with Mrs. Locke for the past 14 years.

Mrs. Grant was the daughter of Benjamin, and Mary Cook. She was born July 14, 1865, in Lowell and grew up in that city, being educated in the Lowell schools. After her marriage she and her husband, who was connected with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, came to Winchester and for many years made their home on Harrison street.

Mrs. Grant was a member of the First Congregational Church and of the Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R. She was a former member of the Fortnightly Women's Club.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Grant leaves a son, Kenneth Grant of Marblehead; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, January 12, at 2 o'clock at Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment will be in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

Friends may call Friday from 3 to 5, and from 7 to 9 p. m., at the Kimball Chapel on Church street.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

At a small informal tea Thursday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wendall Lever of Sanford, Maine, announced the engagement of their daughter Cynthia Ann to John Nelson Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Davis of 5 Woodside road.

Miss Lever is a graduate of Sanford High School and Mr. Davis is a graduate of Winchester High School and Kimball Union Academy. Both are currently students at the University of Maine. No date has been set for the wedding.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Dolan of 4045 Lively Lane, Dallas, Texas, are the parents of a son, David, born December 22 in Dallas. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dolan of Dunham street, and Mr. Bruce E. Nichols of Dallas.

Pete Dillingham, former Winchester boy, won the low-board diving for Harvard Wednesday evening in the Crimmon swimming meet with Springfield at Cambridge.

CIVIL DEFENSE

BLOOD TYPING PROGRAM

On Saturday and Sunday, January 26 and 27, we will have the services of a group of doctors and trained technicians from the Medical and Health Division of the State Civil Defense Agency for the purpose of blood typing residents of Winchester.

This is not a blood donor program. Only a tiny drop of blood quickly and easily taken is required for determining your blood type. The primary purpose of blood typing is for your own and your family's protection. In case of injury from enemy action or any cause whatsoever, knowledge of your blood type will save precious minutes that could spell the difference between life and death, or avoid serious complications.

Blood typing will be done at the Town Hall, Saturday and Sunday, January 26th and 27th, between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. on each day. Because of facilities limitations, only persons age 21 and over can be accepted. All persons eligible and who have not had their blood typed in the last four years by a reputable and competent hospital or laboratory, should take advantage of this opportunity by visiting the Town Hall on the days specified.

People who have been typed prior to 1947 may take advantage of recent scientific advances in blood typing by having their type repeated according to newer methods of blood-typing.

WINCHESTER BUSINESSMAN STRICKEN

Diego Fiorenza of 7 Sheridan Circle, proprietor of the newly opened Delicatessen and Lunch Bar on Main street near McCormack's Apothecary, was rushed from his home to the hospital early Sunday morning in the police ambulance by Officers Henry Dempsey and Robert Elliott.

Mr. Fiorenza became ill during the night, his trouble being diagnosed as a ruptured stomach ulcer. An operation was performed later Sunday morning by Dr. William F. Hickey, Jr., and on Tuesday his condition was reported as very satisfactory.

At the Lunch Bar Mr. Fiorenza's son reported that his father was resting comfortably, but that he would need a long rest before returning to business. Previous to being stricken he had been very tired, due to the extra work entailed in opening his new restaurant during the busy holiday season. His many friends will be pleased to learn that his condition is satisfactory and are hoping for a complete and speedy recovery.

WISWELL—WETHERALD MARRIAGE IN MAY

Miss Joan Davenport Wetherald of Marblehead has chosen Saturday, May 2, as the date for her marriage to Byron C. Wiswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wiswell of Fletcher street and Marblehead Neck. The marriage will take place in the Star of the Sea Church in Marblehead, and it is hoped that the reception can be held in the Corinthian Yacht Club, even though the club does not open until later in the season. Miss Dorothy Wetherald will be her sister's maid of honor, and George Wiswell will be best man for his brother.

Daughter of the Royal W. Wetheralds of Marblehead, the bride-to-be attended the South Shore Country Day School, graduated from the Beaver Country Day School and is presently at the Museum of Fine Arts. She made her debut in the 1950-51 season. Mr. Wiswell is a graduate of Tabor Academy and rowed on one of the academy crews that went to London for the Henley Regatta.

The vote establishing the Committee did not include revision of the Zoning By-Laws nor of the building, plumbing, wiring and gas fitting by-laws and regulations. Consequently no suggestions on these subjects will be accepted. The Committee requests all suggestions be made in writing.

DR. HAROLD BENJAMIN

AUTHOR-EDUCATOR TO SPEAK HERE

Great interest is being shown in the forthcoming lecture by Dr. Harold Benjamin at the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening, January 16. Dr. Benjamin's address, "Public Schools Serve Democracy," is being presented by the Winchester Teachers' Club and the School Committee as a contribution to the understanding of educational problems. The meeting is open to the public without charge, and everyone interested is cordially invited to attend. Prior to the lecture the high school band will present a short concert beginning at 7:45 p. m.

Early in his career Dr. Benjamin was a high school teacher and a superintendent of schools in Oregon, but most of his professional life has been spent as a professor of education at the universities of Oregon, Stanford, Minnesota, Colorado, and Maryland. At present he is chairman of the Division of Social Foundations of Education at the George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee.

Dr. Benjamin has served on various national and international commissions, the most important of which in recent years have been the Defense Commission of the National Education Association, 1947-50; the Army Field Forces Board on the Education of Regular Officers, 1948-49; the UNESCO Mission of Afghanistan, 1949; and the U. S. Army Educational Missions to Japan, 1946 and 1950.

Though he has written many books and monographs, Dr. Benjamin is perhaps best known as the author of "The Saker-Tooth Curriculum." He is also consulting editor on education for the McGraw-Hill Book Co.

At present a lieutenant-colonel in the Air-Corps Reserve, Dr. Benjamin served in the field with the United States Army in the Mexican Campaign of 1916; in France and Germany, 1917 to 1919; in the Western Aleutians, 1942 to 1944; and in the Philippines, 1945.

As a public speaker Dr. Benjamin is noted for his humor, sincerity, and forthrightness. His appointment to deliver the famed Inglis Lecture at Harvard University in 1949 is proof of his distinction in this field.

The sponsors hope that a large throng of Winchester folk will join them in welcoming Dr. Benjamin and in enjoying his message. Remember the time and place — January 16, 7:45 p. m., high school auditorium.

HEARING ON BY-LAWS

The Committee on Revision of General By-Laws will hold an open meeting in the Town Hall, General Committee Room on Thursday evening, January 17 at 8 p. m. The purpose of the meeting will be to receive from residents of the town any suggested changes in the by-laws which they may wish to submit.

The vote establishing the Committee did not include revision of the Zoning By-Laws nor of the building, plumbing, wiring and gas fitting by-laws and regulations. Consequently no suggestions on these subjects will be accepted. The Committee requests all suggestions be made in writing.

SPECIAL MEETING OF WINCHESTER WOMEN'S COUNCIL

A special meeting of the Winchester Women's Council will be held in the Art Gallery of the Public Library on Wednesday, January 16th at 10:15 a. m.

Speakers for the morning will be Dr. Forbes Norris, superintendent of public schools, speaking on "School Problems" and Dr. Dominic Runci, whose subject will be "Bloodtyping Day".

This is to be a very important meeting and President Mrs. Leo V. Manoli urges all member organizations of the Women's Council to be represented.

MANY GAY PARTIES TO PRECEDE WINTON CLUB CABARET

Rehearsals are well under way for the Winton Club's 31st Annual Cabaret which takes place next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights. Every one, of course, is urged to attend and enjoy this colorful and tuneful show which only comes once a year. The public has a bang-up time with friends and guests and the Winchester Hospital reaps the benefits — an inspiring combination! A party spirit adds zest to the occasion and the enthusiasm of the audience sparks the hard working cast to greater heights. Hurry and make your reservations! Tickets are going fast!

The dreams of a young couple weary of their everyday life form the theme for this year's show. The popular Janet and Donald Dalrymple play these parts with freshness and humor. Through their eyes you will see behind the guarded doors of the harem, feel with them the thrill of a night in Old Madrid, and hear the drum beats of darkest Africa. One of the most colorful numbers will be the Winton Club's own Drill, which promises to be the hit of the show.

ODIKON SINGERS HERE SATURDAY

The Tufts Odikon Singers, a selected group of Tufts men and women under the direction of Dr. Thompson Stone, will sing in Winchester tomorrow evening, giving a concert at the High school auditorium under the auspices of the Winchester Public School Custodians Association for the benefit of the relief association.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris, superintendent of Schools, will introduce the Odikon Singers who are carefully selected, after auditions, from the membership of the Tufts Mixed Chorus.

They will present a carefully chosen program of classic and popular selections, commencing at 8 o'clock. Dan O'Donnell and Henry Drown are heading the committee in charge of arrangements for the concert, and it is of local interest that a Winchester boy, Tommy Drapeau, son of Thomas Drapeau, the School Department's Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, is both a member of the Odikon Singers and student manager of the group. "Tommy's" fine tenor voice will be remembered by those who attended vaudeville shows and student concerts during his undergraduate days at high school.

MISS CHELLA M. PERKINS

Miss Chella Manley Perkins of 11 Symmes road, sister of Robert H. Perkins of that address, died Monday morning, December 7. She had made her home with her brother in Winchester since 1914.

Miss Perkins was the daughter of Edward A. and Desira H. Perkins. She was born October 3, 1883, in Hyde Park, but moved to Chelsea in 1900 and grew up in that city, graduating from Chelsea High School. For 38 years she was in the employ of the John Hancock Life Insurance Company until her retirement in 1948.

Miss Perkins was for many years a choir singer. She sang for 15 years in the Winchester Unitarian Choir and later sang in the Choir of the Belmont Unitarian Church. She was also a member of the Winchester Choral Society during the seven years of its existence and was a former member of Winchester Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. Her brother is her only survivor.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Unitarian Church with the minister, Rev. Robert A. Storer officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

TO ENTERTAIN FAMILY AT "HOME"

The Girl Scout Brownie Troop No. 28, under Mrs. James Daschbach and Mrs. Charles Craven, are presenting an entertainment for the family at the Home of Aged People on Mt. Vernon street this Friday afternoon, commencing at 3:30.

The Brownies will sing for the family and give recitations, supplying their entertainment by presenting cookies to their audience.

ENGAGED

Mrs. Dorothy Bupp, 9 Hazel Terrace, Arlington, announces the engagement of her daughter Gwendolyn Lee to Pfc. Richard G. McCully, 410 Washington street. Richard is at present stationed at Fort Jackson, So. Carolina.

MONIQUE DE LA BRUCHOLLIERIE

FRENCH PIANIST TO PLAY

Next Tuesday evening, January 15th subscribers to Winchester's Community Concert series will have the privilege of hearing Monique de la Bruchollierie, the brilliant French pianist who was introduced to American audiences with the Boston Symphony orchestra last month. Mlle de la Bruchollierie has triumphed on three continents and is considered an extraordinary musical personality. This is the second in the current concert series, and the program is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p. m. The series is sponsored by the Winchester Smith College club in support of its scholarship fund.

NASH—HOWARD

Mrs. Helen Whittier Howard of 101 Child street, Hyde Park, and Judge Curtis Whithead Nash of 10 Lawson road announce their marriage on Saturday, January 5. The ceremony took place at Christ Church in Hyde Park and was performed by the Rev. Chandler H. McCarthy.

Judge Nash, who is an associate Justice of the District Court in Woburn, is an attorney practicing in Winchester, with offices in the National Bank Building.

MRS. WILLIAM B. DENISON

Mrs. William B. Denison of 16 Brook's street, wife of William B. Denison, passed away on December 28, 1951, after a long illness.

Mrs. Denison had been a resident of Winchester for nearly twenty years and will be missed by her many friends.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

"Someday, I'm going to write a book." Is that thought tucked away in your mind for future use? Perhaps you already write as a hobby. In either case, why not turn that thought, or that hobby into profit. Among the present displays at the library is an excellent selection of books on writing for profit. These books cover a wide scope of material, including the art of writing poetry, drama, and the novel. In addition, one may find critical studies of each phase of creative writing.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Executive Board of the Winchester Women's Republican Club met with the president, Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, on Monday morning, January 9.

With the coming of 1952, the Republican campaign for victory takes major prominence in the club activities. Mrs. Reynolds will head "The Neighbor to Neighbor" spring drive which will seek to obtain a money contribution from every registered Republican or Independent. Club members will be requested to assist in this drive which will require a large number of workers.

The Board also voted to have the Club sponsor local advertising from time to time urging all new residents and others over 21 to register.

Mrs. Reynolds read a letter of acknowledgement from Richard Preston, chairman of the Republican Finance Committee, thanking Winchester Republicans for their generous support of the Republican Preparedness Dinner last November. Sixty-seven tickets were subscribed from this town.

The Ways and Means Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. James M. Beale and Mrs. Charles A. Weiner will presently announce, as a money making project, an attractive afternoon program to be held early in the spring.

In response to requests coming from those who cannot attend the afternoon meetings and to enable the club to present outstanding speakers, two evening meetings have been scheduled this year as an experiment, the guest night held this week and an evening meeting on February 13.

DARTMOUTH WOMEN TO MEET JANUARY 16

First hand information on world affairs will be discussed by Ned Burr McKenny, well known lecturer, on Wednesday, January 16th, when the Dartmouth Women's Club will have their meeting at the Hotel Vendome, Boston. "Western Europe Today" is the subject chosen by Mr. McKenny.

Mrs. J. Richard Lunt heads the program committee, assisted by Mrs. John E. Kenley. Others working with Mrs. Lunt include Mrs. Belden G. Bly, Mrs. Edward Pike and Mrs. Parker F. Soule. Mrs. William A. Stratton, Club President, will preside at the business meeting after which Miss Betty Quimby, soloist, will entertain the members with a program of songs.

The new officers will be installed by the minister of Second Church, the Rev. John W. Cook, at a candlelight service at the home of Miss Farnham on January 20.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Winchester Trust Company will be held at its main office, 35 Church street, Winchester, Massachusetts, on the fifteenth day of January, 1952, at four fifteen o'clock in the afternoon, for the following purposes:

1. To elect a clerk for the ensuing year.
2. To fix the number of directors, not less than seven, for the ensuing year, and to elect such directors.
3. To transact such other business as shall come before the meeting.

Vincent C. Ambrose
 Clerk, pro tem

Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Healey of Hillcrest Parkway are leaving next week to spend the winter in Sarasota, Florida.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

January Exhibition

The January Exhibition, Modern Art, which was opened with a talk by Mr. Frederick Walki, is one of those things which permits no half way measures, — one either takes it or leaves it. This observer was inclined to leave it and Mr. Walki in his amiable, but rather wandering and discursive talk did little to disturb that inclination.

However there are at least two paintings in the collection which can be appreciated on any grounds, — Robert Bliss' The Fishermen, and Steven Trefonides Rubble No. 12. The colour, clarity and charm of the first are above reproach and the second, probably the rather modernistic portrayal of a war-devastated area makes one stop to think.

An eminent scholar of our acquaintance is fond of quoting a sentence from Hosea Bigelow, "Don't never prophesy unless ye know!" However, it is possible perhaps probable that if any of the artists exhibiting modernistic paintings in this show survive for posterity, Edwinna Curtis has a fair chance of so doing. In the opinion of this member, her Blackstone Street is very good, and if it lacks the rather Rabelaisian touch of Levine, nevertheless it does exhibit distinct signs of belonging to the same school.

With judicious impartiality, the corner cabinets displayed in one Japanese rarities, in the other Chinese objet d'art, both very interesting.

In the absence of the President, Mr. Charles Mahoney made a very able Chairman. The hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Siedhof, Mrs. Williams acting in absentia, had again arranged a charming table, gay with all the trimmings of a New Year's Eve party and dominated by a bright new shining "1952".

'51 GOOD SPORTS YEAR FOR WINCHESTER

The year, 1951, was a good one for sports in Winchester, especially for high school teams, two of which, football and cross country, were undefeated.

Football is still fresh in everyone's mind. The Indians from the heights above the Aberjona swooped down to scalp all opposition, finishing their season with ten straight victories and a tie with twice defeated Gloucester for the Eastern Massachusetts Class B Championship.

This year's team was the second undefeated, untied team produced by the veteran coach, Henry Knowlton, his 1942 club, captained by the great Bill West, having been neither tied nor defeated. Knowlton's 1946 team, captained by John West, was also unbeaten, but was tied by Belmont.

If memory serves, you will have to go away back to 1922 and the fabulous team coached that season by "Rufe" Bond for another undefeated season, and that great team that ran roughshod over such eleveners as Arlington, Melrose, Watertown and Belmont was tied by Milton Academy in its opening game of the year.

Sharing honors with the football team this fall was the Cross Country Team, coached by Tom Morse and captained by "Charlie" Murphy. The Indian harriers were unbeaten in dual meet competition, winning seven straight meets and the championship of the Pilgrim Division of the Middlesex cross country league. Winchester ranked third among the 14 teams that comprise the Pilgrim and Pioneer Divisions of this league.

Winchester got away to a good sports start in 1951 when the high school basketball team, ably coached by Edward A. Bartlett of the high school faculty, tied for the championship of the Middlesex League with Lexington, and then went on to defeat Lexington in a virtual playoff during the Small Schools tournament at Malden. A defeat at the hands of Stoneham in a game protested by Coach Bartlett on the basis of league rules prevented Winchester from winning the league crown outright.

The Indians won the Small Schools tourney, and a place in the Tee Tourney in the Boston Garden, Winchester's first appearance in this tourney in several years. A veteran Milton team eliminated Winchester in the first round of the Class B competition, but the Indians all but caught the visitors at the end of the game, and here practically giving away the contest in the first half, due to lack of experience and the tightness that such lack of experience usually breeds.

Winchester's overall basketball record, including the Garden game, was 22 won and three lost, a great showing, particularly for a junior team that really found itself during the '51 season.

While not equalling the record the boys hung up, the Winchester High School girls' hoop team won a majority of their games and made good showing under the tutelage of Coach Helen Jay Carroll.

With the basketball season out of the way, Coach Bartlett turned his attention to baseball, and here again, though his team won no championship, it did finish the season with 14 games won and four lost, placing second to Melrose in the Middlesex League standing and splitting its two games with Woburn.

The high school track team, coached by Henry Knowlton, had a good season, winning seven out of ten dual meets and placing fifth in its class at the State meet.

Came the fall and football, already mentioned along with cross country. Down on Ginn Field the high school girls Field Hockey team was practicing and playing under Coach Carroll, finishing again on the long side of the ledger with a record of three wins, two losses and a tie.

Outside school athletics Winchester figured in the sports news with big T. Richard Bane of Tufts breaking the world record in the 35 pound weight throw and also breaking the Tufts record in this and the 16 pound hammer event.

Down at Marblehead Rod Long, red-headed Winchester High School junior, won all sorts of honors in the snipe competition during famous "Race Week", his prowess and that of other local skippers reflecting great credit on their home club, the Winchester Boat Club.

All "Rod" did was win six out of seven races, including the Eastern and Corinthian Cups and the New England Snipe Championship. His crew, Bobby Stengle, an Arlington boy, beat "Rod" in Junior competition for the Pleon Trophy. "Rod's" only defeat, and another Winchester Boat Club boy, Pete Redding, won the Boston Yacht Club race to give Winchester a clean sweep.

Over on the hill above Mystic Lake the Winchester Country Club had among its membership the Massachusetts Amateur Golf Champion in the person of big Ed Martin, one of the best in the State ranks.

At Harvard a former Winchester boy, Pete Dillingham, turned in a brilliant diving record with the Crimson swimming team, being one of the top divers in intercollegiate ranks. A promising football player as a freshman at Cambridge, Pete gave up football for diving as a sophomore at the request of the Harvard swimming coach.

The Winchester Warriors had to suspend operations last summer due to the scarcity of players because of the war. Of chief interest in a baseball sense was the fine record of the Winchester Junior Legion team, sponsored jointly by Winchester Post, 97, A. L., and Bonnell Motors, local Ford distributors.

The Junior Legion, coached again by Ted Bartlett, after a shaky start, played consistently winning baseball over the middle and end of the season, noosing out Arlington for the Middlesex County Championship and then winning its first playoff for the State title from Wellesley. Worcester finally eliminated the Winchester team in straight games, its players seeming older and more poised than the local boys, who however threatened all the way in the deciding game of the series and needed only an extra hit or two to have been right in there.

The Sons of Italy again won the Town Soft Ball League championship, and now have two legs on the three-year trophy. A sports innovation was the first outdoor basketball game on the new court installed by the Park Department on Ginn Field, a team of local players under Ted Bartlett winning at the close of the playground season from a team of picked players from one of the Boston boys' clubs.

WAKEFIELD FROSH, 19

The Winchester Freshmen defeated the Wakefield Freshmen by a score of 46-19 at the high school gym last Friday afternoon. This was the first victory of the season for the Paposes after an opening game loss to the strong Stoneham Freshmen. The locals showed considerable improvement over their first outing as they ran their offense well, and were much stronger defensively, and made fewer mistakes. Bill Ross was high scorer for the game with 14 points while Peter Gove and Charlie Govostes turned in good performances.

The Winchester Junior High quintet won their second straight victory by pinning a 58-45 defeat on the Wakefield Junior High in the preliminary game. Big John Lynch was high scorer for Winchester with 16 points while Bert Kneeland and Vin Caputo played excellent floor games. Coach Mickey Muerling was able to use a total of 24 players from his large squad, including a complete team of seventh graders.

WINCHESTER, 58; WAKEFIELD, 29

Winchester High defeated Wakefield High in a Middlesex League contest at Wakefield last Friday night by a score of 58-29. After a bit of first half trouble in finding the range, the Indians began to roll in the second half to take their fifth victory of the season pretty much in stride. Once again the Red and Black defense looked strong, aided by weak offensive work on the part of Wakefield as they resorted principally to hurried, long shots and made little effort to work the ball under the basket.

Wakefield set up a zone defense against the Red and Black which bothered the locals in the first half, primarily because the Indians were not taking advantage of the zone's weaknesses and because the boys were not hitting with their usual accuracy. The Indians moved out in front by a score of 14-6 at the end of the first period which was increased to 28-17 at the half. The Winchester offense functioned more smoothly in the third period as the locals went ahead 45-23 at the end of that quarter to coast to an easy victory over the last period.

Doug Hawkins and Bob Forester were the bright and shining stars for Winchester in this victory. In addition to pacing the scoring with 17 points, Hawkins was tremendous off the back boards as he swept the boards on both ends of the court to dominate the play. Forester played well offensively as he contributed some nice set shooting which helped to crack the Wakefield zone defense. Johnny Farrell turned in the play of the game when he double-faked, while still dribbling, the lone Wakefield defender between him and the basket to go in for a lay up shot while leaving his opponent sprawled on the floor, so completely bewildered was he by the Farrell maneuver.

The Winchester Seconds remained undefeated as they breezed to a high-scoring 76-35 victory over the Wakefield Seconds in the preliminary game. Neil Muncaster with 18 points, Kit Carleton with 11, and Dave Pratt with 10 points were the top scorers for the locals.

BADMINTON NOTICE

There will be no badminton at the high school gymnasium on the evening of Tuesday, January 15, due to conflict with the Winchester Community Concert being held that evening in the high school auditorium.

The usual badminton session will be held Thursday evening, January 17, from 7:30 p. m. to 11 p. m., and all Winchester adults interested in this fascinating game are cordially invited to come down and get acquainted.

PFC. WILLIAM E. VIOLANTE

"One of our finest Marines"

Editor of the Star:

The following extracts from a letter received by Mrs. James Violante, 7 Risley road from the Commanding Officer of the late "Billy" Violante, will not only be of interest to "Billy's" many friends, but are also well-deserved tributes to a proud Winchester Marrine:—

"Your son was one of my finest Marines which makes it even more difficult for me to speak of him, especially to you, his bereaved mother."

"Your son was killed, at night, during an enemy probing attack,
by a hand grenade. It was a particularly foggy night which prevented the enemy to approach our lines much closer than would have been ordinarily possible. He died instantly — there was no suffering or pain. His friends, who reached his side almost immediately, confirm this report."

"It is difficult, I know, for you who loved him so well to read these words, but it is equally hard for me because I knew him as a man, a true Marine respected by every one of us. We miss him too. He was devoted to his duty, an example for all to follow — a man whose place can never be filled. I hope that this note will soothe your troubled mind although I realize it is far from adequate enough to alleviate your sorrow. I trust, in all humility, that I have been of some assistance."

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Everett Hampton,
Captain, U. S. Marine Corps

Commanding.
The Town of Winchester can well be proud of, and long remember Pfc. William E. Violante, who gave his life for his country.
Humbly yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toys, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

PLENTY OF WINCHESTER PEOPLE IN ST. PETE

Editor of the Star:

Just read in December 28th Star that Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Symmes had not met in St. Pete any Winchester folks.

They should have gone to the Chamber of Commerce and registered. There they would have found where other Winchester visitors are living. I called the office but was told no Symmes names were on the list. Was sorry that I couldn't contact them and have them come to see my cozy little place in this Trailer Camp.

If they will be here long enough,
I wish you would send them a line or write to me so I could reach them. I have a telephone 51-8953, not yet listed in the book.

Having glorious weather, sit outdoors in summer clothes and read
"The St. Petersburg Times".

Just read that Dr. Freeman Miller from Michigan will lecture at Safety Harbor Thursday evening.
He married Marie Dresser, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Dresser, formerly Mystic School principal. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K.
Miller, who have a home at Safety Harbor between here and Tampa.
Winchester, Mass., seems to be well known wherever one travels.

STAR IS THE FINEST

Editor of the Star:
Congratulations on your new and enlarged Winchester Star.

As I have told you before, I think it is the finest paper of its kind anywhere in America. I say this advisedly.

I appreciate all you have done for First Baptist in handling our publicity. I want to cooperate with you and your fine people in the future any way that I possibly can.
Accept these congratulations from me, personally, and also from First Baptist Church.

Sincerely,
Walter L. Bailey

THANKS EN KA

Editor of the Star:

Yesterday I received a package from the En Ka. I don't know who to write and thank, so I thought I'd drop you a line and express my thanks through you.

The package itself contained a wonderful selection of things. They went over big with all of us in the crew.

Please relay my thanks. It was really appreciated.

Sincerely,
Pfc. John S. Barnes, Jr.

BEST ARGUMENT

Editor of the Star:

The best argument for socialized medicine appeared in last week's issue of the "Star" under the caption "New Medical Fees".

WINCHESTER, 79; MELROSE, 36

Winchester High had very little trouble with a visiting Melrose High quintet as the Indians won 79-36 at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. The Melrose team threw a zone defense at the locals but the Indians were able to penetrate it easily and rebounded strongly to stop the Melrose fast break from their zone setup. This is the second highest total that the Indians have compiled this season and the 36 points scored by Melrose is the most that the opposition has scored in six games to date.

With DiIorio, Hawkins, and Long doing most of the scoring in the first quarter the Indians raced away to a 20-9 lead at the end of that period. Hawkins and Coon carried the brunt of the scoring in the second quarter as the Red and Black increased their lead to 38-17 at the half. The Bartlettmen continued to roll in the third quarter as they increased the margin to 58-29 at the end of that period.
Eight different players scored baskets for the Indians in the last quarter as the chief interest in the period centered on a foul shot by Kit Carleton with four seconds to play which would have given the locals 80 points if successful.

The Indians looked much sharper in this outing than they did in their last game at Wakefield last Friday night. They were setting up their offense much better and getting better shots as evidenced by their 49 per cent shooting accuracy. It was pleasing to Coach Bartlett to see Captain John DiIorio start hitting the hoop as he came up with 16 points for his top scoring performance of the season. Doug Hawkins collected 16 points while Rodney Long added 12 points to the Winchester total. Johnny Farrell and Charlie Murphy played excellent games as they combined to limit the high scoring Seaman to two baskets and did yeoman work in maneuvering the ball around and through the Melrose zone defense.

PET SPANIEL LOST

His name is "Copper". He is a copper-colored cocker spaniel, ten years old and turning gray.

He jumped from an automobile on Thompson street in front of Filene's entrance last Friday noontime while his owner, Mrs. William A. Donnell of 40 Conant street, Danvers, was in town on a shopping expedition with her daughter.
He's greatly missed, not only by his owner, but her two grandsons, Peter and Bruce Anderson, whose pal he is.

"Copper" wears the Danvers license number 195. His owner is hoping some one has picked him up. Her ad appears in the classified column of this issue. If you have the dog, or know some one who has, please call Mrs. Donnell at Danvers 150 and reverse the charge. There is a reward for "Copper's" return.

PHYSICAL THERAPY EXHIBIT AT FILENE'S

The Massachusetts Chapter of the American Physical Therapy Association, through the generous cooperation of Filene's of Winchester, has on display in their window an exhibit on Physical Therapy.

The purpose of this exhibit is to demonstrate, as well as can be done, pictorially, Physical Therapy as a profession, and to create interest among parents, and students of high school age, who may be interested in it as a career.

This display is a sequel to a letter entitled "Opportunities in Physical Therapy" which appeared in the Editorial column of the December 14th issue of the Winchester Star. The purpose of this letter was to emphasize the ever increasing need and urgency for Physical Therapists throughout the country, and the vast opportunities in this field for young women who seek a profession which will be most stimulating and rewarding in medical service.

If further information is desired regarding educational requirements we suggest you contact a member of the American Physical Therapy Association, or Miss Katharine Carlisle is a member who could be contacted locally and would be very glad to talk with anyone interested.

TUESDAY GROUP HEARS MRS. HAROLD BLANCHARD

The Tuesday Group of the Church of the Epiphany was delightfully entertained on Tuesday of this week by Mrs. Harold H.
Blanchard, noted lecturer and author of the interesting and authoritative book, "How to Paint Trays". Speaking on "Hobbies for the Housewife," Mrs. Blanchard stressed the importance of family projects, especially of a creative nature, as one answer to the world's ills. At the end of her talk, she showed briefly how a tray is stenciled, and displayed some of her beautiful trays.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Seddon of 8 Wedgemere avenue. Tea was served by Mrs. John Bird, Mrs.
John Bledsoe, Mrs. Malcolm Bennett, and Mrs. Stephen Root. Mrs.
Howard Richardson and Mrs. Frederick Aseltine poured.

NEW CANDIDATES

Candidates for town offices who have taken out papers since last week include Joseph E. Callahan and Gleason W. Byerson for constable, Prof. Neil H. Borden for library trustee, Oleott L. Hooper for School Committee and James F. Dwinell, Jr., for Water & Sewer Board. All are candidates for re-election except Mr. Hooper, who lives at 226 Highland avenue.

SUPPER SPEAKER, CONGREGATIONAL MEN'S CLUB

Here is another banner meeting coming up! We are going to hear a man who has probably the only job of its kind in the world. Dr.
Dale Dutton is Vice-President of the Bristol Manufacturing Company, Bristol, R. I., in charge of the Department of Christian Relations. He is paid for the single task of doing good deeds.

You may have read the Readers'
Digest story about him entitled
"Vice-President in Charge of Doing Good" or the Coronet piece about
"The Shepherd of Big Business".
Dr. Dutton who was formerly pastor of the Central Baptist Church in Providence, is a humorist, lecturer, psychologist, and an expert in labor relations.

You will find his talk entitled "Look What the World's Coming to!" a thought provoking presentation filled with humor and patterned after his personal experience. You won't want to miss it!

Delicious Chicken Pie Dinner

BOYS WARNED

As the result of last week's fire that destroyed a shed owned by William G. Lionetta and located at the rear of his property at 37 Hemingway street, three boys living in the North End were located by the police as responsible. Police say the three, the oldest 14 and the youngest 11, admitted their responsibility. Firemen say they set fire to the shed after filling it with old Christmas trees they had collected.
Parents of the three were notified and all the boys were required to appear before Fire Chief James E. Callahan at the Central Station

Building dozens of new units to produce electricity more economically — to help hold rates down — is an expensive job.
For example, the post-war expansion program of the business-managed companies supplying New England's electric power already runs to more than a HALF BILLION DOLLARS.

Now, as you know, electric companies are not permitted to earn enough to pay for new construction on this scale out of their own pockets. Neither do they dip into the taxpayers' pockets via Federal subsidies.

Then where does the money come from? It comes from the savings of millions of thrifty people who realize the vital part electricity plays in New England's prosperity. As long as the electric companies earn a fair return on plant investment, prudent citizens will always be ready to help finance necessary expansion.

HAROLD T. BENT "GARDEN HASH"

The Winchester Home and Garden Club presents the eminent horticulturist Harold T. Bent for its only men's guest night program of the year. Every male interested in gardening is hereby cordially invited.

The Date: Wednesday, January 16.
The Place: Art Room, Winchester Public Library.
The Time: Promptly, please, at 8 p.m.

The Subject: "Garden Hash" in question and answer form.

This lineup of interest and ability seems too wonderful to keep to themselves, so the women members wish to share this one program with their husbands, and to invite as guests the membership of "The Green Thumb" in Winchester, the local florists, and all male gardening enthusiasts.

Concerning the speaker, whose home is in Framingham Center, there is much to be written. Not only is he a lecturer of note, but a writer and plant breeder. Mr. Bent is past-president of the New England Iris Society. Among his active memberships are: Mass. Horticultural Society, American Rose Society, American Iris Society, American Delphinium Society, and he is also the Horticultural Chairman of the Mass. Garden Federation.

So check the date on your calendar—January 16. Because of Library closing hours please be prompt, for this unusual program is planned for 8 o'clock by the Old Town Clock!

Mrs. Scott Parrot of 37 Emerson road, Winchester attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Planned Parenthood League of Massachusetts Wednesday, January 9, at the home of Mrs. E. Sohler Welch, 20 Louisburg Square, Boston, at which William Vogt, national director of the Planned Parenthood Federation of America, the principal speaker, discussed "Overpopulation — Deadlier Than the Atom".

RALPH BLAGDEN TO SPEAK IN MELROSE

Two able speakers, Ralph Blagden, chief editorial writer for the Boston Traveller, and George Markham, union educational director, will present opposing points of view on the topic, "What Should We Do in Korea Now," at the Free Forum, Sunday evening at 7:45, January 20, in the Melrose Unitarian Church, 70 W. Emerson street. The forum is sponsored by a group of members from both the Universalist and Unitarian churches in Melrose. Mr. Edward Raye, lawyer and Melrose resident, will act as moderator for the meeting, which promises to be a significant venture in community education and interdenominational cooperation.

Mr. Blagden, as chief editorial writer of the Boston Traveller, is a weekly participant in the TV panel, "Starring the Editors," over WBZ at 6:30 on Tuesday evenings. A graduate of Bates College, where he was active in debating, he started his journalistic career with the Boston Transcript, rising to the position of chief editorial writer. He was associated with the N. Y. Times briefly and spent nine years with the Christian Science Monitor. For five years he was managing editor of the St. Louis Star-Times. Mr. Blagden now lives in Winchester. He will present his views on the Korean issue, pointing out the need for more aggressive military measures than are now being employed.

Mr. George Markham, a resident of Cambridge, now holds the position of New England Educational Director of the International Fur and Leather Workers Union. Mr. Markham has a journalistic background. Before the War he was a writer in the Boston Bureau of the Associated Press. He will advocate withdrawal from Korea.

The committee on arrangements wishes to stress that the public is invited to this forum to hear two sides of a controversial issue as an aid in making a decision on what policy should be followed in Korea. There will be no admission charge and no collection will be taken. The cost of the meeting will be carried by those public-spirited individuals who join the list of sponsors. The second forum meeting will be held on Sunday evening, February 17, in the Universalist Church on a subject to be announced at a later date.

ST. MARY'S HOLY NAME SOCIETY

St. Mary's Holy Name Society will hold its monthly meeting at Waterfield Hall after the eight o'clock Mass at St. Mary's Church. The guest speaker will be Arthur J. Barry, principal of the Peabody High School. Mr. Barry is a former football referee and official. His subject will be "The Catholic is Challenged in this Changing World."

Indian Club Drill. One of the several team gymnastic exercises and dance routines presented by the Springfield College Exhibition Team in its two-hour, fun-packed show "Physical Panorama."

SPRINGFIELD GYMNASTS TO EXHIBIT HERE

A gymnastic entertainment featuring work on apparatus, rhythmic exercises, dances and comedy will be presented here on Saturday, January 19, under the auspices of W. H. S. Varsity Club.

The program will be staged by the famous Exhibition Team of Springfield College. Twenty-eight Springfield students representing ten states and the District of Columbia will take part in the two-hour show that is packed with dancing, grace, skill and amusement.

Attractions on the program include numbers on the heavy apparatus such as the parallel bars, horizontal bar, the horse and trampoline. The team repertoire also includes individual specialties by talented gymnasts, and finally the dramatic tableaux in which the students pose while covered with aluminum paint.

The Exhibition Team show entitled "Physical Panorama" is produced and directed by Prof. Leslie J. Judd, veteran member of the college faculty and nationally known authority on gymnastic exercise. The exhibition will be given in the High School Gym at 8 p.m.

Last Sunday a Newton man called Police Headquarters stating he had found a wallet containing $50 and some papers on the walk in front of the Statler Hotel in Boston. A man's name and the simple address, Winchester, was in the wallet, but the Police soon located the happy owner, who stated that he would get in touch with the Newton man at once.

BAY STATE HISTORICAL LEAGUE

Winchester Historical Society

The Winter Meeting of the Bay State Historical League will be held at the Tufts College Chapel, Medford, on Saturday, January 19, at 2 p.m.

President Carmichael will talk on "The History of Tufts College and Its Implications." (Tufts will celebrate its 100th Anniversary this year.) There will be music, also. At the close of the meeting tea will be served in the Henry Clay Jackson Building.

From 12 to 1 there will be an opportunity for lunch at the Cafeteria in Curtis Hall. The College may be visited from 1 to 2 p.m. and after the meeting.

DANCE AFTER GAME

Ed Woodbury, a former Winchester boy now living in Stoneham, called to announce that there will be dancing after the Winchester-Stoneham basketball game tonight in the Stoneham High gym.

The dancing will be in the Stoneham town hall, commencing at 9 o'clock, for those who can't make the game and continuing until midnight, for those who want to get in a spot of dancing after the contest.

The dance is sponsored by the Stoneham Boosters Club, of which Mr. Woodbury is president. He is a former commander of Winchester Post, 97, A. L., and moved to Stoneham several years ago. He hopes to see many of his old Winchester friends at the dance tonight.

WINCHESTER OFFICER TRANSFERRED

Lieutenant Herbert D. Crowley, USNR, of 35 Albamont road, recently received transfer orders to the Naval Air Station, San Diego, California. He has been stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Quantico, since September 1946.

Lieutenant Crowley, a graduate of Sherborn High School, Sherborn, Massachusetts, entered the Navy as an Aviation Cadet in July 1942. He attended the Navy Pre-Flight School at Chapel Hill, N. C., and took Primary Training at the Naval Air Station, Memphis, Tenn. He was ordered to the Naval Air Training Center at Pensacola, Fla., for Basic Training. He later qualified for carrier operation aboard the USS Wolverine on Lake Michigan.

Lieut. Crowley was commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve and in September 1943 was assigned to the USS Belleau Wood as a member of Torpedo Squadron VT-21 and remained with that unit until July 1945. He was transferred to Fighter Squadron VF-21 aboard the USS Independence where he remained until December 1945.

While aboard the USS Belleau Wood, Lieut. Crowley won the Navy Cross for a torpedo hit on a Japanese carrier during the second battle of the Philippine Sea. He was also awarded the Air Medal for an air strike that resulted in the sinking of an enemy tanker and cargo ship.

Lieut. Crowley came to the Quantico Naval Air Station from Instructor Training School at Atlanta, Ga., in September 1946. He assumed duties as liaison officer to Attack Squadron VA-56E, a Naval Air Reserve squadron. For a short time he was designated Air Group Commander for Carrier Air Group CVEG-56.

Since 1946 he has been assigned to the Training Department and has been instrumental in training Reserve aviators and aviation personnel. His squadron, VA-56E, was awarded the Commanding Officer's Trophy for Squadron Excellence in 1948.

Lieut. Crowley wears, in addition to the Navy Cross and the Air Medal, the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with 4 stars, the American Theater Ribbon, the Victory Ribbon, and the Philippine Liberation Ribbon.

Mrs. Samuel D. Cole of Winchester Arms left Wednesday for Chicago where she will join Mr. Cole who has been in the Windy City on business. From Chicago Mr. and Mrs. Cole will go on to Los Angeles, Cal., before returning to Winchester.

CUB PACK SEVEN NEWS

The January meeting of Cub Pack Seven was held Friday, January 4th, at the First Baptist Church. The meeting was presided by a game period supervised by Coach Muerling. This is a feature of the monthly get-together which every Cub looks forward to. After the opening ceremony, in which the Cubs saluted the flag and gave the Cub promise, Cubmaster Low described the Blue and Gold banquet planned for the February meeting. The Cubs listened with a great deal of interest to Captain Fitzgerald of the Winchester Fire Department, who told them of some of his experiences fighting fires and warned the boys of some of the causes of fires. He also told them that if everyone were a fireman and saw the trouble and grief caused by fires, they would be much more careful than they now are.

Mrs. King and her accompanist, Chris King, led the boys in a number of Cub songs. It is hoped that this will become a regular part of the meeting.

Pack Seven graduated Dick Low and Doug Thompson into Boy

Scouts. The two Cubs stood in front of the Cub pack while the rest of the pack gathered round them. Cubmaster Bob Low presented them with their graduation certificates and Mr. Seymour P. Bingham welcomed them into scouts.

Cubmaster Low made the following awards:

Den 2
Dick Low, Webelos Badge

Den 3
Daniel Vespucci, Lion Badge
Billy Jones, Wolf Badge
Arthur Hewis, Wolf Badge

Den 7

Attention All Members — those of you who have not paid their yearly dues please get them in before the end of this month. We are having a drive to have our Membership exceed that of last year and to accomplish this every member must be paid up by the end of this month. The dues must be sent into the State Department before the 1st of February and we need everyone's help to meet our quota.

You may send your money to the Treasurer, Dorothy Carroll, at 17 Russell road or call her at Winchester 6-2761-M and she will have it collected. Please attend to this at once as there is very little time to complete these reports.

We are planning a Bridge and Whist Party for Tuesday evening, January 22, at the Legion Home. Contact all your friends and make plans now to bring at least three others so that our first party of this New Year will be a success.

Barbara Murphy is the chairman and we can expect excellent prizes and refreshments but she needs the support of every member to make it worthwhile.

JUNIOR FLORENCE CRITTENTON WINTER MEETING

The Junior Circle of the Florence Crittenton held its winter meeting on Tuesday, January 8th, at the home of Mrs. David Walton. The president, Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick, presided and reports of officers and committee chairmen were presented.

Following the meeting an interesting and informative talk was given by Miss Sullivan, Probation Officer of the Juvenile Court.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Charles R. Whitten and her committee. Poursers were Mrs. Robert Ingraham, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Kirkpatrick.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

A most unusual set of circumstances has made it possible for us to have as our guest speaker at the annual meeting, January 16, Miss Irla Karkkainen of Pori, Finland.

About a year ago Maureen Looney of Winthrop street, an Intermediate Scout, was corresponding with a Pen-Pal in England and received the name of a Finnish girl who wanted to correspond with an American girl. Thus a most interesting friendship was formed.

Miss Karkkainen is a Girl Guide Leader and District Director in Finland as well as Head Mistress at a Girls' High School. She directs Physical Education work and is at present studying at Smith's College and observing our methods of Physical Education for Girls here in Massachusetts and in the mid-West, where she visited this past month.

She is graduate of the University at Helsinki and is in this country as an American Association of University Women Fellow and as a U. S. Government Exchange Teacher.

When she meets with us next Wednesday evening she will tell us of the program of the Finland Girl Guides and explain their camping program which is worked out quite differently in the Land of the Midnight Sun. She will also tell us of her interesting trip over on a lumber boat which was 4 weeks in coming since they stopped at France and England. Mrs. Looney's Scout Troop is learning a Finnish Folk Dance to present after Miss Karkkainen presents her Folk Dance in native costume.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

On Monday at 2:00 p. m. the Literature group of the Fortnightly met at the Public Library. In the absence of Miss Gertrude Kimball, chairman, and Mrs. Evans, co-chairman, Mrs. Blanche Barnard opened the meeting by greeting the members and guests. For the next hour we were thoroughly engrossed in Mrs. Barnard's interesting account of Rose Macaulay and her books.

Rose Macaulay was the daughter of G. C. Macaulay, late lecturer of English Literature at Cambridge University. She was brought up in Italy by the sea. Familiarity with foreign places is very evident throughout her work, and a love for swimming in waters far removed from England and adventuring in many distant lands.

She loved bathing, paddling, canoeing, hockey and tennis. She composed poetry and stories as a child and published her first novel while still in her teens at Oxford. When in London she resides in Princess Gardens, a restricted section set like an island in the city where trees and a country atmosphere is preserved. Here she inhabits a small flat, alone with her typewriter. Her country home is at Beaconsfield. She does not care for publicity and claims to have no favorite authors. However, she does admire Virginia Woolf.

Although Mrs. Barnard owns only one of Rose Macaulay's books, "Going Abroad," she did extensive research on her and found some of her books in the libraries of Winchester, Woburn, Medford, Arlington and Boston. Mrs. Barnard read a number of them, including "Potterism," "Religious Elements in English Literature," "The World My Wilderness," "Fabled Shore," "Told by an Idiot," "Dangerous Ages," "Creve Train," "A Casual Commentary," "Staying With Relations," and several others.

STAR GETS HIGH RATING

One of 55 Top
New England Weeklies

The Community Research Bureau, following a recent evaluation study, has rated the Winchester Star among the 55 Top New England Weeklies with a rating of AAA. The Evaluation Study and Rating Reports on Weekly Newspapers and Noncity Markets of America are issued by the Community Research Bureau in cooperation with the American Weekly Newspapers Publishers Council with the advice and counsel of the Markets and Media Research Advisory Board in the Community Research Bureau. Results of the evaluation are published in the January issue of the "New England Printer and Lithographer."

In the evaluation, after all data is weighed and blended, it is reduced to an over-all letter rating, with the standard set up by the newspapers of each state used as a yardstick for the individual papers of that state. Individual papers are divided into five rating groups, AAA, AA, A, B and C, and among the 15 Massachusetts papers to receive this rating. In the article in the "New England Printer" attention is called to the great value of home town weekly papers as an advertising medium.

Under this system the Star is rated among the 55 New England weeklies having the top AAA rating, and among the 15 Massachusetts papers to receive this rating. In the article in the "New England Printer" attention is called to the great value of home town weekly papers as an advertising medium.

CHARLES T. LAWSON

Charles T. Lawson, retired master painter and resident of Winchester for more than 60 years, died Sunday morning, January 13, at the Winchester Hospital following an illness of nine days. His home was at 296 Washington street.

Mr. Lawson was the son of John A. and Angelina (Carlson) Lawson. He was born September 15, 1888, near Stockholm in Sweden, but came as a boy of 10 to this country, settling in Monson, Me., where he grew up and learned his trade as apprentice to a master painter.

In 1890 Mr. Lawson established a painting business in Winchester, his first shop being at the rear of Stevens street and his ladders being pushed around from place to place on a hand-cart. Later his shop was located for many years in the building on Vine street near Elmwood avenue, razed to make room for the present Cooperative Bank. From there he went for a time to the building on Warfield road, more recently used as a taxi stand, and then he was located in the building on Converse Place torn down to make room for the Laundry Garage. From 1920 until his retirement, seven years ago, he operated from his home. Among the more difficult and dangerous jobs he did during his active years was the sealing of the First Congregational Church steeple to gild the cross surmounting the spire.

Mr. Lawson was for 49 years a member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons. He was a member of the First Congregational Church, a charter member of the American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, American Trudeau Society, Theta Delta Chi fraternity and Phi Chi medical fraternity.

Dr. LeRoy was making his home at 38 Cross street, Beverly, with his wife and three children. He is a diplomat of the National Board of Medical Examiners and is a member of the American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, American Trudeau Society, Theta Delta Chi fraternity and Phi Chi medical fraternity.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Newcombe celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary Saturday, January 12, with a family dinner party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. T. W. Harris, 23 Stevens street. The Newcombes make their home with their daughter, and have many friends in Winchester. The Star adds its anniversary congratulations to those of their other friends.

NEW CANDIDATES

Candidates for town office who have taken out papers since last week include John T. Horn, Constable; Kenneth P. Pond, Cemetery Commissioner; Charles A. Farrar and Maxwell McCree, Public Welfare; Harold V. Farnsworth, Planning Board; Vincent C. Ambrose, Library Trustee; J. Joseph Tansey, Selectman.

DR. CASS APPOINTED

Winchester Physician Associate Director of Peter Bent Brigham

Dr. Victoria M. Cass of 20 Ridgely field road has been appointed associate director of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston. Dr. Cass, former assistant director of the Mass. Dept. of Public Health in the division of hospitals, is wife of Dr. Leo Cass, physician at the Harvard Law School, and the mother of two children. Her new appointment was announced Saturday by the president of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital organization, Robert Cutler.

Dr. Cass is a native of New York City. She graduated from Wheaton College and Tufts Medical School, receiving her Master's Degree from the Harvard School of Public Health. She has been in the State Department of Health since 1947, and she is also vice-president of the Middlesex District Medical Society.

In 1938 Dr. Cass was New England fencing champion, a sport in which her husband, his mother and his brothers have been active.

MISS MINNIE J. MacGREGOR

Miss Minnie J. MacGregor, a graduate nurse for more than thirty years, died early Tuesday morning, January 15, at the home of her sister, Miss Helen MacGregor, 42 Everett avenue, after a brief illness.

Born in New Glasgow, N. S., Miss MacGregor came to this country as a girl and trained at the Massachusetts General Hospital School of Nursing. For more than 30 years she nursed on a private case in Weston, coming to make her home with her sister in Winchester upon the termination of that case six years ago.

Miss MacGregor was a member of the Massachusetts General Hospital Alumnae and of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in Boston. A woman of sterling character and great personal charm, she was held in esteem by all with whom she came in contact, and genuinely beloved by those who knew her well. Besides her sister in Winchester, Miss MacGregor leaves a sister, Mrs. Oswald Forhan of Alberta, Canada.

Private funeral services were held at the MacGregor home on Thursday afternoon, with Dr. Howard J. Chidley, minister of the First Congregational Church, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

WEST TO COMMAND DESTROYER

Commander Kenneth West, USN, 39, of 24 Mason street, Winchester, has been detached from duty on the staff of the Atlantic Fleet commander-in-chief and ordered to the radar-picket destroyer USS Leary as her commanding officer.

West served on the staff of Adm. Lynde D. McCormick at Fleet headquarters in Norfolk, Va. He was on duty there since the fall of 1949.

A 1935 graduate of the Naval Academy, he was awarded the Silver Star and a Navy Unit citation for service as gunnery officer of the heavy cruiser USS Portland during several engagements with the enemy in the Pacific.

He served earlier on several destroyers with the Asiatic fleet. He once commanded the destroyer USS Everett F. Larson and was a marine engineering instructor at the Naval Academy.

He has been living with his wife, the former Jeanette Vesey of Hope, Ark., and his son Dan, 3, at Virginia Beach, Va.

He is a graduate of Winchester High School.

OLSON SOCIETY HEAD

There is local interest in the announcement that Iver M. Olson, 169 Birch street, Park Forest, chairman of the DePaul University marketing department, has recently been elected president of the Gamma of Illinois chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma. Mr. Olson grew up in Winchester, living on Prince avenue, and playing on the high school football team that won the Middlesex League football championship in 1933. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College.

The local chapter of the national honorary business society is located at the University of Chicago school of business.

RAYMOND C. STRAWBRIDGE

STRAWBRIDGE LUNCHEON CHAIRMAN

Mr. Raymond C. Strawbridge of Myrtle terrace, executive of Dickie-Raymond, Inc., Boston advertising firm, was chairman in charge of arrangements for the luncheon held Tuesday at the Hotel Statler in Boston under the auspices of the Advertising Club of Boston. The luncheon opened the annual observance of Printing and Publishing Week in New England.

John R. McAlpine, account representative on district mail for the J. Walter Thompson Co., of Detroit was the featured speaker at the luncheon, taking as his subject, "Can Direct Mail Be Advertising?"

DAMON NEW COOPERATIVE BANK DIRECTOR

Mr. Harry E. Damon, Jr., of 70 Arlington street, Winchester was elected a Director of the Winchester Co-operative Bank according to an announcement made by Mr. Vincent Farnsworth, President of the Bank.

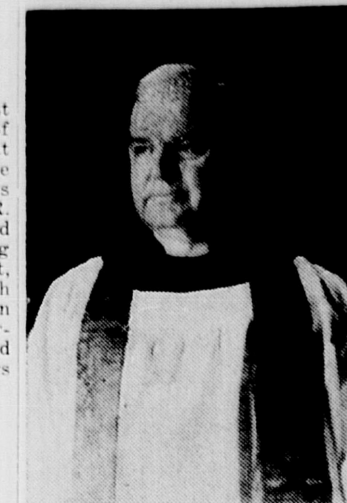

Mr. Damon is Superintendent of Reggs and Cobb, Inc., Tanners on Swanton street, Winchester. He is a past president of the Winchester Rotary Club, a member of the Winchester Country Club, Winchester Boat Club, and the Chatham Yacht Club and has served the town as a member of the Finance Committee.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Eleanor M. McCall wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter Beth to Mr. Theodore R. Wicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wicks of Wilmington. Miss McCall is a graduate of Winchester High School and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. She is now working at the Winchester Public Library. Mr. Wicks graduated from Wilmington High School and Bentley's School of Accounting in Boston. A fall wedding is planned.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Blair, Jr. (Madeleine Collins), of 6 Lloyd street are the parents of a second son, Geoffrey Arthur, born January 11 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Collins of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Blair of Wintrop.

REV. HOWARD J. CHIDLEY, D. D.

DR. CHIDLEY ANNOUNCES DATE OF RETIREMENT FROM ACTIVE MINISTRY

At the close of morning worship in the First Congregational Church January 13, Dr. Chidley announced the date on which he would retire from active ministry.

He said: "Each of us has his castle in Spain. During the last two years I have been dreaming of my own, which is the desire to retire from active ministry on my seventy-fifth birthday, January the second, 1953. That year also marks the fifty-fifth anniversary of my entering the Christian ministry."

"This is a declaration of intention. I have made it a year in advance, so that the church may have ample time in which to choose my successor. In the meantime we hope soon to fill all the staff offices, and to keep the church strong and vital in all departments. 'There will be a note of sadness for me, in severing my official connection with you beloved people, who have been so consistently loyal and so generously considerate during my ministry among you.'

"But Mrs. Chidley and I will continue our interest in this church, and I shall be happy to serve it in any needed capacity; and we shall ever pray for its fruitful promotion of God's Kingdom, both here, and in the far fields of Christian service. 'May God's richest blessing rest upon us all.'"

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer F. Hersey of 41 Wedgemere avenue announce the engagement of their daughter Carol to Mr. Richard Snow Vokey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Vokey of 1794 Columbia road, South Boston. Miss Hersey graduated from the Mary A. Burnham School, attended Mount Holyoke College and is now studying at Katherine Gibbs School in Boston. Mr. Vokey graduated from Boston Latin School, Exeter and Bowdoin College, Class of 1951, where he was a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. He is now attending Harvard Business School. A September wedding is planned.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haggerty of 33 Loring avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Edythe Margaret, to James Edward Boyle, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle of 152 Washington street, Woburn.

"SEVENTY-FIVE-YEARS AGO"

by E. de la Floeche

Many Star readers do not recall events which you publish; viz., "Fifty Years Ago." Even the Editor was still wearing short pants then!

There are a few of us left who can recall events in Winchester "Seventy-five years Ago", when the townspeople walked to the depot for the most part, and took either the 7:40 or the 8:01 train to Boston; or maybe one of the other 50 or so trains which we had, both in and out of the Lowell Depot. "Hughey" McCraven did get a living with his one-horse "depot carriage" for those whose legs were not too good!

Running water had been connected with many houses, but many people went to the well. The Common had been curbed but there were no trees on the area. Baseball was the only game and that was played on the Common, with the pitcher's box where the big red oak now stands and right field about in front of McCormack's Apothecary.

The big elm and its adjacent watering-trough were still there, between the railroad tracks and the present site of Hevey's Pharmacy. They were eliminated in 1898, but in those days they provided shade in the center and water for horses, including that very fine six-horse-string team that came each year with its load of mahogany logs for Cutter's Mill.

One could cross the center at this spot in those days without taking his life in his hand, could even have an argument in the center of the square and not get run down. Nor would Police Chief "Winnie" Richardson bowl you out for so doing!

Town meetings were held in Lyceum Hall and they were real events! No holds barred; no limited debates as of today!

The telephone had not been put to practical use although Dr. Bell was working on it. Edison had not invented the electric lamp and Winchester's streets had a few gas street-lamps.

Railway trains were still being braked by hand as air-brakes (Westinghouse) had not been invented. Horse-cars took one around in Boston and you shuffled your feet around in rye straw to keep them warm. The West End Street Railway maintained 2,000 horses to operate these cars. Incidentally these horses helped fertilize our West Side farm land, farming being of importance in that section of the town at that time, as well as the Symmes Corner area. From Bacon street west to Cambridge street there were only three houses and the Wyman School on Church street, and from the center to Bacon street, but twelve houses.

Regardless of what Franklin Roosevelt said, that the "Horse and buggy days had gone forever", one could go to the stores without hunting a place to hitch his horse, not like today with the jams of cars and jam of traffic. Kids could get pung rides in the winter as the streets were smooth with packed snow.

There were two grocery stores and one dry goods and milliner's shop at the center, and Mr. Marston's fish-wagon or pung in front of Lyceum Hall. Dr. Brown and Josiah Hovey had drug stores and Captain Coffin had a bit of a store where you could buy pickled limes coming from school. Everyone went to the Postoffice for his mail and the teen-agers hung around to make "eyes", not "dates".

The United States had been carrying on just a bit over one hundred years in those days, the Centennial at Philadelphia having just been held. While there are a few in town who can remember this event, there are many more who can only remember the Spanish-American War, or even the first World War, while many more were born since Franklin Roosevelt set up his so called Socialistic New Deal. This is still in power under Mr. Truman and has brought about a pattern of living in Winchester, let alone the whole country, which is bad, and will be worse if not checked.

We, who can remember back seventy-five years, might well hope that some of the "isms", the glamour, the immoral and immoral things now prevailing in government and in the private lives of many, both in high and low society, could be swept away and that the Country could return to the tempo of 1877. It would be better off!

NEW POWER ON B. & M.

Three new stainless steel, self-propelled RDC Budd rail motor cars have been ordered from the Budd Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia by the Boston and Maine Railroad at a total cost of approximately $499,000. It is expected that the new cars will be delivered in time to go into service with the change of time schedules April 27. Two of the cars are of the RDC-1 type with a seating capacity of 89, and a third is an RDC-3 combination coach, baggage and mail car with a passenger seating capacity of 49.

A spokesman for the road said, "The placing of this order is the direct result of a study extending over the last year and a half by a committee of railroad officials to

CHAMOIS SKIERS ACTIVE

Winchester's Chamois Ski Club is buzzing with activity this month. The first meeting of the New Year was held at Chandler's Barn on January 9. The subject was "First Aid and Ski Patrol" led by Harry Bean. Many helpful hints were given to club members on how to keep out of trouble, what not to do and in case of emergency what to do. An excellent film showing the work of the Volunteer Ski Patrol was shown. Members were encouraged to fully cooperate with the Ski Patrol and avoid serious accidents.

Chamois Skiers have reported excellent skiing for the past few weeks at Plymouth, Stowe, Jackson and North Conway. Last week-end at Cranmore the Eastern Slope enthusiasts Doris Maxwell and Dana Philbrook and Harry Chafalo, as always, were joined by those Western Slope die-hards Rolly Nault, Al Breed and Dick Glendon. The Cranmore vs. Cannon feud is on with neither side showing signs of conversion.

On January 6 Chamois Ski Club raced against Tufts at Amesbury, with Tufts winning, average time 66.95, vs. Chamois 79.05. Dud Samoiloff had best 56.6. Also representing the Chamois were runners Bean, Davies, Greeno, and Lamson. Ted Trott of Chamois skied for Tufts. At Pinkham Notch Ski Lift on Jan. 20 the Chamois will race in the Eastern Inter Club Race. All out for the race. Sign up with Bob Lamson, Winchester 6-2160-R. January 26 is the date for the club's first ski week-end of the season. Start waxing and let's all be ready to ski at the Western Slopes the 26th and 27th. The Chamois will stay at Mt. Pero Lodge at Plymouth. Call Al Breed, Winchester 6-1811-R for reservations now.

WON PRINCETON SOCCER LETTER

John A. Shane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Shane of 2 Canterbury road was among the Princeton University students recently awarded varsity letters as members of the university soccer team. A total of 63 students received awards as members of the varsity, secondary varsity and junior varsity teams. Included among those receiving awards were students from seven foreign nations and the Territory of Hawaii, as well as residents of 11 different states. Shane was one of 13 on the varsity team.

CURLERS START TRIPS

Last week three White Cup matches were played. Wagborne won 16-7 from Litchfield, Lane over Morrison by 16-4 and Morse over Davis by 10-7.

This week there were two Young Cup matches, Fritz Craven's rink, skipped by Al Litchfield in Fritz's absence, won 12-9 from John Joy and Dick Neiley, with the exceptional assistance of Jake Van Vloten, and Tom Aldrich, won from Goef Neiley's rink 15-9. In the Red vs. Blue matches, Jim Scott did noble work with fine assistance from Bill Ferguson by winning from Mike Hunt 15-8. Larry Fessenden won from Rex McWinn 11-8. Russ Symmes was especially helpful to Larry in this match.

Two weeks ago Dick Neiley, skip, with Al Litchfield, Charley Wagborne and Joe Dolben went to Mt. Hope, N. Y., where they had two matches at the St. Andrews rink. They had a good time, period. Last week John Joy, George King, Frank Lane and Bill Fulton went to Detroit, having five good matches against strong Canadian rinks.

but winning only one. Next week John Joy, Goef Neiley, Dan Morse and Bill Davis go to Utica, N. Y. Last week the Blues forged ahead, but this Tuesday the Reds were again leading 203-195.

LITTLE LEAGUERS ORGANIZING

Edward A. Bartlett, high school baseball and basketball coach, as well as the highly successful coach of the Winchester Junior Legion Baseball Team for several seasons, has been elected president of the Little Leaguers organization in Winchester. Ed Cullen, Rotarian and proprietor of the Winchester News Company, has been named vice president; Jim Haley, of Puffer's Insurance, representing the Kiwanis Club, is secretary; and Charlie Koch, Rotarian and proprietor of the Sports Shop, treasurer.

A board of directors is in process of formation and is expected to be completed at the next meeting of the Leaguers, to be held Monday evening, January 21, at the home of Ed Cullen, 232 M. V. Parkway, commencing at 8 o'clock. Meanwhile, anyone interested in becoming either a coach or manager of one of the Leaguers teams is invited to submit his name to Charlie Koch at the Sports Shop, on Church street near the Trust Company. Each team will have both coach and manager.

There will be four Little Leaguers teams to start this season in the spring, those sponsored by Moody Motors, Bonnell Motors, Winchester Rotary Club and Winchester Kiwanis Club.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Our first Bridge and Whist Party of the New Year will be held on Tuesday evening, January 22, at the Legion Home. Proceeds from this party will be used for our Child Welfare Fund, which has had many necessary expenses this year.

This is one of our most important and worthwhile projects, and we must have funds to continue the work. Come and bring your friends, and make up your own table of Bridge, Whist, Canasta or any other game you wish to play. We are depending on everyone to cooperate.

WINCHESTER, 89; BELMONT, 43

The Winchester High quintet showed no respect for past reputations as they overcame Belmont High at Belmont on Tuesday afternoon by a score of 89-43. This must be the worst beating ever taken by a Belmont quintet and the Indians did it while using 12 players and having no less than five performers scoring in double figures. The Indians simply ran the Belmont team into the ground as they scored 51 points in the first quarter. The second quarter was the closest period of the game but the locals gained five points to lead 38-19 at the intermission.

Symmes again had the "hot hand" in the third quarter as the Red and Black continued to roll to compile a 60-29 margin at the three-quarter mark. Long and Forester paced the scoring in the final quarter as the Indians rang up what is probably a new all-time scoring mark for a Winchester High team.

Once again it was definitely a team victory for the locals as they simply outmaneuvered and overpowered the Belmont quintet. Special mention must go to Stowell Symmes, however, for his 20 point scoring spree as he spear-headed the Winchester fast break. Peter Coon, Charlie Murphy, and Johnny Farrell played one of their better games while Captain John Dilorio was the steady influence as he directed the team play. The Indians continued their amazing shooting percentage as they connected for 48 per cent of their shots from the floor and were successful on 27 of their 35 free throws with Symmes high-lighting that performance with eight straight from the foul line.

The Winchester Seconds were hard pressed to pull out a 48-38 victory over the Belmont Seconds. The locals were trailing 11-13 for the first time this year at the end of the first quarter but nosed ahead 25-24 at the half. The Seconds won the game in the third quarter when they gained seven points to lead 41-33 entering the final period. Stu Thomson was high scorer for the Seconds with 11 points.

WINCHESTER, 85; STONEHAM, 48

A 25-point scoring spree by Rodney Long sparked Winchester High to a magnificent 85-48 victory over Stoneham High at Stoneham last Friday night. Long was especially brilliant in the first half as he poured 19 points through the hoop to give the Indians a comfortable margin all the way. It was the top performance of the year for the locals as they operated like a well-oiled machine to gain sweet revenge for the irritating upset of a year ago at Stoneham which deprived them of a clear title to the Middlesex League championship.

The game started fast as Winchester raced away to a 10-point lead but Stoneham fought back to cut the Red and Black lead to 20-14 at the end of that period. Stoneham reduced that lead to 22-18 early in the second quarter before the locals began to roll again to gain seven more points in this period to lead 42-29 at the half. The third quarter was bitterly fought as Stoneham double-teamed Long to reduce his scoring but the Indians still gained one point to enter the final quarter with a 14-point lead. The pressure began to tell, however, as Stoneham cracked wide open in the final quarter as the locals piled up a 28-5 score in that period to win a very gratifying victory.

Rodney Long was naturally the hero of the Winchester victory but the whole team combined to put on their most dazzling exhibition of the season to gain their most impressive win of the season. Captain John Dilorio scored 11 points but more important was the tremendous defensive job he did of stopping Fallovalitta, the high scoring Stoneham ace, to blunt the Blue and White attack. Doug Hawkins contributed 18 big points to the Winchester attack while pretty much reigning over the rebounds off both back boards.

Charlie Murphy did a superb job of working the ball through the Stoneham defense to set up much of the Winchester scoring and contributed four nice set shots that loosened up the zone defense considerably. Bob Forester, Johnny Farrell, Peter Coon, and Stowell Symmes all contributed their part to keep the pressure on Stoneham until the Blue and White cracked in the final quarter. It was a real team victory with all playing a vital part in the final result which fact is further emphasized by the remarkable shooting accuracy of 52 per cent.

The Winchester Seconds defeated the Stoneham Seconds in a thrilling preliminary game by a score of 55-43. It was the first time this season that the Red and Black Seconds have been extended as they had only a four point lead at the half and only a seven point margin entering the final quarter. The Seconds responded nicely, however, as they came through with flying colors with four of the regulars scoring double figures as Bob Flaherty collected 14 points, Norman Howard 12 points, Stu Thomson 11 points, and Dave Pratt 10 points.

COUNTRY CLUB WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

Trips to Florida, South American cruises, vacations of all types are being called off by various members of the Winchester Country Club Women's Bowling League due to the intense interest in this lively league. No member wants to miss a single session of the enjoyable luncheons or the competitive bowling. Another successful luncheon was held on January 15, with Team 6 acting as hostess for the day, members of this team being Mrs. Harry O'Brien, Mrs. Lawrence Sibley, Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Courtney Gendron, Mrs. Robert McKeown, Mrs. Harold Bugbee was winner of the six lovely men's handkerchiefs donated by Thomas O'Brien & Sons, Inc., Medford. Mrs. Ed Garity won the team prize, which assured her a delicious lobster meal.

Satisfaction ...

Saving ...

Two Words To Remember

The satisfaction of having that well-groomed look, the luxurious feeling of clean, smooth bed linen ... the saving of the time and energy of the housewife and the downright saving of money to the budgeter ... these all can be had through the professional laundry. Modern folks know that laundry service is not a luxury—it is a convenience of gracious living.

"JIM" HAGGERTY

In the passing of James D. Haggerty on January 11, The Woburn Daily Times lost a capable chief executive and the Winchester Star, a good friend. "Jim" or "J. D.", as he was familiarly known, rose from a humble printer's shop to a now forgotten Woburn shop to head his own printing and publishing business, and to a position of prominence in his native Wo-burn. Better still, he won for himself the esteem of his business and civic associates for his never-failing efforts to make Woburn a better city in which to work and live.
It was characteristic of "Jim" Haggerty, the man, that from the founding of the "Times" in 1901 until his death, he rigidly insisted that its columns be kept free from the sensational and lurid, that its message be one that all the people of Woburn could welcome into their homes. On that premise his paper has grown and prospered, but the cornerstones of that prosperity have been the industry and integrity of the publisher and editor. No one among the many who have worked for the "Times" through the years has worked harder or longer hours than the big boss, who was early and late at the shop as long as he was physically able, and after that exercised an active supervision of the business from his home virtually until his death. Despite his preoccupation with business, Mr.
Haggerty found time to work for Woburn institutions like the Chosen Hospital, and it is not long ago that he wrote a series of historical articles in the "Times" about the business development in Woburn that was both interesting and informative. Busy as he always was, he was never too busy to give a lift to a "brother in the bonds", or to cooperate with him in something mutually beneficial. The Star has often benefited by his friendly help and worked with him for the interest of his paper and ours. We will miss "Jim" Haggerty, his rugged honesty, his business ethics, and his friendly cooperation. We extend our deep sympathy to his sorrowing family and our sincere best wishes to those who will carry on in his place. They have a real mark which to aim—to prove worthy of the heritage of "Jim" Haggerty.

HONESTY IN POLITICS PAYS

Editor of the Star:
Former Governor Thompson of Georgia, a lifelong Democrat, was appointed to the Price Stabilization office as consultant with a salary of $53.48 a day, plus expenses.
After some three months in office, during which time he had "no assignment to do anything," he personally called President Truman's attention to the situation and, as usual, nothing was done about it.
He resigned, stating: "I refuse to accept salary and expense money from the taxpayers when I am rendering no public service. I refuse to be a parasite on the American taxpayers." He returned to his home in Valdosta, Georgia. He went on to say that "there are thousands upon thousands rendering no public service but are on the public payroll, not only in Washington but throughout the United States." This, it is to be noted, is not from a Republican but from a lifelong Southern Democrat.

Senator Harry F. Byrd, another lifelong Democrat, has championed the cause of economy early and late, and has shown President Truman how billions can be saved the taxpayers without jeopardizing the welfare of the country. Again, nothing has been done about it;
too many of the President's crony appointees would lose their jobs if only qualified and necessary officials were kept in office.

SGT. ROBERT B. L. SINGER WINS AMERICAN SPIRIT HONOR MEDAL

Sgt. Robert Singer talks over with Army Base personnel. Left to right: Capt. Ralph Eames USAF PIO Army USAF Recruiting Dist. HQs; Sgt. Robert Singer; Capt. Robert Green USAF Adj. Dist. HQs; Sgt. Edward Boyson, Station Commander Medford Recruiting Station, City Hall, Medford.

Editor of the Star:
It is a great pleasure to present the above picture to the many Winchester friends of "Bob" Singer—and rather difficult to call him
"Sergeant".
Sgt. Singer enlisted in Officer Candidate School last June, took his basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J., and on completion of Leadership
School was awarded the American Spirit Honor Medal earned as high trainee graduate. We are very proud of Sgt. Singer, for this medal is not an easy one to obtain.

This is an election year and, sad to say, too many selfish officials are working harder for their own re-election than they are for the welfare of their country which they are obligated to serve and protect. No one is lower in the social scale than a Pendergast-type politician who seeks office, not for what he can give but for what he can get. If you find your representative is a man of that type for your self-respect and peace of mind, don't vote for him.

In truth, however, honesty in politics pays, as is exemplified by the remarkable and heartening record of the late Walter S. Goodland, Republican Governor of Wisconsin. He proved to the people that he was honest, conscientious, fair, and fearless. He vetoed more than sixty bills, sent to him by the legislature for his signature, because he considered them unsound.
These bills were sponsored by such groups as the LaFollette Progressives, the Socialists, New Deal Democrats, Republicans of his own party, Veterans and Labor Unions.
Notwithstanding, he received such tributes as the LaFollette Progress-
ives, the Socialists, New Deal Democrats, Republicans of his own party, Veterans and Labor Unions.
Notwithstanding, he received such
tributes as the LaFollette Progress-
ives, the Socialists, New Deal Democrats, Republicans of his own party, Veterans and Labor Unions.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt was nominated for the presidency by the Democrats in his first campaign following his governorship of the State of New York, Colonel House, diplomat and politician, said there was only one man in the United States who could have defeated him and he "didn't choose to run." It was the unaffected Vernoner, Calvin Coolidge, in whom the people had learned to have faith and who trusted him because of his homely thrift and honesty and sound principles which he stated as follows: "I favor a policy of economy, not because I want to save money, but because I wish to save people. The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of government. Every dollar we carelessly spend means that their lives will be so much more meager. Every dollar that we prudently save means that their lives will be so much more abundant. Economy is idealism in the most practical form."

The announced principles and deeds of Governor Thompson of Georgia, a lifelong Democrat; Governor Walter S. Goodland, Republican of Wisconsin; Senator Byrd, a Virginia Democrat; and Calvin Coolidge, former Republican President of the United States, heartened and thrilled me, even as I write about them. Their deeds are the silver lining of the threatening clouds of national chaos, the light of faith that, sometime, the grim struggle for right will triumph in the dawn of a better day.

Uprightness in the long run,
even in politics, is the best policy.
Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

WINCHESTER PEOPLE ON INDUSTRIAL TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Richmond of 30 Swan road are among the Massachusetts manufacturers and their wives participating in the Industrial Tour of South America, sponsored by the Associated Industries of Massachusetts to promote a greater exchange of business friendships. Mr. Richmond is chairman of the board of the General Radio Company of Cambridge.
The tour will start from Boston January 24 and end March 9 when the S. S. Argentina of the Moore-McCormack Lines returns with the party to New York.

Going on this tour are Massachusetts manufacturers and their wives, businessmen, bankers and professional men and women, numbering 81 persons who represent more than 30 distinct types of Massachusetts industries.

In addition to being a business tour, it has developed, during the preparatory stages, into a goodwill mission from industrial centers in Massachusetts to the South American branch banks, industrial centers 2 years ago. Arthur H. Starrett, President of The L. S. Starrett Company of Athol, and Carl R. Brownell, President of the G. L. Brownell Company of Winchester, have been designated Co-Chairmen.

The First National Bank of Boston has cooperated with the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, through the Boston office and the South American branch banks, in the development of the South American program, giving luncheons and dinners to the Massachusetts party in Rio de Janeiro and other cities. The National City Bank of New York also has interested itself in the tour and is assisting through its branch bank in Sao Paulo, and large committees of local business leaders have been formed to properly receive their counterparts in Bay State industry.

Business promotion and plant visits are the main objectives of the trip, but the idea of such a visit by leading manufacturers in Massachusetts has been received in Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay with so much enthusiasm that entertainments, South American style, planned for the visitors, await them at every port they enter.
Entertainment committees meet the ship at each port. One thousand industrialists in Sao Paulo have cabled to Boston advance words of welcome and constituted themselves into a Committee on Welcome. Climaxing the social program of the tour will be the Mardi Gras Carnival in Rio de Janeiro where the party will spend four days, from February 23 to 27.
One of the many highlights is an all-day trip into the famous Argentina Pampas to be entertained on a large ranch, the far-famed "Estancia" of 15,000 acres, where native dancers will entertain during luncheon at an outdoor barbecue called "Asado."

THE WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

The newly formed Daytime Study Group "Thrifty, Timesaving Tactics" will have its first meeting Thursday, January 31st. Mrs. Richard Wyman, the Club President, will preside and Mrs. Howard Aiken will discuss "Tricks with Time." The group will gather at the homes of different members from 9:30-11:00 o'clock a. m. on alternate Thursdays for a series of six meetings. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs.
Lewis L. Wadsworth, Jr.

The discussions will be led by Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. William A. Kugler, Mrs. Murray S. Moore and Mrs. May of the State Department of Public Works.

STATISTICS FROM TOWN CLERK

Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson has made public the following vital statistics for the year, 1951:
Births registered ..... 1115
Deaths registered ..... 189
Marriages registered ..... 212

CIVIL DEFENSE

C. D. SCHEDULES TEST ALERT FOR SATURDAY, JANUARY 26

Winchester's Civil Defense Department is conducting its second test alert on Saturday, January 26.
It will be run on a similar basis to the one conducted in December.
The command and staff sections will be the only portion of the organization involved. Its purpose is to take advantage of the many lessons learned during the previous test and develop to a more perfect degree the employment and coordination of its several elements.

A briefing meeting will be conducted Tuesday evening, January 22 at the Legion Home at which time details of the conduct of Saturday's test will be received.

REV. JOHN P. AARON OF SOUTH INDIA TO SPEAK AT EPIPHANY

On Tuesday, January 22, the Reverend John P. Aaron will be the luncheon speaker at the Parish House of the Epiphany Church. Mr.
Aaron is in charge of the Pakhal and Singareni Mission Area in the Diocese of Dornakal, South India, and is the son-in-law of the late Bishop Azariah of Dornakal, who was a notable figure greatly esteemed throughout the Anglican Community. Mr. Aaron comes of a Tamil family; his father, an earnest Evangelist, worked in the Te-legu Mission in its pioneer stage, and he himself, after studying three years in this country at Northwestern University and Sea-bury-Western Theological Seminary, was ordained to the priesthood of the Episcopal Church and returned to India. In 1937 he succeeded the Rev. George Van B.
Shriver, an Episcopalian, as head of the Pakhal-Singareni Missions.
Mr. Schriver, now of Trinity Church, Elkhridge, Maryland, was an emissary of the Episcopal Church which subscribed and still subscribes to an annual fund for Christian Missions in Dornakal.

When the Church of South India was inaugurated in 1947, the Pakhal and Singareni Areas became part of the United Church, still in the Dornakal Diocese. Here 50% ex-Anglicans have united with 50% ex-Methodists, and are working happily under Bishop A. B.
Elliott, an Anglican cleric from the North of Ireland. It is the South India Plan of Inter-denominational cooperation that has captured the attention of the entire Protestant Church World.

The Rev. John P. Aaron is in charge of two large areas, Pakhal and Singareni, 200 square miles in extent, in which small Christian congregations, chiefly from the Depressed Classes, are scattered far and wide in roadless jungles.
He and Mrs. Aaron are on a short tour of England and the United States, where Mr. Aaron hopes to meet many friends of the Church of South India and to tell, from years of experience, of his own work. Everyone interested is welcome to come and hear him.

DAMPER BLOCKED, FIRE AT HOME

A blocked fireplace damper caused a slight fire shortly before 6 oclock Monday evening at the home of Mr. Herbert Fairfield, 10 Bonad road.

Mrs. Fairfield attempted to burn a carton in the fireplace, but when she tried to open the fireplace damper was unable to do so.
The flames swept out into the room, scorching the fireplace mantel and smoking into the house. A hurry-up call to Fire Chief James E. Callahan, next door neighbor of the Fairfields brought expert assistance and things were soon past the danger point. Chief Callahan believes a stone or loose bit of mortar from the chimney jammed the damper, making it difficult to open.

JAMES A. CULLEN
CULLEN HONORED

James A. Cullen of Bacon street, former Selectman and now a member of the Board of Middlesex County Commissioners was significantly honored when he recently concluded a year's service as chairman of the board "Jim", himself, always likes to remind people he was elected chairman in 1950 by the then two Republican members of the board.

When Jim relinquished the chairmanship in favor of Thomas B.
Brennan this year Commissioner Brennan and his colleague, Commissioner William G. Andrew, passed the following:
"In recognition of the commendation to James A. Cullen as extended as Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners for the County of Middlesex for the excellency of leadership, as evidenced by the magnanimity, impartiality, and sound executive sense which characterized his chairmanship of said Board of County Commissioners; and "Voted further: that this commendation be spread upon the records of the said County Commissioners and that a copy hereof be forwarded to the said Honorable

James A. Cullen.

"In witness whereof, we, County Commissioners and colleagues of the said James A. Cullen, do hereby set out hands this fourth day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two."

Thomas B. Brennan
William G. Andrew
A true copy,
Attest:
Edith M. White
Assistant Clerk
In addition to the above resolution Commissioner Cullen is also proud of the fact that it was during his incumbency as chairman that the County paid the $27,000 necessary to clean up the last of a long term debt that it had whitened almost without interruption from a peak of $2,024,600 in 1932.
Removing this debt was not the result of chance good fortune, but came about through the adoption and adherence to a rigid pay-as-you-go policy.

There has been no more enthusiastic subscriber to such a policy on the Board in many years, if ever, than the present Commissioner from Winchester.

Mrs. Douglas Harley Scarfe, of Saldean, Sussex, England, to Dr.
Leslie McIntire Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Curtis, of Winchester, and Boothbay Harbor, Me., took place January 5th at St. Margaret's Church in the old-world village of Rottingdean, Sussex, England. The bride, Miss Scarfe, was Tavener, M. A., performed the ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mr. E. Holmbyard, B.
Mus. Oxon; F. R. C. O., A. R. C. M.
Mrs. Curtis, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of ivory marquisette, with net yoke and bertha of antique point-de-venise lace and carried a bouquet of white heather bouquet.

Her sole attendant was her twin sister, Miss Jean Scarfe, who wore a dress of deep coral net with touches of silver and carried a bouquet of multi-colored anemones, with a spray of the same flowers in her hair.

The bride's mother was attired in a pink-beige dress with hat of matching feathers and a fur cape.
The best man was Mr. Kenneth Ross, cousin of the bride, and the ushers were Mr. Ron Bowes and Mr. John Morrish.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the White Horse Hotel, Rottingdean, where the guests were received by the bride's mother and father and Mr.
and Mrs. Edwin Kelday Scarfe, who represented Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, parents of the groom.

After a brief honeymoon motoring in England, the young people will fly to Boston, where Dr. Curtis is now practicing dentistry.

Mrs. Curtis was educated in England and has been with the British Information Services in Boston for the past two years, acting as secretary to the British Vice-Consul
Mrs. J. Stanley Rolls.

Dr. Curtis attended the Winchester Schools and graduated from Mount Hermon School, Norwic University and Tufts College Dental School, where he is now a mental health specialist. During World War II he served with the 10th Mountain Division in Italy.

THE MARCH OF DIMES

Winchester and Middlesex County contributed generously in 1951 to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Unfortunately the job is not done! In order to continue the battle against Polio we must all help, and we can help by just playing a small part in this war against the unrelenting scourge of infantile paralysis. How can we help? Simply by contributing what we can to the 1952 March of Dimes campaign.

When and how can you contribute to the 1952 campaign is not a difficult question to answer.
There are coin boxes placed in department stores, grocery stores, drug stores, and practically every place of business throughout the town of Winchester into which you can drop a coin or two. Remember when you drop that coin, no matter how large or small, it is a contribution which is going to help relieve the suffering and pain of some unfortunate child or adult stricken with infantile paralysis. This plea for your help is a dire one, it is a desperate one. There is no hedging on this point for if you are interested in figures, here is the plight of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Entering the year 1952 the foundation faces a debt of $5,000,000 for services already rendered to the stricken. The job of continuing the battle obviously needs all the aid that you can muster.

This year the Winchester Committee, headed by Mr. Dean W.
Carleton, is planning the Mothers' March for 1952. Last year the Mothers' March was highly successful. It is hoped that the citizens of Winchester will respond to this year's March with an enthusiasm which will surpass the 1951 march.
It can be done, it must be done,
and with your help it will be done.

On Thursday night, January 31, 1952 from 7:00 to 8:00 p. m., you can help put across the most successful March of Dimes campaign in Winchester's history. Turn on your porch light, that is the signal, and a mother will call at your door.
When she rings the door bell, answer it with a generous contribution to the March of Dimes. As in the coin boxes placed throughout the town, whatever you can give will be gratefully received. May your gift be great or small, the fight against Polio humbly welcomes your contribution. Please Turn On Your Light.

Below is a list of persons actively engaged in carrying out the job of putting across the March of Dimes campaign in Winchester.

MONIQUE de la BRUCHOLLERIE

The Fortnightly News

Pianist Gave Community Concert Tuesday

It is hard for an inexperienced reviewer to do justice to such an accomplished pianist as Miss Bruchollerie. The gods certainly smiled on her when she was born and gave her quick physical response and the mental and spiritual equipment to use it.

The technical ability she displayed in her program at the high school was extremely brilliant, her tone was beautiful, and even in places where she used enormous strength, was never harsh.

The Bach Chorale Prelude was thrilling in its big rich tone and fine conception of the music. We wish she had played more like it. The gay, amusing scores were played with crystal clarity and keen sense of humor. Her timing of last notes was a joy to hear and gave just the right feeling of drama.

It was interesting to hear the waltzes by Schubert, Brahms, Debussy, and Chopin. One of the other and have their strong characteristic brought out so clearly.

The modern times were a great addition to the program, they were good to hear and should make us realize that much modern music is interesting and stimulating and not unpleasant.

We wish that the Community Concert program had allowed Miss Bruchollerie to play more than a few pieces to instead of so many short brilliant pieces that exploited her extraordinary facility and did not leave us with the great sense of satisfaction that her ability could give.

It was none the less a most notable and thrilling evening, and one that we are most fortunate to have presented in Winchester.

GENERAL ELECTRIC SHADES

WINCHESTER H. C. 4 to 3

In its best played game so far the Winchester Hockey Club was barely edged by General Electric of Lynn at the North Shore Sports Center, Lynn, last Sunday evening.

Winchester was first to score when Charlie O'Connor, E's pickup from a scrimmage in front of the G. E. net with the game less than two minutes along. Git Priestly, former Brown University star, equalized for G. E. two minutes later. The first period ended at one-all.

The second period was very fast with Doyle putting G. E. out front early 2 to 1, with the locals tying it up again late in the period when Bob Cox finished off a fine play on a pass from Allie Power.

Winchester had the thrill of going ahead again 3 to 2 early in the final stanza on Tony Powell's score, assisted by brother Allie. They held this lead in spite of many power plays by G. E. until near the end of the game. Then with less than two minutes to go G. E.'s Kelley and Git Priestly added successive markers to send the locals home empty handed.

All the locals fought hard to win this game. Don Armstrong and the Power brothers excelled in the attack while Don Ellis put on a brilliant defensive exhibition. For General Electric the two Priestlys, Doyle and Kelley excelled on offense, with Mike Thayer, former Dartmouth great, and Grouette starting on defense.

SPRINGFIELD GYMNASIUMS

EXHIBIT JUDO

A judo exhibition in which the performers throw one another ruthlessly about the state will be an exciting novelty of the Springfield College Exhibition Team program this year.

The famed team of college gymnasts will be the Winchester Saturday evening, January 19, and will give a two hour entertainment of gymnastic dancing, comedy and amazing work on the heavy apparatus. The show will be given in the High School Gymnasium under the auspices of the Winchester High School Varsity Club.

The judo partners are Frank Hartsoe of Bluefield, West Va., and Albert Allie of Springfield, Mass. Both are seniors at the college and veteran performers on the exhibition team. Although their judo practice and exhibition involves a close approach to assault and battery on one another, the performers actually are campus buddies who trust each other completely as they engage in their novel gymnastics. Both of these young judo experts are members of a campus musical group and are outstanding scholastically.

Hartsoe developed his judo interest while serving in the Marine Corps, and he attended a judo school in California for two years while in military service. Allie has been a student of Hartsoe in this very special area of self defense, and the teacher-student relationship has produced remarkable results. Allie had a background in gymnastic work at Technical High School before entering Springfield College. When the two students met by chance it was not long before they both were working together to keep up their skill in the exacting requirements of judo.

Their performance will include defensive maneuvers which have startled the uninformed with their demonstration of falling, rhythmic throws, and defense against pistol, knife, bayonet, club and sword. In a very realistic manner the duo portray what might happen in a street fight when two judo adversaries clash, and the force series of rapid thrusts and throws brings the judo number to a thrilling climax.

WINCHESTER FROSH

OUTCLASSED WAKEFIELD

The Winchester Freshmen ran roughshod over the Wakefield Freshmen to defeat them by a score of 54-27 at Wakefield on Monday afternoon. The game was a contest for a half only as the locals led by a 24-17 margin at the intermission but outscored their opponents 30-10 over the last two periods. Pete Gove with 12 points and Lou Farrell with 11 points paced the scoring for the Papooses while Brad Johnson and Langley Keyes turned in outstanding performances.

The Winchester Junior High made it four straight victories for the season by swamping the Wakefield Junior High under a 41-19 score. Joe Bellino and Bert Kneeland played good ball for the locals and big John Lynch effectively controlled both back halves.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

The Fortnightly News

On Monday afternoon, despite the weather, the Masonic Hall was very well filled with members and friends of the Fortnightly. The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p. m. by singing "America the Beautiful," followed by the Pledge to our Flag. Mrs. Hicore read the invocation, after which she extended greetings to us all in her warm, friendly manner. The order of business followed.

We all were very sorry to hear of the resignation of Mrs. George Budd. Needless to say, she will be greatly missed, but we wish her much happiness in her new home in California. Mrs. George French will take her place as corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, chairman of the State Division of Legislation, gave us much food for thought on the bills she recently introduced. Several of them have already had a hearing, but there are two more to come up, one on January 22 and the other January 30.

Those who were unable to bring their birthday bags, please send or write to the treasurer, Mrs. Madge. The next Literature group meeting will be on February 4 at the Public Library at 2:00 p. m. Miss Gertrude Kimball will read a paper on "Phyllis Bentley and her West." All Fortnightly members are cordially invited.

How can anyone forget our next regular Fortnightly meeting, Monday, January 28, when Mrs. Marion T. Rudkin will give us glimpses of New Books. The meeting will be at 2:00 p. m. in the Masonic Hall. Tickets of Federated Clubs will not be honored, as our own members and guests fill the hall.

After the announcements were made and all chairmen were heard from and the rest of the business taken care of, we settled our selves for a most interesting afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Lamson. Mrs. Lamson taught in the Mission School in Shanghai, China, several years ago, and she had much to tell us. She told us about attending a Chinese opera, describing the costumes and at the same time passing among us many of her treasures she collected while in China. She showed us many articles of clothing, many pictures, a great number of carved wooden figures, lovely dolls, articles of jewelry, and a number of other things. She played records of Chinese music and ended her program by having a fashion show of gorgeous Chinese costumes modeled by her own members. The afternoon was all too quickly over.

A delicious tea was served by Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Newhall, Mrs. Meigs and her committee. We had real Chinese food and sweet rice cakes with a fortune inside. Mrs. Meigs had even stenciled the white tea napkins with gold Chinese words which said, "World Friendship." Mrs. Walter Winslow and Mrs. Edward Grosser presided at the tea table.

ANNUAL MEETING

HELD AT SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Annual Meeting of the Second Congregational Church was held at the church on Wednesday, January 16. The meeting was presided over by Mr. John Reynolds, moderator. Reports were read by the minister, officers, and committee members, indicating that 1951 was a successful year in every way. New programs were outlined for 1952. The following persons were newly elected officers of the church: Deacons: Mr. John Reynolds, 55 Brookside avenue.

Treasurer: Mr. Fred Saunders, 196 Cross street.
Clerk: Mrs. John Reynolds, 55 Brookside avenue.

Deacons: Mr. Frank McLean, 43 Brookside avenue.
Prudential Committee: Mr. Ralph Perkins, 4 Maple road.

Auditors: Mrs. David Smith, 4 Dodge, 32 Grove street.
Mr. Ronald Richburg, 13 Highland View avenue.

Church School Supt.: Mrs. Rony Snyder, 95 Highland avenue.
Music Committee: Mr. William "Iron" Flood, 100 Main street.

An informal coffee hour was held at the close of the meeting. Refreshments were served by the Merry Marthas.

WOMEN'S COUNTRY CLUB

BOWLING LEAGUE

The Winchester Women's Bowling League gathered at the Winchester Country Club on January 8 for the weekly Bowlers' Luncheon after a recess of four weeks, to once again start their lively competitive bowling. Team 13 was leading the League by 2½ points at the start of the second round but Team 5 challenged them to hold the lead and from last reports they had failed to meet the challenge.

Miss Tilley donated lovely lingerie for the door prize and Mrs. James Beale was the envy of all those present when she held the lucky number. Team 7 had a surprise in store for all those present, prize consisting of a huge box of oranges and grapefruit, won by Mrs. Arthur Murphy.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. L. F. Hannigan, Mrs. A. Howard, Mrs. P. Cooke, Mrs. H. Mueller, Mrs. D. Sawyer and Mrs. Maurice Brown.

UNUSUAL CATCH

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Stone, II, of 63 High Street have returned to Winchester from Sarasota, Fla., where they spent some time with Mr. Stone's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Collins, formerly of this town.

While in the south "Ed" caught a large cowhose ray in Sarasota Bay. Natives could not recall one ever being caught there before. To add to the unusual catch, the big ray gave birth to a baby ray just after being landed.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

At the last 1951-52 board meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association, held last Friday morning in the General Assembly Room, Town Hall, warm tribute was paid by all members to the retiring president, Mrs. Henry E. Moffette, for her splendid work as head of the Association for the past two years, and for her vision and cooperation in promoting the growth of the organization.

The meeting was brief, for there was little "end of the year" material to be discussed, and the annual meeting takes place on January 18, with election of new officers. Mrs. Doris Wiklund, executive director, spoke of the four black bags which En Ka had given to the Association — a gift deeply appreciated and already in good use! — plus En Ka's splendid gifts of necessary items to a WDNA patient.

For the month of December, the nurses made 425 visits to patients. Total visits for 1951 were 4,866, which is one hundred more calls than were made the year before in the same period.

Mrs. Wiklund also reported that the Christmas stockings which the Association prepared for all patients of all ages in the District, were received with great delight by the patients. The cheerful little gauze stocking, filled to the brim with little treats (even powder, tooth paste, candy, lip stick) brought cheer to everyone. In addition to the stockings, the nurses had some lovely gifts donated by the Needlework Guild, to distribute where the needs were greatest.

A cuddly doll, beautifully dressed by Mrs. Frank Hall, with a doll bed donated and equipped by Mrs. Leo Mamoli, brought the spirit of Christmas to a little girl who had broken her doll some months before.

SCOUTS SWAM AT "Y"

Thirty Troop 6 Boy Scouts went to the Maiden YMCA Monday evening to enjoy a "Splash Party" instead of their usual Monday meeting.

Assistant Scout Master Emmons Ellis was in charge of arrangements for the party and supervised the activities of the group.

Among the Troop Fathers present were Ted Elliott, Ben Gowing, Curtis Ware and Charlie Nichols. There will be a Troop Committee Meeting Wednesday, February 6, at the Unitarian Church, commencing at 8:00 o'clock. All committee members are urged to be present.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

Try Stenciling This Winter

If you are already one of the many hobbyists enjoying stenciling or hand painting, you will be glad to know that your Public Library has many books on these subjects. If you have not yet tried your hand in these fields, you have a lot of fun in store for you. Whether you decide to decorate an old tray, stencil a luncheon set, or brighten up your kitchen walls with colorful figures or designs, the library has books which not only explain the technique, but also are full of different decoration ideas.

Mrs. Blanchard, who lives in Winchester, has written an excellent book "How to Paint Trays." Along with her book, you would find that the pamphlet "The Painted Tray and Free Hand Bronzing" would prove helpful. "Early American Decoration" by Brazier describes the principles and practice of early American decoration and is a beautifully illustrated book.

Were you to browse through the books on stencil work some of the ones you would find are: "Stenciling and Stencil Craft as a Hobby" by Beigleleisen; "300 Projects for Hand Decorating" by Hallen; "Stenciling" by Smith; "Hands at Work" by Zweybuck; "Artists Manual for Silk Screen Printing" by Shokler. Along with these and other books, there are pamphlets such as "Do it Yourself — Decorate Fabrics with Color" or "Pennsylvania German Painted Tin."

Choosing designs is often a problem — you may find the perfect one in "Painting Patterns for Home Decorators" by Spears; "1001 Designs for Hand Decorating" by Flann; "100 Designs for Painting and Stenciling Textiles," or "American Folk Decoration" by Lipman.

Come in and take out a few of these books — you may find you have talent you never dreamed you possessed. In all events, you will find that stenciling is a fascinating pastime.

ENTERTAINED UNITARIAN CHOIR

On Sunday afternoon, January 13th the members of the Winchester Unitarian Choir were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Kelley for dinner at Towne Lyne House in Lynnfield. This is the fifth season that the Kelleys have graciously entertained the Unitarian Choir in this manner and for those who have been privileged to attend all of these wonderful parties the opinion was unanimous that this season's affair was the finest in good fellowship and jollity.

During dinner there was much a cappella and spontaneous singing which gave pleasure to our host and hostess and to the many diners who applauded enthusiastically, especially when George Fortune sang "Be My Love" and "Ole Man River" with humming background.

Toasts to the Kelleys were given by Bob Wild, who was particularly resplendent in an eye catching yellow cravat and Alan Mowatt and Jimmy deRevere led the singing. Following the delightful repast, Arthur presented "Corona Coronas" to the men and all guests received an exquisitely wrapped box of Martha's delicious home-made candy.

Bob Bertherton, who had charge of transportation, is to be commended for his excellent work in that department.

Those who attended were the soloists of the choir, Dolores Baldivia, Muriel Tholey, Edgar Isherwood and George Fortune, the Rev. Robert A. Storer, Dianne Mansfield, "Deekie" Dellicker, Martha Hall, Becky and Ted Robinson, Linda and Carol Witham, Sue and Bob Westwater, Jeanne Wild, Nancy Griffiths, Peg and John Worcester, Bob and Ann Wild, Lindsay and Jean Caldwell, Edna Wild, Tom Quarles, Caroline Saunders, Mrs. von Rosenzweig, Janet and Bob Burbank, Alma and Bob Bertherton, Jim, Caroline and Tommy Joslin, fresh returned from their world tour; Justine King, Bob Evans, Grace Norian, Alan Mowatt, Jim deRevere and Mary Witham.

Unable to attend were Mabel Harvey, our choir mother; Bob Horne, Gardner Handy, Mary Norian, Nancy Townley-Tilson, and Bill Davies who are considered regular members of the choir since they come down from Mt. Holyoke, and Deerfield to sing whenever possible. DeCamp, Barbara Hotel, Mary Burton and Sherman Russell who is presently absorbing vitamins as he suns himself on Hawaiian shores and for whom we left "the vacant chair".

Carl A. Kallgren, Dean of Colgate University, will interview applicants for admission to Colgate at Winchester High School 11:30 a. m. Wednesday, January 16, 1952.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

A strong indictment of the Democratic Party and a demand for a change of administration were the theme of three distinguished leaders who participated in a panel discussion at the Church of the Epiphany on Wednesday evening, January 9. Appearing at the guest night of the Winchester Women's Republican Club were Frederick Ayer, Jr., prominent Massachusetts Republican; George Fingold, Middlesex County prosecutor; and Senator Sumner G. Whittier, Assistant Majority Floor Leader.

Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds presided at the meeting, and Muriel S. Barnes most graciously introduced the members of the panel and their moderator, William Mullins, well known editorial writer of the Boston Herald.

Discussing the international and national situation, Frederick Ayer attacked the administration for its political greed, stupidity, and association with fellow travelers. "The Administration," he said, "is destroying the economic stability of our country, has left our military defenses woefully weakened, has made the people lose faith in their public servants." Mr. Ayer then presented the Republican program to reestablish our position in the world; adequate armament, control of prices, a clear foreign policy, a return to the states of their rights and to the citizen of his rights. "In short," he concluded, "to restore a government of morals and decency with leaders to be proud of."

George Fingold spoke of the present day vicious crime syndicates. Asked if there is a tie-up between the big democratic bosses and the underworld, he stated that there is a crime syndicate in every large city which is a democratic stronghold. There are many proved members of the association of members of these crime syndicates with Democrat leaders. "Leaders," he reminded us, "set the pattern of our ideals. Who are our leaders?" he asked. "The Vaughans, the pillars of the R. F. C. Shoddy examples are ruining our children. Even Webster's dictionary has a new definition of a politician: 'one who is interested in party politics for his own gain.'" Mr. Fingold concluded with the plea, "God give us men whom lust of office does not kill; men whom the spoils of office cannot buy."

Mr. Mullins introduced Senator Whittier as the most articulate man in the Legislature. "Washington represents the capital of the free world," Senator Whittier remarked, "yet how can the nations now respect us? The New Deal has passed from the Fair Deal to the Shady Deal. 'Cronyism' is the pattern of our day. To achieve a freedom that is the American tradition, we must have a Republican administration at all levels. There must be a change," he urged. "The work must be done in the cities, in the towns, in the precincts. We need an American Revolution," he concluded. "Only by getting fighting mad can we turn the rascals out of office. The miracle is in our hands. We are on the road to victory."

The capacity audience present was profoundly impressed with the earnestness of the speakers. Among the guests were Senator Robert P. Campbell, Representative Harrison Chadwick, Mr. Ralph H. Bonnell, State Committeeman from this district, Mr. William J. Speers, Jr., chairman of the Republican Town Committee, and Harris Richardson, former president of the Senate.

A feature of the evening was the presentation of the Republican party song, "The Grand New March," which was played and sung by Mrs. Walter W. Winship, the composer.

The delightful coffee hour which preceded the meeting was in charge of Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay, chairman of hospitality, and her capable committee.

ODIKON SINGERS PLEASE AUDIENCE

A small but enthusiastic audience enjoyed the concert presented by the Odkon Singers at the high school auditorium last Saturday evening. The Odkon Singers, composed of some 30 young men and women, students at Tufts College and Jackson College for Women.

In introducing Dr. Thompson Storey, who conducted the Singers, Dr. Forbes Norris commended the school custodians for adding to the cultural and entertainment life of the community by sponsoring such a fine musical organization.

A catered dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. P. Joseph Corrigan, President, will preside at a business meeting, and A. Benjamin Gowing of Winchester will be Master of Ceremonies. General Chairman of the Planning Committee is Donald P. Prescott of Woburn. Among the events of the meeting will be election of officers, recomtion of past presidents, awards for long service, and the awarding of the Silver Beaver Award of the National Council for outstanding service to boyhood with local Council areas. Mac's Mug will be awarded to the District with the largest

The principal speaker, Mr. Sproul, is one of six men who work with local Boy Scout Council training groups and who aid in setting up training programs for volunteer leaders in the movement. His office is in Boston. Mr. Sproul is a native of Boston. Entering the movement as a Tenderfoot Scout, he became an Eagle Scout and served his Troop from Assistant Patrol Leader to Senior Patrol Leader. As a volunteer leader for more than 10 years, he was a Scoutmaster, Skipper and Field Commissioner. He was educated in schools in this state and attended Tufts College for three years before entering business. In 1935 Mr. Sproul graduated from the 44th National Training School for Pro-

Professional Leaders in Scouting and became Field Scout Executive at Marlboro, where he served from May 1935 to October 1937. He then joined the staff of the Boston Council in the same capacity for nearly five years. Mr. Sproul was selected Scout Executive of the Cape Cod Council in 1942.

James H. Muncaster of 37 Myrtle Terrace is a member of the committee in charge of dinner reservations.

The Fire Department had only one call over the past week-end. They were called at 9:20 Friday evening to the home of Mr. Horace L. DeRivera, 417 Main street, where a leak developed in a large storage oil tank.

FRIENDS OF THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

The Friends of the Winchester Hospital have started the New Year with great enthusiasm and several new activities.

Aside from the groups who are arranging and freshening flowers for patients, preparing supplies for sterilization, mending, making favors for patients' trays, doing clerical work, helping at the blood bank and serving in the coffee and gift shop, there is also a group in North Reading under the direction of Mrs. Walter M. Earley, who is making compresses in which to wrap instruments for sterilization.

A number of graduate nurses of the Winchester Hospital, headed by Mrs. William McGlaughlin of Stoneham, are making supplies for the Surgical Department. This group is working at the Nurses Home.

Five young ladies, headed by Miss Elizabeth Jane Hood and including Barbara Eaton, Deanne Williams, Carol Aschenden and Edith Willis, are making stuffed animals and scrap books for the Hospital gift shop. John Mills, President of the Winchester High School Junior Red Cross, has announced that this one of the projects for the month of January will be a gift to the Friends. This gift is to be in the form of books for the Children's Ward at the Winchester Hospital. A book committee, including Betsey Freeman as chairman, Joan McNeill, Carol Curry, Brad Johnson and John Mills, etc., has purchased the books, and after they have been suitably inscribed by members of the Junior Red Cross, they will be given to the Friends of the Winchester Hospital. Miss Helen Bronson is the sponsor for the Junior Red Cross at the high school.

In February there will be a new class to instruct volunteers on how to prepare articles for use in the sterilizer and the operating room. This class is held for three evenings and is under the direction of Miss Mary V. Loftus of the Winchester Hospital Staff. Mrs. Donald E. McLean heads this group as chairman of supplies.

WINCHESTER TRUST COMPANY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Winchester Trust Company was held at the bank's main office on Church street January 15.

In a report to the stockholders the President called attention to the bank's total resources, which now exceed $7,000,000. He stated that the resources had more than doubled in the last ten years. He also called attention to the gains during the year 1951 in deposits and loans, stating that deposits had increased eleven per cent and now exceed $6,500,000; and that loans on the books had increased 30%. The President said: "Our resources, our deposits and the number of our customers were greater on December 31 than at the close of any previous year in the bank's history."

There was no change in the Board of Directors. The newly elected directors and officers are as follows:

Officers
William L. Parsons, President

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S PLANNING CONFERENCE

The Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church and the Youth Activities Committee met last Sunday evening, January 13, to plan their work for the remainder of the Church year. The program includes Sunday evening visitations to the various Missions connected with our Denomination in Boston. The Sunday evening following the visitation will be spent in a study of the institutions and the relationship of the local church to this work.

An outside speaker is scheduled for one Sunday evening a month, followed by a discussion period. Another Sunday evening will be given to a conference and moving pictures on Summer Camps.

It was also planned to continue the Fun-Nites, which are the outstanding monthly gatherings of the Youth Fellowship, on the third Friday evening of each month.

This Sunday evening, January 20, the mid-winter rally of the Boston Baptist Bethel City Mission Society will be held in the First Baptist Church at Water-town, at seven thirty o'clock. Members of this society and members of our mission centers and aided churches will be introduced and will take part in the program.

Youth Week, starting January 26th, has been carefully planned. On Youth Sunday, January 27th, the morning service will be conducted by the young people. The Youth Choir will furnish the music and a special service has been planned around the thought, "For the Facing of this Hour." Mr. Duane A. Day will give the sermon and Mr. John Hunt Chapelle, Director of Youth Activities at First Baptist, will direct the service. In the evening, at six thirty, the young people will gather at the church for a Conservation and Commitment Service.

ANNUAL MEETING OF NATIONAL BANK

The Annual Meeting of the shareholders of the Winchester National Bank was held at the bank on Tuesday, January 15, 1952.

The following Directors were elected: Ralph H. Bonnell, Ernest D. Chase, Frank E. Crawford, Edmund L. Dunn, William F. Hickey, Franklin J. Lane, Leslie J. Scott, Dr. Richard W. Sheehan, John A. Volpe, Erskine N. White and Joseph W. Worthen. Samuel S. McNeill was not a candidate for re-election, having moved his business from Winchester. Officers re-elected were Leslie J. Scott, President, Dr. Richard W. Sheehan and Norman E. Beattie, Vice-Presidents. A. O. P. H. Forsberg, Cashier, and William D. Sullivan, Assistant Cashier.

Mr. Scott, in his annual report, stated that the total assets of the Bank were more than $4,300,000 at the year end, and that for the first time, deposits exceeded 4 million dollars. He also commented on the increased volume of activity in all phases of the Bank's business and spoke about the necessity for further expansion of the banking rooms.

BACK FROM FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lobingier of Manchester road have just returned from a short trip to Miami, Florida. Both went down at the invitation of the Methodist Church of Greater Miami, to teach in their intensive five-day training school. Mrs. Lobingier taught the class in Creative Activities and Mr. Lobingier's class was on Church School Administration. This popular school had an average attendance of about seven hundred workers each night.

Mr. Arthur W. Friend of Cambridge, formerly of this town, is at Hotel Wyoming, Orlando, Florida, for the winter months.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT POSTPONED

Owing to the illness of Mr. Holmes, the date of the second children's concert, at Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, Cambridge, has been changed from Saturday, January 26, to Saturday, February 9. The Children's Concerts, patronized by many in this community, are performed by members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Malcolm Holmes, dean of the New England Conservatory of Music, is the conductor. Josef Zimmler is the musical director. The program for the concert on February 9 is as follows:
Mozart—Serenade K100
Paganini—Moto Perpetuo
Songs by the Winsor School Glee Club (conducted by Barbara Connolly) America the Beautiful (sung by the audience)
Rising—Concerto for Trumpet and Piano Vivaldi—Concerto in D minor
Information about tickets may be obtained from Mrs. William Prosser, 88A Washington avenue, Cambridge, or by calling Eliot 4-4089.

ANNIVERSARY SUPPER

The North Metropolitan Council of the Telephone Pioneers will hold their First Anniversary Supper and Dance on January 29, 1952, at the Elks' Home, Highland avenue and Central street, Somerville. The program consists of a reception at 7:00 P.M., followed by a buffet supper at 7:30. Music will be furnished for dancing, which will include both modern and square dances. Tickets may be obtained from Charles A. Farrar or any member of the Executive Committee. All active Pioneers, life members and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

BLOODMOBILE OVER THE TOP

Winchester made its quota when the Red Cross Bloodmobile collected 176 pints of whole blood Friday, January 11. As fast as cancellations were made, walk-ins filled the blanks, and nine appointments were handled every 15 minutes. Two hundred and thirty-one persons volunteered. Some were rejected. Others could not be handled as they did not have appointments.

In expressing her appreciation to both donors and workers, Mrs. James Coon, Blood Program Chairman, made special mention of the following volunteers:

Johnny's cheeks were still wet with tears, but he was smiling as Spot's tail stirred in an attempted wag.

"He'll be good as new in 24 hours," the veterinarian said. "But it's a good thing you telephoned me as soon as you did."

Sometimes it's impossible to measure the value of a telephone call in dollars and cents. A single emergency call may be worth the cost of your telephone many times over. It may cure a broken heart... or save a human life.

Actually, the value of telephone service lies not so much in emergencies, as in everyday convenience. The convenience that brings the grocer, the druggist, the cleaner, the office, a friend or a loved one as near as your telephone.

gym last Friday afternoon. The Paposes were ahead 16-12 at the half and 30-28 at the three-quarter mark. The final quarter was very tight as the locals scored only three points while the visitors collected four. "Bucky" Morgan was outstanding for his general all-around play and his 12 points while Peter Gove and Charlie Govostes contributed important baskets at crucial moments.

The Junior High romped to their fifth straight victory by a 75-23 score over the Reading Junior High. Big John Lynch collected 16 points for the winners while John Russo had 12 points and Joe Bellino made 10 points to pace the Winchester scoring parade.

The Winchester Freshmen won their fifth game in six starts by defeating the Concord Freshmen 55-44 at Concord on Monday afternoon. The locals had trouble with the Patriots for two periods, holding only a 25-22 lead at the half, but surged in the third quarter to establish a comfortable 42-26 lead entering the final period. Lou Farrell with 14 points and Bill Ross with 13 points paced the Winchester attack.

In the preliminary game the Winchester Junior High quintet continued to run roughshod over the opposition as they swamped the Concord Junior High 53-17. Bert Kneeland collected 18 points and Joe Bellino had 14 points for top scoring honors.

WINCHESTER, 58; READING, 47

Winchester gained sole possession of first place in the Middlesex League by defeating Reading High 58-47 in a hard fought game at the high school gym last Friday night. A capacity crowd, with as many more turned away, witnessed this duel between the two undefeated teams as the locals completed their first scoring of the League with this victory over their biggest threat to the title. The game was exciting enough but was marred by over-officiating as 26 fouls were called on each team with Hawkins and Farrell fouling out for the Indians and Hovey, Burhoe, and Lyons being lost to Reading via the personal foul route.

The Red and Black opened fast to run up a 20-6 lead at the end of the first period with Hawkins and Murphy carrying the brunt of the scoring in this period. Winchester completely out-classed the visitors in the opening period and it looked like they were in for an easy victory but Reading rallied in the early part of the second quarter to close the gap to 20-14 before the locals scored again. Johnny Farrell spearheaded the Winchester comeback drive in the last half of this quarter as the Indians built up a 35-24 margin at the intermission. The third quarter was bitterly fought which resulted in the lowest scoring period of the contest but the Indians gained one point to lead 44-32 at the three quarter mark. Rodney Long tallied six valuable points in the last quarter, as the Indians matched Reading basket for basket over the final minutes to forestall any possible Reading rally.

Although the Indians won handily, they were not as sharp as in their previous outings. Perhaps this was due to the scrappy Reading quintet but the locals were not moving the ball smoothly to set up their shots even though they made 35 per cent of their field goal attempts. The Winchester defense was not as tight as it has been in earlier games as they were outscored in the second quarter for the first time this year. Johnny Farrell and Doug Hawkins were the kingspins of the Winchester victory as Hawkins was tremendous off the boards and Farrell was driving beautifully. Other locals played good ball in stretches as Murphy was driving and setting up plays nicely in the first half, DiIorio rebounded defensively very well in the second half and Long came through nicely in the crucial last period to offset the loss of the fouled-out Hawkins.

The Winchester Seconds kept pace with their varsity mates by defeating the Reading Seconds 68-37 in the preliminary game. The Seconds were hard pressed for a half as they had only a 25-19 lead at that point but outscored the visitors 26-7 in the third quarter to establish a 25 point lead and coast home an easy winner. Bob Flaherty was the shining star for the Seconds with 19 points, collected chiefly as the result of his tremendous speed, while John Atkinson and Kit Carleton turned in their top performances of the year in all around play as well as tallying 10 points apiece.

The Winchester Freshmen won their second game in three starts as they overpowered the Concord Freshmen 51-20 at the high school gym Friday, January 11. The Paposes had no trouble in this one as they led 19-4 at the end of the first quarter and 35-12 at the half. Lou Farrell, Wally Hart, and Jim Wright turned in good performances for Coach Knowlton's rapidly improving quintet.

The Winchester Junior High defeated the Concord Junior High in the preliminary game by a score of 39-27. This was the third straight victory for the Junior High team and was the first time that they have been extended as they had only a four point lead at the half but came through nicely in the second half.

NAM VIEWS EDUCATION

The National Association of Manufacturers has recognized the plight of educational institutions on all levels, at the same time viewing with considerable concern the continuing governmental activities aimed at further extending the role of the federal government into the field of education and has offered to do something about it.

For years the NAM has spearheaded the Business-Industry-Education program, which has become popular in many New England communities, but the latest proposal would mean tangible financial aid to the harassed educational systems on a community level.

Members of the NAM, some 17,000 in the nation, have been asked by Earl Bunting, managing director, to give consideration to the idea of giving individual aid to their home communities through grants, money for new buildings, endowments, scholarships or other means.

The idea is good, but it must be carried out by businessmen on a voluntary basis. Congressmen and any educators in our community would establish the needs of the schools and determine to what extent the manufacturer could afford to participate.

The community at large would benefit from an arrangement of this sort and the suggestion made by the NAM is highly commendable.

ROUND THE WORLD TRIP

Winchester, Mass., January 16, 1952
 Editor of the Star:

Many people have thanked us for the letters written while on our "Round the World" trip. Our last letter was written shortly after arriving in Rome. Therefore in fairness to those who might enjoy the remainder of the trip we will bring them home from Rome.

While in Rome we stayed at the Hotel Excelsior, one of the nicest hostels in Europe. While here we met some interesting personalities such as Congressman Sellers (D. N. Y.). Congressman Sellers was examining the expenditure of American taxpayers' money in Italy. He also had the opportunity to see the terrific flood conditions in northern Italy and brought back some very interesting pictures of the flood conditions, some of which appeared in the American press.

Rome is the traveler's and sight-seer's delight with its numerous historic, religious and artistic places and objects. The Vatican, Sistine chapel and Vatican Museum could easily take one's time for a year to see and study all their art objects, beautiful pictures and tapestries. The historic places from the ancient Coliseum right down to the modern Mussolini's sports arena ties the ancient history of this famous city to the present.

Rome is a clean and busy metropolis with all its war damage replaced with modern buildings such as the new grand central railroad station. The stores are filled with things to buy particularly its fine leather goods, gloves and fine men's materials for clothing. Prices on such articles are reasonable but much higher than formerly but not as high as in this country.

It is a sight to watch the Rome policemen control and direct traffic. Their hand motions are very systematic and martial which does not leave anyone in doubt as to what his direction is.

We left Rome by Pan-American World Airways and flew over Corsica, Capri, Nice and the Riviera up the Rhone River Valley and seeing the Swiss and French Alps in the distance. It was clear enough so that we could see Mont Blanc very clearly, well covered with white snow.

We landed at the Paris airport of Orly, which port has superseded the use of Le Bourget particularly for international flights. It was dark here when after clearing Customs, we drove via bus about fourteen miles into Paris proper. The buses waste no time getting back and forth to the airport all to the amusement of Tommy.

Paris and its surroundings again is a wonderful area for the sight-seer. With its Louvre Museum, Fontainebleau, Versailles and many other historic points. Needless to say, it has its places of amusement too. We had the good fortune to meet the present owner and occupant of the apartment occupied for many years by Massenet, where he composed many of his musical works. The apartment was over three hundred years old and the present owner in the little antique kitchen had retained the original marble kitchen sink. The sink was hewn out of a solid piece of marble. Needless to say, the stained glass windows of Notre Dame Cathedral are beyond description. This cathedral was damaged during the war and the occupation such that the artisans are still working on it to repair damage. One of the famous stained glass windows were blown out by bomb concussion but every piece that could be salvaged was saved and the window is now in place. That there is more than 28,000 shades of the color blue alone in one of these large circular windows.

The weather in Paris this time of year was cold, damp and foggy such that we did not see it in its glory although this did not mar the beauty of the many buildings inside with their art and glass windows, mosaics and paintings.

Because of delays on the way we did not see London any more than passing through by bus on our way to the London Airport. The reason for this was that because of the fog in Paris we were forced to go by train, ferry and bus from Paris to London in order to fly home from the London airport. It was chilly in London but when we arrived in Shannon Eire, the grass was bright green and the sky was sunshine and clear.

We flew direct from Shannon to Garder ten and one half hours continuous flying at twelve thousand five hundred feet. This was the longest continuous hop of our whole trip.

We left Garder at about eleven o'clock at night of December 20th and arrived in New York's Idlewild Airport at 2:30 a. m. on the morning of December 21st having completed twenty-two thousand miles approximately. Our rough-est flying of the entire trip was from Montauk Point, Long Island to Idlewild. As you will recall we arrived at the end of the fog and weather which the Northeast of the United States had experienced.

Needless to say we saw much, heard much and experienced more such that we can now most appreciate our great United States and Winchester.

You see many signs in England which were used in the last war for Civil Defense that read "You may be Right, but be Alert and protect your home!" A pretty good statement! However as typical Massachusetts Yankees we returned to New York from London by the Clipper American Yankee and from New York to Boston on the New Haven Railroad's "Mayflower." Quite appropriate we think!

Jim, Caroline and Tommy Joslin

IN MEMORY OF EDGAR H. RICH

Editor of the Star:

The Winchester Public Library Trustees hope that on the evening of February 12 many citizens of the Town will come to the Library to pay homage to Edgar H. Rich, who during his life and at his death gave so much to Winchester. On that evening the Lincoln-Lee Room, which houses the Lincoln and Lee collection, will be dedicated.

For thirty-seven years Mr. Rich was a Trustee of the Library. For seven years he was Chairman of the Board. Under his leadership our fine building was erected. He played a leading part in establishing the tradition of having a training school for professional staff, the vision of wide Library service for the Town.

At his death he gave his distinguished collection of Lincoln and Lee books and manuscripts to the Town. He also bequeathed the Lincoln-Lee Trust Fund of some $33,000 for maintaining and adding to this collection to make it the "most complete and distinguished collection of Lincoln and Lee books to be found among Town libraries."

During his life Mr. Rich was a devoted student of the lives of Lincoln and Lee. He gave numerous talks before college and other groups in both the North and the South on these two great Americans, spurred by the belief that among citizens would bring a better understanding between the North and South. At his death, through his bequest he made provision for this good work to be carried on.

The income from the Lincoln-Lee Trust Fund not only will maintain and add to the Lincoln and Lee collection but it will also provide for prizes for essay on the lives of Lincoln and Lee and for occasional lectures for Winchester citizens.

At the dedication on February 12, Professor Arthur M. Schlesinger of Harvard will be the speaker. He is a recognized authority on the Civil War period in American history. In addition, he was a friend of Mr. Rich and has long been a member of the Boston Lincoln Club, which Mr. Rich was instrumental in founding.

The Library Trustees hope that those who read this note will mark their calendars and set aside the evening of February 12 to pay homage not only to the two great American statesmen and humanitarians, Lincoln and Lee, but also to Mr. Rich, who has done, and through his gift will continue to do, so much for his Town.

For the Library Trustees, Neil H. Borden, Chairman

A STRAW VOTE

Editor of the Star:

The struggle in Korea has indirectly helped Winchester in so far as it has held up the project of ripping-up the Shopping Center, raising the tracks to the top of high embankments and erecting steel spans to carry trains over the intersection of Church, Park, Main, Shore, Mount Vernon, South Main, Thompson and Common streets.

Just the listing of all the streets involved, reminds us that we have a hectic traffic problem in addition to the Grade-Crossing. In other words, after we have spent millions to raise and improve the "B & M" right-of-way and had our Shopping Center in a mess for two years and sacrificed the beauty of our town, we still have not solved the traffic congestion. Only a detour of the through Woburn-Boston vehicles will help this problem efficiently.

Having been granted a reprieve, because of World Conditions, all those citizens who have been opposed to raising the tracks and all those who have consented only because they could see no other way, to eliminate the peril of grade-level trains, should now join forces. There is another way, even a cheaper way and certainly a better way, to eliminate the peril of grade-level trains, should now join forces.

For the moment, however, let us limit our activity to getting an expression of opinion — a straw vote if you wish. The State Department of Public Works has been told officially that 95 percent of Winchester's residents voted to raise the tracks. This is how the record stands. This is how you know how this doubtful picture was developed over the past few years! But the State took the picture at face value and ear-marked over a million dollars of State Funds to start the bulldozers and shovel snorting back and forth across our Center, come Spring!

There is only one way to correct this error and to settle any doubt as to what the people of this town really want. Each voter should be asked to say what his desire may be, on this problem. The men who run the stores around the Center are concerned to a tragic degree. Have you figured just what a two-year upheaval close to your places of business will mean to you?

An expression of public opinion can be secured at moderate cost if a group of volunteers, in each Precinct, will offer to supervise a straw vote among neighbors. Give each householder a printed postcard with the request that they check the brief questionnaire and drop the card in the nearest post-box. This will give real evidence to offer the State authorities. Nothing else is so likely to make them sit-up-and-take-note. It also will give our local selection something definite to work with.

Each Precinct should plan to issue at least five-hundred cards at a cost of ten dollars ($10.00) for the cards and about ten dollars — plus for printing or mimeographing. Volunteers will be needed to distribute the cards, one to each household. Money will be required for cards and printing.

The cards could carry the following questions:

- (1) Do you vote the tracks raised? Yes No
- (2) If you vote Yes, is it because you think it is the only way? Yes No
- (3) Do you think there is a better way? Yes No
- (4) Do you want a plan that detours the Woburn-to-Boston traffic around Center? Yes No
- (5) Do you want to see the tracks screened with shrubs and safety barriers? Yes No

The above is only a suggested wording and form.

If you love your town, "Winchester the Beautiful", why not give a little of your time and money to keep it that way?

Volunteers please contact Tel. Winchester 6-0827, 9-12 a. m.

Sincerely yours,
 Percival Mott.

THANK YOU!

Editor of the Star:

The Central Executive Board of the Winchester Mothers' Association wishes to say a grateful "thank you" to all who helped to make its fund-raising project, "Hal and Ruby Holbrook" such a definite success.

Our Board, composed of ten officers plus the past presidents, acting presidents, and the secretaries of each of the six elementary schools, of Junior and of Senior High School, exists for the purpose of furthering co-operation between the individual schools, and working with the School Department through Dr. Forbes Norris, of seeing that each part of town is fully represented in and fully informed about all school matters.

We are equipped to contact all parents having children in the school system, and can count on town-wide support of this fund-raising project whose proceeds go to the Winchester Scholarship Foundation. In the past few years your generous support has contributed over $10,000.00 to this fund, and has materially helped to make it possible that all applicants for scholarship aid with which to start their higher education, to so far receive the desired help.

Of the students given aid, with one exception, all have finished their higher education, an excellent record showing a high order of those two American characteristics, individual initiative and perseverance.

Mrs. Paul Dunn, Chairman of the Ways and Means, announced this year's gift to the Foundation is $1,500.00. By seeing "The Holbrooks" you not only gave yourself an excellent evening of good theatrical work, got something good for your money, but also have the added satisfaction of knowing that same money will go to help more deserving students.

So, a very sincere thank you to you all; to Mrs. Stanley Mullen whose program committee did such a bang-up job, to all the teachers and parents who worked on the project, to all the merchants and business and professional men who purchased advertising space in our program, and to all our friends everywhere who attended the show. Next year we shall try to bring you an even more enjoyable evening, and shall look forward to your continued loyal support.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. Herbert F. Ross, Sec'y,
 Central Executive Board of Winchester Mothers' Association

IMPORTANT MEETING JANUARY 30th PUBLIC LIBRARY

Editor of the Star:

The Military Manpower Committee requests that all organizations in town be represented on January 30th at 7:30 p. m. at the Library when the Homefronters' Committee will be set up. Men and women in the Armed Forces to attend and back up the work of this new organization, which is town wide, in seeing to it that our men are not forgotten during the coming year.

Speaker of the evening will be the much-publicized M/Sgt. Rexford Young. Sgt. Young left for Medford Recruiting Station for Korea in 1950, he is now safely home again and reassigned to Medford. He has a most interesting story to tell — you may have seen the Tuesday write-up in the Boston Globe in regard to Sgt. and Mrs. Young.

Inasmuch as we would like to greet, and introduce to you, all our local boys who have returned from Korea, we would kindly get in touch with the writer?

While the Winchester Homefronters is not an activity of the Military Manpower Committee, we heartily endorse the idea of sending birthday cards and Christmas packages to our people in service. The service file is now set up at the Library and families are urgently requested to contact Miss Corinne Meade at the Library and keep it up to date. The writer has checked the file and turned it over to Miss Meade as custodian.

Hoping to see a full house at the Library on January 30th.

Cordially yours,
 Mrs. K. B. Toye, Chairman
 Military Manpower Committee

TOWN MEETING WILL CONSIDER ADULT EDUCATION

During recent months much interest has been shown by a number of Winchester people in the establishment of a program of adult education by the town. Petitions to the School Committee to consider this problem are being circulated, and it is reported that several hundred persons have signed their desire for such a program.

In response to this public interest the School Committee has been considering the possibility of developing a program of adult education in Winchester. This program would be in addition to that now offered by the town in the Americanization classes. It has been found that a number of Greater Boston communities, including Lexington, Stoneham, Medford, and Quincy, have established such programs.

The courses offered by these schools vary widely, but among the subjects presented are the following: bookkeeping, bookbinding, upholstery work, sewing, tailoring, tray-painting, leathercraft, machine shop practice, ceramics, conversational French, music appreciation, shorthand, and typewriting.

Upon investigation it has been learned that many of the courses offered are partly supported by state aid, with grants up to 50 percent of the cost. The town is considering the possibility of getting a state-aid program for Winchester would be the formal request from the town for such aid. Therefore the School Committee has asked that an article be included in the Town Warrant, if the town wishes to request state aid for this project.

Adult education programs under state aid must satisfy certain requirements established by the State Department of Education. For example, the state specifies that a course must last 60 hours. Usually, there are two terms, the first beginning in October and the second in February. The state also requires that the teacher of a course must be regularly employed in the occupation or craft in which he is instructing. This would not, of course, prevent the town from employing persons not meeting this requirement as instructors in courses outside the state-aid program. Future issues of the Star will contain more information about this proposed program.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

Our first Bridge Party of this new year, Winter Wonderland, held on last Tuesday afternoon, was very well attended in spite of the threat of a snowstorm. Everyone had a good time and enjoyed the delicious dessert, and so many were fortunate in taking home beautiful prizes.

Congratulations must go to Co-chairmen Mrs. M. Moffett and Mrs. C. Dunbury, and their excellent committee which included: Mr. R. Finn, Mrs. J. Burke, Mrs. F. Briggs, Mrs. J. Davis, Mrs. F. Dineen, Mrs. H. Donavan, Mrs. J. Dowling, Mrs. F. Hurley, Mrs. W. McGann, Mrs. E. McGrath, Mrs. J. McHale, Mrs. G. Moran, Mrs. E. Muelleg, Mrs. A. Ottiano, Mrs. D. Runci, Mrs. G. Ryerson, Mrs. J. Walsh.

Some of the top prize winners were: Nancy Borgatti, Germaine Dakin, Madeleine, Helen Chapman, Sue Haley, Frances Canavan, Jennie Volpe, C. Mortimer, and Miriam Flynn.

Remember at our next meeting on February 12, we will have once again by popular request the celebrated Marjorie Shepherd in "Character Impersonations."

EDNA LEWIS MARSHALL

TELEVISION STAR TO CONDUCT FREE COOKING SCHOOL HERE

The popular television star of "Fun With Food", Edna Lewis Marshall, who is seen and heard on WBZ-TV every Friday at 2:30, comes to the Town Hall, Winchester, for four days starting next Monday, January 28.

Presented by First National Stores, Mrs. Marshall will be seen here complete with model kitchen, daily recipes, and in addition, over 150 free prizes. The "Fun With Food" Free Cooking School will play for four days, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, January 28, 29, 30, and 31, from 1:30 until 3:30 p. m. There is no admission charge, and nothing to buy.

Co-operating locally on this event is The Noho Company, 429 High Street, West Medford, well-known appliance dealer, who is donating the grand prize of a brand new Gibson Refrigerator valued at $249.95. Other daily prizes will include 15 bags of food, as well as the food items prepared on the stage by Mrs. Marshall.

STAFF AND KEY

The Winchester Staff and Key Society has rapidly become known as solely a Gilbert and Sullivan group; therefore to disabuse their public of that idea, this year they have decided to produce the Oscar Strauss Operetta "A Waltz Dream", on March seventh and eighth in the High School Auditorium.

L. Hassler Einziger, who has done such a superb job directing the Staff and Key in the past will again take over the direction of "A Waltz Dream", and Lucy Wilcox Cushman will play the piano for the group during rehearsals as well as with the orchestra during the performances.

There has been an innovation in this year's Operetta in that there are several speaking parts so that members who feel they can not sing will be welcomed as well as those who enjoy doing the extremely necessary but unglamorous work behind the scenes which does so much to make any production a success.

The membership of the Staff and Key is not limited to persons living in Winchester; therefore it is to the surrounding towns as well as those in Winchester who love to sing but have always felt Gilbert and Sullivan a little difficult will join the society this year.

Rehearsals began on January 22nd, but the principal parts will be chosen on Tuesday, January 29th, and Thursday, January 31st, when the rehearsals will be held in the home of Joan Zimmerman, 390 Highland Avenue, Winchester. Any prospective members who are interested may simply come to the rehearsals or get in touch with any of the following officers who will be glad to introduce new members to the Society.

The Officers of the Staff and Key are:

President, Margaret Fernald, Winchester 6-2144-M.
 Vice-President, Gordon Bennett, Winchester 6-3164.
 Secretary, Lucia Wright, Winchester 6-2913-W.
 Treasurer, Margaret Hodgdon, Winchester 6-2617-4.
 Social Secretary, Joan Zimmerman, Winchester 6-2305.

METCALF UNION

A supper meeting will be held on Sunday evening at six-thirty under the chairmanship of Jack Mills.

This will be followed by a talk given by Peter Danes, a Czechoslovakian student at Harvard, who will discuss the youth movement in his country prior to the war.

A worship service in Meyer Chapel will be conducted by Mrs. Micheline Nutter, organist, assisting.

The V. F. W. Sees Red—

WHEN IT COMBATS COMMUNISM

"For the past quarter-century, the Veterans of Foreign Wars as a national organization has been striving to arouse the American people to the dangers of Communism," pointed out Commander Warren T. B. of Aberjona Post 3719, V.F.W.

With the announcement of plans of the local Post to observe National V.F.W. Week January 24-31, Commander Bolivar declared that the V.F.W., at its National Encampment in 1929, accepted as a national policy a mandate to combat Communism, "which even then was a menace to America, even though a great many so-called patriots were openly professing Communist theories."

Because all V.F.W. members have served in the U. S. Armed Forces in foreign lands during actual war, they not only have seen dire results of dictatorships at close range but also have found populations of most foreign countries openly envious of the American brand of democracy, he continued.

"It is only within the past decade that Americans as a whole have awakened to the true menace of Soviet Russia and to the Communist ideology which Russia uses

Reports From Officers
 Mrs. Richard J. Johnson, retiring Secretary, who has most ably served the Association for the past five years, presented an excellent report of the Association's work this past year — a survey of its tasks and accomplishments and its growth. Her report included brief reports from all the Association chairmen, with special thanks to the Selection Committee for the use of the General Assembly room for monthly board meetings; to the Winchester Star for its gracious space for publicity; the Women's Alliance, En. Ka, Winchester Hospital and Public Library, Mr. Howe of Winslow Press, Sunday School groups from the Church of the Epiphany; from individuals during the year, and the assistance from the Medical Advisors; the Needlework Guild for its wonderful and useful gifts at Christmas time for needy patients; to Roland R. Carter for authoring the books.

Miss Monroe gave her annual treasurer's report, Mrs. Doris Winklund, Executive Director presented figures of 4,866 visits made to 428 patients in 1951, to make the year full, busy one for the three-nurse staff. Mrs. Henry E. Moffette, retiring President, paid gracious tribute to her co-workers, board members, nursing staff, and their medical board for their help during her administration.

Dr. Woodall, Speaker
 The speaker of the afternoon meeting, which was well attended by old and new board members, Association members and invited guests, was Dr. James Martin Woodall of Adams House, whose topic was "Emotional Stresses in Women" in which he traced the causes of such disturbances in women today. Neuroses has three causes, he pointed out — hereditary, early experiences, or actual difficulties of the moment. And he added that men were just as much subject to these stresses as

Why we like to make Local Loans

Every time you borrow here or a neighbor arranges a loan at our bank many benefits accrue. The borrower benefits because he gets the use of the money at moderate cost and for a sound purpose. But it doesn't stop there. Because the money borrowed is spent locally it benefits the whole community. If, for instance, you purchased household equipment or a car with the proceeds of the loan, it helped the dealer from whom you bought. In turn, it helped him to provide work for his local employees and to replenish his stock so that he might serve you and other members of the community to better advantage. Yes, we prefer to make local loans because they are a benefit to everybody.

women — if not more so.

Seventy-five to eighty percent of the complaints brought to doctors today, he stated, were not on a physical basis — but due to emotional stress. On the whole, the woman handles her mental stresses better than the man does. Dr. Woodall said. She is the stronger of the two — her life is more complicated, and she has more to carry but she handles her emotions better than does the man. Insanity and suicide rates are lower among women than among men — and women's chief causes of stresses stem from discontent, restlessness, insecurity, inferiority.

What then, makes some women under emotional stress? Dr. Woodall showed, from his years of experience in this field, that women do not care much for other women — they do not care much about being women, and thus feel inferior to the male. And that becomes the fundamental cause of neuroses in women. He urged that the solution lay in one direction: an acceptance by woman of her biological destiny, a gladness in being a woman.

KIWANIS OF WINCHESTER

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Charles N. Jolly, a member of the Winchester School Committee. His topic of discussion was: "Future Developments for the Winchester Schools."

REV. ALEXANDER HENDERSON
THE SENIOR FORUM

The Senior Forum will attend regular morning services at the First Congregational Church at 10:45 Sunday. It will return at 5:15 for a supper meeting which will feature an address by Reverend Alexander Henderson.

In accordance with its traditional practice, the Forum will assist in the morning service at which Reverend Howard J. Chidley will preach a special sermon entitled "A Ladder to the Sky". Robert Traut will act as chaplain, and assisting Scott Cunningham, Head Deacon, will be Douglas Hawkins, Paul Leverette, George DeCamp, Richard Fernandez and David Pratt. The ushers, under the direction of Robert Wiklund, will be William H. Johnston, Roger Bainbridge, Allan Cairness, Kendall Cleaves, William Jesdale and William Kelly. Following the six o'clock supper, the Reverend Henderson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, West Medford, will speak on "My Summer in Europe with the Sherwood Eddy Seminar," which will be illustrated with colored pictures. Reverend Henderson has for many years been outstanding in the field of religious education and in his work with young people. The program will conclude with a short worship service, arranged by John Becker and the Worship Committee, at which Lynne Stevens and Carolyn Padelford will be chaplains.

Plans for International Week-end, which will take place on February 9 and 10, are being accelerated with fifteen committees making plans for various phases of the annual week-end.

Mrs. Leonard J. Vinson of Sheridan Circle is one of the class managers for the 1952 University of Georgia Foundation Drive, recently announced by William Crane, alumni secretary.

D. A. R.

The Committee of Safety Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Baptist Church on Monday afternoon, January 21. Mrs. William W. Goodhue, the Regent, presided. The devotional exercises were conducted by the Chaplain, Mrs. Paul F. Stoneman, who also read the Memorial Ritual for Mrs. Myrtle Clapp Denison and Mrs. Annie Cook Grant.

In the absence of Mrs. Marshall Pihl, chairman of the Correct Use of the Flag, Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge led the members in the Pledge to the Flag and the American Creed.

Donations were voted to four of the D. A. R. Approved Schools: Kate Duncan Smith School at Grant, Alabama; Tamassee School at Tamassee, South Carolina; Hillside School, Marlborough, Massachusetts; and to the Indian Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. William Goodhue and Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge were elected delegates to the 61st Continental Congress, Washington, D. C., April 14-18, 1952. The alternates are Mrs. Charles S. Beaudry, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews, Mrs. John B. Wills and Mrs. Paul F. Stoneman.

Mrs. Harris G. Leroy, Program Chairman, then presented a pageant "Women in the Foreground," tracing the progress of women from a frozen pattern of living into full participation in every department of modern life, stressing leadership. The following members represented outstanding American women:

Anne Hutchinson — Mrs. Paul F. Stoneman
Dolly Madison — Mrs. John B. Wills
Elizabeth Cady Stanton — Miss Clara R. Russell
Florence Sabin — Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge
Lillian D. Wald — Mrs. William J. Eklund

Mildred MacAfee Horton — Mrs. Harris S. Richardson

A clever feature, which intrigued the audience, was presented by Mrs. Eklund, who conducted a Docton IQ quiz with twenty questions and 100 imaginary silver dollars for the person who guessed the name of the "Mystery Woman," Lillian D. Wald.

Mrs. Ernest B. Dade was the hostess for the afternoon. Her tea committee consisted of the following members: Mrs. Earle E. Andrews, Mrs. William J. Eklund, Mrs. Ralph L. Gustin, Mrs. George B. Hayward, Mrs. Donald K. Lewis, Mrs. George H. Lochman, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mrs. Edward H. Newhall, Mrs. Harry S. Parsons, Mrs. George H. ### Winchester Historical Society

The Winter Meeting of the Bay State Historical Society was held Saturday, January 19, at Tufts in an atmosphere of cordiality, due to the friendly spirit of the College and of Dr. A. Warren Stearns of Billerica, the official host.

From 10:30 to 11:30 there was a Round Table Discussion for Curators, Custodians, and Librarians, conducted by Mrs. Madeleine Arnold of the Jackson Homestead of Newton.

At noon, lunch in the cafeteria in Curtis Hall (Pine Room) was "on the house" to about 70 people.

At one o'clock there was a chance to visit the Museum and see the huge stuffed "Jumbo" and the memorabilia of P. T. Barnum. Nearby was the modern library with its up-to-date equipment and efficient staff, proud of the new wing with its beautiful Memorial Room.

The meeting, presided over by Mr. Charles Tapley of Danvers, was held at 2 p.m. in Goddard Chapel, with its fine memorial windows, bronze reliefs and tablets—one of which was in memory of 23 Tufts men who fought in the Civil War.

After the business meeting and roll call, an interlude of organ music played by a graduate student, William Little, was enjoyed by all.

President Leonard Carmichael, grandson of former Tufts' President Leonard, spoke on "Tufts College Yesterday and Today." He told of the founding of the college in 1852 by far-sighted and influential men, among whom were the Goddards, Frothinghams, etc., of Charlestown, Charles Tufts and his wife gave 20 acres, the present site of the college. Early professors of ten owned cows and they were pastured where the parking lot is now located. He mentioned many famous instructors and graduates, now in many parts of the world.

He said that the founders were idealists who believed in a balanced budget, and that this policy has been carried on ever since, with help from the Alumni and friends. Tufts has expanded to the extent of having very fine equipment, laboratories, top-notch medical and dental schools, as well as the splendid Fletcher School for training for diplomatic service.

Tea was served in the new Henry Clay Jackson Building on Latin Way.

The Winchester Historical Society was represented by Miss Clara Russell, Mrs. P. J. Glendon, Mrs. T. T. Greenwood, Mrs. Arthur Belville, the Misses Susie Gustin, Laura Tolman, Eleanor and Louise Bancroft, Mr. Marshall Symmes and Mr. Arthur Noyes.

KNIGHT ELECTED HOSPITAL OFFICIAL

Richard B. Knight of 15 Alden Lane has been unanimously elected assistant treasurer of the Washington Hospital, Boston, it was announced today by Arthur W. Coolidge, president of the hospital.

Mr. Knight, a certified public accountant will work with Mr. Morris L. Brown, treasurer, assistant vice-president of the First National Bank of Boston.

Mr. Knight is a graduate of Dartmouth and Harvard and resides in Winchester with his wife and three children. He is a member of the American Institute of Accountants and the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants.

WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

Among the programs in store for the members of the newly formed Daytime Study Group "Thrifty Timesaving Tactics" will be "The XYZ's of Decorating" to be presented by Mrs. Charles R. Whitten and Mrs. F. B. Kelley, Jr.

THE FIRST STEP IN OUR CONVERSION TO NATURAL GAS HAS BEEN COMPLETED

We have visited your homes and places of business and have done what work could be done on your gas appliances in advance of the actual turn-in of Natural Gas.

In addition, we have learned a great deal about your appliances, and have been given the opportunity to discuss the subject of Natural Gas with some of you. It was a big job, but one that we believe was very much worthwhile. With some of the work behind us, and with the added knowledge of your appliances, the actual conversion will be simplified and the inconvenience caused you will be reduced materially. We realize that this first visit probably caused you some inconvenience, and we want to thank you for the wonderful cooperation which you gave us. Without it, the work could not have been carried on successfully and on schedule.

Some of the questions which were asked are probably in the minds of others, so that, we would like to answer some of the most common ones here.

Q. When will Natural Gas be available?

A. According to present plans, Natural Gas will be available in May, 1952.

Q. Is Natural Gas harmful?

A. Natural Gas contains no toxic elements but leaks of sufficient duration to deplete the supply of air can be harmful to people, plant and animal life. Also, like manufactured gas, Natural Gas must be used with certain precaution and any leakage of gas promptly stopped. If the warning smell of escaping gas is noticed, the Company should be notified at once, just as is the present practice. Like coal, oil, manufactured gas, or any other fuel, if Natural Gas is not burned properly the products of combustion can be harmful.

Q. Will Natural Gas have an odor?

A. As Natural Gas is practically odorless, a chemical will be added which will give it a distinctive odor so that any leak will be easily noticeable.

Q. What is meant by "conversion"?

A. In order to use Natural Gas it will be necessary to adjust every burner on every piece of gas-burning equipment. Most burners will require three adjustments: the ports (holes) in the burner must be drilled larger; the opening which admits gas to the burner unit must be replaced with a smaller one; and the air intake must be increased.

Thank you again for your cooperation during this first step. We ask that it be continued through the final and most important step which is to come later. Before this is done, however, you will receive detailed information and instructions.

MORE PERFECT UNION THE GOAL OF EDUCATION

"The creation of a more perfect union is the most important job of public education in the United States," declared Dr. Benjamin in his address sponsored by the Winchester Teachers' Club and the School Committee at the high school auditorium on Wednesday, Jan. 16. In Dr. Benjamin's opinion the Preamble to the Constitution, especially the phrase "in order to form a more perfect union," provides a goal that has faithfully guided the American people for nearly 165 years and which still stands as a beacon by which future generations may chart their course.

Dwelling upon his early experiences as junior surveyor with an engineering crew in the Rockies, Dr. Benjamin compared the job of the American educator with that of the surveyor. Both have duties which are exacting and demanding of the fullest devotion to duty. At times both must pause to determine their position by sighting back to achievements made and forward to goals yet unattained, but neither surveyor or educator ever stops in his endless search for perfection.

Dr. Benjamin asserted that American education was doing a creditable job of imparting the common learnings, such as reading, writing, and figuring to our children. Standards in these areas must be maintained, but, if we are to achieve a more perfect union, the schools must do more to develop worthy civic ideals, high moral standards, and a stronger spirit of togetherness and cooperativeness. The public schools, he believes, are the best instrument for developing this spirit in this country.

In other noteworthy statements, Dr. Benjamin declared that the greatest American achievement in the field of public education was the creation of lay boards of education because through these boards the people have an instrument for reaching and controlling their schools. He also advocated greater emphasis upon the development of linguistic skills among our students. The United States, in his opinion, will need more language experts in the difficult years ahead. The meeting, which attracted a good-sized audience, was opened by a short but spirited concert by the high school band. Those townsfolk who never hear enough of the band during the short intermissions on the football field, enjoyed the opportunity of listening to Fred Felmet's musicians again. Introductory remarks by Mr. George Snyder, president of the Winchester Teachers' Club, Dr. Forbes Norris, superintendent of schools, and Professor Howard Bartlett, representing the School Committee, preceded Dr. Benjamin's address.

MR. BARBER TO GIVE ADDRESS AT EPIPHANY CHURCH

W. W. Barber, Jr., Head Master of St. Mark's school in Southboro will give the address at the 11 o'clock service in the Epiphany Church on Sunday, January 27. His address will be "Responsibility of the Church for Theological Education and Training of young men for the Ministry".

Mr. Clyde W. Bell is presently located at 39 Durkee street, Laconia, N. H.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Good Government Winner
Douglas Hawkins was the winner in the school-wide election held on January 11 to choose Winchester High School's representative at Good Government Day exercises to be held at the State House in March. A leader in school activities, president of the Thrift Association, and varsity center on the basketball team, Doug had earlier, been elected governor of Boys' State, which was held last summer at the University of Massachusetts.

Aberjona Assembly
On Friday, Jan. 11, members of the Aberjona Staff entertained the student body with a hilarious skit designed to promote the sale of the high school's annual yearbook. The action at "McHeevey's Drug Emporium" may have been a travesty on that seen in local pharmacies, but the audience was highly appreciative. The 1951 edition of the Aberjona was awarded second prize in the Columbia Scholastic Press competition for schools of its size.

Orchestra Plays at Arlington
The high school orchestra traveled to Arlington January 18 to join the Arlington High School orchestra in presenting a concert to the students of that school. In addition to regular orchestral selections, a violin solo was played by Annette Barbaro. On February 1, both orchestras will present a return concert at a high school assembly in Winchester.

Mr. Grindle at Convention
Principal Wade Grindle attended the annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Secondary Principals' Association in Boston on January 12. Mr. Grindle served this year as chairman of the nominating committee.

W. H. S. Graduates Honored
At the Scholarship Day ceremonies of the University of Massachusetts on December 13, 1951, two Winchester High School graduates were included in the list of honor students. They were Theodore B. Covert, and Robert Eckberg.

SAFETY'S THE RULE

Safety first, last, and always — is the rule we abide by in our prescription laboratory. Every possible precaution is taken to insure absolute accuracy in the compounding of each prescription. From the selection of the ingredients . . . through the measuring and mixing . . . to the packaging and labeling — every step is taken with professional skill and painstaking care. And then, every step is double-checked to make accuracy doubly sure.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S COUNCIL

A special meeting of the Winchester Women's Council was held on Wednesday, January 16th. President Mrs. Leo V. Manoli welcomed the representatives of the women's organizations present and introduced the principal speaker of the morning, Dr. Forbes H. Norris. Taking as his subject, "Our School Problems," Dr. Norris stated that, despite the rise in population in Winchester, with our new school and new additions we have this year almost the ideal average of 26 pupils per teacher; the ideal being 25 pupils per teacher. We are indeed fortunate in Winchester, for in the national picture the teacher demand far exceeds the supply. Dr. Norris stated that at present there is a woeful lack of interest on the part of high-schoolers in the teaching profession, and he wondered if teachers' salaries are attractive enough to students. He stressed the need for high caliber teachers and said he felt his most important work was recommending teachers for positions.

In the field of public relations he said he would like to see actual classroom work televised, for the best agency for public relations in education were the children in the classroom.

If the proposed plan for Adult Education in Winchester is to be carried out, a warrant must be brought before the Town Meeting in order to get state aid, Dr. Norris explained.

In his continual striving for an improved school program Dr. Norris stated he would like next year to have a consultant on speech for the elementary schools, as it has been proven that many children with speech defects also have behavior problems due to difficulty in speaking; an industrial arts consultant and an advisor on the English program.

The many questions asked Dr. Norris by the ladies present at the conclusion of his talk evidenced the ever present interest in school problems.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye of the Military Manpower Committee asked the help of all present in stamping out the malicious practice of discussing the status of boys of draft age who are not in uniform. She stated that of the 140 boys examined on January 9th, 28 were turned down for physical reasons.

Mrs. Austin R. Bunker, Secretary of the Council, read a letter from Dr. Dominic Ranci reminding everyone of the townwide blood typing program to be held at the Town Hall on January 26th and 27th.

Mrs. George A. Dutton, Executive Director of the Red Cross, reported that the last Blood Donor Day in Winchester was most successful, with 176 pints of blood being collected.

Mrs. Martin S. Swanson of the Winchester Homefronters announced that a meeting will be held at the library on January 30th at 7:30 p. m. to set this present temporary organization up on a permanent basis.

LIBRARY VOLUNTEERS WANTED

The Institutional Libraries Group is inaugurating a brief but thorough course for Library Volunteers Tuesday afternoons or evenings at the Patients' Library of the Massachusetts General Hospital. Enrollment is open to members of service organizations, veterans auxiliaries, Red Cross groups, Junior League and other volunteer organizations as well as to individuals. Library Volunteers work in the hospital of their choice doing library service aimed to promote the mental well-being of patients during illness and convalescence.

Many women, interested in just such work as that done by Library Volunteers have felt they lack the special training for library work. It is for just this reason that the course mentioned above is being given.

Further information may be secured from Mrs. Eleanor H. Fletcher, Soldiers' Home Library, 91 Crest Avenue, Chelsea 50, Mass. Early registrations are advised, and a nominal fee of $3.00 is made for registration.

LOCAL TALENT IN ARLINGTON RECITAL

Daniel Mantini of Winchester was heard in an informal recital at the Arlington Academy of Music Tuesday evening, January 15th. His solo was very well received by the enthusiastic audience.

Next Sunday the Faculty-Guest Artist Concerts will be resumed with Mario Mantini violinist as the attraction. Mr. Mantini, former Musical Director of WCOP and head of the String Department at the Academy will feature compositions of D'Ambrosio, Persico, Sinigaglia and Delius.

The next new team at the Arlington Academy will commence on January 28 and registrations will be accepted now.

SPRINGFIELD GYMNASTS PLEASED CAPACITY AUDIENCE

The Springfield College Exhibition Team under the direction of Prof. Leslie J. Judd, visited Winchester last Saturday evening and thrilled with their precise and spectacular performance an enthusiastic audience that crammed every available foot of space in the high school gymnasium. Football bleachers were erected along the western side of the gymnasium and these were completely filled, as were the over risers regularly in place at basketball games. Many late comers, used to dropping in at the last minute, had to stand through the two and one-half hour show, but they didn't leave. The exhibition was too good to miss.

The big crowd was most appreciative, bursting into spontaneous applause at the feature performances, many times before they were completed. The gymnasts in turn reflected the audience's enthusiasm by giving the top performance of their young season to date. Prof. Judd and others of the non-exhibiting Springfield group were unanimously of this opinion.

This year's team is a young team and lacks something of the absolute perfection that some of the more experienced Springfield groups have shown in Winchester. This was apparent to knowing observers in the work with the horse, in the tumbling and on the trampoline, spectacular as the last act was. Few in the audience, however, were sufficiently versed in gymnastics and their technicalities to see the slight slips made by the less experienced members of the team, and the overwhelming majority of the cheering crowd was absorbed and thrilled all evening.

It was interesting to watch the reaction of the youngsters in the audience and to see the laughter occasioned by the rather affected marching of the Springfield boys as they entered the gymnasium change to delight and enthusiasm as these beautifully developed college boys swung into their routines. From then on they were with the gymnasts one hundred per cent.

It would be difficult, if not impossible, for the uninitiated to write a finished review of Saturday's exhibition. The program included drills with wands and Indian clubs, work on side horse and rings, acrobatics and tumbling, springboard and long horse vaulting and leaping, work on the parallel and horizontal bars, pyramid building, exhibitions on the bouncing, trampoline, balancing and such specialties as dancing, juggling, comedy acrobatics, an instrumental trio, a Judo exhibition and, finally, the always eagerly awaited posing of the boys with their bodies covered with silver paint, simulating statues against a black drop under beautifully variegated lighting.

Of these sculptured tableaux, the first with the Cross of Lorraine, the familiar symbol of the tuberculosis stamps, was particularly beautiful, while the thought behind the finale, in which Uncle Sam united the world while freeing those nations in bondage was loudly applauded. "The Diver" was another beautiful grouping.

Particularly interesting was the exhibition of authentic Danish calisthenics by Kjeldsen, the most unusual "Bamboo Dance" of the dance group, the Indian club swinging and the balancing of Frank Wolcott, Bob James and big Jim O'Brien. For the youngsters' money there was the trampoline bouncing and the comedy gymnasts, Bob Iserman and Dick Aronson, who were really funny, especially in their pseudo duel.

Frank Hartsoe, Al Alissi and Jim O'Brien made up the instrumental trio, playing respectively the string bass, accordion and electric guitar. Al Alissi and Frank Hartsoe were the Judo experts, demonstrating with ridiculous ease how to disarm and overcome assailants armed with bludgeon, knife, pistol and two-handed sword. There was a clown juggler, whose name we didn't get, who pleased the youngsters; and we mustn't forget the funny man in the long red undies who clowning on the trampoline. The pyramids were great and the vaulting from the springboard over eight men on the long horse, especially spectacular. Everywhere you heard the kids as they went out muttering "What built!"

One of the managers, Thomson, '54, was announcer, and might have stood a bit further from the "mike" for better effect. Prof. Judd himself introduced the studies in bronze; and the exceedingly capable accompanist, who played continuously throughout the performance in excellent rhythm, was Robert Hagglund.

Members of the team were put up at private homes overnight after the show and departed in their special bus Sunday morning, loud in their praise of Winchester's hospitality.

EIGHTH DISTRICT PRESIDENTS' CLUB

The mid-winter meeting of the Eighth District Presidents' Club will be held at the Medford Women's Club House, Governor's Avenue, Medford, on Tuesday, January 29th. Mrs. D. Talmadge Erb will preside, and the guest of honor will be Mrs. Harold H. Given, Eighth District Director of Winchester. A home-cooked luncheon will be served at 12 noon. Members are asked to please bring articles for a white elephant auction to be held from 1 to 2 p. m.

Announcing the Golden Anniversary-

Cadillac

...WITH THE FINEST PERFORMANCE OF ALL TIME !

Featuring 3 of Cadillac's Greatest Engineering Achievements!

THE NEW 190 H. P. CADILLAC ENGINE

Here is the most powerful, the most durable, and the most efficient automotive engine ever offered in a Cadillac car. Its power increase alone is almost 20%—and its new four-throat carburetor, larger exhaust valves, wider exhaust ports and new dual exhaust system make this engine one of the most dynamic performers of all time.

Fifty years ago, the first Cadillac car made its bow to the public. Today, as a fitting climax to those fifty years of progress, we are presenting in our showrooms the Golden Anniversary Cadillac—by far the finest car ever to bear this distinguished name. . . . It is easily the most beautiful of all Cadillacs. Numerous changes have sharpened and smartened the exterior design—while the wholly-new interiors are a revelation in comfort and luxury. . . . Performance is the finest of all time. The great Cadillac engine has a power increase of almost twenty per cent—and is even smoother and quieter in its operation. . . . There's a new Hydra-Matic Drive that gives the proper power application for every need. At a flick of the finger, you can have extra power and acceleration for city traffic and mountain driving—or wonderfully smooth, quiet, gas-saving performance for the open road. . . . And there's a new "power steering" mechanism, optional at extra cost, which reduces normal steering effort by as much as seventy-five per cent! . . . If ever it could be said of a car's performance that it is "out of this world," it can be said of the performance of the new Cadillac. The Golden Anniversary Cadillac is available in three series—the "Sixty-Two," the "Sixty Special" and the "Seventy-Five." . . . These new creations are now on display in our showrooms—and we invite you to see and inspect them at your earliest convenience.

THE NEW HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE

By introducing an entirely new performance range, Cadillac's Hydra-Matic provides the proper power for every need. . . . extra acceleration and responsiveness for city and mountain driving; smooth, quiet, gas-saving performance for the open road. Optional at extra cost on Series 75. Standard equipment on all other models.

THE NEW CADILLAC POWER STEERING

This "power steering" mechanism eliminates as much as seventy-five per cent of all normal steering effort. It provides incredible handling ease, and yet does not interfere in any way with the driver's "road feel" or directional control. Available as an option at extra cost.

OF FELLISLAND COUNCIL

About 200 Scouts and their ladies attended the 27th Annual Meeting and Ladies Night of the Fellisland Council, Inc., B. S. A., at the Winchester Town Hall on Monday evening, the 21st, with the theme "Forward on Liberty's Team".

The affair opened at 6:00 p.m. with a reception followed by a catered dinner at 6:30 p.m. The invocation was given by Rev. Edwin Carey, Council Catholic Chaplain. A. Benjamin Gowing of Winchester was Master of Ceremonies. Community Singing was led by Thomas A. Riley.

The group stood in a moment of silence in respect to the memory of Ralph Alonzo Stevens of Medford, who had been associated with Scouting in Fellisland Council for over 25 years. The business meeting and roll call of districts was presided over by P. Joseph Corrigan, who was re-elected President of the Council. Other officers elected were: A. Benjamin Gowing, 1st Vice President; William O. Jones, 2nd Vice President; Charles E. Forbes, Commissioner; Norman L. Reed, Recording Secretary; Charles W. Butler, Treasurer; George C. Patton, Jr., U. S. S. Representative; Allen F. Smith, Melrose Judge Advocate. Chairmen of Operating Committees elected: Walter E. Shaughnessy, Advancement; Norman R. Houghton, Stenham, Camp Fellisland; James H. Muncaster, Winchester, Camping & Activities; George C. Patton, Jr., Stoneham, Finance; Allen F. Smith, Melrose, Health & Safety; William E. Davies, Winchester, Leadership Training; Charles E. MacGinn, Stoneham, Org. & Ext.; Clarence L. Thompson, Medford, Public Relations.

The President's remarks in part were, "Again we have reached the beginning of a new year. Let us in our devotion rejoice and give thanks for the privilege of being free men — Americans — free to worship and to conduct our daily lives without fear of persecution. Let us preserve that heritage. To do just that I know of no better way than to give the very best efforts to the promotion of the Boy Scout movement. Let us help the American of tomorrow by doing for the American boy today."

Service awards were presented to Francis MacFeeley, Winchester, 10 years; Donald Prescott, Woburn, 10 years; George C. Patton, Jr., Stoneham, 15 years; Robert Millican, Winchester, 20 years; Alfred O. Weld, Winchester, 20 years; Orvis Saxby, Stoneham, 30 years. Mac's Mug was won by the Woburn-Burlington District for the highest percentage of their Scouts present.

The Past Presidents' Award, a small silver statuette of a Boy Scout, was presented to Robert Sibley, George Miller, Simeon Trudeau, William O. Jones and George C. Patton, Jr. The Silver Beaver, an award given by the National Council BSA on recommendation of the local council for outstanding service to Boyhood within the council area, was awarded to Earl Moore of Woburn with appropriate ceremony. Mr. Moore entered Scouting in 1931. The guest speaker, Robert W. Sprout, Asst. Nat'l Director Boy Scouting Services, after reminiscing of his early days in Scouting in Medford and Fellisland Council and some of his experiences throughout the country, said, "We must all have a carry pack filled with a complete Scouting program for the boys; and if we are to meet the demand, we must double our forces to strengthen the Scout fortress and the American way of life." Other prominent guests were: Capt. Frank J. Behan, USAF, Staff Explorer Officer for the U. S. S. L. John Adams, USAF, Staff Explorer Officer for Region One (New England States). The meeting closed with the singing of "God Bless America" and Benediction by Rev. John Snook, Jr., of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, Winchester.

UNITARIAN COUPLES CLUB

The annual Couples Club Dance and Smorgasbord was held last Saturday evening.

Metalf Hall was very attractively decorated and from the moment the dancing started an air of gaiety prevailed. The "mixers" not only got everyone acquainted but were fun and a great help in working up an appetite for the very tasty smorgasbord which was the "high-light" of the evening.

Despite the fact that there were a number of other activities being held Saturday night a grand crowd was present, and from all reports they thoroughly enjoyed themselves and are looking forward to the next Couples Club event, which will be held Saturday evening February 16th.

It pays to advertise in The Star.

MORE CURLING MATCHES

Last Thursday the Winchester Curlers started the Worcester Cup matches at the Country Club rink at Brookline. These matches continue for two more weeks and include rinks from Winchester, The Country Club, Nashua and the Boston Curling Club. Al Litchfield's rink, consisting of Van Vloten, Russ Symmes and Frank Murphy won from the Boston Curling Club, but Charley Wagborne, with Morrison, Fessenden and Dunbar lost to one of The Country Club rinks. Tuesday night there were three more White Cup matches. Charley Wagborne won 12-7 from Bill Davis, Dan Morse 18-7 from Carroll Knowlton and Howard Morrison from Al Litchfield 12-7. Courtney Gendron, one of the new curlers, did especially good work for Dan Morse, while Russ Symmes and Burke starred for Howard Morrison.

Two new curlers showed great

HONORED AT PARTY

A party in honor of Miss Dora White, 515 Washington street, was given by the Youth Group of the Second Congregational Church at the church last Friday night. Miss Natalie Anderson, president of the group, presented Miss White with a diary and autograph book from the Youth Group. "We want to show our appreciation for all you have done and meant at Second Church," Miss Anderson said as she made the presentation. Miss White will leave soon to live in Seattle, Washington. Those present at the party were Thomas Reynolds, Robert Farnham, Roy Carlson, Gordon Richburg, Roland Carlson, Natalie Anderson, Dora White, Janet Keene, Lois Erb, Carol Richburg, Constance Ewell, Billy Burdine, Mr. and Mrs. George Braggon, the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Cook. Movies and slides were shown, and games were enjoyed by the group. Refreshments were served at the end of the party.

SHERIDAN CIRCLE PARKING

Parking restrictions on Sheridan Circle, during certain hours on Sundays, are still in effect. The Police Department intends to enforce this regulation. Those parking in defiance of posted regulations need not be surprised hereafter if they find their cars have been tagged.

A print done by a Winchester girl, Miss Janet Doub, was selected for one of the Purchase Awards at the recent Boston Society of Independent Artists Show held at the Museum of Fine Arts. The thirteen pieces of art selected for awards this year have been presented to New England museums; Miss Doub's print going to the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford, Connecticut.

CHRISTMAS NECKTIES

The problem of the Christmas Necktie is with us again. But this year somebody is going to do something about it. "It's just a question of getting the right tie and the right man together," said Mr. Donovan, owner of Bayburn Cleaners, today. "Fortunately when it comes to ties, one man's nightmare is another man's dreamboat. Our idea is to engineer a gigantic shuffle that will end with everyone satisfied. During the entire month of February which is National Tie Cleaning Month, Bayburn Cleaners will run a "Tie Exchange Pool." Mr. Donovan invites men everywhere to gather up those Christmas ties that strike the wrong note and bring 'em to Bayburn Cleaners or give 'em to one of Bayburn's Routemen. For each tie you send or bring, you can select another from one of the Arlington or 834 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, or from any Bayburn Routemen. All ties in the Tie Bar have been Sanitized Dry Cleaned. Meanwhile the ties you turn in will be Dry Cleaned and added to the Pool. "All it costs you is the price of Dry Cleaning, and you get ties you like. Well, at last someone's doing something about the Christmas Tie problem. Now you can get rid of the purple or yellow job Aunt Tilly gave you for Christmas."

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP
This week the Methodist Youth Fellowship is going to travel to Wilmington. Bishop Booth, the guest speaker, will speak on his experiences in Africa. After a buffet meal, a period of recreation is planned. We will leave the Church at 4:30. During the past few weeks we have been planning a program which we think will be of interest to all our members. Your presence at this and future meetings will be appreciated.

WINCHESTER GIRL CO-CHAIRMAN

The campus of Mount Saint Mary College, Hooksett, N. H., has been transformed into a Winter Wonderland as final plans for its first Carnival Weekend are being completed this week. Nancy O'Rourke, daughter of Mr. C. Philip O'Rourke of 26 Symmes road, is Co-chairman of the Activities Committee. Miss O'Rourke, an Education-Social Studies major, has been active in many affairs and worked on various committees since her arrival at the Mount. She is a member of the Mission and Glee Clubs. Political Science Club, the N. S. A., the N. F. C. C. S., and a past member of the Mission and Glee Clubs. She is Secretary of her class, Chairman of the Athletic Committee, Junior representative on the Social Committee, Student council representative, and N. F. C. C. S. delegate. She is also copy desk editor and Sports editor of the Charter Newspaper, the official school newspaper. She took part in the major give club concerts, including the one given at Trinity College in Vermont in conjunction with St. Michael's College, and the concert given at the regional convention of the National Federation of Catholic College Students in Boston. Active in dramatics, she has been on the committee for all dramatic productions, and has taken part in the recent play, "A Good Girl in the Kitchen." She has been chairman of various committees for Guild Sunday, Freshman-Sophomore Weekend, Fall Festival, Sophomore Hop, Alumni-Sunday, and the Dinner Dance. Her work on the Activities Committee for this Junior Weekend will play a large part in the success of the affair.

"CHRISTOPHER BEAN" BY PARISH PLAYERS

"The Late Christopher Bean" by Sidney Howard, Pulitzer prize play, will be given by the Parish Players on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, February 13, 14 and 15, in the Little Theatre beneath a Spire, First Congregational Church, Mr. Harlan F. Grant of the Boston Conservatory of Music, is the director. When Sidney Howard wrote this dramatic play, Lord, he conceived a play that has become a classic in both professional and amateur circles — a timeless play with deep significance. Through Abby, the central character (played by Mrs. Donald Dalrymple), one sees Christopher Bean, the New England village painter, who had died young, leaving only a few dirty canvases to pay the doctor for his care. The overwhelming news that these canvases are worth a fortune and the mad scramble that ensues, unfold a good plot to the audience with a cast worthy of the prize play. Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. Frederick R. Brown, Jr., John B. MacLellan, George E. Connor, Ralph A. Wadsworth, Robert P. Blake, George S. Hebb, Jr., and Mrs. Dalrymple complete the cast of "The Late Christopher Bean".

Mrs. George E. Connor is chairman of production, and George H. Gowdy is in charge of the stage crew, with Kendall H. Spencer, technician. The Rhythm Band, composed of second graders, will entertain. The third grade members will sing songs. Square dances will be put on by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades accompanied by the school band. It is hoped that all parents will be in the auditorium by 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cullen of the Parkway spent a few days last week in New York City.

DARTMOUTH WOMEN'S CLUB SCHOLARSHIP FUND DANCE

The annual Scholarship Fund dance sponsored by the Dartmouth Women's Club will be held at the University Club, Boston, Friday, February 8th. Music will be furnished by Ken Reeves and his orchestra and dancing will be from nine to one o'clock. Mrs. William A. Stratton, Club President, and M. M. William E. Tallberg, General Chairman of the dance, and her committee are working hard for the success of this event, for the entire proceeds will augment the Scholarship Fund which the club raises annually for assisting worthy students at Dartmouth. Others working with Mrs. Tallberg are Mrs. Robert J. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. Clifford W. England, Mrs. Francis M. Austin, Mrs. Alfred C. Weigel, and Mrs. Malcolm S. Smith. Help the Scholarship Fund to grow by making your reservation today. Not only will you be assured of an evening's entertainment but you will be happy in the thought that you helped to send some worthy student through Dartmouth.

VICTORIA REBEKAH LODGE No. 178

Victoria Rebekah Lodge No. 178 of Winchester is going to entertain the President of the Rebekah Assembly of Massachusetts and her Staff at their meeting on February 14th at eight o'clock p. m. We would like to see as many members as possible attend this meeting to greet the President. We have an entertainment planned and refreshments after the meeting — all of which points to an enjoyable evening.

The James J. Fitzgerald Contracting Co., of this town has the contract for moving a large quantity of earth at St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Burlington, Mass.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL DADS' CLUB NEWS

On last Friday the Dads Club put on a Chowder Party for all the Dads of the School. About 100 members were present as a catered meal was served by the Steering Committee of the Club. Mr. John Wakefield, President of the Dads Club, after entertaining with a few of his own stories, introduced Sergeant Sadler of the State Police. The Sergeant gave a most interesting talk, and colored slide demonstration, on "Highway Safety" and "Crime Detection." The Dads were most appreciative of his unusual presentation, and the complete sincerity of the man, whose life is devoted to the welfare of all. The well known entertainer, Harvey Davies, then gave the "boys" a full forty minutes of laughter and fun, with his stories, songs, and piano renditions. The Committee, made up of Larry Chase, George Rowe, George Neville, and Joseph Cussen received a great note of thanks for putting on this excellent meal and entertainment. It was another great step towards finer community relations.

PARKHURST FATHERS' NIGHT

On Wednesday evening, February 6th children of the second through sixth grades of the Parkhurst School will put on an unusual program in the auditorium. The Rhythm Band, composed of second graders, will entertain. The third grade members will sing songs. Square dances will be put on by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades accompanied by the school band. It is hoped that all parents will be in the auditorium by 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cullen of the Parkway spent a few days last week in New York City.

CUB PACK NINE

Cub Pack Nine held its monthly meeting at the school last Friday, featuring Winter Sport Movies as the attraction of the evening. The following boys received awards: Greg Wood, Bill Pitts, Jeff Urmon, Steve Campbell, George Neville, Paul Francis, Dick McLatchey, Dave Leafe, Richard Watkins, Jim Bravacos, Richard Crookford, Bob Gardner, Charlie Huckins, Eric Wittet, Jim Reynolds, and Charles Carr. Dens 2 and 3 put on very well done skits, in accordance with the theme of the month — "Astro-nomy." George Neville was admitted as a new member with the usual candlelight ceremony. Our new Chairman, Mr. Henry Pitts, presented Den 1 with the attendance cup of the month. Cubmaster Louis Bravacos introduced Mr. C. Q. Adams who explained the "Fudge Sale" as the money raising project of the year for Pack Nine. Be ready to receive the boys into your homes soon, as they are attempting to have their den sell the most candy.

FREEPORT PITCHER SIGNS WITH DETROIT

Clinton S. Mason, Jr., the brilliant young hurling star of Freeport High, Gould Academy of Bethel, Portland Junior College and the Freeport Townies of the Casco Bay League, may be on the way to a major league baseball career. Mason has signed with the Detroit Tigers of the American League for spring training and possible assignment to one of their farm clubs for further seasoning. Mason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton S. Mason, Sr., and until a few years ago resided with his parents here in Winchester. His mother is the former Linda Tremnick, and his grandmother still resides here on Sheffield West. Both he and his family are well known to a large circle of Winchester residents. His father is a well known Freeport, Maine, druggist. Mason, who helped hurl Gould Academy to two Class M titles in the state, flung the Townies to the Casco Bay League pennant only last summer, succumbed to the blandishments of Ray Garland, Tiger scout in this area, who telephoned him from New York, after seeing him work this summer, and rushed to Maine when Mason indicated interest. Clint will finish out his work at PJC at mid-years, in February, and receive instructions where to report in Florida shortly thereafter. (Detroit, like other Major League clubs, will probably put all its players into one big camp.)

Mason weighs 170 pounds, stands six feet one inch, is a righthander with speed and a good assortment of stuff, has played third base and outfield on different occasions, more often third when not flinging, and thus is an exceptional fielder as a pitcher, an asset in his favor because big league teams like a "five-man infield" when possible. Besides baseball, Mason also played basketball for three schools, Freeport High, where he stayed one year before going to Gould, and PJC.

WINCHESTER FROSH, 38; STONEHAM FROSH, 37

The Winchester Freshmen won a thrilling one-point victory over the Stoneham Freshmen at Stoneham last Friday afternoon by a score of 38-37. It was a terrific accomplishment for the Papooses as the Stoneham quintet has been undefeated for two years and had been overwhelming all opposition. The win further emphasizes the tremendous improvement on the part of the locals as the Stoneham Frosh had defeated the Papooses handily at Winchester a month ago.

The locals had to come from behind to win this one as they were trailing 30-27 entering the final period. Wally Hart came up with six valuable points in the last period rally while big Mike Murphy was the Winchester hero as he dropped in a foul shot for the winning point with only two seconds to play and was promptly mobbed by his happy teammates. Bill Ross with 13 points and Lou Farrell with nine points were the high scorers for the Papooses.

The Winchester Junior High won their seventh straight game by swamping the Stoneham Junior High 50-22 in the preliminary game. Once again the high scorers were big John Lynch with 16 points, Joe Bellino with 16, and Bert Kneeland with 13 points.

THE ALFRED STUDIO

551 Main Street, Winchester
Winchester 6-2377

Mrs. Everett Hamby is spending the winter months in Gulfport, Florida.

Winchester High took a leisurely 87-37 Middlesex League contest from Concord High at the high school gym last Friday night. The Indians had too much height, speed, and manpower for the visitors and were never pressed as they tallied over 80 points for the fourth time this season. Coach Bartlett used his second team intact in the last half of the final quarter and they looked impressive in scoring 18 points in their four-minute stretch.

Doug Hawkins, Rodney Long, and Pete Coon got the Indians away to a fast start as the locals led 19-8 at the end of the first quarter. At the half the Red and Black had moved into a 35-12 lead and went ahead 55-21 at the three-quarter mark. Coach Bartlett experimented with Norman Howard by working him with the varsity with Howard coming through nicely with 12 points while rebounding strongly. The Indians reached a new high for the season for offense and defensive rebounding as they literally controlled the boards. The Indians also hit their highest shooting percentage of the season as they made good on 58 per cent of their shots at the basket.

The Winchester Seconds continued to mow down all opposition as they scalped the Concord Seconds 78-33 in the preliminary game. Coach Kneeland was able to give his all-sophomore team considerable playing time and they looked good in adding 25 points to the Winchester total. Neil Muncaster with 16 points and Bob Flaherty with 11 points were the pace setters for the Seconds.

Winchester Girl Wins

SKI RACE

Alison Hersey, a sophomore at Winchester High, won the Women's Downhill Race at the 38th Annual Newport Winter Carnival at Mt. Sunapee State Park last Sunday.

Her brother, Elliott Hersey, formerly of Winchester High, bettered her time by six seconds. Elliott, now a member of the Dartmouth freshman ski team, took fifth place in the Men's Race, four seconds behind the winner, John Salo from K. U. A., but first of the five Dartmouth men entered.

Winchester High set a new all-time scoring mark of 93 points as they trounced Wakefield High 93-25 at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. The Indians were consistent in their scoring all through the game as they racked up 20 points or more in each of the four quarters. Furthermore, this record total was reached with no less than 14 players in the game and with Doug Hawkins being the only one of the eight regulars to play as much as half the game.

The visitors were completely outclassed as the locals made good on 41 of their 72 shots at the basket for a shooting average of 57 per cent. In addition, the locals were airtight on defense as Wakefield was unable to work the ball close to the basket and were forced to take hurried, off-balance shots that were not productive. It was early apparent that the visitors were no match for the Red and Black and the chief interest for the spectators came in witnessing the machine-like precision with which the Indians worked the ball through the Wakefield zone defense for easy lay up shots or for arching set shots by Forester and Dilorio.

The Winchester Seconds were held to their lowest score of the year as they defeated the Wakefield Seconds 37-16. The locals were never in danger of losing this contest but they did turn in their poorest performance of the season as they were unable to get their offense functioning smoothly. Frank Carleton was the only local to score in double figures as he hit for 10 points.

Furthermore, this record total was reached with no less than 14 players in the game and with Doug Hawkins being the only one of the eight regulars to play as much as half the game.

The visitors were completely outclassed as the locals made good on 41 of their 72 shots at the basket for a shooting average of 57 per cent. In addition, the locals were airtight on defense as Wakefield was unable to work the ball close to the basket and were forced to take hurried, off-balance shots that were not productive. It was early apparent that the visitors were no match for the Red and Black and the chief interest for the spectators came in witnessing the machine-like precision with which the Indians worked the ball through the Wakefield zone defense for easy lay up shots or for arching set shots by Forester and Dilorio.

The Winchester Seconds were held to their lowest score of the year as they defeated the Wakefield Seconds 37-16. The locals were never in danger of losing this contest but they did turn in their poorest performance of the season as they were unable to get their offense functioning smoothly. Frank Carleton was the only local to score in double figures as he hit for 10 points.

SKI RACE

Alison Hersey, a sophomore at Winchester High, won the Women's Downhill Race at the 38th Annual Newport Winter Carnival at Mt. Sunapee State Park last Sunday.

Her brother, Elliott Hersey, formerly of Winchester High, bettered her time by six seconds. Elliott, now a member of the Dartmouth freshman ski team, took fifth place in the Men's Race, four seconds behind the winner, John Salo from K. U. A., but first of the five Dartmouth men entered.

Winchester High set a new all-time scoring mark of 93 points as they trounced Wakefield High 93-25 at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. The Indians were consistent in their scoring all through the game as they racked up 20 points or more in each of the four quarters. Furthermore, this record total was reached with no less than 14 players in the game and with Doug Hawkins being the only one of the eight regulars to play as much as half the game.

The visitors were completely outclassed as the locals made good on 41 of their 72 shots at the basket for a shooting average of 57 per cent. ### IN APPRECIATION

January 29, 1952
Editor of the Star:
The success of our Blood Typing Program was the result of the cooperation and efforts of so large a number of our citizens it is difficult to adequately express the appreciation of the Department of Civil Defense.

We thank those who came and were typed; those who kept their appointments but because of limited facilities could not be processed; also, those who made appointments to be typed later. For the generous and wholehearted response to our appeal, we are proud of the citizens of Winchester.

To our co-workers we are especially grateful. Those include the two teams of technicians from the Diagnostic Laboratory of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health; the group of Winchester physicians one or more of which were present during the entire period of blood grouping; also the members of Winchester Chapter of the American Red Cross several of whom responded on rather short notice.

The program would not have been successful without the splendid work done by the precinct workers, individual volunteers and those drawn from various local offices which included, the Telephone Company, Boston Edison, Browning Laboratories, Winchester Savings Bank and the Winchester Hospital. Town departments were represented and our own Civil Defense group did their part with the largest individual unit being the Auxiliary Police.

What was accomplished over the past week-end gives us confidence that if and when disaster comes we can rely on the citizens of Winchester to do their part.

STRAW VOTE

Editor of the Star:
As a supplement of what I wrote in last week's Star on the wisdom of taking a Straw Vote on the Grade-crossing problem, I wish to ask that more volunteers contact me at once. We can use more help in nearly every Precinct. We need you for one of the following purposes:

1. To distribute postcard ballots on your street.
  2. To contact some of your personal friends.
  3. To fill-in where needed.
  4. To contribute one dollar's worth of postcards.
  5. To contribute one dollar or more to help cover cost of printing the postcard ballots.
- Won't you give a little time or money for the worthy purpose of sounding out public opinion? This project is independent of any other referendum.
- For your convenience, you may call Winchester 6-0827 to record your name and kind of service you wish to volunteer.

Sincerely yours,
Percival Mott

TO THE SPONSORS OF WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB

Editor of the Star:
Captain Don Ellis, all members of the team, its manager and coach join in thanking the sponsors of the Winchester Hockey Club for their generous contributions to this season's program. Such splendid support has made it possible for the local team to engage in top flight competition with some of the strongest amateur hockey teams in this area, including Dedham Hockey Club, Camp Parker and Lynn General Electric.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK-END

Fifty-two foreign students from 26 different countries will be guests of the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church for its fourth annual International Week-end, February 9 and 10.

Started four years ago, the project has increased in size and interest each season until it is now one of the main events of the intensive Forum program. The guests are all students attending college in the Boston area. While in Winchester they will be entertained in the homes of Forum members.

The week-end will open with a banquet at the church, followed by folk and square dancing. Entertainment during the banquet will be supplied by the Forum Glee Club and Orchestra, and community singing led by the popular Reverend William Valentine of Medford.

The program on Sunday will consist of a Forum chapel service at 9:30, followed by attendance at the regular church service. Following dinner with their hosts, the students will be honored guests at an International Tea in the Small Social Hall.

Fifteen committees have been at work for several weeks planning the affair. Chairmen of these committees are: Bulletin Board, Betty Lou Martensen; Calendar, Lois Bigelow and Joan McNeill; Decorations, Jenny Meigs; Entertainment, Marjorie Morse and Dan Blanchard; Glee Club, Sonja Norian; Orchestra, Robert Traut; Photography, Paul Leverette; Poster, John Merritt; Set-up, Bill Ross; Supper, Carolyn Stone and Judy Swan assisting Mrs. Leon Fernandez; Tea, Gail Stratton and Ann Porter assisting Mrs. George Gowdy and Mrs. Henry Bainbridge; Telephone, Sally Cunningham and Betty Nelson; Transportation, Sue Mitchell and Tina Tonan; and Worship, John Becker and Marjorie Dexter, assisting Mrs. Norman Paddford.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND PARTY MARCH 21

Subcommittee chairmen have been named to handle various phases of the town-wide card party to be staged for the Scholarship Fund by the Winchester High School Parent-Faculty Association.

The second annual party is scheduled for March 21 in the high school gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiton are general co-chairmen for the event. At a meeting in their home this week they announced the following sub-committee chairmen, with several more yet to be named:

Property—Albert Swazey
Waitresses—Mrs. John Bledsoe
Table Prizes—Stark Mills Door Prizes—Harry Damon Ticket Sales—

Refreshments—Mrs. Frank Hawkins
Ticket collection and reception—Mrs. Harry Easton
Mrs. Harvey Macaulay
Bean Guessing Contest—

Jay Willing
Several added features are being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Whiton for this year's party.

MYSTIC SCHOOL FATHERS' NIGHT HOBBY SHOW

On Friday evening, January 25, in the Mystic School Auditorium, the Mothers' Association held their annual Fathers' Night, the affair this year being a grand-scale hobby show with exhibits contributed by nearly one hundred children from all the grades in the school. The Hobby Committee, headed by Mrs. Stanley Ballard and including the Mesdames James Baker, Albert Fisher, George Lemay, Edward Miller, George Niles, William Purington, Darrell Root, Albert Silk, and William Wolsey merit applause for a well-planned and efficiently run program. The Hobby Horse motif, initiated with the invitations brought home from school to every family, was effectively carried out by the over-stuffed Mom and Pop hobby horses greeting guests in the school vestibule and by the corky star-studded ponies adorning the auditorium walls. The refreshment table, where punch and cookies were served, was appropriately decorated with a large bouquet of colorful balloons, while collectors' pennants and travel posters flanked the "Welcome to Mom and Pop" strung above the stage.

The hobbies displayed at tables around the entire hall, in the center space, and on the stage, by children from Kindergarten through Sixth Grade ranged from leathercraft, candle-making, and the building of model locomotives, planes, and ships to puppet-making, chemistry, wood-working, metal embossing, brush painting, weaving, and house plants, shaping and painting of plaster models, construction of an Indian village and pioneer forts, and the maintenance of a terrarium complete with tree-toad, newt, and huge spider. Amateur collections exhibited were of Civil War trophies, stuffed animals, stuffed birds, stamps, coins, nails, tools, watch hands, stones, shells, butterflies, costume dolls, ash trays, books, postcards, horses, and Indian arrowheads.

Several of the young exhibitors were working at their hobbies—making dolls, manipulating puppets, operating hand looms, constructing models, conducting chemical experiments, and building ultra-violet light, and running electric motors. On the stage among others were artists at easels painting portraits and a hand-decorator of plaster moulds.

EN KA MIDWINTER MEETING

About ninety enthusiastic members of En Ka gathered at the home of Mrs. George Marks on Tuesday, January 29, for the mid-winter meeting of the society.

A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Dermot Townley-Tilson and her committee. The pointers were Mrs. Harold Meyer and Mrs. Albert Swazey.

Dr. Forster Norris spoke to us on some of the problems of school administration. He began his remarks by thanking the society for its many gifts to the work of the schools and especially to the music department. Dr. Norris continued his talk by saying that Winchester is not alone in her problems, since schools all over the country are faced with the same difficulties. The many factors entering in include the rapidly increasing population, the teacher supply and demand, the work of public relations and the ever present task of improving the instructional program. Dr. Norris left us with the feeling that Winchester's schools are under excellent supervision.

Mrs. Richard Harlow, president of En Ka, then opened the regular business meeting. After the reports of the secretary, Mrs. George Connor, who made her report on the work of the En Ka committee and that of the treasurer, Mrs. Davis, the report of the finance committee was heard. Mrs. Donald Conners, chairman of the committee, reported the following disbursements, which should be of interest to the townspeople, since it is the continued support of the town which makes these gifts possible.

$300.00 for a stainless steel sink and cabinets for the Home for the Aged.

$175.00 for installing same.

$175.00 for a electric refrigerator for the Winchester District Nursing Association.

$96.83 for four supply bags for the district nurses.

$147.70 for two uniforms for the high school band.

$200.00 for a bass violin.

$150.00 for a new floor at the Girl Scout Cabin.

$300.00 for two aluminum canoes for the Boy Scouts.

$300.00 for a new wharf at the Boy Scout Camp Fellsland.

Mrs. Robert MacArthur, Civic Chairman, reported on the work of her committee. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were given to several families.

Christmas boxes were sent to Winchester boys in Korea, and Mrs. MacArthur read several very appreciative letters from the boys.

Christmas stockings were hung at the Home for the Aged, and En Ka has given several suppers at the home. The letters which Mrs. MacArthur read from various people at the home expressing their gratitude were much enjoyed by the En Ka members. Mrs. MacArthur reported that the work of the Baby-Photo service at the hospital was going on satisfactorily.

Mrs. Clara L. Bailey, chairman of the What-Not Shop, gave a humorous report of its activities, showing also the serious side and the profitable results of all the hours spent in the endeavor.

Mrs. Edward Kuypers, chairman of the 1952 Street Fair, which is to be held on May 23 and 24, aroused much enthusiasm by her report of progress.

Mrs. Russell Symmes, co-chairman, showed much activity already.

Mrs. Chandler Symmes, chairman of the Gift Basket, reported a good start in that work as a result of the fall sewing meetings and the Christmas Sale.

Mrs. Harlow then read a letter announcing the anonymous gift to En Ka of $250, to be used in the work of the society.

The meeting was adjourned and everyone left imbued with the spirit to accomplish bigger and better things.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League of the First Baptist Church will hold their February meeting on Thursday, February 7th. From 10-12 there will be White Cross sewing, followed by a noon luncheon in charge of Mrs. Paul Ward.

For the afternoon program, Mrs. Hilary Stratton wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church, Malden, will speak on the subject "Transformers". Mrs. Stratton is a native of Georgia and was educated in the schools and university at Macon. She is president of the Ministers' Wives' Fellowship of the American Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Stanley Cameron will conduct the devotional program.

JAMES SIDNEY ALLEN

THE SENIOR FORUM

Mr. James Sidney Allen, a member of the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Foreign Missions for the Congregational Churches, will address the public the Forum of the First Congregational Church on Sunday, February 3, when it meets at 9:30 in Ripley Chapel.

Mr. Allen, a resident of Winchester, will speak on "The Work of the American Board." Our church is very distinguished in having one of its members on this board, composed of 36 members throughout the country.

Girls basketball teams are being formed and coached by Frank Provinzano from 9 to 10:30 each Saturday morning. The boys have the floor from 10:30 to 12, and have had some interesting games each week. Last Saturday the Boys Forum Basketball Team defeated the Y. P. F. in a good match.

The Forum Room also is the scene of much activity each Saturday morning, as members sew doll clothes, paint wooden toys, and are refurbishing a doll house. These items were collected from the membership and will be taken into the Boston City Missionary Society to be used in its Summer Vacation Bible School. On Saturday, February 2, another group will journey to Farrington Memorial where they will use chairs, tables and refreshment furniture for use in other Sunday Schools.

Mrs. John Sidney Allen, Advisor on International Week-end, will again take a group of Forum members into the International Student Center in Cambridge on Sunday, February 3, where they will be hosts at a tea from 4 to 6.

The series of sermons being delivered by Rev. Walter Lee Bailey at the First Baptist Church on the Book of Revelation is creating considerable interest. A question has been placed in the church foyer where people may drop their puzzling questions about this book. Mr. Bailey takes a few minutes at the Announcement period each Sunday to answer these questions. His subject next Sunday, February 3, will be "The Cold Church."

SHELL COLLECTORS DREDGE MOLLUSKS ON OCEAN FLOOR

Since prehistoric times adults and children have collected sea shells, picking up at depths and unusual specimens found along the shores. Scientists have used shells to explain marine life, the nature of coasts and waters and the geologic past. Fossil shells remain have guided geologists almost since the study of geology began.

The collection of shells for their own sake, on a scientific basis, however, has steadily gained in popularity. In the last few years, the National Geographic Society says, the science is called conchology, and some collectors have spent thousands of dollars in pursuit of shells.

Best Shells Lie Deep
Heavy expenditures followed the discovery that the best shells are not found along shores as often as on the ocean bottom or on reefs. Almost all shell collectors start by picking up specimens on the beach. Then they wade out in shallow water, using water glasses to locate their quarry.

From this stage the really earnest conchologists move to boats. They find that the shells have greater beauty and brilliance if taken when the mollusks are still living inside.

For this reason a small number of collectors, many of them in Florida, have equipped cabin cruisers and fishing boats with small power dredges to explore the ocean floor at depths from two to more than 100 fathoms.

Off both Florida coasts shellers dredge the bottom and bring up living mollusks of all sizes, which are sorted mechanically through progressively smaller screens down to the size of ordinary window screen mesh.

The Florida enthusiasts, particularly those working in the Gulf of Mexico, also use their boats to reach outlying reefs where, in very calm water and at low tide, they collect shells found nowhere else. This work, like offshore wading, is done with the aid of water glasses and rock turners, long iron rods with points and hooks used to uncover mollusks hiding beneath underwater rocks.

Shrimpers Find Some
Other mollusks are turned up by professional shrimpers, who have recently found species not previously known to exist off Florida.

Many good shelling spots off both coasts of Florida and the Keys are known only to the few conchologists with boats. They are constantly discovering new places to dredge.

One of the least known, and best, locations for dredging is off the Gulf coast between Pensacola and Panama City. Here the beach shells are of comparatively poor quality, but the dredged shells are of the highest quality. They are richer in coloring than shells from any other known location.

Dredging and reef exploration is hard, strenuous work. But a true shell collector feels amply repaid by the beauty and rarity of the specimens he obtains.

GLASSBLOWER'S CRAFT SURVIVES DESPITE IRON-LUNGED MACHINES

Czech glassblowers, expelled from their homeland after World War II, are reported to be among the best dollar earners in the United States Zones of Western Germany.

They are proud that their ancient and respected craft of glassblowing still flourishes, says the National Geographic Society.

Iron-lunged machines have taken over the mass production of blown glassware and on the home can turn out several thousand bottles and flasks. Electric light bulbs are now made entirely by machine.

Still big business, however, is glassware that is "hand-blown," to use a trade expression meaning blown by human lungs. It includes the finest of what the industry knows as "fine glass." In table glassware, hand-blown objects range from fractional-ounce liqueur glasses to large goblets and handsome big pitchers. They are made in clear, colorless "crystal," and in all shades of the rainbow.

Industry Centered in East
By closing down production in Czechoslovakia, Germany, Belgium, Italy, and France, World War II shifted supremacy in the field of fine hand-blown glass to American shores. Since labor is the major factor hand-blown glass cost, the Old World may regain its full share of the trade because of its lower-priced labor market.

The American industry is firmly established, however, and in recent years has pioneered in the creation of new and beautiful designs. It is centered in a dozen plants located in the small triangle of the eastern United States with corners at Toledo, Ohio, Corning, New York, and Charleston, West Virginia.

Glassblowers have plied their trade for 6,000 years at least, according to pictographs and artifacts from ancient Egyptian tombs. Transparent glass, however, seems to have been known for less than half that time.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The midwinter meeting of the Winchester Garden Club was held on Thursday, January 24th, at the home of Miss Mary Alice Fitch, the charm of her unusual house, with the plants and fountain in the sun room, as well as her own gracious charm, providing a delightful background for the afternoon.

Dessert was served before the meeting, the arrangement of beautiful carnations in the center of the dining table, and the individual strawberry shortcakes served by the hostess, adding their color to the scene. Coffee was poured by Mrs. John B. Willis, and Mrs. Arthur Pitman assisted in serving.

The speaker of the afternoon, Miss Edna Cutter of Braut, Massachusetts, proved to be a truly practical gardener, with her obvious knowledge of soils and plant requirements, and her audience was most responsive as she spoke of spring gardens and the old-fashioned flowers whose popularity will never die. She stressed the importance of correct landscaping for the new low houses, denigrating the excessive use of evergreens for that purpose, as their rapid growth would be certain to dwarf, if not hide completely, the outlines of the dwellings in a surprisingly short time. She urged a wider use of low-growing deciduous shrubs as more in proportion to these houses, and in the gardens accompanying them she stressed the need of eliminating tall plant material in favor of lower growths in order to insure a well-proportioned effect. She spoke also of the desirability of planting pin oaks, with their bright colored foliage, in small yards, as opposed to the larger trees, as the more pretentious houses of past years give way to the smaller houses which are more adapted to the modern way of living.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

On Friday, February 1, Mrs. Barbara Metcalf and Mr. Frank J. McDonald are to be married. Mr. McDonald, who has recently been discharged from the Navy, is from Ocala, Florida. Mrs. Metcalf will continue as executive director of the Winchester Girl Scouts and will be back in the office on Wednesday, February 6.

Troop 44, under the leadership of Mrs. S. Cairncross, Mrs. P. W. Bellows and Mrs. P. Collins, met at the cabin after school on Thursday to honor one of their members, Cynthia Alfors, who is leaving for Europe. The farewell party combined outdoor sports with fun inside around the fireplace.

Miss Blanche McGowan of the Boston community Recreation Program, will be in Winchester on Tuesday, February 5. She will be the speaker at the Leaders' meeting at 10:00 a. m. at the Congregational Church. All leaders and assistants are urged to attend, for Miss McGowan has a wealth of ideas and is very capable of instructing others in the use of this material.

MORE TRIPS FOR THE CURLERS

Last week a Winchester rink consisting of John Joy, skip, Geoff Neiley, Dan Morse and Bill Davis had a pleasant curling trip to the Utica, N. Y., Bonspiel. Twenty-four Canadian and twelve U. S. rinks competed for four days for four different trophies. The Winchester curlers started out well by defeating the rink from New Castle, a small town of some 2500 population, in a Northern New Brunswick with five sheets of ice, three of which are artificial ice. Outremont, near Montreal, was the next Winchester victim; but Schenectady and Utica knocked the local rink out of the competition.

This weekend there is another bonspiel at Utica, and Charley Wagborne, skip, is taking Arthur Butters, George King and Ed Gartry.

This week at Brookline saw only Red vs. Blue matches. John Coulson's rink won from Frank Lane's, and Al Litchfield's from Geoff Neiley's, both by lopsided scores. John Joy won from Charley Wagborne and Bill Ferguson from Rex MacMinn. John Fulton was the only new curler this week. The Red vs. Blue score to date had not been added up when reporter left, so this will be reported next week. The finals of the White Cup are due to be played off next week.

COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION

At a Sunday evening coffee hour at her home on Central Green, Mrs. Clarence Whorf introduced Mr. J. Byron Lear, representative of the Community Concert Association in New York, to a group of Smith College Club members who are planning for the annual membership drive next month. Mr. Lear will help with the preliminary organization and will be in Winchester for the week of the drive, March 17-22, with headquarters again this year through the courtesy of Peck & Peck.

According to Mr. Lear, some thirty new artists have been added this year to the Community Concert roster, so that the directors will have no difficulty in choosing programs comparable to the fine ones that have been presented under the sponsorship of the Smith College Club during the past four seasons. It is the hope of the President, Mrs. Stanley E. Neill, that this year's drive, through precinct captains and workers in all parts of the town, will bring these outstanding concerts to an even wider Winchester audience.

Mrs. Whorf, who is general chairman of the Concert Association, will have as co-chairmen, Mrs. Neil H. Borden and Mrs. D. Reid Weedon. Mrs. Harold Farnsworth will be secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Melville Hughes, corresponding secretary. Present also were Mrs. Henry K. Spencer, Miss Adelaide Homer and Mrs. Frederick Walsh.

COLLEGE CLUB ART GROUP

More than 50 of the College Club members enjoyed the Eastern Art exhibits at the Museum of Fine Arts, and the lecture hall talk by Miss Maginnis on some of the special exhibits. Miss Alice Main was chairman for both the study group meeting and the museum trip.

For the next meeting of the Art Group, Mrs. Charles Whitten, chairman, Mrs. John Chipman and Mrs. Henry K. Spencer will explain Persian Art, especially the historical background, the miniatures and tiles, the rugs and textiles. This meeting will be held February 8 at 10 o'clock in the Winchester Library.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

Every Nook And Corner

Do you know there are over 52,000 books in your public library? So don't limit your browsing to the fiction above. The non-fiction room at the left of the fiction alcove contains current books of biography, travel, world conditions, humor, personal experiences, poetry, drama, cookbooks, how to do this and that in arts and crafts and just about every type of reading. The Business and Technical Section is kept up-to-date with the latest in engineering, electronics, business management, and so forth. A booklist is now in preparation listing the new books in this collection.

More business books are found in the reference room such as Moody's Manuals. Here also may be used up to date encyclopedias, specialized reference books, atlases, pamphlets, vocational material, newspapers and magazines. Continuing around the library we next come to the Foreign Language Reading Corner — books written in French, Spanish, German, Italian and Swedish; and the Magazine Alcove with about 200 different magazines which may be borrowed for home use. Next we have the students room housing a special collection of books for the use of high school students.

Behind the main desk are three floors of book stacks. Do take time to explore a few of the thousands of books which are kept there. On the lower floor of the stacks are magazines such as Harper's Magazine are available from the first copy dated June, 1850.

Have you ever stood in the middle of the main lobby and looking upward, wondered what books are kept on those balconies? Come on up — what do you find? House plans, interior decorating, antiques, gardening, sports, games, photography, how to paint, draw, and so forth. That little cozily furnished room is the Family Room — which includes not only books on child psychology and family living but on education in general.

It's Wednesday evening and the beautiful strains of music draw you to the Downs Room where you may sit and listen awhile to classical recordings. If you wish to take some albums to play at home, there are over 300 from which you may make your choice. Beautiful art editions as well as books on music are shelved in this attractively furnished Fine Arts Room.

The next time you are at the Library — take such a tour and see if you don't find some new and exciting books you have never seen before.

Don't forget the Children's Library is on the lower floor, and on February twelfth the new Rich Room containing the Lincoln and Lee collection will be opened.

Music Program

Recorded music in the Downs Room, Wednesday, February sixth at 3 p. m. and again at 7:30 p. m. The program: Symphony No. 89 in F major — Haydn Sonata No. 9 in A major "Kreutzer" for Violin (First Movement) — Beethoven The Moldau — Smetana Danse Macabre — Saint Saens Concerto in A minor for Piano — Grieg

Moving Pictures at the Library February 1-2, Friday at 7:30 p. m. and Saturday at 10:15 a. m. Birds in Winter (in color) The Fireman Abraham Lincoln Silvertip

February 8-9. Developing Responsibility Benjamin Franklin Banshee (Jet propelled aircraft) Cartoon

Dedication of Edgar J. Rich Room Tickets are now available at the library for the dedication of the Edgar J. Rich Room (Lincoln-Lee collection) Tuesday evening, February twelfth at eight o'clock. Tickets are free, but it will be helpful to know the number of people who expect to attend so it is requested that tickets be obtained well in advance. Professor Arthur M.

LAND COURT

To the Commonwealth of Massachusetts: the Town of Winchester a municipal corporation in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, JAMES N. CLARK, ELIZABETH V. CLARK and NELLIE A. PIHL, of said Winchester, and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by FREDERIC A. DAVIDSON, Esquire, of New Rochelle in the State of New York, to register and confirm his title in the following described land: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in said Winchester, bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by the junction of Bacon Street and Mystic Valley Parkway; Southwesterly by land now or formerly of NELLIE A. PIHL, 121.79 feet; Northwesterly by land now or formerly of JAMES N. CLARK, 126.9 feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically the grounds of objection or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston at the Court House, on or before the eighteenth day of February next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by or for you, your default will be recorded, the said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, John C. Leggett, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-first day of January in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

STAFF AND KEY

The Administrative Board of the Staff and Key Society, which is representing the Ocean Springs Opera, "A Waltz Dream," on March 7th and 8th in the high school auditorium, is made up of the officers of the society, two members at large, Lucy Wilcox Cushman and George Hebb, and the following chairman:

Music Chairman, Cushman de Lange, who is asking for volunteers to play in the orchestra during the dress rehearsal as well as the two nights on which the play will be presented to the public. She may be reached at WI 6-3164 by anyone interested.

Program Chairman, Lenore Gamage, did a splendid job of planning and setting up the programs last year and has taken over the same difficult task this year. The Staff and Key hopes that its many friends will cooperate with Mrs. Gamage and the committee members who may call on them. Mrs. Gamage may be contacted at 64 Salisbury street, or by calling WI 6-0405.

Ticket Chairman, Ruth Hilton, will announce when the tickets will be on sale. Tickets will be $2.00 and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Hilton at WI 6-0375, or at her home, 19 Park avenue.

Production Chairman, Gordon Bennett, is seeking assistance from volunteers who would be interested in properties and costumes and other work behind the scenes. Mr. Bennett will be grateful for any assistance and may be called at WI 6-3164.

Publicity Chairman, Dorothy Mardulic, would be very interested in any news of former members of the Staff and Key, and may be reached at 37 Woodside road, Reading, or by calling WI 6-1542. M. Mardulic would be glad to display posters in any store windows which would be available for that purpose.

4-H AGGIES GET AWARDS

Awards were presented to the members of the Winchester 4-H Garden Club, "The Aberjona Aggies," at their January meeting on Tuesday, January 29, which was held at the Library. First, second and third prize ribbons were awarded to Richard Bingham, Dorothy Pratt and Richard Foster. All members who satisfactorily completed their garden work received bronze National 4-H Club pins. In addition to the members listed above, pins were awarded to David and Peter Gowing, David and Robert Dauphins, and to the leader, Coleman G. Foley, Jr. The awards were made by George E. Erickson, Court Club Mitt from the Middlesex County Extension Service in Concord.

Plans were made for the coming year. Colored pictures of 4-H Club work and on gardening were shown. A short period of recreation completed the program.

Some two million boys and girls were enrolled in 4-H Club work in the United States. In addition to gardening, activities are carried on in livestock, handicraft, clothing, food, home furnishing, food preservation, and child care. Any boy or girl between ten and twenty-one interested in gardening who would like to be a member of this Club should get in touch with the leader, Mr. Coleman G. Foley, Jr., 18 Middlesex street - telephone Winchester 6-0728.

The Players Agent elected was Ken Hall. This is one of the most important positions in the league set-up. The Players Agent is the middle man between the players and the team managers. The players agent acts as the auctioneer at the beginning of the season when competitive bidding by the managers is performed in making up their teams.

WINCHESTER COUNCIL No. 210

The next regular meeting of the Council will be held on Monday, February 4, 1952, at Waterfield Hall at 8:30 p.m.

The Communion Breakfast Committee, headed by D. G. K. Everett Kimball, is in the process of making final arrangements for the event, which will be held on Sunday, March 30th. The main speaker will be announced shortly.

The banquet and dance recently announced to celebrate the 55th anniversary of the Council will be held on Tuesday, May 6th, instead of the date previously announced.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

February Exhibition

This exhibition differs from those preceding it in that it has no connection with the speaker who will open it on Tuesday, February 5, with his subject.

The exhibition is a memorial to Daniel West, a former Winchester resident who died in 1937 at the age of twenty-four. In spite of his extreme youth, he had accomplished a tremendous amount of work; and these paintings on display, pencil sketches, water colors, oils and so on, both classic and modern, represent part of that work.

The speaker will be Prescott W. Baston, who will talk about his own careers, figurines. These include a small figure which may be known to members of the Association; the Thinker, facsimiles of Dickens characters, Mr. Boston's Cow. A pursuit, perhaps a hobby, which Mr. Baston started some fifteen years ago in Arlington, has now expanded to a flourishing business carried on from his present studio in Marblehead.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES

The fire department was active as usual during the past week. Starting last Friday at 6:58 with a run to 25 Park avenue, where a flooded oil burner at the residence of Paul O'Neil was cared for, the department was active up to yesterday.

On Monday forenoon a telephone call sought aid in rescuing a dog which had broken through the ice on Wedge Pond. Engine 4 and the service truck rescued the dog, owned by Robert H. Sibley, Jr., of Lloyd street. Also on Monday, at 9:22 in the evening, Box 46 was called to a fire at 33 Woodside avenue. Here a cracked hot water boiler had filled the cellar with steam. The firemen extinguished the fire.

Wednesday morning at 8:10 o'clock trouble took the department to 4 Royal street to the home of Mrs. Mazzei. Here the blowing off of a relief valve had filled the cellar with steam. The firemen extinguished the fire.

MEDICAL ESSAY CONTEST

The Middlesex East District Medical Society is sponsoring an essay contest for high school and junior high school students, public and parochial, in the seven towns comprising this district: Medford, Reading, Stoneham, Wakefield, Wilmington, Winchester and Woburn. The subject is to be "Why the Private Practice of Medicine Furthest This Country with the Finest Medical Care," and the first three winning essays will receive cash prizes of fifty, twenty-five and fifteen dollars, awarded by the Medical Society.

A story, "The Snow Man Wants a House," was read by Mary Doherty, and the picture which illustrated it was displayed by Thomas Callahan. Next, Beverly Vinson read a story called "Kiki Skates".

For their last number the class presented a dance, "The Skaters' Waltz". The dancers were: Neil Nelson, Patricia Paciono, Michael Longiro, Catherine McLeod, James DeSole, Ben Egan, Richard Tansey, Marilyn Walsh, Frederick Sullivan, Carol Chabot, Peter Crawford, Beverly Vinson, Thomas Mooney, Charlene Wilberger, Karl Russo, and Mary Doherty.

Others who took part in the singing were: Mary Ann Harris, David Thomas, and Edward Pearson. Announcements were made by Richard Giuliani.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT NOTES

On January 21 the School Committee met with the Washington School Building Committee.

At a recent meeting of the Committee, Mr. James H. Fitzgerald was appointed caretaker of Manchester Field and custodian at the high school.

The work of renovating the high school continues. The installation of new and larger lockers has been nearly completed, and it is hoped that the new equipment for the physics laboratory will be put into place during the February vacation.

Superintendent Fred Tuttle and other members of the school department of Westerly, Rhode Island, visited Winchester schools recently to examine records which are kept for each pupil, beginning in the elementary grades and continuing through high school. Superintendent Tuttle stated that, in his opinion, the Winchester system was among the best he has seen during an extensive survey.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE AT NOONAN SCHOOL

Kindergarten: Gail Bond, Herman Nelson, Bobby Rae, Michael Saraco

Grade One: Lorraine Dewar, Robert Migliaccio

Grade Two: Neil Nelson, Marilyn Walsh

Grade Three: Thomas Treacy

Grade Four: Ronald Chabot, Paul DeRossi, Frank Phinney, George Thompson, Carole Nelson

Grade Five: William Bond, Douglas Martell, John Horn, Dorothy Chute, Jean Rae

Grade Six: Edward Lynch, Ann Flaherty, Patricia McGowan, Judy Meroun.

R. H. B. Smith, Vice President of the Middlesex County Extension Service in Concord, spoke on "More Food for Your Mouth." Mrs. Bell is a specialist in the study of nutrition, and in these days of inflated prices her topic should prove timely and interesting to all homemakers.

"SIGHT UNSEEN" SENIOR-JUNIOR PLAY

Rehearsals of "Sight Unseen," the Senior-Junior play which will be presented on Feb. 16, are proceeding at a rapid pace. Mr. Thomas Morse, director of the play and speech instructor at the high school, believes that the cast is showing reasonable progress for this stage of the rehearsals.

This year's cast consists of six seniors and four juniors. Carole Ambrose, as Lady Judith Elliot, is the leading lady. Carole was in the high school's Christmas production, "The Tree." She is an active member of the school's modern dance club and is in several other school organizations.

Earl Carrier, as Henry, and Steve Yale, as Archibald Andrews, share the male lead. Portraying Prince Sirki in last year's unforgettable production of "Death Takes a Holiday," Earl was the leading man. He is president of the Athletic Association, and a National Thespian. Earl played in this year's undefeated football team and was in the cast of "The Tree."

Carolyn Buracker portrays Lady Penelope Elliot. She was last year's Duchess Stephanie in "Death Takes a Holiday." National Thespians, Red and Black, Aberjona, and Vaudeville Show have been Carolyn's main activities.

Mrs. Millicent Malone is played by Sona Norian. She has been active in dramatics, starring in "Death Takes a Holiday" and "The Tree." She is a member of the National Honor Society, managing editor of the "Aberjona," a player on the varsity field hockey team, and she has been a member of the Student Representative to Girls' State.

Maureen Dee is cast as Etta. Although dramatics is a comparative new field for Maureen, she promises to be one of the outstanding performers in "Sight Unseen." Maureen is a member of the Dramatic and Philosophy clubs and of the Aberjona staff.

Dick Egan plays the part of Brigadier General Sir Thomas Elliot. Last year Dick portrayed Corrado in "Death Takes a Holiday." He is a National Thespian, a member of the National Honor Society, and president of the French Club. Dick was a runner on the high school's undefeated cross-country team and was editor of the "Red and Black."

NOONAN SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

The theme of the assembly presented by Mrs. Sheila Young's second grade on January 22 was "Winter Fun." The varied program was composed of songs, choral speaking, with two poems, dances, all of them associated with winter life.

Two songs, "Tiny Snowflakes" and "The Skating Song," were presented by the entire class. Choral speaking followed, with two poems, "The Snowman" and "The Ice," being recited by James DeSole, Patricia Paciono, Karl Russo, William Paquette, Neil MacArthur, Donald McGuire, Catherine McLeod, and Leslie Innis.

Several children displayed their snow pictures and told their classmates about them. Those whose pictures were shown were: Richard Tansey, Catherine McLeod, Neil Nelson, Marilyn Walsh, John Bond, Peter Crawford, James DeSole.

A story, "The Snow Man Wants a House," was read by Mary Doherty, and the picture which illustrated it was displayed by Thomas Callahan. Next, Beverly Vinson read a story called "Kiki Skates".

For their last number the class presented a dance, "The Skaters' Waltz". The dancers were: Neil Nelson, Patricia Paciono, Michael Longiro, Catherine McLeod, James DeSole, Ben Egan, Richard Tansey, Marilyn Walsh, Frederick Sullivan, Carol Chabot, Peter Crawford, Beverly Vinson, Thomas Mooney, Charlene Wilberger, Karl Russo, and Mary Doherty.

WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

As the Winchester Country Club Women's Bowling League finished the tenth round of bowling the competition became keener than ever before. No team has a safe margin of points as all teams are within shooting distance of first place. Due to this intense interest in bowling a Women's Handicap Tournament, open to all members of Winchester Country Club, is being organized to start on March 11. Anyone interested in joining this tournament please contact Mrs. Forest Pitman, Winchester 6-0661 or Mrs. James Beale, Winchester 6-1417. Everyone will have an equal chance of winning due to the handicap system to be used and a suitable trophy is to be awarded the winner by Strike Lanes.

Everyone is urged to join in the fun and entries are sincerely solicited. Door prizes for the weekly luncheon on January 29 went to the following: Mrs. Elizabeth Bliss, Mrs. Ann Reeves and Mrs. Harold Bugbee. At the close of the luncheon a moment of silent prayer was observed in memory of Mrs. Philip McManus, a member of Team 3.

MEN'S BROTHERHOOD CLASS

The interest and attendance of the Men's Brotherhood Class of First Baptist Church is growing. A wide variety of subjects are discussed and the relevance of Christianity with respect to these interests is emphasized. Various laymen take turns in presenting these subjects and a period of discussion follows. The class meets at 9:30 a.m. and closes promptly at 10:30 a.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to all men interested in this Brotherhood Class.

ROUTS CAMP PARKER

Winchester Hockey Club went out in front at the three minute mark in its game with Camp Parker at the Lynn Arena last Sunday night on Don Langell's goal assisted by Don Armstrong. The locals were never headed in this one, as they outskated, outshot and outchecked their opponent from beginning to end.

Tom Power put Winchester 2 up in the last minute of the first period, on a fine unassisted dash. The second period was more even, with Bob Byrne for Winchester making it 3 to nothing unassisted. With the locals leading by this margin as the second ended and Scott Connor having a very good night in the net it began to look as if he might achieve a shutout. However Bill Downey of the Parkers dashed this hope as he scored on Myles Huntington's pass in the first few seconds of the final stanza.

Don Armstrong unassisted made it 4 to one for Winchester late in the game. The final minute of play saw a spurge of scoring. Charlie Holt got goal number two for the campers assisted by Lloyd, then in an interval of only eleven seconds Bob Mills counted for Winchester assisted by Eddie Calo and Don Armstrong slammed in a fast pass from Dave Morrow to leave no doubt of the locals' superiority in the minds of a pretty fair gathering of spectators.

It was good to see Don Armstrong and Dave Morrow in local uniforms, they being home on leave from the Army for the weekend. It would have been nice if the Army could have spared Frank Livingstone and Scott Doub for this game too.

Don Ellis again played a sparkling defensive game, aided by Don Langell and Leo Williams. The next game on schedule is with General Electric at North Shore Sports Center (30 Boston street, Lynn) Sunday, February 10th, at 6:30 in the evening and it is hoped that all Winchester hockey fans who can do so will be on hand to encourage the locals.

VOL. LXXI NO. 25

THE WINCHESTER MASS. STAR, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1952

PRICE TEN CENTS

SIX YEAR OLD
DROWNING VICTIM*John H. Lynch Broke Through Ice at Black Ball Pond

John Hamilton Lynch, six-year-old son of John J. and Dorothy (Hamilton) Lynch of 74 Nelson street, was drowned Sunday forenoon, February 3, when he broke through thin ice on Black Ball Pond at the rear of St. Mary's Campus. He was taken from the pond by a Fire Department rescue crew but all efforts to revive him failed.

John and two little friends, Paul Haggerty, 8, son of Fireman and Mrs. Paul Haggerty of 81 Nelson street, and Eugene Lane, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lane of 75 Nelson street, were together at the time of the accident. The three had gone from their neighboring homes to St. Mary's Campus at the rear of the convent where they had a small hut. The boys were seen there and spoken to by a woman living nearby.

From the campus the boys went down to the edge of Black Ball Pond which was fringed with ice at that point. On the ice a good sized oil can attracted their attention, and after throwing stones at the can for a while the boys decided to bring it ashore.

The Lynch boy led the trio onto the ice, followed by young Haggerty and Lane. As John reached a point some 12 to 15 feet from shore the thin ice gave under him and he plunged into the icy water. The bottom shelves rapidly at that point and the water is from seven to ten feet deep.

UNITED AIR LINES
NEW YORK OFFICE

Marshall H. Fay, son of the late Robert H. Fay, a 21-year veteran of the air transport industry, has been assigned to the newly established position of manager of flight operations for United Air Lines in New York City, according to D. R. Petty, vice-president—flight operations.

A graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a degree in aeronautical engineering, Fay joined United in 1931 after flight training with the Army Air Corps. He piloted Mainliners in the eastern U. S. before moving to Chicago in 1942 as assistant superintendent of flight operations. Since 1946 he has been flight manager at Chicago.

In his new position, Fay takes charge of all flight activities for United in the New York-Newark area, as well as the company's New York flight dispatch office.

CITIZENS OF WINCHESTER

Everybody is born under a sentence of death and hopes it is long delayed. We, members of your Police Department, can help delay this sentence for many motorists and pedestrians, providing we continue, with your assistance, to co-operate with our Registrar of Motor Vehicles in the enforcement of our motor vehicle laws.

530 persons were killed on our highways in 1950, and 483 killed in 1951—a reduction of about 8 per cent. Again, with your assistance, we can not only equal that reduction but can eliminate needless slaughter on our highways. If you must commit suicide, remember that there is no hard and fast rule that requires the employment of an automobile as your death weapon.

Charles J. Harold
Chief of Police

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Trotter, 70 South Prospect street, (Bradford) Haverhill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Juliet M. Trotter, to Gordon F. Clennon, son of Mrs. Adele Clennon and the late Attorney Eugene M. Clennon, 11 Lewis road, Winchester.

Miss Trotter is a graduate of Haverhill High School and is now a student of Fashion Design at New England School of Art, Boston.

Mr. Clennon is an alumnus of Chelsea Academy, Chelsea, Connecticut and attended New England School of Art and Chicago Art Institute. During World War II he served two years in the Pacific with the Army Air Force. He is now presently employed by the Dorchester Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Boston, as an Underwriter.

HELEN C. HOWARD BECOMES ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard of 5 Hawley road, Scituate, announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Helen Christine Howard to William R. Batten, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Batten of Belmont.

Miss Howard is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilbert Callanan of Franklin road, Winchester.

Mr. Howard was born in Winchester. She was graduated from the Massachusetts General Hospital in June and is completing her internship there.

Mr. Batten served with the U. S. Navy during World War II and is now associated with Carl Koch, architect, in Cambridge.

MRS. MARY J. NOONAN

Mrs. Mary J. Noonan, widow of the Hon. Patrick Noonan and a long time resident of Winchester, died Friday afternoon, February 1, at her home, 54 Canal street. She was the mother of William J. Noonan who was killed in World War I while fighting with the Marines in the Argonne Forest in France October 9, 1918. The Noonan School in the North End is named in his honor.

Mrs. Noonan was the daughter of Roger and Honora (Donnan) Conway. She was born December 25, 1868, in Ballycounane, County Cork, Ireland, and was educated at the Convent of the North Presentation Order in Cork City.

At an early age Mrs. Noonan came to this country, settling in Winchester, and in November, 1888, she married Patrick Noonan, a native of Winchester who served as Selectman during World War I and was for many years one of the owners of the Eastern Felt Company.

Mrs. Noonan was a member of the Gold Star Mothers and an honorary life member of the Auxiliary to both Winchester Post, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Flags on the Common and at the Noonan School were displayed at half-staff in her honor.

Mrs. Noonan was a former member of Santa Maria Court, C. D. of A.; Qualey Court, M. C. O. F.; and the Ladies Benevolent Association of St. Mary's Church.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. John F. O'Brien of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Thomas W. Conlon and Mrs. Ralph F. Bullard, both of Winchester; a son, P. Roger Noonan, of West Newton; a brother, William J. Conway of Medford; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held Monday morning from the late residence with both mass and requiem celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church by the pastor, Rev. Herbert K. A. Driscoll. Interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

BOY SCOUT SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Boy Scouts of Winchester, together with their leaders and parents, will observe annual Scout Sunday at First Baptist Church, next Sunday morning, February 10, at 10:45. The Scouts will gather at their respective meeting places and will march to the Church, arriving not later than 10:30.

The service will be enriched by several Church awards. The Bronze award will be made to Warren Fowler. The Silver award and also the Gold and Country award will be made to John Foster. An additional honor has been brought to Troop 7 of First Baptist Church by the granting to Stanley Mullen the Eagle Scout award. Scout officials and the parents of these boys will participate in the ceremony.

First Baptist Church has made eight God and Country awards over the past three years. The young men have received awards in the past year as ushers at the morning service.

Rev. Bailey's message to the Scouts will be: "On Being a Good Scout."

Troop 7 of First Baptist Church was given its real impetus over the past few years by the extraordinary leadership of Scout Master Dr. Robert Millican. At present the Troop is directly handled by other very efficient Scout leaders, an Eagle Scout, Robert Lamson. Scouting at First Baptist Church has, over the past few years, been at so high a level that it bid for great numbers of the youth of Winchester. The Troop has found it necessary to limit membership in order to accommodate the numbers of boys who desire to belong to the Troop.

First Baptist welcomes this fine youth organization, its leaders and parents to Scout Service next Sunday.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Doe (Shirley Bonnell) of Cambridge announce the birth of a first child, a daughter, Deborah, on January 26 at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Bonnell of Fells road and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Doe of Cambridge.

Mrs. Charles E. Bonnell of Winchester is the great-grandmother and the great-grandfather is Mr. David B. Sullivan of Hudson.

GERALD DWIGHT CURTIS

Gerald Dwight Curtis of 36 Oneida road, a veteran of the Mexican Border activity preceding World War I and also of the First World War, died suddenly at his home Friday morning, February 1, following a heart attack. He had not been in the best of health recently but had known of no heart ailment previous to last Friday's attack, his sudden passing coming as a severe shock to his family and many friends.

Mr. Curtis was the son of Lincoln, and Lilly Blake Curtis. He was born April 9, 1894, in Easton, R. I., was educated in the Providence schools and at Brown University, from which he was graduated in the class of 1916. He was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Soon after his graduation Mr. Curtis saw service on the Mexican Border with the Rhode Island State Guard, and during World War I he served in France with the 10th Field Artillery of the 4th Division with the rank of 2nd lieutenant. During World War II Mr. Curtis served as a seaman, first class, with the Coast Guard, and was stationed at Fort on the Common and public buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor until after the funeral services on Monday.

For more than twenty years Mr. Curtis was associated with the E. I. Dupont de Nemours Co., working in the sales end of the business and being in the company's employ at the time of his death. He had lived in Winchester 30 years and had been active in Winchester Scouting, serving as a scoutmaster and as a member of the Councils of both the Boy and Girl Scouts. He was a Mason, a member of the Holy Name Lodge of Greenwich, R. I., and he was a member and former vestryman of the Church of the Epiphany.

On September 17, 1921, Mr. Curtis married Claire McIntire, who survives, with two sons, Dr. Leslie M. Curtis of Boston, and John B. Curtis of Winchester, and a daughter, Elizabeth M. Curtis, a pupil at Winchester High School.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Church of the Epiphany with the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, officiating. Interment was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge.

MRS. JESSIE HOMER PRATT

Mrs. Jessie Homer Pratt, widow of Charles H. Pratt, and a member of the family at the Home for Aged People on Mt. Vernon street, died Wednesday afternoon, February 6, at the Winchester Hospital following a long period of failing health. She formerly lived at 5 Grove street.

Mrs. Pratt was the daughter of Peter D. and Valeria (Hill) Randolph. She came of a seafaring family, her father having been master of the brig, "Prairie Rose."

She was born February 22, 1867, in West Buxton, Maine, and before coming to Winchester in 1931, lived for many years in Somerville. She had been a member of the family at the Home since November 5, 1948, and leaves no immediate family.

Mrs. Pratt was a member and Past Matron of Longfellow Lodge, O. E. S., of Somerville. She organized and was for three years Grand High Priestess of Emmanuel Chapter of the White Shrine of Jerusalem in Somerville, and she was a member of the Universalist Church in that city.

Funeral services will be held this Friday morning at the Kimball Funeral Chapel at 10:30 a. m. with Rev. J. R. Crawford, Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Leominster.

JOHN A. VOLPE*HEADS RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

John A. Volpe, of 69 Grove street, President of the Volpe Construction Company of Malden, was named Honorary Chairman of the 1952 American Red Cross Campaign in Winchester, March 9th. Mr. Volpe was cited by National Red Cross last year as Chairman of the first town to achieve its quota in the whole state of Massachusetts.

WAS FORMER RESIDENT

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Alberta S. Enright, wife of John W. Enright, a former resident of Winchester, in Newtonville on January 22.

While in Winchester the Enrights lived at 6 Lincolnshire Way. Besides her husband, Mrs. Enright leaves a son, Charles S. Enright, a graduate of Harvard University, one of the ranking scholars of his Winchester High School class and the first drum-major of the Winchester High School band.

THE EDGAR J. RICH COLLECTION OF LINCOLN AND LEE MANUSCRIPTS

Through the generosity of the late Edgar J. Rich the citizens of Winchester have inherited a gold mine of reference books and pamphlets on Abraham Lincoln and the military leaders in the titanic struggle of the States, known as the Civil War.

These books are housed in a very attractive room in the Winchester Public Library. Here one can browse in quiet and comfort among the surrounding which consist of some of the identical furnishings of Mr. Rich's library in his own house.

The following excerpts from Mr. Rich's will make plain his intent in leaving these books to our Public Library:

"All the rest and residue of my estate shall go to the Town of Winchester, Massachusetts, for the use of the Public Library, and to be known as the Lincoln and Lee Trust Fund, to be administered by the Trustees of said Library, the income of which shall be used for the purchase of books, pamphlets, and other material relating to the life of Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee, including books relating to the Civil War and the causes leading up thereto, and the South. It is my desire that the reconstruction following said war in the hope that by the study of the lives of these two great Americans, there may come a better understanding between the North and the South. It is my desire that the income be not allowed to accumulate unduly. ## WINCHESTER, 72; MELROSE, 31

Winchester High extended its win streak by taking an easy 72-31 victory from Melrose High at Melrose last Friday night. In contrast with most of their games, the Indians got off to a show start as they were not moving the ball well and were missing shots that they ordinarily make. A good foul shooting performance in the first half helped to establish a safe lead for the Red and Black as they made good on 13 out of 16 free throws, highlighted by six straight successful conversions by Rodney Long. In spite of the fact that the Indians were not sharp in the first half, their defense was airtight as they limited Melrose to only 11 points in the first two periods of play. The Indians led 13-6 at the end of the first quarter but started to click more smoothly in the second quarter as they went ahead 31-11 at the half. The locals continued to surge in the third quarter to lead 50-21 at the three-quarter mark and made it 72 points in the final quarter as Howard and Symmes tallied 14 points between them in the final period. Doug Hawkins turned in another outstanding performance as he tallied 19 points to lead the scoring while taking full command of both backboards. Norman Howard again came through with 10 points as he continued to show the improvement that justifies his promotion to the first team. Rodney Long again hit for double figures for the ninth time this season as he scored 10 points while Captain John Dilorio did an effective job of holding the high scoring McMullin to three baskets. In spite of a slow start, the Indians wound up with a good 46 per cent shooting average while making good on 18 out of 25 free throws.

The Winchester Seconds continued to be the class of the second teams in the League by piling up an 82-50 victory over the Melrose Seconds. The locals scored 28 points in the first period for their highest scoring quarter of the season. Neil Muncaster paced the local scorers with 18 points while Kit Carleton tallied 10 points as 12 Red and Black performers made baskets.

RIFLE TEAM

The Winchester High School Rifle Team lost its first match to the Mystic Valley Gun Club. Although the boys lost their half by a score of 827 to 763, the girls managed to pull their part of the match out of the fire by a 377 to 360 score. However, in spite of this, the team lost 1187 to 1140.

High scorer for the Winchester boys was Captain Scott Cunningham with a score of 95 prone and a 69 standing, for a total of 164. Captain Carolyn Oxford topped the girls' list with a 96 prone score.

FIRST NATIONAL STORES

WINCHESTER, 74; STONEHAM, 50

Winchester High defeated Stoneham High by a 74-50 score in a hard fought game at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. Although the Red and Black was in the lead all the way and outscored the Bluejackets in every period, the visitors made it a battle until the final period. The Indians outscored Stoneham 20-10 in the final period as they stopped the high scoring Malanson and controlled the ball well to provide Stoneham with no opportunity to stage a last period rally.

The game started fast with Winchester holding a 20-15 lead at the end of the first period as Hawkins and Murphy carried the major share of the scoring load. The Indians gained four more points in the second quarter to establish a nine-point lead at 37-28 at the half. Captain John Dilorio and Bob Forester began to hit from the side of the court against the Stoneham zone defense in the third quarter as the locals gained five more points to lead 54-40 at the three-quarter mark. Coon and Symmes sparked the Winchester offense in the final quarter as the Indians pulled away to win by 24 points.

Big Doug Hawkins was the key to the Winchester victory with his 23 points and his tremendous offensive rebounding. Strangely enough, Hawkins made three personal fouls in the first period, forcing Coach Bartlett to change his defensive alignment so that Hawkins would not foul out. This weakened the Winchester defense, especially on defensive rebounding, but paid off on the offense even though the Stoneham total of 50 points was Yesterday, February 7th, to mark the start of Boy Scout Week, five of Winchester's Scouts, who recently attained the highest rank in Scouting — the Eagle badge — were honored guests of the Medford Rotary. The Eagle Scouts, who gave short talks on their scouting experiences, were: Robert Gaffney of Troop 3, Earl Carrier, Jr., Henry Hooper, and Theodore Elliott of Troop 6, and Stanley Mullen of Troop 7. Mr. E. W. Nelson, Scout Executive of Fellsland Council, Boy Scouts of America, was the principal speaker on the program.

FIVE WINCHESTER SCOUTS GUESTS OF MEDFORD ROTARY

In the Veterans of Foreign Wars you find former dogfights, leathernecks and gobs who can remember times when they would have traded a warehouse of the stuff for one square meal.

That's the quiet thrill an overseas veteran enjoys when he belongs to the Veterans of Foreign Wars—the chance to reminisce and swap stories with fellows who talk his language.

Any group of overseas vets may argue loud and long about which outfit won the war—the Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, Air Force, or the Seabees. On one point, however, you will always find they agree — the V.F.W. IS A GOOD OUTFIT.

THE TRUMAN SANCTUARY

Editor of the Star:

In the long ago criminals fleeing the law found safe refuge in the sanctuaries of the temples of Egypt, Greece, and Rome, sanctuaries founded upon the primitive and universal belief in the "contagion of holiness." Hence, it was sacredness to render a man who had become invested with a part of the sacredness of the holy place. He was inviolable so long as he remained there. After centuries of trial throughout Europe, the privilege of sanctuary was abused to such an extent that it was discarded, but it survived, under restrictions, down to the end of the 18th Century.

This was the last of the social failures that President Truman had not resurrected and inflicted upon a helpless people, and he wasted no time in imposing it upon them. With an adversary becoming a pendergrast politician, he made Manchuria, the land north of Yalu River, sanctuary for our Russian-directed Chinese communist enemies. This made it easy for their armies, based on a protected refuge, to fly over our forces and drop their bombs and then return to the safety of their sanctuary where our aviators are forbidden to enter. This privilege, with the enemies' prolongation of the peace conferences in Korea as part of their shrewd strategy, has given the Russians time to train their Chinese communist armies and to move vast military equipment to the border of Korea, until now, they have more and more say better planes than we have and are destroying more of our than we are of theirs.

President Truman has adroitly invested himself with the privilege of sanctuary as did the ambassadors of Europe in the 16th Century. This was illustrated when thieves who stole the ballots in the campaign for re-election of Representative Slaughter in the President's home district were not investigated, but were protected by Mr. Truman's refusal to act, notwithstanding his oath of office obligated him to do so. He managed to stall until the statute of limitation ran out, making prosecution unlawful. That was what he wanted. James MacArthur, Curley of Boston, found sanctuary in the President when he was released from a Federal prison and pardoned in spite of the law. If one's crime is a violation of the Federal law, one is fortunate, indeed if Mr. Truman happens to be his personal friend.

"The fiasco in Korea," states Bill
Cunningham in the January 10
Boston Herald, "is not MacArthur's." Maj. Gen. Frank E. Low-ret, President Truman's own personal observer, told Bill Cunningham that "General MacArthur was right in all phases of the Korean campaign, and would have won a smashing victory but for the interference of the State Department." He also said, "I think he's not only the greatest military genius we have, but that he is the greatest that ever lived, and if nothing else proved it, Korea did, or would have continued to, if they had left him alone."

In the writer's judgment, time will prove that to be true. No man on a job too big for him, and that he did not understand, ever more of a mess of things than President Truman. He has advocated socialism that has never succeeded; he has taken more money from the people than all the Presidents combined; he has depressed the currency, given us paper money (deficit financing), the highest taxes, the largest national debt in history, the most labor trouble, the most widespread corruption and diplomatic bungling, and has put the welfare of his cronies above that of his country. If Stalin had been in the White House, he couldn't have done more for Russia.

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.
Winchester, Massachusetts

ON BAHAMAS CRUISE

Editor of the Star:

I thought that you might be interested in knowing that two Winchester residents are on a Schooner Cruise of some three weeks in the Bahamas. C. C. Peter of Hillcrest Parkway and myself are on the Schooner "Doubloon" which sailed from Nassau January 22nd. She is a Canadian 95 foot yacht, privately owned by Captain Walter Boudreau of Baddeck, Nova Scotia.
I first met Boudreau while shooting pictures of him and the "Yankee" three years ago up in Canada for the Saturday Evening Post.
The "Doubloon" carries over 5,000 square feet of canvas and hoisting and hauling that amount of sail really keeps us busy. Tuesday we were awakened at 4 a. m. because of an approaching possible hurricane.
We were anchored in Governors Harbor, Eleuthera, Bahamas, which is very good harbor, and ride out a storm in, so we sailed through very rough seas and heavy rain and about made Hatchet Bay. I'm proud to say that no one from Winchester was seasick.
The "Doubloon" draws 12 feet of water, which is too much in these shallow waters and we hit bottom a couple of times getting out of Governors Harbor.

Tomorrow we head for Cat Cay, the Berry Islands, Bimini and finally Miami. I should be home about the 19th of February with a swell batch of color shots. If you should see Vincent Ambrose, please tell him that I was very pleased to hear through my wife that he can now keep the seat he has been sitting in.

Best regards,
Arthur Griffin
22 Euclid Avenue

ATTENTION AVIATION CADETS AND O. C. C. APPLICANTS

Editor of the Star:

All men who took the Aviation Cadet qualification (a 100 question 5 hour mental test) and failed, may now re-apply. It is essential that this program be filled.

Men applying for OCS must now enlist, take their basic training, and then go before the Board of Officers. Upon enlistment they will be rated as "OCS Applicants".

A word about the OCS program, it is not easy and should not be easy as the responsibility of being an officer in the world of today, is a heavy one. Not all young men are nervously suited for this program, and the Army wishes to find this out while they are in training.
If a man entered the program before June of 1951 and resigns, he is returned to civilian life and serves in the Reserves; if he entered the program after June of 1951, and does not complete the course, he must serve out the rest of his enlistment.

Any young men who are interested in enlisting in the Air Force should go down to the Recruiting Station, Medford City Hall, and talk to a group in Concord, Mass.
certainly confusing to have Air Force enlistments open one day and closed the next, but if your name is on the list, you will be enlisted in order.

The writer is glad to talk to any of this year's High School graduates, who may be going on to college, and planning to join an ROTC program.

Cordially yours,

Mr. K. B. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

MUST WITHDRAW

Editor of the Star:

It is with regret that I find I must withdraw my name as a member of the Winchester Homefront during the coming year.

May I take this opportunity to congratulate the Nominating Committee on the splendid President they bought in, and the wise resolution that the organization be kept on a simple basis.

Very truly yours,
Mr. K. E. Toye, Jr.
91 Mystic Valley Parkway

EISENHOWER FOR PRESIDENT CLUB FORMED IN WINCHESTER

Supporters of General "Ike" Einsenghauer for President have formed a club in Winchester to further the interests of "Ike" in the coming Presidential race.

A representative group of citizens have formed as a sponsoring group, and steps are being taken to set up an action organization which will have two main functions: first, to keep the voters well informed on how "Ike" stands on various issues — an educational program; and second, to build up a working organization to get out the vote at the primary on April 29th on "Ike's" behalf.

The sponsors of the Eisenhower for President Club of Winchester are W. Allan Wilde, E. Ober Priede, William J. Sperry, Jr., Dr. A. L.
Maletta, Harrison F. Lyman, Jr.,

KILBRITH BARROWS SPEAKER AT WOMEN'S ALLIANCE

On February 12th the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church will have as its speaker Mr. Kil-brith Barrows. His subject will be "Current Events," which in this country and age is unlimited. Mr. Barrows, a most interesting speaker, is a well known Winchester resident, former Andover instructor and presently Harvard instructor.
Everyone is welcome. Meeting at 2:00 p. m.

GORDON HALL BRINGS OUT STARTLING FACTS ABOUT CRITICISM OF UNITED NATIONS

The necessity of recognizing unfounded criticism and appraising it for what it is, was shown clearly by Gordon D. Hall at a United World
Federalists meeting at the home of Mrs. George Hale Reed, 8 Ridgefield road, Wednesday evening,
January 30.

Democracy and American institutions can thrive only when people think clearly and are not misled by opposition based on name calling and charges that such organizations as the United Nations are Communist inspired. Speaking before an enthusiastic group of over thirty UWF members and others,
Mr. Hall demonstrated how such seemingly ridiculous claims receive wide publicity and are accepted in part by entirely reputable organizations in the United States.
The thousands of dollars given individually and groups spreading race prejudice, mis-statements and hate propaganda, is one sign of the seriousness of this danger. Let us think this only happens in other parts of the country, Mr. Hall pointed out that several thousand dollars of these contributions came from Boston alone.

His statements were backed by an extensive exhibit of pamphlets and letters sent out from several sources. The object of this "anti" propaganda is to promote emotional mass hysteria and destroy reason. Its aim is to "divide and conquer" by making us fight each other instead of fighting for what we stand for.

With the formation of a permanent United Nations Day Commission in Winchester, Mr. Hall's thoroughly demonstrated conclusions are immensely important. United World Federalists strongly urge strengthening the United Nations.
Hence they have come in for their share of criticism aimed at the United Nations and other groups supporting it.

Gordon D. Hall of Boston, researcher, Editor of the fact finding monthly publication "Countertide," spoke the evening before his talk here to a group in Concord, Mass.
achesters. Through arrangements made by UWF he has talked in Connecticut, Delaware, New York, Maine and Ohio in addition to speaking before many meetings not sponsored by UWF.

Those interested in further information about this vital subject are encouraged to ask any of the members or the following officers of the Winchester chapter of United World Federalists:
Robert B. Williams, Chairman,
Tel. Winchester 6-0963-W.
Robert D. Lowry, Vice Chairman,
Tel. Winchester 6-3363.
A. Miles Holbrook, Treasurer,

CUB PAPER DRIVE

The Cub Scouts of Pack 6, Winchester, who are boys living in Precinct 3 and attending the Mystic School, will conduct a waste paper drive on Saturday, February 16, 1952. A similar drive last year provided a sufficient sum of money to buy new equipment for the Pack and to sponsor a final outing for the Cubs in case of very bad weather the collection will be on Saturday, the 23rd.

If your paper is not collected before the Saturday of collection, the Cub Scouts will call early in the morning. Papers, magazines and cardboard should be kept separate. Cubs will be willing to tie bundles prior to the day of collection.

Saturday to pick up the bundles.

WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

Members of Team 5, consisting of Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. Forest
Pitman, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs.
Franklin Lane, Mrs. Marion Clark and Mrs. C. W. Birch were hostesses on Tuesday, February 5, to the Winchester Country Club Women's Bowling League at the league's luncheon, Capt. Roz Lynch, ably assisted by Dottie Ghirardini, presented a bowling skit in true Winchester Club style, which was well received by the audience. Extra energy for bowling was supplied to all league members in the form of super fudge from the kitchens of Kimball and Birch. In keeping with the sharp program of the day, the keen competition of the league, the door prize proved to be a set of steak knives, won by Mrs. Robert McKeown.

An invitation is extended to all women bowlers of Winchester to Country Club to join a championship bowling tournament at Strike Lanes, starting March 11. If you like to bowl, why not join in the fun. No entry fee, simple rules.
For information contact Mrs. James Beale, WI 6-1417, or Mrs. Forest
Pitman, WI 6-0661.

SIX YEAR OLD DROWNING VICTIM

Paul Haggerty, several feet behind his friend, and appraising the ice, and though in grave danger himself, he made a courageous attempt to assist his friend, John, before the latter went down. Young Haggerty was able partially to extricate him from the water and with the help of the little Lane boy, got ashore, both boys starting to run up the hill toward their homes.

On the way they met Mr. Lane, father of Eugene, to whom they told their story. The boys were unable to tell exactly where John had sunk, and Mr. Lane decided to go at once to the Central Fire Station for help.

He notified the firemen of the accident at 11:42, and within 15 minutes of that time little John had been taken from the pond.

Ladder 1 was driven to the scene of the accident by Fireman J. Callahan, followed by Engine 4, driven by Fireman John Nash and carrying Captain J. Edward Noonan and Fireman Bob Wyman.

Firemen Ben Jones and John O'Melia followed with the service truck and life-saving boat.

Captain Noonan with Firemen Wyman and Welch went out in the boat and after breaking the ice with the hooks, let down a grapnel, and a m. t. immediately brought up the Lynch boy.

He was taken ashore and artificial respiration begun immediately, the firemen using their resuscitator. The boys, let down in blankets and heat pads were applied, the firemen using every effort possible to revive him.

Just as John was taken from the pond, the firemen, who were apparently, the firemen using their resuscitator. The boys, let down in blankets and heat pads were applied, the firemen using every effort possible to revive him.

At the time the accident was reported to the firemen an emergency call was put through for doctors and Dr. Nelson Fontneau and Dominic Ruci were on the scene soon after the firemen commenced using the resuscitator. Upon their arrival they took over the work of revival, and the firemen working until after one o'clock before giving up their efforts as hopeless.

A call to Police Headquarters brought the police ambulance and Officer Clarence Dumbury to the pond, with Officer Thomas Parsons driving there in the cruiser car.
Call Firemen Jimmy Nolan, Neil
Kerrigan, Charlie Joyce and Homer Davis responded to the call. They arrived, together with Firemen Paul Haggerty and Norman Doucette. Firemen Haggerty and Doucette took the Fire Department's big cylinder over to the pond, supplementing the three smaller cylinders, all of which were used in the resuscitation effort.

When it became apparent that all efforts to revive the young victim were of no avail, the body was removed to the Moffett Funeral Home upon orders of Medical Examiner John Wilcox of Woburn, who viewed the body, pronouncing
death due to accidental drowning.

Later this morning a body was removed to the home of John Lane
who viewed the body, pronouncing
death due to accidental drowning.

Later this morning a body was removed to the home of John Lane
who viewed the body, pronouncing
death due to accidental drowning.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the Lynch home with a Mass of the Angels celebrated at St. Mary's Church by Father Andore.

Seated in the Sanctuary were Rev. Fr. Patrick Walsh, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, East Woburn; and Rev. Fr. William H. Walsh and Rev. Fr. J. Grant, curates at St. Mary's.

Honorary bearers were three uncles of the deceased, Captain Hamilton, Robert and Albert Lynch, and J. Robert MacDonnell, former Commander Robert F. Murphy of Winchester Post, 97 the American Legion; and Paul McHugh.

Among the many floral tributes were those from John's small classmates at the Lincoln School and from the Lincoln School Mothers' Association.

Burial was in Wildwood Cemtery where the committal prayers were read by Father Andore.

John Hamilton Lynch was born in Winchester June 11, 1945. He was a pupil in the first grade at the Lincoln School and was an especially friendly little chap, being liked by all who knew him, both children and adults.

Besides his parents, John leaves a sister, Jane Sheldon Lynch, aged 3.

KIWANIS OF WINCHESTER

Speaker
Mr. Frank B. Niles, Assistant District Supervisor of the John Hancock Insurance Company and a teacher of Public Relations, Burdett Business College, will give us an insight on the importance of public relations in business.

This is a good time to thank Sam Lawson. He has brought in some marvelous speakers, and we know that Mr. Niles will be no exception.

Those of you who missed Sgt.
Bowser's talk on the F. B. I. really missed something.

Valentine Day Ball
A joint meeting with the ladies will be held on Wednesday, February 13, 1952, 7:00 p. m. Guests are invited to attend. We are preparing to let Ray Murphy know the number in your party at this meeting.

Board of Directors Meeting
A Board meeting will follow the regular meeting. All committee chairmen are requested to turn in their reports before the meeting gets under way.

THE EDGAR J. RICH COLLECTION OF LINCOLN AND LEE MANUSCRIPTS

I also give the Winchester Public Library a collection of books relating to the Jacobite Rebellion of 1745-46. This collection has some very rare items.

I have had opportunity to read only two of the numerous pamphlets. The first is entitled "Behind the Seams," by A. Nigger Woman, who took in work from Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Davis. Price Ten Cents, New York, The National News Company, 1928.

Whether this pamphlet is authentic, as coming from the hand of a colored woman who sewed for Mrs. Lincoln, and Mrs. Jefferson Davis, is a question. The style of writing seems to cast doubt on it.
But, be that as it may, this interesting pamphlet provides an intimate and fascinating picture of slavery and some of its practices in the 18th of which will intrigue, well as shock those who come to know them for the first time.

The second pamphlet contains a copy of the address by Mr. Rich at the dedication of the Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania Battlefields Memorial Park, at Fredericksburg, Virginia, in 1928.

This pamphlet, on account of its tolerant spirit, should be made required reading for every high school student in the United States.
It is not only a window into Mr.
Rich's own hospitable soul, but a lesson in broadmindedness, when one is dealing with an enemy, that all of us might cultivate.

He pictures, for instance, the dilemma which Robert E. Lee faced in 1861, when, as a Colonel of Cavalry, he was offered the Command in the field of the Army of the United States, but as Mr. Rich points out, "ambition and self-interest never entered into any decision made by Robert E. Lee. He was a man of the well-loved old Army, and at the outbreak of hostilities, offers his sword in the service of his State."

And after the war was over he urged loyalty to a reunited country, and radiated a spirit which softened the bitterness of defeat.

Mr. Rich closed this address with these words:

"On more than one occasion there stood the heights across the river a solitary figure, oppressed with sorrow and melancholy, because it was his duty, as commander-in-chief, to subdue, by slaughter, those whom he never ceased to regard as his fellow countrymen."

It is an extraordinary thing that never in the heat of political campaigns before the War, nor under the stress of military disaster during the war, did Abraham Lincoln utter a single unkind word about the south. As the end drew near, his whole thought was to ease the blow which was about to fall upon his fellow countrymen, and so far from making the way for them to come back without loss of pride or property.

"If you of the South would understand Northern sentiment, before, during, and after the War, you will find its embodiment in Abraham Lincoln."

It is the hope that through the use of Mr. Rich's library his own ironic opinion, which was broad enough to appreciate fully the greatness of a leader, whether he belonged to North or South, will be made known to us by his magnificent collection.

TOASTMISTRESS CONFERENCE

The first conference in 1952 of Council Number Five of the Northeast Region of International Toast-mistress Clubs (Winchester, Wellesley, Quincy, Malden, Waltham)
will be held on Wednesday, February 13, 1952, at the Hotel Touraine, 62 Boylston street, Boston, Mass.

Business meeting is at 10:30
a. m., convening at 12:00 noon for luncheon in the Dome Room. The afternoon program at 1:15 p. m.
will have as its theme "Education."
Each of the five clubs in the Council will have a ten minute speaker reporting on "What My Club Is Doing."

The Winchester Club speakers are Mrs. Thomas J. Quirk of Wo-burn, whose subject is "An Ocean Voyage," and Mrs. Lilian Last of Woburn, who will report on "What My Club Is Doing."

Mrs. Alice Caldwell of the Winchester Toastmistress Club is Conference Publicity Chairman.

At 11:15 Monday night Officer
Joseph Quigley notified headquarters that the chimneys at the Unitarian Church had been ringing at intervals of one minute for nearly half an hour. Headquarters got in touch with "old reliable" Ken Hall on Winslow road and he went to the church and shut off the chimes.

The family of the late Mrs. Mary J. Noonan wish to express their sincere thanks for the beautiful flowers and the kindly sympathy extended them during their recent bereavement. They are especially appreciative of the kindness and cooperation of Winchester Council, Knights of Columbus and of the Auxiliaries to Winchester Post, American Legion and Abington Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Alfred A. Cyr wish to thank their friends, relatives and neighbors for the beautiful spiritual bouquets, floral pieces and kind words of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS
Dr. Phillip J. McManus and family wish to thank their friends and relatives for the many kind expressions of sympathy which they received during their recent bereavement.

WOBURN FROSH BEAT WINCHESTER
The Winchester Freshmen were defeated by the Woburn Freshmen by a score of 48-31 at Woburn last Friday afternoon. This marks the third loss in nine games for the Papooses who are not enjoying the success of previous Freshmen units. The locals trailed all the way as they were outscored in every period with only Bill Ross hitting double figures for Winchester with 12 points.

The Winchester Junior High won their ninth straight victory as they defeated the Woburn Junior High by a score of 36-24. The locals were extended in this one as they led only 15-14 at the half but put on a spirited rally in the third quarter to nail down the victory. Joe Bellino was the difference for Winchester as he scored 15 points for the Red and Black.

PASTOR'S ASSOCIATES TO MEET

Over thirty laymen of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will meet this Sunday at 5 P. M. at the parsonage to discuss a program of Visitation throughout the parish.

This group was organized about three years ago with a membership of eight and has grown as an organization to assist the pastor in the development of visitation work.

Any laymen interested in such a program are cordially invited to attend.

COURTESY, THE THEME OF NOONAN ASSEMBLY

The regular meeting of the American Junior Red Cross was held in the Noonan School auditorium on Tuesday, January 29, at 11 o'clock. The meeting was conducted by vice-president, Maureen Haggerty, in the absence of the president, Ann Flaherty. The secretary, Lorraine Devay, "When Other Folks Are Speaking" given by Joanna Connolly.

A quotation from Albert Einstein given by Maureen Haggerty.

An acoustic, "Politeness," by Charles Bond and Eddie Lynch. Announcer — Judy Rae. Piano — Lorrilyn Saller.

CUB SCOUTS OF PARKHURST SCHOOL
On Tuesday, January 29, the Cub Scouts of Parkhurst School met for a Pack meeting at the school auditorium. Dens II and III had spent the previous month studying about astronomy, and various exhibits were brought out demonstrating an eclipse of the moon, pictures of the stars, and descriptions of the constellations. The boys in Den III were dressed up as space men and told about the points on the compass, the zodiac and star groups. Mr. A. R. Brink, a pilot with Eastern Airlines, then told the boys about celestial navigation in civil aviation.

A new den, Den I, has been formed for fourth graders and includes Anthony Albani, Donald Butters, Jay Harrison and Roger Mitchell. Den II has admitted two new members, Gary Starrs, and Joseph Albani and John Miller.

Several awards were given out as follows:
Den I: all received Bear books: Anthony Albani, Donald Butters, Jay Harrison, Roger Mitchell.
Chief Quentin Roberts received his insignia of office.

Den II: John Miller—Lion book; Joseph Albani—Lion book; Richard Bates—Lion badge; Robert Hodges—Lion badge; Bill Wilson—Lion badge; Carl Masi—Lion badge; Leonard Mead—Lion badge and book.

Bill Burrows—Lion badge, book and 2 arrows.
Den III: Michael Brink—Bear book, gold arrow, silver arrow.
Walter Hall—Bear book and 2 silver arrows.

David Bates—I silver arrow.
Rickey Comins was pronounced a graduate of cubbing and is now a Tenderfoot Scout in Troop 4.

It was announced that plans are under way for a Blue and Gold party at the next pack meeting. Mr. Black, the cubmaster, closed the meeting and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. McDonald, II (Claire McGrath), and their young son, Michael, are returning to Maine after a short residence in Andover. They are going to Dover-Foxcroft, Maine, where Mr. McDonald is to manage a Ford dealership.

LOCAL SCOUTER HONORED
Last Wednesday evening, February 6th, at a meeting of the Commissioners' Staff of Fellsland Council, Boy Scouts of America, held at the Seaside Hotel, Boston, Mr. Robinson S. Whitten of this town was honored in a special presentation ceremony.

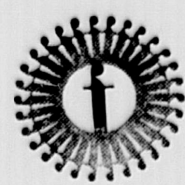

The occasion marked "Bob" Whitten's retirement from the Commissioners' Staff to enable him to devote all his time and ability to the Fellsland Council Camp Committee. But the special Boy Scout Statuette which was presented to him symbolizes a great deal more than that.

It symbolizes the thirty-five long, faithful years of service he has given to Boy Scouts. A record few men have equaled, but one worthy of the emulation of any man.

It symbolizes the beginning of his service to boyhood as Scoutmaster of Troop 3 at the Congregational Church in 1917-1922. It was he, authorities agree, who kept Scouting alive in Winchester during those hectic war and post-war years.

It symbolizes his work on the Scoutmaster's Staff of Fellsland Council, his return to the Scoutmaster's post at Troop 3 from 1942 to 1945 his invaluable service to Camp Fellsland as a member of its Camp Committee, and his many contributions to Winchester's

MISSION UNION GUILD

Tuesday, February 12, is Mission Union Day at the First Congregational Church. All members are invited to participate in the morning sewing at 10 a. m. under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Grimes and Mrs. Mabel A. Ward. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. in the Social Hall by Mrs. C. W. Lovejoy, Mrs. E. Ober Pride and their committee.

Mrs. James S. Allen, director of Mission Union will preside at the 2 o'clock joint meeting with the Home Church Guild. At this time, Mrs. Frederic B. Withington will lead the devotional service.

The guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Stanley Cummings, who is President of the Woburn District. Mrs. Cummings is the wife of the Rev. Stanley Cummings, Minister of the Congregational Church of Wilmington, and who previously had served for 23 years as minister of the Second Congregational Church in Bennington, Vermont. While in Vermont, Mrs. Cummings was President of the Fellowship of Vermont Congregational Women. She is now serving as chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Woburn Association and a member of the Field Work Committee of the Commission on Evangelism of the Devotional Life. Mrs. Cummings will speak to us on "Going the Second Mile". All women of the church and their friends are cordially invited.

Then there's VALENTINE'S DAY!

And he's bringing you a Heart-Shaped Box... and a Corsage... Taking you out to a Party.

How do you look? Will he be proud of you?

WINCHESTER HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The winter meeting of the Winchester Historical Society was held last Saturday afternoon in the Art Gallery of the Library, with the president, Miss Clara Russell presiding.

At the business meeting Miss Mead spoke of the dedication of the Edgar Rich room on February 12 containing the large library of Mr. Rich on Lincoln and Lee, and cordially invited the members of the society to be present. This is the room in which our historical exhibits were formerly displayed.

Miss Russell gave a short resume of the recent meeting of the Bay State Historical League at Tufts College. This League, to which our society belongs, is made up of over one hundred historical societies in Massachusetts, and there were over 300 present at this meeting. The next meeting is to be held May 3 at Northampton, and it is hoped that a number of our members may be able to attend.

The speaker of the day was Mr. Donald S. Smith, Assistant Curator at Sturbridge Village. Mr. Smith called his talk "Old Sturbridge Village, a New Kind of History Book, or What's in the Antique for Us Moderns?" His talk was not the travelogue type but an attempt to interpret this Outdoor Museum as it is called, to show it as a new kind of educational institution.

Sturbridge Village is an unique community situated half way between Worcester and Springfield. It portrays a typical country town of central New England as it might have appeared early in the 19th century. It is not on the site of any earlier town, but its 28 shops, mills, houses, church and general store are arranged in a 500-acre tract of meadow, woodland and river shore. Twenty-three of these buildings are used for extensive displays of early objects and for the demonstration and development of hand industries. About half of the buildings are old houses and shops moved from all parts of New England and re-assembled there. The remainder are copies of old structures. The collections range from crude farm implements to delicate household furnishings.

Mr. Smith emphasized that this is a folk museum; that is, that it displays the life of everyday people. He explained that the outdoor museum is a place where the objects of a past age are assembled in contemporary surroundings and arranged to suggest the atmosphere and settings in which the lives of our forefathers were lived. Sturbridge is interested in the common things of the past in New England — the things the average settler used.

Supplementing his talk, Mr. Smith showed many beautiful colored slides of the village. This was a most instructive and interesting talk.

Miss Virginia Dyer of 59 Pond street, a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1951 and a student at Cornell, is a member of the Women's Ski team of the college.

AN EVENING OF FUN

The Wyman Chapter of the Winchester Mothers Association is having "An Evening of Fun" tonight at 8:30 in the Wyman School Auditorium. "The Craftsman's Quartette" will entertain with some wonderful harmony, and Ann Reid, an unusual comedienne of great talent, will stage a surprise skit with the following Wyman School fathers participating: Mr. Arthur Agnew, Mr. Paul M. White, Mr. Herbert Wadsworth. She has also planned an impromptu skit with other fathers from the audience. Come prepared.

Since this is a family night Wyman mothers, fathers and children will all be there. Thank you for the wonderful response. We've been all sold out for several weeks. Also thanks to the following for making this such a success:

Judy Dullin, Sandra Lawson, Jean Elliott, Noel Gove, Ann Laitweiler, Brenda Cunningham.

The following Room Mothers have charge of tickets: Mrs. Joseph Dolben, Chairman, Room Mothers; Mrs. Bradford Bentley, Chairman, Publicity; Mrs. Aram Mouradian, Chairman, Candy; Candy Committee: Mrs. Gordon Bird, Mrs. Frank Geary, Mrs. Justin Callahan, Mrs. Vaughan Harmon.

Candy, made by the Wyman Mothers, will be sold by the following sixth grade girls:

Mrs. Josiah Bacon, Mrs. Robert Kittredge, Mrs. Philip Salter, Mrs. Kern Folkers, Mrs. Victor Lawson, Mrs. Needham Brown, Mrs. James Joslin, Mrs. Cheves Walling, Mrs. Justin Callahan, Mrs. Antonio Puzo, Mrs. John Bird, Mrs. John Dawson, Mrs. R. L. Davenport, Mrs. Arthur Cunningham.

Thieves visited the parking lot of Bonnell Motors on upper Main street last Friday night and jacked up a Ford sedan there, stealing two wheels complete with tires and tubes from the car. The police were notified.

STEVENSON'S POEMS — THEME OF MYSTIC SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

As an outgrowth of their study of the poetry of Robert Louis Stevenson the pupils of Miss Norma Littlefield's second grade presented an assembly program to other pupils in the school on January 30.

A play, "The Enchanted Book", was presented, with Eleanor Smith as the mother, Richard Nichols as the little boy, and Jacquelyn Kohl as the fairy. Kathleen Lopez told the story of Stevenson's life.

Poems by Stevenson and the pupils who portrayed them are as follows:

"The Swing" — Robena Lou Thompson, Leslie Sanger, and Thea Rich.

"Marching Song" — Richard Bond, Kenneth Varian, Brian Heard, Elizabeth Curley and Carolyn Geiger.

"At the Seaside" — Thomas N. Higgins.

"Bed in Summer" — Martha Preston.

"The Wind" — Donald Gross, Paul Johnian, Paul Ryan.

"The Rain" — Elizabeth Thibault.

"The Gardener" — Bruce Miller, Russell Taylor.

"Looking Forward" — Richard Carty.

"Picture Books" — Alice Dyson.

"Block City" — Robert Peterson.

"The Land of Counterpane" — John Ballard, Karen McNeilly.

"A Good Play" — Marcia Colpas, John O'Leary.

Stage Manager for the play was Russell Taylor, and the announcer was Edward Goodwin.

WINCHESTER BOY WILLIAMS SPORTS EDITOR

Karen Kolligian, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Kolligian of 71 Wedgemere avenue, has recently been named Sports Editor of the "Williams Record," Williams College campus newspaper.

For the past two years, Kolligian has been connected with the newspaper, and his staff appointment culminates the duration of competition. The Winchester resident is also a staff member of the Williams College News Bureau.

He has also been active in the Washington Gladden Christian Society at Williams as well as being a member of the Chapel Committee. Athletic activities have included three years of football, and one year each of basketball and baseball. In this, his junior year, Kolligian has performed the duties of an undergraduate advisor for the freshman class.

He is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

CHURCH BELLS TO RING TONIGHT

Tonight at 8:30, down in Pennsylvania, the famed Liberty Bell will start to toll, and its tones will be echoed by the bells of thousands of churches all over the country where nearly three million Boy Scouts meet regularly.

The bell-ringing will mark the completion of 42 years of Scouting in America, and, at the same time, it will symbolize the theme of Scouting's current program: "Forward on Liberty's Team." When they hear the bells, almost twenty million Americans — who, at one time or another since its founding on February 8, 1910, were members of the Boy Scouts of America — will be reminded that Scouting is still training "citizens of tomorrow."

Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, Scouting Chaplain for this area and pastor of the First Baptist Church, has promised that his church will join in the bell-ringing this evening, and he hopes the other local churches sponsoring Scout units will join in too.

FORUM INTERNATIONAL WEEK-END

Acceptance from seven additional guests bring to 59 the number of foreign students to be entertained by the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church at its Fourth Annual International Week-end which opens tomorrow. Only last minute details remain in preparation for this major project of the Forum.

The students, all of whom are studying in Boston area colleges, will be met at the International Student Center in Cambridge and brought to Winchester homes, where they will spend the week-end. At 5:45 Saturday evening, Forum will entertain its guests at a banquet at the church, at which time Dr. Howard Chidley, Forum President, Richard Rush and Forum Senior Advisor, Mr. Leon Fernandez, will give brief words of welcome. The Forum Orchestra will provide dinner music featuring Jerome Kern's selections, and Rev. William Valentine of Medford will lead in group singing. A skit, "Pokey Huntus" by the Forum Dramatic Club and several numbers by the Forum Glee Club will provide the entertainment. Square and folk dancing, with Dudley Briggs doing the calling, will complete the evening.

Sunday morning at 9:30 the highlight of the week-end will take place when Forum's guests from other countries will be shown how high school students conduct a worship service. The chaplain will be Richard Rush, assisted by Bradford Johnson, and deacons will be Stuart Cunningham and Robert Traut. Richard Lowry and John Merritt will serve as ushers. The choir, attired for the first time in their new robes, will sing the hymns, "God is a Spirit". The speaker of the morning will be Dr. L. Harold DeWolf, Professor of Scientific Theology at Boston University School of Theology, who will address the Forum on "How God Speaks to Us". They will then move into the church at 10:45 for the regular church service.

Dr. Howard Chidley has taken place for his sermon, "Blows Over the Fence", prepared especially to interest our International Student guests.

An International Tea, which is open to all interested persons, will take place at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Social Hall of the Church. Mrs. Howard J. Chidley and Mrs. Richard M. Rush will preside at the tea table. This event will bring to a close the two-day entertainment of guests.

The hosts, who hope to achieve a better understanding of other countries and also show our guests life in a typical American home, are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Richard J. ### BERMUDA VACATION

Mrs. Graham G. Alvord (Jean Drake) of Kitter Point, Me., left Friday, February 1, from New York by plane for Bermuda to enjoy the vacation she was awarded for winning the New York Herald Tribune's Fresh Air Fund essay contest for the 1951 Friendly Town. Hosts, each one of whom took an underprivileged New York youngster into her home during the past summer.

Mrs. Alvord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drake of Lagrange street, and a graduate of Winchester High School and Smith College, is the mother of four children, yet opened her home to receive another. Her letter describing the experience and the benefit her family derived from their young Spanish-speaking guest, newly arrived in this country, was selected by a group of distinguished judges as the best of many submitted during the contest.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

The Board received a letter from Mayor Edmunds of Winchester, England, expressing his appreciation for our Board's Christmas greeting to him, and sending best wishes from his people to our citizens, with a wish for continued friendship between the two Winchester.

Officer William Cassidy was presented a badge on his retirement from the police force, with best wishes from the Board of Selectmen. The Board of Selectmen announced that they had received a resignation from Town Accountant Helen E. Walters, stating her desire to resign because of illness, and the Selectmen accepted her resignation effective immediately.

TUESDAY IS BOY SCOUT DAY

All citizens of Winchester are urged to be especially careful this Tuesday, February 12th, not to break any local laws, or disobey any town ordinances. For Tuesday is Boy Scout Day in Winchester, and, between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the town government will be run by these citizens of tomorrow. This annual custom, when the Scouts are duly elected to assume the positions of the various town officers for a few hours, gives the boys a practical and interesting lesson in democracy... a clearer picture of how their town is run, and the duties and responsibilities of the men who run it.

Boy Scout Day will come to an appropriate close Tuesday evening at the Mystic Lodge where all Winchester Scouts will gather for a "Town Meeting" to consider a Scout Town Warrant. Scout Henry Hooper of Troop 6 will be Moderator.

Other town officers elected for Boy Scout Day are:

Board of Selectmen — Chairman: Andrew Herzig, Troop 3; James Ekstrom, Troop 7; Craig Muncester and Theodore Elliott, Troop 6; Quentin Roberts, Troop 4; David Leverette, Troop 3.

Police Department — Chief: Richard Clark, Troop 7; Lt.: William Emerson, Troop 3; Lt.: Kenneth Brown, Troop 6; Patrolmen: David Pingree, Troop 6; Robert Smith, Troop 7; Gregory Downes, Troop 4; John Chapin and Anthony Lahan, Troop 3.

Fire Department — Chief: Thomas Hooper, Troop 6; Lt.: Roger Guillotti, Troop 7; Lt.: Douglas Gowdy, Troop 3; Privates: Peter Kowalski, Troop 6; Robert Page, Troop 6; Howard Bates, Troop 4; Renner Johnson, Troop 3; John DiBona and Edward Fitzgerald, Troop 12.

Library Trustees — Chairman: Peter Gowdy, Troop 6; Librarian: John Lavelle, Troop 6; Robert Winn, Troop 12; Robert Carter, Troop 6; Kenneth Gallazo, Troop 7; Peter Martin, Troop 3.

Welfare Department — Superintendent: George Denton, Troop 3; Chairman: Richard Diminico, Troop 12; Erskine Kelly, Troop 7; Tyler Black, Troop 4; John McCarthy and Tom Divinye, Troop 12.

DANIEL TYLER, JR.
Chairman Republican State Committee

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club will meet in the Parish Hall of the Church of the Epiphany on Wednesday evening, February 13, 1952. This is an open meeting to which all who are interested are cordially invited. There will be a social hour with refreshments from 7:30 to 8:30. Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, president of the club, will preside at the meeting and Mrs. Muriel S. Barnes as program chairman has announced speakers of wide interest.

MRS. RAYMOND W. WHEELER

Recently back from San Francisco where the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs met, Mrs. Raymond W. Wheeler of Malden will report on the Convention. Well known to Winchester Republican audiences, Mrs. Wheeler is president of the State Federation of Women's Republican organizations in Massachusetts and Vice-Chairman of the Republican State Committee. She has been long active in Malden civic and Republican affairs and is a past president of the Women's Republican Club of Massachusetts.

Daniel Tyler, Jr., Chairman of the Republican State Committee, will explain to the club the coming pre-primary in Massachusetts. He will discuss new plans that the Republicans are making to assure a state ticket with a wide voter appeal and candidates who will attract the interest of the people. Born and brought up in Brookline, Mr. Tyler was educated at Yale, served in the first World War, and subsequently has combined a business career with continued interest in politics, both local and state. He has long identified himself with Brookline town politics, having served continuously as a selectman since 1938. He has also been a member of the Brookline Town Committee for 25 years and chairman of it for 10. From 1940 to 1948 he was a member of the Republican State Committee and was Volunteer Director of the Organizational Division of this committee during 1936, 1938, 1940, and 1942, travelling all over the state and becoming well known among Republican city and town Chairmen. During the three terms of Governor Leverett Saltonstall he served as colonel and chief of military staff. He became chairman of the Republican State Committee in June, 1950. Mr. Tyler will speak on "The New Grass Roots Pre-primary Assembly."

At the request of the Massachusetts Republican organization, the club will give recognition to the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The Honorable Edward C. Stone, Senator from the Cape and Plymouth District, will speak on "Lincoln the Man." Senator Stone was born in Lexington and is a graduate of the Boston University Law School. For many years he practised law and from 1924 to 1947 was active head of the Employers Group Insurance Companies. His distinguished work in this field won him recognition from the Insurance Brokers of New York in 1944, and in 1945 he was chosen Man of the Year in insurance. He is an ex-president and a present member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board. Boston University awarded him an honorary degree of Magna Cum Laude in 1944, and at the present time he is a vice-chairman of the Board of Trustees of Boston University and a member of its executive committee. In February, 1948 Senator Stone was elected to fill an unexpired term as Senator from the Cape and Plymouth District and was re-elected to that office in the 1948 fall election. Senator Stone is a recognized author and a well-known lecturer on Abraham Lincoln.

These three speakers promise an evening of great interest and it is hoped that a large number of people will attend the meeting and the friendly social hour to precede it. The transportation committee stands ready to furnish transportation to anyone desiring it. Call Mrs. Ralph Bonnell, Winchester 6-1338.

RULES AND JUDGES FOR ESSAY CONTEST ANNOUNCED

The 1952 Essay Contest for high school and junior high school students sponsored by the Middlesex East District Medical Society and its Ladies Auxiliary was under way February 1st and will continue until March 1st. The three best essays in this district contest will be awarded prizes of $50, $25 and $15, respectively, and will then be entered in the National Essay Contest sponsored by the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons. In the National Contest they will be competing for a first prize of $1000, a second prize of $500, a third prize of $100, and three other prizes of $25 each.

Any high school or junior high school student, public or parochial, except sons or daughters of physicians in Burlington, Melrose, Reading, Stoneham, Wakefield, Wilmington, Winchester or Woburn is eligible to enter the contest.

The subject of the essay will be: Why the Private Practice of Medicine Furnishes this Country with the Finest Medical Care. The essays must be limited to 1500 words, written on one side of letter size paper (8 1/2 by 11) and must be original and should be well documented. Reference material and documents for study and consultation will be made available by the Medical Society to all schools, although material from any source may be used.

Judging will be based solely on knowledge and grasp of the subject supported with documentation and sound logical conclusions.

The judges for the contest in this district are:

Victoria Cass, M.D., Winchester, Chairman, Associate Director, Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, Boston, Vice President, Middlesex East District Medical Society.

Mrs. Marcus G. Beebe of Lakeside, Wakefield, Treasurer of Boston Smith College Alumni and prominent in local civic affairs.

KEENAN BACK IN SERVICE

Lieutenant Colonel James E. Keenan, the first pilot to bomb Rangoon and Bangkok in World War II, is back in uniform with this veteran Fifth Air Force unit in Korea.

The 39-year-old senior pilot from Winchester, was affiliated with Technicolor Motion Picture Corporation for four years after his return to civilian life in 1946. During the period Keenan was active in the reserve unit at Van Nuys as a Squadron Commander.

In recalling World War II exploits Keenan compared his assignments of those days with the tactical mission of the Air Force in Korea: "As they say in the Far East it's 'same-old-same-o' here in Korea. We're after supply routes and motor transports, plus the napalm treatment we give for front-line ground support."

Originally commissioned in the pre-Pearl Harbor days of 1941, Keenan is a graduate of Kelly Field and has also completed the Celestial Navigation course at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia. He arrived in Korea last October and is now a detachment commander with the famous 18th Wing, whose F-15 Mustangs have been in the peninsula struggle since July of 1950.

The son of Mrs. Elta E. Keenan of Amherst, New Hampshire, Keenan's wife is the former Ann Nagel, well known screen personality, who is residing at the couple's West Coast home in Sherman Oaks, California.

FORMERLY OF WINCHESTER

At the Mid-Winter Conference of the New Hampshire Federation of Women's Clubs, January 29-30, the Jewelers Guild of the League of Arts and Crafts of New Hampshire staged a Jewelry Fashion Show. Members of the Guild were asked to submit articles of jewelry from which the best and most suitable for the costumes were selected.

Miss Gertrude L. Davis, former proprietor of the Hobby and Crafts Nook was honored by having several of her pieces selected for the models and others for display. Miss Davis now lives in her home "Chimney Corner", Lower Village, Hillsboro, N. H., having sold her Winchester property. She is a member of the League of Arts and Crafts, Jewelry Guild and the Hillsboro Fortnightly.

IMPROVEMENTS ON MYSTIC VALLEY PARKWAY
APPROVED BY METROPOLITAN AFFAIRS

The joint committee of Metropolitan Affairs voted favorably on three bills introduced by Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington for improvements on the Mystic Valley Parkway in Arlington and Medford. They called for rapping of Lower Mystic Lake, section of a safety fence along the Mystic River and landscaping the area.

In addition to the health and safety angle, these improvements will beautify the Mystic Valley Parkway approach to Arlington, Medford, Winchester and Woburn.

PATRICK H. CRAUGHWELL

Patrick H. Craughwell (Crawford), native of Winchester and retired foreman of the Health Department, died at 12:20 yesterday afternoon, February 14, at his home, 31 Swanton street. He had been confined to his home since June of 1950 when he underwent an operation for the amputation of a leg and recently he had been in increasingly failing health. Some months ago a group of friends presented him with a television set as a token of their esteem.

Mr. Craughwell was widely known in Winchester and numbered among his friends people of all walks in life. For years he participated in the often hot debates of the old open town meetings, and he had been a member of the Representative Town Meeting from its inception March 4, 1929, being re-elected last year for a term that was to expire in 1954.

A great lover of his native Winchester and a student of the town's history, he was particularly well informed on town affairs, and he never failed to receive a respectful hearing when a time to state his views in town meeting.

One of the last things he championed was the naming of the school in the West Side hill district for the late Lewis Parkhurst, leading citizen and public benefactor, for whom Mr. Craughwell had always the greatest admiration. He also came out strongly several years ago against the proposal to change the name of Middlesex street, and there were few questions of a controversial nature on which he failed to express an opinion.

A great believer in education as a means of community progress he was always to be found among those fighting for anything he believed beneficial to the town's schools, and he was generally aligned with those seeking to better the town through progressive legislation.

Mr. Craughwell was born Patrick Crawford September 2, 1889, the son of Martin Crawford, a veteran of the Civil War, and of Annie (Tully) Crawford. Like many of his generation he got little schooling, going to work as a boy on Russell's Farm below Symmes Corner on the way to Middlesex. He worked, as a boy and man, for the Russells, as a youth driving their two horse hitch and returning home at night after a hard day's work to box, wrestle and race with his contemporaries for recreation. He retained his interest in boxing throughout his life, in recent years going often to Kelley and Hayes gymnasium in Boston to watch the boxers and coach any promising youngsters who caught his eye.

He was for a time a patrolman in the early days of the Police Department and also ran on the old hand-drawn horse crew that held the Winchester record for speedy arrival at a fire.

HE DIDN'T SAY IT!

Dr. Chidley, in his letter about the late Edgar J. Rich published in the Star, didn't describe the town benefactor and Lincoln Library trustee as "ironic". The Star made a typographical error in setting his copy, printing the word "ironic" instead of the word "ironic" written by Dr. Chidley. Nature of the error changed the meaning of Dr. Chidley's description. "Ironic" means "pacific, peaceful, conciliatory". Its use in describing Mr. Rich is appropriate. "Ironic" means the more correct, "ironical", would apply to one dealing in irony, which is a sort of humor, ridicule or light sarcasm, the intended implication of which is just the opposite of the literal sense of the word.

Those who knew the straightforward Mr. Rich knew also that he was never sarcastic and that he always meant exactly what he said! No one knows that better than his friend and neighbor, Dr. Chidley. If we think everyone at all acquainted with the two men knows without telling that the good Doctor would never think of "ironic" in connection with Mr. Rich, let alone the word in an article about him intended to be eulogistic. We are sincerely sorry we misquoted the Dean of Winchester's clergy, the more so because he is such a perfectionist. This correction is intended to counteract so far as possible any implications which may have resulted from our error. We repeat, Dr. Chidley didn't say it!

WILL WED IN SPRING

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Hunt of Gifford, N. H., announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Ann to Mr. Boardman O'Connor son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Connor of Winchester.

Mr. O'Connor was born in Laconia, N. H., and was graduated from Laconia High School Class of 1947. She was employed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., of Laconia for two years as an operator and supervisor and later attended Radcliffe College and Boston University. She spent the summer at Tufts College Theatre as costume designer and is at present on the staff of the costume department at Brattle Theatre Co., Cambridge.

Mr. O'Connor was educated in Winchester public schools and Tufts College. He was associated with Cleveland Playhouse and the Brattle Theatre Co., and for the past five summers has been technical director of Tufts College Theatre. He is now in the Television Production department of WBZ-TV in Boston.

An early spring wedding is planned.

NEW ASSISTANT PASTOR,
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Mr. Small was born December 30, 1925, in Bangor, Maine, the fourth son of the Superintendent of Schools. He was educated in the Bangor Public Schools, and George Steeves Academy at Blue Hill, Maine. He received the A. B. degree from the University of Maine in June, 1948; the B. D. from Bangor Theological Seminary in June, 1948; the Master of Arts in History from Maine, August, 1951; and has completed the residence work for the Ph.D. in History at Harvard.

He is married to Elsie Joan Small, also a native of Maine. They have one daughter, Kathleen Ann, four months old.

In September, 1950, Mr. Small wedded All Souls Church, a cerebral, as Assistant Minister, and was Acting Minister from May, 1951, to January, 1952.

For the past year and a half he has made his home at 23 South Canton street, in Lowell. He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Societies, and was ordained to the Congregational Ministry in November, 1950.

Mr. Small begins his work as Assistant Pastor in the First Congregational Church this week.

JAMES ALBERT HERSEY

James Albert Hersey, for many years identified with the hardware business in Winchester and Arlington, died Sunday night, February 10, at the Nauffts Rest Home on Wednesday. He had suffered a hemorrhage which he suffered on Monday, February 4, was the immediate cause of his death, but he had not been in good health since retiring in 1948, and he had been at the rest home since the latter part of last July. His home was at 147 Highland avenue, and he had lived in Winchester since 1939.

He was the son of Ingram Bill, and Ann (Byrne) Hersey. He was born in Yarmouth, N. S., January 14, 1874, and came to Winchester as a youth of 19, entering the hardware and paint business of his uncle, F. A. Newth.

The store was then located on Main street near the Parkway. Later the store was moved to its long-time location on Main street near the corner of Park street. For a time, after Mr. Newth's ownership, Mr. Hersey conducted the business as a partner with Florence Tobin, but in 1928 he bought Mr. Tobin's interest and from then until 1936 when he closed out the business Mr. Hersey was the sole owner.

After spending the summer of '36 in St. Johnsbury, Vt., during which time, incidentally, he worked in a hardware store, Mr. Hersey returned to Winchester and entered the employ of C. K. Wana-maker, hardware dealer, at Arlington Heights, remaining there until ill health forced his retirement four years ago.

Aside from his business Mr. Hersey was chiefly interested in Waterfield Lodge of Odd Fellows and in the First Baptist Church, though he also was active in the old Chamber of Commerce, which he served as treasurer through most of the years of its existence.

Mr. Hersey served Waterfield Lodge both as Noble Grand and Financial Secretary, holding the latter office for nearly 40 years. He was for many years a member of the First Baptist Church, serving it as deacon, as a member of the Building Committee and as president of the Men's Club.

Mr. Hersey was twice married. In 1903 he married Alice Freeman, who died in 1928. On December 9, 1933, he married Edith Johnson, who is his only survivor.

Funeral services were held at the Bennett Chapel on Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

WITH FRED WARING SHOW

Local Smith College alumnae will want to be tuned in to the Fred Waring Show on Channel 7, WNAC, on Sunday, February 17th, at 9 p. m., when a Smith College senior, Miss Marie Jeanne Laurent of New Rochelle, New York, will be the guest soloist.

Daughter of Harriet (Moriarty) Laurent, class of '16, Miss Laurent is studying under Professor Anna Hamlin at Smith College and recently won an inter-collegiate competition for the opportunity to sing on the Variety Show, which each week features talent from a different college.

MARINE CASUALTY RETURNED

Body of Pfc. William Violante Reached Winchester Monday

The body of Marine Pfc. William Edward Violante, the first Winchester boy to die in the fighting in Korea, came home Monday afternoon, arriving at Winchester Station on the 4:00 outbound train. Killed in action November 2 while serving with the First Marine Division, Pfc. Violante was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Violante of 7 Riley road. Accompanying the body of the young hero, who would have been 22 years old the 24th of next May, was Master Sgt. Jack Fichter, official escort of the Marine Corps. Flags on the Common and public buildings were displayed at half-staff, commencing Monday morning and continuing until after the funeral on Wednesday.

For some time before the train was due people commenced to gather at the Station, including a number of high school students who were, undoubtedly, of "Billy's" brother, Richard; youngsters approaching draft age who spoke in low tones and were very serious in appearance. In the car of Mr. Kenneth B. Toye, chairman of the Winchester Military Manpower Committee, were the members of the dead Marine's family, Mr. and Mrs. Violante, Billy's sister, Donna Marie, and his two brothers, James, Jr., and the younger Richard. Other relatives of the family were present with several close friends.

Representing the Town of Winchester at the Station were Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and Veterans Service Officer Charles D. Roche. Waiting to act as honor guard were members of Aberjona Post, 3179, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Winchester Post, No. 97, the American Legion, headed by their respective commanders, Warren Bolivar and Arthur Collins.

As the train rumbled in the Veterans and Legionnaires with their colors and color guards drew up the platform at attention as the big metal flag-draped casket was taken from the baggage car and placed on a railroad truck. Also awaiting the casket outside the car were the hero's Marine brothers, James, Jr., an Air Force veteran, and Richard, accompanied by Mrs. Toye.

As the Violante casket was taken from the train those near enough to catch a glimpse of the flag-draped casket through the open door. Strangely enough this casket contained the body of Staff Sgt. George L. MacIsaac, Jr., whose parents were living on the street where he was born and whose father is still well known here as a former Winchester boy. He and his wife now live in Woburn and their son's body was on the way to that city where it was due to arrive at 4:17. Young MacIsaac was killed in Korea October 9, 1951.

CURLERS DECIDE WHITE CUP

The Red vs. Blue was decided in favor of the Reds this week, but the item of news for the Curlers was the Waghorne — Morse decision for the White Cup.

The match was exciting in the extreme, Charles Waghorne having Arthur Butters, Bill Fulton and Bill Ferguson, and Dan Morse's rink with Mike Hunt, John Coulson and Courtney Gendron. Charley was five ahead at the finish of the second end and then the match started to get even. Morse was back and forth, and at the end of the eleventh end saw Waghorne make a beautiful shot for three stones, ending that end 12-10. By the time the number three's came to bat Morse's rink lay two stones ahead. Arthur Butters promptly took out one, then Mike Hunt took out Arthur's, then Mike took out Arthur's, to leave Morse still two up for a tie. Waghorne's first stone was trouble, some and Morse's first didn't change the situation, nor did Waghorne's second. However, with excellent sweeping on the part of Gendron and Coulson, Morse's last stone scored for a total of three and a win 13-12.

Sharing the honor of winning the White Cup for Dan Morse, in addition to this week's rink, were Ralph Bonnell, Rex MacWinn, Larry Burke and Frank Murphy, all of whom played in the White Cup matches.

The Young Cup has still to be decided and at the moment is anyone's meat.

This week-end John Joy is skipping a rink consisting of Howard Morrison, Jake VanVloten and Bob Dunbar at Schenectady.

Last week-end Geof Neiley's rink reached the semi-finals at Nashua, but were beaten by Dr. Belanger's crack Nashua rink, who went on to win the Granite State Trophy.

The first three sessions of the course were the group discussions in which Pfc. Livingstone participated. The second three sessions were devoted to personal conferences with supervisors.

WINCHESTER SOLDIER

DISCUSSION LEADER

Pfc. Frank Livingstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy P. Livingstone of Chestnut street, was one of three group discussion leaders for the recent opening of the course in Work Simplification given to supervisors of different post activities at the Army Chemical Center at Bel Air, Md., under the direction of the Management Section of the Computer's Office.

The first three sessions of the course were the group discussions in which Pfc. Livingstone participated. The second three sessions were devoted to personal conferences with supervisors.

CHARLES T. MAIN, II

CANDIDATE
FOR SELECTMAN

In announcing my candidacy for Selectman, I wish to set forth the qualifications which I hope will recommend me for that office.

I was born in Great Falls, Montana, but have been a resident of Winchester since I was six months old. I attended the Winchester public schools, and now have one daughter in the first grade and another who will start in September.

In 1948 I was a member of the Junior High School Addition Building Committee and am currently serving on the Junior and Senior High School Building Committee which will make a report at the March Town Meeting. For the past three years I have been a town meeting member.

As a graduate of Dartmouth College Thayer School of Engineering, District Electrical engineer while in Alaska with the Coast Guard, and at present an Engineer and Junior Associate of Charles T. Main, Inc., Industrial Engineers, I feel I have gained the experience and judgment which would enable me to serve the townspeople effectively.

I have been constantly impressed with the excellence of Winchester's administration. I would like to have the privilege, through serving on the Board of Selectmen, of helping to continue our town's fine tradition.

I hope I may merit your support for election to the office of Selectman on March 4.

TO THE VOTERS OF WINCHESTER

The practice of electing women to two of the six places on the Winchester School Committee has worked well. Through daily observation of child-school relationship and through frequent contacts with other mothers, a woman learns a great deal about the functioning of our school system. Other women feel free to approach her for information or explanations.

This year, the Chairman of the Committee, Mrs. Marian H. Chandler, is retiring. We are fortunate in having Mrs. Louise A. Kugler, a very well qualified candidate. From more than twenty years residence in Winchester, she is familiar with the background of present-day issues. As a member of the Girl Scout Council, as President of the District Nursing Association and as President of the Community Chest, she has worked with civic minded people from all parts of town. For many years she has had from one to four children attending our schools. She knows the problems at all levels.

Because I believe that women are the best qualified to serve the town, I urge her election on March 3.

WELLESLEY CLUB TEA

The Wellesley Club of Winchester held its annual meeting on Thursday afternoon, January 31st, at the home of Mrs. Ralph T. Jope on Dix street. In the absence of Mrs. Paul Leverette, president, Mrs. Wayne Davis, vice-president of the club, presided.

The club voted to give equal amounts from the proceeds of The Winchester Mornings and other projects to the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, the Student Aid Society of Wellesley College, and the Wellesley College Development Fund. Mrs. Roger Burton was chosen to be the delegate from the club to the Alumnae Council at Wellesley. Mrs. Thomas Halloran was announced as new chairman of The Winchester Mornings. Mrs. Parker Heath, Acquaintanceship Chairman, spoke of taking four interested Winchester High School seniors out to the college in December for a tour of the campus.

Miss Harriet B. Croighton, chairman of the Botany Department and one of the most distinguished members of the Wellesley College Faculty, spoke of the teaching of science at Wellesley and the necessity for adapting teaching methods to the degrees of preparedness of new students. West Coast students are better equipped for science courses than those from other parts of the country.

Mrs. Richard Wyman was in charge of the tea following the meeting and Mrs. Thomas Halloran poured.

HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

A "Day in the Life of a Landscape Gardener" is the subject of the talk Mrs. Walter Chambers is going to give to the members of the Winchester Home and Garden Club. This next meeting on Wednesday, February 20, will begin at 2 o'clock in the Art Room of the Public Library. Members and their guests are cordially invited.

Mrs. Chambers now lives in Amherst, New Hampshire, and she and her husband are both intensely interested in landscape architecture. We understand that she is planning to stress landscaping in respect to public projects, town problems, and housing developments. This emphasis should prove to be particularly suitable to a group such as this one which has shown itself to be involved in local affairs such as the beautifying of the grounds at the Public Library for the aged and for the library itself.

The regular members of the club are entitled to the special advance sale of Spring Flower Show tickets at a reduced rate. These tickets will be available at the February 20th meeting. Please contact Mrs. Frank Robinson at that time. Dates for this annual event in Mechanics Building, Boston, are set for March 9-15 inclusive. This is another advantage of being a Garden Club member in good standing!

A VISITOR LOOKS AT WINCHESTER

by Evan Roberts

You can't notice everything on your first visit to a new town, but you can see some important things. Important because I drove things that impress the visitor are the things he will remember when he thinks of Winchester.

It was last spring that I visited Winchester. I came out of Boston up along the Mystic Lake on the Parkway into Winchester. That lake appealed to me as its beauty reminded me of a cottage. I was an unusual pleasure to see such a lake so near Boston and on Winchester's doorstep. I was all the way on the lookout for a bathing beach. When I found another on Wedge Pond, I was doubly pleased. And when I noticed the fine tennis courts adjoining, I thought, "Here is a town that offers recreation for the individual as well as the team." I spent a while driving around town and was impressed with the attractive houses, both the stately older houses and the spanking new ones. Whether I toured the West side or the East side, I found the same civic pride. In fact, I guess that sums up Winchester. It stood out all over. Whether it was the personal pride shown by a neat lawn or the attractive streets and stores, it was the same — civic pride. It was the first town I had seen with no real "slum" section. Whether a home was humble or magnificent, it was still proud, as though it didn't want to mix with the lovely street it lived on. The very tree-lined streets were clean and inviting, spreading out a welcome mat to the visitor.

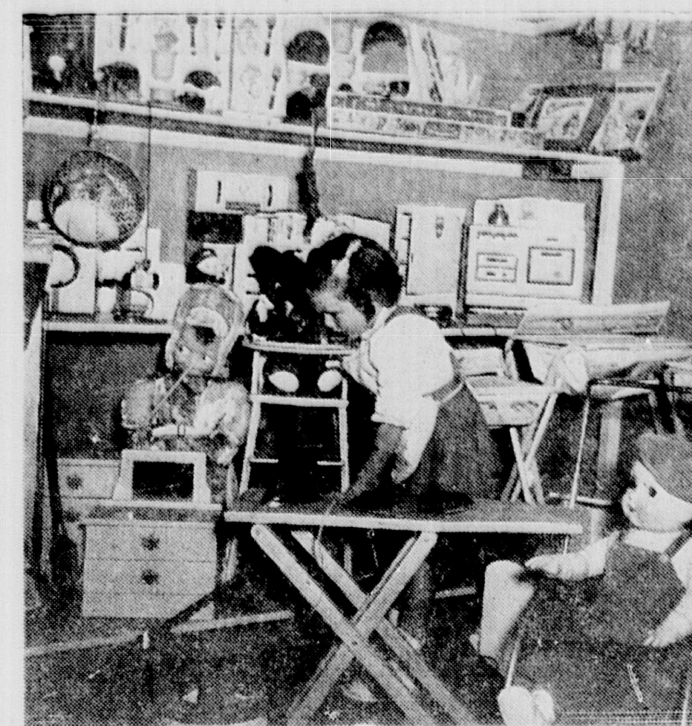

As I crossed the Aberjona River bridge at the Center, I noticed the lazy, winding stream. Streams always attract me and so I parked the car and walked around a bit. Strolling along the banks, I came to the bench by Horace Ford's where I sat for a while watching the ducks swimming in the stream. I lifted my eyes across the expanse of quiet, rolling lawn with the churches standing guard over the peaceful scene. There sat Winchester like a well-groomed, proper person.

Every visitor ought to take time to sit on that bench to see Winchester. There you can watch its great heart beat quietly, steadily and strong.

The shops and offices had a welcome look as though they were interested in being attractive and of service as well as making money — the quiet terrace between Ford's and Filene's; the "resort" look of the gift shops; the inviting look of the others.

Even the public buildings I passed fit the setting. They were at work, but with an air of comfortable, confident living.

Comfortable living — that is Winchester. At least that is the impression on the visitor. Adequate, abundant living. Cultural, spiritual, civic values and opportunities. A town proud of its people, a people proud of its town.

But the railroad crossing! A blot on my memory! There I sat for over five minutes in the hot sun waiting for three trains to go by. Traffic was backed up for blocks. I wondered what an ambulance or fire truck would do? It didn't fit the rest of the town.

Yes, you can't see everything on one visit to a town, but you always see something that sticks. And that makes it mighty important what that something is. It may not be the same thing to any two visitors, but Winchester has enough to leave anyone with a good impression. And that could be important when a visitor decides to return to live in Winchester because of that first visit.

I did.

WINCHESTER, 64; BELMONT, 40

An overflow crowd at the high school gym last Friday night saw Winchester High win the championship of the Middlesex League by defeating Belmont High 64-40 in a bruising, thrill-packed game that was the best of the season. The hard-earned victory assured the Indians of at least a tie for the League crown and when the second place Reading quintet was upset by Melrose the same night, the Red and Black clinched the League title regardless of what happens at Reading tonight.

Belmont had been well prepped for this game by wily Coach Mel Wenner and the gym throbbled with excitement even during the preliminary second team game. Belmont started fast to build up a 10-4 lead in the opening minutes as they aggressively pressed the locals all over the court and outscored the Indians off the backboards and on jump balls to gain possession of the ball the major share of the time. Then came an incident which seemed to change the complexion of the game as a Belmont player unnecessarily roughed Captain John DiIorio as he was lying on the floor. Only cooler heads and an officer in blue prevented a possible donnybrook from erupting spontaneously. This seemed to shake the Indians from their lethargy and they literally seemed to roll up their sleeves to go to work.

By the end of the first quarter Winchester had moved into a 10-12 lead and gained four more hard-earned points in the second period to lead 26-18 at the half. Either some very expert coaching or an inspiring pep talk, or perhaps a combination of both, must have taken place during the intermission for the Indians were a different team in the second half. They began to work their offense and run off their plays to free a player time after time for a clear drive to the basket for an easy layup shot. They were working their fast break nicely to catch Belmont flat-footed as they raced down the floor, with two or three of the fast breaks being really picture plays. By the end of the third quarter Winchester had moved ahead by a score of 41-27 and added 10 more points to their lead in the final period to win by the deceptive margin of 24 points — deceptive because it does not accurately reflect the closeness and tenseness of the spine-tingling contest.

It is impossible to single out any of the Indians for special praise and would be definitely unfair to do so for it was a team victory with each performer doing well his assigned task. Four of the five scorers hit for double figures for a nice distribution of the scoring. In a 10-minute stretch from the middle of the third period the Indians put on their peak performance of the year as they were setting up their plays beautifully and carrying them through to a score in a manner that would have done credit to a good college team. Because of Belmont's aggressive play and tight defense the locals took only 51 shots at the basket but made good on 28 of them for an amazing shooting percentage of 55 per cent, chiefly because so many of them were lay ups from a fast break or a well-executed play.

Like the first team the Winchester Seconds had a battle on their hands before defeating the Belmont Seconds 57-42. Belmont even used a first team regular and two first team substitutes in an attempt to snap the undefeated record of the Winchester Seconds. The locals led 16-12 at the end of the first quarter and 25-21 at the half but Carleton and Howard staged a scoring spree in the third period that established a comfortable 17-point margin for the Indians. Kit Carleton was high scorer for the Seconds with 17 points while Norm Howard collected 10 points.

WINCHESTER FROSH, 73; WOBURN FROSH, 49

The Winchester Freshmen avenged an earlier defeat by the Woburn Freshmen by defeating the Orange and Black 73-49 at the high school gym last Friday afternoon. The Papooses played good ball in this one and were in complete command after a close first period. Four of the five starters hit for double figures for the Freshmen as they racked up their highest scoring total of the season in winning their seventh game.

The Winchester Junior High team won their tenth straight victory in defeating the Woburn Junior High 47-25 in the preliminary game. Joe Bellino was once again the standout for the Junior high as he was the only performer to score in double figures with 16 points.

LITTLE LEAGUE

It appears from the enthusiastic support already evidenced in Little League by the civic minded men and organizations who have stepped forward to volunteer their services in every phase of organization that Winchester will have out-standing Little League Baseball this summer.

Stories of spontaneous support of Little League in other communities began filtering into Winchester Rotary meetings last fall from its own members, visiting members and guest speakers. Rotary quickly saw its responsibility to do something about bringing Little League to Winchester and formed a committee to investigate the Little League organization which has national headquarters in Williamsport, Penna., and a committee to investigate possible playing fields. After considerable investigation it was found that the northwest corner of Shore Road field was large enough and would be the only field available this season. On October 12th, members of Winchester Rotary turned out in force to grade and seed the low spots in the field so that it will be safe for the youngsters in the spring. The Rotary committee on organization is presently working on organizing the present Board of Directors and in contacting individual team sponsors.

The Board of Directors is composed of men throughout the town whose ability and civic interest has qualified them for the position and is not composed of members from any one organization. The Board of Directors whose names have been previously announced in the Winchester Star is responsible for the operation of Little League.

This year four teams will constitute the Winchester Little League. The individual teams this year will be sponsored by the Winchester Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Bonnell Motors and Moody Motors. The next Directors' meeting will be held Monday, February 25th, at the home of Vice President Edward Cullen, 233 Mystic Valley Parkway. All directors are urged to attend. The selection of team managers has not been completed by the Board of Directors, so if anyone interested has not already put in his name, please contact Mr. Charles Koch at the Sports Shop on Church street to submit his name for consideration.

William Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin J. Moore of 16 North Gateway, is one of 96 students in the College of Education at Boston University named to the first and second dean's lists for scholastic excellence. Young Moore, who is a freshman class member, made the first dean's list, to be eligible for which a student must have an academic rating 3.0 to 4.0 with no "C" grades. There are 1,000 enrolled in the College of Education at B. U.

WINCHESTER AT READING TONIGHT

Meet Woburn February 22

Winchester High travels to Reading tonight to meet the Rockets in their final Middlesex League contest of the season. The locals are in the enviable position of having clinched the League championship regardless of what happens tonight but the fur will fly as the two schools have become bitter rivals in recent years. Reading held the Indians to an 11-point victory at Winchester earlier this season and feel that the locals are a vastly over-rated team whose record they would enjoy spoiling. The Reading management has stated that there are tickets available for sale at the door tonight.

Next Friday afternoon the Indians will meet Woburn High at Woburn in a holiday afternoon engagement that should attract a large crowd. Woburn has had about a fifty-fifty season but they can be depended upon to play their best game of the season against Winchester. Boys like Kerrigan, McLaughlin, and Lennon of the Orange and Black are good ball players and the locals well remember the scare they received at Woburn a year ago before they pulled out a close victory.

"SIGHT UNSEEN"

"Sight Unseen," a farce-comedy by Rosemary Foster and Warner Law, will be presented tomorrow evening at 8:15 in the High School auditorium by the Junior and Senior classes of the Winchester High School as their annual Junior-Senior play.

Mr. Thomas Morse, faculty director of the play, reports that this light, colorful comedy is difficult to compare with any other production of recent years. "It most closely corresponds to 'Brother Rat' produced in 1948. 'Sight Unseen,' with its many hilarious scenes, should provide an agreeable and pleasant evening's entertainment for adults as well as high school students.

WINCHESTER PAPOOSES OVER BELMONT

The Winchester Freshmen won a thrilling one-point victory from the Belmont Freshmen by a score of 48-47 at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. Superior marksmanship from the foul line enabled the papooses to turn back their Belmont rivals as they were outscored by two baskets from the floor. "Bucky" Morgan with 13 points and Wally Hart with 10 points were the top scorers for the Freshmen who were one point down at the end of the first quarter but who led the rest of the way to annex their eighth victory of the season.

The Winchester Junior High won their eleventh straight victory with a one-sided 59-18 victory over the Belmont Junior High. Big John Lynch was hitting from all angles for the locals as he tallied 19 points while Bert Kneeland collected 10 points.

The statement that 95 per cent of the people of Winchester favor the abolition of the town's grade crossing by raising the railroad tracks through the center is misleading. On November 28, 1945, a hearing was held in the town hall, at which three plans were presented for the consideration of those present. The hearing was called by the Selectmen, who had the plan to raise the tracks, and of the three plans offered, only that plan was worth considering. There was some vigorous opposition by dissenters, but 130 of the 144 voters at the hearing favored the abolition of the crossing by raising the tracks; or, at least, favored that plan over the others presented at that time. Four hundred and thirty-six is better than 95 per cent of 444, of course, but it still is a long way from 95 per cent of the "people of the town", and in connection with the vote at the hearing in question it should be remembered that quite a few present did not vote at all. The Selectmen estimate seven to eight hundred were at the hearing. We do not believe as many as that turned out, but if there were seven to eight hundred present, then nearly half of those in the hall did not favor raising the tracks to eliminate the crossing, at least on the vote. You can argue either way, of course, and get nowhere. The point we are trying to make is that this hearing is the only time when there has been even a limited opportunity to express a preference for any plan, raising the tracks or not. In 1925 the people of the town have had no opportunity to vote for or against raising the tracks. Back in 1907 a vote at the then open town meeting favored depressing the tracks in the center, 202 to 2. This was a town meeting vote, incidentally, not a vote at a hearing. The same is true of the 166 to 5 vote in 1912 favoring the plan of the late George Adams Woods, who proposed raising the tracks at their present level and raising the center above them. From 1912 to 1929 the grade crossing abolition was tabled at several town meetings, but in 1929 the question was solved by the Selectmen, and in that year the town meeting voted the Selectmen $15,000, to be expended in furthering the abolition, generally, with no plan specified. The Selectmen subsequently reported themselves pleased with the attitude of the State toward abolition of Winchester's grade crossing, and issued a report in which a number of plans were presented and discussed. If memory serves, the Selectmen at that time favored raising the center above the tracks with vehicular traffic crossing the railroad on a bridge or bridges. Be that as it may, the public expressed no preference for any plan, and the question of grade crossing elimination mulled along from 1929 until the limited town meeting of 1944. The Selectmen at that time seemed to favor raising the tracks to abolish the crossing, and following the meeting the Board went on record as supporting this plan. There was little doubt of that after the hearing of 1945. At the town meeting of 1944 a "sense of the meeting" vote was passed to the effect that the grade crossing should be abolished, and under the same "sense of the meeting" vote the Selectmen were authorized to cooperate with State and railroad authorities to bring about the abolition as soon as practicable after the war. So far as the Star has been able to check, this is the official record on grade crossing abolition from 1927 to date. Nowhere can we find that the entire town has had an opportunity to vote on the question, and at no time have 95 per cent of the "people of Winchester" expressed themselves as favoring the abolition of the grade crossing by raising the tracks.

A State legislator, two prominent businessmen, and a leading woman Republican today announced their candidacies for the posts of delegates and alternates from the 5th Congressional District to the Republican national convention. In a joint statement, all four members of the team pledged their support to Senator Robert A. Taft.

Announcing were Ralph H. Bonnell of Winchester, chairman of the executive committee of the Republican State Committee; Representative Edward J. DeSaulnier, Jr., of Chelmsford; Mrs. Albert E. Gallant of Lowell, former president of the Lowell District Women's Republican Club; and Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., Belmont, executive of a Cambridge candy manufacturing company.

The 5th Congressional District is comprised of Andover in Essex County, and of 28 communities in Middlesex County, including Lowell, Woburn, Winchester, Belmont, Bedford, and Arlington.

Mr. Bonnell and Mr. Welch are seeking the delegate positions, and Mr. Gallant is a candidate for alternate delegate.

Mr. Bonnell, president of automotive agencies in Winchester and Arlington, is past chairman of the Board of Selectmen in Winchester. He is a member of the Winchester Planning Board, president of the Winchester Country Club, and Director of the Winchester National Bank. He also is President of the Farm, a charity under the South End House.

WINCHESTER RANKS HIGH

Editor of the Star:
Winchester's 1952 March of Dimes campaign, which signed off with the Mothers' March on January 31st, has left its local chairmen in the happy embarrassment of being unable to express anything like proper appreciation except through the medium of your columns.

We had no quota. Last year's impressive record we hoped to equal so that, to borrow the title of Robert Montgomery's moving TV play of last Monday, all who are stricken with polio might "rise and Walk Again." To the extent that, through inadvertence, we failed to give our generous fellow-townsmen the chance to donate, we mention that our treasurer, Vincent Ambrose, will still be glad to accept gifts at the Winchester Trust Company.

Nevertheless, our town will rank high in per capita donations. It voted at the hearing favored abolition of the crossing by raising the tracks; or, at least, favored that plan over the others presented at that time. Four hundred and thirty-six is better than 95 per cent of 444, of course, but it still is a long way from 95 per cent of the "people of the town", and in connection with the vote at the hearing in question it should be remembered that quite a few present did not vote at all. To the Hercules Container Corporation of Boston for donating the containers used in the Mothers' March;

To Vincent Ambrose, for his untimely year of quiet service in receiving, counting and cataloguing donations, paying bills and keeping our financial house in order;

To Michael Stranger, Winchester Theater manager, for his cooperation in displaying notices and arranging theater collections;

To Chris Powers and Tony Seminare for their work with the industries and stores of the town;

To the hundred-odd stores whose counters carried iron lung banks through January;

To Peck & Peck for giving us the store window space to keep the grim reminder of an actual iron lung before you all month;

To the Girl Scouts for taking up the theater collections and the Boy Scouts for house-to-house distribution of dime cards;

To the great hostesses for their passion for anonymity, for whom the letters and publicity was invaluable;

To the Star, for notable generosity in the space and placement of our news items;

To the hundreds of selfless mothers — including mothers proud that their child was in the next morning — who marched to the lighted houses of their neighbors to collect donations, rewarded only by the consciousness of giving of themselves in a fine cause;

And finally, to all of you who gave at your work, in the stores and in your homes, at stated times, your hearts were not pinched. May your rewards match your charity.

Sincerely yours,
Dean W. Carter, Town Chrm.
Margaret P. Carleton, Chrm.

PROTECT THE CHILDREN

Editor of the Star:
I think it's high time that something was done to make it safe for children walking through the Skillington path. There should either be a fence erected or a battery hedge planted so that the children would not be so easily attracted to the water's edge. I am sure that every one of my neighbors join me in wanting something done real soon. I myself have called over to the children, playing near the water's edge, to get away before they slipped in, and only a few days ago I told two small boys to get away from the water's edge. As they were throwing pieces of ice into the water from the other side, I was afraid they would topple in, so please give this your earliest consideration, and let's have something done real soon!

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Student's Room at the public library is a pretty busy place these days. High school students use it for their school work as well as leisure reading.

As a supplement to school work, the collection of classics, poetry, and drama are in constant use. Biographies and adventure stories are also in demand for reading. Much of the student's research can be done in the Student's Room, but the Reference Librarian is always available to find additional material from the adult collection.

For recreation, there are teenage stories, sports, adventure, humor, etiquette and popular teen magazines. These add up to many enjoyable hours of relaxation.

At present, there is a display of books entitled, "From the Non-Fiction Alcove." This includes books from the new adult non-fiction collection which are suitable for high school age. These exhibits change every two weeks. Be sure and look for the next few exhibits, which will include "An Evening at Home," "Be Your Own Disc Jockey," and "Civil Pride."

All of these features add up to make the Student's Room a place of great activity during these winter months.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Representatives of the women of the Church of the Epiphany, First Baptist, First Congregational, Methodist, New Hope Baptist, Second Congregational and Unitarian Churches met at the home of Mrs. Martin S. Swanson, President of the First Baptist Women's League, for Morning Coffee, Wednesday, February 13th to make plans for the observance of the World Day of Prayer on Friday, February 29th.

This year's service will be held at 2:30 on February 29th in the First Baptist Church with the theme "Christ, Our Hope." An impressive and timely service is being prepared and it is hoped all women of the Cooperating Churches will set aside an hour on the 29th to join in this world wide prayer service in these critical times.

MARINE CASUALTY RETURNS

Preceded by the Colors and Color-guards the Viante casket was wheeled along the platform by "Bert" McKillop, railroad employee, the truck being accompanied by the Marine escort, veterans organizations, the brothers of the young hero and Mrs. Toye.

Women sobbed and men uncovered as the big casket was placed in the hearse of Undertaker John Lane, with the sympathies of all present going out instinctively to the stricken Viante family in the car waiting beside the hearse. Officers Thomas Parsons and James Flaherty handled the group at the Winchester Home where the body lay in state until the funeral Wednesday morning.

Following the Police car were the Colors, carried by Mark Kelley and Clement Landry, and Color-guards Robert and Richard Horn. Commanders Bolivar and Collins preceded the hearse, in which Sgt. Fichter rode with Undertaker Lane.

Marching beside the hearse as a guard of honor were Legionnaires Joseph McKee, Charles Meek, Jr., and Victor Froberg, Jr.; Ralph Fiore and John Horn of the V.F.W. and two Marine veterans, Joseph McElhinney and Costello.

Hats were doffed as the flags and hearse moved slowly through the square.

Both Monday and Tuesday nights the funeral home was crowded with young and old relatives and friends of the Viante family, all calling to pay their respect to the young Marine, first Winchester boy to give his life for his Country in Korea.

Full military honors were accorded at the funeral Wednesday morning. A detachment of Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Chapter 10, and Color-guards escorted the body from the Lane Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church, a firing squad of Marines from the Boston Navy Yard preceding the hearse.

A solemn mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Fr. Charles Anadore with Rev. Fr. William Walsh as deacon and Rev. Fr. John J. Grant, subdeacon. The Colors of the Legion and V. F. W. which had been displayed at the Funeral Home during the time the young Marine lay there, were trooped at the church and six members of the American Legion and V. F. W. acted as bearers.

Representing the Air Force at the funeral was Captain Robert Cook, who was seated with Mrs. Gladys Toye, chairman of the Winchester Military Manpower Committee, and with Master Sgt. Rexford Young and Sgt. Edward Boyson, representing the Army. A delegation of the newly formed "Home Fronters" also attended the church.

Rev. Fr. John P. O'Hortan, pastor of St. Mary's, read the committal prayers at the grave in Calvary Cemetery. After the Marines had fired three volleys and taps had been blown by a Marine bugler, Sgt. Fichter removed the flag from Pfc. Viante's casket and presented it to his mother.

Son of James E. and Hilda (Pfeinert) Viante, Marine Pfc. Viante was born in Winchester May 24, 1930. He attended the Winchester schools and was graduated from Winchester High School with the class of 1948, being on the football squad as well as serving on the Yearbook staff and the Graduation Committee. Before entering the service he worked with his father in the latter's business, the Winchester Morning News.

Pfc. Viante entered the Marines December 3, 1950, training at Parris Island, S. C., and at Camp Pendleton, California. He had been in Korea for five months when he was killed while serving as a machine gunner attached to D Company, 1st Battalion, 7th Regiment of the First Marine Division.

He was in constant combat service with the 1st Marine Division, and one time for 30 consecutive days instead of the usual ten day periods with rest between. Pfc. Viante was killed instantly by a hand grenade during a night probing attack by the enemy.

Of "Billy" his commanding officer wrote, he was "one of our finest Marines . . . known as a man, a true Marine, respected by everyone, devoted to duty, an example to all of us."

JOINT MEETING

The Junior Mrs. Guild of the First Baptist Church will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, February 19, in the Parish House at 7:45. This will be a joint meeting with the Business and Professional Women's Guild. A talk on "How to Worry Intelligently" will be given by Mrs. James Warren Sever. Mrs. Sever, a former resident of Winchester, is Director of Public Health for Children's Hospital and Children's Medical Center. An outstanding personality in social and welfare work, she was formerly Consultant in Parent Education with the Division of Child Hygiene in the Massachusetts State Department of Public Health; Educational Consultant for the American Social Hygiene Association; and Clinical Psychologist at the Judge Baker Guidance Center.

YOUTH FUN NIGHT

The young people of the First Baptist Church are to enjoy another Friday evening of recreation and sociability under the able leadership of Alfred Meurling (Coach Meurling). On these evenings they are permitted to bring friends as guests. Mr. John Chisholm, Director of Youth Activities, and Mr. Alfred Meurling, Chairman of Recreation, are cooperating in the social activities for the youth of the church.

TROOP No. 7 PARENTS' NIGHT

Mullen Awarded Eagle

On Friday, February 8th, in the social hall of the First Baptist Church, the members of Troop No. 7, Boy Scouts of America, and their parents, sat down to a catered supper. This was followed by the presentation of mementos and Scoutmaster Bob Lamson, The Life Scout badge was awarded to Paul Berman by Doc Millican, former Scoutmaster.

A feature of the evening was the presentation of the Eagle Scout badge to Stanley Mullen by Rev. Walter L. Bailey, Chaplain of the Fellsland Council and Pastor of the First Baptist Church. This is the highest award that can be made to a Boy Scout. Stanley in turn presented his mother with a miniature Eagle badge.

Several patrols put on skits which were well received by their proud parents. A program of magic, put on by Joseph Daigle, concluded the events of the evening. Everyone left with the thought that it was a very happy event which will be long remembered.

The group responsible for the program, all members of the Troop Committee, were as follows: Dr. Richard Clark, Erskine Kelley, Harold Ekstrom, Bill Wickwire, Warren Osborne, Walter Josephson, Bob Lamson and David Thoms, chairman. Seated at the head table were the Rev. and Mrs. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Mullen, Stanley and Irene Mullen, Dr. Millican and daughter Janet, Bob Lamson, Lewis Foster, who acted as toastmaster, and Mrs. Foster.

Several of the mothers donated food, which was auctioned off by Walter Josephson. Donations by Winchester merchants included plants by Winchester Conservatories, corsage by Foley's, Inc., ice cream by Sunnyhurst Dairy, and candy by Aberjona Pharmacy.

The Troop is grateful to all who helped them to celebrate Boy Scout Week. This marks the 20th year of their past record. We hope it will continue for many years to come.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Attention Senior Planning Board members: Our regular meeting will be held at 1:30 p. m. at the Scout office on Monday, February 18th.

Because of vacation, there will be no meeting of the Basic Training Course on Tuesday, February 19th; however, the following Tuesday, February 26th, will find this training course back on schedule, and in action at the Scout office at 10:00 a. m.

Mrs. Forbes Norris, a member of the Public Relations Committee, is our representative to the Greater Boston Public Relations Committee, and as such has attended several important and inspiring meetings this past week at Girl Scout Headquarters at 87 Beacon street.

Troop 44 is mailing Cynthia Ahlors a joint letter written on taped cards, which fold like a travel postcard, and is sending her a World Fellowship pin to wear on her tour of Europe. The Troop gave her a small camera as a parting gift, and hopes eventually to receive pictures of their traveling member taken in various European countries.

Troop 60, under the leadership of Mrs. D. Gaynor and Mrs. G. Hill, and composed of 3rd Grade Scouts of Wyman School, is planning to use the cabin for a Valentine party and supper on Wednesday, February 13th.

Wednesday, February 20th, will be Mid-Winter Sports Day for Scouts at the Winchester Country Club.

On Monday evening, February 18, at 7:30, the Couples Club of the First Congregational Church will present two famous technicolor motion pictures, "Hunting in Alaska," and "Fishing in Alaska." These films show unbelievably beautiful scenic views along with some of the most exciting action shots ever filmed. Because of the outstanding quality of these films we feel fortunate in having been able to bring them to Winchester, and we want to extend an invitation to all hunters, fishermen, and nature lovers. The entire program is free of charge, and refreshments will be served at the end of the program.

Prices are partly up to you

Most of the shopping for the home is done by the women of the family. They know a bargain when they see one, but they are usually willing to pay a fair price for whatever they buy. When the asking price gets outrageously out of line, the women shoppers of the nation can take effective action as they have done in some instances, by simply not buying until the price is lowered. This is one of the most effective means of keeping prices from running wild. It's a veto power that's largely in the hands of those who hold the family purse strings. Spending carefully is another habit of thrift. Like depositing regularly in your bank account, this habit pays handsome dividends.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

February Exhibition

Professor Lamson, president, opened this exhibition which was especially interesting because of its dual character. Daniel West's art, which will be on display during the month, was introduced by Mrs. Samoiloff. After her resume of his brief life, it was very evident that the artist belonged to that group of persons who have lived fully in a few years, have enjoyed and justified life more than many who have lived to the allotted threescore years and ten. His work showed some exquisite pencil sketches, clever journal illustrations and much promise of a great artist. Curiously enough, this observer had just renewed his acquaintance with another young artist who lived during the same span of years as Mr. West but one hundred years earlier. Peter Rindischbacher, whose excellent sketches made for the Hudson's Bay Company may be known to some members of the Association.

The second feature of this interesting evening was Mr. Prescott Baston's talk and exhibition of his figurines which are some two or three inches in height and have the finish and delicacy of china. Some of these have been created for special purposes. These are interesting but the most appealing are those made for a purchasing public. A universal hope of childhood really to see fairies comes close to being realized with these tiny people. Characters with whom we are so familiar soon mingled with us. Tom Sawyer sprawled idly beside his stream, Rip Van Winkle faced his shrewish wife, Ichabod Crane attempted a "pas seul", the headless, but not too much so, horseman, galloped madly away, and Bob Cratchit's wife in her twice-turned gown, but leave in its sixpence worth of ribbons, carried her tiny plum pudding.

Two figurines had special local appeal. — Boston Garden's Swan boat with a full complement of gaily dressed children, and one of personal interest to Winchester. A very well-known Winchester resident, Mr. John Caldwell has recently dismantled the family home in Ipswich and, in the course of so doing, disposed of many family treasures and heir-looms which had accumulated during the generations. One of these was the very old baby carriage which was presented to the Historical Society. And it is this identical carriage which Mr. Baston has reproduced in a charming figurine of a young mother of the period pushing the carriage complete even to the sleeping infant.

These and many others made a charming coterie and one can truly say that everyone present was refreshed by this little excursion into the land of make-believe. Mrs. West, Daniel West's mother, was hostess for the evening and brought a gracious ease to her task. Mrs. Labinger poured and the assistants were Mrs. Samoiloff, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Thomas Worthen, Mrs. Tully, Mrs. Ronald Davis, Mrs. Heseler, Mrs. Hood and Mrs. Robinson.

Miss Jean Farquhar, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Allen Farquhar of Wildwood street, a freshman at Ohio Wesleyan University, has pledged Chi Omega Sorority.

GRANGE ESSAY CONTEST

Winchester Young People Eligible for Prizes up to $1,000.

Clyde Mullen, master of Winchester Grange has announced a nation-wide essay contest on "Conservation Farming for Abundant Living" sponsored by the National Grange and the American Plant Food Council. The contest which commenced with the opening of the new year continues until March 31, 1952, leaving plenty of time for Winchester young people to compete for the State and National prizes totalling $10,000.

All young men and women, regardless of Grange membership, who are not more than 20 years old on March 31, 1952, are eligible to compete. All entries in this area should be sent to the Winchester Subordinate Grange, Masonic Apartments, Winchester.

Essays must not exceed 800 words and may be based on data from textbooks, bulletins, interviews, or personal experience. Entrants are urged to give special consideration to the practical application of the subject to the soils of their communities.

Essays will be judged on the basis of 40 points for practical application of subject matter, 30 points for effectiveness of presentation, 20 points for originality and 10 points for spelling, punctuation and grammatical correctness.

For the purpose of the contest the 48 states have been divided into six regions and winners of each region will compete for the six national awards.

Prizes, offered by the American Plant Food Council, are: National, first prize, $1,000; second prize, $500; third prize, $400; fourth, fifth and sixth prizes, each $300; State, first prize, $100; second prize, $50; third prize, $25.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan is chairman of the National Board of Judges.

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY MUSIC

The orchestra of the First Congregational Church presented an enjoyable program of Eighteenth Century Music in the Social Hall on the evening of February 6th.

They recreated somewhat the informal atmosphere in which much of this music was originally presented, by sitting around the piano near the lighted fireplace, with candlelight, tapestries and rugs.

Herbert F. Clement of Winchester, a brilliant conductor who has been leading the orchestra for three years, deserves great credit for the success of the evening.

The program was as follows: Minuet from Don Giovanni—Mozart

Minuet from Berenice—Handel

Military Symphony No. 100—Haydn

Andante from the Surprise Symphony—Haydn

Sonata No. 9 for Strings and Piano—Mozart

Gavotte—Gluck

Sonata for Flute, Strings and Piano—Telemann

Sonata No. 15 for Strings and Piano—Mozart

The orchestra members were: violins: Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Carl Thomas, Mrs. George Niles, Miss Natalie Fitch, Mrs. Fry from Belmont, Mrs. Myra Coon. Violas: Mr. Aram Johnian, Miss Helen Goodwin. Cellos: Mrs. Pollock from Belmont, Mr. George Hebb. Flutes: Miss Miriam Parker, Mrs. Charles Kitchen. Clarinets: Mrs. George Burrows. Mrs. Swisher. Trumpets: Mr. Harry Hood. Trombone: Mr. Kelsea Moore. Piano: Mrs. Elmer Cutts. Tympani: Miss Gretchen Luitweiler.

The hall was charmingly decorated, and coffee was served during intermission.

Mrs. Charles E. Greene of 329 Highland avenue was among the eighty alumnae from sixteen states who attended the 36th annual meeting of the Mount Holyoke College Alumnae Council held at the college Feb. 8-10.

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Merry Marthas held their regular monthly meeting on February 6th at the home of Mrs. John Cook, 473 Washington street.

The committee in charge of the food sale that was held at the church on January 27th reported that the event was very successful. After the business delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Cook.

On Tuesday, February 27th, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Henry Clark of 550 Washington street will entertain the group at a "Pot Luck" supper.

The next meeting of the Merry Marthas will be held on March 5th at the home of Mrs. Arthur Govoni, 10 Marion road.

M. S. P. C. A.

On Thursday, February 21st, at 2:30 p.m., the M. S. P. C. A., Winchester Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred Hildreth, 371 Highland avenue. The speaker will be Miss Mildred Donnelly, whose subject is "Humane Education." Members and friends are urged to attend. The subject is an important one, and Miss Donnelly is an authority in this field.

It pays to advertise in The Star.

D. A. R. DANCE

Due to the great success of last year's Spring Formal sponsored by the Committee of Safety Chapter of the D. A. R., of which Mrs. William W. Goodhue is Regent, arrangements are now being made for another colorful party. Requests for tickets are pouring in and a number of dinner parties to precede the dance have already been planned.

Mrs. Charles M. Vanner called a meeting at the home on Monday and initial plans were discussed. Mrs. Hiram F. Moody will again be in charge of tickets and Mrs. Robert W. MacArthur will handle the floor arrangements. Mrs. Frederic W. Wier is in charge of publicity. Music will be by Ruby Newman's Orchestra.

The dance will be held at the Winchester Town Hall on March 29th.

STAFF AND KEY

Tickets are now on sale for the Staff and Key production, "A Waltz Dream", an operetta by Oscar Straus to be presented on March 7 and 8 in the W. H. S. Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Proceeds will be donated to the Home for Aged People in Winchester and tickets which are all reserved, may be obtained by calling Ruth Hilton, Winchester 6-0975.

Marjorie McGaw, corresponding secretary is in charge of assigning tickets to subscribing members and preferences will be filled in the order of their reception at 33 Lloyd street, Winchester.

TO AID HOMEFRONTERS

The Columbus Ladies Club of Winchester is giving the proceeds of its Mardi Gras Dance, to be held at Columbus Hall on Raymond place Saturday evening, February 23, to the Home Fronters, a recently formed organization of Winchester women whose purpose is to remember the local boys and girls in service at Christmas and at other special occasions during the year. The Columbus Club runs this dance annually on the last Saturday before Lent, and ordinarily run it with no idea of making a profit. This year, however, with the proceeds benefitting the Home Fronters the committee in charge of arrangements hopes that the town generally will back the Club's effort to turn over a sizeable sum to such a worthy cause.

Miss Marie Vozzella, recording secretary of the Columbus Club is in charge of reservations for the dance, at which the wearing of costumes is optional.

The Case of the Confused Eavesdropper

Off in the corner of the local station I saw a couple of girls chatting. I heard one say: "I sometimes think my harness could be improved."

And the other said: "These new bindings I understand are terrific."

"What kind of wax do you use?"

Neither one seemed to be paying any attention to what the other was saying. And yet they seemed to understand each other perfectly.

Slightly puzzled, I moved closer—pretending to read my paper. This stalking attack brought me right up beside them just in time to hear:

"Personally, I still get all snarled up, on the toe."

They laughed and I missed the next remark... leaving me completely mystified when one said:

"The good thing about the train is that you just stack 'em and that's that!"

"Yeah, what's more, there's something about 'e train that makes the whole 'ay perfect."

"Last year I met a boy—smooth-looking, really sharp—only he got away!"

"Well next week it ought to be fun!"

Suddenly I realized they weren't talking about a toe but a tow—not floor wax but ski wax—and that harness and bindings were ski equipment.

I realized they were two of the hundreds of people who find the B and M Snow Train the best way to have a day of fun and outdoor relaxation.

How smart can a Wife get?

"... I don't know ... but my wife can sure spot a bargain. She knows most people earn nearly twice as much today as they did in 1940. But she also says all her costs are up. Most things she buys for the family cost 2 or 3 times as much as they did then ... but not our telephone. Telephone rates in Massachusetts are up on an average of only 17% (less than 1/5). So she figures—the telephone bill takes a smaller proportion of my paycheck than it did in 1940. And she's right!"

IT'S A BARGAIN THAT'S GROWING BIGGER

There are twice as many telephones today as there were in 1940 and more are being installed every day. There are a lot of new stores and businesses that you can reach by telephone—probably more of your friends have telephones now. And service is faster, better and more dependable.

Your telephone is truly Big in Value—Little in Cost.

PARKHURST FATHERS' NIGHT

On Wednesday, February 6th the Mothers' Association held their annual Fathers' Night which proved to be very successful and well attended. Mrs. George Herick presided over the evening with a welcome to all the parents and ordered the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Mrs. William J. O'Malley. Mrs. Robert Lowry gave the treasurer's report.

The theme of the assembly this year was a program of entertainment put on by the children from the second through the sixth grades.

The School Band conducted by Mr. Fred Felmet and accompanied by Miss Norissa Dunnington, opened the evening with the playing of "America," one verse of which was a special rendition by Billy Sibley on the Baritone Horn. Dick Scott playing the Trombone and Doug Scott, the Cornet. Individual members of the band entertained with the following numbers:

Tennessee Waltz - Dick Scott
Stars of the Summer Night - on the Trombone Ave Maria - Entire Band
Doug Kirkwood on the Clarinet

Skaters Waltz - Leonard Mead and Carol Fisher on the Saxophone
Susan Black and Richard Roberts on the Clarinet

Slowpoke - Leonard Mead on the Saxophone
Marine Hymn - entire band with specialties by James Downes and Doug Kirkwood on the Clarinet

David Burke on the drum
The second grade under the able direction of Miss Savard and the leadership of Daniel Barnard formed a rhythm band for the playing of "Amariyalli."

Mrs. Wiggert's class of third graders gathered on the platform in glee club formation with Robert Orr, the announcer and sang: "French Market" which included a special quartet made up of Jane O'Malley, Jeanne Wilson, Steven Wilson, and Richard Siders. For encloses they sang "Cousin Michael" with solos by Martha Wood and Floyd Horn and a very entertaining song called the "Echo."

Mr. Alfred Meurling then took over the entertainment and organized the fourth graders in square dances running off in rapid succession the Sicilian Circle and Round the Town. The fifth and sixth graders combined to square dance the Red River Valley, Grapevine Twist, Odd Couple to Center, and Texas Star.

Light refreshments were served the children to complete the evening's entertainment.

Have you tried the new Mystik cloth tape 25 and 50 cents a roll on sale at Wilson The Stationer, Star Building, 3 Church street.

ROY S. HILTON FEATURED
(From the Pittsburgh Press
January 27, 1952)
"Since 1928, when he joined the faculty at Carnegie Institute of Technology, Roy Hilton has gained a reputation as one of Pittsburgh's outstanding artists. Boston-born Mr. Hilton has taken Pittsburgh to his heart, spent many hours getting this city's scenes on canvas. He figures that about 10 per cent of his paintings have a Pittsburgh theme, the one selected for to-day's "Portfolio" is called "Stormy Avenue." Residents of Squirrel Hill should recognize it quickly as the corner of Burlington road and Murray avenue. In working out this canvas, Mr. Hilton visited the spot a number of times on rainy evenings. He took notes on the lights and reflections and other details, then returned home to turn these notes into a work of art and in this painting, as well as all his others, he has paid strict attention to composition and design, come up with a three dimensional effect.
Mr. Hilton's paintings can be found all over the U. S. He did two murals for the post office at Westfield, New Jersey, another for the post office at Rye, Mount, Va.
He will exhibit in this year's Associated Artists of Pittsburgh show and he has been invited to exhibit in a show at Denys Museum and at the University of Illinois. Mr. Hilton is the son of Mrs. Irwin Hilton of Myrtle street and lived in this town as a boy.

COMMUTER BECAME ILL
Last Thursday shortly after noon a man approached Officer Alfred Poole in the Center and asked to be directed to a doctor, stating he had become ill while riding on a bus through town.
Officer Poole directed the man to the nearby office of Dr. Harry Benson, and the latter, after a brief examination, ordered his removal at once to the Winchester Hospital because of a heart attack. Officer Clarence Dunbury drove the man to the hospital in the Police ambulance.
The sufferer gave his name as Joseph P. Shay, 160 Elm street, Greenfield, and the authorities there were asked to notify his family of his illness. The Greenfield authorities reported that the address given by Shay was the Franklin County Jail, from which the man had been released the previous Saturday after serving 30 days on a vagrancy charge.
The Winchester Police were also informed that the name Shay is an alias used by the man, who they learned, often poses as a war veteran, though the Greenfield authorities can find no record of war service.
In view of the information received, the man was removed Friday from the Winchester Hospital to the State Hospital at Tewksbury.

WINCHESTER STUDENTS IN WINTER CARNIVAL
Three Winchester students at Bates College were active planners for the 32nd annual Winter Carnival on the campus last weekend.
Neil Borden, Jr., son of Professor and Mrs. Neil H. Borden of 150 Highland avenue, worked on the decorations committee for the "Flametasia" Carnival Hop.
Sue Ordway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Ordway of 95 High street, starred as skating soloist in the annual ice show. Miss Ordway, a member of the freshman class, graduated last June from Winchester High where she was active on the school paper staff, in National Honor Society, and athletics.
David Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Wright of 14 Mystic Valley Parkway, has charge of chaperones for the Carnival. A sophomore at Bates, he is studying for the B. S. degree and graduated in 1950 from Winchester High where he was active in athletics and treasurer of the Art Club.

WINCHESTER EDUCATORS AT CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT MEETINGS
Winchester's schools were well represented at the meetings of the seventh annual convention of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development of the National Education Association, held this week in Boston. More than two thousand superintendents, principals, supervisors, and teachers from all parts of the United States and several other countries were in attendance.
Mrs. Sara C. Woodward, member of the school committee, served with a panel on professional growth, discussing ways and means of improving human relationships in the classroom, among teachers, and between teachers and the community. Mrs. Woodward reports that it was inspiring and instructive to share views on educational problems with such a splendid group of school people. On Tuesday members of her discussion group, from such widely separated regions as Canada, India, Texas, and Michigan, came to Winchester to visit the Mystic, Wyman, and Parkhurst schools.
Other representatives of the Winchester schools attending sessions of the convention were: Superintendent Forbes H. Norris; Miss Marian E. Phipps, reading consultant; principals Mabel C. Lowry, Raymond J. Dickman, Joseph C. Porter, and Mr. David F. Kotkov of the high school faculty.

W. H. S. HOCKEY TEAM WON
Winchester High School won its third game of the season last Sunday when it defeated the Charlestown Hockey Club 4-2 at Lynn.
The Indians fought hard to win this one, and were playing much older boys than themselves. Bill Sipp made 17 saves in the goal and Zimmerman and McLeod shone on defense, with C. McLaughlin, R. MacKenzie and W. Cowles taking the forward honors. In a game February 3 the squad won from the Kirkland House of Harvard 7-3 with Charlie McLaughlin and Woody Giacalone getting two goals apiece.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS
On Thursday morning, February 7 the American Home Group of the Fortnightly met at the home of Mrs. Hiram Moody. Many members accepted the warm hospitality of Mrs. Moody's home on this stormy snowy day. After a delicious morning coffee we all assembled in the living room to hear Mrs. Greta Kittell give an informative talk on the "Psychology of Color."
She stated that the trend of color changes with the years. Nowadays more attention is given to cheerful colors in the kitchen especially since so many hours are spent there. Various colors should be well scrutinized under electric lights before using them in decorating the home. Dark colors are used to reduce the size of a room. Accents of red bring vibrant tones to a room. In choosing colors for wearing apparel remember that different colors denote different moods. Gray is the most restful color. Bright colors are more youthful whereas the subdued ones are for more matured persons. Shades of lavender, violet or purple are sophisticated colors and are always adaptable regardless of age, skin coloring or hair tones.
Sunday, February 11, the Fortnightly held its regular meeting in the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Hiscoe, called the meeting to order at 2:09 p. m. After a short business meeting Mrs. Hiscoe presented Fire Chief Callahan. He told about the sale of highly inflammable sweaters in and around Winchester and showed some samples. He then demonstrated just how inflammable they were by setting a small fire to them. If anyone suspects that they might possess any of these sweaters please notify the Fire Department. The Business meeting was closed.
Mrs. Hiscoe then presented the Dramatics Chairman, Mrs. Henry Hill. She told something of the program in store for them and then introduced and presented an orchid bouquet to Mrs. Carolyn Draper Gilpatrick, author of the play "Sandra Speaks" to be presented.
The hall was practically filled and everyone was patiently awaiting the performance. After a little struggle with the screens that were used for curtains, the performance began. The scene opened with Grandmother Rollins primly dressed in black, sitting in her living room busily knitting, while her daughter Laura paced the floor looking for the postman to bring her a letter from her son. The one act play concerned the women in the life of 24 year old Richard who is away at Training Camp. The cast was well chosen - Mrs. Forbes Norris as the doting mother; Mrs. John B. Wills as the domineering Grandmother; Mrs. Erskine Kelley as Richard's new young wife, determined to be independent of the wealthy family; and Mrs. William A. Frizzell as the frightened maid, were all excellent in their various roles. We are indebted to Mouradians for the lovely oriental rug and hanging used in the living room. Mrs. Hill, the coach of the play deserves much credit for the success of the performance as well as filling in for a reader. She surprised and delighted her audience after the play with several excellent readings. The scene in the negro dialect were extremely humorous. And who could forget the "Parsons Prayer". The consensus of opinion was that more club talent should be used. A perfect day ended with ice cream and homemade cookies being served by Mrs. Edward A. Bartlett and their committee.

In response to a report that two windows had been broken at the Smith in house on Myopia Hill road, Officer James Flaherty investigated last Sunday. He found two small panes of glass broken in the front of the house and 42 panes of glass broken in the garage.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL PROGRESS BULLETIN
Pardon our appearance, while we dig in on the final lap of our enlarged hospital. This will be the most inconvenient stage of our work, as old walls and floors are ripped apart. Punching holes through the concrete is noisy because it must be done with a pneumatic drill. Sweep as constantly as we do, dust still flies from breaking plaster. It is the hope that if developments are described in this brief bulletin, understanding will lessen the annoyance, if not the confusion.
The new wing is all in use with the exception of the operating and delivery rooms. These cannot be moved until the new central supply room, being constructed not in the site of the old kitchen, is finished; otherwise, there would be no sterile supplies. In this same area, the corridor has been dug up to lay new soil lines. The old nurses' dining room is being remodeled for office space. When this is ready, the offices will be moved and the lobby area turned over to the contractor.
The lobby is being enlarged and redecorated. The old laboratory, accident and fracture rooms, which are now shambles, will be reconstructed into the new X-ray suite. Our present X-ray department will then be converted into office space and will also contain the new Winston Club Coffee Shop.
On the second floor, the former male and female wards are being completely rebuilt into nurseries. The will be three regular nurseries of twelve babies each, isolation nursery and a premature nursery. The nurseries are being equipped with new bassinets which permit an improved technique in the care of the babies. Nurseries will all have forced ventilation.
The private obstetrical unit has been moved temporarily into the new wing while alterations take place. When these rooms are re-finished, the patients will be moved back.
At the present time we are handicapped by having only one elevator in operation. As soon as construction in the elevator machine room and in the shaft is completed, the old elevator will be put back into operation.
We are now using the new accident and fracture rooms and our new ambulance entrance is to be walled up to leave Wedge Pond on Saturday. All our supplies are now being received through the loading platform on Valley road. It is good to get this traffic away from the front of the hospital.
The next move will be the vacating of the south wing on the third floor. This is dependent on patients' discharges. These rooms will be completely redecorated and lavatories installed. Incidentally, all the patients' rooms in the old building will be done over and will have "Fabron," a washable paper, on the walls.
To our friends, patients, personnel, visitors and doctors—We say "Thanks for your Patience." We hope to be completely finished by the first of summer.

PATRICK H. CROUGHWELL

A close friend of the late Contractor James J. Fitzgerald, who worked as a young man for him in several capacities, but on April 1, 1907, he entered the employ of the Health Department, remaining continuous with the Department until his retirement October 1, 1944.

During his years of service Mr. Croughwell saw the motorizing of the Department and many changes in garbage disposal. He was during his final years foreman of the department with supervision over the horses and trucks.

Mr. Croughwell was a frequent contributor to the Star, his letters, largely on town affairs or early history of the community being widely read and generally enjoyed. Always pointed, his words, spoken or written, were spiced with a ready wit that robbed them of any sting.

On July 2, 1893, Mr. Croughwell married Harriet A. Stewart, who died December 13, 1935. He leaves three daughters, Miss Mary J. Crawford and Mrs. George Young of Winchester, Mrs. Alfred White of Woburn; three grandchildren, Alfred, Harriet and Mary White; and two brothers, Edward, of Williamsville, Vt., and John Crawford, of Chicago, Illinois.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed when the Star went to press. Tentative plans have been made for Monday morning from the Lane Funeral Home, with requiem mass at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Visiting hours at the Lane Funeral Home will be Saturday and Sunday afternoons, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 o'clock.

4-H CLUBBERS, HONORED BY STAMP, LEARN BEST WAYS TO DO FARM WORK

Since the Children's Crusade set out to free Jerusalem from infidels, the world has seen many youth movements. None has quite lived in a class with America's 4-H Clubs, whose 50th birthday is commemorated on a new postage stamp, says the National Geographic Society.

At Springfield, Ohio, on January 15, this 8-cent stamp special delivery size, makes its first appearance. It shows a farm scene, a teen age boy and girl, the four-leaf clover symbol of 4-H, and the motto, "Make the Best Bet."

The first 4-H Club was organized in the Springfield region on January 15, 1902.

From that start the Clubs have increased to nearly 90,000. Today now count more than two million active members — boys and girls between 10 and 21. In a half century they have trained more than 15 million American youngsters.

By Act of Congress, 4-H youth training is placed under the Department of Agriculture. It is supervised by the land grant colleges' extension services and some 9,000 county agricultural agents and demonstration agents in all the States. Nearly 300,000 men and women serve without pay in leading the various types of 4-H Club activities.

Support comes also from a growing list of corporations and individual donors. They give awards ranging from scholarships, breeding stock, and farm implements to gold medals, cash prizes, and free trips to fairs and 4-H conventions.

When a boy or girl joins a club, he pledges: "My head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, my health to better living, for my club, my community, and my country." These are the four H's — one for each leaf of the clover symbol.

A new member chooses one or more projects for his training job. Girls often select baking, canning, sewing, or home furnishing. A boy or girl may raise a garden, a field crop, or start with a calf, pig, or lamb, or a flock of poultry. Still others choose forestry, dairying, soil conservation, wildlife protection, and many other activities.

Volunteer leaders help members to carry through their projects, to think logically, to speak in public, and enter contests for prizes. At State fairs 4-H work has become a top farm exhibit. On many State fair grounds, 4-H members have their own exhibit building.

Soil erosion control is a steady job for farm boys, its value fully recognized in recent years. From almost every State come reports of 4-H boys who have ditched, terraced, laid drainpipes, and leveled fields to grass, filled up gullies, and built ponds and dams.

How to protect wildlife is one of the main courses taught at 4-H camps. Conservation work ranges from hawk and owl banding to quail. It includes learning what wild creatures—even hawks, gulls, foxes, and snakes — do more good than harm. Campers learn how to plant trees, put out forest fires, or to leave bits of crops unharvested or a fence row uncleared as cover, food, and protection for small wild animals and game birds.

Rat-killing is an important farm job that is rewarded with worthwhile prizes. Rats eat about 200 million bushels of grain a year in the United States.

Each June, groups of 4-H youngsters visit Washington to see the Government at work. Some camp beside the Potomac, others stop at Washington hotels. Many have their pictures taken with the President. One of their chief sightseeing objectives is the Agriculture Research Center at near-by Beltsville, Maryland, where some of the most scientific farm adventures in the country are constantly in progress.

DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Theodore C. Browne, newly elected president of the Winchester District Nursing Association, presided at the first 1952 meeting of the new board, held last Friday morning in the General Assembly room of the Town Hall.

Mrs. Doris Wiklund, executive director, reported the association off to an excellent start for the new year, with an increase of 19 calls over the same period last year — this increase also showing in the number of full pay calls. During January, the nurses made 415 visits.

New members named to the hospital committee, under Mrs. Guy Livingston, vice president, will be Mrs. Arthur Cameron, Mrs. Russell Symmes, Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth, and Mrs. George L. Connor.

In March, the board will visit the office at 549 Main street for a regular meeting and an opportunity to see the working of the staff, the new equipment, and the various materials kept there.

BARNES ON WAY HOME

Pfc. J. Stanley Barnes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes of Canterbury road, was one of 58 New England soldiers to land Wednesday in Seattle, Wash., a year to the day he left Winchester. Strangely enough, he also returned aboard the same ship on which he shipped out for Korea, the Navy Transport M. M. Patrick.

Pfc. Barnes, with 32 other soldiers from New England, is flying to Boston, from where he will go directly to Fort Devens. After two days there he will return home for a 30 day furlough.

Chidley Hall, North Carolina College at Durham, dedicated February 19 in honor of Dr. Howard J. Chidley.

COLLEGE HONORS DR. CHIDLEY

Dr. Chidley was Chairman of the Board of Trustees of North Carolina College at Durham, N. C., for thirteen years previous to its being taken over by the State of North Carolina.

The college is a straight Grade "A" academic institution, unlike certain other colleges for colored people in the South, where academic studies merely supplement training for certain trades, or for agricultural life.

Due to its being a purely academic college, North Carolina College has trained men and women for the various professions, especially teaching in colored schools, which were sadly in need of such. The impact of these graduates upon their own race in North Carolina and other southern states has been phenomenal. It has also been a strong buttress against the spread of Communism among negroes of the South.

Dr. Chidley has been connected with the college, especially during the presidency of the late Dr. James E. Shepard, for nearly 40 years. During that time he has given a series of lectures to the students each year. Friends of the college in the First Congregational Church have been unusually generous in their financial aid to needy students.

Chidley Hall is the only building on the campus named after a non-resident of North Carolina. The present Board of Trustees, composed of colored and white citizens of North Carolina, voted unanimously: "To name the new dormitory for men 'The Howard J. Chidley Hall,' in honor of Dr. Chidley, who has made a unique contribution to the financial and spiritual needs of the college over many decades."

Response by Dr. Chidley
"Edward Everett Hale once advised the members of a graduating class at Harvard College to join some worthy cause, and grow with it."

"Of all the causes with which I have been connected outside my own profession, North Carolina College has given me the greatest satisfaction."

"Some say the day of miracles is past, but I have seen one happen. The growth of this institution during the forty years I have known it, is nothing short of a miracle. It began as a feeble hope on an ash-heap, and is now a Grade 'A' college."

"It is a monument to the courage and foresight of Dr. James E. Shepard, its founder."

"I am proud of my association with it, and feel greatly honored to have this building bear my name; especially since it is the only one on the campus named after a non-resident of North Carolina."

"The gracious courtesy of the Trustees in so naming it is further evidence of the broadminded spirit of this commonwealth toward all interested in Negro education."

Reception to Chidley
A reception was held for Dr. and Mrs. Chidley in the new hall on the evening of February 19.

MRS. M. JOSEPHINE ARNOLD

Mrs. M. Josephine Arnold, wife of E. Everett Arnold of 15 Chesterford road, died Tuesday afternoon, February 19, at her home after an illness that dates from last July. She had been for three weeks in the Winchester Hospital and for another three weeks at the Baker Memorial Hospital during that time.

Mrs. Arnold was the daughter of William and Margaret Wilson. She was born July 9, 1883, in Greenfield and attended the Greenfield schools, following with a business college course in Springfield. She and Mr. Arnold were married in West Roxbury June 22, 1916, moving after their marriage to Rochester, N. Y., when Mr. Arnold, for 40 years associated with Curtis Brothers Company, makers of Blue Label foods, was transferred to territory in New York and Pennsylvania. After 11 years residence in Rochester, the Arnolds moved to Belmont and from that town came to Winchester in 1929.

Mr. Arnold was a former president of the Boston Rotary and Mrs. Arnold was a member of the Ladies of Rotary, more familiarly known as "Rotary Annex." She was also a member of the First Congregational Church and active in the women's organizations of that society. Her husband is her only survivor.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the assistant pastor, Rev. Lawrence Parnsworth Small, and the Rev. Frederick Mooney of the First Universalist Church in Everett, a long time family friend, officiating.

Interment was in the family lot in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Mr. Mooney.

HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Angelina M. Caverly of 9 Wildwood street will have the distinction of observing her one hundredth birthday on Monday, February 25. No general celebration is planned, but there will be a family party in honor of the unusual event.

Mrs. Caverly, widow of Rosslyn Penn Caverly, was born in Boston February 25, 1852. Her husband died in 1926.

After her marriage Mrs. Caverly lived in Chelsea before coming to Winchester in 1915. She was a member and regular attendant of the Unitarian Church while her health would permit and has continued her interest in her church through the years.

Mrs. Caverly's mind is especially clear and she takes a keen interest in the news and the doings of her family. She has five daughters in Winchester, Mrs. Edward H. Hamlin of Pine street, Mrs. Frank T. Olmstead of Madison avenue, Mrs. Charles I. Lampee of Foxcroft road, and Miss Edith, and Miss Flora Caverly, who make their home with their mother. She has also six grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren to add to the family interest.

The Star extends its heartiest congratulations to Mrs. Caverly upon her centennial and joins her many friends in best wishes for her continued happiness.

MRS. CAROLINE JEWETT KELLOGG

Mrs. Caroline Jewett Kellogg of 16 Calumet road died Wednesday evening, February 19, at her home after a long illness.

Daughter of Nathaniel and Caroline (Dunn) Jewett, Mrs. Kellogg was born in East Boston, September 3, 1862. She came to Winchester in 1905 and lived here until her marriage, returning to town in 1927.

Mrs. Kellogg's genuine friendliness was apparent to young and old, and to those in all walks of life. In a quiet way she gave much of herself to everyone. Her courage and cheerful response throughout her life were a help and an inspiration to all who were privileged to know and enjoy her quick mind and zest for living.

She leaves a daughter, Miss Caroline D. Kellogg, and a sister, Miss A. Natalie Jewett, both of Winchester.

Funeral services were conducted at the late residence Thursday afternoon by the Rev. Robert A. Storer and Dr. Robert Cummins. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

BORN

To Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rivinius (Mildred Rogers) a first child and son, Forrest Clinton born January 31st at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Rogers of Winchester and the late Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rivinius.

TRIBUTES TO EDGAR J. RICH AND RALPH T. HALE

The Lincoln Group of Boston held a memorial meeting for Mr. Edgar J. Rich and Mr. Ralph T. Hale in the Edgar J. Rich Room of the public library last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Rich was one of the founders of the Lincoln Group, and Mr. Hale had been a member of the group for several years before he died. The meeting was presided by a luncheon at the Winchester Country Club, at which the members of the Board of Library Trustees and the Chief Librarian were guests. Judge Elvin L. Page of Concord, New Hampshire, Vice-president of the Lincoln Group, presided in the absence of President F. Lauriston Bullard.

Doctor Laurence L. Barber of Arlington read a paper in tribute to Mr. Rich. Mr. Herbert F. Jenkins of Rockland, Massachusetts, paid tribute to his friend of many years, Mr. Ralph T. Hale. Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Hale were both publishers; Mr. Jenkins formerly associated with Little, Brown and Company, and Mr. Hale with the firm of Hale, Cushman and Tate. Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Hale and Company, Judge Page spoke of the part that Mr. Rich played in the founding of the Lincoln Group.

At the request of the group, Miss Corinne Mead, Chief Librarian, told about the arrangement of Mr. Rich's books on the shelves and something of the Lincoln book collection. It is of interest that the books are arranged on the shelves in the order used by Mr. Rich himself in his own catalog.

The Lincoln Group of Boston came into being on Mr. Rich's birthday in 1938 with nineteen Lincolnians present. Four meetings a year are held — two in the autumn and two in the spring. The meeting recently held in the Winchester Public Library was one of the regular meetings. Members in the group come from several of the New England States. At the meeting last Saturday in Winchester, members were present from Maine and New Hampshire, as well as Massachusetts.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson of Utica, New York, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlene Elizabeth to James Richard Livingstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Livingstone, of Chestnut street.

Miss Thompson, who is on the staff of Time Magazine, attended Utica schools and graduated from the New York Institute of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Mr. Livingstone prepared at Winchester schools and New Hampshire School. He was graduated from Syracuse University Class of 1949 and is associated in business with his father. He served with the Navy during World War II.

The wedding will take place in April.

MRS. LOUISE A. KUGLER

CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE

As a candidate for School Committee, I should like to state my qualifications which I hope will speak in my behalf for election to that position.

I attended the public schools of Cincinnati and Hamilton, Ohio, and was graduated from Mt. Holyoke College. Before my marriage, I was a Y. W. C. A. Secretary in the Industrial and Student Departments and for about two years served as Executive Secretary of the Women's City Club of Cincinnati.

I have been a resident of Winchester for twenty-two years and my four children have attended the Winchester schools. Bill graduated from Wesleyan University in '51 and is now in the Army; Dick and Louise graduated from Winchester High School in '48 and '51 respectively. Dick is now a Senior at Amherst College and Louise a Freshman at Mt. Holyoke. Bob attended Mystic School and is now in the seventh grade.

For two years I have been a member of the Board of Directors of the Mt. Holyoke Alumnae Association and have served as member of the boards of the Boston Mt. Holyoke Club and the Metropolitan Student Y. W. C. A.

In Winchester I have been a member of the Girl Scout Council, board member of the College Club, Women's Council and Winchester District Nursing Association. I was President of this last organization for three years and President of the Winchester Community Club for two years.

I am very much interested in the Winchester schools and if elected will try to work thoughtfully and fairly on the School Committee.

FOR SELECTMAN

As a candidate for the office of Selectman in the Town of Winchester I wish to present to you my qualifications.

I am a life-long resident and feel that I have clearly demonstrated my keen and unbiased interest in town government for the betterment of Winchester.

For twenty years I have been a Precinct Member from Precinct 6 and during that time have given freely of my time to serve on various town committees, namely: Finance Committee, 3 years; Recreation Committee; West Side Fire Station Committee; Junior-Senior High School Building Committee. This service, coupled with my association in an advisory way with other town committees, gives me a clear insight into the problems facing our town.

My educational and professional background is as follows: Education: Norwich University, B. S., Boston College Law School, 4 years, currently attending Tufts College Graduate School. Professional: Department head Clark School, Hanover, N. H., Department Head, Faculty Manager Athletics, Wentworth Institute, Intelligence Officer, 315 Bombardment Wing, Guam, Rank — Major.

In addition to my demonstrated interest and experience in town government, I feel my educational and professional background give me the qualifications necessary to serve as a member of the Board of Selectmen. I would bring to the board an open mind, sound judgment, a proven capacity for work and responsibility and independence of thought and action.

I will welcome your support.

PREBLE — CRIMALDI

Of Winchester interest is the marriage which takes place at St. Patrick's Church in Cambridge this morning, February 22, when Miss Josephine Mary Crimaldi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agostino Crimaldi, 100 Marlboro street, Cambridge, will become the bride of Herbert P. Preble, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Preble of Edgell road. Rev. Joseph Sullivan will officiate at the 10 o'clock ceremony and is also to be celebrant of the nuptial mass which follows. The bridal music will be played by John Riley.

Miss Crimaldi will be given in marriage by her father and attended by her three sisters, Miss Irene Crimaldi as honor maid, and Mrs. Julia Hanley and Mrs. Mary Picardi as bridesmaids.

The bride is wearing a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace, her bridal veil being caught to a princess crown trimmed with pearls. Instead of a bouquet she will carry a white prayer book with matching orchid and streamers of stephanotis.

The honor maid will wear a matching braided headpiece and veil. Her bouquet of pink roses will be tied with matching ribbon. The bridesmaids are wearing velvet dresses and headpieces of hunter's green and carrying bouquets of yellow roses.

Edward J. Sweeney will be best man for Mr. Preble, and John Hanley and Michael Picardi, brothers-in-law of the bride, will be ushers. A reception will be held after the marriage at Cabot Farms in Somerville. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Crimaldi, is wearing navy blue lace with a hat of white and white and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Preble, mother of the bridegroom, will wear a navy taffeta with an orchid hat and an orchid corsage.

Mr. Preble and his bride are going to New York, Washington and into Virginia on their honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of Cambridge High and Latin School, Mr. Preble, a veteran of World War II, is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and from Franklin Technical Institute in 1949. He is now associated as an expediter with Photo Switch, Inc., in Cambridge.

MRS. HARRIET MCGURN TANNER

Mrs. Harriet McGurn Tanner, widow of Frederick Tanner and grandmother of Mrs. Chester F. Dyson and Miss Grace Tanner of Kew-Forest, died Thursday afternoon, February 14, at her granddaughters' home, following a long illness.

Mrs. Tanner was the daughter of William and Harriet (Saunders) McGurn. She was born March 5, 1858, in East Boston and was educated in the public schools, spending most of her life in East Boston until coming to Winchester 11 years ago. She was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church in East Boston.

Mrs. Tanner was the mother of the late Elmer F. Tanner, well known holder of ship models, and of the late Louis Tanner. Besides her granddaughters in Winchester she leaves 13 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Myers of Chelsea and Mrs. James Shipley of Los Angeles, Cal.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Moffett Memorial Home with the Rev. Philip Amesbury, rector of St. John's Church, East Boston, officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

HEART FUND LAGS!

With just one week remaining for our Winchester Heart Fund Drive we are far behind the goal set and hoped for by our local Chairman, Mr. Foley and his committee have worked hard to send out the 4,000 letters and to get only 50 have been acknowledged. Sincere thanks to you fine citizens. Films on Heart Education are being shown at our High School and the largest factory Beggs and Cobb, Inc. The Red Hearts are placed in our stores and shops with very poor showings so far.

The Sports Night planned for this month has had to be cancelled and right now it looks as though we will have to have a Heart Parade door to door solicitation the last of this week so Winchester can come up to the surrounding towns in their Heart Fund Drive donations.

Come on lets help out a little — We have done so well on other drives let's not hang our heads as a community on this one — which is so important to all of us — Stop and think — Heart — mine and my children — You just don't know, you may need for yourself the knowledge research can get for you. Your donation no matter how small will help.

Have a Heart and Give to Heart — You will benefit.

Refreshments will be served by Canteen workers under the direction of Mrs. Ray Mauger.

It is hoped that there will be a 100% turnout so that all workers may be well informed before they go forth on March 9th to raise a quota of $22,500, in Winchester.

WALLIS — WARSKY

White gladiolas and narcissus combined with ivy and bride's roses to decorate the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon, February 16, for the marriage of Miss Barbara Anne Warsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis John Warsky of Stowell road to Lt. Lloyd Wallis, USA, son of Mrs. Lloyd Wallis of Everett road, and the late Mr. Wallis. The Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the church, officiated at the 4 o'clock candlelight ceremony, and Miss Grace Norian of Winchester played the bridal music.

Miss Warsky was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white ballerina-length gown, fashioned with a lace bodice, having an illusion neckline, and a nylon net skirt over satin. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a cap of lace and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart and pale pink roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Frank Cowan, Jr., of Newington, Conn., was her sister's only attendant. She wore a pale green ballerina-length dress with a net skirt over satin and a bodice of lace. A net cap and nosegay of violets completed her ensemble.

Todd Wallis of Winchester was best man for his brother, and the ushers were William K. Campbell of Wollaston, Robert P. Kennedy, Jr., of Weymouth, George Milligan, III, of Providence, R. I., and Paul J. Spillane of Roxbury.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting in receiving were the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom, the matron of honor and the best man, Mrs. Warsky, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue silk tulle gown and a white straw hat trimmed with lilacs, matching the flowers of her corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wallis, wore a dress of navy crepe with white felt hat and a corsage of sweet peas.

After a wedding journey to Canada by way of Vermont, Lt. and Mrs. Wallis will make their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., where Lt. Wallis is stationed at Fort Hamilton.

Both the bride and bridegroom graduated from Winchester High School. The bride also graduated from Vermont Junior College in the class of 1950, and Lt. Wallis received his degree a year later from Bowdoin, where he was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

FIRE AND POLICE VACATIONS

Question On Ballot March 3rd

The Board of Selectmen announced this week that it has considered the problem of the additional vacation time which will result if the voters approve the question relative to vacations for police and firemen which will appear on the ballot March 3rd.

The effect of a "yes" vote on this question would be to increase the present annual two weeks vacation with pay for all permanent members of both departments to three weeks vacation after five years service, and four weeks vacation after 10 years' service.

It appears that if these added vacation benefits are approved by the voters, each department concerned will require the full time services of three additional men in order to keep its actual working forces up to strength.

This question will appear on the ballot March 3 because the Selectmen turned down the proposal when it was put to them.

WINCHESTER IN TECH TOURNEY

As the champions of the Middlesex League and because of their record, Winchester or High will be an automatic selection in the B of the Eastern Massachusetts Interscholastic Basketball Tournament. Although the selections have not been announced, it is known that Winchester will play their first game at the Boston Garden on Thursday, March 13, at a time to be announced later. Winchester fans should reserve the date and plan to purchase their tickets locally to be assured of better seats in a compact group rather than be scattered over the spacious Garden.

"THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

The Parish Players of the First Congregational Church, in presenting the second play of the season, scored again in a near professional rendition of that perennial favorite, "The Late Christopher Bean," by Sidney Howard.

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights saw capacity audiences chuckle over the homey humor and typical New England wit that were the more enjoyable because they covered the basic emotions from avarice and love to eating and hen-house patching.

The scene is laid in the Haggitt household in a small New England town. Dr. Haggitt is troubled by non-paying patients and badgered by his wife and his surlous daughter, Ada, who decide that the old man is not providing the means befitting their station. Another daughter, Susan, has no trouble in reconciling her life with that of Warren Creamer, the local house painter, who is about to transfer his talents from house to canvases.

Abby, a family retainer of some years, is the central figure in the funny episode when it is discovered that Christopher Bean, an odd job man befriended by the Haggitts and dead the past ten years, had turned out paintings now discovered by the New York critics to be priceless masterpieces. The plot starts rolling in the frenzied attempts of the family to dig up the canvases that have been kicking around for years and considered worthless, as had been their creator.

The greed and avarice of this small town family is brought to the surface in the attempts made to claim ownership of the few paintings on hand. Abby, who has possession of a portrait, narrowly escapes being balked out of it by the Haggitts. She triumphs, however, at the very end by producing seventeen more Christopher Bean pictures, and she proves ownership by disclosing that she had been married to Christopher Bean before his death.

Janet N. Dalrymple, playing in her fifteenth production with the Parish Players, did an excellent job in the difficult role of Abby. She brought to the part a wistful yet stubborn Yankee loyalty that is torn between the family she has served so long and the memory of her secret husband. A New England tramping was the basis of her characterization which added to her dramatic ability, sharply drew the picture the author had in mind. A fine performance is always expected of this capable actress, and she did not disappoint her fans one whit in this play.

A newcomer to the Players, Ralph A. Warshaw, did a fine job as the hurried Dr. Haggitt, despite the fact that he took over the part after rehearsals were under way. The part calls for almost continuous presence on stage and continuous dialogue for all three acts, and Mr. Warshaw met its demands fully. A light voice not quite in keeping with his stage age was offset by his physical appearance, which made him a believable country doctor beset with money and family troubles which overshadowed his natural kindly tendencies. He was never at a loss, either for words or for bits of stage business, to keep the play moving along.

The impatient and sharp-tongued doctor's wife was played by Bertha K. Blanchard, who elicited most of the real laughs in the three acts, and she threw out her lines in a casual manner that added much to their meaning, a type of delivery that many a professional never seems to achieve. If remarks around the coffee tables count for anything, audiences want to see her in many more plays!

Ada Haggitt, the daughter who saw "a trip to Florida" in the money derived from the sale of the pictures which the Haggitts convinced themselves were theirs, was played by Bettina H. Harrison, also a newcomer to the Players. Her part was hardly a sympathetic one and she did it as the author wrote it, but in a rather staccato fashion that contrasted strangely in a New England household.

Susan Haggitt, played by Judy Brown, and Warren Creamer, played by George S. Hebb, Jr., provided the love interest. Mrs. Brown was definitely a personality on the stage and delivered her lines effectively. Mr. Hebb, with his matter-of-fact love making, really tickled the risibilities of the audience. His scenes with Mrs. Brown greatly added to the enjoyment of the play.

George E. Connor played Rosen, a sharp New York art dealer, with the same smooth ability that he has shown in many other plays. He deliberately underplayed a character that could have become a burlesque in less capable hands.

Tallant, a forger of paintings, was portrayed by Robert P. Blake, who made the most of a part not quite suited to his personality. It called for a city slicker approach which wasn't believable in such a big, honest-looking fellow. However, his third act exit with his forged picture when he saw the jig was up was a skillfully contrived bit of stage business.

Davenport, a New York art critic, was delicately portrayed by John B. MacLellan, whose perfect enunciation and restrained histrionics were a welcome bit in the frenzied actions called for in the other characters.

The stage setting was authentic down to the smallest detail, even the oil paintings that were constantly being handled being originals done for the play by Marilyn Fox. George H. Gowdy was responsible for the single set, a homey pine-paneled living room. The installation of eight new "baby spotlights" by Kendall H. Spencer, staff electrician, was a splendid addition to the whole play, giving better, more diffused lighting and a softer effect to the stage and make-up.

Production was under the direction of Mrs. George E. Connor, whose obviously hard-working staff rolled the play along without a hitch.

Harlan F. Grant directed, and the results of his labor were evident to the very responsive audience.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club met on Wednesday evening, February 13, in the Parish Hall of the Church of the Epiphany. A delightful coffee hour in charge of Mrs. Henry C. Marcionette and her committee preceded the meeting. Mrs. Alexander M. Clark, Mrs. Don S. Greer and Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood poured.

Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, president of the club, presided and welcomed the members, their husbands and guests to a meeting of wide interest.

Mrs. Muriel S. Barnes, program chairman, introduced the speakers, the first of whom was Mrs. Raymond Wheeler of Malden, Vice Chairman of the Republican State Committee. Mrs. Wheeler reported on her recent trip to San Francisco, where she attended the meeting of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs.

Daniel Tyler, Jr., the next speaker, as chairman of the Republican State Committee, brought a timely explanation to the Club of the coming primary in Massachusetts, a new plan that the Republicans have completed to assure a state ticket with a wide voter appeal and outstanding candidates chosen by the people. A task of great magnitude lies ahead of the Massachusetts Republicans. Fifty thousand workers will be needed in the state, one worker for every fifty voters, to call personally on voters and sell the candidates to the people. By May the Republicans must raise $750,000, an investment insurance to provide for the future stability of our country. Pausing to attack the present wastefulness in the Commonwealth, Mr. Tyler reminded the audience that state indebtedness has increased in seven years from $6,000,000 to an all time high of $400,000,000 under the present democratic administration and that in a similar period the number of state employees has jumped from 19,000 to 43,000.

Mr. Tyler then outlined the coming primary convention in this state. For example, on April 29 in Winchester 35 members will be elected for a new Republican Town Committee. Four delegates and two alternates will be chosen from this committee to attend the primary convention held in Worcester on June 27. The number of delegates at the convention will be arrived at on the basis of one person, man and woman alternating, for every thousand Republicans who voted for governor in the last election. The assembly will then name and endorse the state ticket.

Completing the program with an observance of Lincoln's birthday Senator Edward C. Stone, distinguished Lincoln scholar, gave a most engrossing talk on Lincoln. The years have seen Lincoln grow to even greater stature. Of his place in history there are many estimates. Most interesting is the statement of H. G. Wells, who places Lincoln with the six great men of history besides Jesus, Buddha, and Aristotle.

CUB PACK SEVEN NEWS

A Blue and Gold Banquet was held at the First Baptist Church, on the evening of February 13th in observance of the founding of Boy Scouts of America. The banquet committee comprising Mrs. Robert Low, Mrs. G. W. Handy, Mrs. E. H. Kelley, Mrs. C. R. Joyce, Mrs. A. Korwach, Mrs. S. P. Bingham and Mrs. E. G. Jones gave the 125 Cubs and parents present a very delicious chicken dinner. Rev. Walter L. Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the invocation.

The banquet was followed by an induction ceremony at which William Vincent and John Parsons were welcomed into the Pack. The tribal fire around which the Cubs were gathered to welcome their new companions was also the scene of another ceremony. Cubs Steve Tucker and Chris King were graduated from the Cubs into Boy Scouts. Dr. Robert Millican, former Scoutmaster of Troop Seven, welcomed them into Scouts and told them of the fun and adventure ahead of them. Mr. F. P. Curtis, committeeman in charge of advancement, made the following awards:

A skit of a radio broadcast with microphone and all was presented by Mrs. King's Den Seven. Cub Bruce Bonnell announced the musical selections played by Chris King, Donald Farnham, Robert Fallows and Steven Tucker.

The climax of the meeting was a talk by Mr. Earl Haney, alias "Cactus Duke," in which he told of his experiences as a cowboy in the West. Mr. Haney, who is now a resident of Winchester, showed the Cubs the six shooter, bull whip, cowboy boots and other equipment he used when riding the range. He also explained to the Cubs the correct way to mount a horse, hold a gun and handle a bull whip.

DEAN APPEL TO SPEAK AT EPIPHANY

On Tuesday, February 26, the Very Reverend Jesse K. Appel will address the Tuesday Evening Group at the Parish House of the Epiphany Church at 1:30 p.m. Women from other Parishes have been invited to come to hear this distinguished speaker, and anyone who is interested in the work of the Church in Brazil is also invited to attend.

The Very Reverend Jesse K. Appel, Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Porto Alegre, Southern Brazil, and a native of that country, will be the guest of the Diocese of Massachusetts February 22-29, during his six-weeks visit to this country for engagements in eleven Episcopal Dioceses from New York to Arizona. On account of Dean Appel's great ability as a speaker, and the fact that Brazil is the missions study topic this winter for all Protestant denominations, he has come North by request of the Episcopal National Council to give church people of a wide area the rapidly expanding church work in the vast areas of Brazil.

Dean Appel speaks English fluently, though Portuguese is the language of Brazil, as he studied for three years and graduated in 1933 from the Virginia Theological Seminary. He has passed all of his ministry in Brazil after ordination to the priesthood in 1933, first in Rosario, then as rector of the Church of the Nazarene in Livramento, a frontier cattle town, and for the past fifteen years in Porto Alegre, a leading city with a population of half a million. In addition to pastoral duties, Dean Appel teaches Greek in the Theological Seminary of Porto Alegre.

More people would probably have died in one fell swoop on Tuesday afternoon had there been a fire at the Winchester Hospital than have died in all the years of the grade crossing in Winchester. Firemen are unanimous in stating that the press of cars on Highland avenue would have prevented getting apparatus and needed equipment to the hospital, had the building been afire, and getting a fire truck into any of the side streets around the hospital would have been virtually impossible. A house that caught fire in the neighborhood of the hospital Tuesday afternoon would have been definitely out of luck just because of the curiosity seekers who hastened to get as near the hospital as possible just as soon as the fire alarm was identified. The Star also heard that the hospital phones were so jammed with calls during the time of the supposed fire that had it been necessary to get an emergency call in or out, the call could not have been made. There is of course no way to prevent the curious from calling a hospital or other public institution in the event of supposed disaster, though it would appear that any one with adult intelligence should know better than to do so unless the call be absolutely necessary. There should, however, be some way to prevent motorists from threatening the lives and safety of the public in the event of fire, and if there are not new necessary regulations on the statute books, they ought to be placed there at once. How would we all feel if our fine hospital had been reduced by a flame Tuesday, with the loss of many or most of the patients, simply because curiosity seekers prevented the firemen from getting near enough to the building to put out the fire and save the inmates?

THE GRADE CROSSING ARTICLE

Editor of the Star:
Because of a vast amount of misinformation widely circulated throughout the town, and a complete lack of dependable information regarding the elevated railroad — "coming very soon" — with a 24 feet high road bed — 7 feet wide — wall or something — with a temporary track on one side or the other — Common or Thompson street — with a cost of 2 million — 3 million — 4 million or not one cent to the Town," etc., etc.

Because of this confusion a group of women greatly interested in, and gravely concerned over the prospect, decided that they want to know — the real facts, and want all other residents and tax payers to know the real facts.

Consequently the following article, sponsored by representatives from all sections of the Town, was inserted in the warrant:

"To see if the Town will vote to request the Selectmen to suspend further promotion of the elimination of the grade crossing by the proposed overhead railroad until a report of progress to date, including plans and detailed statement of costs to the Town has been approved by the Town.

Also: To see if the Town will take any other action pertaining to the elimination of the grade crossing at this time."

FIRE BOX NUMBERS SHOULD BE PRIVATE!

Editor of the Star:
When the Fire Whistle blows everyone I'm sure is curious as to where the fire is. In Winchester they can look up the box number and hurry off to the excitement.

By the grace of God the alarm on Tuesday afternoon at the Winchester Hospital was false.

Picture the terrible tragedy if a real fire was going, and all streets a hopeless tangle of hundreds of cars blocking off all possibility of getting fire fighting and rescue equipment to a burning hospital.

Box numbers should be changed at once and the new numbers made confidential to the few people in town that are needed at the scene.

As a matter of fact those same few people could have a windshield sticker so police would pass them — and divert all other cars at least 2 blocks in all directions.

R. M. Johnson

SOCIAL SECURITY

Wage earners and self-employed persons planning to retire this year under the new Social Security Act should promptly get in touch with the local Social Security Administration field office at 2 Trowbridge street, Cambridge, James T. Phelan, manager, announced today. Because of the nature of certain changes in the law, it is important that those persons know how they may be affected by them before actually retiring.

"Those who retire before July 1, 1952, will not qualify for the maximum benefit except in rare cases," he declared. "And only in a few instances can the $80 monthly benefit be paid before January 1953. This is the main reason why those planning retirement this year should seek advice early."

The maximum retirement payment under the new formula is $80 a month and the minimum is $20 monthly — depending on the average monthly earnings.

"Beginning April 1952, two new factors enter the old-age and survivors insurance picture," Mr. Phelan said. "One, the new formula for figuring benefits may be used for the first time. And secondly, those aged persons whose work came under social security for the first time beginning January 1951 may, by April, have enough credits to qualify them for benefits."

The manager pointed out that beginning January 1951 regularly employed domestic and farm workers, many self-employed persons, and others were brought under the provisions of this Federal insurance system for the first time in its history.

The Cambridge field office is open from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., Mondays through Fridays. Booklets explaining the new law are available upon request.

AUXILIARY POLICE NOTES

Since the beginning of World War II, when the original Civilian Defense program originated, the Auxiliary Police have been particularly active in Winchester.

During the war this group was particularly noted for their volunteer work in guarding our reservoirs and water supply at night against possible sabotage. At the close of hostilities, a nucleus of original members continued to hold regular meetings at their pistol range, ready and willing to serve the Town, should need arise.

With the coming of peace, their duties divided, they began to handle the crowds at football games, assisting the police at Halloween, and doing traffic duty on such occasions as Winchester's Centennial celebration.

Now, however, with the reactivation of Civilian Defense, the people of Winchester should be proud to know that their Auxiliary Police are expanding their membership, and have been invited to join the ranks of the auxiliary force since early last summer. Training is under the direction of Sergeant Bowler, who has recently completed a course at the National Police Academy. His direction and guidance will develop an auxiliary force well prepared to cope with any need.

Meetings are held weekly at the pistol range, and should any able bodied citizen desire to join this active group, he is invited to call. In addition Langell got off on two good solo rushes down the rink but was unable to beat Halloran, the Camp Parker goalie. Bob Mills and Roy Morson carried on two occasions but had the misfortune to hit the outside of the post each time. The same fate plagued Bob Cox on a fine solo effort. Truly Halloran was the star for the losers in this game.

EISENHOWER FOR PRESIDENT CLUB OF WINCHESTER

The Sponsoring Committee of the Eisenhower For President Club of Winchester, met at the home of Mrs. William C. Cusack, 322, on Tuesday, February 12, 1952. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the organizational plans of the Eisenhower forces in this area, and to map out future policies designed to get out the vote for "Ike" and for the delegates who are supporting him at the Republican National Convention. The names of the officers of the Club were announced as follows: Robert T. Pritchard, Chairman; Mrs. William Cusack, Vice-Chairman; Donald Puffer, Secretary; and F. Lee Foster, Treasurer. Club Headquarters have been set up at the home of Mrs. Cusack, 322, on Tuesday, February 12, 1952, and will be opened about March first. According to Eisenhower State Headquarters in Boston, the Winchester Eisenhower Club was the first formed in the state.

The Sponsoring Members attending the meeting were: Thomas L. Morison, James Novell, Harrison F. Lyman, Jr., William J. Speers, Jr., E. Ober Priddy, W. Allan Wilde, Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, Mrs. Philip Woodward, and Mrs. Alexander M. Clark.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The monthly Bridge and Whist Party of the Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, February 25 at the Legion Home. Every member is urged to attend and bring three other players or more. These parties are for our most important work, the Rehabilitation Program and we need funds to keep this going. We have more parties and entertainment for the Bedford Hospital planned for this year than ever before as this project is vitally needed for our Veterans. Give us your support and show the Chairman, Barbara Murphy, that we all appreciate her efforts and work.

St. Patrick's Day Dance on Saturday evening March 15, at the Legion Home — remember the date.

D. A. R. DANCE

The Spring formal Dance sponsored by the Committee of Safety Chapter of the D. A. R. will be held on March 29th at the Winchester Town Hall.

JOSHUA WHATMOUGH
TO ATTEND MEETING IN PARIS

Joshua Whatmough, Professor of Comparative Philology at Harvard University, plans to leave Cambridge on Wednesday, February 20 to attend the second meeting of the International Council for Philosophy and Humanistic Studies in Paris. He will return to Harvard on Tuesday, February 26.

In Paris, Professor Whatmough will join Professor Joseph Vendryes of the Sorbonne in representing the Permanent International Committee of Linguists at the Council sessions on February 22-25.

The Council, which is associated with UNESCO, will survey work carried on in the fields of philosophy and humanistic studies since its last meeting in 1949, and will make plans for further international cooperation during the next three years. The question of creating a separate International Council for Social Sciences, to include some of the work now sponsored by the International Council for Philosophy and Humanistic Studies, will be discussed.

HOCKEY CLUB WON

In a game featuring close covering and tight defense Winchester Hockey Club was never in danger in defeating Camp Parker last Sunday night at the North Shore Sports Center, Lynn. The widest element of the evening was the severe storm of near-hurricane force which raged outside, keeping the attendance down to the point of decimation. It was a good thing that a few hardy souls from Winchester present in addition to the players, among them our former teammate, Wimpy Burnett, lately nominated College Star-of-the-Week for his brilliant play for Boston College.

Don Armstrong, Texas bound with the Army, missed the local lineup. Allie Power contributed the major part of the scoring for Winchester. He notched goals in each of the first two periods, both unassisted. Bob Byrne caged the local third on Leo Williams' rebound also in the second period. Camp Parker's lone tally came near the end of the game when they gangbanged the Winchester net, Lawrence scoring unassisted.

Scott Connor gave another excellent performance in the Winchester net and had victory of a shutout until the scramble near the end. Don Ellis was everywhere on the ice, doing everything a defenseman should do faultlessly for almost the entire game. Don Langell and Leo Williams assisted him ably. In addition Langell got off on two good solo rushes down the rink but was unable to beat Halloran, the Camp Parker goalie. Bob Mills and Roy Morson carried on two occasions but had the misfortune to hit the outside of the post each time. The same fate plagued Bob Cox on a fine solo effort. Truly Halloran was the star for the losers in this game.

COUNTRY CLUB WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

Mrs. G. O. Farrar, Mrs. E. T. Penbody, Mrs. C. D. Baldwin, Mrs. R. Fisher, Mrs. R. F. McTigue, Mrs. S. Pond, Mrs. J. S. Donnell, Mrs. L. Scott, Mrs. H. A. McGrath, Mrs. D. F. Connors, Mrs. R. S. Fish were hostesses for the luncheon on February 19 of the Winchester Country Club Women's Bowling League. Very attractive sunglasses, donated by Mr. Roger McTigue as a door prize for the day, were won, and modeled by a most attractive recipient, Mrs. D. Connors. Other door prizes went to Mrs. R. Harlow and Mrs. G. Connor.

The biggest prize of all, first place in the 1951-1952 Bowling League, went to Team 5, namely, Mrs. F. L. Pittman, Mrs. J. I. Lynch, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. J. Lane, Mrs. M. R. Clark and Mrs. C. W. Birch. Finishing in second place, after a slow, steady, determined and noisy climb, were the members of Team 14 consisting of Mrs. J. R. Ghirardini, Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Mrs. P. Bugbee, Mrs. F. R. Creelman, Mrs. V. A. Wolf and Mrs. W. M. Selberg. Teams 2 and 13, will have to wait on February 25 to determine third place standing in the League.

Plans are coming along nicely for the Championship Tournament which starts March 11 at Strike Lanes. All women members of Winchester Country Club are eligible and more entries are needed so if you like to bowl you are urged to join. Call Strike Lanes for full information.

OPTOMETRIST
NATIONAL BANK BLDG.
13 CHURCH STREET
WINCHESTER, MASS.
Winchester 6-1021 mal-14

Mr. Warren E. Branch is the first team manager to be announced by the Little League Board of Directors. He will manage one of the four Little League teams of the 1952 Winchester League.

Warren Branch of Middlesex street is well qualified for this position and has shown considerable interest in the young people of the town as well as in the general welfare of Winchester. He was chairman of the Town Recreation Committee when that committee was combined with the Park Department, he is an ex-manager of the Sachems Basketball team, he has played in the Town softball league and at present he is a member of the Finance Committee. While in Wakefield High School he played baseball and hockey and continued his baseball after high school as a semi-professional with the Wakefield team.

The next Little League meeting will be held Monday, February 25th, at the home of Vice-President, Edward Cullen, 233 Mystic Valley Parkway.

GIRLS LOSE AT CONWAY

WHS's girls' basketball team was defeated by a strong Kennett High team 55-46 at Conway, N. H., Saturday afternoon. Kennett had a record of thirteen victories and no defeats going into the game, compared to Winchester's record of five wins and one defeat. Sonny Smith played best game of the season, scoring twenty-nine points. The New Hampshireites took a quick 7-0 lead in the opening minutes of the first quarter but Winchester fought back with sixteen points to fall one basket short of Kennett's eighteen points.

In the second quarter both teams' offensive attacks bogged down, Winchester tying the game up 24-24 by scoring eight points while Kennett was held to six.

Kennett took a three point lead in the third quarter, racking up seventeen points to the locals' thirteen. The Conway girls wrapped up the game in the final period with fifteen points as Winchester found the range for only nine points.

Both teams played good ball from start to finish. Kennett's extra experience and sharp shooting told the difference between the two teams.

The official had a busy day, calling forty-three fouls. The locals were hindered in the fourth quarter as three of their starters left via the foul route. Winchester had a hard time at the foul line converting only six shots out of twenty-four attempts.

Which is the wisest way?

Quite frequently some one asks us if it is the better part of wisdom to you possibly can by making regular deposits in a bank account before accumulate the money for something you want to buy and pay cash for it, or to borrow the money and pay off the loan in monthly installments. Naturally, the more interest you are obliged to pay on borrowed money, the greater the cost. So by all means set aside all you make your purchase. To those people who would rather enjoy the use of the article before they have the full purchase price, our advice is to pay down as much as you can whenever you make a substantial purchase, and finance the balance with a low-cost loan at our bank.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday Services at 11 a.m.

Sunday School is held at the same hour.

Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p.m.

Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace off Thompson Street. Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The distinction which Christian Science makes between the false mortal so-called mind and the true divine Mind, God, which alone confers intelligence, harmony and healing power, will be made plain at Christian Science services this Sunday. Title of the Lesson-Sermon is "Mind."

The healing power of divine Mind will be illustrated by the following Bible story which is included in the Lesson-Sermon: "And he which had the dropsy, and Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go."

This corresponding passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be read: "Disease is less than mind, and mind can control it."

The Golden Text is from Romans 12:2 "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

MRS. ELIZABETH THERESA CHAMBERLAND

Mrs. Elizabeth Theresa Chamberland, wife of Lawrence E. Chamberland, died suddenly in her sleep Wednesday night, February 20, at her home, 21 Nelson street. She was in her 39th year.

Her husband was the daughter of the late James and Alice (McCauley) Cox. She was born in Woburn October 15, 1913, and graduated from St. Charles High School in 1933, being a member of St. Charles Alumnae and of St. Mary's Sodality in Winchester.

On November 1, 1935, she married Mr. Chamberland, who survives, with a daughter, Nancy, and two sisters, Mrs. James Flavin of Norwood and Mrs. Walter McPartlin of Woburn.

The funeral will be from the Cox Funeral Home on Highland street in Woburn at 10:30 Saturday morning, February 23, with solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's Church at 11:30 o'clock. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

Friday visiting hours are from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 10 p.m.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR PATRICK H. CRAUGHWELL

The funeral of Patrick H. Craughwell, retired employee of the Department of Public Health and home resident of Winchester, will be held at the Lane Funeral Home on Monday morning during the terrific snowstorm.

A requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church by the pastor, Rev. John P. O'Riordan, who eulogized Mr. Craughwell as a lover and faithful servant of his church, country and town. Representatives of the town government were present at the mass with friends of the deceased in all walks of life.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery where the committal prayers were read by Father O'Riordan.

CULLEN NEW AUDITOR

The Board of Selectmen at its meeting Monday evening appointed James P. Cullen of 66 Salem street town auditor for a three-year term.

The vacancy caused by the recent resignation of Mrs. Helen Walters.

Mr. Cullen is 42 years old and a native of Winchester, a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1928, and of the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance. He is married and has five children.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Stabile, Jr. (Eleanor Buttner) of 66 Yale street announce the birth of a son, Mark Buttner Stabile, on February 17, 1952, at the Lawrence Memorial Hospital, their fourth child and third son. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Stabile of Medford and Mr. Michael J. Buttner of Hingham.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

On February 13 before a large audience of parents and school-mates the pupils of Mr. Nault's fifth grade presented an assembly commemorating two famous birthdays, those of Abraham Lincoln and St. Valentine.

A play in four acts depicting the life of Lincoln was presented first. Act I showed the boy Lincoln in his log cabin composing a verse; in Act II we saw how Lincoln got his name "Honest Abe," when he walked six miles to return six cents to their owner. Act III, entitled "Lincoln, the Kindhearted," showed Lincoln saving a guard from being shot for neglect of duty. The sad theme of Act IV was Lincoln's death.

The pupils in the play were: Sandy Campbell as Abe Lincoln, Ann Neville as his stepmother, Doug Thomson as Tom Lincoln, Bruce Bonnell as his stepbrother, Connie Marshall and Dorothy Chapman as the step-sisters, Chris King and Linda Maroney as the "boys," Roger Mitchell, Debby Whittaker, Jean Withers, Michael Brink, Anthony Albani, Tommy Black, Nancy Anderson, Mary Moore, and Robert Hodges. The part of Tom Lincoln was played by David Bates; "a boy and girl of today" were acted by Diana Kirkwood and Vandy French. The inspiring Gettysburg Address was recited by Tammy MacFarlane.

Another episode in the assembly was a Parade of February Birthdays with Susan Goodwin as Thomas Edison, Donald Butters as Buffalo Bill, and Judy Davis as St. Valentine. Incidents in Washington's life were described by Russ Anderson, Sandra Bruno, Linda Watkins, and Sharon Nyere.

As a conclusion to their program the entire class joined in chorus to sing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," accompanied by Mrs. Donovan at the piano.

Hi Moody of Moody Motors, Winchester's Cadillac and Pontiac dealers, is flying to Tampa and Sarasota March 3rd. Hi will get some inside information on the coming baseball season and spend a week with his friend Ted Williams.

"SIGHT UNSEEN"
The well-filled high school auditorium rocked with laughter and applause on Saturday evening as the action of "Sight Unseen," the Junior-Senior class play, unfolded. It was apparent that both the cast and the audience found the hilarious scenes of the Foster and Law comedy much to their liking, but to the credit of all concerned be it said that the farcical elements of the play were never permitted to become unmanageable. In this reviewer's opinion the cast handled the action between the living and ghostly actors with considerable skill.

The action of the play is in the great hall of Barnsley, an ancient English manor house which has belonged to the Elliot family for three hundred years. Declining revenues and increasing taxation have forced Lady Judith, the last of the Elliots, to offer Barnsley for sale, but the efforts of her ghostly ancestors have so far discouraged all prospective buyers. The charming though often frustrated Lady Judith was splendidly played by Carole Ambrose, who performed in spite of an attack of laryngitis. Aiding Judith in her attempts to dispose of the estate was her devoted fiancé, Archy Andrews. Steve Yale, who portrayed this stuffy, undernourished Britisher, successfully caught the clipped inflections of an upper class Englishman.

As the play begins, the antics of a ghoulish servant of the Elliot family, the dim-witted stable boy Mat, have discouraged Miss Potter from purchasing Barnsley for a girls' school. Deborah Fish was properly schoolmarmish in her part, while Sam Rocey, as the speechless Mat, stole his share of scenes with his clever stage business. The long-suffering and unpaid but faithful maid, Etta, was well played by Maureen Dee.

The news that Mrs. Millicent Malone, an American doughnut tycoon interested in physical research, is coming to inspect Barnsley arouses Judith's hopes but it shocks her spectral ancestors into taking drastic steps. Their refusal to materialize to the satisfaction of the dynamic Mrs. Malone, expertly played by Sona Norian, is the basis for most of the action of the play. Sona's conduct of the scene episode will be long remembered, especially her exhortation, "Just imagine you're floating in an ocean of warm mineral oil."

As the male lead, Earl Carrier plays Henry Malone, scientist-nephew of the irrepressible doughnut maker, Earl, who will be remembered for his "Death" in last year's production of "Death Takes a Holiday," handled his part skillfully, being in turn sceptical, baffled, and infuriated.

It is doubtful if the high school stage has ever seen a more engaging collection of ghosts than appeared in "Sight Unseen." Richard Rush portrayed the role of the bombastic Brigadier General Sir Thomas Elliot, late of the army of Charles I. His wonderful gusto, Janet Archibald, as the imperious Lady Hortense, was a perfect example of a regal Elizabethan lady; while Carolyn Buracker was the lovely Lady Penelope, an impulsive beauty from the gay Restoration court. The hilarious bit part of Bloating Hawk, a supernatural Indian, was played by George Gange.

Though dramatic interest was well-maintained throughout, the spirited scene in the third act when the ghosts finally materialized in order to save their mistress' happiness was easily the high point of the play.

Mr. Thomas Morse, play director, should be commended on the high degree of excellence attained in this production. The cast showed evidence of careful coaching in their stage presence, their clarity of speech, and in the grouping of the scenes.

"Sight Unseen" was produced by special permission of Walter Baker and Company.
Important in the production of the play were the following:
Script Girl - Diane Greer
Asst. Script Girl - Catherine Goss Stage Crew
Paul Leverette, Stage Manager
Philip Ives
John Everett

TEACHERS' VALENTINE PARTY
Classrooms problems were forgotten for a few hours on February 13, as members of the Winchester Teachers' Club and their wives or husbands enjoyed a Valentine Party sponsored by the faculty of the high school. The festivities began with a piping hot supper served in the high school cafeteria to over 30 persons under the capable supervision of Gladys Niven. An ample supply of delicious cakes was provided by members of the Club from each school building. The gay Valentine decorations prepared by Pauline Goodrich brought color and life to the cafeteria.

When the dessert and coffee were finished, the party moved to the assembly hall for an evening dedicated to Eros, Venus, St. Valentine, and kindred spirits. Barbershop melodies sung by the "Passionate Pedagogues," Frank Weaver, Gardner Handy, Jacob Mosser, and Henry Fitts, assisted by Charlotte LeClaire, Barbara Sipp, and Richard Ulin, besting a quintet consisting of Ann Dolan, Francis Finigan, Janet Greeno, Margaret Millican, and George Snyder. The wise and witty quiz master was "Socrates" Will Skerry, who electrified his audience with a magnificent address in Latin.

Then came the piece de resistance of the evening, a one act play, "He Ain't Done Right by Nell," directed by Henry Fitts. The cast of characters in this never-to-be-forgotten drama of villainy thwarted and love triumphed included: Lenna Travis, LeClaire, Barbara Sipp, and Richard Ulin, besting a quintet consisting of Ann Dolan, Francis Finigan, Janet Greeno, Margaret Millican, and George Snyder. The wise and witty quiz master was "Socrates" Will Skerry, who electrified his audience with a magnificent address in Latin.

Lincoln School Briefs
A recent snowstorm was much enjoyed by the pupils of Mrs. Buckley's grades 1 and 2, and to show it the youngsters made up their own poem about snowflakes. Here it is:
"The Snowflakes"
"The snowflakes are falling fast,
Perhaps the snowflakes will not last.
They fall on the trees and grass,
Over the rooftops they pass.
The snow is falling fast, fast, fast.
The kindergarten children have been busy learning about our Winchester Helpers. In that connection they all enjoyed a film about "The Fireman." On another day the children put crumbs and bird seed out for the birds. Still another recent winter activity was a popcorn party with the youngsters helping pop corn over a fire in the kindergarten fireplace.

Mrs. McDonald's fourth grade class has been studying the making of glass slides. Recently they looked at the slides on Switzerland made by a previous class, and now they are planning to make some of their own.
Pupils of the fifth grade have written "get well" notes to Miss Mitchell, their teacher, who has just returned from the hospital.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
The women of Winchester are again reminded of it. World Day of Prayer service to be held in the First Baptist Church at 2:30 o'clock on Friday, February 29th. This service with the theme, "Christ, Our Hope," will be observed in 104 countries of the world on this same day, and the women of the Church of the Epiphany, First Baptist, First Congregational, Methodist, New Hope Baptist, Second Congregational and Unitarian churches of Winchester are joining in this service of prayer and meditation.
All women of Winchester are cordially invited to participate.
"More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

Tech. Sgt. Donald F. Rankin, son of Prof. and Mrs. Virgil Rankin of Rangely, returned last week from three years in Japan where he has been serving in the Military Air Transport Service.

Troop 3, Girl Scout Hospital Aides, under the leadership of Mrs. Frank d'Eseaux, will hold its Capping Service on Thursday evening, February 28th, at 8 p.m., at the Nurses Home. There are 22 girls in this group, who have put in long hours to earn their caps. Our sincere congratulations to them for their leader for service already performed. The speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Elsie Cross, instructor in nursing at the Massachusetts General Hospital, whose subject will be, "Nursing as a Career for You."

PHILATHEA MORNING COFFEE
With vivid memories of the inspiring and heartwarming talk given by Gladys Starnett Romeyn at last year's Philathea Valentine Morning Coffee held in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church, a capacity audience gathered there on Valentine morning and, after enjoying a delightful coffee hour, listened raptly to Mrs. Romeyn's presentation of "Sequels," which poignantly and humorously dealt with how each one of us can write the sequel to the four things that befall us all: successes, misfortunes, opportunities and sorrows. Mrs. Romeyn left everyone with a feeling of determination to use "the right kind of ink" in writing our individual sequels.

The gathering was greeted by Mrs. William P. McGuire, President of Philathea.
Thanks and appreciation are particularly due Mrs. Theodore C. Gray and her committee for the beautifully arranged and decorated coffee table and the efficient handling of the serving of so many.

Mrs. Leon E. Leavitt, Chairman of the Philathea Scholarship Fund, wishes to thank all who helped by their presence or labors to make the Morning Coffee a social and financial success.
Mr. Leslie J. Scott, president of the Winchester National Bank, with Mrs. Scott and their sons, Dick and Doug, have been spending the school vacation week at Wentworth, N. H. Mr. Scott announced before leaving town that his skiing would be confined to the lesser slopes of the vicinity.

RED CROSS SPECIAL GIFTS CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

Special Gifts workers under the Chairmanship of Mr. William C. Cusack of 2 Lakeview road have launched the 1952 American Red Cross Campaign in Winchester to spearhead the one-day drive which will take place March ninth.

Mr. Cusack announced today that the following workers have accepted the challenge to raise the larger gifts in advance of the general campaign to raise $22,500.00 in Winchester.

Mrs. Francis E. Booth, Walter H. Birnie, Austin Broadhurst, J. P. Clair, K. F. Cleaves, Joseph Dolben, Mrs. J. J. Gorman, William G. Letts, Laurence K. Hawkins, Gerald Y. Hills, Joseph Lucey, James Nowell, Howard Richardson, Carl G. Richmond, George Saltmarsh, Martin S. Swanson, Charles E. Young, and John C. Willis.

Support for Red Cross is traditional among clergymen. E. Roland Harriman, American Red Cross President, said today, and, therefore, in recognition of the Red Cross service to humanity has designated the weekend of March 1 and 2 as Red Cross Sabbath Sunday. Leaders of Protestant, Catholic and Jewish organizations across the nation have endorsed the annual Red Cross Fund appeal, recognizing the drain on the organization's funds has been great due to its greatly expanded activity brought on by the Korean war and by the defense training program.

Membership in the Red Cross is unlimited and deserves the assistance of every American as an investment in humanity in general and himself in particular. It embraces every color, class or creed. For the Red Cross believes in people. But sick, starving, shocked people cannot subsist on belief alone. They need funds. They need your help.

People helping people — through the Red Cross — thoroughly typifies what is done by Disaster Services in meeting the needs of families affected by a disaster. The American people through their Red Cross provided more than $14,000,000 this past year on one operation to meet the human needs of families who were victims of disaster. Most of the 300 odd disasters that occur annually never hit the headlines, but chapters have acted to see suffering was alleviated.

Conviction Coverage — "Speed" should have particular significance to you for this is the manner in which your Disaster Committee acts when disaster strikes.

Over 800,000 certificates in first aid training have been issued since January 1, 1950. People who have been saved from death and years of suffering from injuries through first aid training can never be rewarded.

The fund campaign for 1952 is most important if the Red Cross is to meet vital needs such as:

Services to the Armed Forces and Veterans.
Disaster Services.
Blood for defense and civilian purposes.

Assistance to civil defense preparedness through the training program of first aid, home nursing, nurses' aides, canteen service and water safety.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Monks Cleaners, Expert Cleaning and Dyeing. Also Cold Storage. Regular and DeLuxe Service. 11 Church Street, Winchester 6-2830.

Miss Joan Bledsoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bledsoe of Salisbury street, Miss Elizabeth Carlisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carlisle of Reservoir street, and Miss Cynthia Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Loring avenue, are Lesley College girls at home for the mid-winter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Sheppard of New Meadows road were among those particularly interested in the appearance of Marie Jean Laurent on Fred Waring's T-V Show Sunday evening. Miss Laurent's mother, the former Harriet Laurent, had been one of Mrs. Sheppard's teachers at B. M. C. Durfee High in Fall River and the Sheppards knew Marie Jean as a little girl. They had lost track of her while she was studying in Europe and so were doubly interested to hear her sing on the Waring show last Sunday.

Mr. Arthur W. Dean of Yale street was taken ill Saturday and removed to the Winchester Hospital Sunday, where he underwent an operation. Late reports of his condition are that he has somewhat improved.

Welcome news! The Congregational Church clock has been fixed and is reported running again.

Last week Thursday afternoon the Police were notified that several men were drinking and cooking a newly cleaned chicken in the Cross Street Station of the B. & M. The report stated that they had threatened the station agent with violence if he interfered, but the number of the car they were using was given the Police and the men were warned to keep out of Winchester and off railroad property. Officer Thomas Parsons succeeded in locating a twelve year old girl who Police said admitted slashing the porch screens at the Mann home on Fenwick road last week. Her parents were notified and will contact the Manns about restoring their property. Meanwhile Officer Thomas Kennedy found a screen cut on the porch of the Nickerson house on Grove street not far from the scene of the original slashing.

Last week Thursday, Officer Alfred Poole picked up two neighborhood boys after the Police had received a complaint that children were stoning the Wright house on Lloyd street. The boys admitted stoning houses and their parents were notified. They will make restitution for the damage done.

Cabaret Dance, auspices of Emblem Club, Waterfield Hall, Tuesday, February 26, 8-12 p. m. Donehey's Society Orchestra.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Tuesday forenoon the foreman of a crew of State men plowing Cambridge street asked help of the Police Department in getting parked cars off the street so their plows could proceed with the job. Officer Thomas Parsons responded and had several persons remove machines they had parked on Cambridge street.

Upon the complaint of the station agent at Winchester Station last Friday afternoon, Officer Alfred Poole picked up two young Winchester boys who were causing a disturbance there. The boys were taken to headquarters and after a lecture by Chief Harold were sent home.

Mrs. H. D. Likens of 22 Park road is in Barrington, R. I., where she will remain for the next six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson are spending three weeks in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Miss Cynthia Lincoln, a student at Lasell Junior College, is on the Dean's List. Miss Lincoln makes her home at 2 Palmer street.

Shortly after 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Police Headquarters received a complaint about boys snowballing cars on Sheffield West. Officer Edwin Nuntberger responded and picked up two boys living in the vicinity whom he warned of the danger of snowballing automobiles.

All are welcome to the bridge and whist party sponsored by Winchester Council No. 210, K. of C. at Noonan School on Friday, February 29th.

MRS. HELEN MARIE PORTER

Mrs. Helen Marie Porter, wife of William Porter of Bedford road, Woburn, and a native of Winchester, died Thursday, February 14, at the Winchester Hospital after several months illness.

Mrs. Porter was the daughter of Patrick J. and the late Mary J. (Gill) Murphy. She was born in Winchester, May 17, 1911 and attended St. Mary's school and St. Mary's High School. She married Mr. Porter April 19, 1935.

Besides her husband and father, Mrs. Porter leaves a daughter, Jane, a son, Robert; a brother, John Murphy of Melrose; and three sisters, Mrs. Madeleine Hickey, Miss Jane, and Miss Margaret Murphy, all of Winchester.

The funeral was held Monday from the Graham Funeral Home in Woburn, with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Charles Church, Woburn. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

MISS ZINN, MR. FARNSWORTH ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. B. Edward Zinn of Yale street announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Louise, to Mr. Peter V. Farnsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., of Woburn road.

Miss Zinn is attending Simmons College, and Mr. Farnsworth, after service in the Army, is studying at the New England Aircraft School. He is a graduate of Hebron Academy.

A HELPING HAND

A bad fire gutted the house of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Govostes of 54 Nashua street, Woburn, early Tuesday morning, sending three members of the family to the hospital with burns and other injuries as well as depriving the Govostes of their home and personal effects.

One of the Govostes daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Ray, works at Filene's in Winchester and Mrs. Govostes, her mother, is also a part-time employee of the Winchester store. It didn't take long for their store associates to learn of their misfortune and the news spread to Filene's headquarters in Boston, with happy consequences.

As the result of Company action and the generosity of Filene's Winchester employees, the Govostes family received much needed clothing and a substantial purse to assist them in their emergency. It was the nicest sort of silver lining to their particular dark cloud, and doubtless made Mrs. Govostes and Mrs. Ray happy to be associated with Filene's.

DR. CUNNINGHAM ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

Allan R. Cunningham, M. D., of Winchester has been temporarily appointed assistant director of hospitals, survey, and planning for the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. Dr. Cunningham will work with Dr. A. Daniel Rubenstein, Director of the Division of Hospitals in the Division's program to improve hospital facilities throughout the State.

When he joined the State health department in March 1948, Dr. Cunningham served as Chief of the Section of Health Information and school health activities. Since September, 1950, he has been full-time Chief of the School Health Section, Division of Maternal and Child Health.

During Dr. Cunningham's absence from the Division of Maternal and Child Health, the school health program will continue under the guidance of Dr. R. Gerald Rice, Division Director.

UNITARIAN YOUTH

Metcalf Union members will meet at the home of Jack Mills, 86 Lawson road at 6:30 on Sunday evening. Supper will be served. Sherman Russell will speak to the group on the subject of "Hawaii".

Members of the group participated with members of the High School group of the Epiphany church in a splash party at the University Club on Thursday evening.

The Junior High Fellowship is holding a Leap Year Supper Dance in Metcalf Hall on Friday, February 29th from 6:30 to 10:00. Mrs. Eugene P. Newell, advisor, is chairman of the parents committee who will plan the supper. Special dances and games have been arranged by Branch Lovely, director of youth. Linda Nanry, president of the group is in charge of tickets.

EVERETT SMITH RETIRES

At the close of business last Saturday night Everett A. Smith of Winthrop street retired from his position with the Converse Market. He had been with the establishment 47 years, working for Richardson's Market under the late F. D. Richardson and his son, Harris S. Richardson, until April of '51, and since that time until his retirement for the new owner, "Nick" Andon, who changed the name of the business from Richardson's Market to Converse Market, the name under which he had previously conducted his business at the corner of Main street and Converse Place.

A native of Beverly, Mr. Smith worked for a time as a young man for a typewriter exchange in Boston. He came to Winchester in 1898 and entered the employ of J. C. Adams in the latter's grocery store at the site of the present Central Hardware Co. on Mt. Vernon street, then known as Pleasant street.

Mr. Smith before his marriage boarded with Mrs. Warren, first on Main street and later on Vine street. In 1905 he married Mary Boutwell, and since their marriage they have resided in the old Boutwell homestead on Winthrop street.

When F. D. Richardson took over Holbrook's Market in 1904 on a Saturday night, Mr. Smith went to work for him the following Monday, continuing with the Richardson family and son, as long as they conducted the business. He was surely one of the oldest, if not the oldest business man around the center at the time of his retirement, having been a familiar figure since the old days when he drove Richardson's little red pickup wagon with his glossy black horse. He has waited on generations of Richardsons and Converse, and many of the old line families will miss his tall figure and courteous manner when they go to the market to trade.

Mr. Smith has no immediate plans for the future, excepting to take a good rest. All will agree he is deserving of a vacation after his 54 years in the provisions business, not the easiest sort of workday life. The Star extends its best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Smith for a happy future.

CAR BUMPED HOUSE

David N. Dalton, 17, of 12 Richardson street, and William J. Zampell, 16, of 81 Canal street reported to the police shortly after 1 o'clock last Sunday afternoon that the car in which they were riding east on Woodside road had skidded and left the roadway, running into a house. They said the car was registered to Zampell and was being driven by Dalton at the time of the accident.

Chief Charles J. Harrold and Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy investigated the accident and found that the car, a Ford sedan, had gone off the roadway and up an embankment 12 feet high, fifty feet from the road, striking the Straghan House at 12 Woodside road and a tree on the same property, damaging both.

The car was damaged but not disabled and neither boy was injured.

VOTERS OF WINCHESTER

To avoid confusion in the minds of the voters at the polls on Monday, March 3, I wish to state that Mr. George L. Connor of 31 Prospect street is the candidate for Selectman, whose name appears on the ballot this year, and not Mr. George E. Connor of 403 Main street. Many have seemed to confuse the two gentlemen when discussing the Selectmen's contest and it is an effort to clarify the matter that I am making this statement.

VOTERS OF WINCHESTER

I am happy to endorse the candidacy of Mrs. Louise A. Kugler for School Committee.
I believe it is essential to the continued efficiency of our School Committee that our citizens should be represented by two women on the Committee, as has been customary. Through the closer contact which they have with the schools during the years when their children are attending them, most women have an intimate knowledge of school affairs, which is denied to the average man. Mothers get to understand teachers and teachers' problems much better because of those contacts. Therefore, I feel that we need to be represented by women in our School Committee.

By reason of her own educational background, and her close contact with educational and community affairs in Winchester, few women who have volunteered to serve on our School Committee have had better qualifications than Mrs. Kugler now offers. As a former neighbor, I can testify to Mrs. Kugler's genuine interest in the Winchester schools during the past fifteen years, and to her active participation in the affairs of the Parent Teachers Association in the Junior and Senior High Schools.

I urge your support for Mrs. Kugler on Monday next, March 3. Edward J. McDevitt

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Sally Carlisle of Sargent road was guest of honor at a surprise Valentine bridal shower given on February 14 by Mrs. Richard F. MacDowell at the home of Mrs. Richard A. Smith of Jefferson road. Mrs. MacDowell was assisted by her mother, Mrs. James B. Willing. The guests were Mesdames Eben O. Smith of West Medford and Mrs. Gerald Barrett and Miss Dee Barrett were unable to be present. Delicious refreshments were served after the opening of the gifts.

No word has been received as yet from the Tech Tourney officials but Winchester will be an automatic choice. It is expected that the selections and pairings will be announced during the coming week. Save the date of March 13 for the first game and plan to purchase your tickets locally to insure a better choice of seats.

FOR SELECTMAN

As a candidate for the office of Selectman, I ask your support on March 3rd. My qualifications are reviewed briefly below:

RESIDENT of Winchester since six months old. Have two daughters, one in public school, the other will enter next fall.

EDUCATION — Winchester public schools. Graduate of Dartmouth College Thayer School of Engineering.

MILITARY SERVICE — U. S. Coast Guard Reserve. Active duty 1942-1946. District Electrical Engineer while in Alaska. Rank, Lieutenant s. g.

PRESENT OCCUPATION — Engineer and Junior Associate, Charles T. Main, Inc., Industrial Engineers.

CIVIC INTERESTS — Member Junior High School Addition Building Committee 1948; currently on Junior and Senior High School Building Committee; Town Meeting member from Precinct 4 for past three years.

I believe I can bring to the Board administrative ability and judgment which would help to further the good government for which our town has always been known.

PHILIP SHERIDAN LEDUC

Philip Sheridan Leduc of 52 Westover street, West Roxbury, a veteran of World War I and former resident of Winchester, died Monday afternoon, February 25, at the Veterans Hospital in West Roxbury. He had been ill since last August, when he underwent a serious operation.

Mr. Leduc was the son of George D. and Margaret E. (Sheridan) Leduc. He was born August 7, 1897, in Stoneham, but grew up in Winchester, being educated in the Winchester schools and at Winchester High School. While in High School he made the baseball team as a freshman and was known as a capable player, following in the footsteps of his father and his older brother, George, who captained the high school team in 1911.

Mr. Leduc enlisted in the Navy during World War I, entering the service July 3, 1918. He was for several years a member of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion. Plans on the common and public buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

Mr. Leduc had been in the oil business since his release from the Navy, for the past 27 years being associated as salesman with the Esso-Standard Oil Co., first in Worcester and Brockton, and for the past ten years in Boston.

In 1925 he married Theresa Doherty, who survives with a son, Philip, a graduate of George Washington University, now in Government employ in Washington. Also surviving are three sisters, Winifred A. and Mary E., of Winchester, and Mrs. John Gormley of Stoneham; and a brother, George F. Leduc of this town.

The funeral was postponed because of the storm from Thursday to this Friday morning. It is being held from the late residence at 9:15 a. m. with solemn requiem high mass at St. Theresa's Church, West Roxbury, at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in the family lot in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Stoneham.

POLICE AND FIRE VACATIONS

A Statement by the Finance Committee

At the March 3 election the voters of Winchester are being asked to vote YES or NO in answer to the following question: Shall an act passed by the General Court in the year 1949 entitled "An Act relative to the granting of vacations for members of the regular or permanent police and fire forces in certain cities and towns" be accepted. The Finance Committee feels that the facts pertaining to this question should be considered by all voters.

The Act provides that all regular members of the fire and police departments shall be entitled to two weeks vacation with pay after one year of service; three weeks vacation with pay after five years of service and four weeks with pay after ten years of service. At the present time the members of the fire and police departments are entitled to two weeks vacation with pay after one year of service, as well as paid sick leave and retirement benefits.

There are 13 men in the two departments who would receive three weeks vacation and 29 men who would receive four weeks if this act is accepted. The time lost in this way would have to be replaced by employing additional men at an annual cost of approximately $20,000.00. In addition, an Article in the Warrant for the Representative Town Meeting provides an opportunity for the town to extend these same added benefits to all town employees. The total cost of the program would be considerable.

The Finance Committee feels that the town employees already enjoy more liberal vacation and other benefits than many of the town's taxpayers. With a tax rate of $45, or higher already in prospect for 1952, it seems especially unwarranted to place this extra burden on the taxpayers.

O. E. Schaefer, Chairman
Winchester Finance Committee

JOHN H. IRWIN

John H. Irwin, for many years a market gardener in Winchester died Saturday morning, February 23, at his home, 39 Ridge street, after a six months illness. He was in his 82nd year.

Mr. Irwin was the second son of David and Louise (Morrison) Irwin. He was born in Arlington, March 5, 1880 and attended the Arlington schools until the death of his father, when he took over his market garden business. Soon afterward he purchased the 25 acre farm on Ridge street, adjoining the market garden of his brother, where for 58 years he devoted his life to farming and his family. His hobbies were his farm, his horses and hand work. He loved the "good earth" and was happiest when working with it. He was a member of the Middlesex County Farm Bureau.

Mr. Irwin was twice married. On March 19, 1897, he married Margaret Brenton, who died in 1919. Eight of the 12 children born of this union survive, three sons, Richard, John and Charles Irwin, all of Winchester; and five daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Harding, Mrs. Margaret Goodwin and Mrs. Eleanor Spellman, all of Winchester; Mrs. Marion Cook of White Plains, N. Y., and Mrs. Mildred Leavitt of Medford.

In 1940 Mr. Irwin married Julia Dyer, who survives, with a brother, William Irwin of Winchester; 31 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the late residence, with Rev. Milton Schadege, pastor of the Park Avenue Congregational Church in Arlington Heights, officiating. Two favorite hymns, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Abide With Me" were sung during the services. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Arlington.

MRS. DOROTHY S. REDFERN

Mrs. Dorothy Streeter Redfern, wife of Philip T. Redfern of Ravenna, Ohio, formerly of Winchester, died very suddenly following a cerebral hemorrhage in Rio de Janeiro Tuesday, February 25. She and her husband lived on Myrtle street after their marriage for three years, but for the past 20 years have lived in Ravenna, Ohio. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson of Kenwin road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winton of York Village, Maine.

Mrs. Redfern, the former Dorothy Streeter, was a Medford girl and was married in that city to Philip Redfern, a former well-known Winchester boy and member of one of the town's prominent families. She and her husband lived on Myrtle street after their marriage for three years, but for the past 20 years have lived in Ravenna, Ohio. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson of Kenwin road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winton of York Village, Maine.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Redfern leaves two daughters, Mrs. George Matvey of Detroit, Michigan, and Mrs. Herbert McClure of Ravenna, Ohio.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

To Sing at First Baptist Church
Lenten Service

Next Wednesday evening, March 5, the Union Lenten Service will be held at First Baptist Church. The Mystic Glee Club will be special guests at the service and will furnish the music. Their selections will be as follows:

1. "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones" — 17th Century German Melody, arranged by Dr. Archibald T. Davidson, special accompanist.
2. "Bow Down Thine Ear, O Lord" — words from Psalm 86, music by Haydn M. Morgan.
3. "Were You There" — Negro Spiritual, arranged by H. T. Burleigh.
4. "The Creation" — words from Genesis 1: 1-3, music by Willy Richter.

The Reverend John Snook, Jr., Pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will be the preacher. His subject will be: "What is Faith Anyway?"
Wives and families of the Glee Club have been especially invited to attend this service.

FOR SELECTMAN

GEORGE L. CONNOR

I wish to announce to the voters of Winchester that having been an officer in one of the Boston banks for fifteen years and for the past twelve years Treasurer and Manager of the O'Brien Distributing Company in Cambridge, I feel that this financial and business experience qualifies me to serve as a member of the Board of Selectmen.

Since moving to the town of Winchester in 1939, I have been greatly impressed with the sincere interest shown by so many public spirited citizens, who have given unselfishly of their time and effort to the town in the efficient services which we of Winchester all enjoy. I shall welcome this opportunity, as another interested citizen, who has already served on the Finance Committee and is at present a Town Meeting member and a Director of the Winchester Hospital, to represent the people of Winchester as Selectman.

MISS LOFTUS ENGAGED

At a tea at her home in Rangleley, last Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Arthur W. Loftus announced the engagement of her daughter, Mary Virginia to Mr. Jeremiah Eugene Laurenti of Cambridge.

Miss Loftus is a graduate of Winchester High School, Boston City Hospital School of Nursing, and at present is a member of the Nursing Staff at the Winchester Hospital.

Mr. Laurenti is the son of Mrs. Raymond Buonomo of Cambridge. He is a graduate of Rindge Technical High School, the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance, and is continuing his studies at Northeastern University. He served in the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army for three and a half years in the European and African theatres, acting as official interpreter during that time.

A fall wedding is planned.

SINGLE SESSION DAY EXTENDED ONE WEEK

The single session day for the elementary schools will be extended to Friday, March 7. Winchester schools will return to regular two session day on Monday, March 10. Sessions will be 8:45 to 11:45, 1 to 3 p. m.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Winton of Reading are the parents of a son born February 21 at the Winchester Hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson of Kenwin road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winton of York Village, Maine.

Miss Capone attended Winchester schools and is a graduate of Lowell High School and is employed at H. L. Green Co., in Lowell.

Sgt. Cogan attended Winchester schools and is now serving with the 28th Division in Germany.

FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE

EARLE F. LITTLETON

As a candidate for School Committee I should like briefly to state the qualifications that I feel have given me the necessary background to serve the Town constructively. Experience in:

- Teaching, education administration and educational surveys;
- Athletics both as a player and a coach;
- Structural engineering, design and construction.

Interest in Town Affairs:
Cub Scouts Committee Member and Den Leader;
Mystic School Addition Building Committee;
Four children in Winchester schools.

Property Owner and Tax Payer:
I should like the opportunity to serve the Town on the School Committee. I have sufficient time both night and day to give such service if elected.

I will appreciate your vote at the polls, Monday, March 3.
Call Winchester 6-0446 for transportation to the polls.

SELECTMEN EXPLAIN VACATION QUESTION FURTHER

In view of the statement that appeared in the columns of the Star last week that the Selectmen were opposed to the question on the ballot March 3rd which would grant additional paid vacation time to the members of the police and fire departments, the Board of Selectmen has issued further explanation.

In the first place, it is the opinion of the Board that the two weeks' vacation which these men now enjoy is adequate, and that three weeks' vacation after five years, and four weeks' vacation after 10 years of service is an unnecessary expense to the Town, and would give more vacation time than most taxpayers themselves enjoy. This expense for these departments alone could amount to nearly $22,000 annually. In addition the Town would have the services of many men for only 11 months of the year while paying for 12.

In the second place, if this extra vacation extravagance should be voted for these town employees, would not other town employees expect that they in turn should also be given this additional benefit? If this proposal is approved, the actual working time, because of the existing five day week schedule, would be only 240 out of the 365 days in the year.

The vote should consider these facts before voting.
If a majority of the voters vote "Yes" on this question on the ballot, then it is possible that subsequent town meeting action on the article for vacations of all town employees would grant all employees similar vacation benefits.

If the Town granted such super vacation allowance to all its employees, the result would inevitably be a substantial increase in the tax rate.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

To Lt. and Mrs. F. Glenn Hathaway (Jean Clement) a second daughter, Gail Ann, born at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, February 10th. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd S. Clement of 8 Park avenue, Winchester and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hathaway, of Walla Walla, Washington. Mrs. F. S. Clement, of Winchester, is spending three weeks in Silver Spring, Maryland, where the Hathaways now reside.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Capone of Lowell formerly of Winchester announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Louise to Sgt. James Cogan son of Mr. and Mrs. Helen Cogan of Winchester.

Miss Capone attended Winchester schools and is a graduate of Lowell High School and is employed at H. L. Green Co., in Lowell.

Sgt. Cogan attended Winchester schools and is now serving with the 28th Division in Germany.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Tucker (Lillian Murray) of Greenville, South Carolina, announce the birth of a son on February 23. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James F. Murray of Washington street and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tucker of Greenville, South Carolina.

CLARIFICATION OF VACATION QUESTION

A joint committee representing the Police and Fire Departments wish to clarify their position in connection with their request for more liberal vacation periods.

At the Annual Town Election, March 3rd, voters will be asked to express their pleasure on the following: "Shall an Act passed by the General Court in the year nineteen hundred and forty-nine entitled 'An Act relative to the granting of vacations for members of the regular or permanent police and fire forces in certain Cities and Towns' be accepted?"

Few acts concerning Police and Fire Departments have been legalized by this State and accepted by this Town. A more progressive vacation system for Police and Fire Departments would, in our opinion, be most favorable to Winchester. These two departments do not receive any paid holidays, and the holidays thus denied them would approximate the maximum vacation allowed under this bill. This Act has been accepted for State Employees and by many nearby towns and cities. Some towns smaller in size than Winchester have had a more favorable vacation system installed for quite some time.

These vacations can be spread out over the entire year and may not take more than one additional man on each department.

J. JOSEPH TANSEY
FOR SELECTMAN

As a candidate for the office of Selectman in the Town of Winchester I wish to present to you my qualifications.

I am a life-long resident and feel that I have clearly demonstrated my keen and unbiased interest in town government for the betterment of Winchester. For twenty years I have been a Precinct Member from Precinct 6 and during that time have given freely of my time to serve on various town committees, namely: Finance Committee, 3 years; Recreation Committee; West Side Fire Station Committee; Junior-Senior High School Building Committee. This service, coupled with my association in an advisory way with other town committees, gives me a clear insight into the problems facing our town.

My educational and professional background is as follows: Education: Norwich University, B. S., Boston College Law School, 4 years, currently attending Tufts College Graduate School; Professional: Department head, Clark School, Hanover, N. H., Department Head, Faculty Manager Athletics, Wentworth Institute, Intelligence Officer, 315 Bombardment Wing, Guam, Rank: Major.

In addition to my demonstrated interest and experience in town government, I feel my educational and professional background give me the qualifications necessary to serve as a member of the Board of Selectmen. I would bring to the board an open mind, sound judgment, a proved capacity for work and responsibility and independence of thought and action.

I will welcome your support.

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM PROPOSED FOR WINCHESTER

At the annual meeting on March 13 town meeting members will be asked to consider a proposal offered by the School Committee looking toward the establishment of an adult education program in Winchester. As earlier reported in the Star, petitions calling for the creation of such a program were circulated last fall and received a substantial number of signatures. After investigating the conduct of these courses elsewhere and ascertaining their value, the School Committee asked that an article be inserted in the Warrant for consideration at the Annual Representative Town Meeting.

Article 17 reads, in part, "To see if the Town will authorize the School Committee to establish and maintain State-Aided Vocational Education . . ." Though it is referred to as vocational education because of the wording of the state law, the program suggested would also be directed toward what might be called cultural enrichment. If the proposal should be favorably received by the Town Meeting, steps would be taken to set up an adult education program that would meet the requirements of the state for state aid and satisfy the reasonable requests of interested townspeople without unduly burdening the taxpayer.

Though no policies have been adopted regarding the proposed adult education program, the following suggestions may be helpful in visualizing how it might operate.

1. An Advisory Committee would be created to formulate policies with the director and advise the School Committee and the School Department.
2. Courses would be open to all Winchester residents upon payment of a registration fee. Non-residents would be required to pay a larger amount.
3. Students would furnish their own materials.

4. The course would consist of two terms of 10 weeks each, meeting one night per week for a three hour session.

5. Classes would be limited to not less than 10 nor more than 25 students, except in the case of classes in music.

6. Possible courses might be: woodworking, arts and crafts, public speaking, foreign affairs, foreign languages, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, music, physical education, sewing, law for the layman, rug hooking, home nursing, and home gardening.

Investigation has shown that adult education programs are already operating successfully in many communities. The town of Winthrop, for example, maintains the Winthrop Center for Adult Education. Its handbook lists 25 courses, including such areas as English, public speaking, dramatics, history, business, music, psychology, science, mathematics, and industrial arts. Great Neck, Long Island, offers a program of nearly forty courses, ranging from oil painting to securities investment.

It is known that many Winchester people are enrolled in adult education courses in Cambridge, Boston, and elsewhere. Many others would be interested in courses if they were offered in Winchester. It is believed that such a program would constitute a real addition to the town's educational system.

PARENT FACULTY ASSOCIATION CARD PARTY

Final arrangements are being made for the big charity card party in Winchester High School gymnasium March 21. The party is sponsored by the high school Parent-Faculty Association for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. F. D. Hawkins, president of the ticket sales committee for the party, is entertaining the room mothers today (Friday, February 29).

Each of the twenty-three room mothers is being asked to sell at least five tickets. Each ticket will entitle the bearer to a chance to win a government Baby Bond and many other valuable prizes at the party.

Bridge and canasta will be played and refreshments will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiton are co-chairmen of the P. F. A. ways and means committee handling arrangements for the party.

ENJOYED SARGENT CAMP

Agnes Bixler and Hazel Walling, pupils at the Wyman School, and William Harlow, Ronald Parker and Richard Clark, Junior High School pupils, were among the elementary and junior high school boys and girls who enjoyed the facilities of Boston University's Sargent Winter Camp in Peterborough, N. H., during two recent camping periods.

RUGGED WEATHER HERE!

Alaska Veteran Gets Cold in Winchester

Sgt. 1st Class Edward F. Noonan, son of Fire Captain and Mrs. J. Edward Noonan of Holland street, a veteran of 20 months in Alaska where the temperature gets as low as 67 degrees below zero, picked up a cold soon after his arrival home on furlough last Saturday, and being exposed to our "rugged" New England weather.

Sgt. Noonan was attached to the 80th Engineers Battalion, building air fields and doing other types of construction work in Alaska. He was in charge of the battalion's communications.

When Sgt. Noonan left Ladd Field at Fairbanks, Alaska, the temperature was 47 below. He came home by plane from Fairbanks, stopping only at Anchorage in Alaska and at Tacoma, Washington, en route to Westover Field in Chicago.

Though he has received no orders as yet, Sgt. Noonan expects to be assigned to duty at Mineral Springs, Texas, where the temperature will probably rise a bit higher than in Alaska. He expects to be in Winchester for thirty days.

WRIGHT CHOSEN AT BATES

David Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Wright of 14 Mystic Valley Parkway, has been named co-director of publicity for the World Student Service Fund Drive on the Bates College campus, March 3-8. This drive is annually sponsored by the Bates Christian Association. Mr. Wright, a sophomore at Bates, is a 1950 graduate of Winchester High where he was active in sports and treasurer of the Art Club. At Bates he has worked on Outing Club committees and is studying for the B. S. degree.

A resident of Main street near Lawson road called Police Headquarters last Sunday evening, reporting that she believed to be an accident on Main street in front of her home with people in the street calling loudly for an ambulance. Sgt. John Dolan and Officer Henry Dempsey went to the spot indicated in a patrol car, but could find no signs of an accident, beyond some well defined brake marks on the road. A checkup of hospitals disclosed no injured persons admitted following a motor accident in Winchester.

WINCHESTER AT HANOVER SKI SCHOOL

Winchester was well represented at the Hanover Senior Ski School held at the Moolauke Ravine Camp in Warren, N. H., during the vacation.

Those attending were: Anne Marks, Sue Clark, Doug Barnard, Mary Jean Newton, Althea Hersey, Althea Hersey, Stephanie Hersey. The day of the races also saw Winchester out in the fore. Alison Hersey, preferring to race with the boys in the advanced cross country race, won by 1 minute 20 seconds. She also placed second in the downhill and jumping.

Doug Barnard did very well placing fourth in the cross country and fifth in both the downhill and slalom. Stephanie Hersey placed fourth in the slalom and Althea Hersey third in the girls' cross country race.

These results were in the advanced group of 11 boys and 4 girls, all excellent skiers making keen competition.

WINCHESTER, 60; WOBURN, 45

Indians Won Rough Game for 18th Straight

In the roughest game of the season Winchester High overpowered a scrappy Woburn High quintet to win a bruising 60-45 victory at Woburn on the holiday afternoon. A capacity crowd saw a Tech Tourney bound Red and Black quintet maintain its poise and stick to the business of playing basketball in spite of the annoying, over-aggressive tactics of an underdog Tanner team that seemed to feel that its only chance of victory lay in frequent fouling and in an obvious attempt to cause key Indian performers to foul out in retaliation. No less than 28 fouls were called on Woburn as their strategy backfired as they lost three players via the personal foul route and the Indians made good on 22 out of 34 free throws.

The first period was a sizzler as Woburn held leads of 6-2 and 10-5 as the Indians were given very little chance to shoot from the floor. The Indians made good, however, on 8 out of 11 foul shots to establish a slender 14-13 lead at the end of that quarter. The officials had the game under better control by this time and the Indians rang up an 11-4 second quarter to take a 25-17 lead at the half time. Winchester played its best ball of the game in the third quarter as they outscored Woburn by 10 points to run up a 44-26 lead at the three-quarter mark.

With an 18 point lead the final period should have been an easy one for the locals but the driving tactics of the Tanners caused the Indians to lose their poise momentarily and throw the ball away. This gave the Orange and Black several easy baskets and they cut the Winchester lead to 11 points before the Indians settled down to control the ball again. Kerrigan, the Woburn high scorer, netted nine of his 17 points during this stretch as Hawkins had done a good job of holding him in check over the first three periods. Winchester was awarded 13 free throws during this period alone as the Tanners threw all precaution to the winds in an attempt to stage a rally and many a Winchester fan heaved a sigh of relief when the rough game was over with no players seriously hurt.

The Winchester Seconds had an easier time with the Woburn Seconds, winning 62-40 for their seventeenth straight victory of the season. The locals were in command all the way, holding a 40-20 lead at the half and a 54-29 margin at the three-quarter mark. Kit Carleton was the high scorer for the Seconds with 16 points while Dave Pratt was next in line with 11 points.

A Pinehurst man had the doubtful pleasure of paying for towing his automobile from lower Main street to Haggerty's Garage last Friday morning when Superintendent of Streets Jim Wakefield ordered the car moved to facilitate the plowing of the street. The car had been on the road for three days and police say the owner had been notified to move it the day before it was towed away.

A second class proficiency test will be held at Mt. Greylock, North Adams this week-end, March 1 and 2. Interested skiers contact Rolly Nault, Winchester 6-0996-M.

Call Bob Lamson, Winchester 6-2160-R if you wish to sign up for the next inter-club race on Sunday, March 9 at Eastern Slopes.

Want some laughs? Come to the next Chamois meeting, Wednesday, March 5 at 8 o'clock, Chandler's Barn and see the Chamois in action (filmed at Mt. Pero — the first club week-end this year). You'll see plenty of "spills" if you want "thrills" the Chamois film will be followed by "Spring Skiing at Tuckerman's Ravine" — and if it's coffee you want — there's always plenty of that, too. ## SKIING HIGHLIGHTS

Francia was host to Winchester's Chamois Ski Club for their second club week-end of the season, February 22, 23 and 24th. About thirty active Chamois were boarded and bedded at the Cannon Mt. House at Francia, N. H. Skiing was enjoyed on the Cannon Mt. trails and practice slopes and the Mittersill ski area. Ski patrollers Rolly Nault and Jim Greeno were active at Mittersill. Bill Davies took ski lessons from the famous Swiss ski instructor Paul Valar. Imagine Bill's face must have fallen when he was given "hubbly" as an instructor instead of — Paula. Also noticeably active was Commander Crull struggling for Command of the Ravine Trail. On Friday evening in the company of those two internationally-known instructors and racers, Paul and Paula Valar, the Chamois enjoyed the life of Andy Mead Lawrence, "Born to Ski" and Paul's "A Report on Switzerland". Those who took in the Square Dance on Saturday night found Jack Harvey and his harem enjoying the fun — gray blade, that Harvey there he goes — "Swing your partner".

Over the holiday week-end other Chamois skiers were seen at Groton, Amesbury, Horn Pond and were they? — Yes, they were — at North Conway, of course.

Parker Symmes has returned with a million dollar tan from a two weeks' vacation of skiing at Aspen, Colorado. Lucky Parker!

Harry Bean is not so lucky, however. He is still suffering from that injured shoulder which he received while skiing at Intervale a few weeks ago. We missed you at Cannon, Harry, and a little bird over my shoulder, just chirped, "We missed you at Cannon, too", so both East and West and all of us are hoping to see you back on the Slopes real soon.

CURLERS RETURN FROM SCOTLAND

Two Young Cup matches were curled Tuesday. Dick Neiley, with Bill Davis, Larry Fessenden and Rex MacMinn way from Charley Wagborne with Jake Van Vloten, Ralph Bonnell and Jim Scott. Geoff Neiley, with Dan Morse, John Coulson and Bill Fulton just nosed out, by 7 to 6, Howard Etoson with Arthur Butters, Russ Symmes and Larry Burke. The finals of the Young Cup are due to be played next week and it can very easily result in a tie.

Outside activities last week were two rinks to Nashua. These rinks were Wagborne, Bonnell, Dick Neiley and Joy, Skip and MacMinn, Coulson, Morrison and Morse, skip. This week John Joy takes his same rink to the Stockton Cup matches at Brookline.

The two Winchester Curlers, John P. (Shorty) Carr and Howard Etoson have recently returned from their trip to Scotland, with many interesting curling stories and appreciation for the good times and hospitality extended to all the Americans. Both Shorty and Howard were on rinks which won a good majority of their matches. Howard also took the extra trip to Switzerland, where they curled outdoors in sub-zero weather, the way the Winchester Curlers did some years back.

Curling originated in Scotland and is the only modern sport which has come through over 150 years with practically no change in method, rules or sportsmanship. Your reporter saw .55 different Curling Club pins brought back by Shorty Carr and one pin had 1801 as the date of organization.

WOBURN AT WINCHESTER
TONIGHT

Winchester High will complete its schedule tonight at the high school gym when they clash with Woburn High in the second of their annual two-game series. Although the Indians defeated the Tanners at Woburn last Friday afternoon by a score of 60-45, the boys from Woburn figure that they can knock off the locals and spoil their great record. Last Friday's game was the roughest that Winchester fans have seen for years and there is little reason to believe that the Tanners will be any more gentlemanly tonight.

One of the features of the contest will be the battle between the two high scoring centers — Hawkins of Winchester and Kerrigan of Woburn. Both were high scorers for their teams in last week's game with Kerrigan netting 17 points and Hawkins collecting 14 points but having the edge over his opponent in the vital rebounding department. In the preliminary game the Winchester girls' team will play the Richmond (Mass.) High girls' team in what will be the first appearance in many years of a Winchester girls' team in an evening game. COUNTRY CLUB
WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

The true meaning behind the words "I couldn't let my team down" was clearly defined on Tuesday, February 26, by members of Team 13, namely, Mrs. P. Collins, Mrs. F. Lynch, Mrs. E. Garritty, Mrs. J. Graves, Mrs. J. Wallace and Mrs. G. Twombly when they gamely assembled, some leaving sick beds, to bowl the "roll-off" for third position in the Winchester Country Club Women's Bowling League with Team 2 consisting of Mrs. E. French, Mrs. R. Blackler, Mrs. C. Weimer, Mrs. R. Fletcher, Mrs. J. Beale and Mrs. M. Ashley. A large gallery was in attendance and they witnessed some very fine bowling as they watched Team 2 win the coveted spot of third place. Mrs. French bowled her best string of the year with a score of 123 which brought a deserved round of applause.

On March 4 the final luncheon will be held at the Club at which time the prizes will be awarded the winning teams and plans formulated for the coming year.

On March 11 Strike Lanes will sponsor a Championship Tournament for the women of Winchester Academy, through March 25th. Additional information about the scholarship, requirements for admission, and the school itself may also be obtained either from the school, Mr. Arbuckle or Mr. William S. Lippman, 10 Marchant road, Winchester.

One of the country's leading preparatory schools, Williston Academy has an outstanding record for acceptance of its graduates by colleges. A building and remodeling program finished in 1951 has provided the school with completely modernized facilities for the instruction, housing, study and recreation of its enrollment of approximately 250 boys.

Serving with Mr. Arbuckle on the local scholarship committee are Paul S. Deland, Editor, Christian Science Monitor, Boston; William S. Lippman, 10 Marchant road, Winchester; George C. Sweeney, 12 Valentine street, West Newton; Walter W. Blanchfield, This Week Magazine, 2208 John Hancock Building, Boston; James F. Shurtliff, 25 Powder House road, Medford; William Alpert, 1153 Beacon street, Brookline; and Frank Lippman, Jr., 447 Concord avenue, Cambridge.

Last Saturday morning the Fire Department was appealed to in an effort to get a cat down from the roof of the Kirby residence at 13 Harvard street. The service truck with Firemen Henry Heitz and Joseph Donahue got puss down to terra firma, but at the Central Station the impression seemed to be that cat chasing isn't something the Department is going to take on as a regular thing.

WINCHESTER, 77; WINTHROP, 36

The Winchester High basketballers put on one of their best exhibitions of the season in defeating highly touted Wintthrop High 77-36 at the high school gym on Tuesday afternoon. The Tech. Tourney bound Indians were in good form as they worked their offense beautifully, setting up many plays that sent a man in clear to the basket for an easy layup without the Wintthrop defender actually knowing what happened to him. The fact that Wintthrop will also be in the Tech Tournament enhances this decisive Winchester victory and the Wintthrop coach was loud in his praise of the manner in which the locals operated both offensively and defensively.

The first quarter was extremely well played as both teams handled the ball well and made very few mistakes. The Indians came out of that quarter with a 16-10 lead but really put on a polished performance in the second quarter as they outscored Wintthrop 22-6 in that period to take a 38-16 lead at the intermission. The Red and Black continued their mastery over the visitors in the third quarter, outscoring them 20-8 to take a prohibitive 58-24 lead at the three-quarter mark.

Stowell Symmes and Johnny Farrell were the brightest stars for Winchester in this pleasing victory. Symmes was the game's high scorer with 16 points as he was all over the court intercepting passes, leading the Indians' fast break, rebounding strongly and driving in for layups. Farrell was second high scorer with 13 points as he put on a spectacular offensive exhibition while holding the pair of forwards that he guarded in solitary basket. The battle of the centers was interesting to watch as Winchester's Doug Hawkins and Rod Long, combined equally to tally 16 points while limiting Wintthrop's high scoring Steve Miles to 11 points. Because of their excellent play execution the Indians rang up an amazing shooting percentage of 53 percent of their shots as they made good on 31 out of 58 shots at the basket.

The Winchester Seconds completed an undefeated season of 18 straight victories with an easy 67-17 win over the Wintthrop Seconds. The Seconds have now won 38 out of 39 games over the past two years and now appear ready to take over next year for their varsity teammates. In spite of the high score, only Norman Howard hit for double figures with 10 points as the scoring was so well distributed among 12 different scorers.

Williston Academy

ESTABLISHES SCHOLARSHIP

A $1,000-per-year competitive scholarship for boys in the Greater Boston area has been established by Williston Academy, 111-year-old preparatory school for boys in Easthampton, Mass., in cooperation with the Eastern New England Alumni Association of Williston Alumni, it was announced today by Robert Arbuckle chairman of the Eastern New England Regional Scholarship Committee.

The competition for the scholarship is open to all students in the Greater Boston area in the freshman, sophomore and junior years of high school. The award will be made on a basis of scholastic attainment, aptitude, and character as disclosed by personal interviews with candidates, their school records, and the Academy's standard admissions examinations.

Applications from prospective candidates will be received by Mr. Arbuckle, 45 Industrial Place, Newton Upper Falls or by Mr. James H. Shepardson, Registrar, at the Academy, through March 25th. Additional information about the scholarship, requirements for admission, and the school itself may also be obtained either from the school, Mr. Arbuckle or Mr. William S. Lippman, 10 Marchant road, Winchester.

NEW BRIDGE OPENS ROAD TO SOUTHERN PORTUGAL

Completion of one of the longest bridges in Europe, over the Tagus river near Lisbon, opens an easy automobile-truck route to Algarve, Portugal's sunny southern province with its unspoiled beaches that face the Atlantic Ocean on both the south and west.

Portugal has long been popular with British and continental visitors, but the majority have stopped at Lisbon, Porto, Fatima and the resort towns of Estoril and Nazare, all in the north or central part of the country, the National Geographic Society says.

Remotes Neighboring Africa In Algarve, whose people show the racial characteristics of the ancient Moorish invaders, tourists can explore the tile and white-washed towns of Lagos, Portimao, Albufeira, Faro, Olhao and Tavira, that more resemble neighboring Africa than Europe. Algarve is only about 125 miles south of Lisbon, but the disadvantage of crossing the Tagus by ferry or upstream bridges had tended to discourage traffic.

Portugal is the westernmost country in Europe, forming the continent's southwestern corner. Its Atlantic coast runs from north to south for about 350 miles before it turns east at Cape St. Vincent to continue almost 100 miles toward Gibraltar. On the east and north, Portugal adjoins Spain, with the eastern boundary running through rugged mountains about 100 miles inland.

The nation has an area of 35,466 square miles, slightly smaller than Indiana, and a population of nearly 8,500,000. It is the homeland for a considerable colonial empire stretching from the Atlantic to the Far East.

Many Noted Explorers Portugal gave the world such famed navigators and explorers as Ferdinand Magellan, one of whose ships first circled the globe; Bartholomeu Diaz, who doubled the Cape of Good Hope in 1482 to prove the Indian Ocean accessible by sea from Europe; and Pedro Alvares Cabral, who touched Brazil in 1500 and claimed it for the Portuguese king.

The country also is the home of port wine, whose grapes grow on the slopes of the Douro river in the north; of coastal fishing boats whose high, curving prows reveal their Phoenician ancestry; and of plaids woven by the fisherfolk of Nazare, the choicest in bright, bright Scotland's gaudiest tartans.

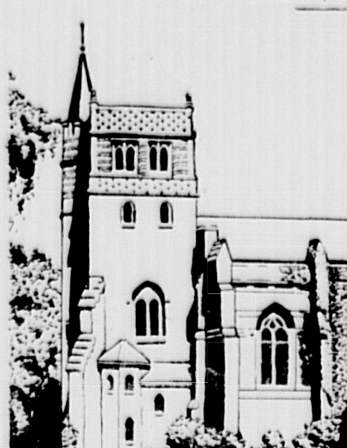

Women in Portugal do their share of the work, and among them are the barefoot fishwives who carry their dripping wares in baskets on their heads. In most baskets among the fish, is a pair of shoes. The law says that shoes must be worn, and while bare feet are more comfortable, it is wise to have footgear available in case the law appears.

Famous Shrine The tiny Portuguese village of Fatima is the home of a shrine marking the spot where three children reported seeing a miraculous vision of the Virgin Mary in 1917. The shrine attracts hundreds of thousands of pilgrims every year.

In Portugal also is found the ancient town of Coimbra, with its 600-year-old university and its streets with unusual names. One is called "The Street of the Confused Palaces."

MARKS 75TH BIRTHDAY OF THE PHONOGRAPH

A revolution is in progress in the science of capturing and reproducing sound.

The year 1952 marks the 75th anniversary of Edison's invention of the phonograph, the National Geographic Society notes. At the same time a spectacular modern sound recording is just coming of age — the magnetic tape.

Plastic or paper tapes coated with magnetic iron oxides — highly "phoned" — now make the master copies for nearly all new phonograph records and motion picture sound tracks. Tape records White House press conferences, takes the station, preserves battle orders in Korea, gives telephone weather forecasts, operates automatic machinery and electronic computers.

Mary's Lamb Grows Up
From Edison's first tin-foil-covered cylinder cranking "Mary had a little lamb," to a newly invented machine which can turn out hundreds of magnetic tape duplicates — the "phonograph" has come a long way. Three-quarters of a century of engineering wizardry has made it indistinguishable from the original.

Alexander Graham Bell, father of the telephone, led his Volta Laboratory associates to the invention of wax records and the first flat phonograph disk. In 1886, Bell received patents for a system of "Recording and Reproducing Sounds by Radiant Energy."

Meanwhile, Emile Berliner, an early associate of Bell's, discovered the advantage of side-to-side rather than up-and-down engraving of the record groove. He invented the modern system of duplicating records. His "Gramophone," patented in 1887, was later purchased by the young Victor Talking Machine Co.

Disk records have evolved today into the slow-turning microgroove "lp" records. So true is their fidelity, in relation to the human ear, that the major recording companies are now reissuing their musical libraries on the new plastic disks.

Magic Wire
While Edison, Bell and Berliner were pioneering in this country, a young Danish engineer named Valdemar Poulsen was developing a machine which could catch and reproduce sound with a magnetized steel wire. At the Paris Exposition in 1900, Poulsen's crude wire-winding "Telegraphone" won the Grand Prix.

The electronic amplifying tube had not yet been invented, however. Both mechanical and magnetic recorders had to wait until the 1920's, and early 1930's for the dawn of the modern age of "electroacoustics."

Germany gave magnetic recording its second major impetus. Gestapo telephone-tapping required the use of portable recorders. Wire and various types of tape were used.

On the heels of V-J Day, American engineers quickly improved on the German wartime tapes. Wire was used widely for a time and it still has many satisfactory applications, but its tendency to snarl, and the difficulty in editing it, soon brought tape to the fore. It was actor Bing Crosby, in 1948, who touched off today's widespread tape recording of network radio shows, hours or even days in advance of broadcast time.

One major disadvantage of tape remained, compared to disk recordings: There was no way to produce copies in quantity without sacrificing the high-fidelity quality of the original.

Late in 1951, however, Dr. Rawdon Smith, Washington, D. C., physicist, demonstrated to the recording industry a new machine which can make unlimited numbers of copies equal or superior to the master tape. The invention, developed jointly with a Chicago engineer, L. S. Toogood, is called "Multitape."

Zanzibar and its neighbor island, Pemba, off Africa's east coast, produce some four-fifths of the world's supply of cloves. One season's crop averages 9,000 tons of the dried spice, says the National Geographic Society.

Men and boys in Yemen, small kingdom at the southern tip of the Arabian peninsula, wear wide belts holding curved daggers. The dagger blades are made from native iron ore which contains a good proportion of manganese, providing an enduring steel that has been famous since early time.

Birds do not usually being incubating their eggs until the full complement has been laid, because otherwise the resulting young would be of different ages and sizes and the larger ones would get all the food, says the National Geographic Society.

CLASS OF '49
We wish to thank the Class of 1949 for their expression of sympathy during the recent bereavement of our son, Bill. We appreciate the flowers and the kind thought that prompted you to send them. We assure you that we shall not soon forget this proof of your wonderful spirit.

Sincerely yours,
The Violante Family

CARD OF THANKS
To that great company of friends and neighbors whose expressions of sympathy have been generously extended to us, we of the family of the late Mrs. George W. Elliott, desire publicly to express our deep appreciation.

ENERGY AND HARD WORK RESTORE FORMER GREATNESS OF ROTTERDAM

The postwar revival of the Netherlands' port city of Rotterdam is inspiring examples of determined rebuilding after war's devastation, the National Geographic Society reports.

The German bombing that leveled the center of Rotterdam on May 14, 1940 — three hours after negotiations for surrender of the city had begun — was one of the horrors of the early part of World War II. Also extremely damaging was the systematic demolition of port facilities carried out by the retreating Nazis just before the end of the war in Europe.

The demolitions left much of the finest harbor equipment — loading barges, floating grain unloaders and floating drydocks — masses of broken concrete and twisted steel.

Almost Completely Rebuilt
Today most of the damage has been repaired. New facilities are more modern and in some cases more numerous than those destroyed.

Rotterdam, however, was also faced with the serious problem of finding use for its rehabilitated port. Before the war a great part of its traffic was cargo transshipment from the Rhine, near whose mouth the city stands. In 1938 Rhine cargo in the port totaled 32 million tons. Now it has shrunk to 14 million.

The city faced this problem with as much determination as it had demolition and bombing. It sought and obtained other trade. Inducements to oil companies and expansion of facilities increased Rotterdam's oil turnover from three million tons annually before the war to nine million tons last year. Gains also were made in general cargo, so that the port is close to its pre-war tonnage and aiming for new high marks.

Rotterdam, like much of the rest of the Netherlands, is at or below sea level, protected by dikes. Much of the modern city rests on polders, land recovered from the ocean. It is one place in the Netherlands where land has been given back to the sea. The Waalhaven, largest dock basin in the world, covers the former polders of Plompert and Robbenoord.

The two districts were sacrificed to the water for a greater port area. Rotterdam, now a city of more than 675,000 population, has caused numerous other villages to disappear as they were absorbed by urban expansion.

Some of these villages were older than Rotterdam, which began in the 12th century as a tiny community on a dike along the Rotte, one of the numerous streams flowing into the network constituting the mouths of the Rhine and the Meuse (Moos).

The rebuilding of Rotterdam is only one of the miracles of reconstruction achieved by the Dutch since the war. Much of the lovely island of Walcheren was flooded with sea water when the Allies were forced to bomb its dikes to flood out German defenders in October, 1944. A few months later, 30,000 acres of Wieringermeer Polder, reclaimed from the IJssel Meer, formerly the Zuider Zee, were flooded by the retreating Germans.

Energetic and resourceful Dutch engineering and labor, aided by Marshall plan materials and dollars, rebuilt the dikes of Walcheren. New processes speeded recovery of the soil from salt water damage. Because the IJssel Meer is protected by dikes and is not as saline as the sea, recovery of Wieringermeer Polder was swift.

SUN AND MOON EACH DIM TWICE IN 1952

Four eclipses will be visible somewhere on earth in the year 1952, two of the sun and two of the moon.

Only one, a partial blackout of the moon on the night of February 10-11, will be seen in the continental United States, the National Geographic Society says.

Another, a solar eclipse on August 20, will barely graze Florida's southern tip. Its extreme northern edge of visibility will give dark-glassed onlookers in Key West a momentary view of a "dentured" sun, as the moon just touches its edge in passing. Along a curving track in South America, from Lima, Peru, to the Uruguay coast, the sun will be blanked out briefly on that day, except for a blazing annulus or ring.

Sudan Expedition
Highlight of the year for the world's astronomers will be a total eclipse of the sun on February 25, visible along a 9,000-mile area across Africa and Asia.

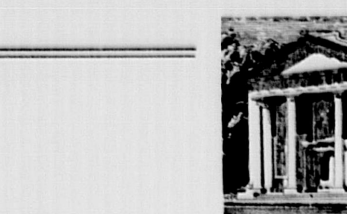

Khartoum in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, near the midpoint of the path of totality, will be the site of separate eclipse studies sponsored by the National Geographic Society, the U. S. Navy and Air Force.

Scientists will set up telescopes, motion picture cameras, and space-wave radio receivers for precise measurements of the sun's spectrum, its corona and chromosphere, and for a reckoning of the famed Einstein Shift — an apparent shift in the position of stars whose light rays pass close to the sun on their way to the earth.

Dr. George Van Biesbroeck, astronomer and physicist of the University of Chicago's Yerkes Observatory and leader of the Society's part in the expedition, will photograph the sun's star field during the eclipse, and the same star field several months later, to determine exactly how much the starlight is bent by the sun.

By such measurements, possible only during total solar eclipses, science gains evidence of space relationships first described by Einstein's theory of relativity.

The sun's disappearance behind the moon February 25 will be visible at least in part over most of Africa, Europe and western Asia. The eclipse begins at sunrise in the Atlantic and ends some five

Moon in Shadow

The partial eclipse of the moon February 10-11 will be visible generally in Asia, the western Indian Ocean, Europe, Africa, the Arctic regions, across the Atlantic to North and South America. It will not be seen in the extreme western and northwestern parts of the United States.

On August 5, the earth's shadow will again cover part of the moon. Out of sight in the United States, this eclipse will sweep from the western Pacific across Australia and southern Asia, eastern Europe and Africa to the eastern half of South America.

1951 Winners in Elks-Auxiliary Police Junior High School Rifle Club. Left to right: Joseph Callahan, P. E. R., Winchester Lodge of Elks; Preston R. Mead, Boys' Trophy Winner; Ralph Schadt, Range Officer, Auxiliary Police; Newell Purington, Exalted Ruler, Winchester Lodge of Elks; George Hendricks, Auxiliary Police; Sally Cunningham, Girls' Trophy Winner; Carl H. Thomas, E. L. K., Winchester Lodge of Elks.

RIFLE CLUB AWARDS

On Friday evening, February 8, at the rifle range of the Winchester Auxiliary Police, awards of brass, medals, and diplomas, were made to members of the Junior High School Rifle Club.

The training and instruction given this group of boys and girls in the care and use of a rifle is under the supervision of the Auxiliary Police, and is according to rules of the N. R. A., of which Mr. Ralph Schadt, range officer of the Auxiliary Police, is a member. Mr. Schadt is assisted by George Hendricks, Walter Steech, Robert Orfutt and George Hamilton.

The Winchester Lodge of Elks is also interested in this project, donating the medals and marksmanship buttons as part of its youth activities program.

The Elks also donated two special trophies, one for top boy and girl of the 1951 season.

These were presented to the winners by P. E. R. Joseph Callahan and Esteemed Loyal Knight Carl H. Thomas of the Elks Youth Activities Committee. Sally Cunningham winning the girls' trophy and Preston R. Mead that for the boys.

The Auxiliary Police cordially invite any of the townspeople to come down to the range on Park street under the Star Office any Friday night and see these boys and girls in action.

Following is a list of those receiving awards.

What Is Lobster O'Neill?

As the King and Queen of crustaceans, Lobster deserves royal treatment—and receives it at Allenhurst, where the Lobster O'Neill was born. For years many people held an unreasoning resentment, even antipathy, toward Le Bel and La Belle Lobster because of the armor, particularly the well sheathed claws. These people (and who doesn't?) loved baked stuffed lobster. It's the alpha and the omega of dining delight.

But the detractors didn't want to clash with those claws, especially in a restaurant where bits of this and that became unguided missiles, however ingenious the tools provided by the management. The result: Spotted suits and, worse, ladies' gowns; embarrassed explanations to the neighboring diners sometimes three tables or booths removed. Sure, Fingerbolls were provided but a nail would have been better.

So these suffering souls, and it's not fair to call them introverts or cowards, sulked and resolutely eschewed the baked stuffed lobster they yearned for in favor of the comparatively harmless lobster salad, fried lobster, lobster stew—all delicious but not the crustacean at its succulent, savory best, to many of us.

And then like the birth of the blues, there burst upon the Allenhurst clientele—Lobster O'Neill. Mine host Sotir C. Adams of Allenhurst will tell you later how it got that name, but this grateful scribe is intent only on recounting how this method of serving the meat from the claws, baked along with the stuffing in the body of the lobster, was released from the bondage of self-denial countless lovers of lobster served in the royal manner.

Why, with Lobster O'Neill, one needs scarcely to lift his knife (they're that tender at Allenhurst), let alone trying to remain suave and sympathetic to your dining companion while he fiddles those cracking and excavating tools of torture that used to be standard equipment.

Now, at long last, we come to the naming of Lobster O'Neill. Here's how Mr. Adams of Allenhurst tells it: John (Tip) O'Neill, now a retired official of the Peabody Electric Light Department and a long-time patron of Allenhurst, gave this delightful variation of baked stuffed lobster the title that is destined to bring him imperishable fame in a detached sort of way.

Our Mr. O'Neill was under even more business pressure than the average person, during the war, because of the nature of his work (and who of us wasn't subjected to some form of nervous tension?), and when he could get away for the occasional luxury of a fine meal, he still had to ration (a familiar word: remember?) his time. So he conferred with the Allenhurst chefs. How could he get a baked stuffed lobster without the time-consuming, patience-exhausting business of cracking the claws, etc., etc.? They suggested the advance removal of the luscious claw meat, and the cooking of it with the rest of the crustacean.

Mr. O'Neill's delight knew no bounds. His enthusiasm was contagious. First his friends, then their friends and families were calling for Lobster O'Neill. Then complete strangers were demanding it, word-of-mouth advertising being what it is.

No man to fly in the face of fate, or to try to bail out the sea with a sieve, Mine Host Adams put "Lobster O'Neill" on the menu. Perhaps it isn't yet a household phrase but if the test of fame is imitation by the competition, it "arrived," in the lexicon of the show world, at least three years ago.

Oh, yes, there's one more thing Adams of Allenhurst wants to make clear, and the word "clear" is used in its literal sense. He did not want to quarrel with him on such matters, only OCEAN CLEAR lobsters, the most select specimens spawned by the sea, can give you truly unforgettable LOBSTER O'NEILL. Of course, only OCEAN CLEAR lobsters are served at Allenhurst.

It's really not fair to dismiss "OCEAN CLEAR" lobsters so lightly, either. Not only are they the best trapped in the cold, crystal waters of the Provinces, but they are kept that way until they reach Allenhurst—they're never stored or "held" in inner harbor pools and thus exposed to oil or other pollution. This is the real reason that sweet, full-meated, tender OCEAN CLEAR lobsters bear the seal of approval of the American Medical Association's Council on Foods—Ady.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

On Monday afternoon in the Masonic Hall, the Fortnightly held its regular monthly meeting. The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p. m. by the President, Mrs. Hise, and the usual order of business followed as rapidly as possible. During the procedures our Finance Chairman, Mrs. Grace Perkins, presented an excellent word picture as well as a chart in black and white, of how the member's dues are distributed. After listening to her I believe most of us decided we get quite a lot for our money in the course of a year through being a member of the Fortnightly.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Literature Group will be held at 2:00 p. m. on March 3, Monday in the Public Library. At this time Miss Eva Sherman will give a paper on "Edna St. Vincent Millay, Poet America" and Mrs. Frank Evans will give a paper on "Edith Sitwell—Poet English." All Fortnightly members are cordially invited.

Mrs. Frederick Cole, Art Chairman, announced plans for a most unusual afternoon to be spent at Koko Boodakian and Sons, 14 Lochuan street, Winchester, on Friday, March 7 at 2:00 p. m. The Fortnightly members will have an opportunity to go through the plant, see how the rugs are cleaned, learn something of the history of the Oriental rugs and the designs as well as see some antique rugs.

When this is completed a tea with home made native pastries will be served by the Boodakians. If you wish to go please contact Mrs. Cole or Mrs. Nutter by March 4. It is limited to members, so "First Come First Served."

At the end of the business meeting we all settled ourselves comfortably to take a trip with Mr. Stewart Anderson by way of his pictures "The Covered Wagon Rolls East."

The pictures and lecture featured the scenery and big cities along the Great Lakes and Canadian Maritimes. There was fun and humor in pitching a tent right in or close to America's industrial areas, located on those Lakes. There was climax in Mr. Anderson's superb color photographs of the St. Lawrence, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, the Saguenay, the Gaspé and Cape Breton in the St. Lawrence.

The routing, ten thousand miles long, followed the very inland seas and waterway over which the French and British once fought. It embraced so many points of interest that the Andersons were hard put to photograph them all in one journey and had to break it into two parts done over two years. He is making a photographic profession out of the very kind of informal "family" adventures that most of his hearers have contemplated or actually done themselves. This explains his popularity—everybody likes to go covered—waggoning and we Fortnightlyans certainly did.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on next Monday evening, March 3, at the Legion Home. Every member should make an effort to attend and learn about the coming events and the work that we must accomplish within the next few months. Do not stay away because of the weather or lack of transportation as we have a chairman who will see that you are called for and taken home. Call Shirley Colgate or any of the officers for this service. Your attendance may prove very profitable for you come and hear all the details at this meeting.

Have you made plans for the St. Patrick's Day Dance on Saturday evening, March 15, at the Legion Home? If not get busy as you would not want to miss this party.

Mrs. Edward H. Morse was hostess to a number of her friends who are helping plan the annual Lenten Sale and Tea at Epiphany Church. Coffee was served to the following: Mesdames Roland Hanson, William Urmon, Jr., Arthur H. Ellis, Harlow Russell, John Swift, Donald Campbell, Herbert Fairfield, Edward Bennett and Warren Haley.

MRS. GEORGE W. ELLIOTT

Almost ninety years ago one of Winchester's oldest citizens opened her eyes to life in the country-side of old England—in historic Hertfordshire, the land of King Arthur the Boy who the "gentility" as Katherine Louise Nagel, her first nineteen years were passed in the quiet orderliness of English country life, and then America began to beckon to her.

Soon after her arrival she became the wife of George William Elliott whose ability as a gardener was soon recognized by Winchester residents. Together they reared a family of eight children, four girls and four boys of whom six survive. The father passed away more than twenty years ago, leaving the mother still active in her family. Her last few years were spent with her children.

Mrs. George W. Elliott was generous to a fault. Her basic philosophy of life was founded on the ancient precept, "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and to this injunction she adhered literally. Her life was spent in kindness to others. She knew of no greater pleasure.

Blessed with rugged good health and a masterful strength of will tempered by deep religious convictions she impressed her personality upon all her friends and neighbors, while its effect upon her children was of a different order. Although attendance at church as a faithful member of the Church of England was rarely possible during the early busy years, she nevertheless continuously turned to her Bible and her prayers for the help which she so greatly needed and which she invariably found. To the end of her long life she unceasingly turned to this neverfailing source. Her Bible and her prayers were her constant companions and she was ever ready to pray for the welfare of all.

It is from such a pattern of living that character is born. She left her mark on all Winchester. The community acknowledges its obligation to this strong soul and recognizes her part in the creation of the town as we know it today. For it is through the implanting of sterling ideals in childhood that a truly mature life is made possible. To this end Mrs. Elliott made an outstanding contribution.

On Tuesday, February 19, Mrs. George W. Elliott slipped away from us after a brief illness which had been described as "old age."

She will live on in our memories for the dead become alive as we remember them.

MRS. GERTRUDE B. JONES

Mrs. Gertrude B. Jones, longtime resident of Winchester, died at the Winchester Hospital on Monday, February 25, at her home, 17 Eaton street, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Jones was born in Lowell, February 7, 1871. After a long residence in Barre, Vermont, she came to Winchester with her husband, Frank E. Jones, in 1907. On April 29, 1910, she joined him in opening a dry goods and men's furnishings store in the Center under the firm name of Franklin E. Jones & Company, which for thirty-five years they continued in business, or until April, 1945. Their spacious, comfortable store with its friendly atmosphere was a sort of informal meeting-place for Winchester shoppers. "You can get it at Barneses" became a Winchester byword.

Through her business and other contacts, Mrs. Jones made many Winchester friends. She had rare genius for friendship—friendship was, in fact, her only hobby—and she was always one to keep her friendships in repair. Her life was filled with acts of unselfish devotion to others.

Mrs. Jones leaves one son, Rupert F. Jones of Winchester, a granddaughter, Priscilla J. Groves of Merrick, L. I., and a great grandson, Quentin D. Groves, Jr. She also leaves a niece, Frances Barnes Tolman of Nelson, N. H., and a nephew, Warren F. Barnes of Winchester.

Funeral services were held at Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church, of which Mrs. Jones was a member, Wednesday, February 27th, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Lawrence F. Small officiating. Interment was at Oak Grove Cemetery, in Medford.

JAY JORDAN

Jay Jordan, retired Boston provision man and resident of Winchester for more than 20 years, died Sunday, February 24, at his home, 14 Fairmount street, after a long illness.

Mr. Jordan was born in East Boston December 10, 1872. He grew up in Boston and was educated there, spending his active life in the provision business in and around the Boston Market, first as a salesman for the old firm of L. M. Dyer and in later years having his own business.

Retired in recent years, Mr. Jordan came to Winchester from Bath, Me., 22 years ago. He was a Mason and a Shriner while in Bath, but had been inactive in the fraternity in recent years. Known familiarly to many in town as "Pop", he kept active until his illness by having a small haberdashery order business, selling shirts especially to many around the center. A pleasant manner made him many friends, and to those who knew him well his courage and cheerfulness during his long illness were exceptional.

Besides his daughter, Mr. Jordan leaves a granddaughter, Mrs. Carl Beggs of Weymouth, and two great-grandchildren. His wife, the former Daisy Pierce, died in 1927. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Bennett Chapel with the Rev. Lawrence Farnsworth Small, assistant minister, of the First Congregational Church, officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

MRS. NETTIE E. BUSSELL

Mrs. Nettie E. Bussell, widow of John H. Bussell, died Saturday morning, February 23, at her home, 17 Eaton street, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Bussell was the daughter of Harris Edwin, and Emma Frances (Smith) Warfield. She was born November 9, 1880, in Boston and after the usual public school education went to work for the former shoe firm of T. H. Jones in their shoe factory in Stoneham.

For 20 years she remained in the firm's employ, rising to the position of bookkeeper and studying business subjects at Boston University.

During that time she made her home in Stoneham. When the Jones firm dissolved Mrs. Bussell was for a time a bookkeeper at the Sea Pines School at Brewster.

She and Mr. Bussell were married by the late Rev. George Hale Reed in Winchester January 20, 1932.

Mrs. Bussell had lived in Winchester off and on for 20 years. During the last ten years, following the death of her husband she had lived with Miss Edith M. Gorman at 17 Eaton street. She leaves no immediate family.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Kinball Chapel with the Rev. Robert A. Storer, minister of the Unitarian Church, officiating. Interment was in Lindenwood Cemetery, Stoneham.

The many friends of Mr. Elmer D. Fletcher, well known long-time resident of Winchester, will be pleased to learn that he is up and around the house after his recent severe illness.

BROTHERHOOD SPEAKERS AT KIWANIS CLUB

KIWANIS CLUB NOTES

Representatives from the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish churches spoke to members of the Kiwanis Club last Wednesday in observance of Brotherhood Week. President Chester Thibault introduced the speakers, who were: Dr. Myer S. Baer of the Woburn Jewish Center, Rev. John Snook, Jr., of the Crawford Memorial Church, Winchester, and Rev. Father Herbert K. Driscoll of the Immaculate Conception Church, Winchester.

Each of the clergymen gave a brief and inspiring talk on the true meaning of brotherhood. Acting in accordance with the spirit of the occasion, club members contributed to a fund for the purchase of bells for the Cathedral in the Pines, a non-sectarian chapel in Ridge, N. H. Luncheon and a short business meeting preceded the principal speakers.

TROOP 6 NEWS

Eight boys of Troop 6 enjoyed a three-day, two-night camp in the snow at Belknap Mountain Recreation Area in New Hampshire last week-end (on February 22-24).

With only the tops of pup tents visible above the two foot depth of snow, the camp aroused the curiosity of many visitors at the Recreation Area. The boys took advantage of lights turned on for repairs to a low rope to have the Pheips slope to themselves for an evening of skiing on Friday and enjoyed a visit from a Shrewsbury, Mass., troop on Saturday night. The weather was cold, wind was still, and the skiing was excellent.

TROOP 1 CHATTER

On February 15, with no thoughts of school work, Girl Scouts from Troop 1 climbed into cars ready to start their week's vacation with a ski trip to the Keene's in Etna, N. H. They started it off with a bang at a super square dance at the Little White Church in Hanover Friday night.

On Saturday they were all up early and on the ski slope in time to get many hours of instruction and skiing. After supper Saturday night they bundled up warm and went on a hay ride.

Upon waking Sunday morning they saw snow falling to make the skiing just about perfect — made to order for their skiing and their sugaring-off party which they had about noon time. At this party an old New Hampshire man prepared hot boiled down maple syrup which he ladled onto plates full of the fresh clean snow and — did it taste good!

They stayed skiing as long as they could but finally had to say found farewells until next year. Little did they know then that they were just missing being snowed in by the big storm. In fact two of the girls and the Herseys who planned to leave Monday morning were snowed in till Tuesday.

The girls who went on the trip were:

Marcia Cunningham
Andrea Erskine
Alison Hersey
Athea Hersey
Stephanie Hersey
Betty Lou Martensen
Florence Newton
Gretchen Luitwieler
The boys were:
Jim Cusack
Wallie Hart
Tom Sawyer
The adults were:
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hersey, leaders
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Newton
Mr. David Shiverick
Althea Hersey, Asst. Scribe

Miss Joan Bledsoe, a member of the junior class Lesley College, Cambridge, after spending the mid-winter holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bledsoe of 34 Salisbury street has returned to college.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The annual luncheon and legislative program of the League will be held Wednesday, March 5th, at the Church of the Epiphany at 12:30. Mrs. Neil Borden is chairman of the luncheon; Mrs. Robert Baylies, Winchester 6-1767-M, is ticket chairman. Mrs. Guy Livingstone has charge of the tables; Mrs. Oleott of tables; Mrs. Oleott Hooper of hostesses; Mrs. Oscar Surtees of waitresses; Mrs. John McIntyre of decorations.

Representative Harrison Chadwick of the 29th Middlesex District will give a report on the work of the "Recess Commission on the Legislation Committee System and Parliamentary Procedures". The purpose of this commission of 8 members is to study ways to expedite and make more efficient the business of the Legislature. The chairman of the commission is Senator Ralph C. Mahar (R) of Orange; the vice-chairman is Representative John Toomey (D) of Cambridge; Representative Chadwick is secretary. In line with the League's "Know Your State" study this report is of interest to all citizens.

The program arrangements have been made by the Legislative chairman, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, and her committee—Mrs. Neil Borden, Mrs. Robert Baylies, Mrs. Harry Easton, Mrs. William Davies, Mrs. John McIntyre, Mrs. Oleott Hooper, Mrs. William Spaulding and Mrs. Oscar Surtees.

Mrs. Spaulding will report on the bills the League is supporting and opposing during this session of the General Court.

Mrs. Alan Morse, past president of the State League and now State Voters' Service Chairman, will report on "Procedures in the Primaries".

MRS. ROMEYN SPEAKS

One of the most beautiful programs of the year, arranged by the Business and Professional Women's Guild First Congregational Church, will take place on Tuesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock in Ripley Chapel, when Mrs. James Kingman Romeyn will speak. Her subject is an inspirational one, keyed to the Lenten season and the exquisite meaning of Easter, and the many friends here who have heard Mrs. Romeyn before know what a magnificent speaker she is.

This meeting on March 4 is an open one, to which all women are most cordially invited and there is no admittance charge. Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard will read the devotions, Miss Helen Monroe will preside, and Mrs. Ruth Hilton is in charge of the coffee hour after the program. Guests that evening are not only invited to hear Mrs. Romeyn when she speaks in the chapel, but to meet her at the coffee hour. Special guests of the Business and Professional Women that evening will be members of the Jr. Mrs. Guild, of which Mrs. Lawrence Pexton is the Director.

There will be special organ music by Miss Sylvia Smith at the opening and closing of the program and the talk by Mrs. Romeyn.

COUPLES CLUB TO SPONSOR LEAP DAY FORMAL

The Couples Club at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church is sponsoring a Leap Day Formal at the Bear Hill Country Club in Stoneham on February 29th with dancing from 8:30 p. m. until 12:00. Many club members are entertaining at private dinner parties before the dance. This affair has been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bergquist and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fraser with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kinney in charge of reservations. Everyone is looking forward to a most enjoyable evening with a capacity attendance.

The Fire Department was called at 11 o'clock Monday night to the home of Mr. Henry Worcester, 111 Church street, where smoke was reported seeping through the house. The man found the trouble to be in the electric motor of an air conditioning machine in the basement of the dwelling.

DID YOU WONDER?

With a quota of $22,500, to be raised in Winchester on Sunday, March 9, for the American Red Cross, Campaign Chairman Henry Dellicker presented today the figures on how the $21,000, raised last year was split. He explained that 69% of the 1951 Fund remained in Winchester; 39% was sent to the National Organization, and it only cost 1% to raise the $21,000.

Because the story of the Red Cross workers and their accomplishments will remain unknown or only dimly understood until it is told effectively, he showed what had been done in Winchester during 1951 with the funds raised:

For Bedford Hospital:
1,503 garments made for patients
45 trips, outings and picnics for patients
2,428 hours of service given by Gray Ladies
51,280 surgical dressings made
Junior Red Cross:
110 Christmas boxes sent to overseas children
1,036 favors made for Bedford Hospital

Blood Program:
373 pints of blood collected in three trips

Winchester Hospital:
113 pints of blood furnished and delivered free of charge
9 "O" Negative walking donors provided
956 hours of service given by 35 Gray Ladies
86 trips to Boston Blood Center

Water Safety:
76 children were awarded certificates for learning to swim

First Aid:
132 certificates were awarded graduates of 5 classes

Motor Corps:
146 Winchester patients of Boston clinics were transported
18 drivers gave 1,056 hours to drive 10,980 miles

(Besides blood trips, driving patients, close cooperation is given the Public Welfare Department, District Nursing Association and Home for the Aged)

Nurses Aides:
18 Nurses Aides gave 126 hours at the Bloodmobile
55 Nurses Aides gave 385 hours at the Boston Center
20 Nurses Aides gave 840 hours at the Winchester Hospital

In pointing out this long history of humane achievement, Mr. Dellicker made it clear that anyone who gave in Boston could earmark his contribution for the Winchester Chapter.

With its 39% the National Organization, through its 3,700 Chapters, provided the following services:

Services to the Armed Forces and Veterans (at stations and in hospitals)

Cases and requests served each month 316,100

VA patients provided service each month 131,000

Claims cases served each month at VA offices 45,300

Disaster persons aided (in 45 states) 305,400

Home Service 258,900

Blood program, pints collected 1,790,870

Not to mention, of course, the usual Nursing Services, Safety Service, Food and Nutrition courses, College Activities and Service Groups.

In Winchester the Home Service Department gives information and counsel to veterans and their families and servicemen. Wherever financial aid is needed it is provided.

GIRL SCOUT RALLY

The Brownie and Girl Scout leaders of the George Washington School are planning to hold a school Girl Scout rally in the Girl Scout Cabin on Thursday evening, May 15. Each group will be represented from the second-grade Brownies through the sixth-grade Girl Scouts; and each troop will have space to exhibit handcraft and badge work and will give a short skit which relates to some phase of their scouting work for the year. This rally has been planned to allow the fathers and mothers of all Girl Scouts at the George Washington School to see scouting in action and it is being held at the Girl Scout Cabin after daylight saving goes into effect so that parents and friends may have an opportunity to see the cabin in use. Please reserve the date to come and help make a success of this rally, the first of its kind to be planned in Winchester.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE ZONING BY-LAWS

Notice is hereby given that the Planning Board will hold a public hearing on Monday, March 10, 1952, at 8 o'clock P. M., in the General Committee Room, Town Hall, Winchester, Massachusetts, on proposed changes in the Zoning By-Law under Articles 38, 40 and 41 of the Warrant for the Annual Town Meeting, reading as follows:

ARTICLE 38. To hear and act on the report of the Planning Board and then to see if the Town will amend the Zoning By-Laws by making all or any portion of the following proposed changes, or take any action in relation thereto:

SECTION 2

Strike out Section 2 and substitute a new Section 2 as follows:

Section 2. SINGLE RESIDENCE DISTRICTS.

In Single Residence Districts, no new building or structure shall be constructed or used, in whole or in part, and no building or structure, or part thereof, shall be altered, enlarged, reconstructed or used, and no land shall be used

- A. For any industry, trade, manufacturing, business, or commercial purpose (except as specifically set forth in this Section); or
- B. For any purpose except one or more of the following:

1. Detached single-family house.
2. Church or other place of worship, parish house, rectory, or convent.
3. Religious, sectarian, or denominational educational purpose.
4. Public school, college, library, museum, art gallery or other public educational purpose.
5. Public recreational or water supply use.
6. Public administration building, fire or police station.
7. Orchard, truck garden, nursery or similar use of the land for raising of agricultural crops (but not including, except as hereinafter provided, any building or structure primarily used in connection with such purpose, nor any public display of produce).
8. Customary home occupation conducted in a dwelling or building accessory thereto by a person living and maintaining a home on the premises, such as a professional office, renting of rooms and the furnishing of table board to not more than four persons, dressmaking, home cooking, tutoring, or handcraft work (but not including a barber shop, beauty parlor, gift shop, real estate office, restaurant, tourist home or similar use offering services to the general public); provided that:

- a. Such use is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the premises for residential purposes.
- b. Not more than one person other than residents of the premises is regularly employed thereon in connection with such use.
- c. No offensive noise, vibration, smoke, dust, odors, heat or glare is produced.
- d. There is no exterior display and no exterior sign pertaining to such use, except for a name plate, not exceeding one square foot in area, indicating the professional occupation of a doctor or dentist residing on the premises.
- e. There is no exterior storage of material or equipment (including the parking of commercial vehicles) and no other exterior indication of such use or variation from the residential character of the premises.

9. Customary accessory uses clearly incidental to and located on the same premises with any of the foregoing uses, including:

- a. Private garage for not more than three automobiles per family, not more than one of which shall be a commercial vehicle.
- b. Private greenhouse, tool shed, playhouse, tennis court or other similar building or structure for domestic storage or use.
- c. Living quarters for domestic employees or temporary non-paying guests, containing no kitchen facilities, provided that such quarters are not rented or used as a separate dwelling.
- d. Keeping of animals for personal enjoyment or household use, provided that all accessory buildings and structures in which such animals are housed are not less than 15 feet from side and rear lot lines.
- e. Temporary unlighted signs aggregating not over 20 square feet in area pertaining to the sale or lease of the premises, provided that all such signs are not less than 15 feet from any street or lot line.
- f. Removal of earth products in connection with the construction of a building or structure for which a permit has been issued in accordance with the Building Laws.

- C. Provided, however, that if permission of the Board of Appeals be obtained in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 hereof, buildings and structures may be constructed, altered, enlarged, reconstructed and used, and land may be used, for one or more of the following purposes:

1. Private school, college, library, museum, art gallery, or other private educational purpose not conducted for profit.
2. Agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended.
3. Club house, or other non-profit civic, social, or recreational use (but not including any use the chief activity of which is one customarily conducted as a business).
4. Hospital, sanitarium, philanthropic or charitable institution, rest home, convalescent or nursing home (but not including a correctional institution or place of detention, or, if conducted for profit, a place for the care of the insane, feeble minded, epileptic, drug, or liquor patients), provided that all buildings so used are not less than 50 feet from side and rear lot lines.
5. Cemetery not conducted for profit, including necessary incidental buildings and structures, provided that all parts and portions of such use are not less than 50 feet from side and rear lot lines.
6. Any public use not specifically enumerated herein (including a public utility or communications use) which is necessary for the service of the immediate area or which requires a location outside of Business and Industrial Districts for reasons of space or function; provided that all outside storage of materials and equipment is in completely screened yards.
7. Conversion of a single-family house built prior to March 10, 1924, into a two-family house, provided that:
  - a. The total floor area of the finished rooms, exclusive of passageways, storage space, and bathrooms, is not less than 700 square feet in each apartment unit.
  - b. The conversion does not require for safety or other reasons any exterior change which alters the single-family character of the house, and no such change is made.
8. Commercial boat livery, tennis court, outdoor ice skating rink, ski ground, or golf course, provided that all parts and portions of such use are not less than 50 feet from side and rear lot lines.
9. Any of the following uses on a lot having an area of not less than 3 acres: Riding academy, use of the land for raising of livestock and other farm animals (but not including swine, fur animals, or poultry), public display of agricultural products of the premises, or use of a building or structure for agricultural purposes; provided that:

- a. Commercial greenhouses and all buildings and structures in which farm animals or riding horses are housed are not less than 50 feet from side and rear lot lines.
  - b. No odor producing, or dust-producing material is stored or used within 50 feet of side and rear lot lines.
10. Removal of sod, loam, sand, gravel or other earth products from the premises (except where permitted as an accessory use).
  11. Customary accessory uses clearly incidental to and located on the same premises with any of the foregoing uses.

SECTION 3.

Strike out Section 3 and substitute a new Section 3 as follows:

Section 3. GENERAL RESIDENCE DISTRICTS. In General Residence Districts, no new building or structure shall be constructed or used in whole or in part, and no building or structure, or part thereof, shall be altered, enlarged, reconstructed or used, and no land shall be used

- A. For any industry, trade, manufacturing, business or commercial purpose (except as specifically set forth in this Section); or
- B. For any purpose except one or more of the following:

1. Any of the purposes authorized without permission of the Board of Appeals in Single Residence Districts (as enumerated, with any restrictions thereon, in paragraph B of Section 2, hereof).
2. Double house or duplex house.
3. Boarding house or lodging house.
4. Customary accessory uses clearly incidental to and located on the same premises with any of the foregoing uses.

- C. Provided, however, that if permission of the Board of Appeals be obtained in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 hereof, buildings and structures may be constructed, altered, enlarged, reconstructed and used, and land may be used for one or more of the following purposes:

1. Any of the purposes which may be permitted by the Board of Appeals in Single Residence Districts (as enumerated, with any restrictions thereon, in paragraph C of Section 2 hereof).
2. Apartment house or group house not exceeding two and one half habitable stories in height, provided that in the case of every building constructed after the adoption of this amendment and used for such purpose, there shall be available on the premises or on land associated therewith and within 200 feet thereof, permanently maintained automobile parking or garaging space for the use of residents and their guests, having an area of not less than 250 square feet for each family accommodated on said premises.
3. Customary accessory uses clearly incidental to and located on the same premises with any of the foregoing uses.

SECTION 3A

Strike out Section 3A.

SECTION 5

Strike out Section 5 and substitute a new Section 5 as follows:

Section 5. BUSINESS DISTRICTS. In Business Districts, no new building shall be constructed or used, in whole or in part, and no building or structure, or part thereof, shall be altered, enlarged, reconstructed or used, and no land shall be used for any purpose except:

- A. Any of the purposes authorized or which may be permitted by the Board of Appeals in General Residence Districts (as enumerated, with any restrictions, in paragraphs B and C of Section 3 hereof).
- B. One or more of the following purposes:

1. Apartment house or group house.
  2. Hotel or apartment hotel.
  3. Residence in combination with stores or other uses authorized by this Section.
  4. Restaurant or other eating place.
  5. Store for the sale of goods at retail.
  6. Sales establishment for automobiles, boats, machinery, monuments, motorcycles, trailers, or trucks.
  7. Sales establishment for fuel, ice, coal, wood, or building materials (such as lumber, heating and roofing) with not more than 10,000 square feet of ground area per establishment.
  8. Theater, dancing academy, or commercial amusement, if conducted wholly within a completely enclosed building.
  9. Meeting hall or assembly hall.
  10. Business or professional office or agency, bank or other financial institution.
  11. Public use, including public utility or communications use.
  12. Shop for light manufacture of products to be sold at retail on the premises by a baker or confectioner.
  13. Personal service shop of a barber, hairdresser, manicurist, or shoe shiner.
  14. Shop for custom work by a cabinetmaker, dressmaker, furrier, interior decorator, milliner, shoemaker, tailor, tinsmith, upholsterer, or woodworker; provided that all products manufactured are to be sold at retail on the premises.
  15. Place of business, dealing directly with the consumer, of a chiroprapist, druggist, optician, or podiatrist.
  16. Any of the following service establishments, dealing directly with the consumer: bicycle rental or repair shop, clothing rental establishments, collection station for laundry and dry cleaning, frozen food lockers, funeral parlor, hand or self-service laundry, photographic studio, radio and household appliance repair shop, shoe and hat repair shop, telegraph or express office, watch and clock repair shop.
  17. Any of the following consumer, professional, or commercial service establishments: blue-printing establishment, business or trade school, carpet and rug cleaning establishment, catering service, dry cleaning and dyeing establishment, linen supply service, medical or dental laboratory, power laundry, printing establishment, or sign painting service.
  18. Place for work and storage in connection with his trade of a builder, carpenter, electrician, contractor, mason, painter, paperhanger, plumber, or roofer, with not more than 10,000 square feet of ground area per establishment.
  19. Automobile service station, public garage, repair shop for motor vehicles, tire vulcanizing shop, or commercial automobile parking lot.
  20. Customary accessory uses clearly incidental to and located on the same premises with any of the foregoing uses.
  21. Signs, as permitted by law and by-law.
- C. Any purpose which the Board of Appeals shall specifically find to be of the same general character as any of the foregoing uses, if permission of said Board be obtained in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 hereof.
- D. Such industry, trade, or light manufacturing as is incidental to or usual in connection with any of the purposes authorized under the provisions of this Section, if such industry, trade, or light manufacturing is conducted on the same premises as the business or use with which it is connected; except that:
1. No industry, trade, or light manufacturing shall be conducted in a Business District which is prohibited or not authorized in an Industrial District.
  2. The total floor space which may be used for industry and light manufacturing (including processing and repair work) shall not exceed a total area of fifteen hundred square feet per establishment, unless permission of the Board of Appeals be obtained in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 hereof for the use of such additional floor space as they shall specify.

SECTION 7

Strike out Section 7 and substitute a new Section 7 as follows:

Section 7. NON-CONFORMING USES.

- A. Any lawful building or structure, or use of a building, structure or land existing at the time this by-law is adopted which does not conform to the regulations of the district in which located may be continued, unless and until abandoned for a period of one year.
- B. Any non-conforming building or structure or any building or structure being put to a non-conforming use, if damaged or destroyed by fire or other cause, may be repaired, reconstructed or restored within the same portion of the lot and used as before; provided that such repair, reconstruction, or restoration is substantially completed within two years of said damage or destruction.

- C. Any non-conforming use of a building, structure, or land may be changed to a use conforming to the regulations of the district in which located, provided that if the use is so changed, it shall not be permitted to revert to a non-conforming use.
- D. The Board of Appeals in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 hereof, may:

1. Authorize a non-conforming building or structure to be added to or enlarged, or a non-conforming use of a building, structure or land to be extended; provided that such addition, enlargement or extension will alleviate a clearly demonstrable hardship.
2. Authorize the construction and use of buildings and structures and the use of land for purposes otherwise prohibited or not permitted, if in undeveloped sections of the Town or if in connection with the establishment of a permitted use; provided that no such authorization shall be for more than a one year period or be renewed more than once.

SECTION 8

Strike out the last paragraph of Section 8 and substitute therefor the following new paragraphs:

No permission sought under the provisions of paragraph C of Section 2 or paragraph C of Section 3 hereof shall be granted unless the Board of Appeals shall find that the proposed use, subject to appropriate conditions and limitations, will not adversely affect the health or safety of persons living in the neighborhood of such use or be injurious to property or improvements in said neighborhood or be detrimental to the public welfare.

No permission sought under the provisions of paragraphs C or D of Section 5 hereof shall be granted unless the Board of Appeals shall find that the proposed use, subject to appropriate conditions and limitations, is not likely to create more truck traffic or more offensive noise, vibration, dust, heat, smoke, odor or glare than the minimum amount normally resulting from any of the uses permitted in said Section without authorization of the Board of Appeals.

Within a reasonable time after the hearing, the Board of Appeals shall adopt an order, notice of which shall be given to the petitioner and any persons who have appeared at the hearing. Said order shall embody the findings of the Board, and shall grant or refuse the permission applied for, in accordance with such findings. If permission is granted, the Board shall attach to such permission such conditions and limitations as to manner and duration of use, as in its opinion are necessary to protect the neighborhood and the Town and to insure conformity with the spirit and intent of this by-law. Such conditions and limitations shall be stated in writing by the Board and made a part of the permit.

SECTION 8A

Strike out the first paragraph of Section 8A and substitute therefor the following new paragraphs:

In any Single Residence District designated and marked "A" on the zoning map there shall be provided for each dwelling house hereafter constructed a lot containing not less than 15,000 square feet and not less than 120 feet wide; in all Single Residence Districts not so designated, there shall be provided for each dwelling house hereafter constructed a lot containing not less than 10,000 square feet and not less than 100 feet wide; in the General Residence Districts, there shall be provided for each single dwelling house hereafter constructed a lot containing not less than 6,500 square feet and not less than 65 feet wide, and for a dwelling house for more than one family a lot containing not less than 3,750 square feet for each family accommodated therein and not less than 65 feet wide; and in all Single and General Residence Districts, no dwelling house shall hereafter be constructed on a lot which does not abut on at least one street for a distance of at least 50 feet. For the purposes of this Section, lot width is to be measured through that part of the dwelling where the lot is narrowest.

Provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the construction or placing of any building on any lot having a smaller area, width, or frontage, if such lot on the effective date hereof did not adjoin other land of the same owner available for use in connection with said lot.

SECTION 8B

Add a new Section 8B as follows:

Section 8B. VISION CLEARANCE. In all Single and General Residence Districts, within the triangular area formed by the lines of intersecting streets and a line joining points on such lines 20 feet distant from their point of intersection, (or in the case of a rounded corner, the point of intersection of their tangents), no building or structure shall be constructed, and no foliage allowed to exist between a height of 4 feet and 8 feet above the plane through the finished grades of the streets.

ARTICLE 40. To hear and act on the report of the Planning Board and then to see if the Town will amend the Zoning By-Laws by making all or any portion of the following proposed changes, or take any action in relation thereto:

To amend Sections 2B, 2C, 3C, and 8 of the Zoning By-Laws as follows:

Amend Section 2B by striking out the words "private school, college, library, museum or other educational purpose" and substituting therefor the following: "religious, sectarian or denominational educational purpose" so that Section 2B, as amended, shall read as follows:

"SECTION 2B. For any purpose except one or more of the following: Detached single house, church, public school or other public purpose, religious, sectarian or denominational educational purpose, club, except a club the chief activity of which is a service customarily carried on as a business, and such purposes as are or may be incidental to or usual in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, including a private garage and private stable, but not including any industry, trade, manufacturing or commercial purpose."

Amend Section 2C by striking out the words "semi-public, philanthropic, charitable or religious institution;" and substituting therefor the following: "semi-public, philanthropic or charitable institution; religious institution other than one permitted by Section 2B; private school, college, library, museum or other educational purpose; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended;" so that the portion of Section 2C following the words "the following purposes:" shall read as follows:

"Farm, stock farm, truck garden, nursery or greenhouse, including salesrooms for the sale of natural products raised in or upon any of them; semi-public, philanthropic or charitable institution; religious institution other than one permitted by Section 2B; private school, college, library, museum or other educational purpose; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended; hospital, sanitarium or other medical institution (but not including a correctional institution or place of detention), and such purposes as are incidental to or usual in connection with any of said purposes."

Amend Section 3C by striking out the words "semi-public, philanthropic, charitable or religious institution;" and substituting therefor the following: "semi-public, philanthropic or charitable institution; religious institution other than one permitted by Section 2B; private school, college, library, museum or other educational purpose; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended;" so that the portion of Section 3C following the words "the following purposes:" shall read as follows:

"Farm, stock farm, truck garden, nursery or greenhouse, including salesrooms for the sale of natural products raised in or upon any of them; semi-public, philanthropic or charitable institution; religious institution other than one permitted by Section 2B; private school, college, library, museum or other educational purpose; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended; hospital, sanitarium or other medical institution (but not including a correctional institution or place of detention), and such purposes as are incidental to or usual in connection with any of said purposes."

Amend Section 8 by adding after subparagraph C thereof the following new paragraph.

"No permission sought under the provision of Section 2C or Section 3C shall be granted unless the Board of Appeals shall find that the proposed use, subject to appropriate conditions and limitations, will not adversely affect the health or safety of persons living in the neighborhood of such use or be injurious to property or improvements in said neighborhood or be detrimental to the public welfare. The Board of Appeals shall attach to such permission such conditions and limitations as to manner and duration of use as in its opinion are necessary to protect the neighborhood and the town and to insure conformity with the spirit and intent of this By-Law, such conditions and limitations to be stated in writing by the Board and made a part of the permit."

ARTICLE 41. To hear and act on the report of the Planning Board and then to see if the Town will amend the Zoning By-Laws by making all or any portion of the following proposed changes, or take any action in relation thereto:

To amend Sections 2B, 2C, 3C and 8 of the Zoning By-Law as follows:

Amend Section 2B by inserting in place of the comma after the words "or other educational purpose" the following: "but, except as provided in Section 2C, not including an agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended," so that said Section 2B, as amended, shall read as follows:

"SECTION 2B. For any purpose except one or more of the following: Detached single house, church, public school or other public purpose, private school, college, library, museum, or other educational purpose but, except as provided in Section 2C, not including an agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended, club, except a club the chief activity of which is a service customarily carried on as a business, and such purposes as are or may be incidental to or usual in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, including a private garage and private stable, but not including any industry, trade, manufacturing or commercial purpose."

Amend Section 2C by inserting before the word "semi-public" the following: "agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended," so that the portion of Section 2C following the words "the following purposes:" shall read as follows:

"Farm, stock farm, truck garden, nursery or greenhouse, including salesrooms for the sale of natural products raised in or upon any of them; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended; semi-public, philanthropic, charitable or religious institution, hospital, sanitarium or other medical institution (but not including a correctional institution or place of detention), and such purposes as are incidental to or usual in connection with any of said purposes."

Amend Section 3C by inserting before the word "semi-public" the following: "agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended," so that the portion of Section 3C following the words "the following purposes:" shall read as follows:

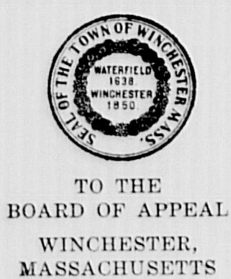

"Farm, stock farm, truck garden, nursery or greenhouse, including salesrooms for the sale of natural products raised in or upon any of them; agency giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 111 of the General Laws, as amended; semi-public, philanthropic, charitable institution, hospital, sanitarium or other medical institution (but not including a correctional institution or place of detention) and such purposes as are incidental to or usual in connection with any of said purposes."

Amend Section 8 by adding after subparagraph C thereof the following new paragraph:

"No permission sought under the provision of Section 2C or Section 3C shall be granted unless the Board of Appeals shall find that the proposed use, subject to appropriate conditions and limitations, will not adversely affect the health or safety of persons living in the neighborhood of such use or be injurious to property or improvements in said neighborhood or be detrimental to the public welfare. The Board of Appeals shall attach to such permission such conditions and limitations as to manner and duration of use as in its opinion are necessary to protect the neighborhood and the town and to insure conformity with the spirit and intent of this By-Law, such conditions and limitations to be stated in writing by the Board and made a part of the permit."

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The regular Basic Training Course for Leaders will be held at the Scout Office on Tuesday, March 4th, one half hour earlier, promptly at 9:30 a. m.

On Sunday, March 9th, all Girl Scouts will begin a week's observation on our Fortieth Birthday. All Protestant Scouts have been invited to attend services at the Baptist Church at 10:45 a. m., in uniform, if possible. All Catholic Scouts will attend the 9:00 o'clock Mass at Saint Mary's.

"Scouts Own", an inspirational service for all Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts will be held on Sunday afternoon, from 4 to 5 p. m. March 9th, at the High School Auditorium. Weather permitting, all girls will meet in back of the Town Hall at 3:40 p. m. and march to the "Scouts Own."

If we have rain, please come directly to the Auditorium. We are fortunate indeed to have Miss Irja Karkkainen, Girl Guide Leader from Finland as our speaker. Those who have been already privileged to hear her are anxious to hear more of her interesting experiences in her Guide work.

Attention All Representatives of the Juliette Lowe Fund
The money collected in each individual troop is to be turned in at the "Scouts Own" on Sunday, March 9th. Be sure your contribution comes in on time!

At a very pleasant tea at the home of Olga Wright on Tuesday, February 19th, at which Mrs. William Beal presided, plans were laid for the forth-coming Girl Scout Cookie Drive. Mrs. Thomas Hill is the chairman, and the drive will start on Friday, March 14th, when Girl Scouts will ring your door bells for orders for our well-known and delicious product. Mr. Roberts, representative of the McGowan Educator Co., manufacturers of the cookies, was present. The following ten co-chairmen are actively helping with the drive:

Mrs. William Beal
Mrs. Charles McGreggs
Mrs. Roderick Thomson
Mrs. Allan Buross
Mrs. Daniel Gaynor
Mrs. Steven Laird
Mrs. Richard Fisher
Mrs. Dorothy Harvey
Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk
Mrs. Ralph Webster.

LOBSTER FOR LENT
This is the season of the year when, ironically, lobsters are in short supply and command a premium because it's a favorite Lenten dish. And, as is the case when any commodity becomes scarce, the quality of lobsters declines because purchasers are given little or no selection.

In view of this situation, it is something of a paradox to find famed Allenhurst restaurant on the Andover Turnpike in Danvers buying advertising space to extol the virtues of its incomparable baked stuffed Lobster O'Neill — the kind you can eat with a fork because the meat in the claws has been removed and cooked in the body of the crustacean.

Over the years Allenhurst has purchased quantities of Ocean Clear lobsters and thus is assured an adequate supply, at all seasons, of crustaceans that have been acclaimed as the finest trapped anywhere.

Treasurer, Mr. George Traut.
As there were no further nominations the meeting was then turned over to the new President, Mr. Kroell.

Mr. Albert Swazey — Ways and Means.
Mrs. Edward Simpson — Uniforms.
Mrs. Swazey then read the report of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Symmes, Chairmen of the Concession Committee.

Treasurer's report was read and approved. We have purchased two uniforms at a cost of $148.20 and now have a Bank Balance of $648.32.

In conclusion Mr. Fred Felmet gave a brief talk on the present needs and stressed how much he appreciated what we are doing.

CAPT. AMICO INJURED
Fire Captain Frank Amico was painfully and possibly seriously injured last week-end when he fell on the back steps of his home on Lebanon street, injuring his back and ribs.

Amico, a former High School captain and football star, was some time getting back into the house. He was taken to the Winchester Hospital where the full extent of his injuries could not be determined at once.

On Wednesday it was reported that some small bones are broken between the ribs and spine, and it is expected that Captain Amico will have to remain in the hospital for at least a week or ten days.

Miss Muriel Pride of 111 Cambridge street left by plane on Washington's Birthday for Kansas City, Missouri, to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Lassiter and their family. Miss Pride will be escorted around the city by William Lassiter, who has recently been released from the Marine Corps and is spending some time with his folks before returning to Boston. The Second National Bank of Boston, where Miss Pride is employed has given her time off for this vacation which will conclude Sunday, March 2, with a return plane trip.

DR. EUGENE ASHTON

THE SENIOR FORUM

Dr. Eugene Ashton, Associate Professor of Biblical Literature in the School of Religion at Tufts College, will speak to the Senior Forum at 9:30 Sunday morning, in Ripley Chapel. During the 1950 Community School of Christian Education, Dr. Ashton was a popular speaker. He will address the Forum on "How to Use the Bible." Assisting Daniel Blanchard, Chaplain, will be Charles Stevens. Deacons will be George DeCamp and John Wingate, and ushers will be Everett Combes and Charles Brown.

The annual spring vacation trip of the Forum which has featured visits to Washington, D. C., New York City, and a conference at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., will this year concentrate on the local area. Excursions of varied interest will be conducted on three different days. Plans are being formulated and committees set up which will spend the next six weeks making arrangements for the project. Executive Committee for the trip will be composed of two members from each class: Seniors, Midje Dexter and Bob Gaffney; Juniors, Debby Fish and Dick Fernandez; Sophomores, Diane McNeill and David Pratt; Freshmen, Dorothy Pratt and Bill Ross. Committee chairmen elected are: Correspondence, Carolyn Padelford; Finance, Lois Bigelow; Meals, Judy Swan; Membership, John Becker; Publicity, Jenny Meigs; Promotion, Dan Blanchard; Telephone, Richard Emerson; Transportation, Bill H. Johnston.

FRIENDS OF WINCHESTER BAND AND ORCHESTRA
The first meeting of the entire group of the Friends of the Winchester School Bands and Orchestras was held at the High School Auditorium on Monday evening, February 25th at 8 p. m.

Meeting was called to order by Mr. Albert Swazey who then turned the meeting over to Mr. Hazen Ayer who had agreed to conduct the meeting. Mr. Ayer stated he accepted this because of two reasons.

"The Orchestras and Bands under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet were a credit to the Community and he was also interested in the effective work done last fall and feels this organization has a place in the Community."

Mr. Ayer was then nominated temporary Chairman and Mrs. Stanley Mullen, temporary Secretary.

Mrs. Paul Leverette read the Nominating Committee's slate of Officers as follows:

President, Mr. Don R. Kroell.
Vice-President, Mrs. Daniel Barnard.
Secretary, Mrs. H. Stanley Mullen.

Treasurer, Mr. George Traut.
As there were no further nominations the meeting was then turned over to the new President, Mr. Kroell.

STILL ANOTHER STORM

Winchester had its third big storm within two weeks on Wednesday, a cold gray morning blossoming into a real snowstorm about noon.

For a while the precipitation was light and wet and the streets kept quite passable, but by early afternoon the snow commenced to accumulate and a high wind drove the snow rapidly along, causing drifts and making driving both tricky and dangerous.

Real traffic jams developed during the early evening on Highland avenue at the hill near the Hospital and on both sides of Bacon street bridge, the police being hard pressed to unravel the snarl of cars, many of which turned completely around before burying themselves in the deep snow at the sides of the road. There were many bumps at both places, but aside from one motorist who twice opened the door of his car in time to get it smashed by a car sliding down hill with brakes set, there was little serious damage done, though tempers were far from placid.

One gal being driven by her husband and vainly trying to get up the hospital hill, gave Sgt. Edward Bowler and Officer John Boyle a very hard time indeed as she repeatedly decided she wouldn't try to get the word about the police failing to get the streets sanded in time to help visitors to Winchester.

Another gal, after turning completely around on the hill and miraculously escaping injury, dug herself out of snowbanks twice, with Sgt. Bowler's help, before regrettably deciding she wouldn't try to keep a social engagement in Stoneham.

The storm stopped during the night and by morning the Highway crews had most of the streets passable. The center was pretty well cleaned up by noon Thursday.

DISSTER — MURRAY

White snapdragons and gladiolas decorated St. Mary's Church on Saturday morning, February 23, when Miss Elsie Jane Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sylvester Murray of Everett Avenue, was married to Walter George Distler, son of Mrs. Walter G. Distler of Washington, D. C., and the late Mr. Distler. The Rev. Bernard F. Kirby, S. J. of Georgetown Preparatory School, Garrett Park, Md., officiated at the 10 o'clock ceremony, and a reception followed at the ballroom of the Sheraton Plaza Hotel in Boston.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Murray wore an off-the-shoulder gown of white satin with a long train and a Venetian lace bertha embroidered with sequins and pearls. The lace of her bertha and the matching lace of her long veil were bought by the bride in Venice, the veil being held in place by a tiny skull-cap. Lilies of the valley and orchids combined to form the bridal bouquet.

Miss Patricia F. Rich of Camden, Me., was the bride's honor attendant, and the bridesmaids were Miss Alice G. Connor and Miss Mary E. O'Connor of Lynn, cousins of the bride; Miss Sally B. Mendenhall of Brookline, Miss Kathryn B. Cook of Providence, R. I., Miss Ruth Elizabeth Dahl of Norwichtown, Conn., and Mrs. Theodore Noyes, Jr., of Chevy Chase, Md.

The honor maid wore a tiger lily pink satin dress hand embroidered with seed pearls and lace at the neckline and wore a matching flowered hat and a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Distler, mother of the bridegroom, also wore white orchids with her gown of grey lace over grey tulle and matching flowered hat.

David M. Marsh of Washington, D. C., was Mr. Distler's best man, and the usher couples included Robert E. Bradley, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., Theodore P. Noyes, Jr., of Chevy Chase, Md., Edward Thayer Clark of Worcester, T. Neal Wilder, Jr., of Weston, John Edmunds Stalford of Seaford, Long Island, N. Y., John C. Casler, 164 Forest street, and Reginald P. McManus of Bangor, Maine.

After a wedding journey to Nassau, Mr. Distler and his bride will reside in Cambridge at 190 Memorial Drive.

The bride prepared at Dana Hall for Pine Manor Junior College, and also was graduated from the Garland School. Mr. Distler was graduated from Georgetown Preparatory School and Bowdoin College. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and of the Chevy Chase Club.

MEETING
MARCH 13th

VOL. LXXI NO. 29

THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1952

PRICE TEN CENTS

CIVIL DEFENSE

OBSERVER SEES WINCHESTER MORE PREPARED FOR BOMBS THAN REGION 5 HQ

As a personal observer in Watertown last Sunday, your Winchester Star reporter was impressed by many fine points of the all-Region test, but was also struck by many, many things that seemed to be lacking there — however, maybe I've been spoiled by seeing what Winchester has done in the same time.

First, for the "plus" side of the ledger, it is true that when you consider the limited objectives of the Watertown exercise, it is a success. The Region's first unified test did prove that Boston does have a great potential CD disaster force, that the towns and cities are able and enthusiastic about working together well, and can mobilize quickly, and perhaps most important: the public is not, as many feared, apathetic, but vitally interested in making Civil Defense a practical "going concern."

Thousands who gathered along the Charles River saw an effective auxiliary police organization smoothly direct traffic and control crowds. We were all impressed (and fire fighters were drenched!) by the half-mile water screen thrown up along the river by pumping engines from countless communities. The wall of water, the roar of massed pumping engines, the boyish excitement of sincere fire regulars and auxiliaries doing a job together, added up to a thrill hard to forget.

A Fine Show
A medical exhibit with the "works" from white-robed radiological teams with their Geiger-counters checked out, and a score of casualties "burned," "fractured" and "hysterical," rescued and treated by stretcher bearers, even with pink bottles of "plasma" — the thoughtful inclusion of the clergy to attend the "dying," the spectacular release of heaven knows how many carrier pigeons — made difficult seeing for some spectators, but, of course, fine fare for the TV cameras well-situated there in advance.

BURACKER HEADS
LOCAL CANCER DRIVE

Admiral William H. Buracker, 12 Stratford road, has again been named this year to lead the Winchester 1952 Cancer Crusade to be held in April under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts Division of the American Cancer Society. It was announced today by Henry J. Nichols, state chairman.

Admiral Buracker, who is associated with the engineering firm of Jackson and Moreland in Boston, has personal reasons for desiring to help in the fight against cancer, the disease having taken close members of his family and friends. He will be in charge of Winchester's campaign for funds to carry on the fight by continued research and education under a long-range program sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

A former commander of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Naval Order of the U. S., Admiral Buracker is a member of the Engineers Club of Boston, the Boston Chapter, U. S. Naval Academy Graduates Association, and the Church of the Epiphany, Winchester.

MRS. EMMA IDA PROCTOR

Mrs. Emma Ida Proctor, widow of Frederick J. Proctor and mother of Mrs. H. Stanley Mullen of 8 Park road, died in her daughter's home Thursday afternoon, February 28, after a long illness.

Mrs. Proctor was the daughter of Frederick and Henrietta (Helms) Polonski. She was born April 12, 1876, in South Boston, but grew up in Lawrence and was educated in that city.

She was twice married, her first husband, Wendell P. Hodgkins, having died in 1922. She and Mr. Hodgkins lived in East Boston, but after his death, in December of 1924, she married Frederick J. Proctor, a veteran of the Indian Wars. She and Mr. Proctor moved to Woburn, living in that city until they came to Winchester 14 years ago. Mr. Proctor died in 1942.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Proctor leaves two grandchildren, Irene, and Stanley Mullen; and a sister, Mrs. Albert Longueuil of Lawrence.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Bennett Chapel with the Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

MRS. EMILY M. SHEEHY

Mrs. Emily M. Sheehy, wife of Dr. Richard W. Sheehy of 21 Washington street, veteran physician and chief of staff at the Winchester Hospital, died Wednesday night, March 5, at her home after a long illness.

Mrs. Sheehy was the daughter of Patrick and Mary (Flood) Dowd. She was born May 31, 1883, in Winchester and grew up in town, attending the Winchester schools and graduating from Winchester High School and from Lowell Normal School. Before her marriage she taught in the Cambridge schools.

Dr. and Mrs. Sheehy were married in Winchester October 20, 1915. Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Richard W. Sheehy, Jr., of Winchester; a brother, James Dowd of Woburn; three sisters, Miss Anna and Miss Minnie Dowd, both of this town, and Mrs. Marcelle O'Neil of Dorchester; and two grandchildren, Richard W. Sheehy, 3rd, and Marcelle Sheehy.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning from the late residence at 9 o'clock. Solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 10. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Friday visiting hours will be from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 10 p. m.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Mary V. Mahoney of West Medford was guest of honor at a surprise bridal shower held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Lawrence T. Smith, 176 Mystic Valley Parkway.

Assisting Mrs. Smith in the planning and arrangements were: Mrs. Charles H. Mahoney of West Medford, Mrs. William A. Carey and Miss Anna Farley of Watertown, Mrs. Elaine Kiley of Arlington, Mrs. John Ryan of Westwood, Mrs. Isabel B. Scott and Mrs. Kenneth A. Harvey of Winchester.

Also attending the party were: Mrs. William L. Everett, Miss Catherine Foley, Mrs. James Kimball, Mrs. Charles Merenda, and Miss Andrea Smith, all of Winchester.

Out of town guests included: Miss Mary A. Mahoney, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Mrs. Edwin Wells, Mrs. Charles H. Riley, Mrs. Vincent Farley and her two daughters, Marian and Janet, also, Miss Marie Sullivan, Mrs. Robert Mahoney, Mrs. Laurence D. Norton, and Mrs. Earle F. Spencer.

Those sending gifts, but unable to attend, were: Mrs. Isabel B. Scott, Miss Audrey Johnson, Mrs. Richard E. Fenno, Jr., Mr. Charles H. Mahoney, Mrs. Robert L. Maynard, Miss Elaine Ryan, Master Jeffrey S. Ryan, Miss Janice Louise Mahoney, Mrs. Robert Newton, Mrs. William Sullivan, Mrs. Joseph H. Foley and Mrs. Joseph H. Foley, Jr.

Miss Mahoney will wed Mr. William T. Carey of Watertown, and formerly of this town, on April 19.

The successful surprise party was enjoyed by all.

ANN ROSE CANNIFF

Ann Rose Canniff of 89 Union Park street, Boston, a native and former resident of Winchester, died Saturday, March 1, at the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital after a month's illness.

Miss Canniff was the daughter of John and Rose (Cassidy) Canniff. She lived for many years in Winchester before moving to Boston and was a member of Qualey Court, Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Miss Canniff leaves a sister, Miss Margaret Canniff of Boston, and a brother, John Canniff of Lynn.

The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the Edward E. Lynch Funeral Home in Woburn, with solemn requiem high mass at St. Charles Church in that city. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

UNITARIAN COUPLES' CLUB

The annual Couples' Club "Cabaret Night" will be held Saturday, March 15 at 8:15 in Metcalf Hall. This evening has always been the "highlight" on the Couples' Club calendar and from the plans being made by the various committees it promises to be the standout affair of the season.

A fine new band has been engaged to provide the music for dancing.

Groups of "top stars" are working hard to make the entertainment most successful while another group are planning unusual decorations.

The advance ticket sale is very good and everyone is looking forward to a most enjoyable evening with a capacity attendance.

MISS GRANT ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. Grant of Linden street announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy, to Bernard Joseph Moreau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emile J. Moreau of Burlington, Vermont.

Miss Grant graduated from Winchester High School in 1948 and is now a senior at the University of Vermont.

Mr. Moreau is a graduate of Burlington High School, and served in the navy. He is a recent graduate of the University of Vermont, where he was a member of Delta Psi Fraternity. Mr. Moreau is now employed by the National Cash Register Company in Burlington.

INSTALLED AS PASTOR

Rev. John A. Heidt, who was pastor of the Second Congregational Church from 1945 to 1947, was installed February 24 as pastor of the Pleasant Street Congregational Church in Arlington.

TOWN VOTING LIGHT

Tansey and Main New Selectmen

Less than half of Winchester's registered voters went to the polls at the town election on Monday, 4242 out of a voting list presently totaling 9179 casting ballots. Even the corrected voting list which Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson believes will shrink to 8600 does not make the total vote cast much more impressive.

J. JOSEPH TANSEY

Elected Selectman with High Vote

J. Joseph Tansey, a native of Winchester and teacher-coach at Wentworth Institute, led the field of three candidates for the two vacancies on the Board of Selectmen. Mr. Tansey, a former Winchester High School athlete, polled 2728 votes to 2398 for the other successful candidate, Charles T. Main, 2nd, member of a family long prominent in Winchester affairs, whose father, the late Charles R. Main, was a Selectman, and whose grandfather, the late Charles T. Main, was a member and chairman of the Water and Sewer Board.

The present project calls for roadway overpasses at Bacon and Swanton streets, continuation of street surface at present grade with rotary traffic in the Center and the extension of Common street through to Waterfield road by means of another overpass near the Post Office. It is expected that the railroad overpass in the Center area will be finished with sea-faced granite of the type used on many bridges along Route 128.

The Selectmen have requested sketches of the project from the Department of Public Works and hope to have these on public view prior to full discussion of the grade crossing at town meeting.

PATENT TO CREDE

On February 19, 1952, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,586,207, on a "Seismic Frame Structure" to Charles E. Crede, 14 Brookside avenue.

This invention pertains to an improved supporting frame for a portable vibrograph or machine that measures and indicates the vibrations of building walls, bridges, and similar large structures. Generally speaking, such a vibrograph comprises a box-like housing within which is mounted a recording mechanism. The latter is actuated by a spring-biased rod that is in contact with the object of which the vibration is to be measured; and during operation, a curve of the vibration is produced on a tape which is moved out of the housing.

According to Mr. Crede, the determination of the vibration of the aforementioned types of structures involves certain difficulties. For example, a swaying building moves in its entirety so that there is no stationary reference within the building from which to measure. Moreover, the frequency of vibration is as low as two cycles per second; and, as a consequence, conventional portable vibrographs are not possible because, in the absence of a suitable support, they do not produce a satisfactory vibration record at frequencies below ten cycles per second. Incidentally, the latter limitation may be overcome by adding several hundred pounds to the weight of the vibrograph, but this obviously eliminates the advantages of portability and necessitates a substantial increase in the cost of the equipment.

To present a solution to this problem, Mr. Crede has devised a novel supporting frame structure consisting of such parts as a base, a column that is attached rigidly to and projects from the base, a pendulum member and a hinge. The vibrograph and a weighted element are mounted on this frame in such a manner that, with the aid of a calibration factor, the required measurement of low frequency vibration may be obtained from the reading of the vibrograph.

This patent has been assigned to the Barry Corporation, Cambridge, Mass.

WOBURN LUTHERAN CHURCH INITIATES BUILDING PROGRAM

The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer has voted to proceed with a building program which will call for an enlargement of the present church building located on Montvale avenue and Prospect street, Woburn. This is the first major building program that has been undertaken in the fifty-nine years of the church's history.

The building plan adopted by the congregation will call for a sizeable two-story structure providing for increased facilities for the Church School, classrooms, a meeting room, a church office-board room and a play area for children. It is estimated that the total structure will cost approximately fifteen thousand dollars. Empowered with the responsibility of carrying out the building operation, in conjunction with the congregation's Board of Trustees, is a Building Committee elected by the congregation. This committee consists of Mr. Bernard Eckberg of Winchester, Mr. Axel E. Nilsen of Reading and Mr. Sune Franson of Woburn.

Plans are already being carried out to solicit the entire parish for pledges of financial support. Membership of the congregation numbering nearly three hundred is derived from several of the communities surrounding Woburn.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The Winchester Garden Club met on Thursday, February 28, at the home of Mrs. Thomas I. Freeburn, the spacious house adding its charm to the enjoyment of the afternoon. In the hall a magnificent white azalea created a spot of beauty, and in the dining room, where dessert was served by the hostess, Mrs. Freeburn had created another picture with her artistic arrangement of white snapdragons, iris, jonquils and white carnations, Mrs. E. H. Robinson adding to the picture as she presided at the beautiful coffee urn.

The program for the afternoon was in the extremely capable hands of Mrs. Edward D. Leonard, of the Newton Garden Club, who opened her talk by saying that the art of flower arranging started in India before the sixth century, when the priests took pride in arranging the flowers for the temples. She illustrated her talk on "Simple Flower Arrangements," with many examples, one a charmingly simple arrangement of red roses and another a promise of spring in pussy willows and white tulips. In arranging flowers for the home Mrs. Leonard believes in the natural method of arranging, rather than the stylized designs, giving many new ideas in the mechanical means of arrangement, one of which is a sponge-like substance obtainable at florist shops, which may be placed in the base of the container to hold the stems, which she always soaks well in warm water to condition them.

MISS NORIAN HONORED

Among the twenty-three seniors at Mount Holyoke College who have been elected to membership in the Theta Chapter of Massachusetts of Phi Beta Kappa is Miss Elizabeth L. Norian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lion K. Norian of 8 Robinson Circle. The announcement was made by President Roosevelt Gray Ham at the college chapel service Tuesday, March 4.

Miss Norian was a Sarah Williston Scholar in her sophomore year and the recipient of the Winchester Club Scholarship, the Evelyn Church Wilbur Scholarship and the Anna C. Edwards Debate Prize. She was president of the United World Federalists, a college organization, and assistant stage manager for Junior Show. Miss Norian also has served as head of the campus radio station. She is a graduate of Winchester High School.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE FOR COMMUNITY CONCERTS

March 17-22 is Community Concert week in Winchester, and preparations for the annual membership campaign have been underway for the past month under the General Chairmanship of Mrs. Clarence P. Whorf, with co-chairmen Mrs. Nellie E. Borden and Mrs. D. Reid Weedon.

Now completing its fifth season under the sponsorship of the Winchester Smith College Club, the Community Concerts organization has brought to Winchester many outstanding artists, Mezzo-Soprano Mona Paulee, Violinist Paul Masovsky, Pianists Sanroma, Nicole Hensley, Alex Templet and Monique de la Bruchollette, Twin-pianists Whittmore and Lowe, the DePaul Infantry Chorus and the Columbus Boy Choir, to mention but a few. It is the hope of the Club's President, Mrs. Stanley E. Neill, that this year's membership drive, through the work of Captains and their committees, will bring these outstanding concerts to an even wider Winchester audience.

An intensive one-week drive will be conducted with the dual purpose of renewing present memberships and securing new ones, both adult and student, to insure a capacity audience at the High School auditorium for next year's Community Concerts. Headquarters will again be established at the Peck and Peck store on Main street, where a representative of the New York organization, Mrs. Bryon Lear, together with members of the Smith College Club, will be on hand during store hours. A telephone, with number to be announced later, will be installed under the name of the Community Concerts, to facilitate direct application for memberships.

A host of workers will canvass the town beginning on Monday morning and will work under the direction of the following Captains: Mrs. Robert Abbott, Mrs. Walter Badger, Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Miss Helen Hall, Mrs. Melville Hughes, Mrs. Jost Michelsen, Mrs. Warren Price, Mrs. William Swett, Mrs. Frederick Schiffmacher and Mrs. Frederick Walsh.

At noon, on Saturday, March 22, the campaign will close, and no memberships will be accepted after that date. All workers are instructed to emphasize that no box-office admissions to any of the concerts will be sold, since the artists who appear in the series are selected according to the number of memberships obtained during the drive. Subscribers to the Winchester series are welcome to use their membership cards for admission to Community Concerts in surrounding towns, and a schedule of these dates and artists will be published in the fall for their convenience.

Immediately following the close of the campaign, the Board of Directors will meet and choose the artists to appear next year. Since some thirty new artists have recently been added to the Community Concert roster, there is added assurance that the program for next year will maintain the same high standard established during the past four years.

Serving on the Board of Directors for one year are the following: Mrs. George J. Barboro, Mrs. Henry K. Pitts, Dr. F. Milne Blanchard and Dr. Samuel B. Kirkwood; for two years, Mr. John L. Donovan, Mrs. John Chipman, Mr. Benjamin Marshall, Mr. Kenneth W. Moffatt and Mrs. Eugene Pollard; for three years, Miss Eleanor Anfantis, Mrs. Robert A. Drake, Mrs. Cutler B. Downer, Mrs. Thomas Hennessey and Mr. William A. Swett.

MISSION UNION GUILD FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 11th. Mrs. Hugh Grimes and Mrs. Mabel Ward will direct the 10 o'clock sewing meeting. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock in the social hall by Mrs. Ralph Swan and Mrs. John Willis and their committee. The Guild will meet at 2 o'clock in the small social hall with Mrs. James S. Allen, director of Mission Union, presiding, and Mrs. Norman Padelord in charge of the worship service.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Philip Shute, the former Agnes Kelsey of Hingham. Widely travelled, Mrs. Shute is well known for her world-wide interests in international affairs, and for the many friendships made during her travels, with people of all colors and creeds. She is an enthusiastic worker in all community affairs, and takes a keen interest in working with the school children. She recently instituted an international day of prayer, which brought together practically all the young folks of the community for this special program. Mrs. Shute has many interesting stories to tell of her travels and contacts with people of other nationalities. Her topic will be, "Friends are my Hobby."

PAST NOBLE GRANDS SERVICE CLUB

The Past Noble Grand's Service Club of Victoria Rebekah Lodge met on February 27, 1952 for their winter good time party. We enjoyed a Smorgasbord dinner at a restaurant on Province street, Boston. After the dinner the group went to the Shubert Theatre and saw "Three Wishes for Jamie," which was acclaimed a great success by all. A little thing like a snowstorm does not keep our group from having a gala evening. The March meeting will be the 26th at Mrs. Alfred Denley's home, 29 Maxwell road, Winchester.

SHARE HOLDERS PAID

Proving the better return of monthly systematic savings, the Winchester Co-operative Bank paid 63 share holders the sum of $115,109.25.

IMPORTANT MUSICAL EVENT

Isherwood, tenor, is a Winchester man, and his singing background includes much study and performance in Europe.

George Fortune, the group's outstanding bass, has been heard at Trinity Church, Boston. Completing the list of important musical names highlighting the afternoon is that of Weston L. Brannen, organist, who is director of the Reading Symphony as well as organist at the Episcopal Church of Waban. All of these along with all of the excellent group singers are putting in many hours working to attain the perfection demanded of this most exacting of musical masterpieces.

For Winchester music lovers the first performance in town of the monumental and rarely given Mozart "Requiem" at the Unitarian Church on Sunday afternoon, March 23rd, at 4 p.m. will be an outstanding occasion. Continuing in their tradition of musical Lenten services, the Winchester Unitarian choir, augmented by the Mary Witham Singers and others, are rehearsing this difficult but most beautiful of Mozart works and, anticipating that their performance will match their high enthusiasm, it is expected that the Unitarian Church will be filled to overflowing that afternoon. Director of the group, Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham, is finding great satisfaction working out what she considers a most perfectly constructed piece of music. And, in the interpreting of this last composition of Mozart's, believed by him in many ways to be his own requiem, she thinks herself most fortunate to have an enviable group of top notch soloists.

The soloists, for whom the work offers some exceedingly lovely quartette numbers, are a group of which the Unitarian Church is proud to boast. Dolores Baldyga of Boston, the soprano, is a soloist with Goldowsky's opera company in Boston, and is currently often heard at the Gardner Museum. Miss Muriel Thorley, the contralto, is well known to Winchester music devotees and for her solo work with the Cecilia Society. Mr. Edgar

WINCHESTER WON FINALE

Crushed Woburn, 61-32, for Unbeaten Season

Winchester High completed an undefeated season by crushing Woburn High 61-32 before a jam-packed crowd at the high school gym last Friday night. As far as any records are available to prove otherwise, this is the first undefeated basketball team in the history of Winchester High School. Certainly it is the greatest record compiled by a Red and Black quintet and this group of eight seniors, headed by Captain John Dilorio, will be the criterion by which all future Winchester High basketball teams will be compared.

Basketball is a sport in which upsets are common because of the "off" nights experienced by the best of teams. Thus, the greatest tribute to the soundness and ability of this team is the fact that they could not be defeated through a rugged 20-game schedule in which the smallest margin of victory in any game was eleven points. The Indians are now preparing for the Tech Tournament in which they will compete against the seven best Class B teams in Eastern Massachusetts but Winchester followers are confident that the Indians will prove their right to be classed with the best in the State.

The Winchester attack sputtered and stalled during a large part of the first half as the Indians were unable to function smoothly and were missing baskets and foul shots that they ordinarily make with ease. The locals had a 15-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and had moved into a safe 28-16 lead at the intermission in spite of their numerous mistakes and general ragged exhibition. The third quarter was something else again as the Indians came to life to roll up a 24-9 margin in that period. Winchester made good on 10 out of 21 shots at the basket in this period, sparked by big Doug Hawkins who went on a scoring rampage with 13 points. The big excitement came in the fourth quarter when Hawkins dropped in another basket to establish a new all-time seasonal high scoring record of 260 points. Captain John Dilorio, Doug Hawkins, and Johnny Farrell were the brightest stars of this latest Winchester victory. Dilorio did a tremendous job of guarding and out-scoring Woburn's high scoring Captain Kerrigan and had that worthy so upset that he fouled out of the game in the third quarter. Hawkins was the game's high scorer with 22 points while controlling both backboards to ruin the Woburn offense. Farrell delighted the crowd with his cool, intelligent floor play that completely baffled the Tanners while setting up his teammates for easy baskets. The win was a grand climax to a great season in which each of the players has had his moments of glory and to which each has made valuable and important contributions.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB BOWS TO LYNNFIELD

Winchester Hockey Club, playing a superior brand of hockey for two thirds of the game and enjoying a 3 to nothing lead suddenly suffered a reversal of form in the contest with Lynnfield Knights at the North Shore Sports Center at Lynn last Sunday evening. The result was that Lynnfield poured a deluge of rubber into the Winchester net in the final stanza to win going away 5 to 4.

In the early part of the game Charlie O'Connor had counted for the locals, slamming in Leo Williams' rebound. Allie Power followed with two, the first assisted by Bob Cox, the second set up by Brother Tom Power.

Going into the final stanza with this apparently safe lead, Jack Burns and Dick Burns stunned the locals by tallying successive goals. The Winchester defense appeared to crumble badly. However, Tom Power did manage to pull Winchester out 4 to 2 with a neat effort on a pass from brother Allie. This was the locals' last offensive effort of any consequence. Lynnfield poured in three more in about as many minutes near the end, Dick Burns getting his second of the evening, followed by Dick Weeks' equalizer, and Elmer Melanson, son of the Lynnfield coach, accounted for the winning marker with seconds only remaining. This last shot was a peculiar one, a high, easy job that appeared to elude the vision of Scott Connor, Winchester net-minder, hitting him on the forehead hard enough to stun him momentarily, and then trickling down behind him into the net.

Ronald MacKenzie making his debut in local uniform gave a creditable account of himself. This young man appears to have the qualities that will enable him to develop into a first class hockey player in the not too distant future.

It will interest local fans, friends and families of the players, and the generous sponsors of the team to know that Winchester is one of the eight foremost clubs in New England selected by the Amateur Hockey Association and invited to play in the New England Senior "A" Championship Tournament to be held at St. Dom's Arena, Lewiston, Maine next Saturday afternoon and Sunday, March 8th and 9th.

UNBEATEN INDIANS IN GARDEN CLASSIC

Winchester High School's unbeaten basketball team, titan of the Class B teams of Greater Boston, and, in the opinion of most experts, good enough to hold its own with any of the Class A teams, has been chosen for the second straight year to compete in the Tech Tournament which opens at the Boston Garden on Monday, March 10.

Winchester was selected for tournament competition as champion of the Middlesex League, but had they played in no league, the Indians would have rated a tourney bid on their outstanding record alone. Unbeaten in 20 games, this year's team is undoubtedly the best to find it, if indeed you can. There is no record of any unbeaten team previous to this at the high school athletic office and old timers with whom we have spoken can recall no teams with perfect records among the outstanding quintets to represent the school.

Basketball like most other sports has come a long way since the old days, and though you may not like the modern version, with its incessant whistle-blowing you will have to admit the game is much faster and complex than it used to be.

Winchester's current team is a senior team, the members of which have been working together under Coach Ted Bartlett ever since they were freshmen. As sophomores they looked good and last year as a junior group they tied for the Middlesex League crown and went on to the tournament, being eliminated by Milton in the Garden solely because of inexperience.

This year Winchester has the experience, and the poise that only experience can bring. Expertly coached by one of the best in the business, the Indians have the technical equipment so many of the other potentially good teams lack and the ability to make their offensive and defensive patterns work. Averaging about 70 points a game Winchester's scoring is not confined to any one star, though big

Doug Hawkins broke the school's individual scoring record in the Woburn game last Friday. Any one of three or four boys in the line-up can break out in a scoring rash any time, and there isn't a player in the line-up who can't score when given the opportunity.

Besides beating all of the Middlesex League teams twice, Winchester has won from Winthrop, North-eastern Conference champion, twice; from Danvers, from Woburn twice and from Kennett High of Conway, N. H. The Indians have scrimmaged with several Class A teams on off days and have more than held their own with the larger schools. They have also done well in Saturday morning sessions with nearby college freshman teams.

Tonight Winchester plays Portsmouth High, Class A Champion of New Hampshire at Portsmouth in a tune-up for the tournament game Monday. Without several of their key players the Indians more than held their own with Arlington in a scrimmage Tuesday.

Winchester will not be without support in the Garden when they take the Court Monday evening at 8:30. A big block of tickets has been on sale all week at McCormack's Apothecary and local fans have been gobbling them up. The Indians opponent will not be announced in time for this week's paper, but whoever it is Winchester will be in there battling and should do well.

SENIOR FORUM VICTORY OVER HEBRON J. V.

Last Saturday, March 1, the Forum's basketball team journeyed up to Hebron, Maine and played Hebron Academy's Junior Varsity basketball team. They returned that evening, victorious, having beaten the Hebron team 73-71. Norman Howard, high scorer with 35 points, received strong support from Steve Yale, who put in 17 points, in a fast game where the lead changed several times. The Forum scored well from the foul-line, making good on 55% of their shots.

ROTARY-NURSES BOWLING

Bradlee Team Leads at End of Five Weeks

Town Treasurer Abbot Bradlee's Team 6 is leading the Rotary-Nurses Bowling League competition at the end of five weeks with 15 points, only two points more than the runner-up, Dick Hakanson's Team 2.

Team 5, captained by Freddie McCormack, is in third place with 11 points, with Dr. Sanford Moses' Team 4 only a point in arrears. Joe Moffett's Team 1 is crowding Team 4 with nine points, but Team 3, headed by Dr. Milne Blanchard, has yet to hit its stride, trailing the other groups with only two points.

To make up for his team's deficiency Dr. Blanchard has the high single string average to date with a 90.5. Hard on Milne's heels is Freddie McCormack with a 90.1 average. Jean Craigie leads the nurses with an excellent 84.6 average. Dick Hakanson owns the current high three string with 304.

MR. WAKEFIELD EXPLAINS

Editor of the Star:
Unusual circumstances have attended the procedure on the George Washington School Building Addition project. As I will not be able to be present at the Town Meeting to report to the town as chairman of the building committee, I wish to make the following explanation. Business obligations will necessitate my leaving for the West Indies, Haiti and Cuba from March 6th to early April.

To help me compensate somewhat for my absence, the committee has agreed to write as complete a report as possible of our activity to date as possible.

All interested town committees have been consulted prior to its final edition. A copy of this report will be mailed to every town meeting member prior to March 13th.

Building cost estimates based on preliminary plans can change surprisingly in the interval necessary to the completed project.

While personally disappointed that our committee's original request for funds must be supplemented, I am satisfied that this project will be completed at a most economical price for these times and that the taxpayers' interests have been carefully respected.

Sincerely,
John C. Wakefield

SOME QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THE GRADE CROSSING

"Do the opponents of the proposed elevated railroad really care to eliminate the hazard and the annoying delays at the grade crossing?"

Emphatically yes! But not at the terrible price we are asked to pay for such an antiquated solution while more modern methods can solve the problem without destroying Winchester's greatest asset—her attractiveness and atmosphere of charm and beauty. This appeal has persuaded many Winchester taxpayers to purchase homes here at a cost of probably one to three thousand dollars more than the same house would cost in towns with an overhead railroad—where values dropped as the elevated rose. An elevated railroad dates and classifies a town in a way that does not appeal to Winchester.

And what about the Common? It has definitely been stated that, in two or three years, the Common will be used for not practical purposes.

That means a parking lot—robbing us of our one little patch of village green in this area, where those who pass, and nearby residents, may sit and enjoy the cool and shade on a hot day; or, at Christmas time join the carol singers around a brilliantly lighted Christmas tree. But some say, "What good is that Common? It just lies there and doesn't bring in a cent of money and we need a parking lot."

If you don't like the prospect, now is the time to help change it, before the bulldozers and steam-shovels begin their heartless destruction for the pleasure of a few and the regret and sorrow of the many. Won't you join us in this very vital work?

GRADE CROSSING PLANS

Please bring all sketches, plans, or suggestions of any kind for a solution of this traffic problem in the Square to the Winchester Library by 2:00 p.m., Saturday, March 15th.

We hope all interested citizens will come prepared to criticize or approve and enter the general discussion which should be helpful at this particular time.

OBSERVER SEES WINCHESTER MORE PREPARED FOR BOMBS THAN REGION 5 HQ

We enjoyed running into friends among the auxiliary police from far-off Needham, right on the job, seeing cars from little Plimpton, from Cohasset— from everywhere, it seemed; and we all have a very good word for the well-planned feeding of doughnuts and sandwiches right up to the "front lines" where workers could eat without trudging hundreds of yards back to rear areas.

Winchester Test a Contrast
For what it lacked, I don't need to say a word. Let me just tell you what Winchester did, on the same day. This was Winchester's third all-element alert, and it showed clearly the results of hard, grilling work, months of preparation, and indescribable community spirit and teamwork.

Contrast Watertown's simple problem—fully detailed in advance—to the complex schedule of messages in Winchester's problem (used to supplement messages emanating from Watertown), all coming as a complete, realistic surprise to the people who had to work them out in the test.

Smooth-working Force
After months of work, Winchester's control center presents a calm, smooth, efficient working force. And they are so fully tested as to be ready for anything. To prove this, Communications Director John Blanchard twice calmly pulled the main switch bringing power in to the center. He knew, of course, what would happen: the lights dimmed for a moment, then brightened as we heard the cough, then steady hum of the emergency generator in the next room take over to run the lights, the radios, and keep the center in full operation. When the radio room door was shut to maintain quiet, a thoughtfully-installed power blower kept air circulating, and the radio room in full readiness.

Proud of Spirited Workers
Winchester men are proud of its CD workers. We can be proud of the Civilian War Aid Division workers who sat huddled in an unheated Town Hall headquarters for four long hours on the job. Mrs. Ruth Hilton, who has so well organized six registration teams; Mr. McCarthy, who organizes the Feeding Section; Mr. McFeely, in charge of Housing; and of course the Division's Director, Mr. Supply, and his able Deputy, Mr. Roche.

We were especially proud of our town's Utilities Division emergency vehicle, which drew many "looks" and "thumbs" from other towns when it reported to the Watertown problem, fully equipped to repair damage to water mains, sewers, etc. This is Utilities' Jim Hayward's special pride.

It was a heart-warming sight to pass the various Winchester police check-points and to find them fully manned, traffic smoothly directed by auxiliaries so well trained by our regular force.

These are impressions—personal impressions—and space does not permit recounting them all. Later you will be introduced to others of the active Winchester CD forces which are making our town every day a safer place for its citizens against possible disaster.

I'd be the last one to wish trouble on our town, but I can't help my pride in knowing that if a bomb did fall, here or anywhere in our Region, I'd be proud of these plain citizens who, after all, make Civil Defense a real thing.

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ROLL CALL SUPPER

The Annual Roll Call Supper of the Second Congregational Church, marking the 48th anniversary of the church, will be held at the church Friday, March 14, 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Gunnar Abrahamson with an able committee will plan the supper. Entertainment will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin MacKerron. Mrs. MacKerron has a degree in piano from the University of London and she also plays the xylophone. Mr. MacKerron is a noted singer and will sing some special numbers. He will also lead group singing. Everyone who attends the supper will receive a picture of the Church that appeared on the calendar of the First National Bank. Proceeds from the supper will go to the Benevolence Fund. Mrs. W. O. Whiting, 3 Orient street, Winchester 6-2681 is in charge of tickets. Tickets are limited, and only those reserving tickets in advance can be served.

METHODIST ANNUAL MEETING TONIGHT

The Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will have its Annual Meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the Winnifred L. Crawford Room. All members and those interested in the activities of the church are expected to attend.

Reports of all organizations and committees will be made along with the report of the pastor.

Rev. Archer J. Strat, District Superintendent, will have charge.

PARTY TO BENEFIT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

When the Boston Section of the Women's Auxiliary to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers holds its annual Theatre Party at Tufts College Arena Theater on Friday, March 14th, proceeds will go toward the scholarship and educational funds. This year the presentation will be "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines."

The Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Mark A. Princi, is planning the affair. Assisting her will be Mrs. A. W. Benoit, Mrs. T. N. Graser, Mrs. H. M. King, Mrs. R. E. Lyon, and Mrs. Walter Robertson. Members planning to attend from Winchester are: Mrs. Charles Crede, Mrs. Frank Gunby, Mrs. John Shanahan and Mrs. Halford H. Ambler.

INTERIM REPORT

George Washington School Building Addition Committee

At the last annual town meeting our committee was given approval of its preliminary plans and voted funds to proceed with plans and construction of the addition and to make alterations to the George Washington School.

Funds were voted as follows:
Elimination of Old Bldg. . . . $ 2,500.00
Plan and Construction . . . . $238,000.00

Available to Committee . . . . . $240,500.00
Bids were opened July 13, 1951. John F. Griffin Co., of Cambridge, Mass. was low bidder at $259,000.00. Adding architect's fees and equipment costs to this price would show a cost to the town of about $280,000.00. A contributing factor towards this difference was the rise in wage rates and the increase in price of materials between the time of the estimate and the actual receipt of bids.

The bid specifications to the contractors called for certain extras considered desirable but not essential. Namely:

Plastered ceiling and walls in auditorium and corridors.
Highest quality corridor tile dado.
Tile to ceiling in toilets instead of tile dado.
Extraordinary heating and ventilating system.
Tankless hot water system for both boilers.
Heavy asphalt tile.
Circular benches for classrooms.
Steel clothes lockers.

These items were eliminated and the bid and specifications were re-examined to see how much could be kind of school the town expected for the funds available to us.

As a result of this study the following changes from the specifications in our original report to the town were made:

Eliminated or Substituted
Plaster on classroom walls eliminated.
Substituted asphalt shingles for slate on slant roofs.

Toilet floors changed from terrazzo to quarry tile.
Sandstruck brick substituted for water struck brick.

Additions
Small kitchen for use by teachers and Mothers' Association.
Doubled kindergarten toilet facilities.

Two large roof skylights to light interior stairways. (Required by the Division's Director, Mr. Supply, and his able Deputy, Mr. Roche.)

Two janitor's sinks.
Improved lighting.
Increased cabinet and storage space.

Basement storage room (1,000 square feet in area).
On the basis of these eliminations and additions we estimated we could build the school and completely equip it for approximately $256,000.00 or about 6% more than the $240,500.00 available.

While our committee originally figured our estimates to be within 5% either way it was extremely disappointing to us to be on the deficit side.

The pattern of the bidding and the uncertain political and monetary situation convinced us that we would not obtain better prices if new bids were requested.

On July 18th we needed a minimum of $8,000.00 additional funds to enable us to sign a contract, or about $15,000.00 to complete the building.

The following situations confronted us:
Alterations to the old school had to be completed by September 3rd as the school was badly overcrowded.

Permit to build granted by National Production Authority carried expiration date of August 25, 1951.

Contractor's bid firm only until August 13, 1951.

Structural steel order had to be placed within two weeks.

Controlled Materials plan under NPA was daily issuing restrictions on the use of steel, copper and other building materials.

We could obtain the minimum necessary $8,000.00 or the $15,000.00 by the following:

Vote for special town meeting.
Proving our situation an emergency and requesting an appropriation of the funds from the Finance Committee.

Our committee chose not to request a special town meeting for the following reasons:
Difficulty of obtaining a quorum in July.

If a quorum it might not be representative of the town as a whole. Committee did not have time to submit a report complete enough for factual town meeting discussions. Plans and specifications and changes could not be hurriedly prepared.

Required funds relatively small. After discussing our situation with Mr. Clarke, Town Counsel, and seeing our position in order we appealed to the Finance Committee for $15,000.00. On July 23 after much study and consideration the Finance Committee voted to transfer $8,000.00 to our committee to enable us to sign the contract. It was understood by all that another sum approximately $7,000.00 would be required to finish and equip the school.

Order to Proceed was given the John F. Griffin Co., July 24, 1951.

Formal Contract was signed September 11, 1951 for the sum of $227,955.65.

Progress—Alterations to the old building were completed in time for the reopening of school in September.

Coal burning boilers were dismantled and the two oil fired boilers were installed. Old building was first heated by the new boilers on November 15, 1951.

To date the addition is 65% complete and we feel confident it will be completed in time for the school opening in September.

The contractor and sub-contractors under the direction of Mr. Richard Moore have done a most satisfactory job to date.

The pupils at this school have been extremely helpful by respecting the working area and causing not the slightest trouble to the workmen or the materials. The teachers have been very cooperative and despite the confusion school routine has been normal except for one morning when due to heat control failure the kindergarten was cold and pupils sent home. Mr. McKenzie, the school custodian merits our special appreciation for his devotion to duty under extremely difficult circumstances.

Funds Needed For Completion Of School
The following pages show complete financial data to date and all details supporting our request for funds.

Our committee appreciates the cooperation and support given us by all town departments and hopes to merit the continued support of the town meeting members and citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
John C. Wakefield, Chairman
Hazen Ayer
Daniel T. Chane, Jr.
Constance K. Marshall
Eugene M. Pollard
W. Landon Powers
Caroline P. Spaulding

Estimated Cost to the Town (Alterations and Addition) on the Basis of March 1, 1952 Figures

Preliminary Expenses . . . . . $ 445.81
Original Contract . . . . . $227,955.65
Approved Change Orders No. 1 and No. 15 . . . . . 2,349.12
Change orders under discussion . . . . . 782.40
New Equipment for old building . . . . . $317.02
Continuing . . . . . 1,450.00
Architect's Fee . . . . . 13,500.00

School Cost Complete . . . . . $256,500.00
Funds available . . . . . 248,500.00
Funds required and requested . . . . . $ 8,000.00
School Cost . . . . . 256,500.00
Less 20% State Aid on addition only . . . . . 48,240.00

Estimated Net Cost to Town . . . . . $208,260.00
If estimated State Aid of 20% will apply on $241,245.00, i. e., assuming $15,255.00 as cost of alterations on old building.

SPRING MEETING
JUNIOR FLORENCE CRITENTON

On Tuesday evening, March 4th, the Spring Meeting of the Junior Circle, Florence Crittenton League was held at the home of Mrs. Janet H. Coon, Jr., 61 Salisbury street.

In the absence of Mrs. Moulton Herrick, President, the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Martha Porter, Vice-President of the Circle. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and a nominating committee appointed to select next year's officers. Board recommendations were accepted for donations to the League for case workers' salaries and retirement present for Miss Fowler.

At the conclusion of the business meeting an informal talk was presented by Prof. Herbert D. Lamson on Sex Education for children in the home, at school and through the church, library and museum. The film "Human Growth" shown in Winchester in 1948 was also presented by Prof. Lamson and stirred much interest in making appreciation available in Winchester schools. A lively question and answer period followed straightening out many problems for the audience.

Mrs. Charles D. Whitten and her committee served delicious refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

MR. TANSEY THANKS VOTERS
I wish to thank all those who led me for Selectman on Monday and express my deep appreciation of the efforts of my friends who worked so hard in support of my candidacy. My high vote is an especial challenge to give the town the best service of which I am capable.

TOWN VOTING LIGHT

MRS. LOUISE A. KUGLER

Led School Committee Candidates

Mrs. Louise A. Kugler, with strong backing by the women of the town, was the leader in this contest, polling 2443 votes. In the closest sort of contest for the other place Earle F. Littleton beat Olcott L. Hooper by 20 votes, polling 2145 to Mr. Hooper's 2125. Mr. Littleton's vote in his own Precinct was just enough better than Mr. Hooper's home Precinct vote to turn the trick.

Geleson W. Ryerson and Joseph T. Callahan, candidates for re-election, were elected constables, with the third place on the ticket going to John T. Horn over Laurence Humphrey. Mr. Ryerson led the field with 2947 votes, nineteen more than Mr. Callahan's total.

The town rejected the State Act for increased vacations for police and firemen, 2161 to 1417, opposition to the change by the Selectmen and Finance Committee being deciding factors.

In Precinct 6 the leader was the new Selectman, Mr. Tansey, who polled 643 votes, his nearest competitor being the veteran former Assessor, John F. Cassidy, who received 574.

The vote ran very light early in the morning, with only 783 ballots cast at 10 o'clock. At 4:45 in the afternoon 2512 votes were in, a total of 1630 votes being cast from that time to the closing of the polls at 7.

Precinct 2, headed by Mrs. Helen A. Callahan, got their vote in first at 8:35. Precinct 3 was last in at 10 o'clock, and Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson announced the official figures at 10:40.

JOHN T. HORN

DISTRICT ATTORNEY
GEORGE E. THOMPSON

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club will meet on Wednesday afternoon March 12, 1952 at 2:30 p. m. in Masonic Hall. George E. Thompson of Melrose, District Attorney, will be one of the two speakers. Appointed in December, 1944 by Governor Leverett Saltonstall to fill the unexpired term of Governor Robert Bradford, the then District Attorney, Mr. Thompson has held the office since that time, being elected in 1946 and reelected in 1950. He is a graduate of Boston University Law School and since his admission to the bar in 1926 has been actively engaged as a trial lawyer. Mr. Thompson will speak on the subject, "Now is the Hour."

HON. PHILIP K. ALLEN

"The Do's and Don'ts of the Ballot" will be the timely and educational topic discussed by the other speaker of the afternoon, the Honorable Philip K. Allen. Mr. Allen, a former member of the State Senate, was legislative assistant to the Republican leader of the House of Representatives from 1949-51, and in May 1951 was appointed Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee, his present position. In addition to his important work in Massachusetts Republican politics, he is prominent in many civic activities, serving as chairman of the Board of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, and as president of the Judge Baker Guidance Center.

Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, president of the Club, extends a very cordial invitation to Club members and their friends to attend this meeting, which is an open one. Tea will be served by Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay and her committee. The Transportation Committee stands ready to assist anyone in getting to and from the meeting. Call Winchester 6-1338.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Arthur Johns, an attorney living at 38 Glenn road, ex-Captain of Harvard's 1939 Baseball Team, is to be one of the Little League team managers. Arthur Johns was chosen on the All Eastern League Baseball Team in 1939 and led the league in stolen bases. In 1940 and 1941 he was playing manager of the Berlin, New Hampshire and Lancaster, New Hampshire Baseball teams in the Twin State League. In the spring of 1941 he coached the Harvard Second Freshman Team while attending Harvard Law School. Recently he has played on the Athletics Softball Team in Winchester. These are but a few of his accomplishments in baseball but serve to point out that the boys playing Little League ball in Winchester will have the benefit of leadership from men who know first-hand how to play ball and manage a team.

Various rules governing Little League as well as information regarding try-outs will be announced later but in ample time so that every boy in Winchester will have an equal opportunity to win himself a position on one of the teams. All Winchester boys who will not be over 12 years old on July 31st will be eligible to try out for Little League Baseball.

PRECINCT 2 MEETING

Tuesday, March 11th at 8 p. m., Lincoln School. To discuss article in the Warrant for the Town Meeting. Precinct members and voters urged to attend.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

On Monday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. the Literature Group met in the Public Library. Mrs. Blanche Barnard opened the meeting by reviewing "The President's Lady" by Irving Stone. This book concerns the true facts about Andrew Jackson and his wife, Rachel. Since the author did a considerable amount of research work beforehand, the results are a very informative and interesting book. Following this five minute book review, Miss Eva Sherman read a lengthy paper on Edna St. Vincent Millay, American poet.

She was born in 1892 in Rockland, Maine. Her mother had to support the three children after divorcing her husband because he was fond of poker and other games of chance. Edna was the oldest and a very striking girl with her wavy green eyes and red hair. At a very early age she began writing poems, and as a result of "Renaissance" was able to attend Vassar for four years. She was an extremely shy girl and possessed different moods. Many of her poems display her different moods. She was married in 1923 and spent a great deal of her time at "Steepletop" in New York State alone with her husband. She was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1923 for a group of her poems and the ballad "The Harp Weaver." She died in 1950, one year after her husband, Mrs. Theodore Dissel read several of her poems to us.

Edith Sitwell, English poet, was reviewed by Miss Gertrude Kimball in the absence of Mrs. Frank Evans. The Sitwells belong to England's most celebrated literary family. Edith and her brother Sir Osbert have dazzled the British public by writing glittering poems. Portions of her poems were read by Mrs. Blanche Barnard, including "The Canticle of the Rose."

On Monday, March 10, at 2:00 p. m., the Fortnightly will hold the regular meeting. Just back from a conference with President Harry S. Truman regarding the crucial Middle East problem, Mr. Frank Maria, a leading authority in the fields of human relations and international relations, will address The Fortnightly on the time subject, "Your Stake in the Middle East."

Called by Bill Cunningham, nationally known columnist, "one of the most brilliant young men in England, if not, in fact, in the United States of America," Mr. Maria has had outstanding success in a number of fields, notably education, leadership, athletics and business management.

Last summer Mr. Maria was presiding officer of an international convention which promoted friendship between America and the Middle East. It was officially estimated that Mr. Maria's speeches and addresses were heard by more Middle Eastern people than those of any other American, and his words are still being utilized by the Voice of America in the ideological war of democracy against communism.

A few months ago Mr. Maria joined with Miss Dorothy Thompson, nationally known columnist and lecturer, and twenty other outstanding Americans in the formation of a new committee, "American Friends of the Middle East," the purpose of which is the promotion of friendship and understanding between the peoples of America and the Middle East. No area of the world today is more important to the security and welfare of America than the vital, strategic Middle East, and Mr. Maria's talk on Monday afternoon should throw much light upon this important subject.

In addition to Mr. Maria's talk we will have as our guests twelve international students from the Fletcher School administered by Tufts College with the cooperation of Harvard. These students come from Australia, New Zealand, Italy, India, Poland, Pakistan, Indonesia, Thailand and Japan. You Fortnightly will have an opportunity to talk with these students after the meeting while refreshments of ice cream and cake are being served by Mrs. Meigs and her committee. See you there.

Dear Mr. Blackham:

The Civil Defense Exercise at Watertown on March 2, 1952, is now history. I feel certain that the incident bodes well for concerted and continued effort in all civil defense services.

Kindly accept my heartfelt congratulations and thanks on the prominent part your agency played in the Watertown Test.

TO ADDRESS FORUM

One of the great Christian leaders of our day, Dr. S. Ralph Harlow, Professor of Religion at Smith College, will address the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church, Sunday, March 9, at 9:30 in Ripley Chapel. Dr. Harlow who was the speaker at Forum's International Banquet a year ago, has chosen as his subject "Dare We Be Christians?"

A world traveler, Dr. Harlow has also spent several years in the Near East, doing social service and rehabilitation work. The famous hymn, "Oh, Young and Fearless Prophet," which will be sung during the worship service, was composed by Dr. Harlow.

Serving as chaplain will be Terry Tallman, who will be assisted by Richard Emerson. The deacons will be Robert Gaffney and Stephen Dunn. Bill E. Johnston and Harry Thomas will act as ushers.

To help defray some of the expenses of its annual spring vacation trip, the Senior Forum will conduct several money making projects. This Saturday, March 8, will see the Forum members, under the direction of Dick Fernandez, collecting paper and magazines.

The good sale at Rutherford's Equipment Store, Saturday, March 15, will be sponsored by the Forum with Joan McNeill in charge.

SKI SCHOOL AT WINCHESTER

Every Saturday afternoon while there is snow in Winchester free instruction is given to Junior members of the Chamois Ski Club. During the spring vacation our school children were active taking lessons from ski instructors Bob Lowe and Mr. Lovely. Begin your own ski to ski correctly. Mr. Davies, in charge of Junior instruction, will welcome any new prospects. Meet at 11 Sanborn street on Saturdays at 2 p. m. It's never too early to be a skier—and it's not too late to be a Chamois this season. Many new members are still coming in, for there's plenty of spring skiing yet to come. Newest and youngest member of the Chamois Ski Club is Miss Ruth Ann Nault, daughter of Pres. and Mrs. Roland Nault. Miss Nault was born February 27, 1952. Congratulations Rolly and Jane, perhaps another Andy Mead—who knows?

The next club week-end—March 22 and 23 at the Eastern Slope Region. The Chamois will stay at the Thorne Mt. Lodge in Jackson, N. H.—Skiing at nearby Thorne and Black Mts., Pinkham or North Conway and Intervale. It is important that you make your reservation now with Al Broad, WI 6-1811-R, if you want to join in the fun. Many Chamois members and friends are planning to attend the Brad Washburn colorful showing of Mr. McKinty 1951 on Wednesday, March 12—call Winchester Sport Shop for tickets.

UNITARIAN LENTEN MUSIC

During the Lenten season the Winchester Unitarian choir under the direction of Mary Ranton Wigham will sing from Lenten music in the great tradition. Selections from Dubois' "Seven Last Words," Brahms' "Requiem," Haydn's "Imperial Mass," Mendelssohn's "Elijah," Gounod's "Gallia," Randall Thompson's "The Peaceable Kingdom." Selections from all these will be sung. During this period the distinguished members of the quartet will be heard in solo.

This Sunday, March 9th, Dolores Baldyga, soprano, and Edgar Isherwood, tenor, will sing from Dubois' "Seven Last Words," and Mr. Isherwood and George Fortune, baritone with the choir, will do the duet from this work. At the same time the Unitarian choir is preparing the great "Requiem" of Mozart for public presentation on Sunday, March 23rd, at 4:00 p. m. in the Unitarian Church.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The St. Patrick's Day Dance will be held on Saturday evening, March 15, at the Legion Home. The Co-chairmen, Dot McCormack and Ruby McKee, have an excellent committee working for this party and they promise entertainment for everyone. Come early and enjoy all the fun and dancing.

Our annual Birthday Party at the Bedford Hospital will take place on Thursday evening, March 27. We need the cooperation of every Auxiliary member to make this party a success, so make an effort to attend and help us entertain the Veterans.

The Rev. John W. Cook, minister of the Second Congregational Church, is recovering from a fractured elbow which he suffered from a fall on the ice recently.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

One of the most impressive edumocies for the Senior Scouts was held at the Hospital Nurses' Home last Thursday evening. Scouts Bonnie Andrews and Diane D'Elseaux have sent in the following report. The leader of the Nurses' Aide Group, Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux introduced the Girl Scout President, Mrs. Maxwell McCreary. Mrs. McCreary, thanked both the girls and Mrs. d'Elseaux for their service. Miss Laura Rogers, superintendent of nurses capped these girls, who had worked 39 hours or more at the Winchester Hospital. Following the capping ceremony Mrs. Elsie Cross from the Massachusetts General Hospital spoke to the Scouts and their parents about "Nursing as a career." She explained the various branches of nursing, the kinds of courses available and the compensations.

The Scouts receiving caps were: Joan Barnard, Barbara Bolster, Chandra Carlson, Lorraine Allen, Elizabeth Cummings, Diane d'Elseaux, Bonnie Andrews, Ruth Flaherty, Ruth Freeman, Constance Gowdy, Martha Hall, Marcia Harris, Judy Muncester, Anita Mullen, Mary Murray, Jeanne McKenzie, Ann Peter, Phyllis Rizzo, Virginia Wadsworth, Margaret Walsh, Stephanie Yale.

Thursday, March 12 at 10 a. m. at the Baptist Church. At this time, those interested may register for the Red Cross First Aid Course to be given in the Fall. Also to this meeting the Cookie Sale Kits and instructions will be distributed. This Cookie Sale is the only money making event of the year. Money realized from the sales is used to supplement the allowance from Scouters and Community Chest. All salesmen please note the dates and times of events because only those who have confirmed will be eligible for the prizes. Watch next week's Star for the kind of prizes to be awarded.

March 14, Friday at exactly 3:30 orders may be taken and written in the Order Books.

March 31, Monday, all orders are turned in. April 4—Deadline turning in money. Cookies will be delivered by the Scouts between March 28 and April 4.

All around the world Girl Scouts will design and wear their 1952-53 Birthday week. Scouts are asked to tune in on the National Broadcast Birthday party from the West Coast on Saturday, March 8 from 1:30 p. m. until 2 p. m. Winchester Scouts will initiate Birthday Week by two Special Church Services. The service at St. Mary's will be held at 9 a. m. at which time all Scouts attending will be dressed in official uniforms. The service at the Baptist Church will be at 10:45 a. m. Mr. Walter Lee Bailey's sermon is "Are Ye Able"—this message will give each Scout suggestions for living the promises put forth in the Scout motto.

Several Scouts will assist in the service—Virginia Wadsworth will read the Scripture and Constance Gowdy, Marcia Harris and Diane d'Elseaux will act as ushers. The highlight of the week's celebration will be the inspirational program "Scouts-Own" to be held at the High School Auditorium Sunday, March 9 at 4 p. m. Weather permitting all Scouts will meet at the Town Hall at 3:45 so that they may all parade to the High School. The program is for registered Scouts only—since it is a service planned and performed by the Girl Scouts themselves. Scout Mary Looney will have the honor of presenting the guest speaker, Ilja Kaarkinen from Finland.

Who will be the first to congratulate the parents of the Scout Birthday Girl? Watch File's window for the announcement.

ROTARY STAG NIGHT

Fifty-three Rotarians and guests turned out for the Winchester Club's Stag Night at the Country Club Tuesday evening.

Seated at the head table with President Al Elliott and Vice President Allan Wilde was Dr. Forbes H. Norris, Superintendent of Schools and Winchester Rotary's candidate for District Governor. Forbes was presented with some gifts of a humorous nature before speaking informally on Rotary and what his aims for the club will be as District Governor.

Nick Fitzgerald was also called upon to tell how it feels to be retiring as "Mayor of Winchester," he having completed his term as Chairman of the Board of Selectmen on Monday. County Commissioner John Cullen entertained radically through the evening with harmonica selections, and there was some pretty lusty group singing from time to time. Once again Roy Horn tried to tell that story about the "Three Little Indians" he has been attempting to complete for the past three years.

With the breaking up of the meeting the large devotees went at it in real earnest, their cabalistic "fifteen for two, crib and go" being heard long after most of the Rotarians were safe home in bed.

TODD DUNCAN

FINAL COMMUNITY CONCERT

On Tuesday evening, March 11th, Todd Duncan, baritone, will return to Winchester to sing the third and final concert of the 1951-52 Community Concert Series which is sponsored by the Winchester Smith College Club for the benefit of its scholarship fund.

Since his memorable performance two years ago, Mr. Duncan's musical reputation has been further enhanced by appearances through North and South America, Europe, Australia and New Zealand, and he has been acclaimed in press tributes everywhere for his versatility, the unusual sensitivity of his interpretation, and the almost religious devotion he brings to his singing.

Following a season with the New York Opera Company in the roles of Tomio in "Pagliacci" and the Toreador in "Carmen," he completed a world tour on the concert stage, then added new laurels by his starring role in the Maxwell Anderson-Kurt Weill musical play "Lost in the Stars," a stage adaptation of Alan Paton's novel of South Africa, "Cry the Beloved Country."

Mr. Duncan is the first concert artist invited to return for a repeat performance in the Concert Series, and a capacity audience is expected at the Winchester High School at 8:30 Tuesday evening to welcome him.

W. S. C. S. MEETING

A very pleasant day has been planned for the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service. All are invited to come to the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church at 10:30 a. m. and to spend the day sewing for the Morgan Memorial. Please bring any material suitable for aprons, which you may have.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by the ladies of the Good Cheer Group. The business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock.

Have you tried the new Mystik cloth tape 25 and 50 cents a roll on sale at Wilson The Stationer, Star Building, 3 Church street.

FOR MEN ONLY

If you are interested in Abraham Lincoln or Robert E. Lee and the Civil War period of our history, you are invited to an informal meeting to be held in the Edgar J. Rich Room at the Public Library, Tuesday evening, March eighteenth, at 7:45. This meeting will explore the idea of forming a group that might be interested to meet together for informal discussion on the subjects indicated.

D. A. R.

The Committee of Safety Chapter has been honored by the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution for having the most new members of any Chapter in the state during this administration.

Their regent, Mrs. William W. Goodhue, has been asked to give the welcoming address at the State Conference to be held March 20 at the Sheraton Plaza.

Mrs. Howard Wright, the Registrar, deserves great credit for doing so many application papers. The D. A. R. Good Citizenship Girl this year is Miss Diane Greer, daughter of Selectman and Mrs. Don S. Greer.

Miss Greer was chosen by the faculty and students of the high school as the girl who possessed the following four qualities in an outstanding degree: (1) dependability, which includes truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality; (2) service—cooperation, courtesy and consideration for others; (3) leadership—personality, self-control and ability to assume responsibility; (4) patriotism—unselfish interests in family, school, community and nation.

The Good Citizen Pilgrim is given a pin and will be at our own March 17 meeting. Miss Greer will attend the State Conference March 20 at the Sheraton Plaza.

The Good Citizenship Girls will attend the Thursday morning session of the State Conference. This will be received by the State Committee and an address will be given by a prominent official.

A luncheon for the girls will be held directly following the morning session, and a tour of the State House will be made. The girls will be received by the Governor of the Commonwealth. The Chapter is also sponsoring a Good Citizenship Girl from the Revere High School, Honorary State Regent Mrs. Herbert Eugene McQuestion will be at our March 17 meeting to explain the proposed revision of the By-Laws.

Dr. and Mrs. John Kishler and their daughter Katrina Lee spent the past week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Melville Ingalls Kishler at 21 Canterbury road, while visiting with Winchester and Boston friends.

MARYCLIFF GUILD

An Emerald Tea will follow the regular business meeting of the Marycliff Guild on Tuesday evening, March 11th at 8:00 p. m. at the Academy in Winchester.

The Academy Glee Club comprised of forty voices will then render many Irish selections. A drama entitled "A Champion of Truth" presented by the high school students will depict the life of Father Louis LaFosse, the Founder of "Religious of Christian Education."

Chairman of the tea will be Mrs. Joseph Burattini of Winchester. Assisting on the committee will be Miss Mary Wright and Mesdames Louis Avallone, Robert Bessette, Angelo Capone, James Crooker, Anthony DiCecce, Adrian Downey, Joseph Durant, Harvey Horne, Henry Magno, Frances McManama and John Volpe.

Mrs. William Moynihan, President, will preside over the entire program.

ORIGINAL GOODWILL BAG—From this first Goodwill Bag of Boston's Morgan Memorial, there has grown an industry which has paid 12 million dollars in self-respecting wages to handicapped people who repair discarded materials from New England households. The Goodwill Industries idea has spread to 119 cities throughout the world. Morgan Memorial is host to delegates who have come to Boston to celebrate the 50th birthday of the founding of Goodwill Industries. Left to right, William J. Kurth of Boston, president of the Morgan Memorial Board of Directors; David Dunbar of Lynn, one of the five original incorporators; and Fred C. Moore, superintendent, who has been associated with the work for half a century.

TRY-OUTS FOR "HARVEY"

Theatre-minded men and women who would be interested in acting or in backstage work are cordially invited to attend Parish Players try-outs on Monday evening, March 10, at 7:45 p. m. in the Parish Hall, First Congregational Church. The board members will serve coffee and homemade cookies in the small hall, followed by try-outs on stage. Mr. Harlan F. Grant will direct "Harvey", and will be in charge of the readings Monday night.

The current hit production of the fabulous but unseen rabbit—written by Mary Chase, and originally starring Frank Fay—has two scenes and three acts. The time is the present, in a city in the far West. The cast includes 6 men and 6 women, the Edwood P. Dowd role, and that of his sister, Veta Louise Simmons, being the leading parts. There are excellent roles in "Harvey", from the niece of Elwood down to the character part of the taxi driver in the last act, and in the twelve parts there is excellent scope for many talents.

In addition to the acting section of the Parish Players—this year marking its 26th birthday as a Little Theatre Group—there is the stage crew; electricians for the newest device in stage lighting; costume committees, and the crew which obtains and arranges the interesting settings of the plays. Recruits to all groups will be welcome! And the date is Monday, March 10!

Dr. Charles P. Donahue of 13 Church street will be one of the more than 900 optometrists from all over New England who will attend the 30th Annual Congress of the New England Council of Optometrists at the Hotel Statler in Boston March 9-12.

MYSTIC SCHOOL SQUARE DANCE

Friday evening, February 29, saw the Mystic School Auditorium appropriately arrayed for a square dance put on by the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades, who, as stated in the invitation to parents, were "ready and able to dance Mom and Pop right under the table." Admission charges paid at the door were a penny an inch for parents' measurements as taken by Mr. William Wolsey and Mrs. Colver Dyer. The large stage backdrop—a covered wagon and cactus scene—and the bark and rope "Welcome to the Heel and Toe" greeting established the motif carried out in western decorations at the piano and windows by Mrs. George Niles and her committee of the Mesdames Albert Farnham, Carl Richardson, Lawrence Beckley and Floyd Lever.

In opening the evening's activities, Mr. Alfred Meurling, of Winchester's Physical Education Department, spoke of the place for square dancing in a program for both boys and girls and of its use as a fore-runner of such other organized activities as basketball. Obviously enjoying himself, Mr. Meurling called and directed the dances with understanding and good humor, the children displaying a great sense of rhythm and teamwork—their expressions varying from serious to hilarious—their plaid shirts and dungarees, blouses and swirl skirts lending color to the festivities.

Mrs. Curtis Ware's refreshment committee served punch and cookies to both performers and guests. In conclusion there was an opportunity for the Sixth Grade boys to do some square dancing with their mothers or other ladies; Sixth Grade girls, with their fathers or other gentlemen. In rare instances the talents of the adults approached that of the boys and girls, both groups being ready to seek rest after the gala evening.

OPERA COMPANY GETS USE OF BARN UNTIL OCTOBER 1st

Planning Board Denies Permanent Use of Taylor Property

The Board of Appeal in a decision recently handed down has denied the petition of Dr. F. H. L. Taylor of 15 Central street and the New England Opera Theatre to use permanently, or for a period of one year, the barn on the Taylor property for the storage of scenery and the removal and replacing of such scenery without charge from September through March.

Under the Zoning By-Laws of the town the use of property in a residential zone for such a purpose would be forbidden if a charge was made for such storage, but the petitioners contended that since no charge has been made and the New England Opera Theatre is a non-profit organization, generally operating at a loss, the Board of Appeal would be justified in granting permission for the use of the Taylor barn to store its scenery and costumes under Section 2C of the By-Laws.

A hearing was held by the Board of Appeal, at which the New England Opera Theatre was represented by its counsel, William E. Trafford of Boston and by Robert J. Laughters, secretary and technical director. Residents of the neighborhood were divided with regard to the use of the Taylor barn by the Company, some favoring such use and others being opposed.

After careful consideration of the arguments for and against the storage of the Opera Company's property in the Taylor barn and its removal from time to time the Board of Appeal denied the permanent use of the premises by the Company and also the use of the premises for one year.

The Board based its finding on the fact the Taylor barn is located in a quiet residential section of substantial well-kept homes, that the use of the barn by the Opera Company is inconsistent with neighborhood standards and that such use has disrupted normal friendly neighborhood relations. The loading and unloading of moving vans and removing theatre equipment and scenery, with the display of such material, the noise and presence of the vans in the street and Taylor driveway, the Board found, could be objectionable and would be a detriment to the residents with the standards of a first-class residential district in Winchester.

On June 1, 1898, Mr. Alexander married Nancy D. Lowell, daughter of John S. Lowell of Bath, Me. After their marriage he and his wife lived in Somerville until they moved to their Lakeview road home in Winchester. Mrs. Alexander died January 14, 1944.

In Winchester Mr. Alexander was contractor for several of the town's finest buildings, including the Winchester Trust Company, Public Library, First Congregational Parish House, Unitarian Parish House and Police Station. He did much work for the Boston Wharf Company, building several storage warehouses for this firm near the South Station, and he also constructed a factory for the Thomas G. Plimpton shoe company, the Florence Crittenton League Home and the Fire Station in the Town of Stoneham.

Mr. Alexander was widely known and highly esteemed in Winchester, his kindly manner and personal integrity endearing him to all who knew him. He served the Town as Park Commissioner from 1915 to 1945, being secretary of the Board during virtually all of that time. Flags on the Common and Public buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

He was a member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons, of Somerville Royal Arch Chapter, of DeMolay Commandery of Boston. A member of the former Calumet Club, he was also for 25 years a member of the Winchester Country Club and he was a director of the Somerville Trust Company from 1907 to 1944.

Besides his daughter in Sturbridge, Mr. Alexander leaves a son, Frederic C. Alexander, Jr., of Albuquerque, N. M., five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Meyer Chapel of the Unitarian Church with the minister, Rev. Robert A. Storer, officiating. Interment was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

The Young Peoples Fellowship of the First Baptist Church will observe "Baptist Hospital Night" on March 9, 1952. Miss Ethel Cameron, assistant Principal of the School of Nursing and Miss Charlotte Sawyer, Health Supervisor of the staff, will be present to show a film covering various phases of the Hospital. Through it you will see the inside workings of our famous hospital.

If there are any girls who are interested in nursing, this will be an opportune time to talk with the supervisors and ask questions. Any interested persons are cordially invited to attend. The time is 6:30 p.m. on March 9, 1952, in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church.

FREDERIC CHARLES ALEXANDER

Frederic Charles Alexander, well known retired contractor and former Winchester Park Commissioner, died Sunday morning, March 2, at the Phillips House of the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. He had been ill for only a little more than a week, but had been for some time in failing health. For the past three years he had made his home in Sturbridge, with his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd W. Goddu, but previously he had lived at 5 Lakeview road in Winchester, coming to town in 1907.

Mr. Alexander was born December 30, 1865, in London, England, the son of George and Sarah Alexander. He grew up in England and learned the building trade as apprentice to his father, who was a building contractor.

In 1889, at the age of 24 years, Mr. Alexander came to this country and worked for various contractors as a brick-layer on jobs that took him from Rhode Island to Maine. He worked up to become a foreman on these jobs and then founded his own business which he conducted successfully for many years under the name of F. C. Alexander, Building Contractor, with headquarters in the Old South Building in Boston.

On June 1, 1898, Mr. Alexander married Nancy D. Lowell, daughter of John S. Lowell of Bath, Me. After their marriage he and his wife lived in Somerville until they moved to their Lakeview road home in Winchester. Mrs. Alexander died January 14, 1944.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS MRS. ROMEYN

One of the year's most beautiful programs was held Tuesday evening in Ripley Chapel, First Congregational Church, when the Business and Professional Women's Guild presented a Lenten Easter program, with Mrs. James Kingman Romeyn as the inspirational speaker. Miss Helen Monroe presided, and organ music was played by Miss Sylvia Smith. A hopeful poem to give comfort in today's troubled times, written by R. L. Stevenson, was read by Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard.

The chapel was softly lighted, with candlelight on the altar flanked by a low bowl of spring flowers. All business and reports were suspended by Miss Monroe, who welcomed the Jr. Mrs. Guild as guests, and greeted the many women from other Winchester churches and organizations. Mrs. Romeyn then spoke, taking as her theme the splendid courage of four women who dared to face the challenge and the need of their time, even as women today are called on to have courage and bravery to face today's problems.

Queen Esther, who dared face her King and admit that she was a Jewess in order to beg for the lives of her people; the leper who believed that she could be cured, if she could but touch the Master's gown; the widow in the Temple, who gave her mite, trusting in the Lord to

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF PLAN TO ELIMINATE WINCHESTER'S GRADE CROSSING BY RAISING RAILROAD TRACKS THROUGH THE CENTER

NEW BOARD FAVORS
CROSSING ELIMINATION

The Board of Selectmen, to which the voters last week elected J. Joseph Tansey and Charles T. Main, 2nd, is unanimous in its approval of the State's present plan to eliminate Winchester's grade crossing.

Members of the Selectmen and Planning Board, together with James A. Wakefield, Jr., Town Engineer, met yesterday with officials of the Department of Public Works to discuss the current status of the project to raise the B. M. tracks as they go through town. It appears that a final decision has not yet been made concerning temporary relocation of the tracks while construction is in progress. This decision is expected shortly, and the way will then be clear for final drawing of plans and letting the work to contract.

State officials are hopeful that ground will be broken early this summer. At the meeting yesterday, the Department of Public Works reaffirmed its position that the current plan is the best method by which to solve this chronic problem and the only method which the State will finance at this time. Depressing the tracks is out of the question because even if it could be done from an engineering standpoint, it would probably cost more than ten million dollars, an expenditure the State would not approve, and in addition would eliminate the town's main source of other plan would entail tremendous land damages to be borne by the town.

Large copies of the sketch appearing in this paper are on view at Hevey's and McCormack's drug stores.

MISS MCGOWAN SHOWERED

The home of Mrs. William H. Moore, 34 Pond street was the scene of a surprise shower which was tendered to Miss Ruth McGowan of 14 South street, Woburn, on Saturday, March 8.

The house was gallily decorated for the occasion and forty-five guests were present from Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, Forest Hills, Arlington, Cambridge, Woburn and Winchester.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the surprised bride-to-be and after the opening of the gifts a delicious luncheon was served.

Miss McGowan will become the bride of Mr. Newell W. Purington of 39 Pond street on Easter Sunday, April 13 in St. Charles Church, Woburn.

Mrs. John O'Connor, Mrs. Romeo LaRonde, Miss Gertrude Mulleney, Mrs. William Moore and Mrs. Louise Purington were in charge of arrangements.

CITIZENS OF WINCHESTER!

On Monday evening, March 10th, in the Town Hall, a Public Hearing was held on Zoning Laws. This was a very important meeting because it pointed out two facts:

1. The Selectmen's apparent interest in the future of Winchester. 2. The Selectmen's obvious failure to realize the need for numerous open discussions and much needed publicity on important issues.

Where the biggest headache and problem that ever hit Winchester is concerned, the proposed elevation of the tracks, it is vital to all citizens that they know and fully understand the why, where, how and what?

The time has arrived, a decision must be reached, but let us remember that no plan of such tremendous importance, should be accepted, without complete detailed knowledge on the part of us all!

CHASE EXHIBIT IN BOSTON

An exhibit of pen and pencil drawings and illustrated maps by Ernest Dudley Chase of Winchester will be on public display until March 25th at the Institution for Savings, 426 Boylston street, Boston. Mr. Chase is associated with Rust Craft Publishing Co., of Boston, and is one of the country's foremost greeting card pictorialists and illustrated map artists.

The pen and pencil drawings of Ernest Dudley Chase are well known to the public. His Christmas card sketches of the Boston area have remained nationwide favorites for many years. His work has a very delicate and gossamer-like quality which makes it very distinctive and much in demand for greeting cards, calendars, as etched prints for mounting and for pictorial maps.

The meeting of illustrated maps is the principal hobby of Mr. Chase. Each map takes many months of research and artistry. His World Wonders map contains 337 separate illustrations, each one done in the finest of stipple work, using a very fine pen, a magnifying glass and a steady hand to draw the picture with countless tiny dots. Mr. Chase's maps are much in demand for their decorative value and as prize items among map collections.

Mr. Chase was one of the pioneers in the revival of the American greeting card industry around the turn of the century. He moved his own business with that of Rust Craft in 1920. His extensive travels throughout the world have given him a very rich background for his pictorial maps. He is the author of the standard textbook of the greeting card industry. At the age of seventy-four he is still a person of boundless energy and wide interests, and he continues to produce the fine drawings and maps of the type being shown to the public in this exhibit.

WINCHESTER MEETS WEYMOUTH IN TOURNAMENT SEMI-FINAL

Winchester High will meet Weymouth High in the Class B semi-finals of the Tech Tournament in the Boston Garden at 6:15 p. m. tonight. Local basketball fans will see plenty of action at the Garden tonight for Milton and South Boston clash in the other Class B semi-final, followed by the two Class A semi-final games.

Weymouth boasts a record of 12 wins and four losses in their regular season play, all four losses coming at the hands of Class A powers. Weymouth ran roughshod over Winthrop in the opening round last Monday night but the locals have defeated Winthrop even more decisively during the season and will be favored to win. Weymouth is a bunch of "acrobats" as they press all over the court but do not have the finesse or scoring punch of the Indians who should be able to cope with the pressing tactics of the Weymouths.

Coach Bartlett feels that his charges will be in better physical and mental condition for tonight's contest and will once more show the form that installed them as the pre-tournament favorites. He was frankly worried about last Monday's game with St. Mary's because of the condition of his players after their siege of last week with the virus germ. With the extra rest they have had this week to regain their strength and with the nervousness of their first Tournament game a thing of the past, he is confident of a victory tonight.

SAILED WEDNESDAY

FRANK S. EVANS

Frank S. Evans of 10 Woodside road, president of the Frank S. Evans Co., automotive equipment firm of 709 Beacon street, Back Bay, Boston, died Wednesday, March 12, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Evans was the son of Fred, and (Martha (McCombs) Evans. He was born April 12, 1889, in Philadelphia, and had lived in Winchester for 23 years, coming to this town from Warwick, R. I. He was a member of the board of directors of the Arrow Safety Device Co., of New Jersey, and a past president of the New England Automotive Boosters' Club.

Mr. Evans was a veteran of World War I, serving overseas as a staff sergeant with the 125th Field Artillery of the 132nd Division. He was a member of Warwick Post, American Legion. Flags on the Common and town buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

Mr. Evans leaves his wife, Mrs. Martina (Toolin) Evans, and a son, Franklin S. Evans, Jr., both of Winchester.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning from the Lane Funeral Home at 9 o'clock with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

Friday visiting hours at the Lane Funeral Home will be from 2 to 5, and from 7 to 10 p. m.

CAPT. MARTIN E. GRAISER

Captain Martin E. Graiser, a retired sea captain who had been living at 18 Englewood road, with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Matiss Bitena, D. P. from Latvia, died suddenly at his home early Thursday morning, March 13, of a heart attack.

Captain Graiser was 71 years old and a native of Latvia. He brought his family from that country in 1940 and at that time settled in Winchester. Previously he had lived in Gloucester where he was a member of the Masons. He was also a member of an Elks Lodge in New York City. His daughter, Anna, his only survivor.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Moffett Funeral Home with the Rev. Ralph Hjelm, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Woburn, officiating. Interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

BIRTH

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Donahue of 1009 N. Kensington street, Arlington, Virginia, a son, Robert Charles, Jr., on March 6th at the Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, D. C. Grandparents sharing honors are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Donahue of Mystic avenue and Mrs. Bernard Wierforce Jackson of Cornwall, Connecticut, who is presently staying with her daughter, the former Zoe Jackson, at their Arlington home.

TODD DUNCAN CONCERT

The Winchester Community Concerts series rang down the curtain on its 1951-52 season last Tuesday night at the High School auditorium when the great American baritone Todd Duncan sang a repeat performance by popular demand and brought much pleasure to a near capacity audience.

After a full and exacting concert, beautifully performed by both singer and accompanist, William Allen, it was evident that the physical resources of both men had been noticeably drained and small wonder when it was learned that it was only their second day out of bed after a ten day bout with virus, necessitating the cancellation of several previous engagements.

Mr. Duncan's program, in general, was not the equal of, nor as popular as the one sung two years ago. However, that was inevitable in the new law, the different selection of numbers to be exactly duplicated for us. That's why repeat performances are always dangerous and somewhat unfair to the artist.

Nevertheless, the great inborn art of Todd Duncan was in no way lessened, and it carried him through the evening in such fashion that he was never weakened by illness or far from his usual full-toned voice. Making the most of his dramatic passages calling for facial expression, spoken word, and gesture, he showed real compensation for the lack of his usually well supported tone and vibrato. He was able to retain a compelling rendition of every selection except possibly the "Lullaby" and "Figaro" where he was rather less than effective.

The more substantial numbers by Handel, Franck, Purcell, and Schubert which opened his program contained some fine singing and some excellent piano accompaniment, but it was not until just before the "Soli" from Kurt Weill's "Lost in the Stars" that he really got the spontaneous ripple from the audience and demonstrated why he was declared "the perfect choice" to play the part of the Zulu Minister in the famous Broadway musical. His encore, "The Lamp-lighter", following this, was a fine soft rendition of the children's verse put to an enchanting melody.

Mr. Duncan's good French accent was beautifully used in the pleasant selections by Paladine and Pierre entitled "Psyche" and "Le Moulin" respectively, in the second half. Mr. Allen's accompaniment made particularly good listening in these two selections.

As usual, the Spirituals, the way Mr. Duncan sings them, were in a class by themselves and well received by the audience; but probably the hit of the evening was the rendition of "I've Got Plenty of Nuthin'" from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess", which was the last programmed selection. We had forgotten how Mr. Duncan, creator of the role of "Porgy" when the play was in its long Broadway run, made this character so warm and earthy and full of spine-tingling pathos.

He brought it all back and his audience loved it, as it did the two encores "Bess You Is My Woman" and "Water Boy". Possessing a deep and humble spiritual quality, Mr. Duncan's art (even apart from his fine baritone vocal equipment) is lent a certain majestic stature which makes it easy for his audiences to love him. Like all great artists, he weaves a spell, especially when singing songs from the musical plays in which he has been such a dramatic success. The concert was a very fitting climax to a superior series.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. Patrick J. Murphy of 28 Salem street announces the engagement of his daughter, Margaret P. to Mr. Orrin G. Melanson, son of Mr. Orrin G. Melanson of Porter road, Waltham.

A September wedding is planned.

Edward L. McPartlin of 126 Church street, was yesterday named by Governor Paul Dever an associate judge of the Land Court at a salary of $16,000. He succeeds Judge Patrick I. Courtney.

CIVIL DEFENSE

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR THOSE WHO BEGIN FIRST AID NOW

If you have been disappointed to find that registration has closed for the two current classes instructed by Mr. Francis D. Weaver and Mrs. Charles P. Whitlock, you — and all new applicants — will be pleased to learn that two new classes are planned to start soon, with meeting times arranged to suit your preferences.

One of the new classes is expected to meet evenings. And for those who would prefer an afternoon meeting, we have been fortunate in securing as instructor Police Sgt. Edward Bowler, also of the CD Auxiliary Police, and recently returned from F.B.I. school.

With First Aid enrollment expected to increase as time passes, all those who possibly can are urged to enroll now. Call the Winchester Civil Defense Office, WI 6-3257, or the Red Cross Office, WI 6-2300. Currently sponsored by Civil Defense, the instructors and training program are supplied by the Red Cross.

The training given is the Standard Red Cross course, with the addition of special instruction on Atomic Warfare. There are 11 meetings, two hours each, held once a week. Valuable in normal times, First Aid training today is a "must" for every citizen concerned with the welfare of his town, and the life and health of his loved ones.

Director, Civil Defense

ZONING HEARING HELD

About fifty persons attended the hearing held Monday evening by the Planning Board at the town hall to discuss proposed changes in the Zoning By-Laws.

On the whole there was little opposition voiced to the proposed changes, many of which clarify and bring up-to-date sections of the By-Laws that have been difficult to interpret in the light of changing conditions.

Builders and owners of real estate in Winchester were represented at the hearing and from them, especially from some of the owners of development property, came opposition to the proposal to require 120 ft. frontages on lots of 15,000 sq. ft. in the "A" District of the Zoning Map and 100 ft. frontages on lots of 10,000 sq. ft. in single residence districts.

Developers felt that these frontages could, and in some instances would work hardship on owners whose property is already laid out to provide that a man using premises for a profession, or business permitted under the By-Law, must actually live on the premises and may employ only one employee.

No new building or structure shall be constructed or used, in whole or in part, and no building or structure, or part thereof shall be altered, enlarged, reconstructed or used, and no land shall be used, for any industry, trade, manufacturing business, or commercial purpose, except as specifically set forth in Section 2 covering Single Residence Districts.

Nursery schools are covered in the proposed By-Law changes as agencies giving day care to children as defined in Section 58 of Chapter III of the General Laws. In the new law, the different selection of numbers to be exactly duplicated for us. That's why repeat performances are always dangerous and somewhat unfair to the artist.

Under the proposed new law the Board of Appeal can not grant permission for the erection of buildings or use of premises in single residential districts for hospitals, sanatoria, philanthropic or charitable institutions, rest homes, convalescent or nursing homes where buildings so used are less than 50 feet from side and rear lot lines.

Apartment houses or group houses, under the proposed By-Law change, are possible in the General Residence Districts with the permission of the Board of Appeal and no longer restricted to Business Districts.

MRS. CHIDLEY TO JUDGE

Mrs. Howard J. Chidley, long a member of the board of directors of the Parish Players of the First Congregational Church, will be one of three judges for the final auditions in the Seventeenth Annual Scholarship Contest to be conducted by the Leland Powers School of Radio, Television and Theatre in Boston, in cooperation with the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Auditions for the Theatre Scholarship, as well as for a Radio Scholarship, will be held at the Leland Powers Theatre on March 20, 21 and 22, and are open to any high school senior or graduate who is not a professional.

Catherine Huntington, co-manager of the Provincetown Playhouse, and Prof. Robert Warfield, director of the George Gershwin Theatre Workshop at B. U., are the other judges.

ON VISIT TO WINCHESTER

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ethier (Nancy Newton) of Milwaukee, Wis., who recently flew to Bermuda for a week's vacation, stopped in Winchester over the past weekend on their way back home.

While in town they visited Mrs. Ethier's mother, Mrs. P. Stewart Newton of Prospect street, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Moore of Eaton street. Mrs. Moore had several of Mrs. Ethier's friends at her home last Sunday for an impromptu reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethier returned home by way of New York, stopping off in that city long enough for Mrs. Ethier to appear on a TV Show and win a prize of $30.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE TO OBSERVE 50th ANNIVERSARY

The Missionary Circle of the New Hope Baptist Church is observing its 50th anniversary at the church on Sunday, March 23, with a program that continues throughout the day.

Morning worship at 10:30 in the church will consist of a song service, and sermon, followed by the offertory and benediction. Dinner will be served guests from 12:30 to 1:30.

The anniversary service will be held in the afternoon, commencing at 2 p. m. with a devotional service in charge of Mrs. C. Fields of Cambridge. The program follows:

Welcome Address — Mrs. Octavia Hebron, President of Missionary Circle
Response — Mrs. Catherine Canada, Woburn
Hymn — Mrs. Laura Licks, Worcester
History of Missionary Circle — Mrs. Jessie Anthony

Selection — Rev. Lynn Norman
Sermon — Pastor, Zion Baptist Church, Lynn Soliloquy — Rev. Lynn Norman
Offering — Rev. Lynn Norman
Remarks and Benediction — Rev. Virgess Hill

Pastor, New Hope Baptist Church
Evening worship will commence at 6 p. m. and will be followed by a social hour in the vestry of the church. Ushers will be Miss Adelaide Lindsey and Miss LaVerne Baker. Hostesses will be Mrs. Simon Barksdale and Mrs. D. Grant.

Officers of the Missionary Society are Mrs. Octavia Hebron, president; Miss Mary Griffith, secretary; and Mrs. Melissa Mason, treasurer. The public is welcome at any and all events of the Anniversary observance. A cordial invitation is extended to the ministers of all other churches in Winchester to attend.

TRAILER-TRUCK OVERTURNED

A big trailer-truck loaded with machinery tipped over shortly before 9 o'clock Monday morning on Main street at Symmes Corner just at the turn of the road near Sanborn street.

The machine, an International truck, owned by Elliott Bros. Trucking, of Easton, Md., was being driven toward Medford by Robert Fremont Elbrecht, of 50 Aurora street, Easton. Police and firemen assisting at the accident believed that the shifting of the heavy machinery in the trailer caused the machine to upset. Elbrecht leaped from the cab of the truck into the air and escaped with a severe shaking up.

An alarm from Box 271 brought fire apparatus to the scene of the accident and the firemen washed away 150 gallons of gasoline escaping from the wrecked machine. Fortunately the gasoline escaped hitting the hot exhaust pipe.

Police had to reroute traffic for some time while the firemen were at work.

LEMESURIER — MURRAY

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Murray of 7 Wyman court, Winchester announce the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth Anne to Mr. James Ross LeMesurier, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Stuart LeMesurier of Montreal, on Monday, February 25th, in Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. LeMesurier, who is a graduate of Winchester High School and of Katherine Gibbs School, Boston, is at present employed as a secretary at the Harvard Medical School.

Mr. LeMesurier, a graduate of McGill University, is a student at Harvard University School of Business Administration. The couple will make their home in Toronto, Canada in June.

LAST DATE TO REGISTER

March 28 is the last date to register before the Pre-Presidential Primaries to be held on April 29. March 28 is the last date on which voters can establish designations as Democrat, Republican or Independent. At the primaries one can vote only for the candidate of the party in which he is enrolled. A Republican can secure only a Republican ballot, and a Democrat a Democratic ballot. An Independent can declare himself at the polls and get whichever ballot he desires.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Coon of Bar U Ranch, Washington, Wash., are the parents of a son, Richard A. Jr., born March 12. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Snyder of Wachusetta and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Coon of 12 Brooks street.

THE MOZART REQUIEM

A large number of Winchester people have a close connection with the Unitarian Lenten performance of Mozart's Requiem on Sunday afternoon, March 23rd at 4 p. m. at the Church. This is because the combined choruses of the Unitarian Choir and the Mary Witham Singers and others add up to about fifty voices, and relatives and friends will form an ardent nucleus of the large audience expected.

For the singing groups, both under the direction of Mrs. Witham, and each of which has an active season's schedule apart from the other, the singing of this rarely given and magnificent music is the most important performance of their year of religious music.

Members of the Unitarian Choir who will be singing that Sunday will be: Alma Brotherton, Janet Burbank, Mary Burton, Ann DeCamp, Nancy Griffiths, Martha Hall, Barbara Hibel, Justine King, Diane Mansfield, Mary Norman, Rebecca Robinson, Mary W. von Roseninge, Suzanne Westwater, Linda Witham, Jeanne Wilde, and Margaret Worcester. Also Robert Brotherton, Lindsay H. Caldwell, Henry Dellicker, Jr., Robert Evans, Gardner Handy, Robert Horne, Alan Mowatt, James de Revere, Sherman Russell, and Robert Wild.

Mary Witham Singers joining in the Requiem will be: Marian Blake, Louise Bagdoyan, Sabina Brandt, Caroline Fitts, Elizabeth Gardner, Sophia H. Gardner, Suzanne Graves, Simon Hovnanian, Barbara W. Miller, June Moffette, Evelyn Strong, and Madeleine Zimmerman.

Joining these two groups for that afternoon will be: Janet Baird, Dorothy Brandt, Ragnar Brandt, Sadie Horne, Austin Nanny, and James Thornton.

Highlighting and accompanying them will be: Dolores Baldyga, soprano, Muriel Thorley, contralto, E. Clara Isherwood, tenor, and George Fortune, bass. Also Thomas Hoag, tympanist, Weston L. Brannen, organist, and Grace Norman, who has been assisting.

90th BIRTHDAY

Mr. Patrick J. Mooney of 4 Westley street will observe his 90th birthday on St. Patrick's Day, March 17. Mr. Mooney is well and up and around the house each day, enjoying his pipe and memories of the "good old days." The Star extends its heartiest congratulations and is happy to add its best wishes for Mr. Mooney to those of his many friends.

WYMAN SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

On February 29 Mrs. Janet Greeno's first grade pupils presented "A Trip to Wyman Dale Farm" as a culminating activity of their study of farm life. The opening scene showed the mailman delivering a letter to grandfather and grandmother, telling them that the children would be coming to spend the day on the farm. Arriving at the farm, the children visited the barn to see the animals — the friendly cow and horse, and the hungry chickens and ducks. Then grandma served the children a treat of cookies made in the shapes of various animals. At the end of a fine day in the country the children left for home. Members of the cast were as follows: Jonathan Miller as the postman, Karla Hughes as grandmother, William Heron as grandfather, Nancy Main as Mother, Elizabeth Folkers as Alice, Robert Chambers as Jerry, James Alt and Joanne Sousa as the school children, Richard Geary as the farm helper, Margo Harmon as the hen, John MacLellan as the duck, Terry Swanson as the rooster, James Devaney as the cow, Donald McClellan as the horse, Edward Bennett, Thomas Dolben, Edward Horne, Robert Emmons, Kenneth Carlson, and Bonney Smith as the singing farm helpers. Elizabeth Folkers was also the announcer.

Some of Mrs. DeSalvo's sixth graders helped the first grade pupils with the scenery which consisted of a red barn, duck pool, chicken coop, and the Wyman Dale Farm sign.

Winchester High School is one of the schools selected by the Massachusetts Bar Association at which an outstanding Massachusetts lawyer will address the senior class members during the months of March and April on the legal system of the Commonwealth and their future role in it as either jurymen, witnesses or lawyers.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

Opening of March Exhibition

Mr. Charles Mahoney presided at the opening and introduced the speaker, a colleague on the Vesper George School of Art Faculty, Mr. Prescott Teller. There was a somewhat smaller gathering than usual but the loss was that of those members not present since the evening, perhaps unexpectedly, was both extremely interesting and rewarding. The story of the ten paintings on display, those sent to Winchester churches by the Belgian town of Hemroulle, is now well known. This observer is not sufficiently well-versed in that branch of Theology to know if in the Stations of the Cross series from which these works are taken, the figures and backgrounds must conform to a set pattern. If so, these paintings may be copies of more famous originals. Their colours have a soft and rather faded (but in no sense derogatory) quality which is appealing and from the little known of their background they disposition seems always to have been surrounded with an aura of gratitude.

With uncertainty, Mr. Teller took his audience back to artists and paintings whose claim to perpetual fame has been firmly established through the centuries. One member at least felt that the absence of doubt as to the quality of the works added much to the tranquility of their enjoyment.

Going back to the early fourteenth century, the speaker introduced a famous Chapel and speaker at one and the same time, the Arena Chapel and Giotto whose works cover its walls and later the Sistine (one wonders when and why Sixtine became Sistine) Chapel and Michelangelo's beautiful paintings. The hatred which inspired these paintings, the unbelievable hardships which the artist endured, four years prone on his back, painting the vast ceiling, and the understandable physical damage caused by the work, form an awe-inspiring chronicle of the times.

Fra Angelico, Van Eyck, Tintoretto, Raphael, Leonardo da Vinci, Breughel and Rembrandt were among the famous artists' copies of some of whose works were shown in the course of the evening. The general impression of the paintings discussed was a happy one. So many of them are depictions of the Holy Family, angels and cherubs. The colours are seldom sombre, often rich and magnificent, and the embroidered materials and hangings and backgrounds satisfy one's innate delight in beauty.

Mrs. Kittel and Mrs. Cairncross, hostesses for the evening, paid a nice tribute to March's St. Patrick in their artistically simple table, green cloth, shining silver and white flowers, and just to make the record complete the green lime ginger-ale was something special. The assistants were Mrs. Greaves, Mrs. Ashenden, Mrs. Symmes, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Siedhof and Mrs. Fraser.

ROTARY NOTES

Plans are well under way for the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the local club. The date of the chartering of this club was April 5, so that will be the date of the celebration. It is fitting that this year, our twenty-fifth, should mark the first time that the local club has had a district governor. Forbes Norris is to be that governor for the forthcoming year, and the club and town are indeed fortunate to have a man of his caliber to represent them in such a high office.

At a recent meeting of the club, President Al Elliot spoke briefly of the forty-seventh anniversary of the founding of Rotary International. In tracing the growth of Rotary Al said, "The first Rotary Club was organized in Chicago on February 23, 1905, by Paul P. Harris, a young lawyer, who suggested the idea to a group of his friends. It was called a Rotary Club because the first meetings were held in rotation, in the offices of its members."

For nearly a half century Rotary has continued to grow in numbers and strength. In the last twelve months, for example, nearly three hundred new Rotary Clubs have been organized in thirty-five countries of Europe, Africa, Asia, the Americas and the islands of the Pacific. Today Rotary is a world-wide organization of some 350,000 business and professional executives who are members of more than 7,400 Rotary Clubs. There are Rotary Clubs in almost every city of the United States and Canada and in 83 different countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Rotary activities throughout the world are based on the same general objectives — the development of fellowship among business and professional men, the betterment of communities, leading boys and girls into good citizenship, the promotion of high standards in businesses and professions, and the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace.

D. A. R. TO MEET

Mrs. Marshall Symmes will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Safety Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church on Monday, March 17 at 2:30 p. m.

Her subject will be, "Our Roots Are In Old Countries," illustrated with pictures taken in Europe last summer. Her artistry will make these pictures especially delightful. Mrs. George M. Byrne will be the hostess.

AUXILIARY TO MASS. MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Massachusetts Medical Society, Middlesex East District will meet on Thursday, March 20th at the Bear Hill Golf Club. Luncheon will be served at 1:00 p. m., after which Dr. Victoria Cass, Program Chairman will introduce the guest speaker, Dr. Miriam Van Waters. Members may invite guests to hear this interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Badger of 12 Prospect street have been among recent guests listed at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Hawaii.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The annual legislative luncheon, under the general direction of Mrs. Frank Hawkins, was held on Wednesday, March 5th. Representative Harrison Chadwick of Winchester spoke of the work of the "Recess Commission on the Legislative Committee System and Parliamentary Procedures," of which he is secretary. The purpose of this commission is to study and propose ways to make the legislature more efficient. Mr. Chadwick said it is very difficult to make any changes because of the many traditions accumulated through the years, and because of the complexity of the business transacted by the legislature of an industrial state. There has been much criticism by the press of the lengthy sessions of the General Court, but one time-saver (an electric roll-call system) is balked by those legislators who have offices near the State House. With a phone call from a messenger or court officer, they can get to the Chamber in time to answer at the end of a roll call under the present system, and still spend much time in their offices.

For many years it has been the custom to grant public hearings on all bills filed on time. Of the approximately 2500 bills filed each year, many have been introduced in previous years. If committees could decide which petitions to hear, many hours could be saved. Massachusetts is the only state which promises to hear every bill, and to decide on it one way or another. Each bill takes an average of half an hour, and only about 800 of these bills are finally enacted.

Other suggestions are: When an adverse report on a bill is accepted by one Chamber, it is not sent to the other Chamber (this has been adopted); spending one year of the session on the budget and recommendations by Governor and Department heads, the other year on petitions; a research bureau to give factual information to the legislators; a combining of committees; executive hearing soon after public hearing and deciding on a bill immediately; abolishing the rights of a special group, such as policemen or firemen, to get benefits which have not been approved by the towns.

Mrs. Alan Morse, State Voters' Service Chairman, spoke of the procedures of the Primaries and urged everyone to vote. Usually about 6% of the eligible voters vote in the primary elections. Mrs. Morse stressed the fact that an independent voter may register with either party in order to vote in the primaries, and then immediately after voting may regain his independent status.

WINCHESTER WON AT PORTSMOUTH

Undermanned Indians Edged N. H. Champions

In one of the most courageous exhibitions of basketball that Winchester fans have seen in many years, the undermanned Indians staged a sensational final half spurt to whip Portsmouth High's newly-crowned state Class A titlists, 40-38, at Portsmouth last Friday night. A stunned home crowd could hardly believe what it was seeing as the Indians roared back to overcome a 16-point first period deficit.

by outscoring the Clippers 22-10 in the second half. The Clippers are the New Hampshire school boy champions for the third successive year and rarely lose a game at home but the Indians, with one half of their team bedded by the virus bug, simply outscorped and outmaneuvered their favored opponents to win their greatest victory of the season.

Portsmouth ran away to a 19-3 lead in the first quarter as everything they did clicked perfectly while the Indians' make-shift lineup could do nothing right. The quarter ended with Portsmouth leading 19-6 as their 1-3-1 zone defense was ideally suited to their narrow court and the locals lacked the rebound height and the set shooting ability to crack it. Portsmouth used their second platoon in the second quarter and with Norman Howard leading the way with seven points, the locals outscored the Clippers 12-9 in this period to trail 28-18 at the intermission.

The second half was a sizzler as the Red and Black came out determined to maintain their undefeated record and to win the game for their sick teammates back in Winchester. The going was tough but the Indians outscored the Clippers 9-3 in the third quarter to trail 31-27 at the three-quarter mark and the gym was jumping with excitement. Peter Coon netted a pretty one-hander from the keyhole to bring the Red and Black up to a 32-32 tie and Stowell Symmes clinaxed the comeback drive as he sank a foul shot to break the tie at the five-minute mark.

With close to 1,000 people screaming with excitement, the Winchester offense continued to click as Thomson put a rebound back up to give the locals a 35-32 lead. Farrell calmly dropped in a free throw to make it 36-32. Symmes snared a tap on a jump ball at the Winchester foul line, wheeled around his guard to drive in for a lay-up to make it 38-32. After the Clippers scored to make it 38-34, Captain Dilorio sank the clincher on a one-handed push from the corner to make it 40-34 with 95 seconds left. The exhausted Indians were unable to control the ball well over the last minute and a half but hung on to win their 21st straight game in an amazing and inspirational come-from-behind performance.

The joy of the Winchester rosters was dimmed a bit by the 53-47 defeat of the Winchester Seconds after a record of 18 straight victories this season. With the Portsmouth Seconds leading 47-46 and with three minutes to play, they put on a very effective "freeze" to pull out the win. The absence of Stu Thomson and the part-time services only of Norman Howard, who were both playing with the varsity, cost the Red and Black Seconds an opportunity to complete an undefeated season but the loss was compensated by the valuable contribution of four of the Seconds to the varsity victory.

WINCHESTER BOYS WON HOCKEY HONORS

Two Winchester boys, Wellington "Wimpy" Burnnett of Boston College and Fulton "Mike" Brown of Yale were among the New England college hockey players to win honorable mention in the recently announced New England All Star Hockey Selections.

Both boys are forwards, Burnnett, a junior at B. C., has been a good scorer and playmaker for the Eagles throughout the season. A graduate of Winchester High, class of 1949, he played football and hockey at high school as well as swimming with the Winchester Swimming Club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Burnnett of Wildwood street.

Brown went through Junior High in Winchester and then prepared for Yale at Kimball Union. He is a senior at Yale and has had a good year for the Elis, scoring in virtually all their games, including the winning game against Harvard last Saturday that clinched the Pentagonal Title for Yale.

Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Brown of Arlington street, went west to Colorado with the Yale team for the N. C. A. A. tournament Wednesday of this week. At Christmas time he also went to Colorado with Yale, the Bulldogs breaking even in six games with representative college teams there.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Prospective Little Leaguers will have the opportunity to improve their baseball technique and obtain many useful pointers through a novel plan of the Boston Braves who are sponsoring a series of seven weekly instructional films to be shown on television over WNAC-TV at 6:15 Thursday evening starting March 13th. Every phase of the game will be covered by this series. The TV schedule is as follows:

March 13 — Batting with Tommy Holmes.
March 20 — Infield play with Bill Jurgens.
March 27 — Pitching with Warren Spahn.
April 3 — Outfield play with John Cooney.

April 10 — Base stealing with Sam Jethroe and Bill Bruton.
April 17 — Pitching with Bucky Walters and Vern Bickford.
April 24 — Batting with Paul Waner.

Don't miss it Little Leaguers! Winchester Rotary Club, through the efforts of Charles Koch of the Youth Activities Committee and the kindness of Mr. Watt of the U. S. Rubber Company, were privileged to see the Little League World Series movies at their regular meeting March 6th. The Little League Board of Directors is working on a plan to bring this inspiring movie to the public, probably in May. It is a fine display of team play and sportsmanship which should be an inspiration to all Winchester boys.

SINGING IN ORATORIO

Miss Linda A. Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Bartlett of 15 Herriek street, Miss Emily C. Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., of 6 Everett avenue, and Dorothy L. Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Parker of 8 Wilson street, are Wheaton students singing in the oratorio, "Jephthe," by Giacomo Carissimi, to be presented Sunday, March 16, at 8 o'clock, in the Cole Memorial Chapel at Wheaton by the combined choruses of the Wheaton Choir and the Williams Glee Club.

The combined choruses will also sing Johann Sebastian Bach's "Mass in B minor," and the Wheaton Choir will sing the "Missa Sanctae Caeciliae" by Joseph Haydn. The Williams Glee Club will sing William Billings' "Jesus Wept," two motets by Gallus, Mozart's "Dir. Seele des Weltalls" from Cantata K. 429, and "Ah, How I Will Glory" from the Cantata 146 by Bach.

REPORT ON STRAW VOTE

Editor of the Star:

This is a preliminary report on the current Straw Vote by Post Cards going on in Precinct 3. On March 11, 1952, the last of 600 Straw Vote Ballot cards were left with the residents of this Precinct. Enough volunteers did not come forward in other Precincts so it was decided to spend our money and time on just one Precinct, a section very typical of Winchester as a whole. Forty-four streets were covered and a card was left with nearly every registered voter or head of a family on each street. The cards used were ordinary two cent postcards printed on one side with a return address and on the other with three questions.

1. Are you content to see the tracks raised?
2. If you say yes, is it because you cannot see an alternative?
3. Should alternative plans be studied and all data be presented to voters first?

Address .....

Signature .....

Out of the first 100 cards returned, 77 voters checked No, as opposed to seeing the tracks raised. Twenty-five voters agreed with last year's Selectmen, to raise the tracks; 95 percent thought plans should be explained and studied before the town committee voted. Nine percent checked question No. 3 only and signed their name. In other words, they wanted more information before voting on question 1. Out of the 25 who wanted the tracks raised, 9 said they voted "yes" only because they could see no alternative.

At the time this is written Ballot Cards are coming in at the rate of 35-40 a day. We hope that 300 or better will be mailed in by Thursday, March 13.

The first 100 cards were classified at once, just as they came in, and set aside. So far every ballot was signed and dated. They ran, as stated, approximately 3 to 1 against raising the tracks.

No arguments, no pressure, was used in securing this straw vote verdict. Town Meeting Members should give it serious attention.

Our former Selectmen should never have made the statement that 95 percent of Winchester residents wanted the grade crossing eliminated by raising the tracks. Some one seems to have chosen a very defective limb! What will the State people think when they find they have looked hard on a very unpopular solution!

There is very little proof for the contention that any other plan will cost more. It is suggested that the State could save well over a million dollars by trying an alternative plan. One such plan would involve less than a dozen land takings and not high valuation land at that.

It is also suggested that if the State decides to use Washington street as the straightened line to new Route 128, it could be called Route 38A. This would leave Route 38 passing through the center and there would be no excuse for the State to withdraw all help.

As a general statement, damages and money lost to the Town may total less in the Alternative Plan than they do for this huge job of raising the tracks. Who can say how much the business men located around the center, will lose in a two-year period of construction? From an engineering angle, the bypassing of road traffic is far simpler and less costly. It calls for only one bridge, of lighter construction. It solves both traffic problems, not just one of them. It requires no icy foot-ramps to climb when we wish to catch a train. It calls for no tree cutting along the Common. Best of all, it could be finished in half the time and the biggest job — the overpass bridge and ramps — would be constructed with very slight upset to most of the Town's business and shopping. Time for consideration of these points and other equally important angles before actual construction starts in a few weeks (as far as we know?) is our excuse for this hasty report on the Straw Vote in Precinct 3.

Percival Mott

TRUE FRIENDS OF WINCHESTER WANT ELEVATED TRACKS

Editor of the Star:

At the risk of boring many who are familiar with the facts concerning the grade crossing elimination and for the benefit of that group who are apparently unaware of them, as well as for the many newcomers in Winchester, I would like to enumerate a few of the salient features of the plan's development.

1. In order to avoid erecting a barrier in the Center which would divide the town in halves, and in order to provide an additional crossing at Common street, the through East-West traffic to bypass the Center, it was obvious that the tracks must be either raised or lowered.

2. Long and detailed engineering studies revealed that because of the existing grade, it was impossible to lower the tracks. This would mean complete elimination of the Woburn loop tracks and a tunnel on the main line approximately to Wilmington. Neither the State nor the Railroad would have any part of such a project. It would be cheaper to move the whole town to a nice flat topographical area like Kansas.

3. Plans for raising the tracks showed that it was not only economically feasible but was eminently satisfactory from an engineering standpoint, acceptable to the State and the Railroad, and provided additional benefits, both to a traffic circle at the Center and an underpass at Common street.

4. Architecturally planned to enhance the appearance of the Center, while hiding the eyesores presented by the rear of the stores along Main and Thompson streets, and the Old Kelley & Hawes Livery Stable, it will also eliminate the ugly crossing grades themselves and the gate tender's tower.

5. These plans were well publicized, everyone given a chance to discuss and criticize them, and then an open hearing was held where they were overwhelmingly and almost unanimously endorsed by the large number of citizens who were interested enough to attend.

6. State approval and funds were obtained and engineering work started with regular reports to the town as the work progressed. Every Board of Selectmen from the time of the plan's inception to the present, has been unanimously in favor of it. Although legally, the Selectmen could have gone ahead without consulting the townspeople, they have done everything possible to publicize the project, invite discussion and criticism, and obtain the approval and cooperation of the citizens.

I am at a loss to understand this sudden organizing of a group opposing the elimination of the grade crossing. Where have these people been for the past six years? Certainly if they are friends of Winchester, they should have taken enough interest in town affairs to know these facts and to have participated in their development, which has been orderly and publicized. Perhaps they should change their name to the "Friends of the Boston & Maine Railroad."

It has been a tremendous job, slowly and painstakingly done, by a group of public spirited men, with unquestionable integrity, giving unlimited hours of their time, aided by all the experts obtainable, striving to correct the one monstrous blight in Winchester, the Grade Crossing. These are the men citizens have elected over the years to be our selectmen. They are the true friends of Winchester, and have given us the best town government to be found anywhere. Let's get behind them with our support and show our appreciation for a job well done, to the benefit of all.

Harry L. Mueller, M. D.

PLAN IS FANTASTIC

Editor of the Star:

In your issue of March 7, 1952 under the caption "Some Questions Answered About the Grade Crossing," the following was stated in part by Mrs. Edna Crede, Secretary of the Friends of Winchester: "It has definitely been stated that in two or three years the Common will be used for more practical purposes — that means a parking lot — robbery of our one little patch of village green in this area . . . etc."

The Park Commissioners are responsible for the care and control of the Common. This business of making the Common into a parking lot is certainly news to us. A telephone call to Mrs. Crede failed, as was expected, to produce the authority for this "definite" statement.

During the past five or six years while plans were being formulated to eliminate the Grade Crossing, the Park Commissioners have not been approached by any Board of Selectmen regarding the use of the Common, or any part of it as a parking lot.

We are confident that if any drastic changes were to be made in the Common we would have been notified long ago.

Such a plan as this is fantastic, and it hardly seems necessary to state that we would strenuously oppose any such idea.

Very truly yours,
Frederick M. Ives, Jr.
Chairman
Board of Park Commissioners

WHAT'S THE REAL ISSUE?

Editor of the Star:

Frequently of late people have asked "What's the real issue any-how in this grade crossing affair?" Is it getting the overhead railroad that the Selectmen are trying so desperately to sell us, or is it a straightforward attempt to find an acceptable solution of the train and automobile problems at the crossing, in accordance with modern planning, with the least disturbance and destruction of the Center and the most general approval of the residential sections of the town.

Has not the long delay in finding the solution of this question been due in large part to the fact that the proponents and their associate groups have usually been unwilling to consider a plan seriously except the overhead railroad — so highly obnoxious to many.

In a recent news item, not in the Star, reference is made to the exhibit of a plan by Mr. Mott in the Winchester News window. Mr. Mott has labored long and sincerely on his plan for the crossing which has much merit whether it proves acceptable or not; but the only consideration and courtesy shown him in the article is expressed in the closing sentence: this plan "Will probably wind up where most of the others have gone and that is in the wastebasket." Can you imagine any "Overhead plans" landing in that basket?

The item also gives the annual review of a prominent Winchester man who was struck and killed on the crossing about sixty years ago. A death is a death no matter how it occurs and stimulates our regret and sympathy. But there have been a great many sad and needless deaths by drowning — not sixty years ago but practically every year and often more than once in a year — still no one ever suggests that we drain the lakes and ponds! And how many deaths by automobiles and other means?

In addition to his political activity in his home town Mr. Papalia has recently announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer.

MR. ROWE HONORED

Retiring Planning Board Secretary
Receives Letter of Appreciation

The following letter signed by fellow members of the Planning Board was sent to Mr. Frank E. Rowe of Vine street upon his retiring after 37 years as secretary of the Board.

"Mr. Frank E. Rowe
Sec. Winchester Planning Board
Winchester, Massachusetts
Dear Frank:

"Thirty-seven years of distinguished unpaid public service to one town, the Planning Board, is an honor that should not pass unnoticed without a word of warm appreciation for work well done.

"As secretary of the Winchester Planning Board since its creation on January 25, 1915, you have seen many changes over nearly four decades. In this period Winchester has grown from a semi-rural town to one of the leading well-governed municipalities in the Commonwealth. You have played an important part in that development.

"Your deep interest and generous participation in countless town activities have been a force for good over the years, and merits the esteem and good will of all your fellow townsmen.

"While the Board will miss the benefit of your guidance and wise counsel in future deliberations, there will always linger the cordial memory of a deep and lasting friendship for you and the thoughts of a most pleasant association.

"May the future be kind to you as you continue unofficially your deep interest in the welfare of our community. We, the undersigned, are proud to have served with you.

Most cordially yours,
Frederick S. Hatch
Ralph H. Bonnell
Franklin J. Lane
Harris S. Richardson"

MEDICAL REPORT SHOWS IMPROVED HEALTH CONDITIONS

In a recent report to the school committee, Dr. William D. Barone, school physician, noted the continuing improvement in the health conditions among Winchester's young people. The trend toward fewer and less serious defects continues.

An accompanying report by Dr. Fredrick Moore, who conducts the health examinations of junior and senior high school girls, underlines this fact. The improvement is especially great when the results of the 1951 health examinations are compared with those of a quarter century ago. The medical report for 1951 showed that 72 per cent of the senior high school girls examined had no observable defects, while in 1951 the rate of physical defects had dropped to 27 per cent. A similar reduction in the percentage of reported defects was to be noted among junior high girls.

In Dr. Moore's opinion this improvement is due to several factors. One of these is the increased interest in health on the part of the public. Other factors are the type of examination given and the intensive "follow-up" program which accompanies it. "Every effort has been exerted to make the examination educational to the student," and "to interest the child in his own health and his part in maintaining it." By uncovering any defects that may be present and by emphasizing the importance of correction and periodic "follow-up," the value of the examination is still further enhanced.

In conclusion, Dr. Moore writes: "The Winchester girls are not perfect; and, of course, never will be; but they are in quite good condition that it will be quite a challenge to get the incidence of defects any lower."

THANKS TO VOTERS

May I extend a hearty, if somewhat belated, thank you to the voters whose generous support in the town election last week enabled me to lead the entire ballot in my unopposed re-election to the Board of Public Welfare. I will do my best to prove worthy of this confidence.

MRS. ANNA M. DUNNING

Mrs. Anna M. Dunning of 124 Mt. Vernon street, one of Winchester's oldest residents and for many years prominent in Women's affairs of the town, died Tuesday morning, March 11, at the Winchester Hospital, after a week's illness. She had been bed-ridden as the result of a broken hip for more than five years, having suffered from her injury, had enjoyed good health despite her advanced years and had maintained her keenness of mind to the very end.

Mrs. Dunning was the daughter of J. Morrill, and Martha Ellen (Hall) Emery. She was born in Pembroke, N. H., March 19, 1859, and would have been 93 years old on Wednesday of next week.

Mrs. Dunning was educated in what became later Tilton Seminary and Bradford Academy. She was twice married. Her first husband, Dr. George M. French, was a prominent practicing physician in Malden, who died in 1900. In May of the following year she married Edward L. Dunning and came to Winchester with him following their marriage to live on Mt. Vernon street, where she died at 7 Winthrop street. Mr. Dunning died October 31, 1917.

During her active life Mrs. Dunning was long prominent in women's affairs of the town. She was a member and past president of the Fortnightly Women's Club, and during World War I she and the late Mrs. George Nelley were co-chairmen of the Women's Special Activities, which since then have been taken over by the Red Cross.

Mrs. Dunning was active in the old Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary and for years headed the Ladies Auxiliary of the Memorial Hospital. She was a long as her health permitted active in the Winchester Methodist Church and was a past president of the former Ladies Aid Society. She had lived on Mt. Vernon street since 1940, previously making her home at 8 Wedge Pond road.

She leaves two daughters, Mary H. French, executive clerk of the Board of Selectmen, with whom she made her home, and Mrs. Ruth Dunning Hass of Exeter, N. H., also a son, George W. French of this town.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the late residence of the deceased, Rev. Alston Gifford of East Sausage, a former minister of the Winchester Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

MISS FLORENCE EMMA SMITH

Miss Florence Emma Smith of 205 Washington street, a long time employee of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, died suddenly about noon on Friday, March 7, at her desk in the traffic department of the Company's Boston office. Her death, wholly unexpected, came as a severe shock to her business associates and all who knew her.

Miss Smith was the daughter of John and Hester (Judge) Smith. She was born June 30, 1890, at Bayside, Long Island, N. Y., but grew up in Winchester, attending the Winchester schools, and Winchester High School where she was a member of the Class of 1909. She was for 46 years in the employ of the Telephone Company, first as clerk at the Winchester Exchange, and for the past 25 years in a similar capacity in the traffic department of the Company's Boston Office.

Miss Smith lived for many years at the corner of upper Main street and Russell road. For the past nine years she had lived at her Washington street address. She was a member of the Telephone Pioneers, the Business and Professional Women's Republican Club of Boston and of the Church of the Epiphany. Her sister, Hildegard M. Smith, with whom she made her home, is her only survivor.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Church of the Epiphany. Because of the serious illness of the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hovey, the services were read by Rev. Henry Edenberg, retired rector of St. Mary's Church, Dorchester. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. ESTHER T. ALLISON

Mrs. Esther T. Allison, wife of Frederick W. Allison of 75 Yale street, died Monday morning, March 10, at the Winchester Hospital, where she had been ill for seven weeks.

Mrs. Allison was born in Quincy February 28, 1900. She married Mr. Allison in October of 1939, and had been since her marriage a resident of Winchester. She was a member of the Garden Club, a life member of the Charlotte Cushman Club of Boston, a member of the Women's Republican Club of Winchester, Winchester Country Club and Winchester Circle of the Florence Crittenton League.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Allison leaves a sister, Mrs. E. J. Brown of Cleveland, Ohio; and two brothers, Ray and Edward Tapio, both of Quincy.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

GEORGE R. SEAVER

George R. Seaver of 119 Roland road, Arlington, plumbing and gas inspector for Arlington, and plumbing inspector for Winchester for the past two years, died Saturday, March 8, after a long illness.

A native of Medford, Mr. Seaver had lived in Arlington for 25 years. He was 56 years old, a veteran of World War I and a member of the Arlington Elks and the Legion Post of that town. He had been inspector of plumbing for Winchester following the death of George W. Sloan. He leaves his wife, three daughters, a son, and four brothers. The funeral took place Tuesday morning with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. James Church, Arlington Heights. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Arlington.

JOHN APPLETON TARBELL

John Appleton Tarbell of 43 Mystic Valley Parkway, a long time resident of Winchester, died Sunday, March 9, at his home, following a week's illness. He had been bothered with a heart ailment for some time, but his passing was sudden and came as a shock to his family and many friends.

Mr. Tarbell was the son of Charles Webster and Jennie (Appleton) Tarbell. He was born in Somerville, December 21, 1884, graduating from Somerville High School and from Dartmouth College in the Class of 1907. He was for 23 years associated with the Whitehall Milk Company, and later, before his retirement, with United Farmers.

During World War I Mr. Tarbell was in Washington, serving in the Construction Division of the Army. He came to Winchester in 1905 and was a member of the old Calumet Club and a former member of the Winchester Country Club. He served on the town Finance Committee from 1928 through 1931.

On June 26, 1920, Mr. Tarbell married Gladys Spaulding of Winchester, who survives, with a daughter, Mrs. Richard H. Halverson, a son, John A. Tarbell, Jr., and two grandsons, Richard Allan and Christopher John Halverson, all of Winchester.

Private funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MISS LIZZIE NORTON MASON

Miss Lizzie Norton Mason of 288 Main street died at her home on Saturday, March 8.

Miss Mason was born in Lawrence, March 14, 1872, the daughter of Charles Russell, and Elizabeth Norton (Howe) Mason. She was a lineal descendant of John Quincy Adams on her mother's side.

She attended the schools of her native city and came to Winchester in November of 1890, soon becoming identified with the religious and social life of the town.

A devoted member of the Winchester Unitarian Church and of the Women's Alliance, Miss Mason gave generously of her time and money to the Society. She was a former member of the Fortnightly Women's Club and the Winchester Art Association, and she was a charter member of the Winchester Historical Society. Always aiding those less fortunate than herself, she made many friends, to whom her passing brings a sense of personal loss.

Miss Mason leaves six cousins, Mrs. Mary Moser, Mrs. Harriet Howe Floyd, William J. Howe, Mrs. Albert Goodhue, Miss M. Alice Mason, with whom she made her home; and John S. Mason.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the late residence with the Rev. Robert A. Storer, minister of the Unitarian Church, officiating. Favorite selections were played on the harp by Jean Wake. Burial was in the family lot in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, with the committal prayers being read by Mr. Storer.

EDWARD SAMUEL ECKMAN

Edward Samuel Eckman of 17 Ridgeway road, an employee of the American Woolen Co. for more than 30 years, died Sunday morning, March 9, at the Deaconess Hospital after an illness of several months.

Mr. Eckman was the son of Mrs. Julia (Johnson) and the late John Eckman. He was born in Boston April 16, 1896, and was graduated from Roxbury Latin School. During World War I he served with the American Field Service in France.

During all of his business life Mr. Eckman was associated with the American Woolen Co. at the time of his death being cashier of the company's Wood Mill in Lawrence. He was for many years before coming to Winchester a resident of Andover, and he was one of the incorporators of the Andover Savings Bank.

Mrs. Eckman's wife, the former Marjorie Greene, died in August of 1950. He leaves three children, living in Roxbury: a sister, Miss Elsie M. Eckman, also of Roxbury; and two brothers, Harry, of Grosse Pointe, Mich., and Philip N. Eckman, of Wellesley.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church, with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

MRS. ALMA JOHANSON

Mrs. Alma Johanson, a former resident of Winchester, died Monday, March 3, at her home in Cheshire, Conn., at the age of 64 years. A native of Sweden, Mrs. Johanson came to this country in 1902 and was for 40 years a resident of Winchester, living much of her life in town on Washington street. She was a member of the Swedish Lutheran Church in Woburn.

Mrs. Johanson is survived by two sons, Harold and Robert Johanson, three grandchildren and four brothers and a sister, living in Sweden. The funeral was held in Cheshire, Conn., on Wednesday, March 5. Burial was in the Cheshire Cemetery.

What a Bank Needs to Know About Business Borrowers

A bank wants to know just about the same things you would ask if you were lending money to a business man. What sort of a fellow is he? Has he ability? What does he own, and owe? Is he making profits, and how much? Is the loan for a good purpose and how will it be repaid? If collateral is offered, what is it? By supplying this information to us in compact form every borrower can be sure of prompt action. The best time to supply this information is before the date you'll be needing a loan. Then, when borrowing time arrives, the groundwork will have been covered and you can quickly bring your statement up to date. Come in and let us help you establish your credit at our bank for future needs.

MRS. MYRTLE LOW HODGE

Mrs. Myrtle Low Hodge, widow of Jacob Franklin Hodge, died suddenly Wednesday evening, March 12, at her home, 17 Edgell road. She had been in her usual health during the day and had taken a ride during the afternoon as well as making plans to go out again on Thursday.

Mrs. Hodge was the daughter of Charles and Sarah J. (Sprague) Low. She was born January 17, 1861, in Pembroke, Maine, but went with her parents to East Boston at the age of seven years, growing up there and being educated in the Boston schools and at Salem Normal School.

Mrs. Hodge was married in East Boston May 8, 1889. Her husband, New England manager of the Armstrong Cork Co., died in 1933, twenty years after the family came to Winchester.

Mrs. Hodge was very active in the Daughters of the American Revolution, having been a member, and recent from 1907-1912, of General Benjamin Lincoln Chapter, and recording secretary of the Massachusetts State D. A. R. from 1912 to 1916. She was also from 1917 to 1928 recording secretary of the New England Conference, Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church.

In Winchester Mrs. Hodge was a member of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, active in the former Women's Society of the church and for several years head of the church's Home Missionary Society. She was also a member of the Fortnightly Women's Club.

Mrs. Hodge leaves two sons, George E. Hodge of Wellesley Hills and J. F. Hodge, Jr., of Belmont; a daughter, Mary L. Hodge, with whom the deceased made her home; and a grandson, George E. Hodge, Jr.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late residence with Rev. John Snook, Jr., minister of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

Last Friday afternoon it was necessary for the pope to go to the Second Congregational Church to disperse a group of children who were snow-balling the church and new parish house.

On this ballot, for the first time there will be an opportunity for the voter to indicate his candidate choice for president by writing on the ballot the name he wishes, what is termed the "Presidential Preference Write-in."

From June 1-10 the newly elected town committee will in turn elect certain delegates to alternate to attend the Republican Assembly in Worcester, where on June 29 the slate of state officers will be arrived at. Mr. Allen recommended that we start our State election with a deficit of 250,000 votes (Dever's plurality in 1950), but that with outstanding candidates, strong organization, a well rounded program, sufficient money and a great faith in the Republican Party, we can win.

In closing, he presented to the audience his vote-getting formula for all Republican Club meetings and political programs. "Whenever there is to be a speaker," he urged, "let each member bring to the meeting a Democrat or Independent who may be converted to the Republican way of thinking."

Mr. Thompson spoke on voting at the county level. "The largest county in the state, Middlesex county," he maintained, "is traditionally Republican. In the last 12 years, however, an increasing number of Democrats have been elected. In the fall elections Republicans must be returned to those major offices which they have always held."

A delightful tea was served at the end of the meeting by Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay and her committee, with Mrs. Chas. C. Good and Mrs. Maxwell McCreary pouring.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S
REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club met on Wednesday afternoon, March 12th, at Masonic Hall. Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, welcomed members and their friends and conducted the business meeting. The program chairman, Mrs. Muriel S. Barnes, introduced the guests of the afternoon, the Hon. Philip K. Allen, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts State Republican Committee, and District Attorney George E. Thompson.

Highly instructive to the audience was Mr. Allen's carefully prepared talk, "What the Voter Should Know." He deplored the fact that few Republicans vote in the residential primaries and primary elections and that they know very little about the composition of the ballots relating to them. "A Republican third or ward committee composed of men and women must be registered with the Secretary of State in early February if they are to go on the ballot. The town committee so set up will be elected on April 29 when the voter may either vote for the slate as individuals or vote for the entire slate as a unit. On this ballot, for the first time there will be an opportunity for the voter to indicate his candidate choice for president by writing on the ballot the name he wishes, what is termed the 'Presidential Preference Write-in'."

From June 1-10 the newly elected town committee will in turn elect certain delegates to alternate to attend the Republican Assembly in Worcester, where on June 29 the slate of state officers will be arrived at. WINCHESTER LOST
IN A. H. A. ICE TOURNEY

Winchester Hockey Club ran into a real disaster when it was eliminated in the first round of the New England Amateur Hockey Association Senior "A" Tournament at Lewiston, Maine, last Saturday afternoon by the Duxbury team. The puck was in the hands of H. C. of Waltham by a 4 to 1 score. Waltham came up with three quick goals in the first few minutes, two by Dick Smith and one by Dave Bell. From that point on the game was even as to scoring, the locals getting one on Capt. Don Ellis' solo effort in the second period and Waltham coming up with their last in the final, by Purcell.

But when it came to territorial advantage Winchester had it all the way after the first disastrous minutes. The puck was in the hands of H. C. of Waltham by a 4 to 1 score. Waltham came up with three quick goals in the first few minutes, two by Dick Smith and one by Dave Bell. From that point on the game was even as to scoring, the locals getting one on Capt. Don Ellis' solo effort in the second period and Waltham coming up with their last in the final, by Purcell.

To hold off this barrage Duffey, the Waltham net minder, had to come up with some sensational saves. On three occasions a local forward was in on him all alone and each time he came off best. At other times he seemed to be aided by the breaks, and no matter what the puck hit, whether stick, skate or other object, it always bounced away from the net instead of into it.

Don Ellis played the entire game at defense for the locals, and was largely through his rugged checking and all round excellence that Waltham was kept out of range.

In other first round games Dedham beat Sacred Heart (Concord, N. H.) 10 to 3. Bates beat Providence, R. I., 7 to 1, and the New Haven, Conn. Bears defeated the Nashua, N. H., Royals 7 to 4. Duddy's Winchester Hockey Club (1) Duffey G Connor

CUB PACK SEVEN NEWS

The March meeting of Pack 7 was held on the 7th at the First Baptist Church. Due to an epidemic of an unnamed virus, a large portion of Cubs were absent from the meeting, and it is hoped that they are all fully recovered now.

The following were present: Don 1. John Parsons — Don 1 Badge

Craig Edwards — Bear Pin

Bob Korwath — Wolf Pin

Donald Crede — Lion Badge and Gold Arrow

Don 3 Billy Vincent — Bobcat Pin

Don 5 Jonathan Handy — Bear Badge

Roger Erickson — Bear Badge and Silver Arrow

John Carter — Bear Pin

Don 7 Donald Farnum — 3 Silver Arrows

Bruce Bonnell — Bear Badge

Robert Laffans — Gold Star

Don 8 Billy La Marche — Bear Badge

Sherwood Kelley — Bear Badge

The Cubs again gathered around their tribal fire to wish one of their number, this time Donald Farnum, good bye. Donald completed all of his Cub requirements and was graduated into Boy Scout Troop 7. Cubmaster Low announced that Mr. Hartley Curtis has offered the Cubs of Pack Seven the use of his Boys' Camp in Maine for Memorial Day week-end. The Cubs and their Dads will leave Winchester on Memorial Day morning and return Sunday evening. Complete plans for the trip will be formulated in the near future.

The Cubs were privileged to hear Lt. Commander James B. Johnson, Chief of Operations Removal, tell of his experiences in the South Pacific. The Cubs were shown the surrender flag used by the Japs on the island of Anatahan in the Marianas. These Japs did not surrender until five years after the war ended. Commander Johnson told how they were finally convinced that Japan had lost the war and that it was useless for them to hold out any longer. Pictures and the story of the surrender were printed in a July 1951 issue of Life Magazine.

The April meeting of Pack Seven will feature a Cubcraft exhibit. Awards and prizes will be given for the best display.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS

On Friday, March 7th, Fort-

nightly members and friends were invited by the Art Committee to attend a lecture on Oriental rugs given by Mr. Koko Boodakian at his showrooms in Winchester. The 49 ladies who attended were well rewarded and found that they had exchanged a dull, gray world outside for one of rich, glowing color, beautiful patterns and generous hospitality.

In his lecture, which was well illustrated with his own collection of antique rugs, Mr. Boodakian gave us a basis for an understanding and appreciation of this ancient hand-crafted which antedates Christianity. First, he explained the difference between a domestic rug and a true Oriental rug; the domestic has a wool or felt which is knotted, the Oriental is knotted. In one rug he showed us, there were 1,000 knots to a square inch.

He then divided Oriental rugs into two groups, which he described in the following manner: Anatolian (from Asia Minor); Caucasian (from the countries bordering the Caucasus Mts.), which are geometrical in design motifs, the exception being Shiraz, which tend to have floral motifs, which are all wool, and tend to have design motifs taken from nature: Turkoman (from the Afghanistan region), among which are Bokhara, which are silk and wool, 500 design motifs, but only light and dark blue, light and dark brown, two shades of red, and ivory, and are usually dark in color; Indian (from India), which vary in size from the smallest to the largest, and in design depending upon the weaver's religion and whim; Chinese (from China), which tend to have floral motifs in each corner, a dragon design in the center on a plain background, and come in all colors.

Mr. Boodakian explained the various processes in the art of rug making from the raw wool to the finished product, and contrasted the old methods with those of the present day. He said that in the past, the making of rugs was a labor of love performed by the women and children of the family, and so rugs were imbued with the character of the people who wove them. Vegetable or mineral dyes were used, and looms of wood were used. Today, although still hand woven, the rugs are more uniform, due to scientifically controlled spinning and dyeing, as well as the use of metal looms.

According to Mr. Boodakian, the reason that some old rugs are crooked is because the yarn was spun by hand and varied in its thickness and tension, and the wooden looms had a tendency to warp. Change in color in some rug areas is due partly to the fact that all the dyeing was not done at once, but in stages, and the same dyeing material. Change of pattern can be attributed to the caprice of the weaver or to the change of weavers on the same rug.

A group of lantern slides was used to show explicit diagrams of the four types of knots employed in the weaving of the rug, and details of various borders and fringing. The various types of rugs in museum collections, Mr. Boodakian's were used, and looms of wood were used. Today, although still hand woven, the rugs are more uniform, due to scientifically controlled spinning and dyeing, as well as the use of metal looms.

WINCHESTER'S "IKE" GROUP MEETS SLATE

Winchester's "Eisenhower for President" Club opened its headquarters in the Waterfield Building Saturday with a "meet-the-delegates" coffee. Delegates and alternates favorable to Eisenhower joined the local group to "housewarm" the new headquarters and discuss the club's objectives.

Club Chairman Robert Pritchard of Salisbury street explained the club's purpose to be two-fold—first, to help make sure Winchesterites got out and vote and understand the complex ballot; second, to publicize General Eisenhower's qualifications for the Presidency to all Winchester voters.

Women members of the club, under the direction of Mrs. William Cusack, made plans for teas, coffees and other get-togethers to collect signatures for the Eisenhower petition.

Arrangements were also made for a complete precinct-by-precinct canvass of the town's voters by the club's precinct chairmen and their assistants.

The group announced a full-scale, Winchester-wide "Ike" Rally will be held at the Town Hall April 14.

All local voters—Republicans, Democrats and Independents—are urged to visit the new headquarters, stop for a chat, and—if "they like Ike"—join the group.

Precinct Chairmen include: Mrs. Albert Thompson, Precinct 1; Mrs. George Saltmarsh, Precinct 2; Mr. Dean Carlton and Mrs. Roland V. Patrick, Precinct 3; Mr. Arthur Rodge and Mrs. E. Ober Pride, Precinct 4; Mr. Charles Blanchard and Mrs. Charles Blanchard, Precinct 5; Mr. Joseph Tansey and Mrs. Earle C. Jordan, Precinct 6.

ON TUFTS DEAN'S LIST

Three Winchester students have been named to the Dean's List for scholastic excellence at Tufts College, Medford, during the fall term. Richardson B. Harvey, son of Mrs. Walter S. Scott, 2 Lagrange street, a junior at Tufts, has been named to the Dean's List at the School of Liberal Arts.

On the Dean's List at Jackson College, department for women at Tufts, is Ruth Halm, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George N. Halm, 34 Fells road. Miss Halm is a sophomore at Jackson.

Robert E. Surtees of 246 Highland avenue has been named to the Freshman Honor Roll at the School of Engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Surtees, and a member of Sigma Nu.

MISS CROVO STARS WITH STAFF AND KEY

Winchester theater-goers who visited the high school auditorium to see and hear the Staff and Key production of "A Waltz Dream" by Oscar Straus last Friday and Saturday nights were thrilled by the voice of Genevieve Crovo, whose performance as leading lady was truly charming, both musically and dramatically. Ably assisted by other soloists as well as by male and female choruses, Miss Crovo played the part of Kay Robinson, a young American artist who visited the land of Sylvania, where the members of the upper crust were suspected of drinking grape juice to keep their blood blue. To this reviewer her minutes on stage were all too short, as the rich assurance and warmth of her lovely voice brought sincere applause from all present.

High praise goes also to David Black, whose stage presence and fine tenor voice were hardly less pleasing in the main part of Lieutenant Niki, the Austrian officer who agreed to marry a princess but lost his heart to the American artist. Mr. Black sang his long role with never a waver and cut a dash in figure in colorful uniform. The fact that love will conquer all was proven again as his enchanting duets with the bewitching American reminded the audience that the tender passion is universal and can bring forth a tear or two even in as impossible a land as Sylvania.

Cushla De Lange provided another golden female voice, playing the part of Princess Helene and joining Gordon Bennett (Prince Rupert) in a beautiful rendition of the ever-popular "Come, Come, I Love You Only." Other soloists and specialty singers were Ronald Forbes as weary King Maximilian, Rita Fernald as chatty Princess Matilda, Virginia MacFarland as Duchess Louisa, Carl Alizio as the sludge-brained Count Lothar, Ronald Garbrands as the scheming Count Sigismund, and Joan Slawson and Lucia Ann Wright as the hungry chorines, Anneri and Fifi. Maximilian and Matilda sang an amusing duet called "The Family's Ancient Tree" near the close of act one; and later in the colorful café scene, Marian Blake cast a gypsy spell with a sultry-smooth "Golden Earrings" in her better-than-Dietrich manner. Lothar and Anneri took part in a lively song and dance called "Piccolo."

John McCellan as Lieutenant Montschi and Francis Mardulier as an efficiency expert added some spots of life to the spoken parts; the combined choruses blended particularly well in the entrance march and the finales to acts two and three; and the well-trained orchestra of twelve members added a note of authority throughout the evening. In fact the entire group labored manfully and gave their noble best to a script which could hardly be called better than mediocre. Perhaps the sparkle of Gilbert and Sullivan has spoiled Oscar Straus for us; suffice it to say that Straus just doesn't have it. The beautiful duet "Love's Roundelay" with Niki and Kay certainly deserves its well-known place, however; and the afore-mentioned grape-juice line can probably be counted on to bring a chuckle. At any rate there is no doubt that the members of Staff and Key gave Straus their all.

Much credit goes to L. Hassler Einzig, director; to Gordon Bennett, production manager; and to many other hard-working helpers.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The next meeting of the George Washington School Mothers' Association will be held at 2 p. m. on Wednesday, March 19, in the school auditorium, and a most interesting program has been planned by Mrs. James deRevere, program chairman, in cooperation with Miss Rich, school principal. All the children from Grades 1 through 6 will participate in a demonstration centered about the cultural and developmental activities available to the children.

The extracurricular program will consist of short introductions by leaders representing the scout program for boys and for girls, after which the Brownies, the Girl Scouts and the Cubs will sing one of their scout songs, and the Boy Scouts will conduct a color guard. The school program will furnish examples of the work done by the physical education, art and music departments. Miss Davenport will have grades 1, 2 and 3 demonstrate singing games and rhythmic activities, and Mr. Muerling will have grades 4, 5 and 6 do folk dances. Mr. Folmet will conduct the school band; Miss Fitch will have grades 2 and 6 demonstrate vocal instruction; and Mrs. Thomas will show what beginners can do as a result of school instruction on a musical instrument.

Please note the change in the day and time of the meeting, because none of the mothers will want to miss seeing their children take part in the demonstration.

WINCHESTER SKIERS PICTURED IN COLLIER'S

Betty Nelson and Carolyn Edgar were among the Junior members of the Chamois Ski Club who were pictured (in color by Art Griffin) in last week's Collier's Magazine, while they were skiing at Groton Ski Slope this season.
At the March meeting of the Chamois, members were entertained by D. Samoiloff's interesting highlights of his experiences in Switzerland last year. Ed Hamilton and members of the Innitout Ski Club of Woburn were present and showed color films of the Mt. Peru club week-end in January and local skiers at Jackson and North Conway.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, President, and Mrs. Barbara McDonald will attend the Annual President's Luncheon at the Hotel Kenmore on Wednesday, March 19.

Mr. James Penialigan of the Star met with a group who work on the newspaper phase of Public Relations, on Monday morning. Many from 50-58 at the Boston Garden last Monday night to gain the honor of meeting Weymouth, victor over Wintrop 50-29, in the semi-finals tonight.

The Indians showed the effects of the recent stages of the virus and failed to show their regular season form in disposing of St. Mary's but were in the lead all the way after St. Mary's scored the first basket of the game. Stowell Symmes provided the spark in the second quarter that fired the Sachems to their opening round win while Doug Hawkins in the third quarter and Johnny Farrell in the final quarter kept the locals in the van.

St. Mary's opened the scoring and it was 3½ minutes before Winchester got into the scoring column on a driving layup by Charlie Murphy. Second quarter Murphy put Winchester out in front with a carbon copy of his first basket but the Winchester attack then bogged down again. Johnny Farrell added a foul shot and Doug Hawkins tallied two successful free throws before Stowell Symmes added a basket to give the Red and Black a slender 9-6 advantage as the first quarter closed.

In the second quarter Symmes came up with a scoring spree as he drove in to snare a two-pointer and picked up a foul which he made good. This gave the locals a 12-6 lead but Murphy's picked up two points on foul shots before Symmes again scored two quick baskets to provide the Indians with a 16-8 margin. St. Mary's came fighting back with a pair of baskets to make it 16-12 before Hawkins made good on a foul shot and then a rebound for a basket to make the Garden scoreboard read 19-12.

St. Mary's broke a man loose to make it 19-14 which was matched by Symmes again for his ninth point of the period to make it 21-14. A successful pair of foul shots by St. Mary's just before the buzzer closed the half as Winchester walked off the Garden floor with a 21-16 lead.

In the second half John Farrell opened the Winchester drive with a two-pointer and Symmes followed up with two foul shots which offed the three points gained by St. Mary's on a basket and a foul. This gave the Indians a 25-19 lead which was cut to 25-21 before Doug Hawkins started to hit to provide some relief from the anxiety suffered by Winchester fans. "Doug" notched Winchester's 26th point on a foul shot and then came up with a jump shot and two rebounds for six quick points to put the Indians out from 32-21. The Catholic League titlists fought back with two baskets while Farrell and Symmes added a point apiece on fouls to enable Winchester to take a 34-25 lead into the final period.

The final quarter was the fastest of the game as St. Mary's scored 13 points, but the Indians collected 16 to maintain their scoring supremacy over their opponents in each period. Johnny Farrell and Bob Forester took over the Winchester scoring duties in this period as Farrell came up with seven points and Forester with four. Symmes added two foul shots in this period to give him a total of 16 as the game's high scorer while Hawkins added three points to total 15. Johnny Farrell, who set up the game's most brilliant maneuver on the next-to-last basket, was the other local to hit for double figures as he tallied 11 points. It was a nice win for the Indians who had to fight every inch of the way and now that they have broken the Garden hex, the Bartlettmen can go all the way.

WINCHESTER WOM TOURNEY

Convincing Indians Beat St. Mary's, 50-38

Winchester High won their first Tech Tournament game in history as they defeated St. Mary's of Woburn 50-38 at the Boston Garden last Monday night to gain the honor of meeting Weymouth, victor over Wintrop 50-29, in the semi-finals tonight.

The Indians showed the effects of the recent stages of the virus and failed to show their regular season form in disposing of St. Mary's but were in the lead all the way after St. Mary's scored the first basket of the game. Stowell Symmes provided the spark in the second quarter that fired the Sachems to their opening round win while Doug Hawkins in the third quarter and Johnny Farrell in the final quarter kept the locals in the van.

St. Mary's opened the scoring and it was 3½ minutes before Winchester got into the scoring column on a driving layup by Charlie Murphy. Second quarter Murphy put Winchester out in front with a carbon copy of his first basket but the Winchester attack then bogged down again. Johnny Farrell added a foul shot and Doug Hawkins tallied two successful free throws before Stowell Symmes added a basket to give the Red and Black a slender 9-6 advantage as the first quarter closed.

In the second quarter Symmes came up with a scoring spree as he drove in to snare a two-pointer and picked up a foul which he made good. This gave the locals a 12-6 lead but Murphy's picked up two points on foul shots before Symmes again scored two quick baskets to provide the Indians with a 16-8 margin. St. Mary's came fighting back with a pair of baskets to make it 16-12 before Hawkins made good on a foul shot and then a rebound for a basket to make the Garden scoreboard read 19-12.

St. Mary's broke a man loose to make it 19-14 which was matched by Symmes again for his ninth point of the period to make it 21-14. A successful pair of foul shots by St. Mary's just before the buzzer closed the half as Winchester walked off the Garden floor with a 21-16 lead.

In the second half John Farrell opened the Winchester drive with a two-pointer and Symmes followed up with two foul shots which offed the three points gained by St. Mary's on a basket and a foul. This gave the Indians a 25-19 lead which was cut to 25-21 before Doug Hawkins started to hit to provide some relief from the anxiety suffered by Winchester fans. "Doug" notched Winchester's 26th point on a foul shot and then came up with a jump shot and two rebounds for six quick points to put the Indians out from 32-21. The Catholic League titlists fought back with two baskets while Farrell and Symmes added a point apiece on fouls to enable Winchester to take a 34-25 lead into the final period.

The final quarter was the fastest of the game as St. Mary's scored 13 points, but the Indians collected 16 to maintain their scoring supremacy over their opponents in each period. Johnny Farrell and Bob Forester took over the Winchester scoring duties in this period as Farrell came up with seven points and Forester with four. Symmes added two foul shots in this period to give him a total of 16 as the game's high scorer while Hawkins added three points to total 15. Johnny Farrell, who set up the game's most brilliant maneuver on the next-to-last basket, was the other local to hit for double figures as he tallied 11 points. It was a nice win for the Indians who had to fight every inch of the way and now that they have broken the Garden hex, the Bartlettmen can go all the way.

WINCHESTER CLASS B CHAMPS

Beat South Boston, 57-48, in Garden Final

Winchester High lived up to its pre-Tournament selection as the favorite in Class B of the annual Eastern Massachusetts Interscholastic Basketball Tournament by coming through with a convincing victory over South Boston High, 57-48, in the championship final at the Boston Garden last Saturday night.

After a shaky start the Indians displayed the brand of basketball they had shown while racing through the regular season to preserve the only unbeaten streak in Massachusetts basketball at 24 games.

Southie was the peoples' choice and the sentimental favorite of the capacity crowd to win but the locals snapped the fantastic Cinderella streak of South Boston's little "shrimp boats". South Boston has been labelled as the scrappiest team in the Tournament but Ted Bartlett's charges outthrust them in the second half and actually ran them into the Garden floor in the final period. The Indians played smart, heads-up ball all the way as they tightened up their defense after the first quarter and proceeded to set up their plays and finish them off for the first time in the Tournament.

Winchester emphasized its slow-starting pattern by netting only one basket in the first quarter, as in Friday's semi-final game with Weymouth. That came as the first score of the game on a layup by Symmes. Symmes added two more points on successful free throws while Hawkins and Farrell netted one free throw apiece to give the Indians only six points at the end of the period as against Southie's 14 points, most of which came on accurate set shots.

April 2, Second Congregational Church, Rev. Robert A. Storer.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS CLOSED

Elementary schools will be closed on the afternoon of March 26 in order that teachers and principals may attend a reading demonstration presented by Miss Amy Mayo, of the American Book Company. The meeting will be held in the Mystic School Auditorium, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

TOWN MEETING OPENED

School Salary Dispute Highlighted Meeting

The School Committee got no vote of confidence at last Thursday night's opening session of the limited town meeting when its members sought to explain a $300 raise voted the Superintendent of Schools in the face of the general decision not to raise town wages this year.

The School Budget was one of several deferred during consideration of the article dealing with departmental appropriations, and when the meeting returned to consideration of it Captain Rush took the floor to challenge certain expenditures and seek information about them.

He questioned the item for supervisors' salaries and wondered if the town is not indulging itself in too many supervisors and principals. He also was concerned over the doubling of the item for teachers' expenses and also the increase in the amount asked for new equipment. Especially he questioned the $435,207.45 for the purchase of an increase over last year of $29,264.71. This increase Captain Rush was unable to justify in the light of new maxima, step rate increases and new teaching methods.

Mr. Jellison, new School Committee chairman, undertook to explain the budget stating that Winchester has no more supervisors than other towns in the state and Belmont for instance, and that a new supervisor was definitely needed in Music to enable the present supervisor, working with strings, to cover the schools necessary to give wanted instruction in this field.

The doubling of the teachers' expense item is due largely, Mr. Jellison said, to the School Committee's decision to seek the advice of consulting educational experts in certain fields which seem in need of special help.

In discussing the substantial increase in teachers' salaries, aside from an average 3 per cent increase, Mr. Jellison explained that a part of the increase is necessary to take care of normal step-rate increases, salary maxima and increased pay for those qualifying for advance through professional study.

Captain Rush still couldn't make these items add up to $29,000, and it was then explained that included in that figure are funds to pay for decreasing the salary differential between men and women teachers, the women having been given a raise in salary of $100 to this end.

Once again the Captain took the floor to remind the meeting that the fact that the current year is the second in which women teachers have been granted a raise of $100 to "reduce" the differential.

Both Mr. Schaefer of the Finance Committee and Mr. Spence of the School Committee explained that they had both been opposed to abolishing the differential, and in effect "a differential" is being maintained. However, in the light of present day conditions it seems economically sound to at least reduce the differential in order to compete with cities and towns comparable to Winchester in securing women.

At the conclusion of the School Committee's exposition Captain Rush declared himself satisfied and withdrew a motion he made to amend the budget department budget by reducing the personnel services item $8,200 and taking $1,000 from the money to be spent for teachers' expenses.

COUPLES CLUB

The final meeting of the Unitarian Couples Club at Metcalf Hall last Saturday evening proved a most enjoyable and interesting climax to another successful season. The co-presidents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Eric Anderson, thanked everyone for supporting their efforts through the year.

A floor show featured Gordon and Cushman Bennett in duets and solos and songs by Peg Worcester and George Fortune, the latter baritone soloist. The evening was a connection with Mr. Bennett's rendition of "Chloe" is just too bad that the lady refused to cooperate.

Allan Mowatt, Robert Brotherton, Robert Horne and Gardner Handy appeared in barbershop quartet numbers, and the members of the singing-dancing chorus were Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Danton, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Root, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Low, Mrs. Edith M. Bolster and an orchestra accompanied the acts.

MRS. GEORGIE W. RICHARDSON

Mrs. George W. Richardson, widow of James H. Richardson and mother of Mrs. E. Ober Pride of Foxcroft road, died Saturday March 15, at the Winchester Hospital following a two weeks illness.

Born February 25, 1871, in Charlestown, Mrs. Richardson was educated in the Boston schools. She was long a resident of Somerville, but in recent years had divided her time between Mrs. Pride and another daughter, Mrs. Stanley V. Lane of Rockford, Ill. Besides her daughters she leaves a son, Norman L. Richardson of Reading, six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Arlington.

THIRTY-THREE YEARS MARCH 17

Captain Edward D. Fitzgerald of the Winchester Fire Department, oldest man in the department in point of service, completed 33 years as a fireman in Winchester this year of extra musical importance to everyone in town as the choir, augmented by the Mary Witham Singers and others, will give this lovely music its first local presentation. The Reverend Dr. Robert A. Storer will open and close the service, and on hand to usher will be Richard Barnard, H. Gardner Bradley, Charles T. Main, 2nd, and W. H. D. Townley-Tilson. All the flowers for this service will be given by Mrs. Dwight B. Hill in memory of Dr. Bradford Hill, a devoted and faithful member of the Unitarian Church. The afternoon will be recorded by W. H. Fulton, and for a great many people this will be one of the outstanding events of the Lenten season.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Captain and Mrs. John H. I. Morse of Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, are the parents of Charles Daniel Morse, born February 27, 1952 at Dayton, Ohio. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Morse, Jr., of 3 Sanborn place, Winchester and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Winslow of St. Joseph, Mich. Captain and Mrs. Morse are also the parents of Cynthia, 6; and Patricia, 4; the latter born in Winchester.

ADJOURNED TOWN MEETING

Tuesday evening's adjourned session of the Limited Town Meeting closed with the warrant, concluding Article 6 and succeeding articles through 30 in a tedious session that lasted until a few minutes past 11:30.

Deferred items of Article 6, the article under which various departmental appropriations are voted, included:

Parks, Playgrounds and Recreation . . . $57,558.52

Workmen's Compensation Law Expenses . . . 12,836.00

Water Maintenance . . . 85,809.30

In connection with the Park Department item Mr. Ives explained that the extra sum asked for was under recreation to that in the event interest continues to warrant basketball and soft ball programs as usual the Department will have the necessary funds to administer these programs.

The Workmen's Compensation Law item was deferred, and Mr. Lyman explained that the Selectmen feel a detailed study should again be made of the possible advantages of private insurance in this field over the Town's continuing to handle its own workmen's compensation.

Dwinnell explained that in the Water Maintenance budget are funds to purchase a new trench-digger and compressor to replace obsolete equipment, used both by the Water Department and the Highway Department.

Under the individual articles $2,500 was appropriated for the elimination of the Dutch elm disease and to provide funds for spraying by private companies, for the money for return to the town through payments by property owners. The meeting also authorized the expenditure of $3,842.57 of the Cemetery Fund for the establishment of Willowood Cemetery.

Under Article 9 the meeting appropriated $32,000 under Chapter 90 primarily for the construction of Johnson road, $24,000 of this being for the purchase of the Excess and Deficiency Fund, and $8,000 being raised by revenue. The $24,000 will be returned to the Town under Chapter 90 procedure by the State and County.

Coleman G. Foley was re-elected as the town's director of the town's activity in support of the Middlesex County Aid to Agriculture program, $50, being appropriated for his use. The workers of wood and bark were fixed by the meeting at not more than eight.

RELEASED FROM DUTY

Lieutenant Colonel Gustav G. Kaufman, left the United States Army Hospital at Camp Edwards on March 13 after serving for the past 16 months as the hospital's Chief of Medical Service.

Colonel Kaufman, being released from duty, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gustav L. Kaufman of Chicago, Ill. His wife, Mrs. Marjorie Kaufman, lives with their 3 children at 11 Warren street, where the doctor will resume his private practice.

Dr. Kaufman entered the service in 1942 and was commissioned a captain. He served in the South Pacific, and was with the 105th General Hospital, traveling to Australia, Netherlands East Indies and the Philippine Islands. He was promoted to major in September 1944 and his last assignment was in the United States and was discharged in 1946.

In October of 1947, soon after Camp Edwards was reactivated and returned in greater numbers to the United States, Colonel Kaufman was recalled to active duty and was assigned to the Camp Edwards Hospital. He was appointed Chief of Medical Service and served in that capacity until the present.

Dr. Kaufman is a graduate of Williams College, where he received his A. B. degree in 1934, and Rush Medical College, University of Chicago, where he received his M. D. degree in 1938. He is a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, the American Medical Association and the American College of Physicians.

THOMAS A. BARNARD

Thomas A. Barnard, who was formerly for many years a resident of Winchester, died Wednesday, March 19, in Cambridge, after a long illness. He made his home while in town on Wedgemere avenue and was prominent in the affairs of the old Calumet Club.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien of Lexington and Mrs. Lois V. Edwards of Winchester; a son, Stuart B. Barnard of Melrose; and seven grandchildren.

95th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Edward H. Stone of 100 Cambridge street, a life long resident of the town, celebrated her 95th birthday on March 19th. No special celebration was held though throughout the day relatives and friends visited and participated in the usual ice cream and cake. For the first time in her life she was recently confined to her bed for several weeks, but many of the townspeople will be glad to know that she has completely recovered.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Dorothy E. Bupp of Arlington announces the engagement of her daughter, Gweneth Lee, to Cpl. Richard G. McCully, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. McCully of 410 Washington street. Cpl. McCully is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.

MILO TOUGH FOE FOR WINCHESTER

Winchester High's newly-crowned champions will play Milo High, Class B champions of Maine, at the Boston Garden tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the preliminary game to the finals of the New England Tournament. Each year the Class B winner of the Tech Tournament plays the Class B champion of one of the other five New England states and it is Maine's turn to send their champions this year.

The report from Milo, the hoop-happy shiretown of Piscataquis County, which never lets basketball die even in July is that interest in building up to a fever pitch for this game with Winchester's unbeaten Indians. There is precedent for the Milo Panthers to uphold for five years ago a quarter from pint-sized Patten Academy, first ever to represent Maine in this special tilt, won the hearts of 14,000 fans with a stunning 35-32 overtime win over Boston Latin School.

The Panther powerhouse has the size and ability to snap the Winchester unbeaten streak. The Panthers have won 22 games while losing only two and boast one of the biggest teams in the state with four of their starters being six foot or better in height. Milo raced through its State Tournament with four straight victories by sensational scores, beating Dexter 64-41, Limestone 66-46, Southwest Harbor 66-48, and Falmouth 64-29. The present Milo team is no flash in the pan for the Panthers came from a basketball mad area, have been Class B finalists for the past four years and this is the second time in that period that they have topped state honors.

Coch Bartlett plans to go along with the same line up that has won 24 consecutive games and feels that his boys have enough pride in their sensational record to go all out against the Panthers. He and the boys realize that any let-down after last week's great performance will be fatal and they have been working hard in practice this week to get ready for the invaders. Winchester fans will witness this last opportunity to see their favorites in action and will turn out in large numbers at the Garden tomorrow night.

ROTCARY FETED HOOP TEAM

Winchester High School's Eastern Massachusetts Class B Champions Basketball team were guests of Winchester Rotary Club at the Rotary Luncheon yesterday noon. Coach Bartlett of the basketball team and Athletic Director Henry Knowlton accompanied the team, and Mr. Knowlton showed motion pictures of the Winchester-South Boston game in the Garden. Coach Bartlett expounding the fine points of play.

Eddie Cullen introduced Coach Bartlett, and the latter introduced individually the members of the team. He praised the boys highly for their efforts through the season and lauded them for the competitive spirit which enabled them to win games that seemed to every one lost, like those against Portsmouth and Weymouth.

Coach Bartlett praised Captain John Dilorio as one of the finest captains he has had on any of his teams and told of the progressive improvement of the team from their freshman year, when they started to play together as a unit. Typical of the team's spirit, he said, was Dilorio's feeding Hawkins the ball in the final game of the season, enabling Hawkins to break the scoring record held by Dilorio.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

A School of International Relations, sponsored by the State League of Women Voters and Radcliffe College, will be held on April 1st and 2nd in Saunders Theatre, Memorial Hall, Harvard University. There will be morning and afternoon sessions, luncheon speakers both days, and an evening meeting on April 1st. This opportunity to hear outstanding speakers from our government, the business and literary world, and from foreign countries, is open to everyone. For further information, call the office of the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts, at 3 Joy street, Boston.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye, chairman of the Winchester Military Manpower Committee, is now in charge of the Servicemen's File at the Public Library. This file is important to those who wish to communicate with Winchester boys (and girls) in service and all new enlistees and all changes in enlistees of service people should be left at the Library, or may be given personally to Mrs. Toye by calling Winchester 6-1895.

FIREMEN LEAVE HOSPITAL

Two members, who had been for some time confined to the Winchester Hospital, have returned home, and one of them, Fireman J. L. Nowell, returned to duty at the Central Station Monday of this week.

Captain Frank Amico, who sustained several broken ribs in a fall at his home, is not yet able to return to duty.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Peter Hickey of Concord, formerly of Winchester, are the parents of twin boys born March 7 at the Baker Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Hickey is the former Louise Furbur of Melrose. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hickey of 12 Edgell road.

CIVIL DEFENSE

INSIDE YOUR CIVIL DEFENSE

NO. 1 CIVILIAN WAR AID DIVISION

Here is printed the first of an important series of articles entitled (with apologies to John Gunther) "Inside Your Civil Defense," to report to the town on the progress of its newest — and possibly one day important — Department.

Until an atomic bomb or great natural disaster strikes Winchester, or nearby, the importance of our Civil Defense efforts can never be fully appreciated. We hope that day never comes.

But everyone recognizes that there is a present danger, appreciates the need for full preparedness, and can well appreciate the immense effort required to organize facilities, prepare plans for action, recruit and train the many, many people who are needed.

Perhaps you hadn't realized that your CD organization already has several hundred persons, working countless extra hours on a purely voluntary basis, to protect our town. Perhaps you haven't given much thought to ways in which your help may be needed, in some way at some time, to make Civil Defense an effective "going concern."

Certainly you are interested, however, in knowing just what your CD organization is already able to do, to protect your life and property — and what its plans are for the future. And it is to inform you fully, and merit your sincere interest and cooperation, that these articles are presented.

We of Civil Defense hope you enjoy these articles, but, most of all, hope you understand them clearly. Read also between the lines, and visualize the hours of work that your fellow citizens have contributed to our mutual safety. Look, through their eyes, at a time when Civil Defense may not just a "cops and robbers" game, but a terribly necessary thing — and you will then see why they have worked so hard, and so willingly.

ARTHUR WARREN DEAN

Arthur Warren Dean, 81, of 60 Yale street, died March 20, 1952, at the Winchester Hospital after a month of illness.

Mr. Dean was the son of David Dean and Dordana (Macomber) Dean. He was born in Taunton, Mass., March 27, 1870, and received his education in the Taunton High School, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He served for thirty-six years in the capacity of Chief Engineer of State Department, first of the New Hampshire State Highway Department, which he organized, then of the Massachusetts State Highway Commission, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, and the Massachusetts State Planning Board.

Mr. Dean was an honorary member and past president of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, an honorary member of the Massachusetts Highway Association, a member of the New England Road Builders Association, a past president and member at large of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

He came to Winchester to live in 1910. He was a member of the Winchester Planning Board for thirty-five years, also a member and past president of the old Calumet Club, and a former member of the Winchester Country Club.

Mr. Dean was an honorary member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons, and a member of St. George's Episcopal Church, Knights Templar of Nashua, N. H.

On October 4, 1894, Mr. Dean married Mabel Hamblett, of Nashua, N. H., who died several years ago. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude F. Dean and Miss Mary S. Dean, of Taunton, Mass.; two daughters, Mrs. Harry N. Squires, Jr., and Mrs. Philip H. Bartlett, both of Winchester; two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, March 22, at 2:30 o'clock, in Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church. The minister, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, will officiate, and after cremation at Mt. Auburn, interment will be made in Wildwood Cemetery.

REV. HADLEY HOSPITALIZED

Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, was removed from the rectory to the Winchester Hospital Monday morning when his condition took a turn for the worse. Mr. Hadley had a heart attack on March 13, and though seriously ill since that time, his condition had improved considerably until the sudden change on Monday.

Once again his condition has taken a turn for the better and when the Star went to press yesterday was considered much improved. In his absence many of the Lenten services of the Church of the Epiphany are being taken by Rev. H. E. Edenborg and Archdeacon A. O. Phinney.

CORRECTION

An error occurred in the listing of the survivors of Mrs. Alma Johnson in last week's Star. There are four sisters and a brother living in Sweden, and not four brothers and a sister, as we wrote. We regret the error.

REGISTRATION

Friday, March 28, is the last day to register for the primaries in April. The Registrar's office at the town hall will be open from 8:30 to 10 p.m. on March 28, and until then during the usual town hall office hours. Party designations can be changed up to and including the registration hours on March 28.

COMMUNITY CHEST PAYS $19,260.

Red Feather services of Winchester will receive a total of $19,260 toward their operating costs in 1952, President Walcott B. Thompson of Winchester Community Chest announced today. Apportioned from receipts of last fall's campaign for the 300 Red Feather agencies affiliated with United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston, this allocation has been jointly approved by local and central volunteer budget committees.

This amount represents a minimum figure, however, of actual service given to the people of Winchester, Mr. Thompson emphasized.

since many other Red Feather health, social service and youth agencies of the metropolitan area contribute to the community's welfare. All allotments, he pointed out, are based on the usual procedure of meeting agency deficits over and above sources of income.

Direct allocations to the home agencies are: Winchester Hospitals, $5,000; Council of Girl Scouts, $4,500; Home for Aged People, $4,286; District Nursing Association, $3,849; Immaculate Conception Conference, St. Vincent de Paul, $1,450; and Camp Lane, Boy Scouts, $175.

Added to the above figures should be the year-round share for Winchester Boy Scouts, 600 through the $14,800 allotment to Fellsland Council for Scouting administration in several affiliated communities.

In addition to these hometown services, 899 local residents used out-of-town Red Feather agencies, according to the last full year's report. Of these, 477 patients from Winchester were treated in 18 other Greater Boston hospitals and 422 were served by 26 outside family, youth and children's agencies.

Under the leadership of Burton A. Miller, 592 volunteers were enrolled in Winchester's Red Feather campaign, while 3,259 individuals and firms contributed toward the many services provided for the townspeople.

The local budget committee includes Clinton W. Bennett, chairman, Sherman B. Russell, Neil Borden, William J. Croughwell, Wayne R. Davis, Franklin A. Flanders, Alfred J. Higgins, Edward J. McDewitt, Jr., Ronald H. Robnett and Ben R. Schneider.

The last meeting of the Winchester College Club's Daytime Study Group, "Thrifty Time Saving Tactics," was held on March 13th at the home of Mrs. Howard Aiken. Mrs. Charles Whitten and Mrs. Frank Kelley, Jr., spoke on "The XYZ's of Decorating."

The group will meet again on March 27 at the home of Mrs. Richard Wyman. Mrs. Waldo Lyon will be in charge of refreshments. The speaker will be Mrs. John Harrison who will discuss "New Synthetic Fabrics."

Winchester Heart Fund

Winchester's Heart Fund Campaign Chairman Coleman G. Foley, announced this week that only Melrose among surrounding cities and towns, have surpassed Winchester's total to date.

Melrose has raised $2,000 for the fund, and Winchester lags behind that sum by only $200. With contributions still coming in Mr. Foley is hopeful that Winchester may reach or top $2,000. He urges all those who have not yet done so to send their contributions to him at 18 Middlesex street.

BIG SCOUT ROUND-UP

May 17th will be a big day in the lives of Boy Scouts, Cubs and Explorer Scouts in Winchester and in the surrounding towns of Medford, Stoneham, Woburn and Burlington. For that's the day of Fellsland Council's annual Scouting Round-Up, to be held again this year in Cousins Gym at Tufts College in Medford.

The purpose of the yearly Scouting spectacle is to give the public an opportunity to watch "Scouting in action," and to give the boys a chance to show the grown-ups the various Scouting skills they've acquired and the many activities they enjoy in their Troops and Packs throughout the year.

Last Spring, over 5,000 people attended the affair, inspecting the many booths and displays of Scouters prepared by the boys, and watching the Scouts competing in the truly exciting demonstrations of such Scouting skills as firefighting, signaling and first aid. Plans are now well under way for this season's Scouting Round-Up, which promises to be just as worthwhile and enjoyable as the program of previous years.

This year, a group of Winchester men have accepted the responsibility of helping the Scouts stage their "big day." James H. Muncaster, prominent local Scouter, is heading the Round-Up committee, which consists of these Winchesterites: Seymour P. Bingham, Secretary; Lewis Foster, Treasurer; Thomas M. Downes, Tickets; Daniel S. Portiere, Decorating; Gordon Peckham, Floor Committee; J. J. Fitzgerald, Jr., Hall Arrangement; H. W. Bates, Door Committee; Paul Butterworth, Publicity; Sam Vangell, Refreshments; William Davies, Prizes and Awards; Ben Gowing, W. J. Masterton and A. D. Elliott, Members-at-large.

At their regular Thursday night meeting, March 27th, the Boy Scouts of Troop 3 of the First Congregational Church are planning a special "Camp Fellsland Night" for their dads. The program will include movies and information about Camp Fellsland, together with first hand experiences from some of the scouts.

At this same "Dads' night" Larry Longworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lytle L. Longworth of 17 Dix street will be presented with the Life Scout award. This award is the second highest one which a Boy Scout may earn.

W. H. S. VAUDEVILLE SHOW IN 20th YEAR

Plans for the 20th annual production of the W. H. S. Vaudeville Show, which will be presented on April 4 and 5 at the high school auditorium, are well under way. Over 150 students will appear on the stage in one or more of the many acts, while 100 other students are serving on committees as ushers, candy girls, etc. Without doubt the vaudeville show attracts greater school-wide participation than does any other non-athletic enterprise of the student body.

Besides the more than 250 students taking part, a goodly number of the faculty, W. H. S. graduates, and parents are devoting time and effort toward producing another smash hit. This year's planning committee consists of Mr. Ray Hayward, chairman, Mr. Henry Knowlton, Miss Helen Carroll, Miss Eleanor Amantis, Miss Marguerite Derro, and Mr. Dan O'Donnell.

Other members of the faculty who are assisting with the show include: Mr. Thomas Morse, supervising the lighting and coaching two skits; Miss Pauline Goodrich, supervising the designing of posters and program covers; Miss Louise Cone, in charge of the sale of tickets; Mr. Henry Fitts, planning the numbers of the faculty quartet; Miss Barbara Blackstone, assisting with an Easter Parade number; Mr. Frank Weaver, in charge of ushers; Mr. Joseph Aversa, supervising the printing of tickets; and Mr. Alfred Meurling, producing a matinee act from the grade schools.

Miss Dorothy Bailey, Miss Marilyn Beckford, and Miss Dorothy Dunn, physical education practice teachers from Sargent College and Bouve-Boston School, are coaching three of the dance groups.

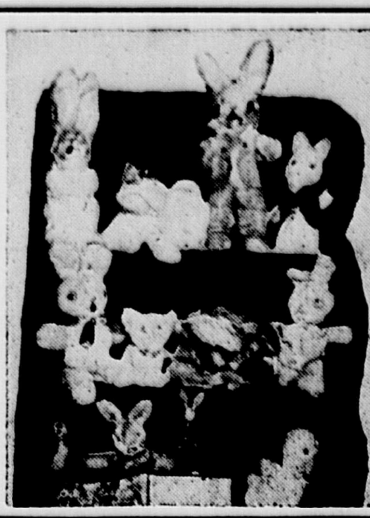

Among the parents and friends contributing to the show are: Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff, Mrs. Olcott Hooper, Mrs. Ray Hayward, Mrs. Loring Nichols, Mrs. Carl Morse, and Mrs. Salvatore Lazzaro.

Several graduates of Winchester High School are contributing their services. Phyllis O'Neil and Jean Neley are coaching the boys' Pony Chorus, while Marguerite Derro is giving expert instruction to two tap dance groups. There are a few of the many persons who are working to make the 20th annual vaudeville show the best in history.

Among the new features highlighting this year's production will be impersonations of several television favorites, including Ken Murray, Arthur Godfrey, Sid Caesar, and Imogene Coca; "Carrousel," a sixteen girl merry-go-round dance number; a Cossack dance group; and Easter Parade number; a genuine blues "soloist"; and a shipboard setting for the finale. ## CURLERS END SEASON

Young Cup won by Litchfield

In a series of anti-climaxes, a very fine and successful curling season is closing. The season's last Tuesday, three Winchester rinks were hosts to the Fredericton, New Brunswick Curlers, winning two out of three matches at the Country Club, Brookline, rinks. The Winchester rinks were Symmes, Waggoner, Coulson and Geoff Neiley, skip; Fulton, Lane, Litchfield and Dick Neiley, skip; and Bonnell, Eteson, Davis and Joy, skip. Cocktails, dinner and then curling made a most enjoyable party. The Fredericton Curlers presented Winchester with a very appropriate small trophy as a souvenir.

Friday, John Joy, skip, took John Coulson, Joe Dolben and Al Litchfield to Schenectady for the Gordon International Trophy, a total-score competition between eight U. S. and eight Canadian rinks. John's rink won their two matches 12-3 and 10-5 and the U. S. Curlers came out with a total of 14 points ahead.

Also on Friday, the Country Club Curlers entertained four Winchester rinks for Curling and Supper. The Winchester rinks were MacMinn, LeRoy, Lane and Waggoner, skip; Butters, King, Hunt and Geoff Neiley, skip; Greiner and Morrison, Eteson and Morse, skip; Fulton, Van Vloten, Davis and Dick

HOW TO GREASE YOUR OWN CAR

1. Put on your dirtiest clothes and an old cap so you can crawl under your car.
2. Jack your car up with four jacks and dig a hole in your driveway or garage so you can get under the car.
3. Buy a supply of the proper transmission, differential, universal joint, water pump and chassis greases, five grease guns, a spray gun and some spring penetrating oil.
4. Equip yourself with lots of good strong words you like to use on the fittings where the grease doesn't want to come through. Keep using these words until the grease comes out on the other side.
5. Buy yourself a complete set of wrenches to use on the cases that must be opened to inspect the lubricating supply inside. Also get new skin to graft on your knuckles when the wrench slips.
6. Fill your spray gun with penetrating oil and spray on the springs. Get your neighbors to help you rock the car vigorously back and forth to help work the oil into the springs. Be sure not to breathe for about 10 minutes while spraying the springs or you may oil the inside of your lungs, which is bad.
7. Be sure not to miss any place that should be lubricated as it may cost you the price of 20 grease jobs for repairs.
8. Don't forget little places like the door catches and hinges; also generator, distributor, hood hinges and control rods under the hood.
9. Promote some distilled water somewhere and a battery hydrometer so that you can test and refill your battery.
10. Be sure at this stage that you have a curbstone mechanic handy to make a safety inspection — fan belt, muffler, brakes, lights, etc.
11. Now you're set for the finishing touch. Buy a tire pump and tire gauge so you're certain to inflate your tires to the proper pressure so as to avoid excessive tire wear.

Or if you'd rather not be bothered with all this, we'll do a first class lubrication job for $12.50.

Neiley, skip. Dick Neiley and Dan Morse won their matches. From Sunday to Thursday of this week, a rink composed of Eteson, skip, King, Fulton and Murphy are at Hamilton, Ontario. This is another of those very enjoyable annual affairs to which Winchester is always invited.

Tuesday evening saw the finals of the Young Cup between Geoff Neiley and Al Litchfield, the latter winner by 19 to 5. Al's rink included Arthur Butters, Joe Dolben, and Russ Symmes, while Geoff had Dan Morse, Jerry Hills, and John Coulson. Some very nice curling by Arthur Butters and Al Litchfield left no doubt of the outcome from the early stages of the match.

The Young Cup finals officially end the season, but there are still two more parties. One is the Curling Dinner to be held shortly, at which the year's prizes will be distributed and curling strategy very fully discussed, and the annual golf party to the Country Club curlers, at which Winchester tries to make up in some small way the hospitality of the Country Club for the use of their ice during the winter.

MUSIC DIRECTORS ATTEND NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Mr. Fred M. Felmet, music supervisor for the Winchester schools, is attending the biennial meeting of the Music Educators' National Conference, held at Philadelphia from March 21 to March 26. Mr. Felmet, who is president of the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association, is representing the state association at the national conference.

During Mr. Felmet's absence from Winchester, his duties at the High School and Junior High will be assumed by Mr. Robert Clark, Director of Music in Torrington, Connecticut. Fred's grade school classes have been cancelled for this period of time.

Also attending the conference at Philadelphia will be Miss Eleanor Anifantis, assistant supervisor of music, who has been appointed national chairman of Junior High School music for two years. She will be in charge of the Junior High Program and will also serve on a panel — "Expanding and Balancing Our Junior-Senior High School Music Program."

Indians Came Behind in Tourney Semi-Final

The fans at the Boston Garden last Friday night were treated to the greatest comeback of the present Tech Tournament as Winchester rallied from 10 points behind entering the final period to defeat Weymouth High 53-48. The Indians broke a record in Tournament play by drawing 45 free throws, out of which they made 25, which eventually provided the margin for victory for the never-say-die Red and Black quintet.

Weymouth employed an extremely aggressive all-court press which seemed to rattle the Indians and which prevented them from setting up their offensive patterns. The locals made only four baskets in the first half for every time an Indian got near the basket he was fouled by a Weymouth defender. Something had to give in a game marred by excessive fouling but the locals kept their heads and finally Weymouth cracked. They lost four of their starters via the personal foul route and as each went out Winchester improved and closed in rapidly until they finally tied the score at 46-46 three minutes from the end of the game.

The only Winchester basket in the first quarter was scored by Bob Forester but three successful free throws by Johnny Farrell, two by Doug Hawkins, and one by Forester gave the Indians a narrow 8-7 lead at the end of that period. The Indians began to bring the ball down the court better in the second quarter and loosened up to score 16 points against the 13 tallied by Weymouth. The Winchester points were scored on two baskets by Farrell, a basket by Dilorio, four successful free throws apiece by Symmes and Hawkins, and a foul shot apiece by Dilorio and Farrell. Thus, the Indians walked off the Garden floor with a 24-20 lead at the intermission and seemed to have the game under control.

Winchester fans, however, never want to sit through another period like the third quarter. In that canto Weymouth bruised its way out front on the great work of John Fitzgerald who scored 14 points in that period alone to boost Weymouth to a 10-point, 43-33, lead at the bell. This was the second time this year that the Indians have been humiliated in a period as Weymouth outscored them 23-9 and it looked like the locals were all done.

This team does not know how to lose, however, and under the leadership of Johnny Farrell, who was tremendous all through the grueling contest, the Sachems began to overcome the Weymouth lead. On a jump ball to start the quarter Farrell broke loose to drive in for a layup. Hawkins connected on a one-handed push from the keyhole to close it to 43-37. Captain Wright connected for Weymouth to increase their lead to 45-37. Rodney Long, who had re-entered the game at the beginning of the final period to help spark the Winchester drive with his determined play, then connected on his specialty, a left-handed push shot from 15 feet out to make it 45-39. Dilorio added a free throw and Long went in clear under the basket on a quick break to make it 45-42 and the Garden was in an uproar.

On a jump ball Long tapped to Farrell who went in to hit for two points and was fouled in the process. His attempt was good, tying the score at 46-46 with three minutes left. Farrell again hit on a drive-in shot at the end of a fast break to put Winchester into a 48-46 lead with a minute and 40 seconds to go. Farrell almost stole the ball seconds later but had to settle for a jump ball. He tapped to Hawkins who handed off to Long and just as Long was ready to shoot he was fouled. Long again came through in the clutch as he made good on both free throws to give the Indians a 50-46 lead. With 50 seconds to play, Farrell

BURNETT B. C. HOCKEY CAPTAIN

Wellington Parker "Wimpy" Burnett of 36 Wildwood street was elected Captain of the 1952-53 Boston College hockey team at a meeting of the squad last Monday at University Heights.

Burnett, an outstanding performer for the B. C. hockey club over the past three years, received the distinct honor over a field of eight other candidates.

The Winchester native, a popular figure among students and teammates as well, was a good choice in the estimation of his coach, John "Snooks" Kelley. Kelley was the first to congratulate Burnett and told reporters, "The choice was a difficult one, what with the likes of players like Joe Morgan, Joe Carroll, Ed Emery, Joe Hosford, Bill Emmons, Frank O'Grady and Sherm Saltmarsh. But to my way of thinking when it's actually happened, Wimp makes a wonderful choice. He's a hard player and gives everything he has for the team, and I think that this is simply a just reward for Wimp from his teammates."

The selection of Burnett marks the first choice of a non-Catholic B. C. athlete as captain of a major sport since Arthur Spinney of Saugus captained the 1949 football team.

Wimpy was educated in the Winchester schools, hot-bed of many outstanding college hockey players, and is now attending the Boston College School of Business Administration.

fouled out and the entire Garden gave him a great and well-deserved ovation. Peter Coon nailed down the Winchester victory by stealing the ball at mid-court and going in for a layup which he made good as well as the accompanying foul for a valuable three-pointer and a 53-46 lead.

Weymouth threw in a basket just before the final bell but nobody in Winchester cared as the big crowd applauded their courageous comeback while the players hugged and kissed everybody in sight. It was a great game for the Winchester team to win as they proved to the fans at the Garden that they are real champions. Johnny Farrell was terrific for the locals, not only in scoring but defensively with as he held his opponent to one point while making 17. Doug Hawkins did a tremendous job off the boards against a bruising Weymouth five that handed out plenty of punishment as evidenced by the 18 foul shots awarded Hawkins. Rodney Long came through magnificently in the clutch with six important points in the crucial, presiding final quarter. Peter Coon proved again why he is such a valuable reserve on this quintet as he provides the spark that seems to lift the team when he enters a game. It was a fighting finish that will live long in the history of Winchester High athletic achievement.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

A special exhibit of hobbies is on display in the Boys' and Girls' room during the month of March. Three children have been kind enough to loan their collections for this exhibit. On display are a stamp collection including both foreign and domestic stamps loaned by Miss Hazel Walling, 8 Norwood street, a collection of shells of many types and varieties loaned by Miss Emily Fish, 20 Myrtle street, and an interesting and varied rock collection, courtesy of John Heaton, 201 Mystic Valley Parkway.

Books from the Boys' and Girls' Room about hobbies supplement this display. One especially good book to help a beginner decide on a hobby is "Here's your Hobby" by Harry Zarchy. It includes information on many unusual hobbies: collecting butterflies and moths and tropical fish — as well as the usual one of stamp collecting and photography. An excellent new book for the stamp enthusiast is "Fall's Profitable Stamp Guide" by Franklin R. Burns. The book includes a history of postage stamps and explanations of stamp terminology. Two other new books of special interest are "The Real Book about Magic" by Joseph Leeming and "Photography for Teen-agers" by Lucile Marshall.

The Boys' and Girls' Room would be glad to continue these hobby exhibits for a longer period of time if there are other Winchester children who have unusual hobbies or different ones from those displayed by the children who are loaning them for this purpose.

Of special interest this month is the announcement of the Newbery and Caldecott Awards by the Children's Library Association, a section of the American Library Association. The Newbery medal, the 31st annual award for the "most distinguished contribution to American literature for children," was given to Eleanor Estes for "Ginger Day" published by Harcourt, Brace, and Company. As the 15th annual award, the Caldecott medal for the "most distinguished picture book for children" was presented to Nicholas Mordino, illustrator of "Finders Keepers," also published by Harcourt, Brace, and Company. Both books are available in the Boys' and Girls' Room.

Recorded music in the Downs Room, Wednesday, March twenty-sixth at 3 p. m. and again at 7:30 p. m.

In observance of the 85th birthday of Arturo Toscanini on March twenty-fifth the film "Hymn to the Nations" will be shown following a short program of recorded music conducted by the Maestro.

Lincoln and Lee Group

The first meeting of a group of men interested in meeting together to read and discuss the Lincoln-Lee collection was held at the library Tuesday evening, March eighteenth.

There was a definite response to the idea of such a group. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, April first, at 7:45 in the Edgar J. Rich Room at the library. This is an invitation to all men of Winchester interested in Civil War history to join the group.

Use of Edgar J. Rich Room
The Edgar J. Rich Room at the Public Library will be shown upon request any time during library hours. Individuals may arrange to use the Edgar J. Rich Room for reading and study of the Lincoln-Lee collection by making appointments in advance.

The library needs reprints of its report for the years 1908, 1915, 1921, and 1922. If you have these among your possessions, you will be doing a great service to your library by making them available for binding.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Women's Republican Club of Winchester will present an outstandingly different type of program for members and their friends next Friday afternoon, March 28th, at the Unitarian Church Hall. At this time, Mrs. Felicia Kutten and Miss Victoria Thomas, representatives of Helena Rubinstein, will give their lecture "The Arts of Good Grooming," this talk emphasizing the rules for developing personality and charm and achieving basic attractiveness. The program will be preceded by dessert at 1:30.

Mrs. Charles A. Weimer and Mrs. James M. Beale, Co-chairmen of the Ways and Means Committee, have arranged the afternoon. Mrs. Henry A. Dellicker and Mrs. Lawrence M. Fenelon are in charge of tickets. It is hoped that the Club will support wholeheartedly this project which is our spring money-making activity.

Peggy Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Holmes of 3 Lakeview road, has been pledged by Theta Ety, social sorority, at the Women's College of the University of Rochester. Miss Holmes entered the University last fall with advanced standing after having attended Wheaton College.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten

Kindergarten children are busy making a transportation scrapbook. They have been finding pictures in magazines and newspapers at home and bringing them to school where the pictures are pasted in a group scrapbook. Kevin Nelson, Dick McIntosh, Richard Kirkpatrick, and Domenic Amico have all made wooden planes at home and brought them to school for an airplane exhibit.

Colonial Village

Through their study of the English Colonies in America, fifth grade pupils developed an interest in an arts and crafts unit on the buildings of early Jamestown. Under Miss Mitchell's guidance the colonial buildings are studied, and from them models are being planned and constructed with materials of wood and cement. As the village grows, the children plan to add to it all that the early British brought to the New World.

"Get Well" Letters

Fourth grade pupils have written "get well" letters to their classmate, Stephen Campbell, during his recent illness. The letters have emphasized the coming square dance which pupils, under the direction of the physical education director, Alfred Meurling, will present for Dad's Night at 7:30 p. m. on March 21. The youngsters are most enthusiastic about a new number called "the grapevine."

LINCOLN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The Lincoln School Mothers' Association held its spring meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 12th, in the Lincoln School Auditorium. Grades 1, 2 and 3 presented a physical education program under the direction of Miss Davenport, accompanied by Miss Fitch, Director of Music.

Program:

Grade 2, Miss Harkins
1. Pussy Cat
2. Old Roger is Dead

Grade 1, Mrs. Buckley
1. A Hunting We Will Go
2. Jumbo the Ditch

Grade 1, Miss Cochrane
1. See the Shoemaker
2. How D'ye Do My Partner

Grades 2-3, Miss Kanaly
Grade 3, Miss Cullen
1. Marching Drill
2. Jump Jim Crow

After the program, which was very much enjoyed by all present, ice cream and cookies were served to the youngsters. Mothers enjoyed a tour of the remodeled kitchen, painted sunny yellow, before their coffee hour. Pourers were Mrs. Erwin Hutchings and Mrs. Vincent Carroll. Mrs. John Munroe and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer were in charge of refreshments.

Of interest to all present was the announcement that Mrs. Paul O'Neill, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, had a baby girl, the Girl Scout Baby — pictured in Filene's window.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Middlesex County Council will be held on Saturday, March 22, in Cambridge. All members who are planning to attend contact our President, Frances Burr, before noon on Saturday and make arrangements for transportation.

Our Annual Birthday Party at Bedford Hospital is to be on next Thursday evening, March 27. Lola Bennett, the Chairman, urges all members to attend and make this a successful Party for the Veterans. Be at the Legion Home before 6:45 on that evening if you wish transportation and members who have promised cakes arrange to have them delivered there by that time or call and have them picked up by one of the members.

A FEW POINTS TO CONSIDER

Editor of the Star:

It is possible that I should not become mixed up in this hot argument concerning the elimination of the grade crossing. However, I have called Winchester my home town since 1876, and in that time have seen it grow from a quiet village of less than five thousand inhabitants to some seventeen thousand. In those early days we rather enjoyed having a railroad, and one could well say that it did much to build up the town that Aaron Bell liked to call "The Athens of America" in his real estate advertisements.

Occasionally some one has been injured or killed at or near the crossing, yet more were killed walking the tracks between Wedgemere and Swanton streets, or over the highway caused by automobiles.

As Town Engineer in the early nineteen hundreds, I gave thought to this problem, but the year after I resigned a decided effort was made by some citizens to do something about the elimination of the grade crossing. This resulted in the hiring of two of my friends, an engineer of high standing, and a landscape engineer to work out a plan then advocated, namely, to raise the center of the town high enough to go over the tracks and to raise many of the buildings to correspond to this grade, after dropping the tracks possibly three feet. This plan was approved by the town and it remained such a plan until the "Kellaway Plan" was introduced a few years later. This last plan, however, has never been carried out, even though it was the expense of many people; the expense of it was more than the town could afford with the many other costly improvements the town was called upon to carry out.

To my mind, there are just two plans that are sound, and these the "Kellaway Plan" and the one submitted by Jerome Foster in connection with the once proposed High School and Junior High plans. Both of these plans call for the diversion of traffic of both Main street and Church street, which without question is just as important as the railroad phase of the project, if not more so, since traffic will grow greater each year and is as dangerous as the railroad trains, since there is no time during most of the day that road traffic does not jam up at the Center, and this should be eliminated.

There is no excuse for anyone to be injured at the railroad crossing if he obeys the signals, either automobile or pedestrian. As I have said before, few people have been killed at or near the crossing, to my knowledge, which is some seventy odd years. As to the question of raising the railroad tracks, which some people say will divide the town — this is absurd, since many Massachusetts towns have both sides of the track, such as Belmont. Even in our town we say "East Side" and "West Side," meaning east and west of the railroad.

The retaining walls of this project, if carried out, can and should be insisted upon to be designed by landscape architects, and where possible, covered by vines and shrubbery, thus the structure will not be an eyesore, as some people fear. There is no question that the tracks should be raised rather than lowered, as some people claim. Soundings which were made about 1902, while Town Engineer, across the ponds north of the Center, showed that an unstable soil condition existed, and not until a depth of fifty feet was reached was there a sound soil condition on which there could be constructed a structure as would be necessary. Since it would be necessary to go to a depth of at least 25 feet below the present grade of Elev. 29, at the crossing at the Center, this would bring the bottom level to grade of one foot below zero (which is the Boston Base, or mean low tide water), and about 22 feet below the surface of Black Ball Pond, which has an elevation of 21.3 feet. Thus a structure such as would be necessary would form a dam across the Aberjona River which either must flow across the top of the structure or be carried underneath by an inverted siphon. In either event the structure will be submerged, calling for very costly construction.

Again such a plan would eliminate the Woburn Loop tracks, since the grade would be prohibitive, unless carried possibly as far as Woburn Center. Provision also must be made to take care of Horn Pond Brook. This would also add much to the cost of the main line construction. It would seem to be prohibitive to consider putting the tracks below the present level, since the cost would be unwarranted. One thing is certain, the elimination of "through traffic" and "heavy trucking traffic" should be a No. 1 Must (for that is the main reason for the logical solution is to let the railroad tracks stay where they are, or whether contemplated plans for either under or over tracks are accepted. In my judgment, the logical solution is to let the railroad tracks stay where they are, and either carry out the "Kellaway" or "Foster" plans, either of which can be done as much as the other, and with less disruption in every way.

In the one hundred and sixteen years that the trains have run through our Center there have been but few accidents, while highway traffic, as everyone knows, kills more people than do the railroads.

One other solution would be to make Washington street, from the main street to the Woburn line, and, as I understand it, the State Public Works Department has such a scheme in its mind as a connection with route 128. This would carry the heavy traffic out of Winchester Square, which is the most important Must. However, the Kellaway or Foster plans not only do this, but take care of the East-West traffic, which is important and much less costly than to build a wall (raised tracks).

In looking at the photograph in the Star of the proposed grade crossing, it is evident that the traffic congestion would be moved to the junction of Main street and the Parkway. To my mind this is of no help to the traffic problem.

WHERE SOME OF YOUR TAXES GO

Editor of the Star:

We boarded ship on Wednesday in the afternoon. We knew we were not going to leave the harbor immediately for the next day, but to be one of the Army Bases to take on Mutual Aid cargo for Norway and Denmark.

First of all, about this ship, the Lyngby. She is beautiful even though she is called a freighter. Freighters carry not over 12 passengers. We are only six this trip. But for six of us there is a beautifully furnished lounge, a lovely dining saloon, two staterooms, a stateroom on the top deck and plenty of deck space besides. The walls are all paneled in matched woods and there is an air of luxury and comfort far surpassing what we have seen in American freighters. The cabins are very roomy and each has a desk, radio and sofa in addition to the beds. Of course, each has its own bath and shower, and bathroom. The ship has two bath tubs are six feet long inside.

But you may be interested in what we've seen that the taxpayers are buying. We are loading cargo at this base and have been for three days and we're not finished yet. Cargo is brought alongside on barges. There is a crane alongside also with a crew of about 20 men. Every one of them is while they are something aboard but not too often. The crane is so big it probably cost a quarter million. Perhaps they need it, I wouldn't know, but there are so many men loading on the deck on top of the ship that they are careful not to lower anything on to them. These men are the stevedores. We are carrying a deck cargo of large cases, army trucks and other things. I am quite sure if this job were a civilian job instead of an Army job, it would be done in half the time and with less men.

I haven't been able to count the men on deck, but there must be at least 150. Each one seems to be a specialist. A deck cargo must, of course, be lashed down tight and placed on proper platforms.

The airplane job will perhaps give you an idea of how these men can manage to take so long.

First of all, heavy timbers were brought aboard. While this was being done the others, welders, carpenters, electricians, for men Army officers and inspectors all stood by, because it seems to be the rule that only one kind of work be done at a time. When the men not working get tired standing they stop for about 20 minutes for coffee and sandwiches. This happens two or three times a day not including lunch time.

Well, the heavy timbers are placed on top of the four hatches by hand. They carefully lay these out according to a plan some one produced. Having done this, they rest. Then comes the welder to weld metal cleats to the side of the hatches. One welder for four hatches at about 4 hours per hatch (while the others mostly stand by). Occasionally the crane hoists another bit of cargo aboard, but nobody seems anxious to fasten them down. That can be better done today (Saturday) when they get time and a half.

The welding done, the timber handlings, the timbers back in place, because the welder had to move them (or at any rate he did move them). Then comes a driller. He has to drill holes through the timbers so they can be bolted down to the cleats. But he last drills the holes. Then come the bolt men, who put the bolts in place, and the nut men put the nuts on. (By the time you think of your income tax, you'll be a nut yourself).

Now we are all ready to have the planes hoisted aboard. But it isn't as simple as it sounds. First of all they have to measure everything again to see if there's room for the plane. Then they have to get a tug to bring a lighter with the planes.

When the lighter gets alongside, the crane men come to life again. After numerous conferences, they decide to unlash the plane from the deck of the lighter and couple the crane to it. I think the crane is about big enough to lift a fair sized tug boat out of the water, but they do manipulate it beautifully and gently place the plane on its cradle on the hatch.

Now the bolt men and cable men get to work again. Each plane, each large case, each truck fastened down to the deck with 3/4" steel cables and turnbuckles. There must be $100 worth of tackle on each package. It's taking about 3 hours to fasten each plane on its cradle. If the crane tried to lift the plane after it's fastened, the whole ship would be hoisted out of the sea, too.

At last we seem to be nearing the end of this loading. It is very interesting to see what is going on anything but an Army job, it would be done in one day or less. Thus far, it has taken three.

You expect to be late some times on a "freighter" job, why you don't make schedules in advance, leaving port. When we leave here, our next stop is Copenhagen. The Captain assures me that what took 3 days to load will come off in 3 hours, so we may not have any time there before proceeding to Norway.

But we are sure it's going to take a long time for us to forget the way our government is spending our tax money.

THE LEAGUE'S POSITION

March 19, 1952

Editor of the Star:

Why has the League of Women Voters taken no position on the grade crossing problem? The matter is certainly one of serious consequence to the town. League Board members have been questioned so often as to the League's position that perhaps it is suitable to explain how we arrive at a program of work on issues here in Winchester. In any event it should be fairly obvious that the League can not support all good causes which come to its attention, nor take a stand on every local issue.

Here is our procedure. Suggestions from members for a work program are considered at our Annual Meeting. New fields first appear as "study" items for at least a year. If as a result of study there is widespread agreement by League members as to a course of action, "support" or "opposition" may be voted. The League takes a position only (1) after intensive study, (2) if there is a large measure of agreement by the members, and (3) if the item is in accord with long established League principles. This "grass roots" process necessarily slow and precludes any sudden decision to act, but it insures a well thought through program of work solidly backed by League members.

Needless to say League members are free to work as individuals on any issue. By taking an active, informed part in town affairs they are assuming "political responsibility" — which is the goal of all League work.

It is very flattering to the League that it is assumed by so many that it is important to know the League's position. Rest assured that when the League does take a position on a local question it will be after careful consideration and with a full explanation to Winchester.

Sincerely yours,
Mabelle M. Long
(Mrs. Rodney W.) President

WANTS TEAM OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED!

Editor of the Star:

One sincerely hopes that the town fathers do not let the occasion of Winchester High's remarkable basketball last season pass without suitable recognition from the Town Hall.

While, in this era of wide-open basketball, a record of 24 consecutive victories without a setback is almost improbable, what is far more noteworthy is the performance of the high school team in the recent Eastern Massachusetts tournament.

I have witnessed all these tournament games since 1930, and never has there been a greater exhibition of fortitude than showed by the virus-riddled Winchester team, many members of which were taking their college-board exams the day of the tournament final.

The boys could easily have submitted in any one of their three games, but simply refused to be beaten by virus bugs or tournament opponents. It was a wonderful example of fighting spirit.

Winchester, it some times has seemed to me, has been negligent in recognizing the exceptional performances of the sports teams at the high school, and the men who coach them.

What the basketball team has just accomplished is something which occurs once in a lifetime in a small town like ours, and I know a lot of us will feel even prouder of our town if something "official" was done in the way of recognizing the efforts of these boys.

Sincerely yours,

FROM THE HEART ASSOCIATION

Editor of the Star:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Heart Association, I want to thank you for supporting the 1952 Heart Fund during the month of February.

The response to the Heart appeal has been greater this year than before. While a complete report will not be available for several weeks, the fact that we are $50,000 ahead of this same date last year encourages us to believe that we shall make our goal of $300,000 before the end of our fiscal year, June 30, 1953.

This means that we shall have the necessary funds to continue our present program of research into the causes and control of diseases of the heart and circulation as well as our programs of education and service.

We are very grateful for your assistance in bringing the Heart cause to the attention of the people of our Commonwealth.

Sincerely yours,
Samuel Proger
President

CRITICAL OF TOWN COUNSEL

Editor of the Star:

After listening in Town Meeting to Mr. Vincent Clarke's explanation of his reasons for pronouncing as legal the obviously illegal procedure of a taxpayer's petition, School Addition Building Committee and the Finance Committee in the "appropriation" of Reserve Fund money last July it is clear that the town of Winchester needs a new Town Counsel.

Mr. Clarke is the same Town Counsel who opined a year ago that the late High School and Enlarged Junior High School Building Committee remained in existence until November 1950 without any provision for the continuance of that Committee.

Either of these two cases were made the subject of a taxpayers' suit the Town would be laughed out of the courts of this Commonwealth.

WYMAN PUPILS QUERIED CONGRESSMAN

Two pupils in the Wyman School, Sam Orth and Peter Martin, wrote to Representative J. Philip Wyman, asking him several questions about which they desired information. The following letter from Rep. Phil. Wyman, published with the thought that it will prove of general interest:

March 17, 1952

Mr. Sam Orth
Mr. Peter Martin
Wyman School
Church Street,
Winchester, Mass.

My dear Friends:

I was very glad to hear from you and am pleased to answer your questions as follows—

1. The Administration does not believe in fighting a war for victory but only to hold a sort of stalemate peace. There is plenty of time for the United Nations and the Armed Services to use it.

2. The true talks are nothing short of disgraceful. They have shattered our prestige in the Far East and throughout the world. Craven appeasers and pro-Communists are not interested in defeating the Chinese Reds.

3. Same answer.

4. There is no excuse for not demanding of Russia long ago that she make treaties of peace that would relieve many nations of tyranny and oppression.

5. Our State Department can not be held responsible for the Communist and permitting demonstrated security risks to get pensions but they will not lift a finger to protest the ruthless slaughter of millions of people and other religious of several denominations.

Such policies have done and will do great violence to American security and to our American way of life.

Hoping you are all well and with best wishes, I am
Sincerely yours,
Philip J. Philbin

DIRECTOR OF CIVIL DEFENSE RESIGNS

Chairman Harrison Lyman of the Board of Selectmen announced the first session of the Town Meeting that the Board had received the resignation of Director of Civil Defense, James W. Blackham. Mr. Blackham's letter of resignation is as follows:

March 12, 1952

Board of Selectmen
Winchester, Massachusetts
Gentlemen:

In September 1950, at the request of your Board, and in conformity with Chapter 639 of the General Laws I accepted appointment as Director of Civil Defense for the Town of Winchester.

The work of organization has now progressed to a point where the major local Civil Defense activities will be those of administration and operation. Under the circumstances and for personal reasons which I have indicated in past conferences with you, I would now like to be relieved of my Civil Defense responsibilities.

Accordingly, I hereby tender my resignation as Director of Civil Defense to take effect at the pleasure of the Board but in any event not later than April 15 next.

Respectfully yours,
James W. Blackham
Director of Civil Defense

An erroneous and misleading statement appeared in the day following town meeting to the effect Mr. Blackham had resigned when the town meeting refused to increase his salary. This was obviously in error as Mr. Blackham's letter of resignation was in the hands of the Board prior to town meeting.

In his comments on the Civil Defense budget, Chairman Lyman stated that Mr. Blackham had done such a good job as director and the organization work had progressed so well that the Board was hopeful of finding a successor who would serve without salary; hence the revision of the budget, which was passed as recommended. The erroneous publicity given the matter was unfortunate.

TOWN MEETING OPENED

Then Mr. Jellison took the floor to tell the meeting that although the amount did not show in the printed warrant the School Committee had raised the salary of the Superintendent of Schools by $300 and asked the meeting to approve this expenditure, explaining that because of the illness of the former Chairman of the School Committee the raise had not gotten into the printed report.

Both the Finance Committee and Selectmen opposed the raise as a matter of principle, and not merit. Both felt that most other town employees, many getting substantially less than the Superintendent of Schools, are getting no salary raises, with the exception of the cost of living increase, and in the opinion of the Finance Committee and Selectmen, the Superintendent of Schools should be no exception. There seemed also some little questioning of the way the matter had been handled by the School Committee, Captain Rush asking if there were any other little advances hidden in the budget that had been passed.

This touched off a debate that was quite brisk. Mr. Dwinell crystallized things by offering an amendment to the motion appropriating to the School Department, providing that the Superintendent of Schools' salary should be no more than $8,500, plus his cost of living increase.

Mr. Speers explained that the School Committee had the power under the Statute to pay the money whatever the meeting should decide, and this opinion was corroborated by Rep. Harrison Chadwick, who had been asked to advise nothing to prevent the School Committee rescinding the raise, or the Superintendent refusing to take it.

Mr. Bartlett of the School Committee asked the meeting to believe there had been no attempt to deceive the town in the School Committee's action, which had been prompted by the confusion occasioned by the illness of the chairman. The budgets were being submitted. He asked the meeting to support the Committee, stating no additional appropriation would be necessary to pay the additional salary to the Superintendent since the School budget was already enough to include the necessary funds.

The meeting voted for Mr. Dwinell's amendment, 141 to 39, whereupon Mr. Cusack challenged the legality of the vote and asked for an opinion from the Town Counsel. Mr. Clarke ruled the amendment was in order, but was of no value, since the statute gave the School Committee the right to pay any salaries they see fit.

Mr. Parker tried to reconsider, Mr. Hatch to adjourn. The meeting would have none of it. Nor did it go along with Mr. Cusack's motion to postpone consideration of the School Department budget until the next meeting with a committee of three appointed by the Moderator to investigate the matter under discussion and make recommendations. This motion was beaten easily on a voice vote and the meeting finally approved the school budget with Mr. Dwinell's amendment to and one of the most unusual discussions in recent town meeting history at least.

Aside from the school item there was little debate. Captain Rush moved that the meeting endorse the take money from the Excess and Deficiency fund to pay a portion of the sum for personal services in the Police Department budget, this proposal being opposed by the Finance Committee. Mr. Schaefer moved the meeting endorse the Police Department budget, this proposal being opposed by the Finance Committee. Mr. Schaefer moved the meeting endorse the Police Department budget, this proposal being opposed by the Finance Committee.

The meeting voted all town employees a cost of living increase of 12 percent of their base pay, or $7 weekly, whichever is the greater, with part time workers to get 12 percent of their base pay.

The meeting also increased the minimum and maximum pay for the superintendent of the Water Department, created a new position of executive clerk in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, with increased pay, created a new position of Plumbing Inspector who will be assistant to the Inspector of Buildings, and increased teachers' maxima $200 in two increases of $100, commencing in September, 1952. In speaking on the Finance Committee's approval of these salaries, Mr. Schaefer mentioned the meeting that $1,346,000 of the town's entire budget now goes for salaries.

Mr. Lyman explained a decrease in the Civil Defense budget, stating that the director, former Selectman James W. Blackham, has resigned for personal reasons, and because of the excellence of the preliminary work he has done in the Civil Defense Office, the Selectmen expect to be able to get a director to carry on for him without stipend.

At the beginning of the meeting, upon the motion of Mr. Parker, tribute was paid to three prominent citizens, deceased since last town meeting, Edmund C. Sanderson, Frederick C. Alexander and Patrick H. Craughwell. He read a brief eulogy of Mr. Craughwell that lauded his love of his native town and faithfulness to his duty as a town employee and citizen. The meeting stood for a moment of silence in memory of the three.

The high school P. V. Vadsworth presided. One hundred eighty-eight town meeting members were present. The meeting adjourned at 11:08 p. m.

CHADWICK CONGRATULATES WEST POINT

On March 16th the United States Military Academy at West Point marked its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of service to the nation. After calling attention to the notable part that Massachusetts has played in the history of this great academy and other appropriate remarks, Rep. Chadwick offered the following resolutions in the House of Representatives on Beacon Hill:

Whereas, The sesquicentennial anniversary of the establishment of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, occurs on March 16, 1952; and

Whereas, The contributions of said military academy have redounded to the glory of our beloved nation both in times of war and peace; and

Whereas, It is not only fitting and proper that we should so honor this unique institution, but a privilege which a grateful Commonwealth assumes in humble recognition of the integral part its graduates have taken and are taking in the continuing struggle for maintaining free governments in a free world; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives in the General Court of Massachusetts extends its congratulations to the United States Military Academy at West Point on the sesquicentennial anniversary of its establishment; and be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be placed on record and a copy thereof be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to Major General Frederick A. Irving, Superintendent of the Academy.

The resolutions were considered forthwith and were adopted, incorporated the dictum of Justice

FAMOUS BELLS OF SHANDON ARE TEMPORARILY SILENT

The famous Bells of Shandon, whose sweet tones can be heard throughout the Irish city of Cork, have been silenced for the first time since they were installed in St. Ann's church in 1752. The silence is only temporary, however, the National Geographic Society reports. As soon as repairs are made on the belfry, the pealing that inspired the character song of Cork city will be heard again.

The song was written by Francis Mahoney under the pen name of "Father Prout." It reflects the homesickness of an Irishman far from his native city. Mahoney sings:

"On this I ponder, where'er I wander,
"And thus grow fonder, sweet
"With thy bells of Shandon,
"That sound so grand on
"The pleasant waters of the river Lee."

St. Ann's of Shandon itself is something of a curiosity with its parti-colored steeple. Two sides are of white limestone and two of red. The local quarry owners who furnished the stone could not agree, some wanting the steeple red and other wanting it white, so they compromised.

Cork was founded in the seventh century by St. Finbarr, who became the first bishop of the town that was once described as "a city of bridges, and pleasant conversation and disaffection to our Lord the King." That was written, of course, before Ireland won her complete independence from England.

There are about 75,000 persons living in Cork and its suburbs. The river Lee winds just below Cork into a fine harbor, and a few miles downstream is Cobh, Irish spot of transatlantic liners.

Named for a Marsh
Cork's name derives from corcaigh, Gaelic for "marsh" and is the center of the city is an island in the Lee. It is a city of many churches, including two dedicated to the patron saint, St. Finbarr's cathedral is Church of Ireland, or Episcopal, and St. Finbarr's church is Roman Catholic.

The church of Christ the King was designed by Barry Byrne of Chicago, and is pure 20th century style. It is of concrete and has no windows, light being admitted through slits concealed in the roof and walls.

Cork is also a city of industry. One of the largest Ford plants outside the United States is at Cork, which is appropriate because Henry Ford's ancestors came from the area.

One of Cork's most famous sons was Father Matthew, leader of the Irish temperance movement. He is honored by a statue, and a water-side street is named Father Matthew Quay.

APPROACH OF SPRING STIRS HOMING INSTINCT IN KOREA

Each time a warm wind brings a soft, springlike day to interrupt the Korean winter, millions of refugees stir restlessly in their makeshift tent cities and the overcrowded, often ruined — homes of relatives.

Figures vary as to the number of refugees and homeless in South Korea, says the National Geographic Society. One recent estimate places the number at four million, including 433,000 from North Korea and 100,000 homeless children.

Other surveys indicate a total of displaced persons as high as eight million, including a million and a half who fled from Communist territory.

The prolonged truce talks, plus hints of spring, give hope to many of the homeless that they may turn to their own acres to start anew in war's wake. The fierce love of the land that caused Korean farmers to brave machine-gun fire to tend their fields, and to follow tanks through rice paddies to repair damage, is only emphasized by the miserable refugee life.

Camps Throughout South Korea
The comparative quiet of the ground war during the truce talks has enabled the South Korean government and United Nations relief agencies to stabilize the refugee population in part. When possible, the homeless have been moved from crowded and dangerous centers near the war zone to camps scattered throughout the southern part of the peninsula and on the numerous islands off the coast.

In addition, the Korean government has made every effort to place the homeless with relatives, if there are relatives living in habitable structures in the ruined land. The refugees in private homes as well as those in camps are offered what relief is available.

Although the supply is still far from adequate, according to the Korean government, millions of blankets and pieces of clothing have been distributed, and every effort is made to see that each refugee receives his daily rice.

Some Work on Rehabilitation
Some of the refugees are put to rehabilitation work, rebuilding roads and railroads, constructing shelters and restoring industry. But the very situation that allows this work to go on turns the thoughts of the displaced toward home and the crops that might be raised.

A number of refugees have been allowed to return to their own war-torn lands in the southern part of the country but military permission is needed to travel north of the area of Taejon.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" to be heard at Christian Science services this Sunday will emphasize that the veil of materialism is not created by God and must be destroyed by spiritual understanding. The following messages will be included in the Lesson-Sermon:

"And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth; for the Lord hath spoken it." Isaiah 25:7-8.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The nature of Christianity is peaceful and blessed, but in order to enter into the kingdom, the anchor of hope must be cast beyond the veil of matter into the Shekinah into which Jesus has passed before us; and this advance beyond matter must come through the joys and triumphs of the right-affections." (p. 40)

"Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth." "Is the Golden Text from Colossians 3:2."

Subject for the Morning Service — "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

ADJOURNED TOWN MEETING

The meeting accepted the Selectmen's layouts of York road, Sussex road, Chardon road, Priscilla Lane, Tufts road, North Gateway and Salisbury street, appropriating $79,300 for the necessary work, with $48,000 of that amount being transferred from Excess and Deficiency.

The meeting refused under Article 13 to transfer from the Park Board to the Selectmen land on the easterly side of Shore road along the water to be used for a parking space, residents who use Shore road as a route to the center voicing objection. Action was indefinitely postponed on the proposal to have the Selectmen lease from the Boston and Maine Railroad land on the westerly side of Shore road for use as a parking space.

Under Article 15 the meeting supported the Selectmen in their desire to install traffic lights at the junction of Washington and Forest streets, appropriating to this end $3,100. Mr. Parker spoke in support of the Selectmen with Mr. Schaefer voicing the Finance Committee's opposition.

Some little debate occurred under Article 16 and it was seen if the Town would authorize the Selectmen to sell for any proper purpose a tract of undeveloped land consisting of 9.08 acres located roughly between Irving street and Nathaniel road at the rear of Washington street.

Mr. Lyman explained that the town no longer needs the land for gravel or storage sheds and the Selectmen felt it should be disposed of so that revenue from it can return to the town.

Mr. Latorella felt that neither hasty nor indiscriminate disposal of the land should be made and offered an amendment providing that a committee of five be appointed by the Moderator to consider the matter and report with recommendations to the town meeting.

ADJOURNED TOWN MEETING

The meeting accepted the Selectmen's layouts of York road, Sussex road, Chardon road, Priscilla Lane, Tufts road, North Gateway and Salisbury street, appropriating $79,300 for the necessary work, with $48,000 of that amount being transferred from Excess and Deficiency.

The meeting refused under Article 13 to transfer from the Park Board to the Selectmen land on the easterly side of Shore road along the water to be used for a parking space, residents who use Shore road as a route to the center voicing objection. Action was indefinitely postponed on the proposal to have the Selectmen lease from the Boston and Maine Railroad land on the westerly side of Shore road for use as a parking space.

Under Article 15 the meeting supported the Selectmen in their desire to install traffic lights at the junction of Washington and Forest streets, appropriating to this end $3,100. Mr. Parker spoke in support of the Selectmen with Mr. Schaefer voicing the Finance Committee's opposition.

Some little debate occurred under Article 16 and it was seen if the Town would authorize the Selectmen to sell for any proper purpose a tract of undeveloped land consisting of 9.08 acres located roughly between Irving street and Nathaniel road at the rear of Washington street.

Mr. Lyman explained that the town no longer needs the land for gravel or storage sheds and the Selectmen felt it should be disposed of so that revenue from it can return to the town.

GARDEN GLEANINGS

Well they did it, those wonderful whiz-kids of ours. They just went out there in spite of virus bugs, college board exams and the law of averages to win all three of their games in the Eastern Massachusetts Interscholastic Basketball Tournament and bring back the Class B Championship to Winchester. And all this after winning 21 straight games including a win over Portsmouth High, the Class A Champions of the State of New Hampshire. No wonder there was heap-big rejoicing in the Indians' wigwam on the heights above the Aberjona. No wonder you could spot Winchester rooters anywhere you saw them last Sunday. They were just bustin' out all over with pride at the achievement of "their boys" and their popular and highly skilled coach, Ted Bartlett. No team in the tournament went into action under greater handicap than Winchester's Indians. Four of their first team players were ill with virus during much of the week before the opening game of the tournament, with Hawkins, Long, Forester and Murphy getting their first practice of that week on Saturday morning when they did a bit of very light work in the gym. These boys had no real work, including scrimmages for a week prior to the tournament, and any one who has encountered the virus bug knows just how weak and dish-raggy the little devil leaves you after a surprise dropping in.

How Hawkins, Long, Murphy and Forester played through those three gruelling tournament games no one who has had the virus can figure, but stick it out they did, getting better with each start and closing their campaign with a brilliant performance during the second half of the pay-off game with South Boston last Saturday. The whole team turned in a clutch performance in that one that was great.

The whole town was in the Garden, or so it seemed when the Whiz-kids came on the court. A barrage of paper from the high school kids in the balcony blotted out completely the vision of those seated in the rear section of the stadium and practically buried Jim Cullen, who was seated with "Dukes" Farrell and Joe Tansey in vulnerable seats in the first section. The Winchester Band blared, the kids shrieked, the more emotional adults roared or bellowed and everyone clapped and stamped until you got all watery-eyed and choked in the throat. It was a great tribute to the best basketball team Winchester High has ever had. In view of their performance in the Garden there can be no doubt of that!

It wasn't all jam and cakes for the Winchester followers. There wasn't a blamed game in which you could relax. The Hayward cigar had to do a lot of waggling to bring home the bacon and those near enough to hear in the ever-present pandemonium caught Ray's usual muttered imprecation of times repeated.

Pete Provizano, on the other hand, was more philosophical, possibly from long association with basketball and its probabilities. He kept telling us that the South Boston game was in the satchel and to relax, but we just couldn't believe him until the final gun went off. Pete, himself, gave the boys a lot of free advice earlier in the game when things weren't so rosy, and it's too bad they couldn't hear him. Quite a select delegation that was, behind the boxes across the hall! Headed by R. Thomas Preston and including "Old Mo" Hultgren, Dick Hakanson, Larry, "Cousin Mike" and Tony Penta, and "Polack" McCormack, there was a lot of yelling included in that group.

Your reporter went in with his much better half and "Dottie" and George Field. Of us all only George, that one-time Yale-oarsman, was able to preserve some vestige of calmness. George has come a long way since he saw his first game a year ago, the disastrous Milton game in the Garden. Then he was primarily concerned with defenses. Now association with such experts as "Chuck" Murphy and Frank Hawkins has gotten George out of the primer class so that he no longer thinks a "hack-for-two" is a small Gay-Nineties vehicle and that "traveling" is something you do on the road with a sun-tan two suiter.

It's offense that is leaving George these days, and he was especially impressed with the "weave" used by all of Winchester's Garden opponents, with generally negligible results. He conferred several times during the Weymouth and South Boston games with Wendell Mansfield, former Winchester High A. D. now head coach at Pomfret School, who with his wife, Priscilla, changed to sit in adjacent seats, and as a result he had his program filled with cabalistic dots and circles in which he seemed to take the greatest comfort. Since all the games came out as George and Wendell doped them we can't help feeling there is something in this system.

Right abreast of us were "Marge" Bartlett, sweating it out for hubby, "Ted", and Ella Knowlton, Hennie Knowlton's "Em Cec". From casual glances at their faces during the games it must be tough to be a coach's wife.

"Bart" looked like a bloke who was suffering throughout the tournament, but "Hennie" was, to borrow a phrase from "Dot" Field, as "calm as a glass of milk". There was never any doubt of the outcome in the Knowlton scheme of things! Such is faith!

The Ex-Mayor of Winchester, Nick Fitzgerald, was on hand for the games with his family, and we glimpsed Dr. Dick Clark and his wife fighting their way out of the garden after one of the games. Everywhere you looked you saw someone from Winchester, the Foresters, the Willings, the Brad Bentleys, "Chuck" and Martina Murphy, and "Little" Martina, "Chuck" looking like the famous statue of the "Diving Gaul" during most of that Weymouth game! There were others, Mrs. Ella Stacy, pulling for "her boys" to the end; Principal Wade Grindle and the "big boss", Superintendent Forbes Norris, Jawn Davidson Stevens, "Art" Butters, worried but game; Larry Cooper, and once through the haze on the floor, we saw for a moment Faculty Manager George Curtis ducking under Fred Felmet's Euphonium.

Park Commissioner Jim Con and Myra were holding their breaths in one place; Lizzie Livingstone was hoping in another. The Rod Thomsons were all smiles Monday because "Stuie" got to play. "Dude" and Mrs. Flaherty were rooting their heads off down front!

There were lots more, the Symmes, Mabelle Long, playing hookey from a sick bed; School Committee, woman Sally Woodward, "Lew" and Ethel Warys, plotter in one of the boxes; Giuseppe Dilorio, father of the team captain and going slow and easy after a major operation! Stay home? Nossie! He had to see his bambino's team win!

That was it. Winchester was in the Garden to win. There were plenty of anxious moments! Eddie Cullen claimed he never lost heart against either Weymouth or South Boston, but there were plenty of local physiogns around the garden that were a bit on the haggard side during the early moments of both games. And even the Cullen face lost some of its placidity when Winchester was 10 points down against Weymouth in the final quarter.

When the final gun popped, and Winchester was in, there was a scene beggarly description. Paper stormed from the galleries. The game hall went hurtling aloft to the rafters. Players hugged and kissed each other and the cheerleaders were soon in on the act too, swarming all over their heroes. The band thumped and tootled, the Winchester rooters screamed themselves hoarse, and then all stood and clapped and roared in well-deserved tribute as the members of the team hoisted their great coach to their shoulders and carried him off the floor under the broadest Knowlton grin we have seen since the close of the unbeaten football season last fall. Only "Marge" Bartlett viewed this spontaneous demonstration with tempered enthusiasm, anxious no doubt for her husband's bodily safety as he bumped along on his boys' shoulders, affectionately ruffling up the hair of all his players foul-shot.

Referee Tony Gentile gave "Bart" the championship game-ball as he was carried off the floor. The refereeing of the South Boston game was the best Winchester encountered in the tourney.

We still can't understand the refereeing system, the thing that mystifies us most being why it is that when Winchester transgresses the rules it is always two free shots for the opposition, yet when the same thing is done by the other side, the punishment is generally only a jump-ball, or at best a single foul-shot.

Weren't you all proud of that fine band of ours, and their performance of the "Star Spangled Banner" Friday night? You won't hear a better performance than that of Freddie Felmet gets from his scarlet-coated musicians.

If you had to pick one guy that kept the boys together through the tourney, you'd have to give the nod to that great little floor man, Johnny Farrell. And in this connection, add a big duke to Trainer Lou Goddu. If Lou hadn't had the interest and skill to take a bad "charley-horse" out of Farrell's leg in two long sessions Saturday, the little guy couldn't have played!

FARRELL AND HAWKINS MAKE "ALL" TEAM

John Farrell, guard, and big "Doug" Hawkins, center, were chosen for their respective positions on the Class B All Eastern Massachusetts Tournament Honorary Team as the result of their play during the Tech Tournament last week.

Farrell, Winchester's most consistent player throughout the tourney, was the Indians' playmaker and the boy who steadied the team when the going was roughest. He ranks with Winchester's best.

Hawkins meant much to Winchester in the championship game with South Boston and because of his height was always valuable under both baskets as well on jump balls and pass interception. He also was Winchester's high scorer for the tournament with 42 points, Farrell being the runner-up with 34. "Doug" too belongs with Winchester's elect.

WON BELMONT HILL LETTERS

Three Winchester boys were among the recipients of winter sports letters at Belmont Hill School last week. "Sandy" Aitken of Yale street won a hockey letter, and John Goldthwait of Swan road and Dick Haskell of Lakeview terrace were awarded basketball letters.

Aitken was the spare goalie on the Belmont team which won 15 games and lost only one this year. His greatest performance came in the first game of the Lawrenceville Invitation Tournament at Princeton University, when he shut-out Exeter, 3-0. Belmont Hill went on to win the tournament by defeating Andover and Noble and Greenough. During the regular season, the team won the Private School League for the second successive year.

Goldthwait and Haskell were members of the Belmont Hill team which finished second in the Private School League, winning 15 games and losing three. Goldthwait played first string forward, while Haskell was a spare guard.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Hawkins at Good Government Day Exercises

Doug Hawkins was representing Winchester High School at the annual Good Government Exercises at the State House last Friday. He was the guest of Mr. Harrison Chadwick, Winchester's Representative in the House of Representatives.

Science Club Assembly "Fire in Miniature" was the subject of the assembly which was presented under the sponsorship of the Science Club last Friday. "Chief" Williams, of the Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Company, presented the program and Fire Chief James Callahan was present.

College Board Exams Saturday Forty-five students took one or more college board examinations last Saturday.

BRACKETT AT FORT HOOD

Cpl. Richard F. Brackett, son of Mrs. Adele F. Brackett, 153 Cambridge street, has arrived at Fort Hood, Texas, to take part in Exercise Long Horn.

The maneuver is scheduled to run from March 25 to April 11 in an 1,800 sq. mi. area west of Fort Hood.

Corporal Brackett is a buyer in the procurement section of Headquarters Company, 321st Signal Base Depot, a California reserve unit on active duty since shortly after the outbreak of the Korean war.

Before entering the Army in January 1951, he attended Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, and was employed by the A. C. Lawrence Leather Co. in Peabody, Mass.

WINCHESTER CLASS B CHAMPS

The Indians started to hit more accurately than Southie in the second period, however, with seven baskets in 12 shots. Doug Hawkins paced this scoring spurt with four pretty baskets as the Sachems whittled away systematically and coolly at the South Boston lead. The locals left the floor trailing 27-23 at the half but the tip-off that Winchester would soon begin to move was that there was no sign of panic or jitters which were noticeable in earlier games. It was a studied, confident outlay.

A set shot by Murphy and two successful free throws by Dilorio tied the score at 2-08 of the third period and the Indians were back in the game. Captain John Dilorio came through with seven points and Charlie Murphy with six points in this quarter as the lead changed hands four times in a great exhibition of fast basketball. Charlie Murphy's jump shot just before the bell gave the Red and Black a 39-38 lead at the three-quarter mark.

A driving-in layup by Farrell on the tap to begin the final quarter and a rebound by Symmes a few seconds later opened up a 43-38 lead for the Sachems. Three free throws by Southie cut it to 43-41 before Murphy sank a one-handed push to make it 45-41. South Boston scored to close it to 45-43 but Winchester would not be denied as they roared back to score six straight points on baskets by Hawkins and Murphy and free throws by Murphy and Farrell. This gave the Indians a comfortable 51-43 lead and they simply matched Southie from there to the final gun on baskets by Hawkins, Dilorio, and Symmes.

Great as South Boston had been during this Tournament, Winchester was better last Saturday night. The Indians outscored Southie 34-21 over the last half and 18-10 in the crucial final quarter when the chips were down and the pressure was on. There were Winchester heroes galore in this climatic victory as every man did his part in bringing this team its fourth championship in two seasons of play.

All year the Winchester scoring has been well distributed and in this game four of the starters hit for double figures as Hawkins had 14, Murphy 14, Dilorio 12, and Symmes 10. Charlie Murphy and Captain John Dilorio were the key men in the Winchester second half drive as Murphy netted eleven vital points and Dilorio nine over this pressure-filled stretch. The tremendous spirit of this team that has carried it through many a tough game was well illustrated by the speed with which they hoisted Coach Ted Bartlett on their shoulders to carry him triumphant-ly off the Garden floor.

SKI CLUB DONATES TOBOGGAN

The Chamois Ski Club of Winchester has donated a toboggan (fully equipped for First Aid) to Henry "Swampy" Parris' Mt. Washington Ski Patrol. Efforts are being made to raise enough money to erect a new shelter at Tucker's Ravine to replace the one which burned to the ground last year. The "Mt. Washington Shelter Fund" is rising but is still a long way from the necessary amount to begin building. More toboggans are also needed for Mt. Washington so if you have one in the cellar or attic you no longer need just call Harry Bean, Winchester 6-0167 and he would be happy to take it away to help make more room for the golf clubs and fishing rods.

While you are digging in the dust for the toboggan, if you come across any old ski equipment, call Bob Lowe, Winchester 6-0726, and let him put it to work in Winchester's own Ski Equipment Pool to help our Juniors get started in this healthful sport.

ASSIGNED TO O. C. S.

Sgt. Robert W. Plunkett, USA, son of Mrs. J. William Plunkett of 5 Bacon street, has been assigned to the Ordnance Officer Candidate School at Aberdeen, Md., and as a result of this assignment was promoted to the rank of sergeant. A graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1947, and of Boston University, class of 1951, Sgt. Plunkett was previously assigned to B Battery of the 34th Field Artillery. He attended the leadership training course conducted by the 26th Field Artillery Battalion of the 9th Infantry Division Artillery.

Mrs. George Barbaro (Andree Maitre) of 7 Euclid avenue is rejoining the teaching staff of the Cambridge Center for Adult Education for the coming spring term, teaching the popular French courses meeting Tuesdays and Thursdays.

WINCHESTER COMMITTEE SET FOR CANCER DRIVE

The cancer fund drive will be conducted again this year through out the country during the month of April. The local committee which last year so successfully put Winchester well over the top for its quota of funds is largely the same. These funds are sorely needed to continue research and other activities which already have made major contributions to find the cures for this dreaded disease.

The Winchester committee is composed of the following: W. H. Buracker (Chairman), Charles W. Butler (Treasurer), Mrs. Simon D. Barkside, Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Richard A. Harlow, Mrs. Frederick M. Ives, Jr., Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood, Dr. Angelo A. Nuietta, Dr. George A. Marks, Mrs. Dunbar L. Shanklin, Dr. Richard W. Sheehy, Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, Mrs. J. Joseph Tansey, R. Gilman Wallace.

The local campaign will be conducted principally by letter, with a pledge card in each, and a turn envelope addressed to Charles W. Butler, Winchester Trust Company, who will receive local contributions. The committee, however, will follow through on contributions and will also canvass local institutions, societies, businesses, and place coin boxes.

The committee wishes to stress this year, as in the past, the need for a large number of contributions, whether small or large. It is its earnest hope that those who feel able to give only a small amount will not hesitate to contribute it because it seems small. After two thousand years, the widow's mite is still money in the bank.

IMMAC'S START SEASON EARLY

On Sunday, March 16th, the Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps, with the Girls' Drill Team, journeyed to Waltham as the guests of the Grover-Cronin Co., owners of Waltham's largest retail store. Grover-Cronin Co. sponsored an Easter Festival Parade through the business section of Waltham. The streets were jammed with thousands of viewers even though the weather was sharp and cold. The local units received a tremendous ovation, marching and playing in splendid manner in their colorful uniforms. Many beautiful floats, bands and corps were in line at this event in the Watch City.

On Monday, March 17, the group travelled to South Boston to participate in the St. Patrick's Day Parade held annually in "Southie." The Corps and Drill Team have always been a big hit in this parade and were given a hand as they marched with their usual precision. Miss Lorraine DiZio, the Color Guard Captain, received a beautiful bouquet from the Chief Marshal as the corps passed the reviewing stand. Rev. Father Driscoll marched in both Waltham and "Southie" with the corps and received a great hand as he swung along in the same cadence as the corps members.

The flu has hit some of the members of this group, and we hope they will all be back, ready to go for the next parade. Assistant Drum Major William Kane covered Drum in a splendid manner when "Duggee" was unable to participate. Also missing were Co-Captains Gerry Garcia and Mary Welch. Drillmaster James Pimette covered in for the drill captains in their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Symmes
Mr. and Mrs. Kingman Cuss will have as their guests for dinner:

MRS. KAMALA ASIRVATHAM
SPEAKER AT WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Carle C. Zimmerman, president of the Women's Association of the First Congregational Church, will preside at their meeting Tuesday, March 25th, at 2 p.m., in the Parish Hall. Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald will be in charge of the worship service.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Kamala Asirvatham of Madras, India, who has chosen as her subject, "India Today." Mrs. Asirvatham is an educator, author, social worker and home maker, symbolizing the emancipated woman of the new India. She is an authority on many aspects of the ancient culture of her native land, particularly in the field of art and interpretive dancing.

Born in South India, Mrs. Asirvatham received her education in her homeland and at Pennsylvania College for Women, Pittsburgh, Pa. She has taught high school in Madras and was on the faculty of the Women's Christian College at Madras. Later she served as principal of Vidodaya, a school for girls in which Indian interpretive dancing and art were taught. She organized a unique club in Lucknow for underprivileged children which was so successful that it was the subject of an article in an American magazine.

Mrs. Harold M. Jones of the Home Church Guild will be in charge of the tea hour at the close of the meeting. The pourers will be Mrs. Howard J. Chidley and Mrs. John B. Willis.

MARYCLIFF ACADEMY

On Saturday, March 22, and on Sunday, March 23, Marycliff Academy, Winchester, will hold its fifth annual Science Fair in the school auditorium. The fair will be opened to the public from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. on both days.

The exhibits on display have been prepared by students from the senior, junior and freshman classes. Some projects illustrate scientific principles, while others are problems in the field of research.

On Saturday afternoon three judges, Sister Eamon, S.S.J., of Cathedral High, Boston, Mr. John Brennan of Somerville High, and Mr. Raymond Scott of Rindge Tech, Cambridge, will choose the three best projects to be sent to the Parochial School Fair and the Massachusetts State Fair.

Reverend Mother Cloonan will award all exhibits a first, second or third prize on Sunday, the 23rd, at 3:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Pfe. Dominic L. Cirignano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Cirignano of 361 Washington street, is training as an Air Force technician in the USAF Technical School at Warren Air Force Base, Wyoming, located on the site of a historic former cavalry post outside Cheyenne.

Highlights of a Busy Year...

A message to our customers presented in the public interest

THIS COMPANY'S Annual Report for the year 1951 has been submitted in pamphlet form to our 27,532 stockholders and 3,479 employees, and in advertisements such as this to 440,000 customers. The use of electricity is increasing, and we are expanding our facilities in anticipation of continuing growth.

Expenditures continue to increase, yet electricity remains virtually the only necessity of life that has not followed the inflationary trend. Our average residential customer is buying kilowatt-hours at prices lower than before World War II.

BOSTON EDISON COMPANY

THOMAS G. DIGNAN, President

Each dollar you paid us in 1951 was disbursed as follows:

Fuel and Purchased Energy . . . 24.1¢

This has been our largest item of expense since 1945, and in 1951 meant the expenditure of nearly $18,000,000. The sum would have been substantially higher but for the constantly improving efficiency of our new generating units.

Taxes . . . . . 23.1¢

Our tax bills in 1951 aggregated nearly $17,200,000. This sum not only represents 23.1¢ out of each revenue dollar, but is 73 per cent of total revenues received from our 383,000 residential customers.

Operating Payrolls and Benefits 17.9¢

Our Company has 3,479 employees who receive good wages and are the beneficiaries of a generous welfare program. Our expenditures for and in behalf of employees in 1951 were more than $15,505,000.

Depreciation . . . . . 8.9¢

As the Company's plant investment increases, a larger sum must be set aside each year to the reserve for depreciation of properties.

In 1951 the appropriation for this purpose was $6,637,000.

Other Operating Expenses . . . 12.2¢

Other operating expenses, including maintenance, amounted to more than $9,000,000 in 1951.

Interest, etc. . . . . 3.3¢

On the Company's funded debt of $83,528,000, interest charges in 1951 were $2,355,110. Other deductions, principally interest, were $140,100.

Dividends . . . . . 9.3¢

The Company has outstanding 2,468,656 shares of Capital Stock, held by 27,532 stockholders. Dividends were paid in 1951 at the rate of $2.80 a share, amounting to $6,912,257.

Surplus . . . . . 1.2¢

After all these expenditures there remained the sum of $879,000 to be added to the undistributed earnings retained for use in the business.

3 steps TO GO 9 MILES

The last time you picked up your telephone, where did you call? The drugstore? Office? Grocer? Garage? Hairdresser? A friend?

Your call, to any one of these local places, cost you only a few cents, yet it saved you time, steps, or a possible trip in the car.

Your telephone is one of the outstanding conveniences of our modern way of life. Today, it's a bigger value than ever.

As in all businesses, rising costs have meant higher rates, yet today, with the increases in costs of so many things greater than telephone rate increases, the average telephone bill actually takes a smaller part of the family budget than it did 10 years ago.

Some people who have applied for telephone service are still without it because we lack necessary equipment. To correct this situation is one of our major projects. Some who do have service, however, are inclined to forget or overlook the telephone's real worth. It is only to such users that reference is made here to the value of telephone service.

Kimball is Chairman of the Committee.

The Sports Night to be held on March 26th is described in another column.

The 210 Club will meet at 753 Main street on Monday, March 24th. An open house is held in connection with the club.

The next regular meeting of the council will be on April 7th.

NEW ASTEROID DISCOVERED CROSSING EARTH'S COURSE

Astronomers call them asteroids, meaning "little stars." They are flying mountains whirling through the solar system — juggernauts of stone and metal weaving among the planets.

Only rarely does one come near the earth. Recently, one did.

The seventh asteroid known to cut across the earth's orbit was discovered on August 31, 1951, on photographic plates of Palomar Observatory's "Big Schmidt" sky survey telescope, the National Geographic Society reports.

The new minor planet, tentatively named 1951RA, measures only two to three miles across. At time of discovery it was about 19,000,000 miles from earth, going away. It had been about 1,000,000 miles closer a few days before.

Following its orbit through space, the asteroid is now at its greatest distance from the sun and beginning to swing back, although its distance from earth will continue to increase until later this year.

"1951RA probably will never approach the earth more closely than 3,500,000 miles," Dr. Leland R. Curtis, director of the University of California at Berkeley calculated for astronomers of the National Geographic Society-California Institute of Technology Sky Survey, now in its third year at Palomar Observatory.

"Such a close approach is not expected for many years, and cannot even be predicted at present," he said.

The asteroid's next return to the point on its orbit nearest the sun — the "perihelion" point — will take place in November. As it shoots across the earth's orbit, it will not come closer than about 100,000,000 miles. Early in 1954 it may approach to "several tens of millions of miles."

"When an asteroid's orbit crosses that of the earth, it raises the question of whether a collision might be possible," Dr. Albert G. Wilson, astronomer in charge of the Sky Survey writes in the National Geographic Magazine.

"The likelihood is very small. If a collision did take place, the destructive effect would greatly exceed that of a hydrogen bomb."

More than 1,600 different asteroids have now been observed and recorded. Astronomers estimate there may be more than 30,000 in the solar system. The first to be discovered — on the night of January 1, 1801 — was Ceres. With a diameter of about 480 miles, it is still the largest known.

CHAIRMAN OF CONCERT COMMITTEE

Working on musical projects is a labor of love for Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood of 7 Swan road, prominent patron of music. Chosen as chairman of the Concert Committee, Mrs. Kirkwood has been hard at work on plans for the Spring Festival of three concerts which will be given for the second year by the Longy School of Music in Cambridge.

Translating last year's success into tradition, the Festival will again be given at Sanders Theatre in Cambridge and will again present rarely heard music of great composers in an authentic style and with the understanding and distinction which marks the performance of the Longy School Faculty, who are contributing their talent.

The first concert, which will be held Monday evening, March 24, at 8:30 p.m., will present two of the brilliant but little known works of Louis and Francois Couperin, 17th century French composers, as well as the great Schubert Octet in F Major. Among the celebrated artists who will play on this first program are: Mr. Melville Smith, Director of Longy; three members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Eugene Lehner, Henry Freeman and Mr. Harold Meek; three members of the Stradivarius Quartet, Mr. Wolf Wolfson, Mr. Harry Kobiak and Mr. George Finckel, and Miss Dorothy Bates, Mrs. Florence Freeman, Mr. Walter Knight, Mr. Theodore Schultz and Robert Freeman.

KNIGHTS TO FETE HOOP TEAM

Winchester Council, 210, Knights of Columbus, will have as guests of honor at its annual Fathers' and Sons' Sports Night in Waterfield Hall Wednesday evening, March 26, the members of the Winchester High School's unbeaten State Class B Championship Basketball Team, their coach Ted Bartlett, and the school's athletic director, Henry Knowlton.

Frank Nowell, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, announced this week that plans are progressing rapidly for one of the best affairs of its kind the Council has yet sponsored.

"General" Al McGellan of Boston College Basketball Team has accepted an invitation to be present, together with Winchester's newly elected Selectman, Joe Tansey, former Norwich football star and present director of athletics and coach at Wentworth Institute. Tony Gentile of Winchester, one of the outstanding basketball officials in the East, will also be present, and it is expected that Coach "Red" Auerbach of the Boston Celtics with some of his players will also attend.

This Sports Night is open to all, and the Council sincerely hopes that fathers of all boys on the basketball team at high school will feel free to attend to see their boys honored by the Council. The program will commence at 8 o'clock.

HOUSE FIRE THURSDAY

The alarm from Box 35 at 11:25 Thursday forenoon was for a fire at the home of George P. Govostes of 48 Swanton street.

The fire originated in a bedroom of the house and did considerable damage to this room and its furnishings as well as to the hall of the home and the front porch.

Firemen believe the fire may have been caused by careless smoking. It was discovered by Mrs. Govostes' father, Mr. John J. O'Donnell, when he returned home from a neighbor's house. He fell in the hall while attempting to remove a burning mattress from a bed, but was discovered by his daughter in time to prevent serious consequences, and was reported as uninjured.

LADIES BOWLING

The Winchester Country Club Ladies' Bowling Championship entered its second week at Strike Lane last Tuesday with forty women participating.

This is an over average tournament, which means that each bowler rolls against her own average that has been established during the current season.

A beautiful trophy offered by Strike Lanes will be presented to the bowler with the most accumulated pins over her average at the end of the five week tournament period.

Highlights of the recent match were scores turned in by Mrs. Donnell, who had quite a day with 110-99-99 for 308 and 44 pins over her average. Mrs. Howard rolled 92-86-112 for a total of 290 and also bowled 44 pins over her average.

Mrs. Ferguson proved that the Florida sun does no harm to a bowler's arm by rolling 55 pins over her average with 283.

On Tuesday, April 15, the tour will begin with a view of Boston from the John Hancock Building, followed by a visit to the trial courts in session in the new Court House. After a stop at King's Chapel, the party will have lunch at Durgin Park. The afternoon will be spent at the Boston Navy Yard.

The Science Museum and Planetarium will occupy the morning of Wednesday, April 16. After lunch at Ye Old Oyster House, the Senior Forum will be conducted through the State House and witness a session of the State Senate. The day will be concluded with a visit to the beautiful Boston University Chapel.

TOWN MEETING DISSOLVED

One hundred and forty-six precinct members handed in attendance cards at the final session of the Limited Town Meeting Monday evening, but there were no where near that many left when the tired delegates finally completed the warrant and were dissolved by Moderator Wadsworth with the clock on the south balcony speeding toward the 11:30 mark. Precinct members kept slipping away as the discussion of the Zoning By-Law changes dragged along so that there could not have been many more than a quorum present when the meeting ended. As a matter of fact at one time while the Moderator was reading the proposed By-Law changes in the warrant it was necessary to call a halt and get enough precinct members back into the hall to constitute a quorum. Mr. Hewis pointing out that the meeting could not legally proceed without one.

At the opening of the meeting Captain Rush offered a resolution commending the Winchester High School football and basketball teams for their undefeated seasons and extending to them, their coaches and their school the congratulations of the town. This resolution was unanimously accepted.

The previous meeting had adjourned during the consideration of Article 37 of the warrant, under which the Selectmen asked the town to accept the Legislative Act granting to the Board of Selectmen, acting as a Board of Survey, broad powers in accepting or rejecting plans for new subdivisions in the town.

Mr. Lyman explained that the Selectmen felt they should have more authority than is now granted them under the by-laws to guard against improper development of land in Winchester, stating that aside from the right to fix grades and street layouts they have no power.

Few went along with this thinking, and after Mr. Clarke had assured the meeting that the Selectmen were very broad and that once the enabling act is accepted it is here to stay, the meeting accepted a motion offered by Mr. Foley that the subject matter of the article be referred to a committee of five, appointed by the Moderator, to study the proposals of the Legislative Act and report at the next town meeting. Previous to passing this motion, the meeting accepted an amendment to Mr. Foley's motion, offered by Mr. Hewis, that the next town meeting be the next "annual town meeting".

This brought the meeting to the consideration of the proposed changes in the town's Zoning By-Laws. Mr. Hatch presented the Planning Board's report which was received, and then called upon Mr. Eaton of the Zoning By-Law Revision Committee which had especially studied the Nursery School question in Winchester to report for his committee.

Mr. Eaton gave a detailed report of the committee's activities, stating that as a result of their deliberations the committee had arrived at the decision that nursery schools do serve a sufficient number of town children to warrant their existence in Winchester and that in accordance with procedure in many comparable cities and towns provisions should be made to make it possible for them to function under reasonable restrictions.

Mr. Hatch then went through the entire section of the Warrant devoted to the proposed Zoning By-Law Changes, making certain alterations in the wording, in some instances in accordance with opinions expressed at a hearing held by the Planning Board previous to the opening of the town meeting.

A detailed explanation of what the meeting passed in connection with the proposed changes would be impossible in the scope of normal town meeting reporting. In general the meeting went along with the Planning Board, the members of which in general had attempted in their proposed by-law changes to clarify certain sections of the old by-laws which seemed not clear and to tighten restraining laws where greater restrictions seemed to be necessary.

THE MOZART REQUIEM

The Mozart Requiem as presented last Sunday afternoon at the Unitarian Church by an augmented Unitarian Choir and the Mary Witham Singers, under the direction of Mary Witham, with Weston L. Brannen, organist, and Thomas Hoag, tympanist, turned out to be in every way an outstanding musical event. Soloists were Dolores Baldyga, soprano, Mariel Thorley, contralto, Edgar Isherwood, tenor, and George Fortune, bass. Rev. Robert A. Storer, minister of the church, conducted the brief but effective service of worship.

Last Sunday was the first time Mozart's great work has been done in Winchester, and it is fortunate that its introduction to local music lovers was so happy one.

The Requiem was melodic and Mrs. Witham in her directing let it sing where it should, as well as bringing out all the drama and poignancy of the fine music. She gave an original reading of the score and got a happy response from her singers, both chorus and soloists, as she brought out the subtle inner melodies and let the audience feel the dramatic pulsations and magnificent climaxes with which the score abounds. Notable in interpretation were the "Confutatis" and the "Lacrymosa" and the glorious allegro of both passages of the "Sanctus" and "Benedictus," ending in the almost joyous "Gloria in Excelsis."

The chorus sang with both balance and pleasing tone, phrasing effectively and managing both very loud and very soft passages with fine effect. Explosive attacks and sustained releases added to the performance, and the singing of the group was vital, rhythmic and robust where required and softly appealing where this was indicated.

Perhaps special mention should be made of the thrilling robust attacks of the men in the "Confutatis" and the sharply contrasting chorale quality of the women in this same number, while the double forte that swelled from a pianissimo in the "Agnus Dei" was a truly artistic performance. Not the least achievement of both chorus and soloists was their diction, despite the difficulty of coping with ecclesiastical Latin.

The blending, as well as the individual voices, of the quartet was most pleasing, the members individually showing musical intelligence and fine sensitivity. Their singing of the sotto voce passage of the "Tuba Mirum" and the lyrical "Benedictus" was outstanding.

In his playing of the organ solo, Mr. Brannen showed himself a musician of high caliber, giving individual character to the accompaniments which were nevertheless at all times primarily in support of the singers.

Mr. Hoag's playing of the tympani was both artistic and sympathetic, adding greatly to the color and rhythmic "Dies Irae." The assistance of Miss Grace Norian constituted another contribution to the success of the afternoon.

Following are the members of the choir and assisting singers:

Choir: Aline Brotherton, Janet Burbank, Mary Burton, Anne DeCamp, Nancy Griffiths, Martha Hall, Barbara Hottel, Justine King, Dianne Mansfield, Rebecca Robinson, Mary W. von Rosenvine, Susan Westwater, Jeanne Wilde, Linda Witham, Margaret Worcester, Henry Dellicker, Jr., Robert Brotherton, Lindsay H. Caldwell, Mary Norian, Robert Evans, Gardner Handy, Robert Horne, Alan Mowatt, James de Revere, Sherman Russell, Robert Wild, Janet Baird, Dorothy Brandt, Eleanor Brandt, Radio Horne, Austin Nany, James Thornton.

Mary Witham Singers: Louise Baghdoyan, Marian Blake, Sabina Brandt, Caroline Fitts, Elizabeth Gardner, Sophia Hovland, Mary Miller, June Moffette, Elizabeth Mouradian, Evelyn Strong, Madeleine Zimmerman.

A NARROW ESCAPE

Friday evening's alarm from Box 33 called the Fire Department to the home of Mr. Harold Senaugh at 416 Washington street. The firemen had to force their way into the house, finding the premises filled with smoke from a kettle which had burned dry on the stove. Fortunately the kettle had not boiled over and put out the gas, for an occupant was asleep in the room when the Fire Department arrived.

RESOLUTION

(Adopted unanimously at the Town Meeting of March 24, 1952)

Whereas the football, cross-country, basketball and informal hockey teams of Winchester High School have enjoyed undefeated seasons during the current school year, and

Whereas the basketball team has just achieved its 25th consecutive victory, has won the Class B Championship of Eastern Massachusetts, and also the game held in the Boston Garden immediately preceding the finals of the New England Class A Championship, which game is widely recognized as carrying the Class B Championship of New England.

Now Therefore be it Resolved: That the excellent records of the athletic teams of Winchester High School established to date during the school years, achieved through team spirit and co-operative effort of the highest type, fine coaching, and fidelity to the highest principles of good sportsmanship, and all without sacrifice of scholastic standards or standards of great pride in the citizens of Winchester, and that this meeting shall and does, hereby extend the congratulations and commendations of the Town to the High School staff, the coaches, players, managers, cheerleaders, members of the band and to all who have contributed to their outstanding athletic program.

ART ASSOCIATION

April Exhibition

Perhaps the most interesting of an interesting series of exhibitions will be the April showing when "working" members exhibit their own creations. "Full many a rose is born to blush unseen" may very well apply to paintings since many, through the modesty or lack of opportunity on the part of their authors, are made and destroyed in studio or attic to the detriment of the world at large. And so the Association welcomes this opportunity of making possible a public showing for the works of its members.

Mr. Dwight Shepler will discuss the paintings and offer constructive criticism. He himself is a personality, specializing in three branches of art, water colours, murals and portraits. He was a navy combat artist in the Second World War and was publicized in "Life". At present, I understand that he has a painting hanging in the Doll and Richards Exhibition. In addition to paintings, there will be ceramics and perhaps Maccfield's will show some of their delightful silver creations at the Opening which will be held as usual on the first Tuesday of the month, April 1.

BODY FOUND IN FELS

Shortly after 2 o'clock last Saturday afternoon the Metropolitan District Police notified Headquarters that the body of a man had been found in the woods near the fence around the Sheep Fold on several South Boston boys walking through the wood discovered the body lying about 30 ft. off the roadway.

Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy with Officer James E. Flaherty and John Flaherty of the Water Department went as far by car toward the spot indicated as possible, and then pushed through the woods to where a Metropolitan Mounted Officer was guarding the body.

Sgt. Cassidy found the body was well over the line in Stoneham and Medical Examiner Devlin of that town was notified, coming to the Fels with members of the Stoneham Police. Papers on the body included the name, Lorin Wiederman, 190 Sheridan avenue, Medford, and the Medford Police were asked to commence an investigation. The body was removed to an undertaker's establishment in Stoneham. The Medical Examiner said the man had been dead for several days.

PARENTS AND FAMILIES OF SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

The Winchester Homefronters send Birthday Cards and other mail to your boys and girls if we have their addresses.

Please register their: Name, Rank, Serial number, Address and Birthday date with Miss Mead at the Winchester Public Library.

The committee is having much difficulty mailing birthday cards for April because the mailing list is incomplete.

Please re-register any changes of rank or address immediately by calling Miss Mead, Winchester 6-11061.

Don't let your dear ones be forgotten because of your thoughtlessness.

The Birthday Committee: Vivian Haggerty, Chairman, Margaret Crowley, Mary Fuller.

ITALIAN BOY ADOPTED

Dr. Leolia A. Dalrymple of 21 Sheffield road has adopted Achilles Ures, a 10 year-old Italian boy through the Foster Parents Plan for War Children, Inc., which has cared for more than 70,000 European War Children.

Through the Foster Parents Plan "adoption" is financial, not legal, the foster parent merely promising to pay $15 monthly toward the child's support for at least a year. Achilles is the youngest of a family of seven children, whose father died of T. B. as a result of being a war prisoner in a concentration camp. The entire family income has been a war pension of $30.

VFW ELECTIONS

Aberjona Post, 3719, V. F. W., elected officers for the ensuing year at a meeting held at Post Headquarters on White street Tuesday evening. Warren T. Bolivar was re-elected commander for a second term, the complete list being as follows:

Commander, Warren T. Bolivar, Sr. Vice Comdr, Timothy Connors, Jr. Vice Comdr, Joseph Zaffina, Chaplain, Robert Horn, Quartermaster, Clement Landry, Judge Advocate, Mark Kelley, Adjutant, Ralph Fiore, Trustees, Mark Kelley (2 years); Henry O'Melia (3 years).

EN KA SPRING MEETING

The weatherman favored the En Ka Society last Tuesday when the spring meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Irving Jennings.

About eighty-five enthusiastic members enjoyed the luncheon served by Mrs. Townley-Tilson and her committee. Mrs. Langley Keyes and Mrs. William Beggs poured.

Mrs. Richard Harlow, president of the society presided at the business meeting which followed.

Mrs. Donald Connors reported the gifts of $100 for the hospital book truck and $80 for a chair for the Staff room at the library.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Kuypers, Chairman of the Street Fair to be held on May 23 and 24. She called on the chairman of all the committees who gave enthusiastic reports and judging by the plans this promise to be one of the best Street Fairs ever.

Mrs. Theodore Elliott, co-chairman of the properties committee told of the plans for the decorations and costumes for the fair. Since the circus is the theme of this year's fair large posters of animals, many painted by the school children are to be used. Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Paul Connors and Mrs. Thomas Devlin will make the costumes to be worn.

The directors are to be very snappily attired as ring masters and the girls who are workers are to have clown hats and ruffs, while the men will be resplendent in small derbies with feathers and large bow ties.

Mrs. Chandler Symmes, chairman of the Gift Booth had a display and sale of the many attractive articles made by her committee.

Mrs. Russell Symmes, co-chairman of the Candy Committee which has been making and selling candy since November distributed novel invitations to an Easter Candy Sale and Tea to be held on Friday April 4 from 3 to 5 p.m. at her home 233 Main street.

The meeting adjourned with everyone feeling that the Circus Street Fair will be as delightful in reality as it seems in anticipation.

THIRTY YEARS ON FORCE

Yesterday Police Lt. Edward W. O'Connell completed thirty years in the service of the Winchester Police Department.

Lt. O'Connell was appointed March 27, 1922, was promoted to sergeant in December, 1930, and made a lieutenant in May of 1936. He was the first member of the Winchester Department to ride the police motorcycle during the years 1922-1923, and where and where he served the department as acting Chief for ten months during the years of 1947 and '48, following the resignation of Chief William H. Rogers and previous to the appointment of the retiring incumbent, Chief Charles J. Harrold.

NEW TROPHY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Jack Chitell, proprietor of Chitell's Men's Shop on Mt. Vernon street, has presented to the high school a new trophy which was awarded this morning at a student assembly by his team mates on the Championship Basketball Team.

Mr. Chitell plans to present to the high school similar trophies for sports not now covered by trophies. In baseball there is the Sam Tompkins Memorial Trophy, which is for that sport what the Chitell trophy does for basketball.

The new trophy is of bronze and is fourteen inches high. It depicts a basketball player in the point of contact with the jumpball.

NEW TAX BILL PROCEDURE

Tax Collector Donald Heath explained to the Star this week the new method for sending out tax bills in Winchester.

Five thousand poll tax bills will be sent out April 1, and of course will be due in 30 days. No change in that policy.

The tax payer will however receive his bill in duplicate and both copies should be returned to the tax collector's office if he wants a receipt.

Two thousand Water Bills will also be sent out April 1 and the same procedure will apply to them. The new system stems from the new billing machines which have been installed at the town hall.

ESKIMO ASSESSORS CLUB

Members of the Massachusetts Association of Assessors, who attended the Round Table meeting of the organization at the Hotel Statler despite the storm of February 17 and 18, were so pleased with their accomplishment that they organized the Eskimo Assessors Club. Mr. Marshall E. Pihl, who represented the Winchester Assessors at the Round Table, was made a member of the club.

FOUR BREAKS IN WINCHESTER

Thieves entered four homes on the West Side Monday evening, doing considerable property damage as they ransacked the dwellings thoroughly, but according to the police getting little of value.

Chief Charles J. Harrold of the Police Department made clear that he has no complete list of missing valuables, because two of the families whose houses were entered are absent from town, in Europe. Quick checkups however would seem to reveal that for the most part the actual loss by theft from the houses entered is slight.

Police Headquarters was first notified of the breaks at 9:30 Monday evening when Walter Fish, owner of a new ranch-type house at 69 Bacon street, phoned to report his house had been entered while he and his family were absent for the evening, and the interior wrecked by the vandals.

Later George Folland of 45 Everett avenue reported that his house had also been entered, and not long after this report Patrolman Archie T. O'Connell discovered a third break at the home of Mr. John Munro, 35 Central street.

The police found that the Fish and Folland homes had been entered by breaking glass in the doors at the rear. At the Fish home the vandals, in addition to thoroughly ransacking the house had thrown the contents of the refrigerator around the kitchen, smearing the walls with eggs and vegetables, and writing on the walls the words, "Thanks, We'll Be Back."

Two Ronson table lighters were missing and a wrist watch with a broken crystal. Police believe that the thieves were after money and were not loitering to take other more personal effects.

Quick checks seemed to indicate little of real value missing from the Folland home, and the interior was not damaged as much as was the case at Fish's. No estimate could be made of the things that may have been taken from Mr. Munro's since his family is abroad.

First reports were to the effect that in one house $1200 had been stolen, but this was later denied as in error, and beyond two watches, cigarette lighters, and other articles, only eight dollars was definitely known to be missing. However, all three houses were thoroughly ransacked, and in the case of Mr. Munro and Mr. Armstrong, a definite check has not been made.

Tuesday New Hampshire State Police notified local authorities that a Hudson sedan, registered to Robert W. Armstrong of Concord, had been recovered in Madbury, N. H., when two fugitives, wanted in connection with the robbery of an armed truck in Danvers tried to ram a police road block in that town.

When the Armstrong car was stopped the men driving it made an attempt to escape, and both were shot by the officers. They were Joseph V. Kelley, 32, of Woburn, a former Winchester resident, and Norman Ziele, 24, of Boston. Both are in the Dover, N. H., Hospital, and Kelley is reported in serious condition.

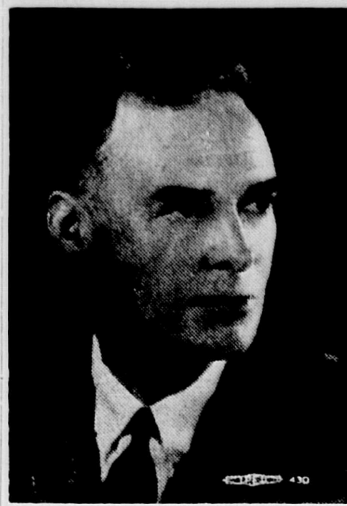

Immediately Officer D. Irving Reardon was sent to examine the Armstrong home and discovered that this house too had been broken into. What was taken besides the automobile is not known. The Armstrong family being in Italy. Police however believe that the Armstrong house was a part of the same series of breaks that included the Fish, Folland and Munro homes.

The police finger-print man, Officer John Murray, worked long at all four houses looking for fingerprints and candle-ends were found in each house and in two of the three dwellings large carving knives were found near the gloves and candles. In the other a long roasting fork was lying near at hand. Whether the intruders had these implements ready in the event they were disturbed by the returning householders is at least conjectural.

Chief Harrold, immediately after the breaks set in motion a wide net work of investigation. Sgt. John J. Dolan spent all day Wednesday in New Hampshire conferring with New Hampshire State Police in an effort to implicate the two fugitives taken there with the local breaks.

Meanwhile Chief Harrold was in close touch with Woburn authorities trying to link with the breaks here taken in breaks in Billerica.

Arrested in Billerica and Chelmsford and from small police later, were Everett Bryker, 16 years old, of Pinehurst; Francis Gaudette, 16, also of Pinehurst; and John Anthony, 16, of Woburn. A fourth man was also taken into custody, who is thought to be implicated in the robbery. These men are held at the Chelmsford jail in connection with breaks in that town. It is reported that they have admitted the Winchester entries and that most of the loot has been recovered.

CONG. CHRISTIAN A. HERTER

CONGRESSMAN HERTER TO SPEAK AT EISENHOWER MEETING

The Winchester Town Hall will be the scene of a gathering of supporters of Dwight Eisenhower for President from all cities and towns in the 5th congressional district. Large delegations are expected, especially from Arlington and Lexington. All Winchester voters are cordially invited to attend. Date to be announced later.

One of the principal speakers will be the Massachusetts state chairman for Eisenhower, Congressman Christian A. Herter of Boston. Mr. Herter was one of the national political figures who early in 1951 urged General Eisenhower to run for the Presidency. A member of Congress since 1943, Mr. Herter had previously served for 12 years in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, where he was the Speaker from 1939 to 1942. He is a member of the important Congressional Committee on Foreign Affairs and has gained a national reputation as an expert in that field.

Other prominent Massachusetts Republican leaders will address the meeting, and music and entertainment will be furnished. As one of the outstanding Republican towns in Massachusetts, Winchester was the logical selection as the center for the 5th Congressional District activities for Eisenhower.

The Eisenhower slate from District 5, the first slate on ballot in the primaries April 29th, are: Delegates: Harris S. Richardson of Winchester, Otis M. Whitcomb of Concord.

Alternates: Paul R. Achin of Lowell, Muriel S. Barnes of Winchester.

SEAGER FLYING TO ROME

Mr. Cedric Seager, formerly of this town, left Logan International Airport on March 22, to fly to Rome where he will represent the State Department TCA (Point Four).

After a series of conferences in Rome concerning the food and agriculture organization of the United Nations (FAO), Mr. Seager will go on to Tel Aviv, Israel, to advise the Government of Israel on the development of technical assistance projects in that country.

He expects to spend Easter Sunday in Jerusalem and will be for some time in the Negev Desert area, traveling as far as Agaba on the Red Sea. Mr. Seager expects to be gone six weeks to two months. He has been some time in Washington with the State Department and is married to the former Gertrude Packer, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William S. Packer of Yale street.

OUTSTANDING TENOR FOR "SEVEN LAST WORDS"

Carl Nelson, tenor, an artist who has scored outstanding successes in concert, radio, oratorio and television, will sing the tenor role in the performance of Dubois' "Seven Last Words" by the Chancel Choir of the First Congregational Church, under the direction of J. Albert Wilson, on Palm Sunday afternoon, April 6, in the church auditorium commencing at 4:30.

A student of voice since youth, Mr. Nelson was heard as a soloist at an early age, and had embarked on a promising concert career when he was called to the colors.

While in the service he gave more than one hundred concerts to servicemen, and upon returning to civil life, he resumed his vocal coaching as an artist pupil of Maestro Jomplucky in New York and in Boston at the Chalfont School of Music.

His appearances during the past two years have everywhere aroused enthusiasm over his technical proficiency, his power and dramatic touch and the beautiful quality of his pianissimo.

Winchester music lovers should not fail to hear this rising young tenor and the Congregational Choir in Dubois fine Lenten music, which has not been sung at the Congregational Church for some years now. Mr. Wilson will play the organ as well as conduct the choir, and his playing of the "Storm" during the passages depicting the crucifixion never fail to arouse the admiration of all lovers of descriptive organ music.

Dr. Alex F. Muller of this town and Dr. George Cytoen of Brookline have been announced as receiving national research fellowships from the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation to investigate the causes of arthritis.

UNITARIAN PLAYERS IN BROADWAY HIT

Just when presidential primaries have us all guessing about possible candidates, the Unitarian Players have chosen a most timely play to let us in on how the winners are really picked. In "State of the Union", a recent Broadway hit, the politicians show us how they groom a "dark horse" for the Republican nomination, and we see what happens when the "dark horse" starts kicking up with some ideas of his own. This superb comedy by Howard Lindsay and Russel Croft is guaranteed to keep you laughing — and guessing — on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, May 16 and May 17, in Metcalf Hall at the Winchester Unitarian Church.

The popular team of Spaulding and Tilton will be featured in a "return engagement". William E. Spaulding will be seen as Grant Matthews, the reluctant candidate, and John Rickard of Medford will play the part of Jim Conover, most persuasive of politicians. Mary Matthews, the wife whose outspoken remarks make the politicians uncomfortable, will be played by Lucille Townley-Tilton, while Jacqueline Sibley will portray Kay Thorndyke, suave newspaper publisher who succeeds in making Mary Matthews uncomfortable. Bradford Darling plays Spike McManus, a genial reporter whose breezy comments keep the already lively action still more stirred up.

The other characters will be played by Charlotte Hill, Prescott Keyes, Richard Barnard, John Morgan, Katherine Davies, Ellen Hill, Irene Kline, John Chandler Hill, P. Eric Anderson and Allan Mowatt.

ANNUAL MEETING HOME CHURCH GUILD

The Annual Meeting of the Home Church Guild of the First Congregational Church will be held in the Ladies Parlor on Tuesday, April 1st at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. James H. Coon will have charge of the devotional period. Mrs. Harold Matthews wife of the new Superintendent of the Walker Home in Audubon will speak on "Recent Experiences in China." A tea will follow the meeting with Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald acting as chairman.

EN KA CANDY COMMITTEE TEA

The Candy Committee of the 1952 En Ka Street Fair is having a tea on Friday, April 4th from 3-5 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Russell Symmes, 233 Main street. #### THOMAS W. FORD

Thomas W. Ford, one of the last of the old time blacksmiths in this vicinity, died Thursday, March 20, at his home, 26 Pond street, after a short illness. His picturesque shop was on Cambridge street opposite Pond street and he was busy in it until his final illness.

Mr. Ford was born February 22, 1869, in Fitchburg. He had learned the blacksmith's trade before he came to Winchester 46 years ago to take over the shop on Cambridge street previously run by the late Dennis Lawton.

Mr. Ford was a real craftsman. In addition to shoeing horses he did fine wrought iron work for Boston dealers like Carbone's. In recent years he had done wrought iron house fittings for Alfred Elliott, the builder, and also designed and crafted wrought iron handrails. He contributed the hangers for the new City School cabin in the Falls and did the finest sort of repairing on andirons and other metal house furnishings, as well as sharpening picks for the town and for many private contractors.

In recent years Mr. Ford traveled in his automobile to many farms to shoe horses. He had developed a method of measuring a horse's hoof for a shoe, which he made at his forge and placed on the horse at the barn of his owner. He was proud of his craft and took the greatest pleasure in his work. Many enjoyed talking with him, and after his death students were never tired of reproducing his old shop in many media.

Mr. Ford leaves a son, William Ford of Brookline, exalted ruler of Brookline Lodge of Elks.

The funeral was held Saturday morning from the Moffett Funeral Home with requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. ELIZABETH NOONAN BULLARD

Mrs. Elizabeth (Noonan) Bullard, widow of Ralph Frederick Bullard and sister of Mrs. Thomas W. Conlon of 54 Canal street, died suddenly Sunday morning, March 23, at her sister's home after a long period of poor health. Two years ago she underwent a major operation and although she was able to spend the winter of 1950-51 with her sister in California, she had been obliged to return east in the spring of '51 for a second operation, and she had not recovered her health since that time.

Mrs. Bullard was the daughter of the late Patrick and Mary J. (Conway) Noonan. She was born in Winchester May 25, 1898, and grew up in town, attending the Winchester schools and graduating from Winchester High School. She also attended Burdett College, and was graduated from Clifton College in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Bullard was married June 25, 1925, for more than 26 years thereafter she made her home on Sagamore avenue in West Medford, spending her summers in Pemberton, where she was secretary of the Pemberton Improvement Association. She was also a former member of Santa Maria Court, C. D. of A.

Mrs. Bullard's husband died December 8, 1929, and in 1946 she returned to Winchester with her mother, who died February 1, 1952. Besides her sister in Winchester, Mrs. Bullard leaves a sister, Mrs. John F. O'Brien of Redondo Beach, California, and a brother, P. Rodger Noonan of this town.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late residence with requiem high mass celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church. Interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

NOTICE

The Winchester Hospital Staff wishes to announce that Dr. Gustav G. Kaufman is resuming his private practice on April 1, 1952 after serving in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army since October 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cary of Greenfield, N. H., formerly of Wildwood street are in Sea Island, Ga., for a month's vacation. While they are gone their small daughter, Debby, is staying in Norfolk, Va., with her sister and brother-in-law, Ens. and Mrs. F. X. Quinlan.

FRANK M. MATHEWS

Mr. Frank M. Mathews, formerly of Winchester, died suddenly in Orange, N. J., on March the fourteenth. Mr. Mathews is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John M. Kingman of Winchester and a son, Charles M. Mathews, of Orange, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews, who died last April, originated the Terrace Yarn and Gift Shop and operated it for some years.

DIVISION OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

Most of the Winchester residents who have used up their unemployment benefits during the past year and are still unemployed may file a new claim on or after April first. Manager Stephen J. Flynn of the local Employment Office, 25 Montvale avenue, Woburn, said his agency has no way of knowing how many will actually file, but he expects the number will be substantial.

Job seekers, regardless of their eligibility for unemployment benefits, are urged to register for work at the Division of Employment Security, 25 Montvale avenue, Woburn.

WILLIAM STEVENSON

William Stevenson, a resident of Winchester for the past 35 years, died Friday, March 21, at his home, 61 Hemingway street, after an illness of two years.

Mr. Stevenson was the son of Thomas and Elizabeth Stevenson. He was born in 1876 in Donegal, Ireland, but came to this country as a youth, learning the leather-workers' trade and making his home for some years before coming to Winchester in Woburn. He was employed at the Winchester leather manufacturing plant of Beggs & Cobb until his retirement six years ago.

Mr. Stevenson's wife, the former Elizabeth Stewart, died December 17, 1951. He leaves a son, Thomas J. Stevenson, and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Saurman, both of this town. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Arthur P. Graham Funeral Home in Woburn. The Rev. Harold Lewis, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church in Woburn, officiated. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

D. A. R. NOTES

Mrs. George M. Byrne was hostess on March 17th to the Committee of Safety Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church.

Mrs. William W. Goodhue, Regent, presided at the business meeting and introduced Mrs. Herbert McQuesten, Honorary State Regent, who spoke on the proposed revision of the State By-Laws.

Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge then presented Miss Diane Greer, this year's D. A. R. Pilgrim, chosen by the faculty and students of the Winchester High School as the "Good Citizen" who best met the qualifications for this honor. Miss Greer responded with poise and charm, which delighted the D.A.R. members.

Mrs. Strawbridge also gave the name of Rita Fiore of Revere as the Pilgrim chosen from the class of 250 in that city. The Committee of Safety Chapter sponsored Miss Fiore this year.

Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes gave a most interesting program, interspersing additional information to her colorful and artistic Kodachromes and motion pictures with explanations of conditions under which the pictures were taken. The afternoon was most enjoyable, its program by one of its own members being outstanding and its tea, by Mrs. George M. Byrne, most delectable.

RECITAL SOLOIST

Claron Swonger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair W. Swonger of Perkins road, was one of the soloists in the informal recital held in connection with the Parent-Guest Night held by the Arlington Academy of Music on Tuesday evening. Each parent brought a guest and those attending constituted a most appreciative audience. Refreshments were served after the recital program.

Robert Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Walsh, 15 Yale street, a freshman at Colgate University, has recently been pledged to the Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity. Walsh is a 1951 graduate of Winchester High School.

WHAT IS WRONG?

Editor of the Star:
 I would like to take a little space at this time to thank the voters who have voted for me over the past number of years in our Presidential Primaries. I have enjoyed being Vice-Chairman of the Republican Town Committee. However, this time I am not running for re-election so I feel free to say a few things.

I wonder if the people of Winchester realize that in the 1948 Presidential Primaries less than 500 Republicans and only 85 Democrats voted! Now, voters, what is wrong? Are you not interested in who gets elected to your town committee, or the delegate to the National Convention, or who is to be the next President of these United States?

In 1948 the Republican Party candidate was over 2,000,000 votes behind the Democratic candidate and received only 45.1 percent of the total vote cast. There were 45,000 potential voters who did not vote — were you one of them?

Things can not go on as they are — or can they? We have been fighting longer in Korea than we did to win World War I. There have been more American casualties in these first 18 months of the Korean War than we suffered in the first three years of World War II.
 More Americans have been killed in the Korean War than were killed in the war of 1812, the Mexican War, the Spanish-American War and the American Revolution combined.
 Yet — we are not at war.

There are thousands of boys and girls away from home, living in tents, trailers, strange apartments, — not complaining, but making the best of an unnecessary situation.

I have recently traveled over 5,000 miles through the South and everywhere you go you hear nothing but complaints. I have heard strong Democrats say, "You Republicans give us Ike and the Democrats and Independents will elect him." Do you "Independent" voters feel that this is a healthy condition? Independent Voters, won't you vote in the primaries and help to send the delegates to the convention to vote for the man you would like to see President of these United States?

If you must be an independent voter, then go down and change your registration back to an independent, even the very day you have voted in the primaries. Simply vote and then sign a new card at the Town Clerk's Office. But unless more people do vote in the primaries, they serve no useful purpose, are expensive and should be eliminated.

Possibly the Australian method of fining those who do not vote would be the answer, but regardless of how you vote, please Vote.

Thank you for reading this.
 (Mrs.) Louise D. Elliott
 Vice-Chairman
 Winchester Republican
 Town Comm.

ANOTHER SOLUTION!

Editor of the Star:
 There is another solution to the "track problem" that has not been mentioned to my knowledge.
 Extend Common street parallel to the railroad from Church street down by the railroad station on to a point some one hundred yards or so and thence by a bridge over the railroad and the river to a point about where the Mystic Valley
 Parkway and Bacon street meet.
 Buses and trucks could, undoubtedly, get permission to use that short stretch of the Parkway to Main street and thence on to Medford.

Traffic from the Square going towards Woburn would go along

WINCHESTER CLUB HEARS FROM "IKE"

Winchester's Eisenhower for President Club has received a letter from the General, club officers announced yesterday. Written by the General's aide, it read:
 "General Eisenhower, immediately prior to his departure on a German inspection trip this morning, directed me to write you, thanking you for your letter. He appreciates the animating spirit of your message."

(signed) Lt. Col.
 C. Craig Cannon

Aide to Gen. Eisenhower
 The letter was in answer to a note sent to the General by his local boosters, telling him of the activities and plans of the Winchester
 "Ike" Club.

New precinct chairmen for the club have been announced. They are Mrs. Gussie McAdams Colton and Mr. Robert Price, Precinct 1;
 Mr. Robert Sands, Precinct 2; Mr.
 Dean Carlton, Precinct 3; Mrs.
 Harry M. Easton, Precinct 4.

Publicity for the group is being handled by Mr. Courtney Crandall.
 Club officers expressed delight at the growing number of Winchester folks stopping by the club headquarters, joining the group and assisting in the work. All interested voters are urged to drop in and inspect the offices in the Waterfield Building.

WINCHESTER COUNCIL NO. 210
55th ANNIVERSARY
COMMUNION BREAKFAST

At Waterfield Hall, on Sunday
 March 30th, Winchester Council No.
 210 Knights of Columbus will hold its 55th Annual Communion Breakfast and Mass, following the 8 o'clock Mass at St. Mary's Church.
 Members of the council will meet in Winchester Center at 7:30 a. m. to form for a parade to Church in a body. An escort of Police and Firemen will lead the parade, followed by a representation of 4th
 Degree Knights.

After the Mass, those who attend the breakfast will march to Waterfield Hall. The Guest Speaker for the occasion will be Mr. Thomas F.
 McLaughlin a past District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus and a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This subject will be "The Work of the F. B. I."
 Other invited guests include Joseph
 P. Lally, State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus and James E.
 McCabe a District Deputy. Grand Knight Charles W. Cronan appointed Deputy Grand Knight Everett
 H. Kimball as Chairman of the Communion Breakfast Committee who will also be Master of Ceremonies. An enthusiastic committee has devoted a considerable amount of time to make this breakfast one of the Outstanding events in the activities of the Council this year.
 A large turnout is expected. All residents of Winchester who belong to other Councils are invited to join the Winchester Knights in this annual affair.

TOWN MEETING DISSOLVED

The new Zoning By-Law also provides that a person may conduct a professional office on the premises in which he lives, and can hire no more than one person not a resident on the premises to work for him.

For the most part the meeting had little to question in the provisions of the new By-Laws as they affected single and general residence districts, though Mr. Cullen wanted to know whether a person was restricted under the new regulations to renting rooms, or furnishing board and could not do both. Mr. Hatch replied that such was not the intent of the law.

Mr. Cullen put in a busy evening questioning provisions of the new By-Laws especially as they applied to the business district. He particularly challenged that portion of Section 7 applying to non-conforming use of property in the business district.

The new By-Law provided that any building or structure or land existing at the time the new By-Law is adopted which does not conform to the regulations of the district in which it is located may be continued, unless and until abandoned or unless such non conforming use is discontinued for a period of more than a year.

Mr. Cullen felt the words "or unless such non conforming use is discontinued" constituted a danger to the right of a person who for one reason or another could not use non-conforming property for a period of one year, and Mr. Parker concurred, citing the case of a veteran, who because of service duty could not use non-conforming property for more than a year.

The meeting supported the protestants and accepted Mr. Parker's amendment of the article striking out the objectionable words, though fast and Mass. There will be a speaker at this next meeting.

The Planning Board voluntarily changed the provisions of that part of the new law applying to lot frontage, reducing the frontage for 15,000 sq. ft. lots from 120 to 100 ft. and that for 10,000 sq. ft.
 lots to 80 ft. This was done in accordance with opinion expressed at the hearing held previous to town meeting and was not questioned.

The lawyers at the meeting had a field day over the wording of that part of Section 8A inserted to take care of persons owning lots with less than the lawful amount.
 Mr. Speers, Mr. Parker, Mr. L. man and Mr. Joslin were a few that debated an addition to the wording placed in the section by the Planning Board in an effort to prevent layouts of lots smaller than the legal size by persons who by purchase or manipulation divided their land to circumvent the law but actually owned enough land to comply with required areas and frontages.

The intent of the section is to enable persons owning at the time the new By-Law is accepted lots less in size than the required areas to build on them, if they have no adjacent land which they could use to bring their lots to the required size and frontage.

This provisions is what the meeting finally passed and it also passed the section 8B which provides that in all single and general residence districts there shall be in intersecting streets areas on each of the streets 3 ft. from the intersection in which there shall be no building or structure, or foliage over four feet in height.

There was some debate under this headed over the meaning of the words "towers used in describing districts" where a rounded corner exists, but the meeting finally accepted the restrictions as read, and accepted the entire new Zoning provisions as they had been finally presented unanimously.

Mr. Hatch then explained that until the Attorney General should approve the new Zoning provisions it would be necessary to have the old laws in effect, and the meeting so voted, also voting, at Mr. Hatch's request, to indefinitely postpone action on Articles 40 and 41, which had been covered in the previous Zoning discussion.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

Especially for Parents and Teachers

Those who are well acquainted with the Family Room at the Public Library know that it is an attractively furnished room containing books of special interest to parents and teachers. In this room will be found books on child psychology, parent education, marriage, juvenile delinquency, religion in family life, education, motherhood, child care and training, and family health. There is also a pamphlet file which supplements the Family Room books. Many excellent government leaflets or material from such sources as the Science Research Associates or Public Affairs Pamphlets are available to you in this file.

For the convenience of parents unable to come to the library from 10-6, when the Boys' and Girls'
 Room is open, there is a bookcase of children's books carefully selected by the Children's Librarian. Parents may take these children's book out in the evening on their own adult cards.

Books and pamphlets are being continually added to the Family Room. They are very carefully chosen, so that you may feel confidence in the worthwhileness of books you read from this collection.

Anyone concerned with children and youth will find helpful and pertinent information in the Family Room. This room is ideal for browsing, but if you have a particular request ask at the desk for the Reference Librarian and she will be glad to help you locate the information in question.

Lincoln — Lee Group
 The second meeting of a group of men interested in meeting together in the Edgar J. Rich Room will be held Tuesday evening, April first, at 7:45. There will be a speaker at this next meeting.

All Winchester men interested in the Civil War period of history are cordially invited to join the group.
 The plan is to have it informal and to meet not oftener than once a month. Definite plans have not yet been completed, so why not come and take part in the establishment of this worthwhile group.

Music Program
 Recorded music in the Downs Room, Wednesday, April second at 3 p. m. and again at 7:30 p. m.
 Symphony No. 5 in C minor (Third and Fourth Movements) — Beethoven.

Concerto No. 2 in B flat for Piano

It's what you keep that counts

It's an old axiom that anyone can make money, but it takes a special kind of ability to put a few dollars away regularly for the future.
 A well-known business leader once said, "If you want to know whether or not you are likely to succeed in life ask yourself this question,
 'Can I save money?' If you can't, the seed of success is not in you." The reason is simple. Money management

 calls for good judgment, discipline, wisdom, thrift and determination —
 the qualities that help a man to succeed at any task. If you haven't a savings account with us, we invite you to open one. If you already have an account here, come in and make a deposit every pay day.

IN BARBADOS THERE ARE NO WEEDS; SPRINGS RUN BEST IN DRY SEASON

Farm workers may get aching back on Barbados, but not from pulling weeds. For there are practically no weeds on this tiny sugar-producing British possession, east-ernmost of the Caribbean islands.

More than 300 years of cultivation of almost every arable square foot of Barbados has virtually eliminated native weeds and weeds, explains Charles Allmon in his article "Barbados, Outrigger of the Antilles," in the March National Geographic Magazine.

Despite this intense cultivation, Allmon says, the island's thin soil has not been depleted. Crop rotation and careful use of fertilizer, some provided by unused portions of the largest crop, sugar cane, as well as a fortunate lack of erosion have preserved the earth lying on Barbados' limestone bedrock.

Spings Along Coast The porous limestone soil explains the absence of erosion. Rain, falling most heavily from June to November, does not run off, but seeps into the bedrock and percolates slowly, emerging in bubbling springs near the coast. Since this process takes about six months, the springs flow most abundantly in the dry season.

All processed sugar exported from Barbados is shipped to the British Isles, but some sugar products such as molasses and rum find their way to Canada and the United States. Nearly four-fifths of the 166-square-mile island is covered with cane fields.

Barbados has been a British possession since it was discovered by an English sea captain more than 225 years ago. At that time the pork-chop-shaped tropical island, lying east of the Windward Islands and north of the northwest coast of South America, was uninhabited.

Slaves Imported Now, with some 210,000 inhabitants, Barbados has 1,250 persons to the square mile, and is second only to Bermuda in the Western Hemisphere for density of population. The growth started with the importation of slaves from Africa to work the early sugar plantations, and at the present time 200,000 of the total population is Negro.

Barbados is intensely British and proud of its links with England. It is dotted with names such as Hastings, Yorkshire and St. George, and cricket is the most popular sport.

A Trafalgar Square, complete with monument to Admiral Nelson, was dedicated in Bridgetown, the island capital, before London had its own Nelson memorial, and Barbados harbor police wear the uniforms of sailors in Nelson's navy.

Lord Nelson was a visitor at Bridgetown, as was George Washington, who spent nearly two months in the island capital with his brother, Lawrence.

Barbados is a land in which the poorer dwellings have no glass in the windows but boast stout shutters to keep out "bumbers," and other evil spirits abroad after sundown. It is a land where pigs are led to market on leashes, and where flying fishes do more than play. They are caught to provide a staple on the island menu.

Geographic Oddities AND BRIEFS

About nine-tenths of Michigan's people live in the southern fourth-tenths of the State.

In 1915 an earthquake caused a Nevada mountain to grow 20 feet, says the National Geographic Society.

The two strongest earth shocks recorded since the use of seismographs for measuring them became general about 50 years ago were the Asam-Tibet earthquake of August 15, 1950, and the Colombia temblor of 1906.

Sunday is bath day for donkeys, goats, and other animals on Barbados, easternmost of West Indies islands, notes the National Geographic Society. Cattlevash, a village on the Barbados coast, owes its name to the act the word implies.

At the time of the Civil War there were more sheep than people in the United States. In 1944 there were three people and today there are five people for every sheep.

Rats eat about 200,000,000 bushels of grain each year in the United States, the National Geographic Society reports.

Steamboats on the Congo in Africa judge the river's depth by the sound of the "mustache" of water tossed up by the vessel's bow, the National Geographic Society reports. The "mustache" makes different sounds in deep water and in shallows over sandbars.

Michigan's shore line, touching Lakes Superior, Michigan, Huron, and Erie, is the longest of any state - 2,802 miles, the National Geographic Society says. It is almost equal that of California, Oregon and Washington combined and surpasses that of Florida, longest State shore line on salt water.

SPORTS NIGHT FEATURES

WINCHESTER HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM

The undefeated Winchester High School Basketball Team were the honored guests at the Father and Son Sports Night conducted by the Winchester Council Knights of Columbus. Praise for their courage will to win, and gentlemanly conduct was bestowed on them by their outstanding coach, Ted Bartlett, who also stated that they had made their way through their accomplishments. The long hard work they had done paid off as was shown by the record they have made.

Athletic Director, Henry Knowlton, congratulated Ted Bartlett for the work he had done with the boys and thanked him for his assistance in coaching the football teams. Henry stated that he had learned a lot about basketball by attending the practice sessions of the team.

The meeting opened by compliments from J. Joseph Tansey to Ted and the boys for their remarkable record. Joe extended congratulations to the team from the Board of Selectmen.

Coach "General" McClellan of Boston College was unable to be present due to a previous commitment. Representing the "General" was Tommy O'Toole, Captain of the Boston College Basketball Team. Tommy, who will play in the East West College Basketball game in Kansas, gave the coach and team the privilege of the "General" for being unable to be present and congratulating them for their fine record.

"Wimpy" Burnett, captain-elect of the Boston College Basketball Team, also congratulated Coach Bartlett and the boys for their undefeated record.

Anthony "Tony" Gentile, who has refereed many high school basketball games, commented that this Winchester High School Basketball Team was one of the best coached of the high school teams in the area. He also commented that he was glad to officiate or witness. Tony commented that the team always played the clean sportsmanlike type of game which spoke well of the boys from Winchester.

Coach Arnold "Red" Auerbach of the Boston Celtics was unable to be present because of a change in the schedule of the N. B. A. playoffs.

Vincent R. Cronin, Coach of the Boston University Basketball Team and former coach at Somerville High School, congratulated Coach Ted Bartlett and the team also for their undefeated season. He cautioned the boys that they should keep up in their studies because when they continue their playing days in college, one of the first questions asked of them is "how are your studies?" He reminded them that when things were not going so well as they had this year to remember this year to give them the lift they might need.

Grand Knight Charles Craven presented to all the boys on the first and second teams, as well as to Henry Knowlton and Ted Bartlett, a memento of the occasion in the form of a tie clip and chain with a basketball.

Movies of the South Boston game were shown. Community singing was led by Herb Cleary. Approximately 150 members and friends including the fathers of the boys on the team were present.

WINCHESTER SCOUTS TO ATTEND CAMP FELLISLAND

Last summer, over 75 Winchester Boy Scouts attended Camp Fellisland, a summer camp for the Scouts of Winchester, Medford, Stoneham, Woburn and Burlington. Last year's enrollment was the largest in the camp's history, and it is expected that even more local boys will enjoy the facilities of the camp this coming summer.

This year, Camp Fellisland will open on June 26th and operate for six weeks, through August 10th. A boy may enroll for any length of time, from one week to the full six-week season. And, because the camp is partially supported by Red Pledge, the cost to the individual Scout is only $17 a week. What's more, the boy is allowed a $1-a-week discount if he signs up before June 1st. Last season, of every $8 paid by the Scouts, $5 went for food, which indicates that our Scouts get plenty of good, wholesome food at Fellisland!

Recognized as one of the best summer camp layouts in New England, Camp Fellisland offers the boys an ideal combination of woods and trees, plus plenty of open areas for field sports and other athletic activities, plus an excellent sandy beach on the shore of the Pow Wow River. There are twelve screened-in sleeping cabins with wooden floors and double bunks, with springs and mattresses. Eight boys and a leader can sleep in each cabin, and there are also tents for boys who prefer to "rough it."

Modern modern flush toilets with running water, washstands, plus a hot-and-cold shower building, and an infirmary with a nurse in charge. At the water-front there are modern wharfs and a raft with diving board, life guard tower, and a new boat dock with a complete fleet of rowboats and canoes. Outstanding landmark of the camp is the Memorial Lodge. Only a few years old, the Lodge is one of the finest and most modern buildings in the country.

Folders describing the camp, together with registration cards, are now being distributed through the various troops in town, and in many a local home these days parents are being talked to an enthusiastic sales talk which undoubtedly winds up something like this: "So can I go to Camp Fellisland this summer? Can I, huh? Can I?"

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

The following list of Contagious Diseases was reported for week ending Thursday, March 27.

4 cases of chicken pox

4 cases of measles

William B. MacDonald, Agent, Board of Health

GEORGE WASHINGTON DADS' CLUB PACK 9

Theresa McMahon, three times winner of the Old Gold Amateur Hour, entertained Pack 9 and their parents at the monthly meeting last Friday at the school. The Cubs thought young Theresa was an excellent trumpet player and a good singer, and they gave her a great ovation and best wishes in the Madison Square Garden finals.

Commander Gulick and Colonel Richards are taking the boys on a hike to Horn Pond Mountain on March 29. It is to be an all day affair with games, lunch, and studies in nature.

The prize cup for attendance was won by Den 3. Barry Berman was admitted as a new member. Den 5 gave a special call called "The Jungle."

Colonel Richards conducted the meeting and made awards to the following boys:

Wolf Badge: John Swift, Jim Bogue, Peter Ives, Parker Gray.

Bob Cat: Richard Keene.

Service Star: Bob Gulick.

Rear Badge: Eric Wittet.

Silver Arrow: Eric Wittet.

The next Cub Pack meeting will be concerned with the American Red Cross Program

CIVIL DEFENSE

Winchester's own Civil Defense Radio Station, W1RRA, with Communications Director John Blanchard and Communications Chief Bob Richmond on duty. This station, which contains not only town-purchased equipment but much equipment privately loaned to CD to reduce town expenses, maintains transmitting and receiving sets to Sector HQ and also to mobile Winchester CD sets, and provides emergency communications in cases where normal facilities (telephones, etc.) might fail.

INSIDE YOUR CIVIL DEFENSE NO. 2: COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION

Anyone who has had military experience knows the paramount importance of communications in organized operations. Without proper communications, there is, in effect, no organization whatsoever; and no elaborate "paper" plans, or trained personnel can work properly. It is indeed the "nerve" system, the very eyes and ears, and voice, of every working force, your CD included.

Winchester is luckier than it realizes to have had experienced and public-spirited citizens who appreciated these hard facts, and started "digging" hard as far back as last spring and summer to put an active Communications Division to work for CD.

While it's usually pretty hard, in publicizing an organization's work, to fairly single out individuals for praise, at the risk of slighting other deserving persons—everyone will agree that John Blanchard and Bob Richmond, pictured above, surely deserve their full share of appreciation, if any people do.

Many of their accomplishments are technical, perhaps boring, to most laymen. But in passing, picture the effort involved in putting together Winchester's radio station, which contains not only town-purchased equipment but much equipment privately loaned to CD to reduce town expenses, maintains transmitting and receiving sets to Sector HQ and also to mobile Winchester CD sets, and provides emergency communications in cases where normal facilities (telephones, etc.) might fail.

Then, administratively, the town's trained radio operators had to be personally reached, planned into the CD force, and an elaborate Communications guide—for use of every CD division—had to be formulated and put to work. As if this were not enough, when operational activity begins, John Blanchard serves the Control Center as Communications Officer, handling and logging every message, and Bob Richmond supervises radio operation and assists John in directing the proper functioning of the telephone Message Center.

Fuller appreciation of the work involved can be gotten, however, from a hypothetical emergency. Here's what Communications is ready to do tomorrow, if a real alert comes to Greater Boston.

On the yellow (warning) alert signal from the State Police Radio, Winchester Police contact Communications Director Blanchard, and through him, the rest of Communications personnel. John arrives immediately at the Control Center, beneath the Police Station, and actually sounds the sirens when the Red Alert (danger) is received.

If communications are needed during the next period, John or Bob can work. But, like most everyone else, their primary job is to "lay low" and keep safe during attack.

When danger is past and work can be done, our Control Center's work can begin. Messages may come from stricken areas in town, or instructions and aid requests come down from Sector HQ (Cambridge) above us. These are primarily received by telephone when possible, and sent out the same way. However, against the possibility of telephone failure, the radio is ready—with an emergency generator to keep it going if Edison power should quit.

A "foolproof" semi-military message handling procedure channels all information and recording of action taken through the message center, and the rest of Control Center, with the Communications Officer, and his deputy, Arthur Schmidt, key figures in "keeping up" on the status of all messages in, subsequent messages out, and checking on action taken. Incoming and outgoing message operators are busy writing and sending.

Inter-com contact is kept up with the Police and Fire Stations, while radio contact is kept open to all radio nets. When telephones are working duplicate messages usually keep radio busy. In case of telephone failure, Radio then reaches Sector and surrounding towns, and contacts Winchester CD through the regular Police squad car radio net, through portable sets (which should be available later this year) usually at Warden Area Hqs. in the schools, and via mobile radio stations in private cars. These mobile stations already number two, one belonging to Bob Richmond, operated thus far by Bill Holdich, and another owned by Bill Byers, both being licensed operators. A third is being built by Ted Lincoln, Jr. All three will be roving "eyes" and ears in an emergency, can even become extra Police squad cars.

The extent to which Winchester's licensed "hams" can be integrated into CD is vital to Communication's success.

Besides those names given above, note should be made of the interest shown by Bill Burton, also a radio operator for the Control Center radio.

In case this regular station should become inoperative, plans provide for moving radio center operations to any of 3 or 4 existing "ham" stations in Winchester. Already Bob Richmond's own station has frequently functioned as the hypothetical "Sector 3" during our town's past practice tests.

More operators will have to be found among volunteers already licensed, or even operators to be trained by Winchester CD, to operate portable sets which round out our local Winchester net. All licensed operators or those willing to train are urged to give their names to the CD Communications Director, John Blanchard, business hours at WI 6-3700, or home at WI 6-0441.

COLLEGE CLUB ART GROUP

With hopes of good driving weather Mrs. Murray Moore has arranged a day for the Art Study Group at the Fitchburg Art Museum, Merriam Parkway, Fitchburg, on Friday, April 4.

Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Harris plan a personally conducted tour of the exhibition, the Youth Library, and the "Trompe L'Oeil" (Trick of the Eye). This exhibition includes tankards, by Rufus Greene and Hester Bateman, cream jug and gravy boat by Paul Revere, coffeepot by Robert. Makepeace, candlesticks, table silver, etc., also hallmarks, a cann and an argyle.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING

On Saturday afternoon, April 5, at 2:30 p. m. the Winchester Historical Society will hold its annual meeting and election of officers, with Miss Lillian G. Pattinson of Dorchester as guest speaker. Her topic will be "History through the Study of Glass", and she will exhibit unusual examples of old glass and glass bottles. The meeting is to be held in the Art Gallery of the Library.

Mrs. T. T. Greenwood will present the report of the nominating committee, and reports will be read by the treasurer, Miss Laura Tolman; the curator, Miss Jean McLellan; secretary, Mrs. George E. Connor; and by the president of the Society, Miss Clara R. Russell. Tribute will be paid at this meeting to four old and valued members of the Winchester Historical Society who have died recently: Patrick Coughlin, William D. Goddard, Ralph Hale, and Miss Lizzie Mason.

Miss Pattinson, a Dorchester school teacher by profession, whose hobby is the study and collecting of old glass, is an informal and delightful speaker who claims to have "no titles", only a keen interest in her hobby and a willingness to share it. There are so many kinds and forms of art glass that Miss Pattinson will limit her talk on Saturday to iridescent glass—as it had its beginnings centuries before the birth of Christ, and as it has fitted into civilizations since that time. Mingled with the story of glass in history itself, as told in glass, to interest both men and women in the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle F. Spencer of Yale street have returned from a month's stay in Florida. They visited Miami, Naples and Venice, with a stop in New York on their return trip.

WINCHESTER FIRST TO MAKE RED CROSS QUOTA IN STATE

For the second consecutive year, the Winchester Chapter of the American Red Cross was the first town in Massachusetts to reach its goal.

In a telegram to Mr. Lewis K. Moore, Chapter Chairman, Eastern Area Director Charles P. Lemieux said: "Congratulations on reaching your goal. We are proud to tell you that you are the first chapter in the state of Massachusetts to achieve this distinction."

In releasing this telegram, Mr. Moore said that all the congratulations went to Mr. Henry Dellicker of Grove street, 1952 Campaign Chairman, Mr. William Cusack, Special Gifts Chairman, and Mr. William Davies, Residential Chairman, who did such a superb job of organization.

Under the capable direction of Fund Treasurer Helen Monroe, $17,000 was processed on Sunday, March 9th, at the Winchester Trust Company Headquarters. To achieve the quota additional gifts have been coming in during the month, while the drive is still officially on. Assisting Miss Monroe at the Bank were:

With the goal attained, the Publicity Chairman, Mrs. S. Kennedy Tully said that bringing the Red Cross story to the people and the success of the campaign itself was due in no small part to the wonderful cooperation of the Winchester Star and the Woburn Times. Merchants all over town gave generously of their space for window displays.

Six hundred and twenty-three workers cooperated in one great effort to put the Winchester Chapter over the top. Contributions are still coming in from Winchester residents who have been out of town this past month.

All veteran Red Cross workers missed Mrs. George Dutton, Executive Director since 1937, who was hospitalized at the time of the drive.

Miss Joan Wolsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolsey, 50 Jefferson road, is at the home of her parents during the spring recess at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier. Classes will resume at the college on April 1.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The annual meeting of the Winchester Women's Council was held on Friday, March 21, in the Art Gallery of the Library. President Mrs. Leo V. Manoli welcomed the representatives of the women's organizations present and introduced Mrs. Richard Harlow, Head of Volunteers for Friends of Winchester Hospital, who gave a most interesting report on the work of the Friends of Winchester Hospital. As this is a volunteer organization they can, of course, always use help but, Mrs. Harlow stated, interest in the organization is growing and they now have a mailing list of 480 with 250 actively interested. The Friends is primarily an educational organization, giving individuals the chance to learn how the hospital runs and how they may help. Along the helpful line, members of the Friends are now engaged in the prodigious task of making 125 pairs of curtains for the hospital. The formal opening of the new wing will be held sometime after September 1st, Mrs. Harlow reported, and with the addition of the new wing the hospital will hold 108 beds and 36 bassinets as compared to the present 81 beds and 31 bassinets.

Mrs. Manoli then introduced the principal speaker of the morning, Mr. J. Joseph Tansey, who gave a most comprehensive talk on the subject of Industrial Arts. We here in Winchester have been very lax in the field of Industrial Arts, said Mr. Tansey. With a total school budget of $700,000 we have allotted only $20,000 for Industrial Arts and $12,000 of this amount goes for salaries. Industrial Arts is not to be confused with Vocational Training, explained Mr. Tansey. Vocational training deals with hand skills whereas Industrial Arts is a plan of education found within general education. Every student, Mr. Tansey feels, should take a course in Home Mechanics. A member of the Building Committee for Additional Facilities for Senior and Junior High Schools Mr. Tansey made an independent survey of Industrial Arts here and elsewhere and as a result of his findings recommended a complete reorganization of the Industrial Arts program and a centralized plant with a composite general shop, metal working and auto machine shop. If we get the new school building the Industrial Arts unit should be included in that but until the new building is a reality we must build a strong Industrial Arts program from within, said Mr. Tansey. The present school committee is aware of our woeful lack in Industrial Arts and Mr. Tansey complimented it on the wonderful work it is doing to correct the situation and he also stated that Mr. Branley of our High School is one of the finest teachers of mechanical drawing in the state. The lively question and answer period that followed Mr. Tansey's talk proved once again the ever present interest in the educational opportunities offered in our Winchester schools.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye of the Military Manpower Committee announced that all boys of draft age now in school should get in touch with the committee as there is no longer any guarantee they will be given 30 days in which to make their plans. She also asked that seniors in high school be asked to advise younger students to finish school as there can be no advancement in the military for anyone lacking a high school diploma.

Mrs. Vincent L. Scanlon of the Winchester Homefronters reported that this organization has now been set up on a permanent basis with a policy of service to the serviceman and woman. She announced the proceeds of a dance given by the Columbus Ladies Club for the Homefronters and asked the co-operation of parents and friends of the servicemen in keeping the present addresses up to date in the library file.

Nominating Chairman, Mrs. George A. Saltmarsh, read the following slate of officers for the coming year:

President, Mrs. Alexander Clark. Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. James H. Devere. Church Group, Mrs. Mortimer S. Ward.

College Group, Mrs. Robert M. Smith. Educational Group, Mrs. Earl Littleton.

Mothers' Group, Mrs. Paul E. LaMarohe. Philanthropic, Mrs. Michael Donlon.

Political, Mrs. Alonzo P. Woodside. Women's Clubs, Mrs. Antonio L. Mezzaacappa.

Nominating Chairman, Mrs. Vincent L. Scanlon.

Members-at-Large, Mrs. Arthur Agnew, Mrs. Richard Fisher. Mrs. Manoli then thanked the members of her board for their help during the past year and Miss Mead for her courtesy to the Council in the use of the library. She then introduced the new president, Mrs. Alexander Clark, who spoke briefly on her hopes and aims for the Council during the coming year.

BAPTIST MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

At 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, April 3rd, in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church, the Mothers and Daughters of the Church will sit down to the Annual Banquet of the Women's League of the Church. Mrs. Frank McCullough is Chairman in charge of the banquet and reservations must be given to her by March 31st.

Women of the League who do not have daughters will follow the usual delightful custom of "adopting" one for the occasion.

Dr. Edwin L. Kautz will give an entertaining talk on "The Price of a Vision" following the meal.

TO GET SPECIAL TRAINING

Miss Mimi Merrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Wolcott Merrow of Fletcher street, is one of 23 senior medical secretaries at Colby Junior College, New London, N. ### CANCER SOCIETY COMMITTEE LUNCHEON

This week the national, state, and local community committees are completing plans for the start of the drive of the American Cancer Society during the month of April. The Winchester campaign will start with the kickoff luncheon at the United Community Services Building (formerly Boston City Club) 14 Somerset street, Boston, at 12:30 on Tuesday, April 1. Dr. Joseph W. Barker, President of the Research Corporation of America, New York City, will be the principal speaker.

The Winchester Committee of the Cancer Society urges all of those who have contributed so generously in past years to keep the drive in mind this coming month, and return their pledge cards promptly on receipt.

The month of April can be a lifesaving month to the thousands who are already threatened with cancer.

Among the eighty-four University of Maine athletes receiving their numeral awards last week was William T. Bird of Winchester. He was among the group receiving major "M" awards in winter sports.

SECOND ADJOURNED SESSION OF TOWN MEETING

Raising Tracks for Crossing Elimination Supported

The adjourned session of the Limited Town Meeting on Thursday evening, March 20, voted 151 to 1 to approve the plan of eliminating the grade crossing in the center by raising the railroad tracks and directed the Board of Selectmen to continue with their negotiations to this end with the State Department of Public Works.

Previously the meeting rejected by almost a big majority two motions introduced by opponents of the overhead tracks plan of elimination, the first seeking to instruct the Selectmen to suspend further promotion of the elimination of the grade crossing by the proposed overhead railroad until a report of progress to date, had been approved by the town, including plans and detailed statement of cost to the town. This motion was lost 152 to 3, though Mr. Hewis doubted this vote and felt the opponents should have numbered one more.

The second motion sought to have all work on the overhead elimination halted for three months to give opportunity for alternate plans to be presented and discussed and to have the town kept completely informed of progress from time to time. The rejection of this motion was unanimous.

Mrs. Snyder introduced the two unsuccessful motions, explaining that she was doing so for Mrs. Woodside, who had been called to Des Moines by the serious illness of her sister. She also spoke for Mr. Mott, who has presented an alternate plan to the overhead elimination, explaining some of the features of his plan about which questions have arisen. Mr. Mott because of his business schedule was unable to be present.

Because of this fact, also, Mr. Hoop presented to the meeting the result of the grade crossing poll taken in Precinct 3. Of 600 post-cards sent out, 297 were returned, 181 being against raising the tracks, 83 in favor and 30 wanting further study of the problem.

Mr. Russell wanted some questions answered, included being how long raising of the tracks will take on which side of the present road, and by what means is traffic going to be gotten through the center while the work of raising the tracks is in progress.

Mr. Hatch, chairman of the Planning Board, reviewed the history of the grade crossing elimination problem in Winchester since 1903, describing the more popular plans for the elimination and recording the Planning Board's support of the Selectmen's decision to go ahead with the plan to raise the tracks. He told in detail of the various meetings that had reached decisions on the crossing elimination, mentioned the hearing held in 1945 when an overwhelming majority of those voting favored the overhead elimination plan, and said that those now opposing the Selectmen's plan are much too late in voicing their opposition.

This opinion was shared by Admiral Burackner, former Commissioner of Public Works, who felt that the town really has for once a real chance to have its dangerous crossing eliminated and that it would be a serious mistake to miss this chance by any further delay or indecision. He reminded the meeting there are many other places where the $4,000,000 for the Winchester grade crossing elimination can be spent by the State and urged the town to accept the offer of the Department of Public Works before it is withdrawn.

Mr. Lyman, in reply to Mr. Russell's questions, said that raising of the tracks will take from 18 months to two years. He said the Selectmen do not know on which side of the present tracks the temporary tracks will be placed, because this matter has not been settled as yet. The Selectmen naturally hope they will go on the westerly side of the tracks, and if they do, the cost to the town for land and property damage will be in the neighborhood of $63,365.00. The railroad, however, wants the temporary tracks to extend on the easterly side of the present roadbed, and if this plan is accepted and the property on the westerly side of Thompson street has to be taken, the cost to the town will be about $801,000. It may be, Mr. Lyman said, that the town will only have to pay for temporary land damages, in which case the cost will be "practically nil". When the overhead tracks are completed it is expected that only a small part of the Winchester Drug Company will have to be taken permanently.

Mr. Lyman explained that the tracks will start to go up at a point 800 feet south of Wedgemere Station and will be five feet above grade at the station. It is planned to have Bacon street go under the tracks instead of over them as at present. Walls will start 200 feet south of Winchester Station with openings for traffic at the station and in the center, the walls extending to a point approximately at the rear of the First National Market. Mr. Lyman said the tracks would return to grade about 1,200 ft. south of Cross street, and that Swanton street would go under the tracks, repeating the procedure at Wedgemere. He emphasized the fact that the walls would be faced with steam-faced granite and would be good looking, and that in the center at the traffic circle there would not be a wall, but at the most, three piers, permitting a view across the center.

Traffic through the center, Mr. Lyman expects to move at all times during construction of the overhead tracks, but here again it is difficult to make a definite statement. Bacon street and Swanton streets will have to be closed during parts of the construction, but in the case of Bacon street there will be a traffic by-pass through Rangley and the former Ginn Estate.

Mr. Lyman was critical of the postcard poll in Precinct 3, stating that a question of this nature is very difficult to frame on such a ballot and intimating that the vote of slightly less than half of those who voted did not prove much of anything.

He told the meeting no one at all had come to the Board of Selectmen about the plans, either to protest them, or to get information about them. He felt that the present opposition should have been voiced much further back, and that it is now a question of accepting the State-approved overhead pass, or getting no elimination of the grade crossing at all. He said that the Kellaway Plan would cost half a million in land damages alone, and that even if the town should vote for this plan, the State will not accept it, the Selectmen having had the positive statement from Commissioner Callahan that the overhead tracks is the only plan the Department of Public Works will accept.

He stated by Police count 87 trains go over the crossing in the center in 24 hours and the average number of automobiles going through the center by limited State count is 26,509. In any day the gates in the crossing are down about four out of 24 hours.

Mr. Lyman asked that motion approving the overhead elimination and authorizing the Selectmen to continue their cooperation with the Department of Public Works be substituted for the first motion offered by Mrs. Woodside, but this procedure the Moderator refused to entertain, saying that a separate motion to this effect would have to be introduced after action on the previous motions presented under the articles. Mr. Lyman made clear during his remarks that the Selectmen had no objection to a referendum on the matter, but did feel that the vote should be clean-cut; is the overhead crossing wanted or not. The question should not be incumbered with provisions for reports and further study.

Mr. Schaefer gave the Finance Committee's blessing to the overhead plan, and Captain Rush, though admittedly far from pleased with it, felt the reasons for its adoption were cogent and supported the Selectmen.

Mr. Freeman asked whether a meeting had to be held to appropriate money for damages before work could commence on the overhead tracks, and Mr. Lyman said that such a meeting would have to be held, and that the town would have another chance to decide upon the plan when the necessary funds for damages came up for consideration.

Mr. Hewis wanted to know about damage to property in the vicinity of Cedar and Florence streets, and differed with Mr. Lyman's estimate of the amount, stating he had seen the plans for the temporary tracks and talked with Public Works engineers, his own reading of the plans showing much more damage done in the vicinity named than the Selectmen visualize.

Mr. Wagner was the last speaker, and felt that the plans that have been considered applied to days long gone by, and that new plans should be worked out in the light of present-day conditions. He felt the overhead tracks do nothing to alleviate the press of traffic in the square, and after consultation with engineers at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the fields of traffic and public planning he believes that bridges should be constructed to carry through traffic, in accordance with modern procedure, if not in the center, then at proper points to be determined by traffic experts and engineers.

About two hours had been consumed in the discussion of the grade crossing and the meeting was becoming impatient for the question. The applause greeting the various speakers, and the almost entire lack of real opposition to the Selectmen's overhead plan made the final results of the various motions a foregone conclusion. Mr. Crockett, reporting for the Personnel Committee, outlined the study of the problems conducted by this group and recommended that a Personnel Board be established to consist of five members, to be appointed by the Moderator, one to be a former member of the Finance Committee, one a town employee and the other three to come at large from the citizens of the town. This committee is to report with its findings and recommendations at the next town meeting.

The meeting supported the motion introduced by the Personnel Board, and also voted to increase the size and scope of authority of the Public Works Council. Mr. Cusack, reporting for the Town Manager Committee, which introduced the last named motion, stated that his committee, as a result of various hearings and study of the question, can find no sentiment either on the part of town department heads or the public, for a town manager. He did, however, state that a minority of the Town Manager Committee does strongly favor this form of government.

The Committee does recommend visual control of all town equipment and personnel for great efficiency of operation and the submission to the Public Works Council by department heads of all major work to be done over a given period so arrangements can be made for the efficient use of personnel and equipment.

The Committee also recommends that town purchasing be centralized and carried out by private citizens, qualified for such action, naming three highly qualified citizens of the town with whom his committee had conferred.

Mr. Cusack emphasized the fact that his committee does not favor the creation of a paid purchasing agent for the town, nor does it as yet believe a Public Works Department is necessary, though future developments may indicate such a department advisable. Mr. Lyman said the Selectmen are not yet ready to accept a Public Works Department, and Mr. Cullen warned the meeting of the dangers of weakening too much the position of the Board of Selectmen by removing from it powers that under the Town form of government are its prerogative.

Mr. Vincent Farnsworth reported for the Town By-Law Committee, offering three revisions of the laws under which Winchester operates, and asking that the Committee be continued for further consideration of the question of town by-laws.

This request was granted and the three revisions offered were accepted, the first making it illegal for anyone but a police officer in the performance of his duty to enter private premises for the purpose of peeping in windows or otherwise spying upon occupants of private premises.

The second revision makes it illegal to remove protective devices like gratings, manhole covers, barriers or signs from where they have been placed and the third increases the charge and storage for cars removed under the orders of the Superintendent of Streets so that ways can be plowed during snow storms. The new charges are $10 for removal and $1 per day for storage.

Under Article 36 the report of the Winford Way Committee, appointed to consider with Medford authorities, the possibility of doing something about a dangerous swampy pond of Winford Way in Medford, was received and the committee discharged. Mr. Ives reported for the Names Committee, asking that the new road running from High to Ridge street be named "Old Farm Road" because this for many years has been farm land. Mr. Symmes found no fault with this name but asked that the motion be amended to read "Lockeland Road" in honor of the Locke family, among the earliest settlers of the town and public spirited citizens since the first of Winchester.

The meeting accepted Mr. Symmes amendment. Under Article 37, asking that the town accept General Laws, Chapter 41, Section 81-K to 81-U, relative to municipal planning which strengthens the powers of the Selectmen acting as a Board of Survey to protect the town's interests in the matters of new subdivisions in town, no action was taken.

Mr. Lyman had just explained the desirability of giving the Selectmen power to halt undesirable subdivisions and impractical layouts and easements when Mr. Russell took the floor. He admitted he had not read carefully all the provisions of the act under consideration, but he felt some of the restrictions set up under it are a bit severe, and asked that, because of the lateness of the hour the meeting adjourned. The tired members needed no urging, and at 11:18 the meeting ended.

Upon the motion of Mr. Guild the meeting stood for a moment of silence in honor of Arthur W. Dean, former town official. One hundred sixty-four members were present.

"Elmer Herskind, Director of Uncle Elmer's Song Circle Broadcast over WEEL on Sundays at 8:30 a. m."

UNCLE ELMER AT BAPTIST CHURCH

"Uncle Elmer", radio favorite for many years over Station WEEL, presenting every Sunday morning a program of spiritual uplift, cheer, hope and comfort, will again be at the First Baptist Church Sunday evening, March 30th, at 7 o'clock, to greet the many friends of his radio audience.

Elmer Herskind (Uncle Elmer) is not an ordained minister, yet, in his half hour radio program, achieves the result of many sermons preached on "Love Thy Neighbor", the "Golden Rule" and "It is Better to Give than to Receive".

Uncle Elmer and his Song Circle, including the Pleasantville choir, Sunshine Trio, Neighborhood Quartette and featured soloists, and consisting of a group of young men and women who devote their spare time to bring to an enormous and appreciative audience not only worthwhile entertainment but an extremely interesting and helpful program, will present inspirational and well loved songs. They have made over eight hundred personal Sunday evening appearances in New England and Canadian churches of all denominations, as well as various hospitals and Army and Navy Camps. Close to a half million people during the past twenty years have packed schools, churches and town meeting halls to hear and enjoy the song circle which Uncle Elmer's friendly philosophy.

No admission will be charged. However, a free will offering will be taken. Everyone is welcome.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. Miriam Van Waters, Superintendent of the Framingham Reformatory for Women addressed the Women's Auxiliary at the Bear Hill Golf Club on Thursday, March 20.

Her subject of Crime in reference to rehabilitation proved very interesting. She stated that Women are less criminal than men but statistics show they are treated more harshly. Dr. Van Waters urges the passage of bill No. 2189 allowing girls to work by the day or night for recompense.

An important business meeting followed under the capable direction of the Auxiliary's President, Mrs. Thomas P. Devlin.

The next meeting will be the annual Tea on May 15th.

Mr. Leo Francis Garvey of Hillside avenue, well known local attorney and former chairman of the School Committee, is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention, running with a group of candidates who are undecided.

PACK 3 MEETING
On Tuesday night, March 25th, Pack 3 held its monthly Pack meeting which was also its exhibition night. The evening was highlighted by singing, presentation of achievement awards and awarding of prizes for work on exhibition done by individuals and dens.
Awards for achievement were as follows:
Robert Gowdy — Wolf and Gold Arrow.
Robert Puzzo and Carl Gustin — Bear.
Buddy Sunberg — Wolf and 2 Silver Arrows.
Dorjan Mullien — Wolf.
Wayne Ghirardini — Bear, Gold Arrow, 2 Silver Arrows.
Peter Luitweiler — Bear, Silver Arrow, Gold Arrow.
Stephen Hood — Bear and Gold Arrow.
Judging of the exhibition was done by Mr. Benjamin Gowing, Dr. Robert Millican and Mr. Edward Little.
The following awards were made for individual work:
First prize — Ned Mullaney — Collection of Fishing Flies.
Second prize — Dick Elliott — Tomahawk.
Third prize — John Baldwin — Sailboat.
Wolf
First prize — Buddy Sunberg — Aircraft Carrier.
Second prize — Jay Dolben — Book of Match Covers.
Third prize — Philip Davenport — Water Wheel.
Lion
First prize — Robert Rolfeffson — Hat Rack.
Second prize — Henry Dietz — Storage Plant.
Third prize — John Sabin — Destroyer.
Prizes were awarded to the following Dens:
First prize — Den 8 — (Mothers — Mrs. Bentley and Mrs. Baldwin).
Second prize — Den 7 — (Mothers — Mrs. Joslin and Mrs. Lemmons).
Third prize — Den 1 — (Mothers — Mrs. Sundberg and Mrs. Ashenton).
Prizes were awarded by Mr. Gowing when the judging was completed and he explained, and really meant it, when he said that the judges' job had been very difficult. The quality of all the displays far surpassed anything that had been seen in previous years and their excellence presented the judges with real problems in selecting winners. Mr. Gowing congratulated the entire Pack and the Den Mothers for their excellent work and agreed that it was one of the best exhibitions he had seen.

COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION
At a morning coffee at the home of Mrs. Frederick Walsh on Yale street, the committee in charge of the Community Concert Association met yesterday to hear the final reports of the eminently successful membership drive which closed on Saturday noon, March 22nd. General Chairman Mrs. Clarence P. Whorf and her co-Chairmen Mrs. Neil H. Borden and Mrs. D. Reid Weedon, Jr., were happy to report that memberships were sold to the entire capacity of the High School auditorium. Names of those who were unable to obtain memberships have been placed on a waiting list for the following season.
Mrs. Stanley E. Neill reported on the Directors' meeting which was held on Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Whorf's home to choose the artists to appear in Winchester next year. This list, which promises another distinguished season, will be announced shortly, as soon as contracts have been signed and dates verified.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NEWS
Remember to listen to Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Chairman of Legislation, Mass. State Federation of Women's Clubs, on Thursday, April 3, at 7:00 p. m. on radio station WMEX. Her subject will be "Government Of the People or Over the People."
On Monday, March 24, 1952, The Fortnightly was hostess to Division of Legislation Conference held at the Crawford Memorial Church. Many guests were present as well as our own members. We were delighted to have Mrs. Hiscoe, our president, back with us to call the meeting to order at 10:30 a. m. After singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee" with Mrs. Frank McCullough at the piano, the Pledge to Our Flag was repeated. Rev. John Snook, Jr., of the Methodist Church gave the invocation. Mrs. Hiscoe then welcomed the members and guests and introduced Mrs. Whitman, who presented Mrs. Lewis C. Stevens, President of Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, in the absence of Mrs. H. H. Given, who was ill.
Mrs. Stevens expressed her appreciation for all the many services rendered by her club members during the past two years. She believes that these successes are possible because of the fact that we "Stand United."
Mrs. Whitman, Chairman of Division of Legislation, then presented other state officers, Mrs. Charles Newcomb, Chairman of Topics Subscriptions, really gave us a sales talk on the importance of this federated magazine. It contains a wealth of information for such a small price.
Mrs. Jos. S. Burns, Chairman of Public Health, went into detail on the importance of this subject. Since it is a social science, more stress should be made on it than now is because the happiness of the people and the health of the nation depend upon it.
Mrs. Addison Simmons, Chairman of Foreign Service, told of the much needed help being given in Korea by means of Care packages. She told of the thousands of children in Greece kidnapped by the Communists and the part that Federation of Women's Clubs have played in trying to get these children returned.
In spite of all these timely messages by the women, we all eagerly awaited the one man speaker of the evening, Mr. Norman MacDonald, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers' Associations. He spoke on "Spotlight on Doing Under the Golden Dome." He first paid the women a fine compliment for their interest in state, national and world affairs and urged them to interest themselves more in public affairs.
A delicious luncheon was served at 12:30, having been prepared by Mrs. Harold Berquist and her committee.
At 1:45 p. m. Mrs. Hiscoe called the meeting to order and a short business meeting followed. At the close Mrs. Whitman introduced Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, Chairman of Music. She urged more women's clubs to form choral groups. She then presented the Arlington Women's Club Choral Group, of which she is leader and director. Their first selection was timely chosen for this occasion, "Massachusetts, Salute Thee" written and arranged by Mrs. Warren C. Whitman. They delighted us with a number of selections, including several from Victor Herbert. Their last selection was "I Love You Truly." These few moments of relaxation were very much appreciated. How about it, Fortnightlies, why can't we have a choral group of our own?
